Last Time Out

The Tulane football team (2-0) cruised to a 52-0 victory over visiting Alcorn State (0-2) on Saturday night at Yulman Stadium.

The Tulane offense put up 558 yards in the game, while the defense pitched the first shutout for the program since 1997 in limiting Alcorn State to 109 total yards.

The Green Wave offense finished a yard short of eclipsing 400 yards through the air, while recording 159 yards and four touchdowns on the ground.

Quarterback Michael Pratt connected on 17 of 21 attempts for a career-high 318 yards and three touchdowns. Justin Ibieta came off the bench and went 7-for-9 for 72 yards through the air. He also rumbled into the end zone from three yards out on the ground.

Wide receiver Shae Wyatt caught five of the six balls he was targeted on for 130 yards and a touchdown. He had 110 yards after contact and was helped by his 72-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter. Jha'Quan Jackson hauled in four passes for 61 yards and a touchdown. Dea Dea McDougle caught three passes for 47 yards, plus he had a rush for 16 yards and his first career touchdown. Tight end Tyrick James tallied a pair of catches for 51 yards and a touchdown. Iverson Celestine led the team in rushing with 11 carries for 43 yards. Lucas Barisas had a healthy 5.6 yards a carry on his seven attempts for 39 yards on the ground. Shaadie Clayton had three carries for seven yards and a touchdown. Lawrence Keys III made his one rushing attempt count around the goal line for a touchdown.

The Tulane defense was led by safety Larry Brooks' six stops. Defensive lineman Carlos Hatcher picked up three tackles, one stop for loss and half a sack. Linebacker Corey Platt Jr. tallied three tackles plus a sack. Defensive lineman Devean Deal also had three tackles plus a stop for loss. Defensive lineman Patrick Jenkins had two stops for loss among his three tackles. Linebacker Dorian Williams had a pair of stops plus an interception that he returned for 13 yards. Defensive lineman Noah Talianich had a pair of tackles plus half a sack. Nickel Macon Clark had three tackles and two pass breakups.

The Green Wave defense surrendered just four first downs in the game plus 60 yards rushing and 49 passing. Tulane's offense went 7-for-9 in red zone opportunities and was 7-for-13 on third down.

Tulane began the scoring as Kriston Esnard made his first career field goal from 26 yards to finish off a 12-play, 64-yard drive and put the Green Wave up 3-0. Clayton scored the next touchdown for the Green Wave from six yards out to complete a three play, 27-yard drive and increase the score to 10-0 midway through the first quarter. Keys made it a three-score game as he rushed it in from seven yards out to put Tulane up 17-0 with 3:10 remaining in the opening quarter. The second quarter saw Jackson reach the end zone on a 16-yard pitch-and-catch from Pratt to put the Green Wave up 24-0. Tulane reached paydirt once more before the half as James hauled in 25-yard pass from Pratt to increase the lead to 31-0 before the break.

The second half started quickly for the Green Wave offense as Wyatt and Pratt connected on a 72-yard touchdown on a one-play drive to put Tulane up 38-0. McDougle's 16-yard rush allowed the Green Wave to go up 45-0 with 8:58 remaining in the third quarter. Ibieta finished the scoring for Tulane with his three-yard rush to end a long 13 play, 86-yard drive and make the final score 52-0.

The Green Wave plays its first road contest of the season it travels to Manhattan, Kansas to take on Kansas State (2-0) on Saturday, September 17, at 2 p.m.

Michael Pierce caught two touchdowns from Terrence Jones, including a 1-yarder in the left corner of the end zone with 14 seconds to play, to give the Green Wave the victory.

The touchdown came 1:40 after Kansas State went up 16-13 on a disputed 16-yard touchdown pass from Carl Straw to Greg Washington, who fumbled in the end zone but was ruled to be in possession long enough for a score.

Tulane took over at its own 23 after the score and Jones completed 3 of 5 passes, two to Pierce for 46 yards, to the Kansas 3. An interference call in the end zone moved the ball to the 1, and Jones hit Pierce on the next play for the winning touchdown.

Tulane clinched the win when Andy Treadway recovered a Straw fumble with 10 seconds to play.

Jones completed 12 of 33 passes with one interception for 180 yards and two touchdowns. Pierce had seven catches for 134 yards and two TDs. For Kansas State, Straw completed 18 of 37 with one interception for 223 yards and one TD but was sacked 9 times for 64 yards.

The first half boiled down to a kicking duel between the Wildcats' Mark Porter and Tulane's Todd Wiggins.

