GLORY

Entering the Sweet Sixteen, UAlbany ranks in the top-20 nationally in scoring offense (14th), assists per game (10th), points per game (11th), total goals (14th), total assists (10th), and total points (15th). Afonso Pinheiro ranks ninth in goals and 12th in points. Pinheiro was also named to the College Soccer News National Team of the Week, and the Great Danes were ranked 10th nationally by Top Drawer Soccer.

SWEET SIXTEEN

The Great Danes avenged their regular season loss to Boston College, defeating the Eagles 3-0 in the second round of the NCAA tournament. The first NCAA tournament win in program history earned UAlbany a berth into the Sweet-16, where they would face #3-seed Clemson. During the game, Afonso Pinheiro tallied three points (one goal and one assist), bringing his season total points to 30, a new single-season program high.

EAGLE-EYE

After defeating the Fordham Rams, the Boston College Eagles earned a rematch with the Great Danes in the second round of the NCAA tournament. When UAlbany visited Chestnut Hill on September 20, the Eagles defeated the Great Danes 5-3. In the 12 games since that loss, UAlbany has let up just seven goals, while scoring 26, en route to a record of 9-2-1.

BREAKING IN

For the first time in program history, the Great Danes earned a spot in the national rankings, having been selected #21 in the final coaches' poll of the 2016 season. The team also ranks 12th in RPI, another program-high. The Great Danes hold national rankings of 13th in assists per game, 15th in points per game, 20th in total goals, and 20th in scoring offense.

BYE-ING TIME

The Great Danes earned the #14 seed in the NCAA tournament, as was announced during the selection show. It is the highest-ever ranking for an America East squad since the tournament expanded to 48 team in 2001. UAlbany also earned a first-round bye, and will face the winner of the matchup between Fordham and Boston College.

STAYING POWER

Three players from this year's team, Luke Palmateer, Bernardo Mattos, and Keith Traut, entered the all-time top 10 in both games played and games started.

CHAMPIONS

For the first time in program history, UAlbany won the America East title, defeating Hartford 1-0 on a penalty kick by Afonso Pinheiro in the 89th minute. The title comes one year after the Great Danes won the America East regular season championship for the first time in program history. The team will also play in its first-ever NCAA tournament after earning the conference's automatic bid. Bernardo Mattos was named tournament Most Outstanding Player, and Afonso Pinheiro, Carlos Clark, and Brynjar Steinþórsson also earned All-Tournament recognition.

STONEWALLED, PART II

Defying expectations, the Great Danes once again held Ver-mont's potent offense scoreless, defeating the Catamounts 2-0 in the America East semifinal round. Vermont's two strikers ranked fifth and 15th nationally in points, and Vermont ranked 10th nationally in scoring offense. In two meetings, the Great Danes outscored Vermont 6-0.

ALL-CONFERENCE

Keith Traut was named to the America East All-Conference First Team and All-Academic teams, the latter of which was his second consecutive selection. Afonso Pinheiro, Bernardo Mattos, and Carlos Clark were named to the All-Conference Second Team, and Brynjar Steinþórsson was named to the All-Rookie Team.

FLYING HIGH

The Great Danes wrapped the regular season with a 5-1 victory over Binghamton, matching the program-high for goals scored in a single game. The victory, combined with New Hampshire's loss to Vermont, secured the second overall seed in the America East tournament, and a first-round bye.

HITTING THE BOOKS

Senior captain Keith Traut was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District 1 First Team, which recognize the nation's top-student athletes for their combined athletic and academic performance. Traut's selection advances him to the CoSIDA All-Academic ballot, where he will be in contention for first, second, or third team All-America honors.

THREE'S A TREND

Nico Solabarrieta scored in his third consecutive game with the clinching goal against New Hampshire. His streak earned an America East Player of the Week award, the second in two weeks for UAlbany.

CUTTING IT CLOSE

The Great Danes defeated New Hampshire 2-1, scoring twice in the final six minutes of play, including the game-winner with six seconds remaining.

RECOGNITION

Afonso Pinheiro won the team's first America East Player of the Week award, the same week that Bernardo Mattos was named to the College Soccer News National Team of the Week. The Great Danes also achieved their highest ever RPI ranking in program history at 22.

STONEWALLED

UAlbany shut out Vermont, holding the Catamounts' two star forwards, and Vermont's eighth-ranked scoring offense to no goals.

A FRIEND IN ME

In partnership with the Friend of Jaclyn, UAlbany's men's soccer team adopted Jasier "Peanut" Brown in a tandem ceremony on Bob Ford Field at the Tomy & Mary Casey Stadium during which Peanut's sister, Navaeh was adopted by the UAlbany cheerleading team.

ORANGE CRUSH

The Great Danes defeated #3 Syracuse University. It was the highest ranked opponent UAlbany had ever beaten in a home event.

RISE TO THE TOP

Afonso Pinheiro became the UAlbany all-time leader in goals scored with 21 against UMass. Pinheiro became the UAlbany all-time leader in points with 52 against LIU Brooklyn.

DEJA VU

For the second consecutive season, Afonso Pinheiro scored the Great Danes' first goal. Also for the second consecutive season, Nico Solabarrieta assisted Pinheiro's first goal.

