GOLDEN HURRICANE IN TULSA?

A year ago (2022) Tulsa celebrated the 100th anniversary of adopting the school's nickname of Golden Hurricane.

In 1922, first-year coach Howard Acher saw great potential in his team and wanted to publicize it by creating a new identity with a new nickname. Sports writers and others had called the school by any number of names from the Presbyterians to the Orange and Black, to the Kendallites.

After an opening day win against a strong Texas Christian University team in 1922, Acher put his mind to work. The press had claimed that the Tulsa football team blew through its opponents like a tornado. So, it figured that Tornadoes, would be the nickname with "golden" added to identify the color of the uniforms. However, it was later found that Georgia Tech had claimed that name, so from tornado it was evolved meteorologically to a hurricane. Thus the squad voted, and the name "Golden Hurricane" became the new team moniker with the gold added because of the jersey color.

TU lived up to its nickname as the Golden Hurricane blew through the Texas A&M defense in the next game with pass after pass from QB Rex Thomas. TU won its first game as the Golden Hurricane by a score of 13-10.

WHAT YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT TULSA'S FOOTBALL TRADITION ...

- Tulsa was the first school to play in five straight New Years Day Bowl Games — Sun Bowl (1-1-42), Sugar Bowl (1-1-43), Sugar Bowl (1-1-44), Orange Bowl (1-1-45) and Oil Bowl (1-1-46).
- Ellis Jones, an All-American guard in 1945, was a one-armed player. He was the defensive standout for the College All-Star team vs. the Chicago Bears in 1945.
- Four former TU football players are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They are Bob St. Clair, Jim Finks, Steve Largent and Drew Pearson
- Two former Tulsa players finished runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting — quarterback Jerry Rhome in 1964 and receiver Howard Twilley in 1965.
- Perhaps the greatest Tulsa football player of all-time is Glenn Dobbs (1940-42). He was also head coach of the Hurricane teams in the 1960's. Eighth Street which runs north of H.A. Chapman Stadium was dedicated as Glenn Dobbs Drive on Oct. 21, 2000. A statue of Dobbs was erected outside the stadium and dedicated before the 2013 spring game.
- Zaven Collins may have staked claim to the greatest Tulsa football player when the consensus All-America linebacker was also named college football's top defender in 2020 by winning the Chuck Bednarik and Bronko Nagurski awards.
- Coaching in the NFL — Tulsa has had four former players serve as head coaches in the NFL — Tommy Hudspeth (Detroit Lions); Sam Rutigliano (Cleveland Browns); Ray Rhodes (Philadelphia Eagles and Green Bay Packers); and Lovie Smith (Chicago Bears, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and now Houston Texans).
- Tulsa has three former players, two former head coaches and two former assistant coaches who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame — the players are Glenn Dobbs (1940-42, 1961-68), who also coached the Hurricane, Howard Twilley (1963-65) and Jerry Rhome (1963-64) — the head coaches are Francis Schmidt (1919-21) and John Cooper (1977-84) — the assistant coaches are Darrell Royal (1951) and Sammy Baugh (1963).

Tulsa 22, Northern Illinois 14

Sept. 23, 2023 • Huskie Stadium

DEKALB, Ill. — Tulsa took control in the final quarter and overcame a five-point deficit for a 22-14 win over the Northern Illinois Huskies on a Saturday afternoon in front of 10,321 fans at Huskie Stadium

It was total team effort from the Hurricane and in the final quarter it was the offense, defense and special teams that each made significant plays contributing to the victory.

First, the offense went 76 yards in nine plays to score on a Tahj Gary 17-yard run at the 8:33 mark to retake the lead at 19-14. The special teams responded with a forced fumble and recovery on the subsequent kickoff that led to three points and a 22-14 lead, and the defensive unit held NIU scoreless while Kendarin Ray's interception in with 0:26 on the game clock preserved the Tulsa victory.

NIU took its only lead of the game in the third quarter by capitalizing on Tulsa's third turnover and took a 14-9 lead with 5:34 remaining in the period on a two-play, 33-yard drive.

ON NIU's next possession, the Tulsa defense came up with a huge 4th-and-1 stop at the NIU 28-yard line as Julien Simon made the first contact and was joined by multiple teammates to give the Hurricane offense possession in NIU territory. Tulsa settled for a 36-yard Chase Meyer field goal to cut NIU's lead to 14-12 as time expired in the third period.

On Tulsa's first fourth period possession, Tahj Gary raced the final 17 yards to put the Hurricane ahead 19-14 with 8:33 remaining in the contest. The run capped a nine-play, 76-yard drive in taking 3:01 off the clock.

On the subsequent kickoff, the Tulsa special teams came through when Jehlen Cannady forced the fumble and Cam Crooks recovered at the NIU 34-yard line. The Hurricane traveled to the NIU 4-yard line and Chase Meyer converted a 22-yard field goal for the eight-point Tulsa advantage.

GAME 6

FAU 20, Tulsa 17

Oct. 7, 2023 • FAU Stadium

BOCA RATON, Fla. — Tulsa's valiant comeback effort in a fourth quarter downpour fell short 20-17 against the FAU Owls in front of 21,077 fans at FAU Stadium.

