The Tulsa Key

We are ... The University of Tulsa, not Tulsa University
 We are ... TU, not UT
 We are ... the Golden Hurricane (singular, never plural)

A Hurricane in Tulsa?

In 2022, Tulsa celebrated the 100th anniversary of adopting the school's nickname of Golden Hurricane.

In 1922, first-year football coach Howard Acher saw great potential in his team and wanted to publicize it by creating a new identity with a new nickname. Sports writers and others had called the school by any number of names from the Presbyterians to the Orange and Black, to the Kendallites.

After an opening day win against a strong TCU team in 1922, Acher put his mind to work. The press had claimed that the Tulsa football team blew through its opponents like a tornado. So, it figured that Tornadoes would be the nickname with "golden" added to identify the color of the uniforms. However, it was later found that Georgia Tech had already claimed that name, so from tornado it was evolved meteorologically to a hurricane. Thus the squad voted, and the name "Golden Hurricane" became the new school moniker with the gold added because of the jersey color.

Nelp is the Second-Winningest Coach in Team History

- Head Coach Angie Nelp passed Kathy McConnell-Miller (1999-05) for second on the all-time TU coach win list after beating Wichita State on the road this season for her 92nd career win.
- Nelp is currently 95-59 entering game No. 30 of her fifth season leading the Golden Hurricane
- She now stands only behind Matilda Mossman (2011-2021), who had 119 wins at TU.
- No previous Tulsa coach had ever reached 80 wins in just their fifth season.
- Only two other TU head coaches won more than 90 games in their careers.
- Nelp is the only coach in program history to earn 10+ home wins in four straight seasons.
- She is also the only coach to lead Tulsa to three postseasons.
- She is the only coach to lead Tulsa to multiple 6-0 starts to a season.
- Finally, Nelp is the only TU coach to have more than two consecutive winning seasons leading the Golden Hurricane.

Cartwright Now a 1,000-Point scorer

- Junior guard Mady Cartwright became the 14th member of the 1,000-point club in program history after earning 17 points at Rice two games ago.
- She accomplished the feat in 95 games spanning three seasons, all at Tulsa.
- Cartwright is third in the American Conference in points per game (15.41) through 29 games of the 2025-26 season.
- She's scored in double-figures in all but six games, has six 20+ point performances and one 30+ point performance, peaking with a career-high of 31 points against Temple.
- She's second in the American in free throw percentage (.846), fifth in the league with six 20-point games and is one of eight players with a 30+ point game.
- Tulsa is 12-4 when Cartwright scores 15+ points and 5-1 when scoring over 20.
- Cartwright is tyed for the league lead in Player of the Week awards with two. She is one of two players to have multiple Player of the Weeks this season and one of two active players in the league to have more than one career Player of the Week honor.
- Cartwright took home her first American Player of the Week (Dec. 22) award after leading Tulsa to a win over Florida with 26 points.
- Her second American Player of the Week (Jan. 12) came after she averaged 25.5 points and 4.0 rebounds in wins over Tulane and Temple. She had a career-high 31 points and went 5-for-5 in 3-pointers against Temple, becoming the first player in team history to accomplish that feat. She's also the first player in the nation this season to land five 3's without a miss while scoring over 30 points.

Riddick's Rocking the Court in American Action

- Redshirt senior forward Hannah Riddick has been one of the stars of the show through 17 games of American action, putting up 16.29 points and 6.82 boards per conference game.
- Since putting up 27 points at Wichita State, Riddick is second in the league in conference play scoring with 16.29 points per game.
- She's also earned five double-doubles in conference play, including three in the first three games of league action.
- Riddick finished with 16 points and 11 boards in the conference opener against Wichita State and earned 22 points and 11 rebounds in each of the wins over Tulane and Temple.
- Riddick was responsible for the go-ahead and-1 layup in the waning seconds of the Tulane game in New Orleans, where she led Tulsa's 17-point comeback against the Green Wave with 12 points and 8 rebounds in the fourth quarter alone.
- She fueled another 17-point comeback for Tulsa in the 59-55 win over UAB, putting up 17 total points and 11 in the fourth quarter alone.
- She's hit 22 points or more in five conference games, most recently against Wichita State with 27 points.
- Through 26 starts in 27 games played, Riddick has led the Golden Hurricane in boards 14 times, points and blocks 10 times, assists seven times and steals four times.
- Overall, she averages 15.0 points, 6.9 rebounds and 1.7 assists per game.
- Riddick's scoring and rebounding averages rank fourth and 12th, respectively, in the American.
- She's fifth in the league with seven total double-doubles.
- Finally, she is fourth in the conference in 20-point games with seven so far.

