UALBANY RETURNS TO LEAGUE PLAY, HEADS TO VERMONT

The UAlbany men's lacrosse team will look to make it four-straight in America East play, heading north to Burlington to play Vermont on Saturday, April 4th at 1 p.m.

The Great Danes had their six-game winning streak snapped on Thursday with a 17-12 defeat at #2/2 Syracuse, entering Saturday at 7-2 overall and 3-0 in the America East to stand alone in first place. Vermont fell to Stony Brook at home last Saturday 21-12 for its second-straight defeat to stand at 3-8 overall and 1-1 in the America East, tying for fourth place in the league.

UAlbany is #9 in both the USILA coaches poll and the Inside Lacrosse media poll coming into this week. Vermont is not ranked in either poll.

UAlbany has dominated Vermont in the overall series, winning all but one game against the Catamounts since 2002 for a 12-3 record. UAlbany won 20-9 last year in the Capital District.

LYLE THOMPSON APPROACHING NCAA SCORING RECORD

With 339 points in his career, Lyle Thompson is approaching the NCAA career points record, standing fourth all-time. The record is currently held by Rob Pannell, who had 354 points from 2009-13 with Cornell. Matt Danowski scored 353 points for Duke from 2004-08 while Joe Vasta got 343 points for Air Force from 1983-86.

Lyle is fourth all-time in the NCAA in assists with 189. Tim Nelson of N.C. State and Syracuse has the all-time lead with 221 with 1982-85.

Before playing Syracuse, UAlbany lit up the scoreboard in its previous four games, earning 20+ goal contests in all of them to total 96 goals. The team outscored its opponents, Canisius, Hartford, Harvard and UMass Lowell, 96-30 in those games.

Unofficially, the last time a Division I team to score 20+ goals in four-consecutive games was Syracuse in May of 1990.

THOMPSON NAMED TO TEWAARATON WATCH LIST

After sharing the 2014 Tewaaron Trophy with his brother, Lyle Thompson has been named to the award's 2015 50-player watch list, announced on February 26th.

Lyle Thompson earned 128 points in 2014, the NCAA Division I single season record, off 51 goals and 77 assists. He scored at least four points in all of UAlbany's games last year.

UALBANY - UNANIMOUS PICK TO FINISH 1ST IN AE

UAlbany, undefeated in conference play the last two seasons, was a unanimous selection to finish first in the America East in the preseason poll.

The team earned a maximum-possible 36 points with six first-place votes. Stony Brook got the other first-place vote and is predicted to finish second with 30 points. America East title game runner-up UMBC is third, while the 2014 regular season runner-up Binghamton is fourth. The rest of the poll is filled out by Hartford, Vermont and UMass Lowell.

THOMPSON EARNS UALBANY SCORING RECORD

Setting a new record after a 12-point performance against Stony Brook, Lyle Thompson, already the program's all-time assists leader with 189 in his career, earned the all-time scoring record at UAlbany, now standing with 339 points. He surpassed brother Miles Thompson, who tallied 293 from 2011-14.

Lyle also has 150 goals with UAlbany, fifth-highest all-time in program history. That record is also held by Miles with 189. Lyle is four goals away from tying cousin Ty Thompson with 154 from 2011-14.

2015 UAlbany Men's Lacrosse Game Notes - @ Vermont 4/4

SCOUTING VERMONT:

Vermont is 16th in DI scoring 12 goals a game and 66th in DI allowing 14.36 goals a contest.

Reigning America East Rookie of the Year Ian MacKay is the team's primary shooter, tallying 24 goals and 13 assists at attack. Sophomore attack Cam Milligan is the quarterback with 22 goals and 26 assists while junior attack James Barlow leads Vermont with 26 goals.

The Catamounts have rotated two goalies, with sophomore Jon Kaplan primarily starting, allowing 15.31 goals a game with a 47.3 save %, and junior Justin Rosenberg serving as the backup, giving up 11.78 goals a game with a 51.2% save.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN.....

UAlbany will not be spending much time at John Fallon Field this season. In its 15-game season, UAlbany only has five home games, adding nine true road games and a neutral site contest.

The Great Danes played a similar schedule in 2012, also having just five home games.

In its travels, UAlbany will play in seven different states. The team will also travel up and down the home state, including to Long Island, western New York, the Southern Tier and the Capital District.

WELCOME BACK COACHES!

UAlbany has three assistant coaches that played under Scott Marr and have returned to help their alma mater.

Associate head coach Liam Gleason and assistant coach Eric Wolf each enter season four with the team after graduating in 2007, while volunteer assistant coach Brett Queener entering his first season back after being a member of the Class of 2008.

All three were members of the 2007 UAlbany team that earned an America East title and the program's first NCAA Tournament victory over Loyola.

GOING FOR A THREE-PEAT

UAlbany stands as the two-time defending America East champion and will look to be the first league team to earn a third-straight conference title since 2005.

