

Statement from Tulane University

Tulane University was made aware today of a federal indictment involving alleged nationwide misconduct in college basketball, which included a former Tulane student-athlete.

Tulane takes the integrity of intercollegiate athletics and the well-being of our student-athletes very seriously. We cooperate fully with the NCAA and, where appropriate, with law enforcement authorities. Because this matter involves an ongoing legal process, the university is unable to comment further at this time.

We remain committed to upholding the highest ethical standards as well as continuing to provide our student-athletes with education and resources on gambling risks, compliance, and personal responsibility.
