THE UALBANY-DUQUESNE SERIES

UAlbany leads the all-time series 5-1. The series dates back to the ECAC Division I-AA Football Classic in 2002, before Duquesne became an associate member of the NEC in 2008. The Great Danes won that first meeting, 24-0, in Albany. From there, UAlbany won the next two clashes, 33-23, in 2008 and 55-10 in 2009. Duquesne captured its lone win of the series in 2010 in Pittsburgh by a score of 28-17. In the last two years, UAlbany put up 38 points in both clashes, winning by scores of 38-10 at home in 2011, and 38-31 on the road in 2012.

LAST TIME VS. THE DUKES

In a game divided, UAlbany overcame the hosting Duquesne University Dukes, 38-31, at Rooney Field on Nov. 10, 2012. The Great Danes came out with a vengeance in the opening half, taking a 35-7 lead at the break, but the Dukes came storming back, scoring the first 17 points of the second stanza. By halftime, the Great Danes had five touchdowns to their name, credited to five different players. UAlbany finished the game with 439 yards of total offense and 24 first downs. Drew Smith led the Great Danes' running game with 143 yards on 25 carries, and totaled 164 all-purpose yards, including two catches. Omar Osbourne also crossed the goal line (cont'd page 2)

NOTES

UALBANY QUICK HITS

- In 2012, UAlbany (9-2, 7-1) won its sixth NEC title (2002, 2003, 2007, 2008, 2011, 2012), sharing it with Wagner (9-4, 7-1). The Seahawks earned the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.
- The Great Danes were ranked as high as No. 18 in the FCS Coaches Poll and No. 20 in the Sports Network Top-25 before falling out of both polls after losing to Wagner (11/3).
- UAlbany received votes in both the 2013 Preseason Sports Network Poll (13) and the FCS Coaches Poll (5).
- UAlbany tied the program's Division I record for wins in a season in 2012, and also won nine FCS games in a regular season for the first time.
- Nine Great Danes earned All-NEC honors, including six first-teamers – Kadeem Williams (1st team, OL) is the only one returning for this season.
- UAlbany shared the NEC title in its final two seasons in the league. In 2011, the Danes received their first NCAA FCS Playoff berth and advanced to the NAAs for the first time since 1977.
- In 14 seasons in the NEC, the Great Danes accrued a 78-24 record in league play.
- Moving to a brand new stadium in 2013 (Bob Ford Field), UAlbany closed a 43-year chapter at University Field. The Danes recorded a 135-67-1 mark on their home gridiron.
- Including 2012, the Great Danes have reached the eight-win plateau five times in the FCS era.
- Senior Ryan Kirchner finished his career as UAlbany's all-time leading receiver with 172 career catches.
- Tailback Drew Smith closed his career as the program's all-time leading point scorer (270), touchdown scorer (45), and tied for most rushing touchdowns scored (40). He signed a free agent contract with the Buffalo Bills following the season.
- UAlbany has played 40 seasons of varsity football, owning a 255-159 record in the span.
- The Great Danes have registered seven consecutive winning seasons for the first time in the program's history (2006-12).
- Head Coach Bob Ford, who announced that he will retire following this season, ranks fourth among the FCS all-time leaders in career victories and is first among active NCAA Division I FCS coaches with 264 career victories. He is also the longest active tenured coach in all of college football.
- In 44 seasons as a head coach (40 at UAlbany, 4 at St. Lawrence) Bob Ford owns a 264-180-1 record.
- The Great Danes enter their inaugural season in the Colonial Athletic Association -- one of the strongest conferences in the FCS.

all-time FCS chart. Ford, the architect of the UAlbany program, has led the Great Danes to a 255-159 record entering his 41st varsity season. Under his direction, the Great Danes have moved from the club level in 1970 to its present NCAA Division I FCS status. At the team's media day on Aug. 13th, Ford announced that his 44th season at the helm in 2013 will be his last. More than 100 of Bob Ford's assistant coaches are currently working in the professional, college and high school ranks.

THE OFFENSE

While UAlbany loses eight all-conference players, there are plenty of strong pieces returning, including a solid offensive contingent. Quarterback Will Fiacchi returns after an impressive redshirt sophomore campaign in 2012, starting all 11 games and accumulating 2,156 passing yards. The Great Danes will have added depth at the quarterback position this fall with Guilderland native Ryan Smith. Running back Omar Osbourne will look to fill the shoes of Drew Smith, who rewrote the UAlbany record book last season. While Smith often powered his way up the middle, Osbourne (2012: 503 yds-108 carries-5 TDs) is best at catching the screen pass and weaving his way through traffic with a good deal of acceleration. The Great Danes will also have a number of experienced linemen protecting the pocket in Kadeem Williams, Eric LaPorta, and Adam Pasnik, as well as a deep selection of outstanding receivers down field -- Cole King, Kevin Chillis, and Jameel Gay. The Danes will also look to tight end Brian Parker and fullbacks Pat O'Connor and Nic Ketter as other options for first downs.