Porter kicked field goals of 44 and 39 yards for Kansas State to give the Wildcats a 6-3 halftime lead. Wiggins connected from 44 yards in the second quarter after earlier missing from 27 and 34 yards.

Wiggins hit again from 32 yards in the third period after Pierce's 38-yard reception gave Tulane a 10-6 edge.

The Wildcats' Lee Pickett, who converted two fourth-and-one situations, was the leading rusher of the night with 112 yards on 16 carries.

2-0

Tulane improved to 2-0 this season with the victory over Alcorn State. The Green Wave is unblemished after the first two games of the season for the first time since 2002 and only the fourth time since 1975. The team is 2-0 overall for the 33rd time in school history. The last time it started 3-0 was the undefeated 12-0 season of 1998.

Stingy Against the Pass

The Green Wave has surrendered just 17 yards passing against UMass and 49 to Alcorn State in its first two outings of 2022. Tulane currently leads the nation in:

Completions allowed (9)
Completion percentage allowed (36.0)
Passing yards allowed (66)
Yards per attempt allowed (2.6)
Passing Touchdowns allowed (0)
Passer Rating allowed (26.8)
Passing Yards/Game allowed (33.0)

Tulane is also second nationally in scoring defense (5.0) and total defense (163.0).

Pratt Eyes Jones for Sixth

Tulane quarterback Michael Pratt tossed three touchdowns on Saturday to give him 46 for his career, tying him for Tulane's sixth-place mark set by Terrence Jones. Patrick Ramsey (72) has the all-time Tulane record.

Pratt has now thrown a touchdown in 22 of his 23 career games with the Green Wave. The only contest when he didn't find the end zone was November 6, 2021 at UCF.

Clark, Spears Earn Weekly Honors

Tulane nickelback Macon Clark and Tyjae Spears each earned weekly honors following the UMass victory.

Clark led a Tulane defense that limited Massachusetts to 17 passing yards and 217 total yards in a 42-10 win against the Minutemen. He had seven tackles to go with a forced fumble and a key interception that set up the Green Wave's third touchdown of the game. Later in the day, he was also recognized by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association with its DPOW honor.

Spears garnered AAC Honor Roll acclaim following his three-touchdown game against the Minutemen. Those three scores represented a career-high for the Ponchatoula native and all came in the game's first 24 minutes.

11 Tulane Football Players Earn Phil Steele All-AAC Preseason Honors

The Tulane University football team placed 11 players on the 2022 Phil Steele Preseason All-American Athletic Conference team this week.

Earning first team honors were running back Tyjae Spears and linebacker Dorian Williams.

Tight end Tyrick James, center Sincere Haynesworth, punt returner Jha'Quan Jackson and long snapper Ethan Hudak were tabbed second team.

Third team honors were given to defensive end Darius Hodges and linebacker Nick Anderson. Quarterback Michael Pratt, cornerback Jadon Canady and safety Macon Clark landed on the fourth team.

Spears earned his first-team nod after a breakout year for the Green Wave, closing it out with a career-high 863 yards and nine touchdowns. The Louisiana native rushed for over 100 yards in four of the last five games of the season, posting a career-high 264 yards in the season finale versus Memphis.

Williams took home first-team recognition after he established himself as one of the league's top linebackers. As a junior, the Fort Mill, South Carolina, native averaged 6.1 tackles per game and accumulated 73 total on the season.

James earns his second-team nod after posting career-high single-season stats with 31 receptions for 429 yards and four touchdowns through the 2021 campaign.

Haynesworth earned second-team honors after he played a key role in paving the way for Tulane's rushing attack which averaged 164.8 yards per game – a figure that ranked fifth in The American. Haynesworth made starts in all 12 games this past season.

Punt returner Jha' Quan Jackson made the second team after averaging 12.2 yards per return. Jackson had 13 returns for 132 yards on the season.

Hudak established himself as one of the most reliable long snappers in the AAC and took home second-team honors. He also appeared in all 12 games.

TULANE VS. KANSAS STATE SERIES

SECOND MEETING

DATE	LOCATION	RESULT
9/17/88	NEW ORLEANS	W, 20-16

Hodges tallied 40 tackles, 16.5 tackles for loss, 5.0 sacks and forced two fumbles to finish his redshirt freshman campaign.

Anderson put his name on the third team after battling back from a lower-body injury that forced him to miss two games. The Mississippi native finished the season strong with 56 tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks and a forced fumble.

