SCOUTING THE GOLDEN EAGLES

- ORU enters the Mayor's Cup game with a 5-3 record after a dominating 116-68 victory against Ozark Christian on Tuesday evening.
- Max Abmas leads ORU, averaging 15.9 points per game ... Issac McBride (13.3 points) and Connor Vanover (12.0) are the other two Golden Eagles who average double figures ... Vanover is one of the nation's elite shot blockers ... He's stuffed 28 shots in seven games (4.0 pg), which is second in the nation for both categories.
- The Golden Eagles love to let it fly from deep ... they average 32.1 3-point attempts per game, which is second in the nation behind Cornell (33.1) ... ORU knocks down 11.4 triples each game, which is seventh-best in the nation and tops in the Summit ... Last season against the Golden Hurricane, ORU hit 19 threes, which is a record for a Tulsa opponent.

ROUGH NIGHT IN STILLWATER

- Tulsa jumped out to an early 6-0 lead against OSU last Friday, but offensive struggles doomed the Golden Hurricane in an 82-56 loss.
- The Hurricane shot just 36.4 percent from the floor and 23.3 percent from 3-point range in the loss ... only Keyshawn Embery-Simpson managed to score in double figures, scoring 10 points ... Brandon Betson led the team with five assists ... He also added nine points, and a pair of rebounds.
- Freshman Jesaiah McWright had 12 second half minutes and made the most of his opportunity ... the young guard scored his first Tulsa points, grabbed three rebounds, dished out an assist and recorded three steals ... Charles Chukwu also got off the mark as a scorer, putting in six points and grabbing four rebounds.

SELEBANGUE CARRYING THE LOAD

- With Nikita Konstantynovskiy sidelined with a foot injury, newcomer Bryant Selebangue has been asked to fill the void and do more than expected early in the season, and he has answered the call.
- The big man from Canada has averaged 10.5 points through his first six games, including two games of 15 and a game of 14 ... He's also shot well from the field, hitting on 59.1 percent of his shots, a team-high.
- Selebangue has recorded two double-doubles and has been a point and a rebound away from four ... In the season opener against Oregon State, he scored 15 and grabbed nine rebounds ... He got his double-double with a 15-point, 10-rebound performance against Jackson State ... In Tulsa's big win against Loyola Chicago, Selebangue was a point shy his second double-double of the season, which he later achieved against Murray State.

GRIFFIN'S ELECTRIC PLAY IN MYRTLE BEACH

- The junior guard was one of the most exciting players at the Myrtle Beach Invitational, averaging 17 points in the three games, including knocking down 10 3-pointers Griffin is averaging 18 points for the season and is up to 16 triples.
- He was particularly effective in the second half, where he scored 41 of his 52 points.
- Griffin introduced himself in the first game against Loyola Chicago with 17 second-half points to finish with 20 and help Tulsa outscore the Ramblers 55-36 in the second 20 minutes to win 85-66.
- The next night, he scored 19 of his 21 in the second half to erase a 13-point halftime deficit against Charlotte ... Tulsa ultimately fell 68-65 ... With Tulsa trailing 42-30 at the 17:37 mark, Griffin would score the next 19 points for the Hurricane, ending with another 3-pointer to get Tulsa within two, 51-49, with 10:53 remaining.
- His performance in the tournament earned him a spot in the week two American Athletic Conference Honor Roll.

COMEBACK NOT ENOUGH

- The Golden Hurricane roared back from a 13-point halftime deficit, and trailed by as many as 16, but it wasn't enough as Charlotte held on for a 68-65 win in the semifinal of the Myrtle Beach Invitational on Friday night.
- Sam Griffin was electric again with a 21-point performance, including 19 in the second half with five 3-pointers ... Anthony Pritchard added a career-high 13 points and three triples while Tim Dalger also scored 13.
- Tulsa came back to take the lead in the second half, but a late run from Charlotte put them up six ... Tulsa had a chance to tie at the buzzer, but a nice defensive play altered the shot and the Niners escaped with the win.

TULSA DOMINATES LOYOLA CHICAGO

- The Golden Hurricane scored 55 points in the second half in a huge 85-66 win against Loyola on Thursday night
- It was the largest in-season tournament win against a team who had made the NCAA Tournament the year before since Tulsa beat Tennessee 88-68 at the Puerto Rico Holiday Classic Championship Game on Dec. 23, 1999.
- It also marked Tulsa's first back-to-back 80 point games since scoring 88 in a win against Little Rock and 86 in a loss to No. 6 Nevada in November of 2018.
- Sam Griffin led all scorers with 20 points, shooting 8-13 (61.5 percent) from the field and knocking down four triples in eight attempts ... Brandon Betson scored 18 and led the team with four assists and three steals ... Betson finished a perfect 8-8 from the line.

