SERIES HISTORY

- Texas State and FIU meet for the first time in 2021.
- Texas State has a 2-4 record against schools from Florida. The last win came against UCF on Oct. 5, 1985 in Orlando.
- This marks the fifth time that Texas State will play in Florida. The Bobcats are 1-3 in the four previous games. In addition to the win at UCF, Texas State played at USF on Sept. 11, 1999, at FAU on Oct. 4, 2003, and at No. 10-ranked Florida State on Sept. 5, 2015.

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW

- Jake Spavital is his third season as the head coach at Texas State and in his second year calling the offensive plays for the Bobcats in 2021. Spavital is the third-youngest head coach in the NCAA Division I FBS in 2021. He took the reins at Texas State on Nov. 30, 2018, after overseeing some of the nation's most prolific offenses at West Virginia, California, and Texas A&M. He is Texas State's 20th head coach since the program began in 1904.
- Texas State added Brian Gamble and Jim Turner to its coaching staff in 2021. Gamble is the inside linebackers coach after serving three years as the linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech. Turner begins his first season as the offensive line coach after coaching the past two years in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals.
- Texas State offensive tackle Liam Dobson was the third overall player taken in the 2021 CFL Draft by the Winnipeg Blue Bombers last May. Dobson is a transfer from Maine, who is ranked among the top 16 most impactful Division I FCS to FBS transfers in the nation. He also was named one of Bruce Feldman's 2021 College Football's Freaks List. He can play all five positions on the offensive line, has a "31.5-inch vertical jump (up 2.5 inches from his time at Maine) to go with an 8-9 broad jump and 4.8 shuttle." Dobson was named a NCAA Division I FCS All-America offensive line as a junior at Maine. He transferred to Texas State last December.
- Brady McBride became the first Texas State quarterback to start in two consecutive season openers since 2016 when he made his ninth career start against Baylor. He completed 20-of-40 passes for 156 yards and a touchdown with three interceptions against the Bears. McBride began the 2020 season making his first collegiate start against SMU after sitting out the 2019 campaign because of NCAA transfer regulations. He played in nine games last year and completed 173-of-282 passes for 1,925 yards and 17 touchdowns with seven interceptions in 2020.
- Texas State ranks 29th in pass defense after holding Baylor to 148 yards passing. It marks the fourth time in the last five games dating back to last year that the Bobcats have held an opponent under 200 yards passing. The Bobcats recovered a fumble, forced three punts, and held the Bears on downs in the fourth quarter.
- Texas State added three Florida natives to its roster in 2021. They are senior cornerback D.C. Williams from Miami, junior wide receiver Dennis Robinson from Hollywood, Fla., and freshman offensive lineman Matthew Fletcher from Lake Wales. Williams is a transfer from Vanderbilt, and Robinson transferred to Texas State from Northern Illinois.

COVERING TEXAS STATE HOME GAMES

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Working media and photographer credentials for Texas State's home games are distributed through the Sports Information Office. Requests should be made as early as possible or at least 10 days prior to each home game.

Send credential requests to Rick Poulter, Assistant AD/Sports Information via E-Mail at rpoulter@txstate.edu.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking at Bobcat Stadium is available on a limited basis on the West and East sides of the stadium. Additional parking is available in the lot located on Thorpe Lane behind the Track and Field Stadium. Requests for parking passes should be made at least 10 days prior to each home game so that they may be mailed to you in advance.

TEXAS STATE PRESS BOX

The Texas State Press Box is located on the fourth level of the Jerry D. and Linda Gregg Fields West Side Complex at Bobcat Stadium and opens three hours prior to each game. The Press Box includes a working press area and small booths for coaches, radio/TV announcers and the visiting athletic director. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box.

GAME DAY SERVICES

Pregame notes and two-deep cards are provided in the press box before each home game. Team statistics, individual statistical leaders and a play-by-play are distributed after each quarter in the press box. After the game has ended, statistical books that include team statistics, individual statistics, a play-by-play and participation list will be distributed in the press box, e-mailed to media members and posted on the www.txstatebobcats.com website. In addition, postgame quotes and team notes will be distributed.

