QUICK SLANTS

- Richmond hits the road for the third time this season to take on yet another nationally-ranked opponent. The Spiders currently have four nationally-ranked opponents on their schedule this fall.

- The Spiders' final six opponents are a combined 16-5 so far this year, which is tied for the toughest future schedule in the country with Northern Iowa.

- Today's matchup marks the fourth straight year these two programs have squared off with the Spiders pulling out a win in the previous three meetings, including a 38-31 barnburner in Richmond last year.

- In last year's Spiders' win over the Great Danes, current senior David Jones set a CAA record with four interceptions.

- The two men in charge of these programs have a long history as Coach Rocco served as Coach Gattuso's host during his recruiting visit to Penn State when they were both players for the Nittany Lions (Rocco then transferred to Wake Forest to finish his collegiate career).

- The Spiders have won 16 of their past 22 CAA contests dating back to the 2013 season.

- Since joining the league in 2007, the Spiders are one of just four programs to win 45 or more conference games over that stretch, along with UNH, Villanova and JMU.

- Richmond will look to continue its impressive offensive output when it takes on Albany, the CAA's top scoring defense (15.0 ppg). The Spiders have posted 30 or more points in four of the five games this season and rank second in the league with 30.8 ppg.

- With a 23-carry, 128-yard performance, freshman Xavier Goodall became the first freshman since 1991 and just the third freshman all-time to have back-to-back consecutive 100-plus yard performances

- Behind 233 yards and three touchdowns in Richmond's win over Towson last Saturday, Kyle Lauletta became just the sixth player in program history to toss for over 5,000 yards. He currently ranks second in the country and tops in the CAA with 1,504 yards this year.

- Richmond's defense ranks among the best in the country, allowing just 276.2 yards per game, ninth-best nationally. The Spiders currently rank first in the country in passing yards allowed per game, allowing just 125.4 per outing.

Battling the Best

Today's meeting will be the 21st meeting against a nationally-ranked opponent during the Coach Rocco era. The Spiders are 12-8 in the previous 20 matchups.

Entering today, Richmond has won six of its past seven meetings with national-ly-ranked opponents, including four straight regular season contests.

Every CAA team that has been ranked at one point this season is on the Spiders' schedule this fall.

Poll Position

With the Spiders' #6 ranking this week, Richmond has now been ranked in the Top-25 poll for 31 consecutive weeks.

Triple Digits

With back-to-back 100-yard performances from Xavier Goodall, the Spiders have now had a 100-yard rusher in 11 of the past 15 games dating back to last season.

The past 13 times a Spiders running back has gotten 20 or more carries, they've rushed for over 100 yards, a streak that dates back to the 2012 season.

Trench Mafia

Richmond's unsung heroes may be the offensive line, who has now blocked for three 100-plus yard rushers this year and has the top passing offense in the CAA and 14th-best in the country.

Three of the guys up front have now started 18 or more consecutive games: Alex Light (18), Thomas Evans (19), Nick Vergos (25).

Dynamic Duo

Kyle Lauletta and the record-setter Brian Brown are quite a duo, both of whom will end their Richmond careers as one of the best to ever do it at their respective positions. Lauletta and Brown are the first pass-catch duo to reach 5,000 career passing yards and 3,000 career receiving yards while playing at the same time.

All About the Benjamins

With his record-setting performance in the win over Colgate, Brian Brown not only became the program's all-time leading receiver, but he also extended his career record for 100-plus yard performances to 15, four more than any other receiver in school history.

The only other two players in program history to have double-digit 100-plus yard performances are Leland Melvin (1982-85) and Walker Gillette (1967-69), who both had 11 during their time as a Spider.

No Passing Through

The Richmond defense has stifled its opposition's passing game this year, limiting its opponents to just 125.4 yards per game, which is the best mark in the country.

Richmond's opponents have passed for a TOTAL of 391 yards (97.8 ypg) over the past four games.

In the win over Colgate, the Spiders limited the Raiders to just five completions, the fewest allowed by a Spiders defense since 2011.