THE DEFENSE

Defensively, UAlbany will have the task of replacing four solid linebackers in Chris Wilk, Dave Plungas, Jon Morgan, and Chris Bouchard. The Great Danes will look to Christian Dorsey and Jake Dwyer to step up, while Kyle Jordan (2012: 45 tackles, 5 pbu) and Alex Helmer (2012: 36 tackles, 1 sack) return after playing a majority of the snaps at the outside linebacker position. Defensive end Andrew Smith (28 tackles) and defensive tackle Tim Kologrivov (24 tackles) will serve as the group's veterans on the line, while seniors Tramaine Wilson (11 tackles, 3 interceptions) and Randall Extantus (40 tackles, 6 pbu) will look to be a presence at the safety and cornerback positions, respectively. In 2012, UAlbany's rushing defense ranked first in the NEC and 14th in the nation (117.91 yds/game), second in the league in scoring defense (22.73 pts/game), and third in total defense (340.45 yds/game).

THE SPECIALISTS

With the graduation of kicker Sean Kenny and punter Paul Layton, who is currently first on Temple's 2-deep as a graduate student, the Great Danes will look to fill the void with fresh faces. Jonathan Martin, a redshirt freshman from Delmar, N.Y. is slated to take over punting duties, while redshirt sophomore Tom O'Riordan has been the most accurate as a place kicker throughout preseason camp.

and rushed 80 yards, while finishing with 102 all-purpose yards. Likewise, Kevin Chillis was credited a touchdown, accumulating 64 rushing yards in the win. Will Fiacchi completed 14-of-22 passes for 130 yards and a touchdown. Cole King was his top receiver with three catches, including one for a score, and 54 receiving yards. Defensively, Chris Wilk led the squad with seven unassisted tackles and a sack, while Jon Morgan dropped five, snagged an interception, and blocked a punt. Senior Dean Mercuris also had a solid game with five tackles, a sack, a pass break up, and two quarterback hurries.

SCOUTING THE DUKES

2013 Record: 0-0, 0-0 NEC

2012 Record: 5-6, 3-5 NEC (6th)

2013 NEC Preseason Poll: 2nd

Head Coach: Jerry Schmitt (9th season at Duquesne/14th overall)
(47-35 / 75-56)

THE COACH: Jerry Schmitt is in his ninth season as Duquesne's head coach. An assistant from 1985-87 and again from 1992-99 for the Dukes, Schmitt spent five years as head coach at his alma mater, Westminster College, in New Wilmington, Pa., before returning to put his mark on the program. He led the Dukes to three consecutive Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Football League championships and earned MAAC Coach of the Year two times in his first three seasons as head coach. In 2011, Schmitt continued Duquesne's transition as a scholarship-granting associate member of the Northeast Conference by guiding the Dukes to a 9-2 record and NEC Co-Championship (with UAlbany) with a 7-1 record.

OVERVIEW: After ending 2012 in sixth place in the NEC with a 5-6 overall record and 3-5 league mark, Duquesne was picked to finish second in the 2013 NEC Preseason Coaches Poll. The Dukes return 13 starters, including seven on offense and six on defense. Senior linebacker Dorian Bell, who has racked up the preseason honors, including being named to the Buck Buchanan Award Watch List, Senior Bowl Watch List, Sports Network Preseason First Team All-America, and Preseason All-NEC Team, leads the squad's defense. Offensively, Duquesne will have to fill the void of Larry McCoy, the program's all-time leading rusher, as well as three-year starting quarterback Sean Patterson. They will look to junior Ryan Ho (45-184-1) to carry the ball against UAlbany. At quarterback, the Dukes are expected to start redshirt freshman Dillon Buechel.

THE ROLE OF THE UNDERDOG

Entering their first season in the CAA, the Great Danes plan to embrace the role of the underdog. UAlbany, who had 35 scholarships as a member of the NEC, has moved up to 54 scholarships for the 2013 season. While it is more, it is still well under the 63 limit that a majority of the CAA programs are at. UAlbany looks to average 57 scholarships across the next two seasons in order to play an FBS opponent in 2015 and have that game count in the opposition's bowl eligibility.

BACK-TO-BACK AT ROONEY

For just the second time in program history, the Great Danes will play the same team in back-to-back road games. The Great Danes closed their road schedule against the Dukes at Rooney Field on Nov. 10th last season with a 38-31 victory, and now will open the 2013 campaign at the same location. The only other time this happened was with American International in the Division II era. The Danes topped the Yellow Jackets in the Eastern Football Conference championship, 27-20, on Nov. 22, 1997. UAlbany then opened their '98 road slate at American International in Springfield, Mass. with a 38-26 win on Sept. 12, 1998.

AUGUST FOOTBALL

This season's Aug. 31st opening day marks just the second time in program history that Week 1's game has landed in August. The only other time was in 2008 when the Great Danes fell to Massachusetts, 28-16, on Aug. 30th.

FULL SEAWOLF CIRCLE

The UAlbany football program played its very first varsity game against rival Stony Brook on Sept. 22, 1973. With Coach Ford on the sideline, the Great Danes trounced the Seawolves, 69-6, at University Field, marking Ford's first of 255 varsity victories. Announcing his retirement following this season, Ford has an opportunity to make Stony Brook his last career win. UAlbany travels to take on the Seawolves in the 2013 season-finale on Nov. 23rd.