Pratt posted a career-best 2,544 yards of total offense and threw for 26 touchdowns in his sophomore campaign. He went seven straight games with a touchdown pass and earned AAC Honorable Mention after throwing three touchdowns for a total of 296 yards and rushing for 34 yards and a touchdown at Oklahoma.

Clark earned his first all-conference nod this season after finishing as the Green Wave's leading tackler with 74 stops on this season. The Louisiana native averaged 6.1 tackles per game and picked off four passes for a total of 78 yards this season, ranking third in the AAC.

Canady proved to be one of the team's top defensive backs totaling 55 tackles in his 12 starts for the Wave.

Willie Fritz enters his seventh season as the head coach for Tulane. He enters the season with high expectations following the 2021 season.

Fritz continued his model of success in Uptown in 2020, as he guided the Green Wave to a third straight bowl appearance for the first time in program history.

The Green Wave's appearance in the 2020 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl marked the 14th bowl appearance in the 127-year history of the program. Three of those bowl appearances have occurred under Fritz's watch. Fritz's three bowl appearances are the most by any Tulane football head coach.

Fritz also has helped Tulane re-establish its presence on the professional circuit, as 19 of his former Green Wave players have seen action in the National Football League since he stepped foot on campus in 2016. Eight of his former Tulane pupils have been selected in the NFL Draft.

The 2021 season marks Fritz's 29th year as a collegiate head coach and 25th leading a NCAA program at the Division I or Division II level. Under Fritz's watch, the Green Wave have established a renewed sense of enthusiasm and a winning culture for the Green Wave. Tulane also has posted a 5-0 record against teams from the state of Louisiana during his tenure.

During the 2020 regular season, Tulane overcame numerous off the field challenges as part of the COVID-19 pandemic. Despite the pandemic, Fritz guided his team into 12 games during the season. Tulane was one of just 15 teams nationally to play in 12 or more games during the 2020 campaign. In those 12 games, Tulane faced three nationally-ranked teams and in the process, the Green Wave picked up their first win over a Top 25 team in over 30 years, as they defeated 25th-ranked Army at home.

Tulane's victory over Army was one of four wins in its final five games that propelled the Green Wave to their third straight bowl appearance.

The Green Wave once again finished the year with a strong running game, as they averaged 217.1 yards per game - a figure that ranked led in the American Athletic Conference. Defensively, Tulane ranked among the nation's best in putting pressure on the quarterback, averaging 3.17 sacks per game which led the AAC and ranked 13th nationally.

Following the 2020 regular season, Tulane had eight student-athletes recognized by The American - the most since the Green Wave joined the league in 2014. Additionally, the eight all-conference players were the most since the Green Wave put 10 on the All-Conference USA team in 1997.

In April of 2021, Tulane had two players picked in the NFL Draft, as Cameron Sample and Patrick Johnson were selected by the Cincinnati Bengals (fourth round) and the Philadelphia Eagles (seventh round), respectively.

In 2019, Fritz led the Green Wave to the best start to a season in over 20 years and came within one spot of cracking the top 25 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Poll for the first time over 20 years. The Green Wave also established a strong home field advantage under Fritz's direction in 2019, as they posted a 5-1 record inside Yulman Stadium. Tulane's 5-1 mark at home was the team's best record at Yulman Stadium since the venue opened in 2014.

Tulane's 2019 unit also featured an impressive rushing attack, which ranked 13th in the country, averaging 249.8 yards per game. The Green Wave rushing attack finished the year with a program-best 3,162 yards. Tulane closed the year with 5,841 yards of total offense, which marked just fourth time in program history the Green Wave surpassed 5,000 yards of offense.

Tulane also finished the 2019 campaign by scoring 430 points for the season, averaging 33.1 points per game.

The Green Wave defensive unit also posted another impressive season, as they held eight of their 13 opponents under their season average in total yards and forced 16 turnovers.

Following the regular season, Tulane had four players receive All-American Athletic Conference honors for the third straight season, as Patrick Johnson, Corey Dublin, P.J. Hall and Thakarius Keyes were all honored by the league office.

Tulane's victory in the 2020 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl marked first time in program history that the Green Wave had won a bowl game in back-to-back seasons.

In April of 2020, Tulane continued its NFL Draft tradition, as the Green Wave had a pair of players selected for the second time in three years. Wide receiver Darnell Mooney and cornerback Keyes were taken in the fifth (Chicago Bears) and seventh rounds (Kansas City Chiefs), respectively. The selections of Mooney and Keyes on day three of the event marked the fourth consecutive year that a Tulane player was drafted.

