Last Time Out

CINCINNATI – The 19th-ranked Tulane football team (10-2, 7-1 AAC) continued to be arguably the best story in college football this season in earning the 27-24 road win over No. 24 CFP Cincinnati (9-3, 6-2 AAC) on Friday at Nippert Stadium. The win propelled the Green Wave to the school's first-ever American Athletic Conference regular season football championship and means that Tulane will host the conference title game next Saturday at Yulman Stadium (3 p.m. CT).

The win also snapped the Bearcats' 32-game home winning streak. The win was also the first time that Tulane has beaten a ranked team since 1984 and the first time that the Green Wave have won a ranked-against-ranked match up since 1956 against Ole Miss.

Tyjae Spears led the charge with his 181 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 35 carries. Michael Pratt totaled 162 yards passing and a touchdown. He also ran for 30 yards. Lawrence Keys led the team with his five catches for 55 yards. Shae Wyatt had three catches for 62 yards. Duece Watts made his one catch of the game count as it was the go-ahead score for the program with just over five minutes remaining in the contest.

Dorian Williams tied for the team lead with his 12 tackles. He also had an interception. Nick Anderson tallied 12 tackles as well. Larry Brooks recorded six tackles and Jarius Monroe totaled five. Keith Cooper had five tackles and a sack on the Bearcats' final drive.

Tulane's offense ended the contest with 383 yards (221 rushing and 162 passing). The program's defense limited the Bearcats to a total of 337 yards.

Tulane continued the trend of scoring first as Valentino Ambrosio knocked in the 34-yard attempted to finish off the eight play, 37-yard drive and give the Green Wave a 3-0 advantage with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter.

Cincinnati tied the game to start the second quarter on the 28-yard field goal from Ryan Coe. Tulane took the lead back on an epic 15 play, 77-yard drive that covered 8:25 in clock time that finished off on the 11-yard touchdown run from Spears. It was the longest time-consuming drive for Tulane this season.

Cincinnati tied the game on its next drive on a 35-yard touchdown run.

Ambrosio gave Tulane the 13-10 lead right before the break with his Tulane career-long 47-yard field goal to complete the seven play, 45-yard drive. Tulane added on a touchdown midway through as Spears rushed it in from two yards out to put the Green Wave up 20-10 with 6:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Cincinnati rallied for a touchdown on its next possession as Ryan Montgomery ran it in from eight yards out to put the score at 20-17 late in the third quarter.

Cincinnati took its first lead of the game as Montgomery ran it in from the 15 to put the Bearcats up 24-20 with 6:27 remaining in the contest.

Tulane calmly took the lead back at Pratt connected with Duece Watts from 30 yards out to complete the 75-yard drive and give the Green Wave the lead back at the 5:10 mark of the fourth quarter.

Latest Poll Rankings for the Green Wave

5. Tulane 5

Turnovers!

Tulane, who picked off Cincinnati on Friday via a Dorian Williams interception, has now won its last nine games when forcing a turnover (eight this year and USF last year).

Notables from Cincinnati

The Green Wave snapped Cincinnati's 32-game home win streak. The win was also the first time that Tulane has beaten a ranked team since 1984 and the first time that the Green Wave have won a ranked-against-ranked match up since 1956 against Ole Miss.

Tyjae Spears' 181 rushing yards was the second-most ever allowed by a Luke Fickell-coached Cincinnati program. His rushing total also made him just the sixth Tulane player to run for 1,000 yards in a single season.

Spears scored two touchdowns Friday to move him into ninth all-time with 28 total TDs during his Green Wave career. Eddie Price and JaJuan Dawson are tied for seventh at 31.

The win snapped the Green Wave's 61-game losing streak against AP-ranked teams.

Historic

The Green Wave has 10 victories on the season, the most since its magical 12-0 season of 1998. It is just the third time that the program has won nine or more games in a season since 1948. (2022: 10-2, 1998: 12-0, 1973: 9-3).

