school-record tying four touchdowns on 28 carries as UAlbany improved to 3-0 with a 45-28 win over Holy Cross. It was the third consecutive 100+-yard effort for Ibitokun-Hanks, who leads FCS in rushing TD's (8) and ranks second in yards (465). He had scoring runs of 40, 4, 7 and 13 yards. The honor marks Ibitokun-Hanks' third CAA weekly honor of his career, earning Offensive Rookie of the Week honors twice in 2015.

RECORD-HIGHS AT CASEY STADIUM

Scoring 45 points in the win over Holy Cross on Sept. 17, the Great Danes broke the record for most points scored at Casey Stadium. The previous high was 42 set on Oct. 25, 2014 in UAlbany's 42-7 win over Columbia. In addition, the Danes had the program's largest home crowd to witness a UAlbany victory with 8,040 in attendance. The Great Danes have sold the stadium out (8,500) three times since opening in 2013, but did not earn victories in those games.

TURN, TURN, TURN

Ranking second in the FCS for turnover margin (+10) and first for turnovers gained (12) and interceptions (7), the Great Danes have scored 17 points off turnovers this season. Meanwhile, UAlbany has yet to give up any points off turnovers with just one fumble lost and one interception through three games.

Ending his season with a knee injury in UAlbany's first game of the year at Buffalo in 2015, redshirt junior linebacker Michael Nicastro picked up where he left off this year at UB. Nicastro picked off the first pass of the game and returned it 38 yards to the 7-yard line, setting up the Danes' first touchdown. With an 80-yard interception return for a touchdown at Rhode Island, as well as forcing a fumble vs. Holy Cross, Nicastro has been a key contributor to UAlbany's +10 turnover margin.

IBITOKUN-HANKS RUNS FOR 100+

With three straight 100+ rushing performances, sophomore running back Elijah Ibitokun-Hanks has raised his total to five career 100+ rushing games. This season, he recorded his third career 100+ rushing game at Buffalo, logging 104 yards on 23 carries, his fourth at URI with 178 yards and three touchdowns on 27 carries, and his fifth vs. Holy Cross with 183 yards and four touchdowns on 28 carries. He also hit the mark in back-to-back games in 2015 at Richmond (202 yards, 25 carries) and Delaware (135 yards, 28 carries).

SUSSMAN, ROBERSON GO LONG

Sophomore quarterback Neven Sussman totaled a career-high 183 passing yards vs. Holy Cross, hitting sophomore Zee Roberson with two long touchdown tosses for 41 yards and 49 yards -- a career long for both Sussman and Roberson.

UALBANY RETURNS FOUR ALL-CAA PLAYERS

The Great Danes return three players who have earned All-CAA honors in their careers. Redshirt junior Kevin Malloy (OL) is a two-time selection, while redshirt sophomore Julian Cox (LB) earned third-team honors in 2015 and redshirt junior Michael Nicastro was a third-team selection in 2014. Nicastro suffered a season-ending knee injury in the first game of the season against Buffalo last fall.

• JULIAN COX, RSo, LB, New Castle, Pa.

2015 CAA Co-Defensive Rookie of the Year, Third-Team All-CAA Defense, ECAC Defensive Rookie of the Year

Cox led the Great Danes' defense with 94 tackles, including 57 solo, as well as three sacks and two quarterback hurries. In addition, he logged six tackles for a loss of 25 total yards, forced and recovered a pair of fumbles, broke up three passes, and recorded a 22-yard interception. He was also named one of 20 finalists for STATS FCS Freshman of the Year.

• KEVIN MALLOY, RSr., OL, East Northport, N.Y.

2014 and 2015 Third-Team All-CAA Offense

Malloy started all 11 games at left tackle. A repeat all-conference selection, Malloy led the offensive line that held opponents to 20 sacks this season -- the lowest amount allowed since UAlbany has been a member of the CAA. Malloy has played in every game of his three-year career and has started every contest in each of the last two seasons.

• MICHAEL NICASTRO, RJr., LB, Clarksville, Md.

