#2 MAINE GOES FOR EIGHTH AE TITLE LIVE ON ESPNU

The University of Maine women's basketball team (26-7) goes for its eighth America East Championship when it travels to take on #1 UAlbany (26-4), Friday at 4:30 p.m. live on ESPNU. It will be Maine's 16th appearance in the championship final and its first since winning it all in 2004.

A LOOK AT THE BLACK BEARS:

Maine enters championship game with the 11th longest current win streak in the nation at 14-straight. The Black Bears have won 19-straight at home, which ranks sixth nationally, and six-straight on the road. Maine is one of just 18 teams in the nation with 26+ wins and with a win in the America East Championship, would match a UMaine school-record with 27 victories (1995-96).

Maine picked up a quarterfinal win over New Hampshire (58-47) and a semifinal triumph over Stony Brook (51-48) to advance to its 16th league championship game. Sigi Koizar is averaging 19.0 points in tournament played to go along with a 41.7-percent mark from 3-point range. Maine's junior guard has knocked down 11-of-13 from the free throw line (84.6 percent) in postseason action this year. Liz Wood, who posted her 23rd career double-double in Maine's win over New Hampshire, is chipping in 10.5 points and 8.5 boards during the tournament.

Maine is led by all-conference first team guard Sigi Koizar, who ranks third in the league at 17.6 points per game. Koizar continues to be one of the best shooters in the league, ranking eighth in field goal percentage (48.5) and third in free throw percentage (82.9). The junior's strong suit has been from beyond the arc where she leads the league in 3-point makes with a Maine school record of 81, averaging 2.5 per game. Koizar ranks 10th in the country in percentage from 3-point range (43.3). Koizar has posted double-figures in scoring in each of her last 12 games, averaging 19.9 points over that period including a career-high 32 point showing at UMass Lowell. Koizar continues to protect the ball and distribute, ranking second in the America East with a 1.78 assist to turnover ratio and ranking fourth at 3.9 assists per game. Senior leader Liz Wood, Maine's all-time leader in game's played (125) and an all-conference second team selection, is averaging 9.5 points and ranks sixth in America East in rebounding (7.5). An All-League defensive selection, Wood sits 14th in the nation in total steals (84) and second in the league in steals per game (2.55). Maine features four shooters ranked in the league's top 12, led by Koizar (48.5). Third team all-conference selection Bella Swan, who is shooting 48.0 percent, is adding 5.4 rebounds and 8.0 points; averaging 10.4 points in conference games. Post Mikaela Gustafsson ranks 23rd in the league in scoring (8.8), while shooting 44.6 percent from the floor.

Maine's defensive effort continues to shine as it has climbed all the way to third in the nation allowing just 49.7 points per game. Maine has held each of its last 14 opponents under 60 points and nine of those under 50, including the last five-straight. The Black Bears are tops in the league and 11th nationally in turnovers surrendered, averaging just 12.2 mishaps. Offensively, Maine ranks 14th in the country in total assists (523), ranking second at 15.8 per game. On the flip-side, Maine is averaging 16.03 turnovers forced, good for a +3.79 turnover margin. The Black Bears have remained consistently good from outside range where they rank first in the league in 3-point makes (214), 3-point makes per game (6.5) and tops in 3-point percentage (33.2).

SCOUTING UALBANY:

The Great Danes have won five-straight and suffered their last loss back on Feb. 14 against the Black Bears. UAlbany, the league's highest scoring offense at 71.4 points per game, is averaging 87.0 ppg in tournament action. The Great Danes rank fifth in the country in scoring margin (+19.3) and 11th in scoring defense, allowing 52.2 points per game. UAlbany is one of the highest percentage shooting teams in the country, placing fourth 49.0 percent from the floor. Individually, UAlbany is led by the league's player of the year in senior Shereesha Richards. Richards leads the league in scoring (23.5) and ranks second in rebounding (8.5). Richards is top 10 in the nation in several categories including scoring (7th), points (6th-704) and field goals (266). Imani Tate sits second in the league at 18.3 points per game and defensively is eighth in the nation at 3.10 steals per game. Point guard Zakiya Saunders runs the offense for the Great Danes and is third in the country at 7.2 assists per game.

A GLIMPSE INTO THE SERIES:

Maine and UAlbany will be meeting for the 34th time in history with the Black Bears holding the all-time series advantage, 18-15. Maine won the first ever meeting in the series, 88-58, on Jan. 12 2002, and went on to win the first 13 contests. This season, the teams have split a pair of meetings, each team winning at home. A year ago, the teams also split, with each team winning on the road. Maine dropped its last trip to UAlbany, 64-59 but captured a 12-point victory at home in the latest meeting, 65-53. UAlbany is the last team to score more than 50 points on Maine. In two meetings this year, Sigi Koizar (16.0), Mikaela Gustafsson (11.0) and Liz Wood (10.0) are all averaging double-figures. Koizar leads all current Black Bears with 10.7 ppg in six meetings with UAlbany while Wood is adding 7.3 and 4.8 boards. Koizar has posted double-figures in her last two games against the Great Danes and three of her six total.

TOURNAMENT FACTS:

Maine is appearing in its 18th America East tournament after participating in six North Atlantic Conference tournaments and five Seaboard Conference tournaments. Maine is 38-22 all-time in conference tournament action, including an 20-15 mark in America East postseason play. The Black Bears are 7-8 all-time in the championship round. This is Maine's sixth time entering tournament action as the #2 seed, and its first time since 2000. Maine is 11-4 in postseason action all-time as the #2 seed and won the 1998 America East tournament as the No. 2 seed. The Black Bears are 1-8 all-time against the #1 seed with their lone win over a No. 1 seed coming in 1998 when they defeated #1 Vermont, 81-80, in the America East Championship game. UAlbany is 7-0 as the No. 1 seed all-time. Maine is looking to become the second-straight No. 2 seed to win the championship (UAlbany-2015). Maine will be looking for its eighth America East title in its 16th championship appearance; the most for any current AE team (next closest Vermont at 11).