Tulane finished with seven AAC victories, which is the most in the program's history and the most league wins ever since the Green Wave posted eight in 1934 as members of the Southeastern Conference.

Green Wave Spreads the Wealth

Tulane's offense has done an elite job of spreading around its passing game in 2022. In fact, the Green Wave is tied with Michigan for the top spot nationally with 20 different players who have registered at least one reception this season.

Halftime Success

Since the beginning of the 2016 season, Tulane is 35-9 (.795) when leading or tied at the half and 36-9 (.800) when leading or tied through three quarters under head coach Willie Fritz.

Pratt Eyes King for Second

Quarterback Michael Pratt tossed a touchdown against Cincinnati to give him 62 for his career, placing him third place on Tulane's all-time list.

Next up on the list is Shaun King's total of 70, which is good for second.

Patrick Ramsey (72) has the all-time school record.

Pratt has now thrown a touchdown in 32 of his 33 career games with the Green Wave. The only contest when he didn't find the end zone was November 6, 2021 at UCF.

Fritz Climbs the List

Tulane head coach Willie Fritz collected his 41st Green Wave victory in the triumph over Cincinnati. That total moves him three wins clear of Chris Scelfo for second on the school's all-time win list. Clark Shaughnessy (59, 1915-20 and 1922-26) holds the top mark.

AAC Players of the Week

The program had seven AAC Players of the Week this season (Nick Anderson twice, Macon Clark twice, Dorian Williams, Michael Pratt, Tyjae Spears). Prior to 2022, Tulane had only ever garnered as many as two in any one season.

Academic All-District

The Tulane football program saw four of its student-athletes honored nationally as members of the College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-District Division I Football Team, the organization announced Tuesday.

Tulane's four Football Academic All-District selections this year are graduate student offensive lineman Prince Pines, graduate student offensive lineman Kanan Ray, senior linebacker Nick Anderson and junior quarterback Michael Pratt. The four are the first Tulane football players to be chosen Academic All-District since 2015 when running back Marshall Wadleigh took home the honor.

Notables from SMU

The Green Wave also had a 100-yard rusher (Spears - 121) and a 100-yard receiver (Shae Wyatt - 104) for the first time since September 19, 2019 when Darius Bradwell (113 rushing) and Jalen McCleskey (120 receiving) did it against Houston.

Quarterback Michael Pratt registered three rushing touchdowns for the first time in his career. He became just the fourth FBS player with three or more rushing touchdowns and three or more passing touchdowns in the same game this season along with Bo Nix (Oregon), Jayden Daniels (LSU) and John Rhys Plumlee (UCF).

Lighting up the Scoreboard

Tulane's 59 points against SMU on Thursday was its most against an FBS team since registering 66 against Southern Miss on September 26, 2020. It was also the most against an AAC opponent since putting 62 on Tulsa on October 7, 2017.

Career-Highs Against the Knights

Three Green Wave players set career marks in the 38-31 loss to UCF. Duece Watts corralled six receptions, while Jha'Quan Jackson hauled in 95 receiving yards. Defensively, Devean Deal made his first start at Tulane's "Joker" position and posted 10 total tackles.

#PackYulman

A crowd of 27,317 fans packed Yulman Stadium for the game against UCF, the fifth-highest total in stadium history. The Green Wave set a stadium record (30,100) in the 38-28 Homecoming victory over Memphis.

Award Winners Following Tulsa Victory

The Green Wave picked up three honors this week following the program's 27-13 win at Tulsa on Saturday.

American Athletic Conference and Louisiana Sports Writers Association Defensive Player of the Week: LB Dorian Williams

Greater New Orleans Amateur Athlete of the Month: QB Michael Pratt

AAC Honor Roll: RB Tyjae Spears

Ground Game

In the 27-13 win at Tulsa, the Green Wave had two 100+ yard rushers in a game for the first time since Cameron Carroll (163) and Stephon Huderson (120) pulled it off against Southern Miss on September 26, 2020. Saturday's 357 total Tulane rushing yards was also the most for the program since that same USM contest when it piled up 427.