DANES PICKED 10TH IN CAA PRESEASON POLL

At the conference media day in Baltimore, the CAA announced the preseason all-conference teams and the predicted order of finish. The Great Danes were picked 10th in the preseason poll, while Villanova was chosen as the league's preseason favorite in a vote of the conference's 11 head coaches and communications personnel. UAlbany did not have anyone named to the preseason all-conference team.

2013 CAA Football Predicted Order of Finish

1. Villanova (11)
2. Towson (3)
3. New Hampshire (3)
4. Richmond (1)
5. James Madison (4)

1974 TEAM TO BE INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

The 1974 UAlbany football team has been selected to be inducted into the University at Albany Athletics Hall of Fame. The '74 team is the only squad in program history with an undefeated record, going 9-0. Current UAlbany linebackers coach Don Mion was a member of that team and set the record for tackles in a single game during that year. He recorded 24 tackles against Alfred on Sept. 28, 1974. The '74 team will be inducted along with two other athletes – Todd Cetnar (Basketball, 1996-2000) and Alissa Gibbs (Volleyball, 1999-2002).

CAPTAINS ANNOUNCED

The team elected junior Will Fiacchi and seniors Kadeem Williams, Eric LaPorta and Randall Exantus as captains for the 2013 season.

- Fiacchi, a native of Marcellus, N.Y., started all 11 games at quarterback in 2012 and set a record for completed passes in a regular season. Fiacchi completed 188-of-309 passes with just five interceptions, while connecting for 11 touchdowns. Fiacchi also threw for 2,156 yards, good for third all-time at UAlbany. In his first season in the pocket, Fiacchi averaged 196.0 passing yards per game with 127.96 pass efficiency.

- Williams, a 6-7, 310 pound offensive lineman from Jersey City is a two-time first-team All-Northeast Conference award winner as well as a 2012 College Sports Madness second-team All-America honoree. Last season, Williams helped UAlbany to the league's top-ranked scoring offense (34.1), and limited opponent sacks to just 1.45 per game, starting all 11 games at left tackle. He was also named a Preseason All-American by Phil Steele's College Football Preview this summer.

- Also a member of the o-line, LaPorta enters his third season as UAlbany's starting center and has excelled both academically and athletically for the Great Danes. After starting his career as a walk-on, the Yorktown Heights, N.Y. native was named to the 2012 Capital One Academic All-District Football Team and helped UAlbany win back-to-back Northeast Conference titles.

- Exantus, a cornerback from Greenlawn, N.Y., has been a consistent contributor and a vocal leader for the Danes throughout the past three seasons. Starting all 11 games, Exantus totaled 40 tackles and broke up six passes in 2012. He also played in all 12 games in 2011 and 10 in 2010.

FIACCHI'S FANTASTIC SEASON

First-year starting quarterback Will Fiacchi has surpassed all expectations last season, as he has completed more passes than any other quarterback in program history in a single regular season. Completing 188-of-309 passes with just five interceptions, Fiacchi ranks second all-time behind Dan Di Lella who set the record in 2011 with 196 completions (327 attempts). However, Di Lella had an extra game in the NCAA Tournament to set that record. In the regular season, Di Lella had 172 pass completion, a sum Fiacchi bested. Yardage wise, Fiacchi passed for 2,156 yards, ranking him third for a single season, and eighth for a career.

UALBANY ON TV

Announced by the league office, the UAlbany football program will take on Rhode Island and Delaware in front of NBC Sports Regional Network cameras as part of the Colonial Athletic Association's television schedule. The Great Danes' NBC Sports Regional Network game on September 14th at 7:00 p.m. will feature a plethora of firsts for the program, including the inaugural game at Bob Ford Field – UAlbany's brand new 8,500 seat stadium. The Danes will also kick off their first CAA contest as a member of the league, facing Rhode Island for the first time in program history. Also on NBC Sports Regional Networks, UAlbany will clash with the Blue Hens at Delaware Stadium October 12th starting at noon. The meeting will mark the program's third against Delaware, as the series is tied, 1-1.

UALBANY FOOTBALL OFFICIALLY OPENS A NEW CHAPTER

Along with new addition Stony Brook, the Great Danes venture into the CAA for the 2013 season, joining current members Delaware, James Madison, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Richmond, Towson, Villanova, and William & Mary. UAlbany wrapped up a 14-year tenure in the Northeast Conference with six championships, including a share of the title in 2012. The Great Danes also boasted the best record the program has ever seen at the Division I FCS level, going 9-2 overall last year and also ranked as high as No. 18 in the FCS Coaches Poll and No. 20 in the Sports Network Top-25.

CAA HISTORY

In the past, UAlbany has had success over CAA members, having tallied a 7-5 all-time record. The Great Danes have previously faced Delaware (1-1), Maine (4-2), Towson (2-1) and New Hampshire (0-1). In their most recent CAA clash, the Danes topped #23 Maine, 30-20, in Orono last season. UAlbany will have an opportunity to expand on its rivalry with Stony Brook this fall, having played the Seawolves 15 times in the past, accruing a record of 10-5 all-time.