To be included in the postgame e-mail distribution, please contact Rick Poulter via e-mail at rpoulter@txstate.edu in advance of the game.

SIDELINES

Due to COVID 19 regulations, the only areas open for photographers to shoot photos on the field is behind the end zones and the west side of the stadium between the goal line and the back of the end zone. You may not shoot photos from the sidelines in between the two goal lines. There is space outside the press box area just above the reserve seating so photographers can shoot photos of the playing field.

There will be uniformed security personnel patrolling the sidelines. Anyone holding a media pass who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be asked to vacate the sidelines. Similar procedures will be in effect in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Texas State holds its postgame interviews in the team meeting room located on the first floor of the Football End Zone Complex at Bobcat Stadium. Texas State head coach Jake Spavital and selected players are available approximately 10 minutes after each game. Texas State's locker room is closed following each game and practice.

Visiting SIDs establish media interview and locker room admittance policies for their respective teams.

Live, real-time updates of Texas State home games are the property of Texas State University and unauthorized transmission of such is not permitted.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL POLICIES

Texas State grants credentials and media access based on the priorities listed below. Because of the limited space available inside the press box at Bobcat Stadium, these guidelines are intended to facilitate the most efficient use of space for working media covering the Texas State Bobcats and Sun Belt Conference. NFL Scouts are handled through the Texas State Football Office. Please contact Director of Player Personnel Connor Anderson for credentials or game ticket.

CREDENTIAL PRIORITIES

1. Broadcast partners, including radio and television personnel responsible for the live broadcasts of Texas State football games.
2. Local beat reporters who cover the team on a daily basis for regional outlets in San Marcos, Austin and San Antonio, including newspapers, radio stations and television affiliates on a regular basis.
3. Large-scale outlets in Texas, including large newspapers, television stations, websites and more.
4. Large-scale national outlets including national newspapers, magazines, television stations, websites, and more.
5. Out of region outlets on specific assignment to cover Texas State personnel (i.e.: player hometown newspaper)
6. Blogs, internet radio and other independent outlets, whose merit and credential consideration is subject to the discretion of the Texas State Sports Information Office.

ACCESS TO PRESS BOX

1. Season credentials will be reserved for organizations that provide consistent coverage of the Texas State football team. One full-time, salaried employee intending to provide actual game coverage may receive credentials. Please be advised that a season credential does not guarantee working space in the press box.
2. With the exception of seasonally credentialed Texas State beat reporters who produce weekly on-site reports, all credentials to Bobcat Stadium are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.
3. Passes and credentials are transferable within the same media outlet for use by those serving an editorial function with proper notice and approval by Texas State Sports Information.
4. Because of the limited work space, credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers who do not have a specific assignment that has been previously approved.
5. Membership to a writers' association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.
6. Credentials may be issued to online entities that are affiliated with national or regional media organizations, or to entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on the Texas State football team, NCAA Division I FBS members, and employs one full-time member who writes a majority of the site's material.
7. An online entity, not associated with a traditional media agency, may qualify for one credential, subject to the following conditions:
 - a. An online entity may receive a credential only if its own full-time staff writes a majority of that site's material.
 - b. Online entities that focus primarily on Texas State Athletics and sponsor message boards or chat rooms, may receive credentials provided they adhere to a policy that requires that a posted message or opinion is identified with the actual name and city of the individual posting the message.
 - c. Any online service that is recognized as an outlet intended primarily for the purpose of delivering news related to the recruitment of student-athletes will not qualify for credentials.
 - d. Online entities (other than those identified above) registering 50,000 legitimate unique users per month in each of the past 12 months will be given consideration.

KICKING THINGS OFF

- Texas State is in its 121st season of football and 10th season in the NCAA Division I FBS ranks in 2021. The Bobcats played their first game in 1904 and enters the FIU game with an all-time record of 539-472-35.

Texas State has won two NCAA Division II national championships and 14 conference championships during its history.

- Texas State looks to even its 2021 record to 1-1 when the Bobcats travel to FIU. The Bobcats opened the 2021 season with a 29-20 hard-fought loss against Baylor. The game marked the third straight year that Texas State opened against a school from Texas.

