Last Time Out

NEW ORLEANS – The 25th-ranked Tulane football team (7-1, 4-0 AAC) made it a memorable Homecoming in front of a stadium-record crowd of 30,100 with a thrilling 38-28 victory over Memphis (4-4, 2-3 AAC) on Saturday afternoon at Yulman Stadium.

Tyjae Spears led the offensive charge for Tulane in running for 125 yards and a touchdown. Shaadie Clayton-Johnson picked up 29 yards on the ground plus a rushing score. Michael Pratt had an effective day in going 20-for-29 for 158 yards and a passing touchdown. He also ran for 19 yards and another touchdown. Dea Dea McDougle had five catches for 37 yards. Duece Watts made his three catches count as one was for a touchdown. Jha'Quan Jackson brought electricity into the game as he returned a punt for 90 yards and a touchdown. He also had a pair of catches for 22 yards. Tyrick James totaled a pair of catches for 26 yards. Shae Wyatt recorded a catch for 30 yards.

Dorian Williams was all over the field to help lead the defense with his 12 tackles, a sack and a pass breakup. Nick Anderson totaled 11 tackles, a stop for loss and a pass breakup. Larry Brooks picked up seven tackles, an interception and a pass breakup. Macon Clark had six tackles and a forced fumble. Tylo Phillips recorded four tackles and a fumble recovery. Keith Cooper Jr. totaled two tackles and a sack. Jarius Monroe ended up with six tackles, including the game-sealing interception in the final minute of the contest in the home end zone. Lance Robinson had a tackle and a pass breakup.

Tulane's offense gained 344 yards on the day with 186 of them coming on the ground. The squad controlled the clock at 32:16 to 27:44 in time of possession. The Green Wave defense forced three turnovers and pitched a shutout in the first 30 minutes of the game to allow Tulane to take control and go into the break with a 35-0 advantage.

Tulane wasted no time scoring in the opening quarter as the team marched down the field and dented the scoreboard first on a six-yard rush from Pratt to finish off the 11 play, 80-yard drive and made it 7-0 at the 9:39 mark. The Green Wave's quick start continued as Jackson, after a defensive stop, returned the ensuing punt for a 90-yard touchdown at the 8:09 mark. It was the first Tulane punt return touchdown since Fred Smith against UAB in 2004. The Tulane offense kept its foot on the gas as the scored the third touchdown of the opening quarter on a three-yard rush from Spears to go up 21-0. The Tulane offense started the scoring in the second quarter on a four-yard score from Clayton-Johnson to complete the 10-play, 77-yard drive to increase the lead to 28-0 with 5:49 remaining in the opening half. The Green Wave onslaught continued as the program scored just before the end of the half on the six-yard pitch and catch from Pratt to Watts. The play completed a 10 play, 53-yard drive and put the home team up 35-0 at the break. After Memphis scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter, and another score to start the fourth to cut the lead to 14 at 35-21, kicker Valentino Ambrosio helped stem the tide with his 25-yard field goal to finish off a 13-play, 67-yard drive and again put Tulane up three scores. Memphis added a touchdown in the fourth to make the final score 38-28.

Tulane 19th in Season's First College Football Playoff Ranking

Tulane Football was ranked 19th by the College Football Playoff Selection Committee in its first ranking of the 2022 season Tuesday evening.

This is the Green Wave's first-ever CFP ranking in the playoff's nine-year history.

Tulane (7-1 overall, 4-0 American Athletic Conference) also moved up four AP spots (also to 19th) and garnered 455 points on Sunday.

The program ascended three places and now has 369 points to show for its Coaches poll total (ranked 21st), making it the highest-ranking Group of Five member in all three polls.

Tulane Cracks AP's Top 20; Ranked 21st by Coaches

Despite being idle Saturday, Tulane Football continued its climb in the national rankings, checking in at 19th in the latest Associated Press Top 25 and 21st in the AFCA USA Today Coaches Poll.

The Green Wave (7-1 overall, 4-0 American Athletic Conference) moved up four AP spots and garnered 455 points.

The program ascended three places and now has 369 points to show for its Coaches total, making it the highest-ranking Group of Five member in either poll.