2014 Third-Team All-CAA Defense

Nicastro ranked third in the CAA in 2014 with 120 tackles (54 solo), averaging 10.0 per game. He recorded a 40-yard fumble recovery at Villanova (Nov. 15) and had a key interception for 14-yards in UAlbany's win over Stony Brook (Nov. 22). Nicastro also picked off a pass for 24-yards against Richmond (Oct. 11).

• BOB FORD (1970-2013) -- FOOTBALL HEAD COACH

Bob Ford served as UAlbany's head football coach from 1970 to 2013, transitioning the program from club to Division III to Division II to Division I. He was appointed on April 27, 1970 and coached his final game on November 23, 2013. In that time, he compiled a 12-9-1 record in three seasons at the club level and a 41-season varsity record of 256-170. Including nine wins from his time as St. Lawrence's head coach, Ford's 265 career victories ranked first among active NCAA Division I college football head coaches and fourth on the all-time FCS chart. In addition, his UAlbany teams owned a 98-69 mark as a Division I FCS program. He also won four Northeast Conference Coach of the Year honors and led the Great Danes to six NEC titles. Ford acted as a mentor to over a thousand student-athletes and over 100 assistant coaches, who are now working in the high school, college, and professional ranks.

FOUR FORMER NFL PLAYERS ON STAFF

The Great Danes have four former NFL players currently on the coaching staff -- associate head coach Bernard Clark, offensive line coach Jim Sweeney, defensive line coach Delbert Cowsette, and tight ends coach Nate Byham. Clark was a linebacker for the Cincinnati Bengals and Seattle Seahawks, playing three seasons in the NFL and two in the AFL. A 16-year veteran of the NFL, Sweeney was second round pick in the 1984 draft. He was named to the All-NFL Rookie Team after his first season with the New York Jets and played 11 seasons with the Jets with 158 consecutive starts. Cowsette was drafted by the Washington Redskins and played for the New York Giants, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Chicago Bears from 2000-06. Lastly, Byham was sixth round pick in the 2010 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. He battled in 29 NFL games, playing 14 games, including three starts, with the 49ers before signing with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

MEDIA INFORMATION

OBTAINING CREDENTIALS

Media credentials are issued to accredited members of the media only. Requests for credentials should be made via phone, mail, or email to Lizzie Barlow in the University at Albany Athletics Media Relations office.

Space in the press box of Casey Stadium is limited, so requests should be made no later than 48 hours prior to game time. Should space become a problem, preference will be given to the primary media outlets of each school and then to media who make their requests earlier in the week.

Photographers must show their credentials in order to gain access to the photographer areas. All photographers are limited to the designated areas and may not enter the team bench areas at any time.

Local television stations shooting the game for highlight footage may do so from the sideline (except in team areas). Tripods are not permitted during the game for safety reasons.

Credentials may be picked up at the Will Call table at Tom & Mary Casey Stadium beginning two hours prior to game time. In addition, they may be picked up from the Athletics Media Relations office (PE 307) from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the day prior to the game.

RADIO INFORMATION

Broadcast positions for visiting radio stations are available in the Casey Stadium press box. Stations wishing to broadcast a game from Casey Stadium should contact the Athletics Media Relations office at least one week prior to game day. Credential and parking requests for radio staff should be submitted along with the request for phone lines.

MEDIA PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made at the same time as credential requests. Media parking is located in the gravel lot adjacent to the PE Building/SEFCU Arena bus circle. Please note that space is limited and early arrival is recommended.

IN-GAME MEDIA SERVICES

Pre-game notes, flip cards and game programs will be distributed in the press box before each game. Box scores and scoring summaries will be provided at halftime and at the end of the game. Wireless internet is available for media to use.

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCE

Approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game, a postgame press conference will be held in a designated area. Members of the Athletics Media Relations staff will help guide members of the media to the interview area. The head coach and selected players of the visiting team will be available for questions first, followed by the UAlbany Head Coach Greg Gattuso and selected players. Requests for specific UAlbany players should be made to the Athletics Media Relations staff. Interviews with opposing players should be coordinated through the visiting SID.