Pratt Named to Davey O'Brien QB Class of 2022

Tulane quarterback Michael Pratt was selected to the Davey O'Brien QB Class of 2022 on Tuesday.

The Boca Raton, Florida native is one of 40 named to the list. For the third straight year, voting will take place on the award's @DaveyOBrien Instagram, Twitter and Facebook accounts. The top five vote-getters on each of the three social media platforms will receive bonus committee votes which will be added to the ballots cast by the National Selection Committee.

On the season, he has completed 142 of his 213 passes with 14 touchdowns against just four interceptions for 1,843 yards. He also has 251 yards on the ground with five more scores. Nationally, he ranks 22nd in pass efficiency (157.3) and is 23rd in passing yards per attempt (8.7).

Jackson, Williams Recognized for Play Against Memphis

Tulane punt returner Jha'Quan Jackson and linebacker Dorian Williams were both given weekly honors following the Green Wave's 38-28 win over Memphis on Saturday.

The duo was named Special Teams and Defensive Players of the Week, respectively by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) and also took home American Athletic Conference (AAC) honor roll acclaim.

Jackson ripped off a 90-yard punt return for touchdown at the 8:09 mark of the first quarter. The play was the second-longest punt return in school and league history. It was also the Green Wave's first punt return for a score since Fred Smith pulled it off against UAB in 2004. Jackson also had an eight-yard rush and two catches for 22 yards from his wide receiver position on the offensive side.

Williams had a team-high 12 tackles, including a sack to go with a pass breakup and two quarterback hurries. Eight of the Indian Land, S.C. native's stops were of the solo variety as the unit shut out the Tigers in the first half. Williams has 59 tackles this season, a figure that leads the team.

Fritz Named to American Heart Association's Coach of the Year Award Watch List

The American Heart Association selected 25 coaches for its 2022 Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Award Watch List, a list of current coaches in considerations for the annual top honor.

The award is given each January to a college football coach for contributions that make the sport better for athletes and fans alike by demonstrating grit, integrity, and a winning approach to coaching and life both on and off the field.

Now in its 37th year, the Coach of the Year award winner will be announced live from Houston's Post Oak Hotel on Wednesday, January 11, 2023 during an awards ceremony presented by Marathon Oil. The Watch List, Finalists and Coach of the Year recipient are voted on by the National Sports Media Association, the Bryant Awards Executive Leadership Team and the Bryant Family.

Fritz is one of only four Group of Five coaches named to the list, along with UCF's Gus Malzahn, UTSA's Jeff Taylor and South Alabama's Kane Wommack.

3.	Brian Kelly	272
4.	Kirk Ferentz	198
5.	Willie Fritz	195

Willie Fritz enters his seventh season as the head coach for Tulane. He enters the season with high expectations following the 2021 season.

Fritz continued his model of success in Uptown in 2020, as he guided the Green Wave to a third straight bowl appearance for the first time in program history.

The Green Wave's appearance in the 2020 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl marked the 14th bowl appearance in the 127-year history of the program. Three of those bowl appearances have occurred under Fritz's watch. Fritz's three bowl appearances are the most by any Tulane football head coach.

Fritz also has helped Tulane re-establish its presence on the professional circuit, as 19 of his former Green Wave players have seen action in the National Football League since he stepped foot on campus in 2016. Eight of his former Tulane pupils have been selected in the NFL Draft.

The 2021 season marks Fritz's 29th year as a collegiate head coach and 25th leading a NCAA program at the Division I or Division II level. Under Fritz's watch, the Green Wave have established a renewed sense of enthusiasm and a winning culture for the Green Wave. Tulane also has posted a 5-0 record against teams from the state of Louisiana during his tenure.