The first College Football Playoff rankings of the season will be released Tuesday night at 6 p.m. CT on ESPN. A ranking there would be a first for the Green Wave for a process that began in 2014.

Pratt Named to Davey O'Brien QB Class of 2022

Tulane quarterback Michael Pratt was selected to the Davey O'Brien QB Class of 2022 on Tuesday.

The Boca Raton, Florida native is one of 40 named to the list. For the third straight year, voting will take place on the award's @DaveyOBrien Instagram, Twitter and Facebook accounts. The top five vote-getters on each of the three social media platforms will receive bonus committee votes which will be added to the ballots cast by the National Selection Committee.

Pratt tossed one touchdown in the 38-28 win over Memphis on October 22 to give him 53 for his career, which has him in sole possession of sixth place on Tulane's all-time list. He has now thrown a touchdown in 28 of his 29 career games with the Green Wave.

On the season, he has completed 131 of his 194 passes with 12 touchdowns against just three interceptions for 1,718 yards. He also has 215 yards on the ground with five more scores. Nationally, he ranks 18th in passing yards per attempt (8.9) and is 22nd in pass efficiency (159.2).

Green Wave Spreads the Wealth

Tulane's offense has done an elite job of spreading around its passing game in 2022. In fact, the Green Wave is tied with Michigan for the top spot nationally with 20 different players who have registered at least one reception this season.

Jackson, Williams Recognized for Play Against Memphis

Tulane punt returner Jha'Quan Jackson and linebacker Dorian Williams were both given weekly honors following the Green Wave's 38-28 win over Memphis on Saturday.

The duo was named Special Teams and Defensive Players of the Week, respectively by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) and also took home American Athletic Conference (AAC) honor roll acclaim.

Jackson ripped off a 90-yard punt return for touchdown at the 8:09 mark of the first quarter. The play was the second-longest punt return in school and league history. It was also the Green Wave's first punt return for a score since Fred Smith pulled it off against UAB in 2004. Jackson also had an eight-yard rush and two catches for 22 yards from his wide receiver position on the offensive side.

Williams had a team-high 12 tackles, including a sack to go with a pass breakup and two quarterback hurries. Eight of the Indian Land, S.C. native's stops were of the solo variety as the unit shut out the Tigers in the first half. Williams has 59 tackles this season, a figure that leads the team.

Halftime Success

Since the beginning of the 2016 season, Tulane is 32-9 (.780) when leading or tied at the half and 33-9 (.786) when leading or tied through three quarters under head coach Willie Fritz.

Fritz Climbs the List

Tulane head coach Willie Fritz collected his 38th Green Wave victory in the triumph over Memphis. That total moves him past Chris Scelfo for second on the school's all-time win list. Clark Shaughnessy (59, 1915-20 and 1922-26) holds the top mark.

Pratt Eyes Richard for Fifth

Quarterback Michael Pratt tossed one touchdown against Memphis to give him 53 for his career, which has him in sole possession of sixth place on Tulane's all-time list.

Next up on the list is Lester Richard's total of 55, which is good for fifth.

Patrick Ramsey (72) has the all-time school record.

Pratt has now thrown a touchdown in 28 of his 29 career games with the Green Wave. The only contest when he didn't find the end zone was November 6, 2021 at UCF.

Fritz Named to American Heart Association's Coach of the Year Award Watch List

The American Heart Association selected 25 coaches for its 2022 Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Award Watch List, a list of current coaches in considerations for the annual top honor.

The award is given each January to a college football coach for contributions that make the sport better for athletes and fans alike by demonstrating grit, integrity, and a winning approach to coaching and life—both on and off the field.

Now in its 37th year, the Coach of the Year award winner will be announced live from Houston's Post Oak Hotel on Wednesday, January 11, 2023 during an awards ceremony presented by Marathon Oil. The Watch List, Finalists and Coach of the Year recipient are voted on by the National Sports Media Association, the Bryant Awards Executive Leadership Team and the Bryant Family.

Fritz is one of only four Group of Five coaches named to the list, along with UCF's Gus Malzahn, UTSA's Jeff Traylor and South Alabama's Kane Wommack.