The locker rooms for both teams are closed at all times.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICY

All requests for in-season interviews with UAlbany players and coaches must be arranged through Lizzie Barlow at 518-852-8362 or ebarlow2@albany.edu. Media members should not contact players or coaches directly. Interview times will be arranged by the Athletics Media Relations staff based on availability of both the player and the media member. To ensure availability, please allow 24-hour notice prior to your need for an interview.

Media representatives are welcome to speak with players and coaches after practice sessions but should call in advance to confirm practice times and to arrange for parking on campus.

ABOUT UALBANY ATHLETICS

UAlbany's intercollegiate athletics program excels at the NCAA Division I level, producing competitive teams, successful coaches, and outstanding student-athletes recognized for their accomplishments both on the field and in the classroom. The University sponsors 18 varsity sports for men and women. Club sports, an intramural program, and recreational opportunities are also offered.

UAlbany is a member of the America East Conference in 16 of 18 varsity sports, while women's golf is an associate member of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, and football, a Division I FCS program, is an associate member of the Colonial Athletic Association.

UAlbany has won 91 conference championships and has made 42 NCAA Tournament appearances since moving to Division I in 1999. Proving to be a perennial power, the Great Danes have won eight or more conference titles in each of the last six years.

The Great Danes won eight conference championships in 2015-16 and made five NCAA Tournament appearances in field hockey, women's soccer, women's basketball, women's tennis, and men's lacrosse.

In 2014-15, UAlbany competed in a school-record six NCAA Tournaments, while winning nine conference championships, and was one of three universities in the country to have its men's basketball, women's basketball, men's lacrosse, women's lacrosse, field hockey, and women's golf teams make NCAA Division I Tournament appearances -- the others were Duke and North Carolina. In addition, field hockey's run to the Final Four was a first for any SUNY school, and UAlbany boasted two National Players of the Year in Paula Heuser (field hockey) and Lyle Thompson (men's lacrosse).

UAlbany has had 13 players selected in the Major League Lacrosse Draft, eight players have been drafted by Major League Baseball, while 12 football players have inked NFL contracts.

For more information, visit www.UAlbanySports.com or call UAlbany Athletics at (518) 442-DANE (3263). Follow the Great Danes on Twitter (@UAlbanySports), Facebook and Instagram (UAlbany Athletics). The Intramural Office can be contacted at 442-5640.

UAlbany's indoor and outdoor athletic facilities are among the most comprehensive in the Northeast. In 2012-2013, the University constructed a state-of-the-art 8,500 seat multi-sport complex for football and soccer; a brand new track and field venue; and a synthetic turf field designed for year-round recreational, intramural and club sport activities. Also in recent years, UAlbany built two all-weather athletic fields. John Fallon Field is home to the men's and women's lacrosse teams, and an adjacent surface known as Alumni Turf Field is home to field hockey, in addition to serving as a multi-use recreational field for UAlbany students.

The Great Danes' indoor facilities are also top-notch. SEFCU Arena, the Physical Education Building, and an air-supported bubble are utilized for sporting and cultural activities. In addition, there are lighted tennis courts, racquetball/squash/handball courts, a swimming pool, a dance studio, and a fitness and weight training center. The Department of Athletics & Recreation is located in both the SEFCU Arena and the Physical Education Building, (518-442-DANE).

Greg Gattuso enters his third season at the helm of the UAlbany football program in 2016.

With a 7-5 overall record and 3-5 mark in the CAA, Gattuso led the Great Danes to a six-win turnaround in his inaugural season in 2014. Going undefeated in non-conference play while opening the season with four straight victories, the Great Danes received votes in the national polls for 10 consecutive weeks. UAlbany appeared in The Sports Network Top-25 for four weeks, ranking as high as No. 23.

Enforcing discipline and care of the football, UAlbany led the nation in turnover margin (1.25) as well as fumble recoveries (20), while quarterback Will Fiacchi became UAlbany's all-time leading passer with 7,150 career yards and broke the program's single-season passing record with 2,636 yards.

Marking the University's second season as an associate member of the CAA, Gattuso led the Danes to the program's first three CAA wins, overcoming Rhode Island, Maine, and Stony Brook.

