- Enrique Facusse leads the charge in goal. The keeper ranks fourth in the country in minutes played (404:33), 18th in shutouts (2), 33rd in save percentage (.833) and 39th in total saves (15).

- Andrew McKelvey and Stefan Stojkovic lead Kentucky in goals with two apiece and in points with four. Pedersen, Hummel, Alex Bumpus and Kalil ElMedkhar all have tallied one assist this season.

LAST TIME OUT: UAB | UAB VS. MISSOURI STATE | SEPT. 4

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – The UAB men's soccer team battled to a 0-0 double overtime tie against Missouri State Monday night at BBVA Compass Field. The Blazers move to 2-0-2 on the season while the Bears even their record at 1-1-1.

"I thought we gave away a win," head coach Mike Getman said. "Every game up until today we've been really sharp and focused and played the way we were supposed to."

UAB turned the jets on late firing seven shots in the final 30 minutes of regulation forcing Missouri State's keeper, Liam Priestley, to make five saves to keep the game at 0.

Senior Rami Dajani took one of the Blazers' best shot attempts at the 86-minute mark with a ball that Priestley was able to knock high and out of bounds.

Minutes later UAB found itself once again in scoring territory. Adam Brooker received a cross in the middle of a crowd of Missouri State defenders and managed to get a shot off forcing Priestley to once again make a game saving catch.

"The second half we were much better. We can't afford to give away 45 minutes against a good team," Getman said.

UAB took a total of 19 shots compared to Missouri State's nine. In tie games this season the Blazers are outshooting their opponents 36-24. The Blazers have also played to a draw in consecutive home matches for the first since 1980, the second year of the program.

Goalkeeper James Teal once again proved his dominance in the net collecting his third shutout in four games this season.

Freshman Donovan Watson made his UAB debut becoming the fifth Blazer this season to make their debut for the Green and Gold.

UAB returns to the pitch Friday night when it travels to Lexington, Kentucky to take on the Wildcats in the Blazers first Conference USA matchup of the season. Kick is set for 6:30 PM CT.

Missouri State returns home to face the Tigers of Memphis on Sunday at Allison South Stadium. Kickoff is slated for 2:00 PM.

For more information on the UAB men's soccer team follow the Blazers on Twitter and Instagram (@UAB_MSoc).

LAST TIME OUT: KENTUCKY | KENTUCKY AT LOUISVILLE | SEPT. 5

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – Nineteenth-ranked Kentucky and No. 8 Louisville finished with honors even on Tuesday night at Lynn Stadium with Kentucky picking up a good road result in a 2-2 draw with the Cardinals.

All four goals were scored in the opening 45 minutes before the game settled in during the final 65 minutes, with just four combined shots in the second half and both extra time sessions.

The Setup-Both teams entered Tuesday with 2017 records of won 3, lost 0, drew 0.

Kentucky was playing its third away game in a row.

The Goals-Louisville scored on 14 minutes though the first goal of the season for Mohamed Thiaw. Adam Wilson and Adrien Cabon combined well in midfield after a run through the center of the pitch and threw the ball in front for a close-range finish from Thiaw.

Kentucky equalized less than two minutes later in the 16th minute. Connor Probert scored his first of the year on a free kick from 25 yards out along the right flank into the upper-right netting.

The Wildcats would get its first lead of the match in the 29th minute as Mikkel Pederson capped a peachy team goal. Tanner Hummel notched his first point of the season serving in a whipped ball with pace to the far post, and Pedersen finished it past the keeper to the right of the keeper.

UL would equalize on 42 minutes as Cody Cochran scored his first goal of the season. Cochran took advantage of an unlucky deflection from the UK defense on a set piece and slotted it home to the right of UK goalkeeper Enrique Facusse.

The Quote

"The game started a little hectic," UK midfielder and Louisville native Sam Stockton said. "Once we kind of calmed down and started to play our own game we took advantage of some opportunities, got some nice goals in the first half, and then unfortunately they were able to tie it up."

"The second half and overtime was a real battle. To come into a place like this and to get a result is real nice. It's also nice to start the first four games of the season without a loss."

The History

Kentucky played at Louisville for the 11th time. The Wildcats are now 11-8-5 against Louisville all-time, and 6-2-3 in Louisville. Kentucky won last year's matchup 1-0, ending a two game losing streak to the Cardinals.

The last draw in the series was Aug. 30 of 2006 when the teams drew 1-1 at Louisville.

Up Next

The Wildcats open up C-USA play on Friday night at The Bell against UAB. The match will commence at 7:30 p.m. ET.

UAB NOTES

UAB vs. Kentucky

UAB and Kentucky are meeting for the 14th time in school history with Kentucky holding the 7-6 advantage. The Wildcats will be looking to avenge a 2-1 loss from last season marking the Blazers' last win over a ranked opponent.

First Half Fire

The first half has been kind to the Blazers this season as all five of their goals have come in the first 45 minutes.

Road Warriors

The Blazers have enjoyed great success away from the friendly confines of BBVA Compass Field this season. UAB is outscoring its opponents 5-1 en route to a 2-0 road record.

Feeling it Ferrin

Midfielder Massimo Ferrin has provided the offensive spark that the Blazers' have needed this season. He leads the team in goals (2), points (4), penalty kicks (1-for-1) and ranks second in shots (7).

Teal Is In

James Teal is having a stellar freshman campaign putting up some of the top numbers among keepers in the NCAA. he ranks fourth in shutouts (3), fifth in minutes played (400:00), ninth in goals against average (.23) and save percent (.944) and 22nd in total saves (17).

Game Winning Goals

Trey Nelson and Philip Makinde have both pitched in game winners for the Blazers to both be tied for 24th in the nation in game winning goals. Nelson's came at Jacksonville while Makinde's came at Memphis.

Da' You Know About Rami?

Redshirt senior Rami Dajani enters his fifth and final season on the verge of history. Dajani has tallied 14 goals in his career and needs seven more to crack into the top-10 career goals in program history.

Debuting Dudes

A team loaded with young talent, seven Blazers have made their UAB debuts this season. James Teal, Gael Mabiala, Alexandria Ricourt, Aidan O'Hara, Donovan Watson, Josphe Buete and Jake Futrell have all appeared in games this season.

Back for the Blazers

In addition to the eight new arrivals, the Blazers returns 21 players from a year ago. Among those are six starters: Massimo Ferrin, Tarnue Tyler, Philip Makinde, David Valverde, Mathieu Laurent and Evan Scarbrough.

New Familiar Face

Head Coach Mike Getman announced the addition of 2014 UAB Alum Pachinno Roberts as a volunteer assistant coach. Roberts will also serve as the director of operations.

Soccer For A Cure

Monday, Sept. 4 UAB celebrated the 20th anniversary of its "Soccer for a Cure" Classic. The annual event raises awareness of the battle that families deal with when their child has cancer. Proceeds from this event will go directly to Children's of Alabama Hospital. Players and coaches will make their annual visit to the cancer win of Children's on Sunday.