Excelling at the Free Throw Line

- Tulsa has done better than nearly everybody in the American at drawing fouls to get to the charity stripe.
- TU is second in the league with 14.21 made free throws and third with 19.86 free throw attempts per game, which nationally rank 49th and 54th, respectively.
- Two TU players shoot .800 or better at the line, including Layla-J Cameron (.806 (29-36)) and Mady Cartwright (.846 (132-156)).
- Cartwright's free throw percentage of .846 is second in the American (min. 2.5 FT/game) and 57th in the country. She has 10 perfect free throw shooting games on the year.
- Hannah Riddick and Cartwright have combined for five double-figure free throw performances at the line this season, with Riddick making 13 against Oral Roberts and Cartwright draining 10 against Temple and 11 against Kent State, Tulane and Wichita State.
- As a team, Tulsa has had 16 games with 15 or more made free throws this year.
- There's also been eight contests this season where the Golden Hurricane scored 18 or more points from the line.

20-Point Scorers

- Tulsa players have combined for 16 20-point scoring efforts this year.
- Hannah Riddick leads the way with seven games scoring over 20 points, with Mady Cartwright right behind at six games. Jade Clack, Abby Jegede and Dora Toman each have one contest with at least 20 points.
- TU is 10-3 when a player scores over 20 points.
- There's been three games this season where two different Tulsa players reached 20 points in a single game. All three were Hannah Riddick and Mady Cartwright in the back-to-back wins against Tulane and Temple and the road win at Wichita State.
- So far, Riddick has 11 career 20+ point games, while Cartwright and Jegede have eight and Clack and Toman each have one.

30-Point Scorers

- TU has had one 30+ point performance so far this season, and that belongs to Mady Cartwright.
- Cartwright scored a career-high 31 points in a home win against Temple, landing 8-13 field goals, going a perfect 5-5 on 3-pointers and going 10-11 from the charity stripe.
- Cartwright is one of four players in the American with at least one game scoring over 30 points.

Comeback Queens

- In 13 of 19 wins, the Golden Hurricane trailed at one point or another.
- Tulsa overcame double-figure deficits in four of those wins, including Oral Roberts, Tulane, North Texas and UAB.
- TU was down 17 points in the third quarter in both the wins at Tulane and at home against UAB. The common denominator for both comebacks was Hannah Riddick, who put up 12 points in the fourth quarter at Tulane and 11 points in the fourth quarter against UAB.
- In the 48th Mayor's Cup battle with Oral Roberts, Tulsa trailed by 10 points (56-46) with 5:09 remaining on the clock before fighting back to force overtime and win.
- Lastly, the Golden Hurricane were down by 11 points (24-13) at 2:48 in the second quarter at North Texas before outscoring the Mean Green 39-29 in the second half.

Tulsa Earns Another 17-point Comeback Win, This Time Against UAB

- TU came back from 17 points down to defeat UAB 59-55 with a decisive 24-7 showing in the fourth quarter.
- The Golden Hurricane capitalized on the Blazers' 25 turnovers, converting them into 26 points to secure the win.
- This marks the second game in a row against UAB where Tulsa's utilized a comeback of 17 points or more to defeat the Blazers. Last year, Tulsa came back from down 20 in Birmingham.
- Tulsa's big three came through once again as redshirt senior forward Hannah Riddick (17 points) and junior guards Mady Cartwright (16 points) and Jade Clack (11) led the way in scoring. Riddick had 11 points in the fourth quarter alone and led Tulsa with eight rebounds.
- Freshman guard Dora Toman returned to the floor for the first time in six games. She produced seven rebounds, six of which came in the final period, while earning a team-high three assists. Tulsa was +20 when she was on the floor.

