BOBCAT BITS

HUMPAL GARNERS NATIONAL, CONFERENCE WEEKLY AWARDS

Senior ace LUCAS HUMPAL is looking sharp early in this young season and people are noticing. He was named the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association's National Pitcher of the Week on March 8. He also earned a nod from the Sun Belt Conference and CollegeSportsMadness.com for the Pitcher of the Week honor in the same week. In his Friday performance that week, Humpal threw 11 strikeouts in a complete-game shutout of Incarnate Word on Friday, March 4. After tallying five strikeouts in the first three innings of the game, he teamed with the defense to retire the final 13 consecutive batters to clinch the game. He did not allow an extra-base hit nor a walk or a hit by pitch in the game. It's the first honor of the season for Humpal, but don't be surprised if more come.

THREE CONSECUTIVE BOBCATS EARN STUDENT-ATHLETE OF THE WEEK HONORS

In addition to LUCAS HUMPAL and his SBC weekly honor on March 8, the Bobcats had players recognized as Sun Belt Conference Student-Athletes of the Week on both sides of Humpal's honor. This past week, freshman second baseman JONATHAN ORTEGA earned his first career nod as SBC Player of the Week, being recognized on March 15 for a week in which he was 10-for-20 with eight runs scored combined at Baylor and in a three-game series against UL Monroe. He was 4-for-6 at Baylor and notched his and the team's first five-hit day in the series finale against UL Monroe. He finished the week with four doubles, two RBIs, a walk, a steal, an on-base percentage of .524, a .700 slugging percentage and some impressive plays on defense.

Sophomore shortstop LUKE SHERLEY was named the Sun Belt Conference's Student-Athlete of the Week on March 1, notching eight hits on the week, including seven hits in three games at the Kleberg College Classic. He didn't hit below .333 in any game that week and was 2-for-4, 2-for-4 and 3-for-4 in the tournament, adding his first career home run on the first night of the Kleberg College Classic. Tallying five RBIs, Sherley went .583 on a 7-for-12 weekend with three runs scored. He slugged .917 with a .583 on-base percentage. In addition to his offensive prowess, the shortstop turned two double plays to show off some impressive defensive skill.

OFFENSE HEATING UP

The Texas State offense took a little bit of time to hit its stride last season, but the Bobcats did indeed find it and went on to rank at the top of the Sun Belt Conference in nearly every major offensive category during conference play. So far this year, Texas State has picked up where it left off with a .306 team batting average, 184 hits, 120 runs, 108 RBIs and 59 extra-base hits and 15 home runs to start the season. Currently, Texas State is leading the Sun Belt Conference in batting average, slugging percentage, triples, home runs and total bases. The Bobcats are second in the conference in on-base percentage, runs, hits, RBIs and doubles. Nine Bobcats who have taken a swing are hitting .300 or better, led by JONATHAN ORTEGA and his .408 batting average. Nine Bobcats have struck double-digit hits, led by Ortega's 29 hits.

ORTEGA A YOUNG LEADER IN MORE WAYS THAN ONE

Texas State's leadoff man may just be a freshman, but JONATHAN ORTEGA has not shied away from the important role. In the first at-bat of his collegiate career, the first time he swung the bat was a home run to start the season with a bang and he hasn't slowed down since. Ortega has been the most consistent bat for the Bobcats while manning second base. He is currently hitting .408 to lead the team. He also leads the team in hits with 29 and owns the top spot in RBIs with 17. The freshman leads the Sun Belt Conference in hits and total bases while sitting tied for second in RBIs. Not just hitting for average, the native of Victoria, Texas, has shown some power as he is tied for third on the team in home runs with two and has belted seven doubles and two triples. The leadoff spot is a hard place to rack up RBIs, but the freshman has been able to do it while tallying 46 total bases on a .468 on-base percentage with a .648 slugging percentage. The speedy freshman is also leads the team in steals with four on four attempts.