WILLIAMS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN BY PHIL STEELE

Senior Kadeem Williams has been named a Preseason All-American by Phil Steele's College Football Preview. Williams, a 6-7, 310-pound offensive lineman was selected to the offense's

ABOUT UALBANY ATHLETICS

UAlbany's intercollegiate athletics program excels at the NCAA Division I level, producing competitive teams, successful coaches, and outstanding student-athletes recognized for their accomplishments both on the field and in the classroom. The University sponsors 19 varsity sports for men and women. Club sports, an intramural program, and recreational opportunities are also offered.

As a member of the America East Conference, 17 of the school's 19 varsity teams are eligible for conference championships and NCAA post-season competition. Women's golf is an associate member of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, and football, a Division I FCS program, enters its first year as an associate member of the Colonial Athletic Association in 2013 after competing in the Northeast Conference for the past 14 seasons.

UAlbany has won 66 conference championships and produced 27 NCAA Tournament teams since moving to Division I. Celebrating the school's most successful year in Division I history in 2012-13, UAlbany won a record nine conference championships, while making four NCAA Tournament appearances. The Great Danes also won the America East Commissioner's Cup for the second time in school history, as field hockey, men's basketball, women's basketball, men's indoor track & field, women's indoor track & field, men's outdoor track & field, women's outdoor track & field, and men's lacrosse captured conference titles. Football also won its sixth NEC championship and had two players sign NFL Free Agent contracts.

2013 Opponents in Bold

third-team by the magazine. The Jersey City native is a two-time first-team All-Northeast Conference award winner as well as a 2012 College Sports Madness second-team All-America honoree. Last season, Williams helped UAlbany to the league's top-ranked scoring offense (34.1), and limited opponent sacks to just 1.45 per game, starting all 11 games at left tackle. Williams was also named to the Colonial Athletic Association's first team by Phil Steele's College Football Preview, while kickoff return specialist Kevin Chillis and defensive back Justinian Mason were named to the third team.

CHILLIS EARNS SPOT ON CFPA KICKOFF RETURNER AWARD WATCH LIST

College Football Performance Awards, the largest awards organization in D-I college football, recently announced its watch list for the 2013 CFPA Kickoff Returner Award and UAlbany's Kevin Chillis has earned a spot. In 2012, Chillis was a two-time Northeast Conference Special Teams Player of the Week, and ranked second on the team with 901 all-purpose yards and six touchdowns. The incoming senior made 11 kickoff returns, averaging 27.5 yards per return, including a 79-yard touchdown scamper against Central Connecticut State.

MASON, WILSON NAMED TO CFPA DEFENSIVE BACK WATCH LIST

College Football Performance Awards also announced its watch list for the 2013 CFPA Defensive Back Award, and two UAlbany student-athletes earned spots on the list -- Justinian Mason and Tramaine Wilson. The preliminary watch list highlights 36 returning performers, vying for the top individual defensive back award in the Football Championship Subdivision. Mason, a senior from Mason, Ohio, started all 11 games at safety in 2012 and earned NEC Defensive Player of the Week honors once. He ranked fifth on the team with 46 tackles, including 35 solo, and picked off three passes, running them back for 99 yards and one touchdown. Wilson, a senior from Staten Island, N.Y., started nine games at safety and totaled three interceptions for 66 yards in 2012. He also made 11 tackles, helping the Great Danes win back-to-back Northeast Conference titles.

FIACCHI EARNS SPOT ON 2013 CFPA QUARTERBACK AWARD WATCH LIST

Announced this summer, UAlbany quarterback Will Fiacchi earned a spot on the 2013 CFPA FCS Quarterback Award Watch List. The preliminary watch list highlights thirty-two returning performers, vying for the top quarterback honor in the Football Championship Subdivision. In 2012, Fiacchi led UAlbany to a 9-2 overall record. He completed 188-of-309 passes for 2,156 yards. He contributed 11 passing touchdowns with only 5 interceptions, adding two touchdowns on the ground.

JON MORGAN, DREW SMITH SIGN NFL FREE AGENT CONTRACTS

Shortly after the conclusion of the 2013 NFL Draft, UAlbany football players Jon Morgan and Drew Smith signed free agent contracts with the Detroit Lions and Buffalo Bills, respectively. Linebacker Jon Morgan, a two-time first-team All-NEC honoree, led UAlbany with 72 tackles, three interceptions, and two blocked kicks in UAlbany's 2012 NEC championship season. The Copiague, N.Y. native finished his career ranked eighth all-time at UAlbany with 265 career tackles. Tailback Drew Smith also boasted a historic collegiate career, finishing as UAlbany's all-time leader for touchdowns scored (45) and the co-leader for all-time rushing touchdowns (40). In four active seasons, Smith accrued 3,196 career rushing yards and 4,721 all-purpose yards, both good for second all-time. In 2012, the Schenectady, N.Y. native eclipsed the 1,000 rushing yards mark for the second time in his career and the 10th time in program history, rushing for 1,001 yards and 18 touchdowns, while totaling 1,280 all-purpose yards. Smith also led the NEC and ranked fourth at the FCS level for scoring (11.40).