Commonwealth Contributors

Out of the 18 offensive TDs scored by the Spiders this season, 13 have come from players from the Commonwealth of Virginia (5 from Brown, 3 from Wilkins, 3 from Goodall, 1 from Collins/Bevels), 11 have come from players from the city of Richmond.

Homegrown Products

Last weekend's starts, Goodall and Brown are two of a slew of homegrown products for the Spiders, who have 42 student-athletes that hail from the Commonwealth.

Brown and Goodall are two of the 22 Metro Richmond area student-athletes on Richmond's roster this fall.

Collins, who had started both games for the Spiders, went down with a torn ACL and will be out for the remainder of the season.

Standing "O"

Senior captain and linebacker Omar Howard currently leads the team with 33 tackles, 10 of which came in last weekend's win over Towson.

Howard was the first Spider to register double-digit tackles this season. Three of those 10 tackles were for a loss, which was a career-high in that category for the Midlothian, Va. native.

He needs just 49 more tackles to join the top-10 all-time career tackles list.

Break Out Brendan

Junior S Brendan Coniker has been one of the Spiders' breakout players this season, ranking second on the team with 31 tackles, 16 of which are solo tackles.

The Pittsburgh, Pa. native has had at least six tackles in four of Richmond's five games this season, including 22 over the past three weekends. He also chipped in his first career INT at Stony Brook.

Main Man

Junior DB Tafon Mainsah has been the main man for turnovers this season for the Spiders, picking off a team-high three passes, including two in the win over Colgate on Sept. 24.

Mainsah and the Spiders have now picked off a pass in eight of the past nine games dating back to last season.

Partners in Crime

All-CAA defensive honorees Omar Howard (LB) and Winston Craig (DL) have been pillars on the Richmond defense for over two years now, both of them have now made 29 consecutive starts for the Spiders, dating back to Oct. 4, 2014, a double OT win at Liberty.

In those 29 games, the Spiders are 21-8.

Sackin' It To Them

Senior defensive lineman Winston Craig got off to a hot start to the season, piling up four sacks in the first two games, to rank in the top-10 nationally. His four sacks still lead the conference and rank 12th nationally.

Craig has already set a single-season career-high with those four sacks and has been a pillar on Richmond's defensive efforts this year.

He'll Be Back

In the second quarter of Richmond's win over NSU, junior running back Gordon down with a torn ACL and will be out for the

Locked and Loaded

The Spiders returned 16 of 22 starters from last year's squad that posted 10 wins and made a trip to the FCS semifinals. Amongst that group returning for Richmond is two All-Americans in David Jones and Brian Brown, along with eight other players who earned All-CAA accolades last fall.

Statistically, the Spiders returned over 55-percent of their total scoring, over 65-percent of their total receiving yards and over 75-percent of their tackles from last fall.

Front Runners

Richmond enters the 2016 season as the preseason CAA favorites for the first time since 2009, the year after the Spiders' 2008 National Championship run.

Accolades Aplenty

The Spiders boast the CAA Preseason Offensive Player of the Year in Kyle Lauletta and the CAA Preseason Defensive Player of the Year in David Jones. It's just the second time in the past 15 seasons that one team has been named the consensus favorite and had both the preseason offensive and defensive players of the year.

No Fly Zone

Defensively, Richmond's 22 interceptions led the country last year, which marked the third time since 2008 that the Spiders have led the country in that category. Since that year, Richmond has led the CAA five times and ranked in the top-20 nationally six different times.

Jones' nine interceptions last fall set a new single-season program record and tied him for the highest total nationally.

I Wouldn't Throw At That Guy

Jones returns for his senior season looking to build on his record-setting 2015 campaign, in which he earned All-American accolades.

After setting single-game (four) and single-season (nine) records for INTs, Jones enters his final year at Richmond tied for third all-time on the career picks list. With one more pick, Jones would post the highest career tally (13) of any player to come to Richmond in the past 23 years.