- Texas State will play its second NCAA Division I FBS road game in Florida at FIU. The last time the Bobcats visited Florida was Sept. 5, 2015 at No. 10-ranked Florida State.

- Texas State and Baylor played in front of 26,573 last Saturday. The crowd is the sixth-largest ever to attend a game at Bobcat Stadium and the largest-attended Bobcat football game since Sept. 23, 2017 against UTSA (31,333).

- Texas State was the first team to play 12 games last season after finishing its season without any missed dates during the regular season. The Bobcats were one of 16 NCAA Division I FBS schools to play 12 games last year.

4 DOWNS WITH THE PANTHERS

- FIU is in its sixth season under Butch Davis who has a 24-21 record at the school. Davis needs just four wins to become the school's all-time winning coach. He has a 103-64 career record, and returned to South Florida in 2017. He began his head coaching career at Miami in 1995-2000.

- FIU opened the season with a 48-10 victory over Long Island Sept. 2 at FIU Stadium. D'Vonte Price ran for 165 yards and three touchdowns on just five carries.

- Maryland transfer Max Bortenschlager completed 14-of-17 passes for a career-high 266 yards and two TDs against LIU. His favorite target was Bryce Singleton, who caught six passes for 149 yards and a TD against LIU.

- Three Panthers are on preseason watch lists for national awards this season. Running back D'vonte Price is on the Doak Walker and Senior Bowl Watch Lists. Punter Tommy Heatherly is on the 2021 Ray Guy Watch List after he was a Semi-finalist for the 2020 award. Defensive lineman Davon Strickland is on the Preseason Watch List for the Rotary Lombardi Award.

BOBCATS ON WATCH LISTS

- Texas State junior running back Brock Sturges is on the 2021 Doak Walker Award watch list after rushing for 532 yards and five touchdowns on 111 carries and hauling in 11 passes for 116 yards and a touchdown en route to being named an Honorable Mention All-Sun Belt Conference selection in 2020.

- Texas State junior quarterback Tyler Vitt has been named to the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List in 2021. Vitt played in eight games and had four starts in 2020, completing 74-of-122 passes for 933 yards and nine touchdowns. He also rushed for 129 yards and a touchdown on 37 carries. Vitt graduated in December 2020 with a B.B.A. in Business Administration.

- In addition, Vitt was nominated for the 2021 AFCA Good Works Team after assisting with the annual Bobcat Giving Tree in conjunction with the Texas State cheer program and University Police Department. He also volunteers in the San Marcos community by cleaning rivers and local parks, helping the city's pet shelter, and participating in the Read Across America Day. He serves on the leadership team for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and as a team impact captain.

- Athlon Sports named seven Texas State players on its 2021 Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference teams. Wide receiver Marcell Barbee was on the second-team offense, while defensive lineman Nico Ezidore and defensive back Jarron Morris were on the second-team defense. Running back Brock Sturges and offensive tackle Dalton Cooper are on the third-team offense. In addition, running back Calvin Hill is on the fourth-team offense, and punter Seamus O'Kelly is a fourth-team specialist.

- Phil Steele also named seven Texas State football players on his 2021 Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference teams. Barbee and offensive tackle Dalton Cooper were on the second-team offense, while Ezidore was on the second-team defense. Sturges was on the third-team offense, and O'Kelly was on the third-team special teams. In addition, defensive back DeJordan Mask was a nickel back on the fourth-team defense, and kicker Seth Keller is on the fourth-team special teams.

- Pro Football Focus also named seven Bobcats its 2021 Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference teams. Barbee is on the second-team offense, while Cooper, running back Calvin Hill, and O'Kelly are third-team selections. In addition, offensive linemen Russell Baker and Eddie Rivas, along with safety Tory Lefeged were honorable mention selections.

- Dave Campbell's Texas Football named the Texas State offensive coordinator as one of its top 40 under 40 coaches in Texas. Peeler is the only FBS offensive coordinator on the list, and one of 10 collegiate coaches named. He is in his second season at Texas State.