MATT SCOTT PARTICIPATES IN BILL WALSH MINORITY COACHING FELLOWSHIP

University at Albany assistant football coach Matt Scott was selected by the NFL's Buffalo Bills as a 2013 Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellowship participant. In addition to Antwon Bailey, Michael Grant, Jamar Nesbit and Kevin Mawae, Scott was one of five instructors picked to assist the Bills' coaching staff during training camp at St. John Fisher College in Pittsford, N.Y. Scott supported the Bills' linebacking corps during his stay. At UAlbany, he is entering his fourth season as the squad's cornerbacks coach in addition to working with special teams. The Great Danes currently have a number of ties to the Buffalo Bills organization, including former UAlbany assistants Samson Brown and Jim O'Neil serving as the team's assistant defensive backs coach and linebackers coach, respectively. In addition, UAlbany standout Drew Smith signed an undrafted free agent contract with the Bills this past spring and is currently vying for a spot on the squad's 53-man roster as a fullback.

AARON SMITH AND KEVIN ROSS JOIN COACHING STAFF

For the first time since 2010, the UAlbany football team will have fresh faces on the coaching staff. Head Coach Bob Ford announced the additions of wide receivers coach Aaron Smith and tight ends coach Kevin Ross to the UAlbany program last April. Smith, a native of West Point, N.Y. and son of an Army colonel, brings seven years of collegiate coaching experience to UAlbany. He spent last season leading the wide receivers at Boston College and the five seasons prior as the receivers coach at Columbia University (2007-11). Smith also served as Columbia's recruiting coordinator in 2011. He started his coaching career at the United States Coast Guard Academy in 2006. Ross, a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, also comes with a military background. The son of former San Diego Chargers and Detroit Lions head coach Bobby Ross, Kevin served as Army's offensive coordinator for four seasons (2004-07) under his father's tutelage. Ross also spent time at Virginia, directing the running backs from 2000-03 and helped the Cavaliers to consecutive victories over West Virginia and Pittsburgh in the Continental Tire Bowl. Prior to accepting a position at Virginia, Ross spent two seasons overseeing wide receivers and assisting with special teams at The Citadel (1999-2000). The Lexington, Va. native also spent time working on the defensive side of the ball at Georgia Tech (1998) and Southwest Texas State University (1997).

DEFENSIVE ROLES SHIFT ON UALBANY FOOTBALL STAFF

Heading into a new chapter of UAlbany football in 2013, the Great Danes have announced a shifting of roles in the coaching staff. Mike Simpson will be stepping down from his position of defensive coordinator to focus on the development of the squad's young linebackers, while Drew Christ will move from the defensive backs coach to defensive coordinator for the upcoming season. Simpson, who enters his 28th season on UAlbany's football staff, has three decades of experience as a defensive coach. With two of those decades at the coordinator position, the Great Danes have won or shared six Northeast Conference championships (2002, 2003, 2007, 2008, 2011, 2012) and captured two Eastern Football Conference titles (1997, 1998) during his tenure. Christ, who is in his second tour as a member of Bob Ford's coaching staff, will enter his eighth season in UAlbany's program. The Bay Village, Ohio native is familiar with the defensive coordinator position, previously serving the role at the University of Rochester. Christ also spent three years as a secondary coach under Al Bagnoli at the University of Pennsylvania where the Quakers won Ivy League championships in 2002 and 2003 during his stay with the program.

FORMER GREAT DANES, SAMSON BROWN AND JIM O'NEIL, HIRED BY BUFFALO BILLS

Amidst the National Football League's coaching carousel, former UAlbany standout player and assistant coach Samson Brown as well as 2001 UAlbany assistant Jim O'Neil landed positions on the Buffalo Bills staff. Brown and O'Neil come most recently from the New York Jets organization under defensive coordinator Mike Pettine. With the hiring of new Bills head coach Doug Marrone (formerly the head coach of Syracuse University) Buffalo announced Pettine as their new defensive coordinator on Jan. 10th. Consequently, Brown received the nod as the Bills assistant defensive backs coach and O'Neil as the Bills' linebackers coach.

BUILDING A NEW HOME

University Field has been the home of the Great Danes since Bob Ford started a club football team in 1970. In 43 seasons, UAlbany accrued a 135-67-1 record on the natural grass gridiron. With the move to the CAA, the Great Danes will move to Bob Ford Field, a brand new 8,500 seat stadium with an artificial turf field, video board, and luxury suites. The Danes' old digs will become a state-of-the-art track and field venue that will be ready to host UAlbany meets next spring. UAlbany opens Bob Ford Field on Sept. 14th versus CAA-foe Rhode Island.

BUILT FORD TOUGH

UAlbany's Bob Ford is first among active NCAA Division I FCS coaches with 264 career victories. He is also fourth on the all-time FCS chart. Ford, the architect of the UAlbany program, has a 255-159 career record in his 41st varsity season. Under his direction, the Great Danes have moved from the club level in 1970 to its present NCAA Division I FCS status. More than 100 of Bob Ford's assistant coaches are currently working in the professional, college and high school ranks. Dave Campo, a former UAlbany graduate assistant in 1973, spent 23 years in the NFL, including 18 with the Dallas Cowboys. He is currently the assistant head coach at Kansas. Dave Clawson (Bowling Green) and Pete Lembo (Ball State) are in the Mid-American Conference. Ford assistants who are Division I FCS head coaches include Al Bagnoli (Penn), Kevin Callahan (Monmouth), Walt Hameline (Wagner) and Chuck Priore (Stony Brook).