Going Bowling!

The Green Wave is one of just four G5 schools to be 4-0 or better in conference play, along with UTSA, Buffalo and Boise State.

Tulane is bowl-eligible for the fourth time under head coach Willie Fritz. No other head coach in program history had more than one bowl appearance with the Green Wave.

The Green Wave's 4-0 start in AAC play is also a program-first.

Clark, Pratt Add More Honors for Green Wave Football

Tulane's Macon Clark and Michael Pratt both earned recognition for their performances following the Green Wave's 24-9 win over East Carolina on Saturday. Clark, a senior nickelback from St. Rose, Louisiana, earned Defensive Player of the Week honors from the American Athletic Conference and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. Pratt, a junior quarterback from Boca Raton, Florida, took home AAC Honor Roll acclaim.

Clark had a game-high nine tackles, including two for loss and a second-half interception on Saturday. Both of the negative-yardage stops came on third down and forced either a punt or a field goal attempt by the visiting Pirates. The interception was a third-down play as well and set up a 42-yard field goal by the Green Wave. Clark led a Tulane effort that limited ECU to a 7-for-19 combined clip on third and fourth down and its lowest scoring output since a six-point showing in the 2019 season opener at NC State.

This is the fourth time in six weeks that Tulane has captured the league's top defensive honor. Clark won it in Week 1, while linebacker Nick Anderson was victorious in Weeks 3 and 5.

Pratt was incredible, tying his career high with 27 completions and setting a new yardage mark (326) as he registered a pair of touchdown tosses and another on the ground. His first score game on a three-yarder to tight end Tyrick James 42 seconds into the second quarter and his one-yard plunge at the 4:12 mark of the second period gave Tulane a 14-9 halftime lead. His 44-yard strike down the sideline to wideout Duece Watts helped salt the game away for the host Green Wave.

Wave Garners Slew of Monday Awards

The Tulane football team received a bevy of individual awards on Monday, following Friday's 27-24 overtime win at Houston.

Linebacker Nick Anderson matched his career high with 14 tackles — the most by an American Athletic Conference player — and delivered a key defensive play to lead the Green Wave. His forced fumble midway through the third quarter was returned for a touchdown by Jadon Canady to break what had been a 7-7 tie. For his efforts, Anderson was named AAC and Louisiana Sports Writers Association Defensive Player of the Week.

Fellow linebacker Dorian Williams also racked up a season-high 11 tackles, to go with 1.5 tackles for loss and a sack in the victory. He was also bestowed East-West Shrine Bowl Defensive Player of the Week honors on Monday.

Finally, Kai Horton, Tulane's third-string quarterback, was pressed into duty on the team's second series Friday evening. He finished the game 11-for-21 for 132 yards with three touchdown passes and no interceptions. He got Tulane on the board first with a 13-yard toss to Duece Watts in the second quarter, but saved his best work for the contest's final minutes. He drove the team 75 yards in two minutes, 25 seconds and tied the game with a three-yard pass to Tyrick James with 39 seconds left in regulation. He then delivered the walk-off triumph with a 10-yard strike in the corner of the end zone to running back Tyjae Spears in overtime. On Monday, Horton was named to the AAC Honor Roll and received an honorable mention nod for the Tyler Rose Award.

ACTIVE DIVISION I FBS HEAD COACH (NCAA) WIN LIST

RK.	HEAD COACH	WINS
1.	Nick Saban	275
2.	Mack Brown	272
3.	Brian Kelly	269
4.	Kirk Ferentz	195
5.	Willie Fritz	192

Willie Fritz enters his seventh season as the head coach for Tulane. He enters the season with high expectations following the 2021 season.

Fritz continued his model of success in Uptown in 2020, as he guided the Green Wave to a third straight bowl appearance for the first time in program history.

The Green Wave's appearance in the 2020 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl marked the 14th bowl appearance in the 127-year history of the program. Three of those bowl appearances have occurred under Fritz's watch. Fritz's three bowl appearances are the most by any Tulane football head coach.