JAKE SPAVITAL

HEAD COACH

Third Season at Texas State
Missouri State, 2008

Jake Spavital is in his third year as the head coach at Texas State and in his second year calling the offensive plays for the Bobcats in 2021. The Bobcats improved their rushing output by 65 percent from the 2019 season with 131.2 yards per game, and averaged 369.7 total yards and 27.7 points per game. The totals were the most yards gained for the Bobcats since 2015 and the most points scored since 2014.

The third-youngest head coach in the NCAA Division I FBS in 2021, Spavital took the reins at Texas State on Nov. 30, 2018, after overseeing some of the nation's most prolific offenses. He is Texas State's 20th head coach since the program began.

Texas State produced its first FBS First-Team All-American when Jeremiah Haydel was named a return specialist on the ESPN All-America Team in 2020. The American Football Writers' Association chose Jeremiah Haydel a Second-Team All-America punt returner after he ranked third nationally in combined kick return yardage and was one of only two FBS players to return a kickoff and punt for touchdowns.

Haydel was one of 10 Bobcats named to the All-Sun Belt Conference teams. The others were Jarron Morris and Nico Ezidore on defense, Marcell Barbee, Brock Sturges, Calvin Hill, Russell Baker, and Dalton Cooper on offense, and Seamus O'Kelly and Seth Keller on special teams.

Seven Bobcats earned All-Sun Belt honors in Spavital's first season at Texas State. They included Bryan London, Nik Daniels, Caeveon Patton, Morris, and Khambrail Winters on defense, along with Aaron Brewer and Hutch White on offense.

AT WEST VIRGINIA

Spavital came to Texas State after serving as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under head coach Dana Holgorsen at West Virginia from 2017-18. During his tenure with the Mountaineers, West Virginia featured one of the most potent offenses in all of college football.

In 2018, West Virginia featured one of the nation's top eight offenses that eclipsed 500 yards and 40 points eight times. The Mountaineer offense produced a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, a Second-Team All-America offensive lineman, a Second-Team All-America wide receiver, and four NFL Draft selections.

West Virginia ranked No. 3 in passing offense, No. 4 in passing efficiency, No. 3 in total offense and fourth-down conversions, No. 9 in scoring offense, No. 12 in completion percentage and passing yards per completion, and No. 25 in third-down conversions.

The Mountaineers accumulated 5,724 yards, including 3,939 passing yards and 38 touchdowns. West Virginia ended the regular season ranked No. 15 in the AP poll and No. 16 in the coaches' poll after spending the entire season nationally ranked for the first time since 2007.

AT CALIFORNIA

Spavital returned to Morgantown after serving as the interim head coach at Cal in January 2017. He was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for one of the nation's top 10 offenses during the 2016 season. The Golden Bears were ranked No. 4 in passing offense (358.8 yards per game), No. 8 in first down offense (335), No. 10 in total offense (518.3 yards per game) and No. 22 in scoring offense (37.1 points per game).

Cal established single-season school records for pass completions (383), fewest fumbles lost (3) and fewest turnovers (15), while equalling a school mark for most field goals made (22). The Golden Bears set NCAA FBS single game records with 118 plays and 40 first downs in a 52-49 double overtime win over Oregon.

AT TEXAS A&M

Spavital went to Cal after spending three years as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas A&M from 2013-15. He shared play-calling duties during the

In 2015, Texas A&M had a 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season for the fourth time in school history.

In 2014, the Aggies led the Southeastern Conference and ranked No. 7 in the nation with 39 passing touchdowns, and were No. 12 nationally in passing offense with 305.5 yard per game. Texas A&M posted upsets at No. 9 South Carolina (52-29) and No. 3 Auburn (41-38) in 2014.

In 2013, the Aggies set single-season SEC and school records with 4,593 passing yards and had 6,999 total yards of offense to rank No. 2 in the SEC and in Texas A&M history, No. 4 nationally in total offense (538.4) and No. 7 in passing offense (353.3).

The Aggies broke the school record for completion percentage by connecting on 69.3 percent of their passes and finished No. 3 in SEC history.

Spavital went to Texas A&M after serving as quarterbacks coach at West Virginia in 2011 and 2012. He was an offensive graduate assistant at Oklahoma State in 2010 after serving in a similar capacity at Houston in 2009. He began his coaching career as an offensive quality control assistant under head coach Gus Malzahn in 2008.