Tulsa Men's Basketball Game Notes

- Selebangué and Dalger both narrowly missed out on double-doubles. Selebangué finished the night with 10 rebounds with nine points, while Dalger was the opposite with 17 points but only nine rebounds ... It's the second consecutive game Dalger finished with nine boards.

GETTING OFF THE MARK AT HOME

- Head coach Eric Konkol got the first win of his tenure as Tulsa took care of Jackson State 85-79 in the home opener at the Donald W. Reynolds Center on Saturday, Nov. 12.
- The Hurricane moved to 7-0 all-time against the Tiger and 6-0 in the Reynolds Center ... Tulsa also improved to 18-6 in home openers and five in a row dating back to a loss to Lamar at the start of the 2017-18 season.
- Four Hurricane finished in double-figures in scoring, led by Keyshawn Embery-Simpson's career-high 20 points and six assists... Tim Dalger also put up a career-high 18 and crashed the boards to the tune of nine rebounds ... Bryant Selebangué added 15 for the second time in as many games, recording a double-double with 10 boards in the process ... Sophomore Anthony Pritchard scored 10 and dished out five assists.

CAREER DAYS FROM EMBERY-SIMPSON AND DALGER

- Keyshawn Embery-Simpson and Tim Dalger stepped up in big ways to lead the Hurricane to victory in the home opener against Jackson State.
- Embery-Simpson recorded 20 points and six assists to lead the team and set career highs in both categories ... the senior guard shot 8-13 from the floor (61.5 percent) and was good on half his 3-point attempts, knocking down four treys
- Embery-Simpson eclipsed his previous Tulsa high of 14 points he set twice in the 2020-21 season, in his debut against TCU (Nov. 28) and again in the finale of the regular season against Northeastern State (March 4) ... his previous career high was 16, which he achieved twice with Arkansas ... The first time was at Ole Miss (Jan. 19, 2019) and again four games later at LSU (2/2/2019).
- Dalger recorded career highs in points, 18, and rebounds, 9, coming up just shy of his first double-double ... he finished 5-6 from the floor (83.3 percent) and knocked down his first five shots, including two triples, before his final 3-point shot went long ... the junior forward was a perfect 6-6 from the charity stripe, all coming in the second half.

Why Golden Hurricane?

Enter the name Howard Acher as the Tulsa head football coach in 1922. When he took over the position, Acher saw great potential in his team and wanted to publicize it by creating a new identity with a new nickname. Sports writers and others had called the school by any number of names from the Presbyterians to the Orange and Black, to the Kendallites.

After an opening day win against a strong Texas Christian University team in 1922, Acher put his mind to work. The press had claimed that the Kendall football team blew through its opponents like a tornado. So, it figured that Tornadoes would be the nickname with "golden" added to identify the color of the uniforms. However, it was later found that Georgia Tech had claimed that name, so from tornado it was evolved meteorologically to a hurricane. Thus the squad voted, and the name "Golden Hurricane" became the new team moniker with the gold added because of the jersey color.

Eric Konkol was named The University of Tulsa's 31st head basketball coach on March 21, 2022.

Konkol, 45, came to Tulsa following seven seasons at LA Tech, where he compiled a 153-75 record. He won 46 games in his first two seasons, the most for any previous LA Tech head coach, and his 153 career victories is the third-highest win total in school history. Konkol's teams produced six seasons with 20+ wins and finished among the top 3 in Conference USA standings five of his seven years. Konkol returns to where he began his start in collegiate coaching. He was a student assistant coach for Tulsa's 2001 NIT Championship team under Head Coach Buzz Peterson.

"I'm thrilled and honored to return to Tulsa as head men's basketball coach," said Konkol at his introductory press conference. "This program is rich in tradition with a history built on tough players and passionate fans from our city. Our staff will work relentlessly to recruit and develop both to compete for championships and have one of the most electric home court environments in the country."

After his one-year stint at Tulsa, Konkol was on the coaching staffs at Tennessee, George Mason and Miami (Fla.) before becoming the LA Tech head coach in 2015. Konkol has served 20 years as a collegiate coach and has been a part of 14 20-win seasons with 10 postseason tournament appearances.

LA Tech completed the 2021-22 season with an overall 24-10 record and a 12-6 league mark. The Bulldogs finished the season with a 75.2 scoring average.

"We are extremely pleased to welcome Eric and his family to Tulsa," said Rick Dickson, Tulsa's vice president and director of athletics at Konkol's introductory press conference. "It was obvious from our first conversation that Eric was a perfect fit for TU, and it became increasingly clear that he was the right person to collaborate with us and lead the TU basketball program through a crucial rebuilding phase."

"Eric not only exhibits incredible understanding and knowledge of the game but has shown a keen ability to communicate effectively and bring out the best in his players. Our campus and our community will appreciate his enthusiasm, and I look forward to welcoming fans - new and old - to Reynolds this fall."

