QUICK NOTABLES

- Texas State split the first two games of the four-game homestand. The Bobcats fell to Stephen F. Austin 3-2 in double overtime and held on for a 1-0 victory against Northwestern State.
- A goal by Rachel Grout at the 34:45 mark snapped Texas State's scoreless streak at just over four games and for a total of 438:21.
- This weekend marks the beginning of Sun Belt Conference play. For the second year in a row, the Bobcats play their first two conference games at home.
- All SBC teams will wear special warm-up jerseys this weekend in support of Ovarian Cancer Awareness and head coach Kat Conner. She was diagnosed with stage three ovarian cancer last year and underwent many surgical procedures and seven months of chemotherapy in order to eradicate any remnants of the disease. Thankfully, she is now in remission.

A LOOK AT THE RETURNERS

- Texas State returns five seniors, nine juniors and four sophomores to the 2016 squad. Serving as this year's team captains are forward Lauren Prater and midfielder Maddie Nichols.
- Prater led both the Bobcats and the Sun Belt Conference with 12 goals and five game-winning scores in 2015 in a breakout campaign. She added four assists to share the team lead with 28 points that earned her All-Sun Belt Conference Second Team honors.
- Nichols leads an experience group of midfielders that includes juniors Rachel Grout, Brooke Ramsey and Kira Zapalac. Two goals last season were scored by Zapalac while Grout added a goal. Ramsey finished with two assists while taking a majority of the corner kicks.
- Anchoring the defensive line is junior Chandler Cooney, a 2015 second team All-SBC selection. Fellow classmate Elizabeth Havenhill returns after missing the second half of last season because of injury to team with Cooney in the center of the back line. They will be joined by seniors Taylor Allen and Ali Jones on the outside.
- Junior Maddi Nordstrom is the only Bobcat on the roster with experience between the posts. She has appeared in two career games with her first career start coming last season at Troy. Nordstrom is also the lone player on the team not hailing from the Lone Star state, claiming Orlando, Florida as her hometown.

CONFERENCE CONSISTENCY

- This year's senior class will be the first to have played their entire career in the Sun Belt Conference. The last time a senior class competed in one conference for their entire career was 2011, the last year that Texas State was a member of the Southland Conference.
- The Bobcats have compiled a 15-9-2 record in SBC game and have appeared in the conference tournament all three seasons.

WELCOME TO SAN MARCOS

- The 2016 Bobcats welcome seven freshman in Kathryn Budde, Sarah Gavin, Jordan Kondikoff, Valeria Macias, Heather Martin, Kalen Sanderfer and Genesis Turman.
- The class consists of three defenders, two forwards, two goalkeepers and a midfielder.
- Both Turman and Sanderfer were high school teammates at Allen High School in Allen, Texas.
- Competing for time in goal are Budde and Martin.

2016 TEXAS STATE SOCCER

KAT CONNER

HEAD COACH
18TH SEASON OVERALL

PACIFIC LUTHERAN, 1992
FIVE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS • FOUR REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONSHIPS

18TH SEASON

Kat Conner has built quite a legacy since given the opportunity to build a women's soccer program at Texas State. Entering her 17th season as the leader of the Bobcats, Conner has won four regular season conference championships, five conference tournaments and has led Texas State to the NCAA Tournament five times. She enters 2016 with a career record of 179-144-23.

The 2015 campaign saw Conner set out most of the year while battling ovarian cancer. In the Bobcats' second season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference, Conner guided Texas State to its second consecutive SBC semifinal match before ultimately falling to Troy. The 2014 Bobcats notched Conner's ninth, 10-win team at Texas State and had a pair of student-athletes earn all-conference accolades.

As a junior in 2014, Lynsey Curry became the first Texas State soccer player to be named First Team All-Sun Belt Conference after leading the Bobcats with seven goals including two game winners. Freshman defender Elizabeth Havenhill earned Second-Team All-SBC honors as a pivotal member of the Bobcat backline.

In Texas State's first season in the SBC, Conner led the team to a 4-3-1 record and a semifinal finish in the tournament. The move to the SBC was the third conference realignment in as many years for Texas State.

After earning Freshman of the Year honors in the WAC in 2012, Curry was named Second-Team All-SBC alongside Tori Hale, who finished her Texas State career as the program's all-time assists leader. In 2013, Hale tied the single season record in assists with nine.

Conner's latest appearance in the NCAA Tournament came in 2011 after the Bobcats defeated Stephen F. Austin in the Southland Conference Tournament, 1-0. Heading into the game, SFA was the leading goal scoring team in the country with over 3.4 goals per game.

Texas State finished that season 14-6-1, just one of 20 teams in the country to win at least 12 games. From 2008-11, the Bobcats won a combined 53 games, 30th most in the NCAA.

Individually, Texas State finished the 2011 season with a league-high six All-Southland Conference selections along with Newcomer of the Year, Andrea Mauk.

During her tenure in the Southland, Conner coached three Conference Players of the Year, four Newcomers of the Year, three Freshmen of the Year, one All-American and 55 All-Conference team members.