PITTSBURGH - In a game divided, the University at Albany football team overcame the hosting Duquesne University Dukes, 38-31, Saturday afternoon at Rooney Field in a key Northeast Conference contest. The Great Danes came out with vengeance in the opening half, taking a 35-7 lead at the break, but the Dukes came storming back, scoring the first 17 points of the second stanza. In the end, UAlbany held on to improve to 8-2 overall and 6-1 in conference. They now will play for at least a share of the NEC title next weekend against Central Connecticut State.

After totaling just 188 yards of total offense last week against Wagner, the Great Danes made up for that in just one quarter versus the Dukes. In the second quarter alone, UAlbany totaled 217 yards of offense. By halftime, the Great Danes had five touchdowns to their name, credited to five different players. UAlbany finished the game with 439 yards of total offense and 24 first downs.

Senior Drew Smith led the Great Danes' running game with 143 yards on 25 carries, and totaled 164 all-purpose yards, including two catches. In addition, Smith scored his 42nd career touchdown, tying UAlbany's program record.

Omar Osbourne also crossed the goal line and rushed 80 yards, while finishing with 102 all-purpose yards. Likewise, Kevin Chillis was credited a touchdown, showing spectacular agility, accumulating 64 rushing yards in the win.

Sophomore quarterback Will Fiacchi completed 14-of-22 passes for 130 yards and a touchdown. Classmate Cole King was his top receiver with three catches, including one for a score, and 54 receiving yards.

Defensively, Chris Wilk led the squad with seven unassisted tackles and a sack, while Jon Morgan dropped five, snagged an interception, and blocked a punt. Senior Dean Mercurio also had a solid game with five tackles, a sack, a pass break up, and two quarterback hurries.

To start the contest, the Great Danes' defense forced a quick three-and-out. Back in the lineup, Smith quickly made a statement, putting UAlbany on the board with a one-yard rush, capping a 14-play, 76-yard drive, at the 7:44 mark in the first quarter.

Osbourne's three-yard run across the goal line with 14:03 to go in the second quarter gave the Great Danes a 14-0 head start, after UAlbany's seven-play, 64-yard drive.

However, playing in his last home game of his career, senior running back Larry McCoy put the Dukes on the board with 11:17 left in the half. McCoy rushed two yards, capping a 77-yard drive.

With 9:27 left in the half, Paul Layton's 49-yard punt pinned the Dukes at their own five-yard line, later proving to be a huge play in the game. The Great Danes defense followed with a quick three-and-out, forcing Duquesne to punt out of the end zone, and the ball landed out of bounds just 24-yards away.

With fantastic field position, Chillis took advantage on what could have been a broken play. On a wild pitch, Chillis scrambled away from the defense, reversed, and then turned up field 34 yards and into the end zone for a 21-7 advantage with 7:30 left in the half.

With 1:47 left in the second quarter, Fiacchi faked a handoff to Osbourne and ran 10 yards untouched for a touchdown. The 10-play, 4:38 minute drive gave the Great Danes a 21-point lead, 28-7.

Defensive pressure, including Joe Fasano's sack for a loss of six yards, forced the Dukes to punt with 59 seconds remaining. Morgan got a hand on it, giving the Danes the ball on their own 41. UAlbany capitalized. With six seconds on the clock, Fiacchi found King in the back of the end zone, 23 yards out, sending the Danes into the break ahead 35-7.

However, while the first half belonged to UAlbany, the second half was primarily Duquesne's.

The Dukes scored 17 unanswered points, kicked off by Rich Piekarski's blocked punt. One play later Gianni Carter caught a 22-yard touchdown pass from Sean Patterson with 7:05 remaining in the third quarter.

Duquesne struck again with Charley Leventry's 26-yard field goal with 12:54 left in the fourth quarter.

After recovering their onside kick, the Dukes cut the deficit to 11, 35-24. Patterson capped an eight-play drive with a four-yard rush.

The Great Danes broke their scoring drought with Sean Kenny's 30-yard field goal with 2:12 remaining in the contest.

With the clock ticking down, the Dukes continued to threaten, driving 75-yards with seven plays including a 51-yard Hail Mary pass to McCoy on a third-and-five play that put Duquesne on the 19 yard line. Sean Brady capped the drive with a grab in the end zone with 11 seconds remaining, putting the Dukes within seven, 38-31.

However, the onside kick was not successful in the second attempt, and the Great Danes were able to run out the waning seconds with a knee.

HEAD COACH BOB FORD

"The Architect of UAlbany Football"

The architect of the University at Albany football program, Bob Ford has established a solid reputation with his positive attitude and a coaching philosophy that instills loyalty among each member of his team and staff.

Ford, who has been UAlbany's only head coach since the program was reinstated after a 46-year absence, was appointed on April 27, 1970. Since then, he has compiled a 40-year varsity record of 255-159 as the Great Dane mentor, while his 264 career victories rank first among active NCAA Division I college football head coaches. His UAlbany teams own a 97-58 mark as a Division I FCS program.