Richard Barron enters his fifth year with the Black Bears, and his 16th overall season as a head coach. Coach Barron's Black Bears have made significant strides in his first four year's and have already turned the corner on the path to greatness.

Barron's mentoring throughout the 2014-15 season guided the Black Bears to their highest achievement of success in over 10 years as Maine reached the 20-win plateau for the first time since 2004-05 and totaled its highest amount of wins (23) in 11 years. The success of 2014-15 brought Maine back into the national picture as it reached a #19 ranking in the College Insider Mid-Major Top-25, returned to the WNIT for the first time since 2005 and captured the 2015 America East Regular Season Co-Championship.

Maine's success on the court continued to be matched by its community service and academic efforts. The Black Bears finished the year with the 24th best GPA in the nation (3.399) while spending countless hours off the court giving back to the Black Bear Nation community.

It took Barron just three year's to return the Black Bears to the winning ways which they were so used to in year's past. In his third season at the helm of the team, Barron led Maine to a 17-15 record, a 10-6 league record and its first postseason win since 1999; a 77-47 home drubbing of Bucknell in the opening round of the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI). Maine's 17 wins was a +13 over the previous season; one of the top three turnarounds in the country in terms of win totals. Maine's total wins (17) and America East conference victories (10) were its most since the 2004-05 season. The Black Bears finished fourth in the league standings; their highest regular season finishing mark since placing first in 2005.

Barron's offensive guidance produced several record-breaking accolades including setting a new mark for most 3-point field goals made in a season in both the team and league record books and tied the mark for 3-point field goals made in a single game (14 at UMBC). Maine's offense improved +10.0 points per game (65.2); the highest points per game mark since the 2002-03 season.

In his second season with Maine, Barron worked to develop one of the youngest squads in all of NCAA basketball. His first recruiting class welcomed nine student-athletes to the Black Bears, led by freshman forward Liz Wood who Barron helped develop into the America East Co-Rookie of the Year.

In his first year as a Black Bear, Coach Barron doubled Maine's overall and conference wins from a season ago while leading the team to its first postseason victory since 2006. Along the way, Coach Barron helped a pair of players to All-Conference honors as Samantha Baranowski was named to the All-America East Third Team and rookie Danielle Walczak was honored to the America East All-Rookie squad.

Following the 2011-12 season, Coach Barron proved to Black Bear nation why he is known for his fantastic recruiting. Coach Barron, along with his staff, introduced a nine-member 2012-13 signing class to the University of Maine, which received national attention as the class was ranked 36th best in the nation by Blue Star Basketball's National Scouting director Chris Mennig.

Off the court, Coach Barron made sure the Black Bears were involved in a variety of activities within the community in terms of public service, fundraising efforts and charity events with the most memorable moment off the court coming when the Black Bears and Coach Barron teamed up to raise over $10,000 dollars for the Play4Kay Breast Cancer Foundation.

Barron came to the University of Maine after a two-year stint at North Carolina State where he served as an assistant coach under Kellie Harper. In Barron's first year with the Wolfpack, the Tennessee native helped guide the team to the NCAA Tournament with a 20-14 record. A team that was predicted to finish ninth in the preseason, ended up finishing tied for fifth in the ACC standings while making it to the 2010 ACC Tournament Finals.

Barron is well renowned for his fantastic recruiting as he spent two seasons at Baylor prior to his time at NC State as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator with the Bears. During his time at Baylor, Barron was responsible for landing the consensus top-ranked player (Brittney Griner) and the top ranked recruiting class of 2009 while also assisting in coaching the Bears to the Big 12 Tournament Championship.

Baylor compiled a 54-13 record to go along with two trips to the NCAA tournament, including a run to the Sweet 16 in 2008-09; in the two seasons Barron was with the Bears' staff.

Barron began his Division I head coaching career at Princeton as he spent six seasons at the helm of the Tigers' program. After taking over the program fresh off a 2-25 season prior to his arrival, Barron guided the Tigers to an 11-16 record in his first season, making Princeton one of the most improved teams in the country that year. During his six years at Princeton, Barron managed the Tigers to an Ivy League title in 2005-06, setting a school record for overall wins (21-7) and conference wins (12-2). Barron mentored five different players to All-Ivy League honors while at Princeton.

Prior to his time at Princeton, Barron spent five seasons at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tenn, compiling a 77-48 record during his tenure. In his final season at the University of the South, Barron guided the squad to its first ever conference championship and a No. 8 national ranking in Division III.

Prior to his time coaching the Sewanee women, Barron was the assistant men's coach at Sewanee for four years. Barron came to the University of Maine with an 11-year head coaching career record of 139-152.

In the summer of 2006, Barron looked to expand his coaching knowledge as he traveled to Treviso, Italy with the NBA's Phoenix Suns to observe and study under current New York Knicks head coach Mike D'Antoni. In 1998, Barron was one of just three collegiate coaches selected to serve as a floor coach at the American Basketball League's combine. He also served as the Ivy League Representative for the Women's Basketball Coaches Association from 2003-06.

Barron, who grew up in both Florida and Tennessee, graduated from Kenyon College with a B.S. in biology. He graduated cum laude after being named to the dean's list all eight semesters. Barron played both basketball and baseball while at Kenyon.

Barron and his wife, Maureen, a former Princeton softball coach, are the proud parents of twin daughters, Lane and Rae, and son, Billy.