ONE TO WATCH

Afonso Pineheiro was named to the 2016 MAC Hermann Watchlist, which recognizes the collegite soccer player of the year. Pinheiro is UAlbany's first-ever player named to the watchlist. He was also named as a preseason Third-Team All-American. The Great Danes were also selected as the favorite to win the America East in the preseason coaches' poll, and were mentioned as one of 12 teams to watch by collegesoccernews.com.

TREVOR GORMAN

HEAD COACH

Sixth Season
Penn State '05

Trevor Gorman enters his sixth season as head men's soccer coach for the University at Albany Great Danes for the 2016 season. Through five seasons, Gorman has seen a steady improvement since taking over as head coach. The Great Dane head coach is 32-49-15 overall and 14-16-3 in conference play.

The 2015 Purple & Gold squad earned the program's first America East regular season crown after going 5-2 in league play. The Purple & Gold posted a high-powered offense behind Afonso Pinheiro and Leo Melgar up front, averaging 5.43 points per game against conference opponents to lead the America East. Defensively, UAlbany allowed just six goals in league play (0.81 GAA) to post the top defensive effort as well. Gorman guided the Danes to a 10-win season for the first time since 2008 with a record of 10-8-1, six more wins than the previous season. He anchored a coaching staff that was named the America East Coaching Staff of the Year.

Afonso Pinheiro garnered America East Striker of the Year honors, becoming the first back-to-back UAlbany honoree of a major league award. The sophomore was also selected to the NSCAA All-East Region First Team after posting a league-leading 26 points and 11 goals. He became the UAlbany Division I record holder in single season goals, career goals and career points. Pinheiro racked up America East All-Conference First Team honors, and was joined by captains Philip Persson and Keith Traut. The three members of the All-Conference First Team was the most for the Great Danes in program history.

With an exciting recruiting class for the 2014 season, the Purple & Gold saw one of its top offensive outputs. Led by America East Co-Rookie of the Year Afonso Pinheiro, the Danes totaled 59 points for the second-highest scoring offense under Gorman. The 2014 squad also led the nation mid-way through the season in overtime and double overtime contests, entering extra time on nine occasions. Earning hosting rights for the America East Quarterfinals as the No. 4 seed, UAlbany fell to Vermont 2-1 on Nov. 8 at Bob Ford Field.

Individually, Pinheiro became the first league Rookie of the Year all-time for the program. He was the first UAlbany player to earn a major conference award since 2008 with seven goals and two assists, including two game-winners. Pinheiro was a unanimous selection to the America East All-Rookie Team, and was placed on the Second Team by the league's coaches. Senior defender Dominic McGarr was also selected to the Second Team, as well as the America East All-Academic squad.

The Great Danes totaled 10 points in America East play with a 3-3-1 record to be named the No. 5 seed in the America East Tournament in 2013. It was their best record in America East play since joining the league. UAlbany nearly upset nationally ranked No. 6 UMBC in the league semifinals, but fell 2-1 in Baltimore. The Great Danes beat Vermont 5-1 in the quarterfinals for the team's highest offensive output in five years.

Gorman also led UAlbany to its first program victory over a nationally-ranked opponent, a 2-1 against No. 22 Fairleigh Dickinson at home. The win was the first for the Purple & Gold in a new home, Bob Ford Field.

In 2012, the Great Danes appeared in the America East Conference Tournament for consecutive seasons since 2005-2006. UAlbany hosted a home postseason conference game for the first time since 2008. Gorman's squad saw an improvement in conference play, going 3-4-0 and finishing fifth (finished 6th and tallied a 1-3-3 record in 2011). Freshmen Anthony Rozzano, Philip Persson and Tim Allen were named to the America East All-Rookie Team.

In his first season at the helm in 2011, Gorman brought the Great Danes to the postseason for the first time since 2008. UAlbany went into the America East Conference postseason as the six seed. The Great Danes saw their goal production almost double in 2011, scoring 22 goals (13 in 2010). UAlbany finished the season 6-10-3 and 1-3-3 in league play.

Gorman was an assistant at Wright State for one season prior to being hired at UAlbany on Feb. 16, 2011. At Wright State, Gorman assisted in all aspects of the Horizon League program. He planned training sessions, prepared scouting reports, handled video analysis, and coordinated recruiting, with emphasis in the area of international student-athletes. He also coached at the club level with the Ohio Galaxies and the Upper Valley Lightning in Hanover, N.H.

From 2007-09, Gorman was an assistant at Dartmouth College, where the Big Green appeared in three consecutive NCAA Tournaments and won an Ivy League championship. In Gorman's three seasons, Dartmouth had a combined 32-17-4 record and eleven players earned All-Ivy recognition.

A native of State College, Pa., Gorman played for his father at Penn State University where he was a midfielder on the 2002 Big Ten Conference championship squad and a pair of NCAA teams. His father, Barry, is the all-time winningest coach in Penn State history with 266 career victories and 13 NCAA appearances.