Fritz also has helped Tulane re-establish its presence on the professional circuit, as 19 of his former Green Wave players have seen action in the National Football League since he stepped foot on campus in 2016. Eight of his former Tulane pupils have been selected in the NFL Draft.

The 2021 season marks Fritz's 29th year as a collegiate head coach and 25th leading a NCAA program at the Division I or Division II level. Under Fritz's watch, the Green Wave have established a renewed sense of enthusiasm and a winning culture for the Green Wave. Tulane also has posted a 5-0 record against teams from the state of Louisiana during his tenure.

During the 2020 regular season, Tulane overcame numerous off the field challenges as part of the COVID-19 pandemic. Despite the pandemic, Fritz guided his team into 12 games during the season. Tulane was one of just 15 teams nationally to play in 12 or more games during the 2020 campaign. In those 12 games, Tulane faced three nationally-ranked teams and in the process, the Green Wave picked up their first win over a Top 25 team in over 30 years, as they defeated 25th-ranked Army at home.

Tulane's victory over Army was one of four wins in its final five games that propelled the Green Wave to their third straight bowl appearance.

The Green Wave once again finished the year with a strong running game, as they averaged 217.1 yards per game - a figure that ranked led in the American Athletic Conference. Defensively, Tulane ranked among the nation's best in putting pressure on the quarterback, averaging 3.17 sacks per game which led the AAC and ranked 13th nationally.

Following the 2020 regular season, Tulane had eight student-athletes recognized by The American - the most since the Green Wave joined the league in 2014. Additionally, the eight all-conference players were the most since the Green Wave put 10 on the All-Conference USA team in 1997.

In April of 2021, Tulane had two players picked in the NFL Draft, as Cameron Sample and Patrick Johnson were selected by the Cincinnati Bengals (fourth round) and the Philadelphia Eagles (seventh round), respectively.

In 2019, Fritz led the Green Wave to the best start to a season in over 20 years and came within one spot of cracking the top 25 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Poll for the first time over 20 years. The Green Wave also established a strong home field advantage under Fritz's direction in 2019, as they posted a 5-1 record inside Yulman Stadium. Tulane's 5-1 mark at home was the team's best record at Yulman Stadium since the venue opened in 2014.

Tulane's 2019 unit also featured an impressive rushing attack, which ranked 13th in the country, averaging 249.8 yards per game. The Green Wave rushing attack finished the year with a program-best 3,162 yards. Tulane closed the year with 5,841 yards of total offense, which marked just fourth time in program history the Green Wave surpassed 5,000 yards of offense.

Tulane also finished the 2019 campaign by scoring 430 points for the season, averaging 33.1 points per game.

The Green Wave defensive unit also posted another impressive season, as they held eight of their 13 opponents under their season average in total yards and forced 16 turnovers.

Following the regular season, Tulane had four players receive All-American Athletic Conference honors for the third straight season, as Patrick Johnson, Corey Dublin, P.J. Hall and Thakarius Keyes were all honored by the league office.

Tulane's victory in the 2020 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl marked first time in program history that the Green Wave had won a bowl game in back-to-back seasons.

In April of 2020, Tulane continued its NFL Draft tradition, as the Green Wave had a pair of players selected for the second time in three years. Wide receiver Darnell Mooney and cornerback Keyes were taken in the fifth (Chicago Bears) and seventh rounds (Kansas City Chiefs), respectively. The selections of Mooney and Keyes on day three of the event marked the fourth consecutive year that a Tulane player was drafted.

Of Fritz's 222 wins, 86 have come on the NCAA Division I level (Football Bowl Subdivision and Football Championship Subdivision), and 164 of his wins have come at NCAA institutions.

In 2018, Fritz guided Tulane to its first bowl trip since 2013, a share of the American Athletic Conference title and just its sixth winning season in the last 37 years, while facing the second toughest schedule among teams from the conference.

Tulane closed the year with wins in five of its last six games to earn a share of the American Athletic Conference West Division crown and a bid to the 2018 AutoNation Cure Bowl where it would post a convincing win over in-state rival Louisiana-Lafayette to claim its fifth bowl victory in program history. Three of the Green Wave's losses in 2018 came by seven points or less.

