DENNIS FRANCHIONE
Head Coach
Pittsburg State, 1973

After winning 187 games and leading his teams to nine conference championships, one divisional title and eight bowl games, Dennis Franchione rejoined college football's coaching ranks and returned to Texas State for a second time when the school named him its head football coach on Jan. 7, 2011.

Franchione begins his 26th season as a collegiate head coach with a 187-101-2 career record, including a 13-9 mark at Texas State in 1990-91.

His collegiate head coaching career began at Southwestern in 1981, when he compiled a 14-4-2 record in two seasons. In 1982, his team won nine games, a Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference championship and a victory in the Sunflower Bowl.

The nine wins tied a school record for most wins in a season and were the most at Southwestern since 1967.

Following the record-setting season, Franchione served two seasons as the offensive coordinator at Tennessee Tech in 1983 and 1984 before being named head coach at his alma mater, Pittsburg State.

During the next five seasons, he led the Gorillas to a 53-6 record and was named NAIA "Coach of the Year" in 1986 and 1987.

His teams won five conference championships, played in five consecutive national playoffs and had a regular-season winning streak of 45 consecutive games.

Four of the conference championships were in the Central States Intercollegiate Conference when Pittsburg State was playing in the NAIA ranks. The other came in the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association when the school joined the NCAA Division II ranks in 1989. That year, the Gorillas set a school record with 12 wins after tying the previous mark three times.

The following year, Franchione served as the head coach at Texas State (formerly Southwest Texas State) in 1990-91, where he turned around a program that had suffered five straight losing seasons and led the Bobcats to two straight winning seasons, a feat that was not duplicated until 2008-09.

He was named the AFCAA Region VI "Coach of the Year" in 1990 after leading the Bobcats to their first winning record as a FCS school with a 6-5 mark. Franchione also guided the Bobcats to a 7-4 mark the following year before taking his first FBS job at New Mexico in 1992.

He compiled a 33-36 record at New Mexico, where he took the program from a 3-8 mark in 1992 to a 9-4 record in 1997 when the Lobos won the WAC's Mountain Division championship and played in the Insight.com Bowl. It was the school's first appearance in a bowl game since 1961.

During the 1996 and 1997 seasons, one of his players was NFL Pro Bowl linebacker Brian Urlacher.

Franchione moved to TCU in 1998 and quickly turned around the fortunes of the school's football program.

After the Horned Frogs finished the previous season with a 1-10 record, Franchione led them to a 7-5 mark and a 28-19 victory over USC in the Sun Bowl in his first year.

He also led TCU to an 8-4 record, a WAC co-championship and a berth to the Mobile Alabama bowl game in 1999 before the Horned Frogs finished the 2000 season with a 10-1 record, another WAC co-championship and a second straight appearance in Mobile Alabama Bowl.

His offense featured Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman finalist LaDainian Tomlinson at running back.

Franchione's next stop as head coach was at Alabama, where he led the Crimson Tide to a 7-5 record in 2001 after the Tide had posted a 3-8 record the prior season.

The team also won the Independence Bowl that season, which was Alabama's first bowl victory in five years. The following year, he led the Crimson Tide to a 10-3 mark and a SEC West Division championship with a 6-2 league record. Following Alabama's victory over Hawaii that season, Franchione was named head coach at Texas A&M.

During the next five seasons, his Aggies posted three winning records and three bowl appearances. Texas A&M finished the 2004 season with a 7-5 mark and played in the Cotton Bowl, the first bowl game in which the Aggies had played in three seasons.

His best season at the school came in 2006 when the Aggies won nine games and played in the Holiday Bowl. The next year, Texas A&M posted another 7-5 record and qualified to play in the Alamo Bowl.

However, Franchione resigned as head coach prior to the bowl game and ended his tenure at the school with a 32-28 record.

During his tenure at Texas A&M, his recruiting classes were ranked among the Top 13 nationally from 2003-05.

Born March 28, 1951 in Girard, Kan., Franchione resides in Horseshoe Bay, Texas and was an analyst for ESPN Radio broadcasts in 2008 and 2009.

He is married to the former Kim Kraus, and they have two daughters Ashley and Libby. He also has a son, Brad, who serves as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Texas State. Brad and his wife, Rebecca, have three children.