Three's Company

For the third time in the past nine years, Richmond advanced to the FCS Semifinals in 2015. The Spiders earned the #7 national seed, earning a home playoff game for the second consecutive season. After defeating conference rival, William & Mary (48-13), Richmond traveled to second-seeded Illinois State and defeated the Redbirds (39-27) to advance to the Semifinals against eventual national champion, North Dakota State.

Double Digit Ws

Richmond's 10 victories in 2015 marked the fifth season in program history that the Spiders reached the 10-win plateau. It marked the third time since 2007 and first time since 2009 that Richmond had reached double-digits in victories.

In the 116 seasons of Spider football prior to 2000, Richmond never won more than nine games. Since then, Richmond has won 10 or more games five times.

Back-To-Back

The back-to-back playoff appearances for the Spiders marked the first time that had occurred since 2008/2009. Only three times in the program's 132 seasons has the Spiders made back-to-back playoff appearances (2007-2008, 2008-2009, 2014-2015).

We're Going To Need Some More Room

Since joining the league in 2007, no CAA football program has captured more conference titles than Richmond. The Spiders have taken home four trophies ('07, '09, '12 and '15), two more than any other school during that span.

DANNY ROCCO

HEAD COACH

Fifth Season
Wake Forest, 1984

Entering his fifth season at the helm of the Spiders, Danny Rocco has returned the program to national prominence with back-to-back FCS Playoff appearances, including reaching the semifinals in 2015.

In the past decade, only four coaches at the FCS level have eight or more wins in seven different seasons, Rocco is one of them, with his teams both at Richmond and Liberty totaling 80 wins over the past 10 seasons, which is particularly impressive knowing that the two programs were a combined 4-18 in the seasons prior to Rocco's arrival.

During his ten seasons as a head coach (four at Richmond, six at Liberty), he has been a National Coach of the Year Finalist five times, he has won six conference championships and four conference Coach of the Year honors.

Even more impressive is that the six conference championships have come with five different starting quarterbacks leading the way for Rocco, all of whom earned all-conference accolades.

Rocco has also been named The Touchdown Club of Richmond's NCAA Division I Commonwealth of Virginia Coach of the Year on two occasions, including last fall after the Spiders' run to a national ranking of #3 and the FCS Semifinals.

In January of 2016, Rocco was elected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees.

In his ten seasons as a head coach, Rocco has coached 144 all-conference honorees and 28 student-athletes who garnered All-American honors, including four Spiders last fall in Brian Brown, Jacobi Green, David Jones and Nick Ritcher.

Twelve different players under Rocco's tutelage have gone on to earn professional contracts, including two this past fall with Ritcher's signing with the Titans and Reggie Diggs signing with the Redskins.

His teams have finished in the final FCS Top-25 poll in seven of the past eight seasons, including finishing #3 in the country after last year's run to the FCS semifinals.

When Rocco arrived on campus, his impact was immediate, ushering in a five-win turnaround en route to an 8-3 season and a share of the CAA Championship in just his first season. It was just a glimpse of the success that would follow in the next three seasons.

He has helped guide Richmond to back-to-back FCS playoff appearances for the first time since 2008-2009. His 33 wins are the most in the first four years of any head coaching tenure and rank seventh all-time in total wins.

During his time with the Spiders, Richmond has defeated 11 nationally-ranked opponents, including five straight wins over William & Mary and a victory over then-No.3 JMU during the 2015 season when ESPN's College GameDay was in Harrisonburg.

At Liberty, Rocco quickly made the Flames into a Big South powerhouse, winning Big South Conference Championships in four of his six seasons in Lynchburg. His time at Liberty was one of the most successful stints in program history. Rocco arrived at Liberty following the program's 1-10 finish in 2005 and transformed the program as the architect of six consecutive winning seasons with the Flames. During his first season in 2006, Liberty won five more games (6-5) than the previous year, an improvement that tied for the best FCS turnaround in the nation that season.