Following the regular season, four Tulane players earned all-conference honors from The American, while eight players earned all-league recognition from Phil Steele College Football Magazine, including junior long snapper Geron Eatherly, who also earned fourth team all-America from the publication.

Under Fritz's watchful eye in 2018, Tulane's rushing attack was among the nation's best, ranking 23rd in the nation and fifth in The American, averaging 218.2 yards per game. The Green Wave rushing attack also proved to be an explosive unit, as they totaled 18 plays of 30 yards or more.

Tulane's defense also proved to be a force, as it ranked third in The American in total defense, but it was the Green Wave's ability to rush the quarterback that made the unit one of the best in the conference. In 2018, Tulane averaged just over three sacks per game (3.15), which led The American and ranked eighth nationally. Sophomore Patrick Johnson led the way for the Green Wave as he averaged nearly one sack a game (0.81), which ranked 12th in the FBS and second in The American.

The Green Wave continued their success in April of 2019, as cornerback Donnie Lewis Jr., was drafted in the seventh round by the Cleveland Browns.

The 2017 campaign saw Tulane finish the year with its highest win total since 2013 despite facing one of the nation's toughest schedules, as nine of its opponents earned invitations to bowl games.

In addition, four of the Green Wave's losses came by six points or fewer.

The Green Wave earned three victories against bowl participants in 2017 while four players earned All-Conference honors. Among the players was former cornerback Parry Nickerson, who was named to the all-conference first team, and earned All-America honors from Sports Illustrated and SB Nation.

Under Fritz's direction, the 2017 squad featured an aggressive ground attack, which averaged 231.5 yards per game – a figure that ranked No. 20 nationally and fourth in The American – and an opportunistic defensive unit that recorded 19 turnovers.

The 2017 season also served as a milestone season for Fritz as he earned his 200th victory as a head coach and in the process became just the fourth active Football Bowl Subdivision head coach with 200 wins.

The program's success continued into April, as Fritz saw two of his players selected in the 2018 NFL Draft. Nickerson and defensive lineman Ade Aruna were both selected in the sixth round by the New York Jets and Minnesota Vikings, respectively.

In his first season in the Crescent City, Fritz guided Tulane to a 4-8 record and earned his first AAC victory in the team's season finale at UConn. The Green Wave posted 30 or more points in five games in 2016, four of which were in wins. Three of the eight losses were by seven points or fewer with Tulane leading in four of those games entering the fourth quarter.

Following the year, linebacker Nico Marley, defensive tackle Tanzel Smart and Nickerson earned All-AAC honors. In the spring of 2017, Smart was selected in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Rams.

The Shawnee Mission, Kansas, native was named the Green Wave's 40th head coach by director of athletics Troy Dannen on Dec. 15, 2015. At that time, he brought 33 years of collegiate experience as a football student-athlete or coach to Tulane, having led teams to six combined conference championships (one at every level he had coached) and two bowl appearances. He was twice named the national coach of the year, including the American Football Coaches Association FCS Coach of the Year in 2011 and the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year in 2012.

Fritz came to New Orleans from Georgia Southern where he spent two seasons and led the Eagles to a combined record of 17-7, a 2014 Sun Belt Conference title and the school's first-ever NCAA postseason bowl game with their berth in the 2015 GoDaddy.com Bowl. Georgia Southern concluded the 2015 regular season with an 8-4 overall record including a mark of 6-2 in conference play.

Fritz led the Eagles to a 9-3 overall record and a perfect mark of 8-0 in conference play during his first season at Georgia Southern in 2014, and was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. However, the school's waiver claim to allow Georgia Southern to play in a bowl despite being in the second year of the NCAA's transition period was denied. Georgia Southern was the first team in NCAA history to post an undefeated conference season in its first season at the Division I FBS level.

Prior to Georgia Southern, Fritz served as head coach at Sam Houston State from 2010-13 where he led the Bearkats to back-to-back Southland Conference titles, NCAA Division I Championship game appearances in 2011 and 2012 and a third straight NCAA playoff berth in 2013.