PERSONAL

Spavital is married to the former Meghan Morris, one of the top gymnasts in West Virginia history. They have a daughter, Madison Grace, and a son, Landyn Zachary. His father, Steve, is a former high school football coach, while his brother Zac is the defensive coordinator at Texas State.

2021 BOBCAT DEFENSIVE STORY LINES

CREATING TURNOVERS

- For the second straight season, Texas State is ranked among the NCAA's top 25 teams in fumble recoveries after opening the season recovering a fumble on the opening drive of the Baylor game. The Bobcats are ranked 21st nationally this season after they were No. 25 with eight fumble recoveries in 2020.

PATTON AMONG NATIONAL LEADERS

- Caeveon Patton returned to Texas State's lineup after sitting out the 2020 season with a back injury. Patton ranks second nationally and leads the Sun Belt Conference after recovering a fumble against Baylor. He finished the game with three solo tackles.

CHILDRESS AMONG NATIONAL LEADERS

- Zion Childress enters the FIU game tied for fifth place among national leaders and tied for second among Sun Belt leaders after forcing a fumble against Baylor. Childress also is tied for the Sun Belt Conference lead with five solo tackles against the Bears. He had a total of seven stops and one tackle for a six-yard loss against Baylor.

REVELS AMONG NATIONAL LEADERS

- Jordan Revels is tied for fifth place among national leaders and tied for second among Sun Belt leaders after forcing a fumble against Baylor. He had a total of six tackles, including three solo stops and one tackle for a three-yard loss against the Bears.

LEFEGED, JR. LEADS SUN BELT

- Troy Lefeged, Jr. ranks 39th among national leaders and leads the Sun Belt Conference after accumulating 10 total tackles against Baylor. He enters the FIU game tied with teammates Zion Childress, Michael LoVett III, and five other players for the Sun Belt Conference lead after recording five solo tackles against the Bears.

COLEMAN MAKES SEVEN STOPS

- Markeveon Coleman made his first start for the Bobcats at linebacker and equaled his career-high of seven tackles against the Bears. Coleman assisted Michael LoVett III for a tackle for loss of three yards. He also had seven tackles at Troy in 2020.

2021 BOBCAT OFFENSIVE STORY LINES

THREE FIRST-TIME STARTERS ON OFFENSIVE LINE

- Texas State opened the 2021 season with three new starters on the offensive line against Baylor. North Carolina State transfer Charles Fletcher made his first collegiate start at center, and the Canadian duo of Kyle Hergel and Liam Dobson started at right guard and right tackle, respectively. Hergel and Dobson are two of four Canadians on Texas State's roster. The other two are offensive tackle Liam Dick, a transfer from Pittsburgh, and defensive lineman Samuel Obiang.

BARBEE IN THE END ZONE

- Junior wide receiver Marcell Barbee led Texas State with four receptions for 56 yards and a touchdown. Barbee scored the first touchdown of the season for the Bobcats and moved into a tie for seventh on Texas State's career touchdown reception list. He ranked seventh nationally and second in the Sun Belt with 10 TD catches, and led the Bobcats with 40 receptions for 584 yards in 2020.

MCBRIDE ON CAREER PASSING YARDS LIST

- Brady McBride's 156 yards passing against the Bears gives him a career total of 2,081 yards passing at Texas State. He needs 18 yards to tie Bradley George for 10th place on Texas State's career passing yards list. McBride has completed 193 of 322 passes for 2,081 yards and 18 touchdowns in the last two seasons. His touchdown pass to Marcell Barbee against Baylor gives him a touchdown pass in all 10 games he has played for the Bobcats.

JETER IN THE BACKFIELD

- Sophomore running back Jahmyl Jeter came off the bench to lead the Bobcats in rushing with 45 yards and a touchdown on eight carries. Jeter gained most of his yardage on Texas State's final touchdown drive when he ran for 34 yards on five carries. He capped off the drive with a two-yard run for the TD. He enters the FIU game having run for 374 yards and four TDs on 55 carries in 10 games at Texas State.