As a result of his immediate impact on the program, Rocco was named Big South Coach of the Year for the first time in school history, the first of three-straight years he would receive the honor. He would go on to be named a finalist for the national Eddie Robinson Award and Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award in each of the final three seasons in Lynchburg.

Since the team's stunning turnaround in 2006, Rocco's teams continued to dominate in the Big South Conference and beyond. The Flames rolled to a 47-20 overall record and an impressive 26-5 mark in Big South play under Rocco, winning no fewer than seven games in each of his final five seasons. Nationally, Liberty finished the last four years ranked inside the Top 25 in both major FCS polls.

Did You Know?

Rocco's 33 wins is the highest total in the first four years of any coach in program history.

During Rocco's six years at the helm in Lynchburg, the Flames captured their first-ever Big South Championship in 2007 - the first of four consecutive conference titles. During this four-year span, Rocco had the third-highest winning percentage among FCS coaches nationally with his 34-11 record (.756).

Before becoming a head coach, Rocco spent 23 seasons at the BCS or NFL levels.

Prior to his arrival at Liberty, Rocco spent the previous five seasons at Virginia. He was a part of four-consecutive bowl appearances for the Cavaliers, including back-to-back Continental Tire Bowl victories in 2002 and 2003. During his time in Charlottesville, UVA piled up 37 wins with Rocco serving as the associate head coach and linebackers coach under Al Groh.

In addition to his coaching duties with the Cavaliers, he also served as the recruiting coordinator during his first two years in Charlottesville. His 2002 recruiting class was ranked in the top 10 in the nation by many of the major recruiting services, including a fifth-place ranking by ESPN.

Prior to UVA, Rocco spent the 2000 season alongside Groh as an assistant linebacker and special teams coach with the New York Jets. Before joining the Jets, he was the linebackers coach at Maryland during the 1998 and 1999 campaigns.

Prior to his time in College Park, Rocco spent four seasons at the University of Texas, where the Longhorns captured three straight conference titles, including winning the inaugural Big 12 Championship in 1996 and earning three consecutive trips to bowl games (Sun Bowl, Sugar Bowl and Fiesta Bowl).

Before Tom Coughlin was a Super Bowl winning coach with the New York Giants, he was Rocco's mentor at Boston College for two seasons. As a defensive assistant, Rocco was a part of the revitalization of the Golden Eagles, returning the program to the national stage as participants in the 1992 Hall of Fame Bowl and the 1993 Carquest Bowl.

Rocco also spent the 1987 season as the linebackers coach at Colorado under Bill McCartney and three seasons as the linebackers coach at Tulsa.

The start of Rocco's coaching career came at his alma mater, Wake Forest, where he spent three seasons in total, two as a graduate assistant and one as the defensive line coach during the 1986 season.

As a player, Rocco's collegiate career began at Penn State, where he earned two varsity letters and competed in the 1979 Liberty Bowl and the 1980 Fiesta Bowl before transferring to Wake Forest. While in Winston-Salem, he was a two-year starter and senior captain for Groh.

He was no stranger to coaching after growing up in a football family. His father, Frank Rocco, Sr., served as an assistant coach at Penn State under Hall of Fame coach Joe Paterno before joining the Liberty staff in 2000. Frank Rocco, Jr., also joined the Flames staff in 2000 as a wide receivers and quarterbacks coach and received a promotion to offensive coordinator prior to his departure in 2003. Frank, and brother, Dave, are both currently coaching at the high school level in Virginia.

A native of Huntingdon, Pa., Rocco is married to the former Julie Mills. They are the parents of two children, David and Amy.

For a guy who is starring in college right in his hometown, Brown is as quiet as they come. Somewhat of a silent assassin, Brown will go down as arguably the best receiver to ever put on a Richmond uniform.

He became the first player in program history to post two seasons of 1,000+ receiving yards and is less than 400 yards away from breaking the school record in that category.

Brown hopes to one day give back to area youth and help them work their way through the recruiting process, while also developing their athletic skills