HODSON PROVIDING RELIEF

In his first season playing for the Bobcats, CHASE HODSON has strengthened the bullpen with some impressive work in relief this year. He already has three wins on the season and boasts an ERA of just 1.54. In four appearances and 11.2 innings of work, Hodson has struck out 13 batters, good enough for more than one K per inning. He has only given up two runs and six hits while opponents can only muster a .162 batting average against the senior from Richmond, Texas.

FRESHMAN DEVELOPING INTO MIDWEEK ROLE

Freshman lefty BRANDON LEWIS has laid claim to the midweek starting role as he made his fourth start of the season this week at UTSA. He has accounted for himself well in starts against Rice, Texas and Baylor. In 14.2 innings of work, he has struck out eight batters and earned his first career victory at Baylor last week. He has only given up four extra-base hits this season, three doubles and a home run.

TEXAS STATE BASEBALL PASSES 1,000 WINS

Texas State earned the program's 1,000th victory Friday, March 4 against Incarnate Word. The Bobcats did it in style with a 4-0 shutout and a complete-game, 11 strikeout performance from senior starter LUCAS HUMPAL. The Bobcats had been rapidly approaching 1,000 wins for the program and now stands at 1,006. Head Coach TY HARRINGTON has won the lion's share, with a career record of 543-414-1, but other coaches have put in work as well. STEVE PRENTICE won 222 games from 1987-1993 while HOWARD BUSHONG won 181 from 1994-1999. JAY JEFFREY, the first coach of the program won 60 games in 1985-86.

BOBCATS ON THE EDGE OF THE TEXAS STATE RECORD BOOKS

In addition to the team's success, there are individual Bobcats making their march into the team's record books. With his five more strikeouts this past Friday, LUCAS HUMPAL now has 230 strikeouts for his career. He is currently third on the all-time list in career strikeouts at Texas State, but is just four away from moving into second all-time and a mere 12 strikeouts from laying claim to being the strikeout king in the Texas State record books. He has 60 career appearances, 17 career wins and 287.1 innings pitched, good enough for tied for ninth and 10th in appearances and wins and fifth in innings pitched all-time at Texas State.

GRANGER STUDDARD and TANNER HILL have already put their names on the all-time home runs list with 19 for Studdard and 17 for Hill, putting Studdard 10th and tying Hill for 14th all-time along Assistant Coach JEREMY FIKAC. Studdard and Hill could lay claim to other categories in the record books, along with CODY LOVEJOY before the season is over.

SHERLEY BATTING AWAY

As a freshman last season, shortstop LUKE SHERLEY finished the year hitting .185 with no home runs. Taking a big jump into his sophomore year, Sherley has already hit the first home run of his career and currently sits second on the team with 21 hits so far this season, just three less than his season total in 2015. A native of The Woodlands, Texas, Sherley has two doubles, his homer and eight RBIs. He is tied for third on the team in runs scored with 12. Showing that his defense hasn't faltered with the new bat, Sherley has turned 12 double plays this season.

SWINGING FOR THE FENCES

So far this season, seven different Bobcats have sent the ball out of the ballpark, led by TANNER HILL and his four home runs, racking up 15 total homers. RYAN NEWMAN has three while GRANGER STUDDARD and JONATHAN ORTEGA has two homers, and THEODORE HOFFMAN joined the ranks with two roundtrippers in a single game at UTSA. LUKE SHERLEY and DEREK SCHEIBLE have also gone yard this season.

Texas State is spreading the home runs throughout the lineup with every spot but the second and ninth batters tallying a home run. The best counts for the Bobcats this year has been the first pitch and 2-1 counts with three home runs going out on each count. Texas State has also proven that it doesn't matter when in the game that they'll hit homers with a home run in all but the ninth inning. Ten of the 15 homers on the year have been solo home runs. The Bobcats have also banged up the righties with all but three of the team's home runs coming against right-handers. Texas State has sent both starters and relievers yard at a near even rate with eight home runs against starters and seven against relievers.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Bobcats have a good bit of youth contributing on the squad stretching from freshmen to redshirt freshmen and sophomores. So far in this young season, depending on the game, five or six of the nine regular starters are sophomores or freshmen. On the mound, nine of the arms on the squad are sophomores or younger. In fact, 20 players on the squad are sophomores, freshmen or redshirt freshmen as the Bobcats begin the season. Texas State does have strong leadership for the young bucks with nine seniors on the team.