Of Fritz's 222 wins, 86 have come on the NCAA Division I level (Football Bowl Subdivision and Football Championship Subdivision), and 164 of his wins have come at NCAA institutions.

In 2018, Fritz guided Tulane to its first bowl trip since 2013, a share of the American Athletic Conference title and just its sixth winning season in the last 37 years, while facing the second toughest schedule among teams from the conference.

Tulane closed the year with wins in five of its last six games to earn a share of the American Athletic Conference West Division crown and a bid to the 2018 AutoNation Cure Bowl where it would post a convincing win over in-state rival Louisiana-Lafayette to claim its fifth bowl victory in program history. Three of the Green Wave's losses in 2018 came by seven points or less.

Following the regular season, four Tulane players earned all-conference honors from The American, while eight players earned all-league recognition from Phil Steele College Football Magazine, including junior long snapper Geron Eatherly, who also earned fourth team all-America from the publication.

Under Fritz's watchful eye in 2018, Tulane's rushing attack was among the nation's best, ranking 23rd in the nation and fifth in The American, averaging 218.2 yards per game. The Green Wave rushing attack also proved to be an explosive unit, as they totaled 18 plays of 30 yards or more.

Tulane's defense also proved to be a force, as it ranked third in The American in total defense, but it was the Green Wave's ability to rush the quarterback that made the unit one of the best in the conference. In 2018, Tulane averaged just over three sacks per game (3.15), which led The American and ranked eighth nationally. Sophomore Patrick Johnson led the way for the Green Wave as he averaged nearly one sack a game (0.81), which ranked 12th in the FBS and second in The American.

The Green Wave continued their success in April of 2019, as cornerback Donnie Lewis Jr., was drafted in the seventh round by the Cleveland Browns.

The 2017 campaign saw Tulane finish the year with its highest win total since 2013 despite facing one of the nation's toughest schedules, as nine of its opponents earned invitations to bowl games.

In addition, four of the Green Wave's losses came by six points or fewer.

The Green Wave earned three victories against bowl participants in 2017 while four players earned All-Conference honors. Among the players was former cornerback Parry Nickerson, who was named to the all-conference first team, and earned All-America honors from Sports Illustrated and SB Nation.

Under Fritz's direction, the 2017 squad featured an aggressive ground attack, which averaged 231.5 yards per game – a figure that ranked No. 20 nationally and fourth in The American – and an opportunistic defensive unit that recorded 19 turnovers.

The 2017 season also served as a milestone season for Fritz as he earned his 200th victory as a head coach and in the process became just the fourth active Football Bowl Subdivision head coach with 200 wins.

The program's success continued into April, as Fritz saw two of his players selected in the 2018 NFL Draft. Nickerson and defensive lineman Ade Aruna were both selected in the sixth round by the New York Jets and Minnesota Vikings, respectively.

In his first season in the Crescent City, Fritz guided Tulane to a 4-8 record and earned his first AAC victory in the team's season finale at UConn. The Green Wave posted 30 or more points in five games in 2016, four of which were in wins. Three of the eight losses were by seven points or fewer with Tulane leading in four of those games entering the fourth quarter.

Following the year, linebacker Nico Marley, defensive tackle Tanzel Smart and Nickerson earned All-AAC honors. In the spring of 2017, Smart was selected in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Rams.

The Shawnee Mission, Kansas, native was named the Green Wave's 40th head coach by director of athletics Troy Dannen on Dec. 15, 2015. At that time, he brought 33 years of collegiate experience as a football student-athlete or coach to Tulane, having led teams to six combined conference championships (one at every level he had coached) and two bowl appearances. He was twice named the national coach of the year, including the American Football Coaches Association FCS Coach of the Year in 2011 and the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year in 2012.

Fritz came to New Orleans from Georgia Southern where he spent two seasons and led the Eagles to a combined record of 17-7, a 2014 Sun Belt Conference title and the school's first-ever NCAA postseason bowl game with their berth in the 2015 GoDaddy.com Bowl. Georgia Southern concluded the 2015 regular season with an 8-4 overall record including a mark of 6-2 in conference play.

Fritz led the Eagles to a 9-3 overall record and a perfect mark of 8-0 in conference play during his first season at Georgia Southern in 2014, and was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. However, the school's waiver claim to allow Georgia Southern to play in a bowl despite being in the second year of the NCAA's transition period was denied. Georgia Southern was the first team in NCAA history to post an undefeated conference season in its first season at the Division I FBS level.