During the 2020 regular season, Tulane overcame numerous off the field challenges as part of the COVID-19 pandemic. Despite the pandemic, Fritz guided his team into 12 games during the season. Tulane was one of just 15 teams nationally to play in 12 or more games during the 2020 campaign. In those 12 games, Tulane faced three nationally-ranked teams and in the process, the Green Wave picked up their first win over a Top 25 team in over 30 years, as they defeated 25th-ranked Army at home.

Tulane's victory over Army was one of four wins in its final five games that propelled the Green Wave to their third straight bowl appearance.

The Green Wave once again finished the year with a strong running game, as they averaged 217.1 yards per game - a figure that ranked led in the American Athletic Conference. Defensively, Tulane ranked among the nation's best in putting pressure on the quarterback, averaging 3.17 sacks per game which led the AAC and ranked 13th nationally.

Following the 2020 regular season, Tulane had eight student-athletes recognized by The American - the most since the Green Wave joined the league in 2014. Additionally, the eight all-conference players were the most since the Green Wave put 10 on the All-Conference USA team in 1997.

In April of 2021, Tulane had two players picked in the NFL Draft, as Cameron Sample and Patrick Johnson were selected by the Cincinnati Bengals (fourth round) and the Philadelphia Eagles (seventh round), respectively.

In 2019, Fritz led the Green Wave to the best start to a season in over 20 years and came within one spot of cracking the top 25 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Poll for the first time over 20 years. The Green Wave also established a strong home field advantage under Fritz's direction in 2019, as they posted a 5-1 record inside Yulman Stadium. Tulane's 5-1 mark at home was the team's best record at Yulman Stadium since the venue opened in 2014.

Tulane's 2019 unit also featured an impressive rushing attack, which ranked 13th in the country, averaging 249.8 yards per game. The Green Wave rushing attack finished the year with a program-best 3,162 yards. Tulane closed the year with 5,841 yards of total offense, which marked just fourth time in program history the Green Wave surpassed 5,000 yards of offense.

Tulane also finished the 2019 campaign by scoring 430 points for the season, averaging 33.1 points per game.

The Green Wave defensive unit also posted another impressive season, as they held eight of their 13 opponents under their season average in total yards and forced 16 turnovers.

Following the regular season, Tulane had four players receive All-American Athletic Conference honors for the third straight season, as Patrick Johnson, Corey Dublin, P.J. Hall and Thakarius Keyes were all honored by the league office.

Tulane's victory in the 2020 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl marked first time in program history that the Green Wave had won a bowl game in back-to-back seasons.

In April of 2020, Tulane continued its NFL Draft tradition, as the Green Wave had a pair of players selected for the second time in three years. Wide receiver Darnell Mooney and cornerback Keyes were taken in the fifth (Chicago Bears) and seventh rounds (Kansas City Chiefs), respectively. The selections of Mooney and Keyes on day three of the event marked the fourth consecutive year that a Tulane player was drafted.

Of Fritz's 222 wins, 86 have come on the NCAA Division I level (Football Bowl Subdivision and Football Championship Subdivision), and 164 of his wins have come at NCAA institutions.

In 2018, Fritz guided Tulane to its first bowl trip since 2013, a share of the American Athletic Conference title and just its sixth winning season in the last 37 years, while facing the second toughest schedule among teams from the conference.

Tulane closed the year with wins in five of its last six games to earn a share of the American Athletic Conference West Division crown and a bid to the 2018 AutoNation Cure Bowl where it would post a convincing win over in-state rival Louisiana-Lafayette to claim its fifth bowl victory in program history. Three of the Green Wave's losses in 2018 came by seven points or less.

Following the regular season, four Tulane players earned all-conference honors from The American, while eight players earned all-league recognition from Phil Steele College Football Magazine, including junior long snapper Geron Eatherly, who also earned fourth team all-America from the publication.

Under Fritz's watchful eye in 2018, Tulane's rushing attack was among the nation's best, ranking 23rd in the nation and fifth in The American, averaging 218.2 yards per game. The Green Wave rushing attack also proved to be an explosive unit, as they totaled 18 plays of 30 yards or more.