NEWCOMERS TO BE CALLED UPON

Texas State welcomes 15 newcomers to the squad this season with three transfers and 12 freshmen, and many of them have already been counted on early this season for valuable time on the field. In fact, three have already made a huge impact in RYAN NEWMAN, JONATHAN ORTEGA and NICK PEREZ. Other newcomers with a chance to see the field often include ANTHONY PAGANO, JACOB ALMENDAREZ and FELIPE RODRIGUEZ. Newcomers are also taking the mound for the Bobcats. CHASE HODSON, WES ENGLE, JONATHAN HENNIGAN, BRAYDEN THERIOT, CALVIN BUSH and Pagano are all newcomers who have seen the mound along with midweek starter freshman BRANDON LEWIS. In the group of newcomers, the Bobcats have five strictly position players with eight pitchers and two players who might get the opportunity to pitch and hit for the Bobcats.

Despite finishing last season in sixth, Texas State received plenty of respect from the coaches of the Sun Belt Conference as the Bobcats were selected third in the SBC Preseason Poll.

HILL, GEISLER RECOGNIZED EARLY

In addition to the team respect, Texas State earned individual recognition from the conference for seniors TANNER HILL and CORY GEISLER as they were selected to the Sun Belt Conference Preseason Team. Hill was chosen at first base while Geisler was selected as a utility player.

MORE PRESEASON HONORS

In addition to the conference's preseason team, TANNER HILL was also named to the CollegeSportsMadness.com Sun Belt Preseason All-Conference Team along with junior GRANGER STUDDARD. BREAKING TRADITION

The name of junior GRANGER STUDDARD has become synonymous with Texas State Baseball in just his third season as an outfielder for the Bobcats. But his heavy contributions to the Bobcat squad are bucking a family trend. It wasn't always so clear that he was going to play baseball. Studdard comes from a family of football players from the University of Texas. His father, two uncles, one of their uncles and his cousin Kasey Studdard all played football for the Longhorns. Kasey may be the most accomplished with a five-year career in the NFL for the Houston Texans. Granger, however, chose to break tradition to play baseball at Texas State. That decision is serving him and the Bobcats well.

BOBCATS GET DRAFTED

Last season, two Bobcats were drafted in the annual MLB Draft. Both LUCAS HUMPAL and SCOTT GRIST were selected, going in the 37th and 38th rounds to the Cleveland Indians and Milwaukee Brewers. Humpal chose to return to Texas State and finish his collegiate career while Grist, a senior in 2015, went on to pursue a career in professional baseball. They were just the two latest in a long line of Bobcats to be drafted. Since Head Coach TY HARRINGTON took over the Texas State baseball program, 38 Bobcats have been drafted. In all, 53 Texas State baseball players have been selected in the MLB Draft since 1987. Twice, five Bobcats have been selected in the MLB Draft in a single season with five going in back-to-back years in 2011 and 2012. Texas State also saw four Bobcats selected in 2014 and 2009. Texas State has had 12 Bobcats selected in the first 10 rounds of the MLB Draft, led by BLAKE WILLIAMS who was selected in the first round in 2000.