Under Gattuso's direction, UAlbany had a group of seven players who were honored by the CAA. Running back Omar Osbourne was named to the second team, while tight end Brian Parker, offensive lineman Kevin Malloy, place kicker Patrick Toole, and linebacker Michael Nicastro were all named to the CAA's third team. In addition, wide receiver Jake Meek was the recipient of the Chuck Boone Leadership Award.

In 2015, the Danes earned CAA victories over Rhode Island and perennial power Delaware, and had three earn all-conference accolades. As a redshirt freshman, Julian Cox was named the Defensive Rookie of the Year and was named to the third team along with Kevin Malloy and Samuel Gray.

Greg Gattuso, a former head coach at Duquesne University and assistant head coach at both Pittsburgh and Maryland, was named the University at Albany's head football coach in December of 2013. Gattuso became the second football coach in the program's 41-varsity season history, taking the reins from program architect Bob Ford.

Throughout both his playing and coaching career, Gattuso boasts a long history of exceptional success. As a defensive lineman at Penn State, Gattuso helped lead the Nittany Lions to a national title in 1982. In his first collegiate head-coaching role, Gattuso piloted Duquesne to a 97-32 record during his 12-season tenure, and while making three bowl appearances at Pittsburgh, he turned the defensive line into one of the best in the nation as an assistant head coach and hauled in a top-10 recruiting class.

Gattuso came to UAlbany after spending three seasons as a member Randy Edsall's University of Maryland coaching staff. There, he led the defensive line that ranked among the top in the ACC and was promoted to the position of assistant head coach in February 2012.

During his tenure with the Terrapins, Gattuso developed current New England Patriot Joe Vellano into an NFL-ready defensive lineman, as Vellano earned All-America and All-ACC honors. In addition, Gattuso tutored All-ACC defensive lineman A.J. Francis, who signed with the Miami Dolphins at the conclusion of his collegiate career.

Prior to Maryland, Gattuso spent six seasons at Pittsburgh (2005-10) where he turned the Panthers' defensive line into one of the team's major strengths. The line was one of the top sack producers in the nation, as Brandon Lindsey (10.0) and Jabaal Sheard (9.0) both ranked in the top 20 nationally in sacks during the 2010 regular season and Pittsburgh led the nation in that category in 2009 (3.6 per game). Gattuso developed three Big East Defensive Player of the Year winners, as Sheard received the honor in 2010, and defensive linemen Greg Romeus and Mick Williams shared the award in 2009.

Gattuso initially joined the Pitt staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator in 2005. In his first season, he helped the Panthers sign a recruiting class rated 10th in the nation by Scout.com, 16th by ESPN.com and 21st by Rivals.com. He began coaching the defensive line in 2006 and was promoted to assistant head coach in 2008. Scout.com named Gattuso the Big East Recruiter of the Year in 2007. During his tenure, The Panthers logged a 26-12 overall record, a 15-6 mark in the Big East, and appeared in three bowl games.

Before Pitt, Gattuso had a successful 12-year stint (1993-2004) as head coach at Duquesne University where he built the Dukes into one of the most elite I-AA football programs in the nation. The winningest coach in school history, the Dukes went 97-32 (.752) under his direction, won eight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) titles, made five bowl appearances, and captured the 2003 Mid-Major Division I-AA national championship.

The Western Pennsylvania native was twice named the national Mid-Major I-AA Coach of the Year and was a seven-time MAAC Coach of the Year. The Dukes dominated the conference during his tenure, going 66-7 (.904) in league play, including a 33-game winning streak.

Gattuso was an assistant coach at Duquesne in 1992 before taking over the head coaching post the following year.

From 1989-1991, he served as head coach at his high school alma mater, Seton-LaSalle. Taking over a team that went 6-34 during the four seasons prior to his arrival, Gattuso led the Rebels to a 28-10-1 mark (.731), including three WPIAL playoff berths, a WPIAL championship and Parkway Conference title.

During his playing career, Gattuso was named the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Class AA Player of the Year his senior season at Seton-LaSalle and was a two-time All-East defensive lineman at Penn State. He was a member of the Lions' 1982 national title team and graduated in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in administration and criminal justice.

Gattuso and his wife Colleen have two daughters, Jacqueline (28) and Kaitlin (23).