Golden Hurricane Win Double-Overtime Thriller Over Memphis

- Tulsa edged Memphis 74-69 in an exciting double-overtime American Conference matchup at the Donald W. Reynolds Center, securing the win with a 9-4 advantage in the final overtime period.
- It was the Golden Hurricane's first home overtime game since 2020 and their first double-overtime contest since 2011.
- Tulsa capitalized on strong board and paint play, out-rebounding the Tigers 48-39, which allowed the Golden Hurricane to outscore Memphis on second-chance opportunities, 11-3.
- Sophomore guard Jade Clack and redshirt senior forward Hannah Riddick took control of the game late when Tulsa needed the big plays most.
- Clack earned her first career double-double with 17 points and a career-high 12 rebounds, creating explosive plays and draining key free throws late.
- Riddick, a former Memphis Tiger for the last four seasons, produced 22 points and eight rebounds against her former team.
- Junior guards Mady Cartwright and Layla-J Cameron had 13 points and 12 points, respectively, while redshirt junior guard Abby Jegede gave TU a massive boost on defense with a career-high 10 rebounds.

Cartwright and Crew Break Shooting Records in 94-82 Win over Temple

- Tulsa held off Temple 94-82 at home on January 9, securing the victory with a strong fourth-quarter push fueled by junior guard Mady Cartwright, who scored a career-high 31 points and made five 3-pointers without a miss during the game.
- The Golden Hurricane shot 58.9% in field goals as a unit and went 13-for-17 (76.5%) on 3-point shooting. Both percentages are new program records in a conference game and the latter is a Reynolds Center record.
- Cartwright became the first Tulsa player ever to go 5-for-5 on 3-pointers.
- She is also the first player in the country to score over 30 points and hit five 3's in a single game. In addition to her superb deep-ball game, she also went 10-11 from the free throw line.
- Redshirt senior forward Hannah Riddick secured her third consecutive double-double, earning 22 points and 11 rebounds.

Golden Hurricane Topples Tulane with 17-Point Comeback

- Tulsa edged Tulane 76-73 by overcoming a 17-point second-quarter deficit with a massive 29-point fourth quarter.
- The comeback goes down as the second-largest in program history, tying last year's season-opening comeback win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff.
- Redshirt senior forward Hannah Riddick had 12 points and eight rebounds in the fourth quarter alone to push Tulsa to a tough road victory.
- Riddick would go on to finish with her fourth double-double of the season with 22 points and 11 rebounds. She also had the go-ahead second-chance layup with a few seconds to go.
- Junior guard Mady Cartwright also finished with 20 points with freshman guard Dora Toman finished behind her in scoring with 13 points.

Tulsa Downs the Gators in the Swamp

- Tulsa ended the 2025 non-conference season on a high note, defeating the Florida Gators 74-67 in Gainesville, capitalizing on 32 points off turnovers and a strong fast-break performance.
- It was Tulsa's first win on the road at an SEC school since December 1, 2005, against Arkansas (66-64).
- Mady Cartwright shined bright in front of a crowd of 2,871 loud Gator fans in Exactech Arena, leading the Golden Hurricane with 26 points off 7/13 made field goals -- five of which were 3-pointers -- while adding seven points at the free throw line and finishing with team-highs of three assists and three steals.
- Redshirt senior forward Hannah Riddick (19 points) and junior guard Jade Clack (16 points) also finished in double-digit scoring, while freshman guard Dora Toman led the way in boards with five.
- In the end, Tulsa was 47.1% from the floor (24/51), 37.5% from deep (9/24) and 60.7% from the charity stripe (17/28). Despite getting out-rebounded 43-22, TU started the game strong, maintained the lead for nearly 35 minutes and made the plays that mattered down the stretch.

2025-26 TULSA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

ANGIE NELP

COLORADO STATE, 2002 | FIFTH YEAR | 95-59

Angie Nelp is in her fifth season in 2025-26 as the head women's basketball coach at The University of Tulsa. She became the school's 11th head coach in women's basketball history when appointed to the position on April 12, 2021.