STRONG SCHEDULE

In 2016, Texas State plays the tough schedule fans expect from the Bobcats. After opening the season by hosting Pac-12 opponent Washington State, Texas State traveled to national power Rice for the first of two games in 2016. After that, the Bobcats traveled to Corpus Christi, Texas, to face Big 10 opponent Michigan State and UCF, a team ranked as high as sixth nationally in 2015. The Bobcats hosted another national power, Texas, the first of three meetings. The Bobcats beat another Big 12 opponent, Baylor, on March 8. Texas State will travel to SEC power and national standout Texas A&M on April 19 and plays perennial contender Sam Houston State on March 28. Texas State also plays I-35 Rival UTSA three times in 2016, hosts Nevada for a three-game home stand and will travel to national contender UL Lafayette for a conference series April 22-24, along with the rest of the SBC slate.

HEAD COACH
17TH SEASON
TEXAS, 1989

Since taking over the baseball program in 2000, Head Coach Ty Harrington has built Texas State into an annual contender both regionally and on the national stage. The 2011 and 2009 Southland Conference Coach of the Year, Harrington has won at least 24 games while posting a winning record in conference play during each of his first 15 seasons at the helm of the Bobcats. The winningest coach in Texas State baseball history, Harrington led the Bobcats to back-to-back-to-back Southland Conference championships (2009, 2010, 2011), three NCAA Regional Tournament appearances (2000, 2009, 2011) and a program record for most wins in a season in 2009 that the team again tied in 2011.

Entering his 17th season at Texas State, Harrington sports a 531-410-1 all-time record, including a 290-176 record during conference play. He has helped produce 75 all-conference selections, and 41 of Harrington's players have been chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, including four in 2014 headlined by pitcher Austen Williams in the sixth round along with two more in 2015.

In 2014, Harrington earned a milestone 500th victory against Baylor on April 24, 2014. The Bobcats had a good start to the season, winning nine of their first 11 games including a seven-game winning streak. In a double-elimination conference tournament, Texas State also challenged eventual champion UL Lafayette in a thrilling 4-3 game.

The Bobcats had a tough start to 2013, but Harrington pulled the team together to finish strong en route to a second place finish in the conference. In a rare occurrence, the Bobcats won their final game of postseason play but due to an unusual round robin tournament in the Western Athletic Conference, Texas State's season came to a close.

Harrington's Bobcats did, however, beat regular season champion CSU Bakersfield along with tournament champion UTSA. The Bobcat pitching staff was so strong in 2013 that Texas State saw two contributors drafted in the Major League Baseball Draft. Starter Kyle Finnegan went in the sixth round to the Oakland Athletics while lefty reliever Donnie Hart went to the Baltimore Orioles in the 27th round after breaking a Texas State record for most appearances in a season with 41 and a team high 2.13 ERA. Hart did not give up a run until his 11th appearance and not an earned run until his 26th.

In 2012, The Bobcats began the season strong with a 14-6 record through the team's first 20 games, the second best 20-game start to a season since Harrington took over in 2000. The start helped catapult Texas State up to No. 20 in the Baseball America rankings, the highest since the program began in 1985, and No. 30 in the Collegiate Baseball poll.

Partially responsible for the strong start was the Bobcat pitching staff, which set program records and made a run at a longtime NCAA record. Texas State hurlers did not allow a run over 57 2/3 consecutive innings, a streak spanning seven games from Feb. 25 to March 6. The Bobcats set the team record for scoreless innings and consecutive shutouts (5) and came up just 6 1/3 innings shy of the NCAA record of 64 consecutive scoreless innings set in 1972 by Arizona State. The streak a win against No. 18 TCU, a series sweep of Notre Dame and a victory over No. 4 Rice.

The Bobcats' win over No. 4 Rice was one of six wins the team had against ranked opponents during the season. Texas State also defeated preseason No. 37-ranked Wichita State along with No. 18/No. 19 TCU twice and No. 16 Oregon twice.

Harrington led the Bobcats to a 41-23 record in 2011 as the team captured both Southland regular season and tournament crowns for the first time in program history. Harrington's squad tied the program record for wins in a season and qualified for the NCAA Regionals for the third time under his direction. Along the way, Harrington reached the 400-win mark with a 16-2 victory midway through the season against Northwestern State.