That year, UAlbany won its third-straight league title under coach Scott Marr for conference titles in 2003, 2004 and 2005. Marr is the only America East coach to three-peat under the tournament format.

Former America East members Delaware and Hofstra each earned three-peats in a time when the conference champion was determined by the regular season.

LAST TIME OUT...

Late Fourth Quarter Run Not Enough as #9/9 UAlbany Falls at #2/2 Syracuse 17-12

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The #9/9 UAlbany men's lacrosse team put together a late 4-0 run but could not make up the deficit, falling to #2/2 Syracuse 17-12 in the Carrier Dome on Thursday night.

UAlbany (7-2) had its six-game winning streak snapped against Syracuse (8-1). UAlbany led 4-3 late into the first quarter, but a pair of Syracuse 3-0 runs gave the Orange the lead for good.

"I am certainly proud of our team for the effort they put forth," said UAlbany coach Scott Marr. "[Ben Williams] was unbelievable at the faceoff-x. The amount of time we had to play defense, I thought we played very hard."

Lyle Thompson led UAlbany with seven points off four goals and three assists. Connor Fields earned two goals and an assist while Matt Garziano and Seth Oakes each scored two goals.

"We came in knowing we had to play a good game, faceoffs, ground balls, everything," said Thompson. "They were pressuring and denying me the ball in the second half."

For Syracuse, Williams won 24 faceoffs as the team grabbed 28-33 faceoffs on the night. Henry Schoonmaker netted five goals, Nicky Galasso scored four goals while Kevin Rice finished with three goals and four assists.

After some back and forth play caused by the goalies making saves, UAlbany got a transition play, seeing Garziano rip a long range shot for the goal over the goalie's shoulder. After Harry Erickson intercepted a pass, with Riorden helping the clear, Thompson avoided the coverage, passed to Fields for a ground ball shot and score. With the Orange continuing to win faceoffs, Syracuse kept possession and scored three goals in a span of 2:10 to take the lead. Forcing turnovers after losing faceoffs, UAlbany got back to offense, with Thompson scoring high while being shoved next to the crease and Kyle McClancy netting a goal on the run after getting past his defender. Jordan Evans tied the game for Syracuse with a high shot after shaking off his defender. The score was 4-4 after one quarter.

UAlbany started to win some faceoffs in the second quarter, but turnovers put Syracuse on the offense, leading to the Orange scoring the first two goals in the opening five minutes off a Tim Barber race and score and Rice move to get inside a defender's path and goal. Thompson pulled UAlbany within one, coming from around the cage, coming straight towards and defender, shooting and scoring while getting hit. Syracuse added two more before the end of half, including Nicky Galasso getting around a defender and scoring with 16.8 seconds left, to make it 8-5 going into the locker room.

Action was fast-paced to begin the third quarter as Schoonmaker made a bounce shot and score in the opening seconds. Oakes countered with a low shot in transition for a goal. Syracuse added two more with catch and shoot scores to make it 11-6 3:13 in. The teams went back and forth the rest of the quarter: Thompson used a juke move to get the close shot and score, Schoonmaker netted a man-down goal on the run, Thompson slid and found Oakes for the catch and shoot goal, then a Syracuse goal off a failed UAlbany clear made it 13-8 Syracuse after three.

Continuing to win faceoffs and get UAlbany penalties, Syracuse scored the first three goals in the fourth quarter to lead 16-8 with 8:40 left. UAlbany put together a final run with a Garziano close shot, a Derrick Eccles one-handed flick and score near the crease, a Thompson shot and score with two defenders in front of him and a Fields low fire and goal to pull within four at 16-12 with 2:43. UAlbany could not get closer as Galasso scored for Syracuse with 1:40 left to set the final score at 17-12.

LAST MEETING (3/29/14)...

UAlbany Opens America East Play with 20-9 Victory over Vermont

ALBANY, N.Y. – Using a 12-2 surge in a span of two-and-a-half quarters, the UAlbany men's lacrosse team defeated Vermont 20-9 at John Fallon Field on Saturday to open America East play with a win.

Eight different UAlbany (4-4, 1-0 AE) players earned goals, led by Lyle Thompson, who matched a career-high with five. He added a pair of assists for seven points.

"When we get a lot of players involved in our scoring, it really frees up pressure on our main guys," said UAlbany head coach Scott Marr. "I was pleased how a lot of players contributed to get the win today."

"We wanted to get them at our pace to make them play our style," said Lyle Thompson. "We slowed it down to get a feel for the offense instead of taking a shot right away."

Miles Thompson had three goals and three assists, while Ryan Feuerstein and Bennett Drake each had a hat trick. Blaze Riorden earned the victory in goal with eight saves and eight goals allowed in just under 56 minutes.

For Vermont (5-4, 0-1 AE), Graham Horvath scored four of the team's nine goals, while Alex Stanko scored twice off the bench. Keeper Justin Rosenberg got the loss with nine saves and 20 goals allowed in 55:35 of play.

