SERIES HISTORY

UAlbany owns the 14-1 advantage in the series over the Catamounts. In their most recent meeting, the Great Danes took a 15-7 win in Burlington on April 5. Parker scored a game-high five goals, while Kathleen Lennon won a season-high nine draw controls.

This is the first all-time meeting for the Great Danes and the Catamounts in the America East tournament. Vermont has never won an America East tournament game, and is 0-6 all-time. The Purple & Gold is 6-8 (.429).

Vermont's lone win against UAlbany came in 2008, by a score of 11-10 in Burlington.

MATCH-UP AT A GLANCE

When the teams met on April 5, Vermont took 10 free position shots and made just two. The draw control battle was even at 12 apiece, and UAlbany went a perfect 16-for-16 on clears.

The Great Danes and Catamounts are neck-and-neck in nearly every league-only offensive category:

Category	UAlbany	Vermont
Goals Per Game	14.40 (1st)	11.60 (T-2nd)
Assists Per Game	5.00 (3rd)	4.00 (4th)
Draw Controls	12.60 (2nd)	13.00 (1st)
Shot Percentage	.486 (2nd)	.483 (3rd)

SPREADING THE LOVE

John Battaglino's squad has taken advantage of a balanced scoring attack this season, relying on a number of players to score. Seven different Great Danes have scored 20 goals or more this season, more 20-goal scorers than any team in the league. Rachel Bowles leads the team with 43 goals, followed by Ariana Parker with 36 and Allie Phelan with 33.

Junior Maureen Keggins has scored two goals or more in four of her last five games, including a four-goal performance last game at UNH. Reigning America East Rookie of the Week Sarah Martin has recorded one point in every conference game this season, and has scored multiple goals in each of her last two league starts at UMBC and UNH.

HUNDRED CLUB

Sophomore attack Rachel Bowles tallied her 100th career point in the win against the Retrievers last Saturday, and has now recorded 106 for her career. The all-time career record in points is 192, set by Kate Fontana. Bowles is also ranked fourth all-time in single-season points with 66 in 2014 thus far.

Senior defender Kathleen Lennon became the second Great Dane to tally 200 career draw victories or more in an 18-4 win against Columbia last Wednesday. She has now won 206 in her career to rank second all-time.

PARKER-BOWLES ROYALTY

Senior midfielder Ariana Parker and Rachel Bowles have each tallied multiple-goal performances in four of the last five games. The pair has yet to go a game without recording a point this season. Bowles and Parker have also combined for 13 games with five points or more. With a start on Friday, Parker will become UAlbany's all-time leader in career starts.

SCOUTING VERMONT

Like UAlbany, Vermont is on a two-game winning streak in league play. The Catamounts will hit the road for the first time since April 16 to face the Great Danes at LaValle Stadium. Vermont toppled Stony Brook 8-7 in overtime to hand the Seawolves their first loss in 12 games and earn the No. 3 seed.

The NCAA active career leader in goals Sydney Mas leads Vermont on offense. She has 217 goals to her credit for her career and 59 this season. Junior Jessica Roach leads the league in conference-only goals, with 3.60 per game.

John BATTAGLINO

HEAD COACH
4th Year as UAlbany Head Coach
Siena College '86

John Battaglino is in his fourth season as UAlbany's head women's lacrosse coach in 2013-14. He has guided UAlbany to three consecutive America East title game appearances, as well as back-to-back America East Conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths in his first two years at the helm.

Battaglino was named the 2013 America East Coach of the Year after taking the Great Danes to the America East title game. UAlbany was a perfect 8-0 at home in 2013, and was on a six-game winning streak before losing in the conference final to Stony Brook. Jess Antelmi, Rachael Burek and Kathleen Lennon garnered IWLCA All-Northeast Region honors under Battaglino's tutelage in 2013. Burek broke UAlbany career records in assists (50) and points (84) in her final season with the Great Danes. The senior attack was also named to the IWLCA All-Academic Honor Roll and was the 2013 America East Women's Lacrosse Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

UAlbany defended its America East tournament championship in 2012. The Great Danes (12-6) took down both Boston U. and Stony Brook in the conference tournament as the No. 4 seed. UAlbany fell to Florida in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament, 6-4, in Gainesville, Fla.

Battaglino was named the nation's top coach for the 2011 season by Inside Lacrosse, Snyapse Sports and WomensLax.com. He was also chosen Northeast Region Division I Coach of the Year by the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Association (IWLCA) and America East Conference Coach of the Year.

The Great Danes captured the America East regular-season and tournament championships, plus set a school record for single-season victories. UAlbany (18-1) made its first NCAA appearance since the program became a varsity sport in 1992. The Great Danes defeated Dartmouth in the first round, before losing to eventual national champion Northwestern in the NCAA quarterfinals.

UAlbany earned a national top-10 ranking in both the IWLCA and deBeer/Inside Lacrosse polls for the first time in program history. The Great Danes were the third America East program to win an NCAA Tournament game, as Boston U. advanced to the quarterfinals in 2005 and 2008. Under Battaglino's direction, UAlbany ranked second nationally in scoring defense at 7.32 goals per game, sixth in scoring margin (5.74 gpg) and 18th in scoring offense (13.05 gpg). Nikki Branchini and Taylor

Frink were named to the IWLCA All-America second team.

In 2009, Battaglino was appointed the school's associate head coach. In his first season, the Great Danes ranked second nationally in scoring offense at 15.06 goals per game and fourth in scoring margin. UAlbany had four of America East's top-10 goal scorers, while Taylor Frink led the conference in points per game.

In addition, the Great Danes had one of their most accomplished campaigns in the program's history. UAlbany won its first America East Conference regular-season title, posted a school-record 13-3 mark, and was ranked in the national top-20 for the first time. In addition, Nikki Branchini became the first lacrosse athlete at the Division I level to earn All-America recognition.

Battaglino served as Syracuse's offensive coordinator and assisted in all aspects of the program, including recruiting, scouting and practice planning. During his tenure, the Orange made four NCAA Tournament appearances and won 67 games. In 2009, Syracuse captured a share of the Big East Conference's regular-season title, advanced to the NCAA quarterfinal round and posted a 14-5 record. Three SU players earned IWLCA All-America honors.

In 2008, Battaglino guided the Orange to the highest-scoring season in NCAA history. Syracuse set records for points (541) and goals (380) and led the nation in goals per game (18.01) and points (25.64). Katie Rowan was Division I's top scorer and tied the NCAA single-season mark with 69 assists. In the process, Syracuse reached the NCAA semifinals, captured the Big East regular-season and tournament titles, and finished 18-3 overall. The Orange also won the 2007 Big East crown and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals with the nation's second-ranked offensive attack.

At the high school level, Battaglino led the Eagles to four New York State regional championships and six Section II titles. He coached the program to the Class A state semifinals in 1999, 2002 and 2004 and the state finals in 2003. Battaglino, who compiled a 148-31 career record, was recognized as coach of the year from 1999-2004 by U.S. Lacrosse. Bethlehem Central High had 17 high school All-Americans during his tenure. Battaglino earned a B.A. in political science from Siena College in 1986. He went on to earn a master's in environmental planning from UAlbany in 1992, before receiving another graduate degree in education.

Battaglino was inducted into the Adirondack Region Lacrosse Hall of Fame in 2008 and served on the selection committee for the 2006 U.S. Lacrosse National Team.
