HURRICANE FINISHES 20TH AND 29TH AT NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

Senior Marc Scott finished 10th and junior Luke Traynor came in 34th to lead the Tulsa men's cross country team to a 20th-place finish at the NCAA Championships at E.P. Tom Sawyer State Park in Louisville, Ky. The women's team finished 29th, led by senior Rachel Baptista's 69th-place finish.

Scott's 10th-place finish was Tulsa's highest-ever individual finish at the NCAA Championships. He earned All-America honors for the second year in a row, while Traynor earned an All-America honor in his first year at TU. Baptista's 69th-place finish was the highest-ever for a TU women's runner at the NCAA Championships, and the No. 29 team finish was the highest in program history for the Hurricane women's team.

Scott ran the 10K in 30:02.6 and Traynor finished with a time of 30:22.3 to lead the Tulsa men's team, which totaled 468 points to finish in 20th place. TU finished four points behind Minnesota and 18 points behind Oklahoma State. Syracuse won the men's title with 82 points.

Baptista ran the 6K in 20:39.1, and her 69th-place finish paced the Hurricane women's squad, which totaled 646 points to place 29th. TU trailed San Francisco by 10 points in the team standings. New Mexico won the women's title with 49 points.

Sophomore Ben Preisner placed 114th with a time of 31:06.1, sophomore Adam Roderique placed 188th with a time of 31:52.2, and freshman Austin Del Rosso ran a 32:27.9 to place 228th as Tulsa's fifth men's scoring runner.

Junior Stacie Taylor finished 144th with a time of 21:10.8, sophomore Nicole Lee finished 149th with a time of 21:12.6, sophomore Danielle Medearis placed 223rd in 22:01.0, and senior Clara Langley finished 229th in 22:06.1.

Tulsa will lose only two of the 14 athletes that competed at the NCAA Championships this year to graduation, and return 12 runners in 2016 with experience at the national meet.

TU ATHLETES EARN ALL-AMERICA HONORS

Marc Scott and Luke Traynor were selected as All-Americans by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association after their performances at the NCAA Championships. Scott earned All-America honors for the second year in a row, while Traynor earned an All-America honor in his first year at TU.

TULSA TEAMS EARN AT-LARGE BERTHS TO NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Tulsa men's and women's cross country teams earned at-large berths to the NCAA Championships. It is the first time in school history that both the men and women have qualified in the same year. The Tulsa men will make their seventh appearance and fifth-straight showing at the NCAA Championships. Previous appearances came in 2007, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Hurricane women will be making their second NCAA Championships appearance. The first came in 2010.