Prior to Georgia Southern, Fritz served as head coach at Sam Houston State from 2010-13 where he led the Bearkats to back-to-back Southland Conference titles, NCAA Division I Championship game appearances in 2011 and 2012 and a third straight NCAA playoff berth in 2013.

Honored as the American Football Coaches Association Regional Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2012, Fritz was selected by the media and his peers in the Southland Conference as the league's Coach of the Year in 2011 after his team went a perfect 7-0 in conference play.

In 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston State posted the two highest single-season win totals in program history with marks of 14-1 (2011) and 11-4 (2012) and Bearkat players were showered with accolades. More than 50 earned All-Southland Conference honors under Fritz in his last four years, not including additional Player of the Year, Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year awards. All-America status from national coaching and media outlets were bestowed on 11 Sam Houston State players during his tenure.

Prior to his head coaching tenure at Sam Houston State, Fritz revitalized Central Missouri and guided the Mules to 11 winning seasons in 13 years. The NCAA Division II program's ledger included two 10-win seasons with the 2001 Mule squad earning its first postseason trip in more than 30 years.

In 2002, Central Missouri made its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs and was the Mid-America Athletic Association (MIAA) co-champion a year later. A 97-47 mark in 13 seasons ranks Fritz as the winningest coach in the program's history. He was the only coach to ever win seven or more games in eight consecutive seasons, and his victory total ranked him 15th among active Division II coaches at the time. In addition to his impressive 67.4 winning percentage with the Mules, Fritz coached his student-athletes to achieve their potential on the field and in the classroom. More than 150 Mules were recognized with All-MIAA honors with 41 first-team selections and 24 All-Americans.

Under Fritz, Central Missouri recorded a graduation rate of 84 percent with 144 MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll recipients, 14 Academic All-Region and three Academic All-Americans. For all of his accomplishments guiding Central Missouri, Fritz was honored by the school with induction into its Athletics Hall of Fame on Feb. 11, 2017.

Prior to his time at Central Missouri and Sam Houston State as a head coach, Fritz spent two different stints as an assistant coach with the Bearkats. He first served as a graduate assistant during the 1984 and 1985 seasons when he earned a master's degree in kinesiology. During that two-year stretch, Sam Houston State posted a 16-6 record and won the 1985 Gulf Star Conference championship. He returned to Sam Houston State a second time in 1991 after spending four years at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas under legendary coach Dick Foster, earning a promotion to defensive coordinator after one year. He stayed another two years to work for Coach Foster's Skip and the Red Ravens. During the 1990 season, Fritz served as the defensive coordinator where he helped guide the Red Ravens to a national title.

When Fritz was brought back to Sam Houston State in 1991 under Ron Randleman as secondary and special teams coach, he instilled an attitude of excellence on special teams that would last more than a decade. The Bearkats' "block party" racked up 80 blocked punts, field goals and extra points beginning with Fritz in 1991 and lasting through 2004.

In Fritz's first year as a full-time assistant coach at Sam Houston State in 1991, the Bearkats won the Southland Conference. That league title and an eight-win season launched Sam Houston State to the program's second-ever appearance in the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

Fritz departed Huntsville for a second time prior to the 1993 season for an opportunity to be the head coach at Blinn College, where he would turn around a program that had only five wins in its previous three seasons.

From 1993-96, Fritz and the Buccaneers would rack up 39 victories against only five losses with a tie and claim two national junior college championships. He was inducted into the NJCAA Football Hall of Fame for the environment of success he created at Blinn.

One of seven children, Fritz is the son of the late Harry Fritz, who coached the Central Missouri football team in 1952 before continuing his career as the Executive Director at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) in Kansas City. The elder Fritz also served at several colleges and universities in administration as an athletics director.

Fritz played on two conference title teams and was a four-year starter at defensive back for Randleman at Pittsburg State and remained at his alma mater as a student assistant coach in 1982. Early coaching stops included a year at Shawnee Mission Northwest (Kansas) High School in 1983 and Willis (Texas) High School in 1986, with his return to Sam Houston State for graduate school in between those years.

Fritz and his wife Susan have three children, a son and two daughters. Their son Wesley, who was married in the summer of 2019 to his wife Rebecca, is a member of the Tulane football staff and serves as the Director of Player Personnel. The couple's daughter Lainie is an elementary school teacher and sports broadcaster while their youngest daughter Brooke is a CPA for Deloitte in Houston, Texas.