Tulane's defense also proved to be a force, as it ranked third in The American in total defense, but it was the Green Wave's ability to rush the quarterback that made the unit one of the best in the conference. In 2018, Tulane averaged just over three sacks per game (3.15), which led The American and ranked eighth nationally. Sophomore Patrick Johnson led the way for the Green Wave as he averaged nearly one sack a game (0.81), which ranked 12th in the FBS and second in The American.

The Green Wave continued their success in April of 2019, as cornerback Donnie Lewis Jr., was drafted in the seventh round by the Cleveland Browns.

The 2017 campaign saw Tulane finish the year with its highest win total since 2013 despite facing one of the nation's toughest schedules, as nine of its opponents earned invitations to bowl games.

In addition, four of the Green Wave's losses came by six points or fewer.

The Green Wave earned three victories against bowl participants in 2017 while four players earned All-Conference honors. Among the players was former cornerback Parry Nickerson, who was named to the all-conference first team, and earned All-America honors from Sports Illustrated and SB Nation.

Under Fritz's direction, the 2017 squad featured an aggressive ground attack, which averaged 231.5 yards per game – a figure that ranked No. 20 nationally and fourth in The American – and an opportunistic defensive unit that recorded 19 turnovers.

The 2017 season also served as a milestone season for Fritz as he earned his 200th victory as a head coach and in the process became just the fourth active Football Bowl Subdivision head coach with 200 wins.

The program's success continued into April, as Fritz saw two of his players selected in the 2018 NFL Draft. Nickerson and defensive lineman Ade Aruna were both selected in the sixth round by the New York Jets and Minnesota Vikings, respectively.

In his first season in the Crescent City, Fritz guided Tulane to a 4-8 record and earned his first AAC victory in the team's season finale at UConn. The Green Wave posted 30 or more points in five games in 2016, four of which were in wins. Three of the eight losses were by seven points or fewer with Tulane leading in four of those games entering the fourth quarter.

Following the year, linebacker Nico Marley, defensive tackle Tanzel Smart and Nickerson earned All-AAC honors. In the spring of 2017, Smart was selected in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Rams.

The Shawnee Mission, Kansas, native was named the Green Wave's 40th head coach by director of athletics Troy Dannen on Dec. 15, 2015. At that time, he brought 33 years of collegiate experience as a football student-athlete or coach to Tulane, having led teams to six combined conference championships (one at every level he had coached) and two bowl appearances. He was twice named the national coach of the year, including the American Football Coaches Association FCS Coach of the Year in 2011 and the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year in 2012.

Fritz came to New Orleans from Georgia Southern where he spent two seasons and led the Eagles to a combined record of 17-7, a 2014 Sun Belt Conference title and the school's first-ever NCAA postseason bowl game with their berth in the 2015 GoDaddy.com Bowl. Georgia Southern concluded the 2015 regular season with an 8-4 overall record including a mark of 6-2 in conference play.

Fritz led the Eagles to a 9-3 overall record and a perfect mark of 8-0 in conference play during his first season at Georgia Southern in 2014, and was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. However, the school's waiver claim to allow Georgia Southern to play in a bowl despite being in the second year of the NCAA's transition period was denied. Georgia Southern was the first team in NCAA history to post an undefeated conference season in its first season at the Division I FBS level.

Prior to Georgia Southern, Fritz served as head coach at Sam Houston State from 2010-13 where he led the Bearkats to back-to-back Southland Conference titles, NCAA Division I Championship game appearances in 2011 and 2012 and a third straight NCAA playoff berth in 2013.

Honored as the American Football Coaches Association Regional Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2012, Fritz was selected by the media and his peers in the Southland Conference as the league's Coach of the Year in 2011 after his team went a perfect 7-0 in conference play.