In Texas State's inaugural season in 1999, Conner led the Bobcats to a 9-9-3 overall record and a 6-3-3 mark in the Southland Conference to finish third overall and advance to the league's postseason tournament.

Despite the inexperience, Texas State claimed its first-ever SLC Tournament title and played in the NCAA Tournament.

Two years later, the Bobcats returned to the NCAA Tournament after posting a 14-7-0 overall record and claiming the SLC title and sweeping through the SLC tournament. It was just the second time in league history a team had won both the conference and conference tournament championships.

Conner continued her winning ways in 2002 when Texas State shared the SLC championship with Southeastern Louisiana, and again in 2004 when the Bobcats won the SLC Tournament and made its third appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Texas State turned in the best season in school history during the 2008 season. The Bobcats posted a 13-4-4 overall record and went undefeated against SLC opponents with a 7-0-2 mark to claim the SLC championship. Duplicating the feat previously achieved in 2001, Texas State also won the Southland Tournament and advanced to the NCAA's.

Texas State met Texas A&M in the first round of the NCAA postseason for the third time in program history. The Aggies held a 2-0 lead by halftime, and despite scoring its first two goals ever against the Aggies, Texas State fell by a score of 5-2.

2016 TEXAS STATE SOCCER

After losing four members from the spectacular 2008 squad, the next season seemed to fall right into place. The Bobcats enjoyed another undefeated conference season, going 8-0-1 and with a 14-6-1 overall mark.

Conner was named Southland Coach of the Year and junior Britney Curry was named the 2009 Player of the Year. Curry ranked seventh nationally averaging .842 goals per game and eighth with an average of two points per game. The honor marked the third-straight season Curry was named to a postseason team, a feat a number of athletes have enjoyed under Conner's leadership.

Conner has coached quite a few stars during her time in San Marcos as Curry finished her career as Texas State's all-time career scoring leader with 123 points (53 goals, 17 assists). In 2010, she was the leading scorer in the conference, with 33 points (14 goals, five assists). Nationally, she ranked 13th in both total goals (14) and goals per game (0.667) and 18th in points per game with 1.57. For her career, she finished just four points shy of the all-time Southland Conference record of 127 points by Kim McNally (Southeastern Louisiana, 2002-04).

Marva Bailey (1999-2002) earned First-Team All-SLC honors each year of her career at Texas State and Kendra Kade repeated the achievement from 2001-2004. In 2002, Sarah Buchrucker became Texas State's first soccer All-American after being named to the Verizon Wireless All-American Team. In 2004, Danielle Holloway became the SLC's first player in history to be named Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year in the same season.

In addition to the success on the field, Conner prides herself on student-athletes performing well in the classroom. Along with a championship caliber program on the field, she demands the same for her player's education.

In 2015, the soccer team earned its second Emmett Sheldon Award, an honor given to the Texas State's highest female team GPA. The first time that women's soccer earned the award was after the 2004-05 school year.

Associate Athletic Director for External Operations Don Coryell awards Conner the game ball after her 150th career victory in 2013.

Jayne Sherman, a two-time All-SLC Academic winner, became the first Texas State soccer player to be named SLC Student-Athlete of the Year in 2005.

The 2013 school year also marked a first academically for the Bobcats when Tori Hale was named a Capital One Academic All-District First-Team selection. Hale matched that honor in 2014 alongside fellow senior Jourdan Brown.

Prior to taking the reins at Texas State, Conner was an assistant coach at Texas A&M. There, she was responsible for recruiting and coaching all phases of the game, scheduling, travel, budget, summer camps, as well as monitoring academics for the team.

During her five seasons in College Station, the Aggies made four NCAA tournament appearances, won a Big 12 Championship and a Big 12 Tournament championship.

Conner began her coaching career at Pacific Lutheran after completing a successful playing career for the Lutes in 1990.

She earned a B.A. in physical education before serving as the Lutes' defensive coordinator, handling recruiting and travel. As a coach, Conner helped lead the team to a national championship in 1991 and a national runner-up finish in 1992. The Lutes had a combined record of 57-8-7 as a player and coach, during which the team reached the NAIA Championship game all three years.

The 1991 championship team has been inducted into the Pacific Lutheran Hall of Fame. It marked the last time the Lutes won a NAIA national championship.

Prior to finishing her playing career at Pacific Lutheran, Conner played three years at Hardin Simmons. There, she led her team to the NAIA Championship game in 1988. She also was named to the NAIA All-Tournament team in 1988.

In addition to coaching at Texas State, Conner has been involved with developing Texas youth soccer. She has been a member of the coaching staff for the Region III Olympic Development Program and served as the coach for the South Texas U16 team.

Collegiately, Conner was a member of the 2011 NCAA Central Ranking Committee during the season. She was the chairman of the NSCAA Central Ranking Committee in 2011 after serving on it since 2009.

From 2004-07, Conner was appointed to the NCAA soccer rules committee by both the Southland Conference and the NCAA. Conner holds a USSF "A" license as well as a U.S. Soccer Goalkeeping license and NSCAA Premier License.

A native of Irving, Texas, Conner graduated from Nimitz High School.