Honored as the American Football Coaches Association Regional Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2012, Fritz was selected by the media and his peers in the Southland Conference as the league's Coach of the Year in 2011 after his team went a perfect 7-0 in conference play.

In 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston State posted the two highest single-season win totals in program history with marks of 14-1 (2011) and 11-4 (2012) and Bearkat players were showered with accolades. More than 50 earned All-Southland Conference honors under Fritz in his last four years, not including additional Player of the Year, Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year awards. All-America status from national coaching and media outlets were bestowed on 11 Sam Houston State players during his tenure.

Prior to his head coaching tenure at Sam Houston State, Fritz revitalized Central Missouri and guided the Mules to 11 winning seasons in 13 years. The NCAA Division II program's ledger included two 10-win seasons with the 2001 Mule squad earning its first postseason trip in more than 30 years.

In 2002, Central Missouri made its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs and was the Mid-America Athletic Association (MIAA) co-champion a year later. A 97-47 mark in 13 seasons ranks Fritz as the winningest coach in the program's history. He was the only coach to ever win seven or more games in eight consecutive seasons, and his victory total ranked him 15th among active Division II coaches at the time. In addition to his impressive 67.4 winning percentage with the Mules, Fritz coached his student-athletes to achieve their potential on the field and in the classroom. More than 150 Mules were recognized with All-MIAA honors with 41 first-team selections and 24 All-Americans.

Under Fritz, Central Missouri recorded a graduation rate of 84 percent with 144 MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll recipients, 14 Academic All-Region and three Academic All-Americans. For all of his accomplishments guiding Central Missouri, Fritz was honored by the school with induction into its Athletics Hall of Fame on Feb. 11, 2017.

Prior to his time at Central Missouri and Sam Houston State as a head coach, Fritz spent two different stints as an assistant coach with the Bearkats. He first served as a graduate assistant during the 1984 and 1985 seasons when he earned a master's degree in kinesiology. During that two-year stretch, Sam Houston State posted a 16-6 record and won the 1985 Gulf Star Conference championship. He returned to Sam Houston State a second time in 1991 after spending four years at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas under legendary coach Dick Foster, earning a promotion to defensive coordinator after one year. He stayed another two years to work for Coach Foster's Skip and the Red Ravens. During the 1990 season, Fritz served as the defensive coordinator where he helped guide the Red Ravens to a national title.

When Fritz was brought back to Sam Houston State in 1991 under Ron Randleman as secondary and special teams coach, he instilled an attitude of excellence on special teams that would last more than a decade. The Bearkats' "block party" racked up 80 blocked punts, field goals and extra points beginning with Fritz in 1991 and lasting through 2004.

In Fritz's first year as a full-time assistant coach at Sam Houston State in 1991, the Bearkats won the Southland Conference. That league title and an eight-win season launched Sam Houston State to the program's second-ever appearance in the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

Fritz departed Huntsville for a second time prior to the 1993 season for an opportunity to be the head coach at Blinn College, where he would turn around a program that had only five wins in its previous three seasons.

From 1993-96, Fritz and the Buccaneers would rack up 39 victories against only five losses with a tie and claim two national junior college championships. He was inducted into the NJCAA Football Hall of Fame for the environment of success he created at Blinn.

One of seven children, Fritz is the son of the late Harry Fritz, who coached the Central Missouri football team in 1952 before continuing his career as the Executive Director at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) in Kansas City. The elder Fritz also served at several colleges and universities in administration as an athletics director.

Fritz played on two conference title teams and was a four-year starter at defensive back for Randleman at Pittsburg State and remained at his alma mater as a student assistant coach in 1982. Early coaching stops included a year at Shawnee Mission Northwest (Kansas) High School in 1983 and Willis (Texas) High School in 1986, with his return to Sam Houston State for graduate school in between those years.

Fritz and his wife Susan have three children, a son and two daughters. Their son Wesley, who was married in the summer of 2019 to his wife Rebecca, is a member of the Tulane football staff and serves as the Director of Player Personnel. The couple's daughter Lainie is an elementary school teacher and sports broadcaster while their youngest daughter Brooke is a CPA for Deloitte in Houston, Texas.