"The University of Tulsa has a long, proud history of great basketball programs. Going back decades, our student-athletes have been successful on the court and in the classroom. Eric Konkol has a record of recruiting, coaching and mentoring young men to be the best they can be and to lift their teams to new heights. I have no doubt he will bring that same level of dedication, energy and ambition to TU," said university President Brad R. Carson.

In the 2020-21 campaign, Konkol guided LA Tech to a 24-8 overall record, a Conference USA West Division title and a third-place finish in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) by defeating Ole Miss, Western Kentucky and No. 1 overall seed Colorado State in the NIT Final Four consolation game. As a result, Konkol garnered numerous awards including Conference USA Coach of the Year, NABC District 11 Coach of the Year, LABC Louisiana Major College Coach of the Year and LSWA Louisiana Coach of the Year. He was also a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year Award.

Despite the shortened 2019-20 season due to the public health threat of COVID-19, Konkol was named the LSWA Louisiana Coach of the Year and the LABC Louisiana Major College Coach of the Year after guiding LA Tech to a 22-8 overall record.

At Louisiana Tech, Konkol's teams averaged 74.2 points over his career while holding the opposition to 67.9 points in 228 contests. Before his stint at LA Tech, Konkol spent four seasons (2011-15) on the staff of Miami Head Coach Jim Larranaga. Prior to that, he was with Larranaga for seven years (2002-05, 2007-11) at George Mason assisting in all aspects including recruiting, practices, individual player workouts and game preparation.

At Miami, Konkol was a part of three 20-win seasons and three postseason tournament appearances. Known as the team's offensive coordinator, he aided the 2014-15 Hurricanes to a 25-13 record, the second most wins in program history, and an appearance in the NIT Championship game.

Miami snapped two impressive winning streaks along the way, defeating eventual national champion Duke, 90-74, at Cameron Indoor Stadium, ending the Blue Devils' 41-game home winning streak which was the longest active streak in Division I at the time. The 'Canes also defeated then-No. 8/7 Florida in a non-conference battle which snapped the Gators' 33-game home winning streak, the third longest in the country.

In his third season, Miami returned no starters from the previous season, but the team still posted its seventh-straight winning season with a 17-16 overall record while ranking No. 2 in field goal defense and No. 3 in scoring defense in the ACC, good enough for No. 11 and No. 39 nationally.

The program saw several firsts in his second season, including the 'Canes ACC regular season and tournament championships, a No. 2 ranking in the national polls and 29 total victories with 15 league wins. Miami matched program bests in earning a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and playing in the Sweet 16.

Konkol helped lead the Hurricanes that season to four 20+ point wins over ACC opponents, including a 27-point rout of No. 1 Duke and a 26-point victory against North Carolina. Miami was the first team to beat Duke and UNC by 25+ points since the start of ACC play in 1953 and the 'Canes defeated three teams in the Top 20 for the first time since joining the ACC in 2004-05.

Konkol worked daily with ACC and Lute Olson National Player of the Year and All-American Shane Larkin, who left UM after his sophomore season to enter the 2013 NBA Draft. Larkin was a finalist for the Bob Cousy, Naismith and John R. Wooden awards and named the ACC tournament MVP. Konkol also improved the games of ACC Defensive Player of the Year Durand Scott and All-ACC performer Kenny Kadji, as well as ACC All-tournament players Julian Gamble and Trey McKinney Jones.

At George Mason, Konkol served under Larranaga from 2002-05 and again from 2007-11, helping the Patriots register 19.8 wins per year. In the interim, he spent two years coaching at national power Hopkins High School in Minnesota under Ken Novak, Jr.

He helped guide GMU to four postseason appearances, including NCAA berths in 2008 and 2011. In 2011, the team defeated Villanova to advance to the third round of the NCAA Tournament, earned a regular season Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) title and posted a school record-tying 27 wins.

Konkol was responsible for coordinating George Mason's schedule, which was pivotal to the Patriots earning just their second at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament in 2011. He served as Mason's scouting director from 2002-05 and helped recruit the top non-BCS recruiting class in 2009 according to ESPN.com. Konkol also monitored the academic progress of the men's basketball student-athletes, graduating 20 of 22 student-athletes who completed their eligibility. The program was recognized by the NCAA with an Academic Progress Rate in the nation's top-10 percent for both 2009 and 2010.

While working at Tennessee as a graduate assistant coach on Buzz Peterson's staff for the 2001-02 season he earned his master's degree in sport management.

A native of Amherst, Wis., Konkol earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in exercise management from Wisconsin Eau Claire. He played three seasons of basketball for the Division III program, advancing to the national championship game in 2000. He received the team's Inspiration Award after his junior and senior seasons and was an honorary captain as a senior.

Konkol spent his first two years, including one red-shirt season, at Wisconsin at Platteville playing for former Wisconsin head coach Bo Ryan.

Konkol and his wife, Meagan, have two sons, Ethan and Ryan.