Trailing 20-10, Tulsa marched 80 yards in seven plays behind the running of Braylon Braxton, gaining 56 yards on the ground and throwing the final 20 yards to freshman tight end Luke McGary to make the score 20-17 with 5:01 left on the game clock.

After the Tulsa defense stuffed FAU to -2 yards on three plays, the Hurricane offense made one last push for the comeback. A big 4th-and-12 completion to Kamdyn Benjamin for an 18-yard gain put Tulsa at their own 20-yard line. The Hurricane moved to the FAU 49-yard line, but two incompletions and a sack on 4th-and-8 ended the game.

It was a pretty even contest statistically as FAU held a 378 to 376 edge in total yards. Tulsa rushed for 194 yards and had 182 yards passing, while FAU totaled 234 rushing yards and 144 through the air. Defensively, Jaise Oliver's 11 stops led three TU players with double-digit tackles, including 10 each by Kendarin Ray and Julien Simon. Oliver also added two pass breakups, one interception and one TFL.

FAU took a 14-0 lead after one quarter and took a 17-7 lead into intermission.

Turnovers handicapped the Hurricane in the first quarter as two miscues turned into 14 FAU points. The first coming after an interception deep in FAU territory and ending in an Owl 85-yard, 10-play drive. The second came after a fumble on a fake punt attempt that gave the Owls possession at the Tulsa 41-yard line and ending in a 14-0 first quarter lead.

Tulsa took its first possession of the second quarter 90 yards in 12 plays as Cardell Williams ran the final seven yards for Tulsa's first points of the game, making the score 14-7.

The Hurricane defense stepped up after a FAU punt return put the Owls at the Tulsa 29-yard line, holding FAU to only a field goal for the 10-point halftime lead.

GAME 10

#20 Tulane 24, Tulsa 22

Nov. 11, 2023 • Yulman Stadium

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Tulsa's valiant comeback effort fell short 24-22 against the nation's 20th-ranked Tulane Green Wave in front of 20,126 fans at Yulman Stadium.

Freshman quarterback Kirk Francis, making only his second game appearance this year, finished with 345 yards and one touchdown by completing 22-of-34 attempts. Francis moved into second place on the school's freshman passing list, falling just 41 yards shy of T.J. Rubley's 386 yards in 1987 against Oklahoma State.

Tulsa receivers Kamdyn Benjamin and Carl Chester had career-highs with 157 and 132 yards, respectively. Benjamin also had a career-high two TD receptions to give him four on the year.

The Hurricane run game put up the second-highest total allowed by Tulane's 4th-ranked run defense with 122 yards behind Anthony Watkins' 76 yards.

Tulsa fell to 3-7 overall and 1-5 in The American, while Tulane improved to 9-1 and 5-0 in league play.

Tulsa scored 12 points in the second half and held the Green Wave to 10. After a field goal gave Tulane a 24-16 lead at the 9:21 mark, Tulsa failed on its next possession but a drive later Francis led the Hurricane on a 4-play, 67-yard drive that cut the deficit to two points. Tulsa's try at tying the game on a two-point conversion failed, keeping the score at 24-22.

After 14 first-quarter points from the Tulane offense, the Golden Hurricane defense held the Green Wave to three points the remainder of the game one field goal, as the other Tulane score came on a 100-yard kickoff return.

With less than three minutes remaining it was a game that looked like would end in favor of the host Pirates, but Ben Kopenski recovered a fumble on ECU's first play from scrimmage after holding Tulsa on a 4th-and-3 at the Tulsa 24-yard line.

Tulsa ends the season with an overall 4-8 mark and 2-6 American Athletic Conference record in Kevin Wilson's first at the helm. East Carolina fell to 2-10 and 1-7 in league play.

It was a game that saw the two teams total 44 points in the first half, but just 12 in the final 30 minutes, all on field goals. Meyer knocked through two third-quarter field goals covering 28 and 26 yards before knocking through the game-winner for Tulsa's long points in the final stanza.

On Tulsa's game-clinching drive, Kirk Francis led the Hurricane 48 yards in 11 plays to the ECU 19-yard line setting up Meyer's field goal.

Francis finished the game with by completed 62% of his passes for 297 yards and two touchdowns, while finding Kamdyn Benjamin six times for 143 yards and one score. Anthony Watkins rushed for 106 yards to lead the Tulsa run game. Overall, Tulsa out-gained ECU 446 to 409 yards.

It was a pretty even first half as the hometown Pirates held a 24-20 lead at the intermission. There was just a seven-yard difference in total yardage in the first 30 minutes. ECU gained 268 yards to Tulsa's 261 while the Hurricane had more than a four-minute edge in possession time.

Tulsa opened the scoring on the first possession of the game, going 75 yards in four plays and culminating with a Francis 31-yard pass to Benjamin.

The Pirates scored the next 14 points for a 14-6 lead before Tulsa responded with two scores of their own. The first of those coming on a Bill Jackson one-yard run and the second on a Francis 15-yard toss to fellow true freshman Luke McGary.