A Texas State-record five players were drafted from the Bobcats' 2011 squad, including Kyle Kubitz who went to the Atlanta Braves in the third round, the third highest selection in Texas State history.

Harrington led the Bobcats to a 38-22 record and 23-10 mark in the SLC in 2010 as the team captured its second consecutive conference regular season title. Carson Smith was named the SLC Pitcher of the Year and Newcomer of the Year while being one of six Bobcats to earned all-Southland Conference accolades.

In 2009, Harrington led the Bobcats to a 41-17 overall season, marking the most wins in a single-season for the baseball program at that time. Texas State finished 21-7 against Southland Conference opponents, en route to their first-ever SLC regular season championship. Harrington garnered the 2009 SLC Coach of the Year honors after the successful run as Texas State received an at-large bid to the NCAA Regional Championship Tournament. The first-ever at-large bid for the baseball program, the Bobcats earned the No. 2 seed in the region to compete in Austin with Texas, Army and Boston College.

Harrington not only produced a successful team, but the success of his individual players was unprecedented in 2009 as well. Kane Holbrooks, Paul Goldschmidt and Tyler Sibley became the first-ever all-Americans for the Texas State baseball program. Holbrooks and Goldschmidt earned three all-America honors, while Sibley was named to the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American team. Seven Bobcats were named All-Southland Conference, as Goldschmidt was named Southland Conference Player of the Year, Hitter of the Year and Student-Athlete of the Year. Holbrooks was named the SLC Pitcher of the Year and Keith Prestridge earned SLC Newcomer of the Year honors.

In 2007, Harrington coached his squad to a 37-23 record, a then-best mark of his career. Texas State opened the season with an 8-3 win over Oklahoma and returned to Bobcat Field for a 3-2 upset of No. 1 Rice in front of a record crowd.

In 2006, Texas State defeated three teams that made appearances in the 2005 College World Series (Texas, Nebraska and Baylor), and Texas State's final victory of the season over Lamar marked Harrington's 200th win of his career. The win made Harrington one of just two coaches with 200-or-more wins as the Bobcats' skipper. Harrington reached the milestone in his sixth season, one year sooner than former Texas State head coach Steve Prentice who earned his 200th victory in the fifth game of his seventh season as Bobcats' coach.

In 2004, Texas State defeated No. 16 Texas A&M during the regular season and played 14 games against ranked opponents, finishing with a 32-26 overall mark and a 16-10 record in the Southland Conference.

The 2003 campaign was a successful one, as the Bobcats finished second overall in the league standings, just one game behind regular season champion Lamar. Texas State posted a 30-28 overall record and a 19-7 Southland Conference mark as the team earned wins over defending national champion Texas and preseason top-25 selection, Baylor.

In 2002, Harrington led the Bobcats to a 36-24 record, the second most wins at the time posted in a season by a Texas State baseball team in 17 years. His club collected 10 wins against nationally-ranked teams, including a 2-0 shutout in Austin against the eventual national champion Texas Longhorns.

Prior to taking command of Texas State's baseball program, Harrington served as the head coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas in 1999. In his one season with the Buccaneers, Harrington guided them to a 36-22 record and advanced to the Region XIV NJCAA Championship. From 1995-98, Harrington served as the head coach at Northeast Texas Community College in Mount Pleasant, Texas.

In his first season, the Eagles finished with a 37-12 record, and in 1996, Harrington led the team to a 48-18 overall record while capturing the NJCAA National Championship. Along with the championship title, Harrington received NJCAA Coach of the Year honors.

In his four years at the helm of the Northeast Texas CC program, Harrington recorded a .705 winning percentage, winning 165 of 234 games. While at NTCC, Harrington also assisted in the development of an academic accountability system that resulted in a team grade point average higher than 3.00 for three consecutive years.

Harrington began his coaching career at the University of Texas, where he served as a student coach and graduate assistant coach from 1988-1991. He