After Ty Thompson scored first for UAlbany, Horvath scored three of the next four goals netted as Vermont took a 3-2 lead with 4:50 left in the first. Miles Thompson and Feuerstein scored towards the end of the period, with Nick Bartlett getting a goal in the closing seconds to tie the game at four after one.

With Connor Russell dominating at the faceoff-X for UAlbany, the Great Danes saw Lyle Thompson, Miles Thompson and Drake scoring in succession to send UAlbany up 7-4 in the second quarter's opening three minutes. Following a Stanko goal, the home team went on another 3-0 run to close the quarter, sending the advantage to 10-5 going into halftime.

Lyle Thompson added another goal to the run to begin the third quarter with a low shot through the goalie's legs. Vermont stopped the streak with an Ian MacKay goal to make it 11-6 with 9:02 left in the third.

From there, the UAlbany offense went into high gear, starting with Miles Thompson scoring at the 7:37 mark and setting up Tim Cox a little bit later for another goal. Matt Garziano scored minutes later in a man-down situation, with Lyle Thompson adding two more in the period's final minutes, making it 16-6 after three quarters.

Garziano scored again 44 seconds into the quarter, with Lyle Thompson and Feuerstein adding scores to complete the run at 8-0, giving UAlbany a 19-6 lead with 7:40 remaining. Vermont scored three goals late, with Drake adding one for the Great Danes as well, as UAlbany held the advantage and took the victory 20-9.

University at Albany Head Coach Scott Marr

15th Year at UAlbany

2002, 2007, 2013 and 2014 America East Coach of the Year

Scott Marr begins his 15th season as UAlbany's head coach. The only coach hired by the University at Albany in the Division I era, Marr, a four-time America East Coach of the Year, has coached the Great Danes to six America East championships and six appearances in the NCAA Tournament. He has a 120-101 career record at UAlbany and has coached a pair of co-Tewaaraton winners, 17 All-Americans, four Tewaaraton finalists, two Lt. Col. J.L. Turnbull Award winners for the best Attackman in the nation, five America East Players of the Year and 76 all-conference players.

In 2014, the University at Albany men's lacrosse team was one of the top featured squads in all of sports, with media appearances in the New York Times, ABC World News, CBS Evening News, ESPN's Sportscenter, National Public Radio and Newsday. Led by the top scoring offense in the nation for the second consecutive year, the Great Danes earned a second-consecutive America East title, their sixth overall, and the program's second NCAA Tournament victory, taking down #1-ranked Loyola 13-6 in Baltimore and narrowly falling to Notre Dame in the NCAA Quarterfinals. Lyle Thompson and Miles Thompson had historic seasons, becoming the first Native Americans and UAlbany players to earn the Tewaaraton Trophy, sharing the honor after becoming the first pair of Division I teammates to score 100+ points, earning #1 and #2 overall in a single season with 128 and 119 points respectively. Lyle Thompson finished #1 in the country in points and assists per game, while Miles Thompson finished #1 in goals per game and #2 in points per game. UAlbany earned victories over Harvard, UMass and Penn State en route to its second-consecutive undefeated America East season and tournament title, earning Marr America East Co-Coach of the Year honors. Lyle Thompson, Miles Thompson and Ty Thompson all earned All-America honors, while those three, Blaze Riorden, Doug Eich, Ryan Feuerstein and Cody Futia earned All-America East honors.

As an assistant on Dick Edell's Maryland staff for six years, Marr served as both assistant coach and offensive coordinator. Maryland made five NCAA Tournament appearances during that period and was the Division I national runner-up in 1995, 1997 and 1998. The Terrapins shattered the school's single-season scoring record with 236 goals when the program captured the '98 Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season and tournament titles. Maryland's attack averaged 12.5 goals under Marr's direction from 1995-2000. All-Americans Matt Hahn and Andrew Whipple became two of the most storied scorers in school history.

Marr served as one of three assistants for the 2006 U.S. Men's Lacrosse Team that won the silver medal. Syracuse's John Desko was the U.S. team's head coach. The 2006 International Lacrosse Federation World Championship was held in London, Ontario from July 13-22.

Marr began his coaching career as the University of Delaware's offensive coordinator, where he worked with the school's all-time leading scorer Anthony DiMarzo. From 1992-94, the Blue Hens captured three consecutive North Atlantic Conference championships and earned a top-20 national ranking in each season. Marr was also an assistant on the United States team that won the 1999 World Cup.

As a collegiate player at Johns Hopkins University, Marr was an attackman on the 1987 national championship squad and the '89 national runner-up team. The Blue Jays garnered four straight NCAA berths during his career. He received a B.S. in social and behavioral sciences in 1991.

A native of Yorktown, N.Y., Marr was a high school All-American who twice led his team to the state's semifinal round. He and his wife, Traci, a special education teacher, have three children, Kyle, Jordyn and Keeley.