In 2012, the Great Danes closed a 14-season chapter as an associate member of the Northeast Conference, compiling a 78-24 record in the tenure. Ford (264-180-1) will lead the Great Danes into UAlbany's 41st varsity season, the Colonial Athletic Association, and a brand new stadium in 2013.

In their last season competing in the NEC, Ford piloted UAlbany to its sixth Northeast Conference title with a 9-2 overall record and 7-1 league mark. The Great Danes ranked as high as No. 18 in the FCS Coaches Poll and No. 20 in the Sports Network Top-25, and tied the program's Division I record for wins in a season. In addition, nine Great Danes earned All-NEC honors, including six first-teamers. Senior Ryan Kirchner finished his career as UAlbany's all-time leading receiver with 172 career catches, while tailback Drew Smith closed his career as the program's all-time leading point scorer (270), touchdown scorer (45), and tied for most rushing touchdowns scored (40).

During the 2011 season, Coach Ford recorded his 250th career victory with a 38-10 win over Northeast Conference rival Duquesne, and was named the Northeast Conference Coach of the Year for the fourth time. Ford led the program to its first NCAA FCS postseason appearance, its first NCAA appearance in football since 1977, taking on Stony Brook in the first round of the FCS Playoffs. The Great Danes earned a share of their fifth Northeast Conference championship with 31-21 victory over Sacred Heart, and reached the eight-win plateau for the fourth time as a NCAA Division I FCS program. UAlbany placed eleven players on the 2011 All-Northeast Conference squad, led by defensive end Eddie Delaney, who was just the second UAlbany defensive lineman to be recognized on three occasions during a career.

The squad finished up the 2011 season ranked on two national polls, and was receiving votes in a third. The Great Danes were voted 23rd in the Football Championship Subdivision Coaches' Poll, and 21st in the Any Given Saturday FCS Poll. UAlbany was also receiving votes in the Sports Network Media Poll.

The Great Danes, who went 6-5 overall in 2010, established a school record with their fifth consecutive winning campaign. UAlbany posted a 7-4 record and finished second in the Northeast Conference standings the previous season. UAlbany also defeated No. 20 Maine, 20-16, the first victory over a national top-20 opponent since the 2006 season.

In 2008, The Great Danes put together their second consecutive championship season with a NEC crown and a victory over Jacksonville in the Gridiron Classic. Ford's squad became the first NEC program to win the Gridiron postseason game. UAlbany finished with a 9-3 record, the most victories in a Division I FCS campaign. Ford, who was voted NEC coach of the year for the third time, led UAlbany to an undefeated league season for the second straight year. Tailback David McCarty, the school's career rushing leader, and offensive tackle Raphael Nguti were both chosen as All-Americans.

UAlbany also won the NEC championship in 2007, when Ford was named the conference's top coach. The Great Danes made their fifth postseason appearance in team history when they played Dayton for the FCS mid-major national title in the Gridiron Classic. UAlbany posted an 8-4 record, including a perfect 6-0 mark against league opposition.

Ford, who was honored at the 69th annual Maxwell Awards for recording his 200th career win at UAlbany on Nov. 5, 2005, has produced 12 All-America players and 137 all-conference selections at the FCS level. Nguti became the fourth Great Dane to be selected to the AFCA FCS All-America first team in 2008, joining J.T. Herfurth (2000), Geir Gudmundsen (2004) and Colin Disch (2006).

In 2003, UAlbany shared its second consecutive Northeast Conference crown by finishing in a tie for first place in the conference standings with a 7-4 overall mark. The Great Danes were fourth among the FCS Division I leaders in rushing, while tailback Gary Jones was named to the Associated Press All-America Team for the second time in his career.

The Great Danes put together one of their most celebrated seasons in 2002 by winning the program's first-ever Northeast Conference title and capping the year with a 24-0 upset of previously unbeaten Duquesne in the ECAC Division I-AA Football Classic. Ford, who directed his team to an 8-4 record, was named the NEC Coach of the Year. UAlbany placed 14 players on the all-conference squad.

Ford, who has served as president of the American Football Coaches Association, marched UAlbany to a 7-2 record in its inaugural campaign as a Division I-AA program in 1999. The Great Danes garnered seven wins in 2001, and finished among the conference's top teams for the third straight year.

As a Division II program, Ford led the Great Danes to their second consecutive Eastern Football Conference championship, an EFC Atlantic Division title, and a 10-1 record in 1998. He was named the conference's coach of the year for the second straight season. Ford also received the Gordon White-Herschel Nissenson Division II Coach of the Year Award by the Metropolitan New York Football Writers Association.

Ford coached his 1997 team to a school-record 11-1 mark and an EFC championship. For his efforts, he was named the Football Gazette Division II non-scholarship national Coach of the Year, and voted the top Region I coach by GTE and the American Football Coaches Association.

At one time, Ford was the youngest head football coach in the nation, when the 26-year-old took over the reins at St. Lawrence University in 1965. In his first season, he guided the Saints to an Independent Collegiate Athletic Conference (ICAC) title. He arrived in the Capital Region five years later to start the first gridiron squad at the University since 1924.