In five seasons, Nelp has compiled an 95-59 record for the second-most wins by a Golden Hurricane coach in program history. She has won the most games of any Tulsa coach in their first five seasons and is the first coach in program history to post winning records in every season at TU. She's also the only coach to lead Tulsa to three postseasons and post 10 or more home wins in four consecutive seasons.

While at TU, Nelp's players have earned two WBCA All-America honors, two WBCA Region Finalist distinctions, one American Conference Player of the Year, one American Ambassador Award, one American Most Improved Player of the Year, one American Freshman of the Year, five All-Conference awards and four All-Freshman honors.

In her 17-year Division I coaching career, Nelp has helped lead teams to postseason competition 11 times. She has coached 38 all-conference players, nine conference players of the year, four conference freshman of the year honorees, 50 academic all-conference selections and has had 19 players play professionally.

Nelp came to Tulsa following four seasons (2017-21) on the coaching staff at Arizona State. She spent her first three years as an assistant coach and was promoted to associate head coach in April 2020. During her tenure, the Sun Devils posted a .617 winning percentage with an overall 76-47 record and advanced to the postseason three times. ASU played in the NCAA Tournament twice, moving to the "Sweet Sixteen" in the 2018-19 campaign, and competed in the WNIT during the 2020-21 campaign.

During her time in Tempe, the program had the nation's No. 6-ranked recruiting class in 2020 with four players ranked among ESPN's top 30 by position. She also recruited and signed the 2018 U-18 European Championship MVP.

Nelp joined ASU from Rice University where she helped guide the Owls to the WBI Championship, the school's first postseason title, and 22 victories in 2016-17, the second-most wins in a single season. The Owls improved by 13 wins from her first to second season, one of the top increments in the nation.

Rice led all of Conference USA in total assists (558) and total rebounds (1,308) while setting a single-season program record in 3-pointers (242). In addition, the Owls ranked second in the league in assists per game (15.9), field goal percentage (.444), made three-pointers (242) and free throw attempts (626).

The Owls set a school record with 13 home victories in the 2016-17 season and the team's 9-2 start was the best by a Rice squad since the 1988-89 season.

Nelp joined the Owls after spending four seasons (2011-15) as an assistant coach at Mercer University where she was responsible for coaching the guards, as well as scout and film preparation. She coordinated Mercer's recruiting efforts that saw the Bears sign two ESPN top 70 players along with two Georgia state players of the year.

Nelp helped lead Mercer to two 20-win seasons, setting school records for most conference and non-conference wins while orchestrating one of the nation's quickest program turnarounds in one year as the Bears went from six to 20 wins.

Before her stint at Mercer, Nelp served as assistant director of basketball operations at Marquette University (2008-10). She also spent one season as a graduate assistant coach on the Arkansas women's basketball staff under then head coach Tom Colten during the 2007-08 campaign.

Nelp played collegiately at Colorado State (1998-02), accumulating 1,397 points, 629 rebounds, 356 assists and 261 steals in four seasons, and leading the Rams to three NCAA Tournament appearances. She earned Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year honors, was a first-team All-MWC selection, a Kodak All-America Honorable Mention honoree and was named an academic all-conference performer all four seasons. Nelp was inducted into the Colorado State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019.

A native of Eufaula, Okla., Nelp, formerly Angie Gorton, starred at Canadian High School in Oklahoma, and led her team to the 1998 Oklahoma State Championship while earning state tournament MVP honors and was tabbed as the 1998 Oklahoma Gatorade Player of the Year.

After graduating from Colorado State in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in health and exercise science, she went on to spend two seasons with the NWBL Colorado Chill and one season with 08 Stockholm in Sweden. As a professional, she helped lead the Chill to the 2005 NWBL title and 08 Stockholm to the 2003 Swedish national crown.

Following her professional career, Nelp returned to the United States to serve as the head girls' basketball coach at Yorktown High in Yorktown, Ind.

Nelp and her husband Jake have four children: JJ, Louis, Ellie Kaye and Harrison.
