3 FOR 100, FIRST TIME IN OVER 30 YEARS . . .

- Tulsa running backs D'Angelo Brewer and Shamari Brooks and quarterback Chad President did something against Toledo that hadn't happened in over 30 years.
- Each player rushed for 100+ yards in that game—Brewer had 152 yards, Brooks 141 and President tallied 130 yards on the ground.
- The last time that feat was achieved came on Nov. 1, 1986 when running backs Derrick Ellison (177), Gill Johnson (177) and Kenneth Lee (106) each accomplished that against Wichita State.

MORE ON PRESIDENT . . .

- Entering the season opener against Oklahoma State, the starting quarterback for the Hurricane was unknown until Tulsa's first possession when third-year sophomore Chad President took the field.
- In 6 games, President has completed 71-of-126 passes for 809 yards and has rushed for 365 yards, a 7.6 average and 5 TDs.
- In his first game as the starter, President completed 18-of-35 passes for 178 yards, and ran for another 69 yards on eight carries.
- In his second game, President completed 70-percent of his passes (14-of-20) for 243 yards, while throwing his first career TD pass and running for his first career touchdown.
- In game No. 3, President became the first Tulsa quarterback to rush for 100+ yards since Nov. 12, 2010 when G.J. Kinne had 190 yards rushing against Houston ... President rushed for 130 yards and 2 TDs against Toledo.

600+ AND 400+ . . .

- Tulsa totaled 667 total yards on 92 plays against Louisiana for the most yards in the Philip Montgomery era.
- It marked the seventh time in the last three seasons that Tulsa has gone over 600 yards in total offense.
- It's was the 18th game that Tulsa had gone over 500 yards in the Montgomery era.
- The Hurricane gained 424 yards rushing on 72 carries against Louisiana, which was the most rushing yards for Tulsa since gaining 439 yards against Ball State in the GMAC Bowl at the end of the 2008 season.
- Tulsa put together its second straight 400+ rushing game with 423 yards on 68 carries at Toledo a week later, while also turning in its 19th 500+ total offense game in the last 3 years.

MORE ON 400-YARD RUSHING GAMES . . .

- Tulsa rushed for 400+ yards in consecutive games with 424 vs. Louisiana and 423 at Toledo.
- The last time Tulsa had a 400-yard rushing game was the same year that Tulsa had two 400-yard rushing games, which came in 2008 when the Hurricane had 489 yards vs. Tulane and 439 yards against Ball State in the GMAC Bowl.
- However, the last time Tulsa had two straight 400+ rushing games was in the 1986 season when the Hurricane had 503 yards vs. Wichita State (Nov. 1) and 429 yards at New Mexico (Nov. 8).

SPECIAL TEAMS MAKES THE PLAY IN OPENER . . .

- True freshman deep snapper Adam Higuera, playing in his first career game, was in the right place at the right time against Oklahoma State.
- Higuera scored Tulsa's first touchdown of the 2017 season when he jumped on a fumble by OSU punt returner Jalen McCleskey in the end zone.
- Another newcomer, punter Thomas Bennett, forced the ball over McCleskey's head with a 60-yard punt.
- Senior CJ Gooden knocked the ball out of McCleskey's hands as Higuera pounced on it.
- The fumbled punt for a TD marked the second straight year that the Hurricane had a fumble punt return for a TD in the season opener, as the same happened in 2016 against San Jose State.

WHY GOLDEN HURRICANE?

Enter the name Howard Acher as the Tulsa head coach in 1922. When he took over the position, Acher saw great potential in his team and wanted to publicize it by creating a new identity with a new nickname. Sports writers and others had called the school by any number of names from the Presbyterians to the Orange and Black, to the Kendallites.

After an opening day win against a strong Texas Christian University team in 1922, Acher put his mind to work. The press had claimed that the Kendall football team blew through its opponents like a tornado. So, it figured that Tornadoes, would be the nickname with "golden" added to identify the color of the uniforms. However, it was later found that Georgia Tech had claimed that name, so from tornado it was evolved meteorologically to a hurricane. Thus the squad voted, and the name "Golden Hurricane" became the new team moniker with the gold added because of the jersey color.

TU lived up to its nickname as the Golden Hurricane blew through the Texas A&M defense in the next game with pass after pass from quarterback Rex Thomas. TU won its first game as the Golden Hurricane by a score of 13-10.

WHAT YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT TULSA'S FOOTBALL TRADITION . . .

- Tulsa was the first school to play in five straight New Years Day Bowl Games — Sun Bowl (1-1-42), Sugar Bowl (1-1-43), Sugar Bowl (1-1-44), Orange Bowl (1-1-45) and Oil Bowl (1-1-46).

- Ellis Jones, an All-American guard in 1945, was a one-armed player. He was the defensive standout for the College All-Star team vs. the Chicago Bears in 1945.

- Three former TU football players are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. They are Bob St. Clair, Jim Finks and Steve Largent.

- Two former Tulsa players finished runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting — quarterback Jerry Rhome in 1964 and receiver Howard Twilley in 1965.

- Perhaps the greatest Tulsa football player of all-time is Glenn Dobbs (1940-42). He was also head coach of the Hurricane teams in the 1960's. Eighth Street which runs north of H.A. Chapman Stadium was dedicated as Glenn Dobbs Drive on Oct. 21, 2000. A statue of Dobbs was erected outside the stadium before the 2013 spring game.

- Former TU players — Glenn Dobbs, Howard Twilley and Jerry Rhome — are enshrined in the College Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

- Other former TU players went on to the NFL — Steve Largent, Drew Pearson, Rickey Watts, Don Blackmon, David Alexander, Jerry Ostroski, Gus Frerotte, Dennis Byrd, Tom Miner, Steve August and Gus Frerotte — to name a few.

- Coaching in the NFL — Tulsa has had four former players serve as head coaches in the NFL — Tommy Hudspeth (Detroit Lions); Sam Rutigliano (Cleveland Browns); Ray Rhodes (Philadelphia Eagles and Green Bay Packers); and Lovie Smith (Chicago Bears and Tampa Bay Buccaneers).

- Tulsa has three former players and two former coaches who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The players are Glenn Dobbs, who also coached the Hurricane, Howard Twilley and Jerry Rhome . . . the coaches are Francis Schmidt (1919-21) and John Cooper (1977-84).