After earning All-Academic Big Ten honors his senior season, Gorman enrolled in graduate school at the University of North Carolina. During that period, he worked for UNC's sports marketing division. His responsibilities included contract fulfillment for clients, promotions and the Tar Heel Sports Network. He also coached with the Sanford Area Soccer League and the Triangle United Soccer Club.

Gorman, who has a B.A. in business management, has a sports publicity background, having worked in Penn State's sports information office. He assisted at the NCAA Men's and Women's College Cups and the Atlantic Coast Conference men's and women's soccer tournaments. In addition, Gorman was a sideline reporter for Fox Soccer Channel's college broadcasts.

Gorman, who holds a NSCAA Premier Coaching Diploma, earned a master's degree in exercise and sport science with an emphasis in sport administration from North Carolina.

KEVIN MAY

ASSISTANT COACH

First Season
Nazareth '08

May comes to UAlbany in 2016 after serving as an assistant coach for four seasons at Georgia Gwinnett College in Lawrenceville, Ga.

With the team since its infancy in 2012, the Grizzlies qualified for the NAIA Tournament in the two seasons following its debut. May led Gwinnett to the All Conference title in 2013 and 2014, and ranked top-10 nationally among NAIA institutions in 2013. He assisted with all aspects of the program including recruiting, video exchange, scouting and prospective student-athlete visits.

Prior to his stint with the Grizzlies, May was the Director of Soccer Operations at UConn from 2009-2011. He was a member of the coaching staff for the BIG EAST regular season champion Huskies in 2009, as well as two NCAA Division I Tournament runs in 2009 and 2010. May was also an interim assistant for a brief stint in the summer of 2011. A perennial national powerhouse in UConn, May had his hand in fundraising, team travel, training sessions, marketing and day-to-day operations for the Huskies.

May began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater Nazareth College in 2004. The Flyers made their first NCAA Tournament appearance in the Division III ranks in 2005 under May's tutelage. Following his two-year stint at Nazareth, he served as an assistant coach at RIT. In his first season with the Tigers, the team earned Empire 8 Coaching Staff of the Year accolades.

In addition to his extensive experience coaching in college, May has also been a club coach for boys and girls in Atlanta, Ga., Connecticut and New York. He has served as a Region 3 Olympic Development Program (ODP) coach out of Tuscaloosa, Ala., to help select players in the Southeast for Olympic Development in various age groups.

On the pitch, May was a midfielder for the Flyers and garnered NSCAA All-Region honors as a senior. He ranks sixth at Nazareth in career assists (16) and second in single-season assists with 10 as a senior captain.

A 2008 graduate of Nazareth College, May holds a Bachelor's in Political Science as well as an NSCAA National and Advance National license.

CHRIS CUSTER

ASSISTANT COACH

First Season
Lock Haven '12

Custer joins the UAlbany staff in 2016 after three seasons as the goalkeeper coach at St. Lawrence in Canton, N.Y.

The Saints made three NCAA Tournament trips in his tenure, including a run to the Sweet 16 in 2015. St. Lawrence went 50-8-6 with 38 shutouts in his three seasons. He contributed to the Saints campaign by way of recruiting, scouting, video analysis and day-to-day training plans under Bob Durocher and Mike Toshack.

In 2013, goalkeeper Aaron Costello posted a goals against average of just .319 between the posts to the named the NCAA Division III statistical champion in the category under Custer. He would go on to earn NSCAA All-American honors as well as Liberty League Defensive Player of the Year accolades.

Prior to his time at St. Lawrence, Custer served a brief stint at Widener University in Chester, Pa. Custer was also the co-director of the Soccer Training Network out of Beach Creek, Pa., from 2007-2012.

A 2012 and 2011 Bachelor's degree recipient at Lock Haven, Custer also holds a Master's in Educational Leadership and Administration from St. Lawrence as well as an NSCAA National diploma.

#25 Ivan Martinez (5-5, 140, R-Sr., F) Mamaroneck, N.Y. (Rye Neck)

2016: Made first start at DePaul (9/2)... Made season debut vs. Marist (8/26)

2015: Earned a medical hardship waiver to return as a redshirt senior

2014: Started five consecutive games to conclude the season... Recorded one goal (Stony Brook, 10/24) and one assist (at Hartford, 11/1) in consecutive outings for the Great Danes... Made 14 total appearances and eight starts

2013: Scored the gamewinner against Yale (10/8)... Made six starts in 12 appearances... Made his first career start against Cal State Northridge (8/30)

2012: Recorded first career goal against Hartwick (10/17) ... Played six games between forward and midfield

Quick Facts: Despite missing his senior season, Martinez enjoyed a highly decorated career at Rye Neck High School earning player of the year honors in Section 1 in 2010. That same year he was also named 1st Team All State. Martinez plays for FC Westchester in the USSD Academy, helping them to a division title and playoffs appearance in 2011.

Personal: Ivan Dario Martinez ... Intended academic major is undeclared ... Son of Dario and Maria Martinez

Gorman on Martinez: "Ivan is a dangerous attacking player who always pops up in good positions on the field. He's capable of playing multiple positions, and has the potential to transition very well to Division 1 soccer. I fully expect him to be a dynamic attacking member of our team throughout his career."