After three seasons at the club level, the program was upgraded to varsity status in 1973, and finished with a 7-2 record. One year later, the Great Danes completed the school's only undefeated season with a 9-0 mark.

Ford's 1977 team earned a NCAA Division III playoff berth. After a season-opening loss, the Great Danes rebounded with nine consecutive victories. UAlbany defeated Hampden-Sydney in a thrilling 51-45 contest to begin the postseason before losing to eventual national champion Widener in the semifinals.

In 1978, Coach Ford's mystique grew before a national audience on ABC television. His last-minute addition of a field goal kicker direct from the soccer team paid off in a victory over third-ranked Ithaca. Dario Arango kicked a 45-yard field goal in the last two minutes to provide a 9-6 victory.

In 1985, the Great Danes rallied from a three-touchdown deficit for a 33-21 victory over Plymouth State and the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) North championship. The '85 team, which produced one of the greatest comebacks in Ford's coaching career, boasted offensive and defensive units which were nationally ranked, and supported by five Pizza Hut and one Associated Press All-America players.

UAlbany's football program is also known for the high standards required of its coaching staff. Ford's "coaching factory" has allowed many of his assistants to earn their master's degrees while working at the collegiate level. According to a recent review, more than 100 coaches, who have started their careers under Ford's tutelage, are currently employed with 60 different high schools, colleges, and professional teams from around the nation and the world.

A starting quarterback in his senior year at Springfield College in Massachusetts, Ford was given the "Greatest Desire to Improve" Award by the school's athletic department. He received an undergraduate degree in physical education from Springfield in 1959, and later would earn his doctorate from the College in the same discipline. He gained a master's degree from St. Lawrence in educational administration in 1960.

Ford's first coaching opportunity came as an assistant at St. Lawrence in the fall of 1959. He then moved to Albright College in Pennsylvania as an assistant for four seasons, where he coached the secondary and offensive backfield, and was part of a program which produced a 21-game winning streak.

At Albright College, Ford also coached the wrestling and golf teams. He returned to Springfield in 1964 as a secondary coach, and later was named defensive coordinator at his alma mater in 1969.

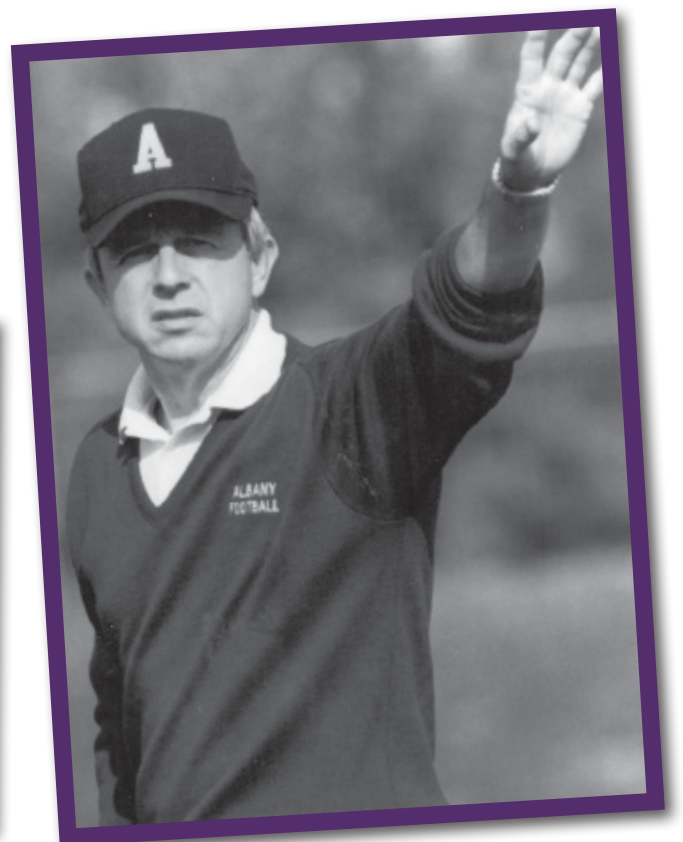

Beginning in 1977, Ford was UAlbany's director of athletics for five years. During that time, he managed a program which sponsored 25 varsity sports for men and women.

A 1986 inductee into the Wachusett Regional High School Hall of Fame and a 2012 inductee into the Springfield College Hall of Fame, Ford is presently active in the National Football Foundation & Hall of Fame, and serves as vice president of the NFFCHF's Capital District Chapter. He was honored by that organization in 2000 with its Service to Football Award.

Ford, 75, has been a member of the American Football Coaches Association's Board of Trustees since 1994, and presently is serving on the AFCA's Division I FCS All-America Team Selection Committee. Ford received the New York State Athletic Administrators Distinguished Service Award in 2005.

In August of 2010, Ford was recognized by the National Football Foundation Capital District Hall of Fame with its Service to Football Award. Ford was previously presented by the UAlbany Alumni Association with its Citizen of the University Award in 2007 which recognizes outstanding contributions to the University by a non-alumnus or alumna through leadership, service or a special gift.

Ford and his wife, Donna, reside in the Capital Region. He has a daughter, Sherri Lee, son-in-law, Kevin, and two grandchildren, Aiden and Kyra.