In 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston State posted the two highest single-season win totals in program history with marks of 14-1 (2011) and 11-4 (2012) and Bearkat players were showered with accolades. More than 50 earned All-Southland Conference honors under Fritz in his last four years, not including additional Player of the Year, Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year awards. All-America status from national coaching and media outlets were bestowed on 11 Sam Houston State players during his tenure.

Prior to his head coaching tenure at Sam Houston State, Fritz revitalized Central Missouri and guided the Mules to 11 winning seasons in 13 years. The NCAA Division II program's ledger included two 10-win seasons with the 2001 Mule squad earning its first postseason trip in more than 30 years.

In 2002, Central Missouri made its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs and was the Mid-America Athletic Association (MIAA) co-champion a year later. A 97-47 mark in 13 seasons ranks Fritz as the winningest coach in the program's history. He was the only coach to ever win seven or more games in eight consecutive seasons, and his victory total ranked him 15th among active Division II coaches at the time. In addition to his impressive 67.4 winning percentage with the Mules, Fritz coached his student-athletes to achieve their potential on the field and in the classroom. More than 150 Mules were recognized with All-MIAA honors with 41 first-team selections and 24 All-Americans.

Under Fritz, Central Missouri recorded a graduation rate of 84 percent with 144 MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll recipients, 14 Academic All-Region and three Academic All-Americans. For all of his accomplishments guiding Central Missouri, Fritz was honored by the school with induction into its Athletics Hall of Fame on Feb. 11, 2017.

Prior to his time at Central Missouri and Sam Houston State as a head coach, Fritz spent two different stints as an assistant coach with the Bearkats. He first served as a graduate assistant during the 1984 and 1985 seasons when he earned a master's degree in kinesiology. During that two-year stretch, Sam Houston State posted a 16-6 record and won the 1985 Gulf Star Conference championship. He returned to Sam Houston State a second time in 1991 after spending four years at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas under legendary coach Dick Foster, earning a promotion to defensive coordinator after one year. He stayed another two years to work for Coach Foster's Skip and the Red Ravens. During the 1990 season, Fritz served as the defensive coordinator where he helped guide the Red Ravens to a national title.

When Fritz was brought back to Sam Houston State in 1991 under Ron Randleman as secondary and special teams coach, he instilled an attitude of excellence on special teams that would last more than a decade. The Bearkats' "block party" racked up 80 blocked punts, field goals and extra points beginning with Fritz in 1991 and lasting through 2004.

In Fritz's first year as a full-time assistant coach at Sam Houston State in 1991, the Bearkats won the Southland Conference. That league title and an eight-win season launched Sam Houston State to the program's second-ever appearance in the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

Fritz departed Huntsville for a second time prior to the 1993 season for an opportunity to be the head coach at Blinn College, where he would turn around a program that had only five wins in its previous three seasons.

From 1993-96, Fritz and the Buccaneers would rack up 39 victories against only five losses with a tie and claim two national junior college championships. He was inducted into the NJCAA Football Hall of Fame for the environment of success he created at Blinn.

One of seven children, Fritz is the son of the late Harry Fritz, who coached the Central Missouri football team in 1952 before continuing his career as the Executive Director at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) in Kansas City. The elder Fritz also served at several colleges and universities in administration as an athletics director.

Fritz played on two conference title teams and was a four-year starter at defensive back for Randleman at Pittsburg State and remained at his alma mater as a student assistant coach in 1982. Early coaching stops included a year at Shawnee Mission Northwest (Kansas) High School in 1983 and Willis (Texas) High School in 1986, with his return to Sam Houston State for graduate school in between those years.

Fritz and his wife Susan have three children, a son and two daughters. Their son Wesley, who was married in the summer of 2019 to his wife Rebecca, is a member of the Tulane football staff and serves as the Director of Player Personnel. The couple's daughter Lainie is an elementary school teacher and sports broadcaster while their youngest daughter Brooke is a CPA for Deloitte in Houston, Texas.
