UAlbany MBB Holds Maine to Three First Half Field Goals in 74-56 Road Win

BANGOR, Maine – The UAlbany men's basketball team secured a home game in the upcoming America East Tournament quarterfinal round, using a dominating defensive first half to defeat Maine 74-56 on the road on Sunday afternoon.

UAlbany (18-11, 9-5 AE), which has won four straight games, held Maine (6-24, 2-13 AE) to three first half field goals and a total of 14 points, the best defensive half of the year for the Great Danes. UAlbany led by 25 at the half and did not trail the rest of the way.

"I was really excited about what we did and how we played in the first half," said UAlbany head coach Will Brown. "We came out of the locker room ready to play, but we found it hard to sustain in the second half."

With the win, UAlbany has guaranteed itself a home game in the AE quarterfinals on Wednesday, March 1st. UAlbany will either be the 3-seed or 4-seed in the America East Tournament.

Devonte Campbell earned his second double-double in as many games played, finishing with 10 points and 13 rebounds. Joe Cremo also had a double-double on 10 points and 11 rebounds while David Nichols led all players with 20 points and four assists.

For Maine, Vincent Eze got a double-double off 10 points, 13 rebounds and four blocks while Austin Howard had 12 points and three assists.

UAlbany got space in close to begin on offense while the defense kept Maine outside the arc, holding the Black Bears scoreless in the opening 5:46. Nichols scored five straight points in a game-opening 9-0 run for the Great Danes.

UAlbany's defense continued to stifle Maine, with Travis Charles forcing a pair of turnovers on Vincent Eze and the halfcourt trap leading to a pair of steals. The other way, a 10-0 run, including two layups from Campbell, made it 19-2 UAlbany.

Nichols and Campbell continued to lead the attack, combining for a 9-0 run to build the Great Danes advantage to 24. With Maine getting late points from Eze on free throws, UAlbany kept the lead strong, using a jumper and one from Nichols to have a 39-14 advantage at the break.

The home team came out of the locker room with a 4-0 run. Charles ended that chance with a jumper, then after an exchange of points, Greig Stire threw down the ball off a bounce pass from Cremo, then Nichols added a wing three to make it 47-20 just over four minutes into the 2nd.

Maine took shot after shot from three-point range, with three different players each hitting one to pull the Black Bears within 20. Dallas Ennema kept hitting shots to add to UAlbany lead, hitting a corner three to make it 58-34 Great Danes with 11 minutes left.

UAlbany's defense held Maine without points for a span of 2:30, using five straight points from Cremo to get a 63-36 advantage with 8:33 left.

Maine started to climb back in with an 8-0 run, but a Costa Anderson wing three put the virtual dagger on the Black Bears. Marquese Grayson, Terrel Martin-Garcia and Nick Fruscio helped end the game as UAlbany won 74-56.

LAST TIME VS. VERMONT (1/25/17)...

UAlbany MBB Felled in Defensive Battle vs. Vermont 60-49

ALBANY, N.Y. - The UAlbany men's basketball team held the league's first place team to 60 points, Vermont's lowest total against a conference opponent this season, but fell to the Catamounts 60-49 on Wednesday night.

UAlbany (12-10, 3-4 AE) trailed by six at the half to Vermont (17-5, 7-0 AE), then by 12 early in the second. UAlbany got to within single digits with six minutes remaining, but was not able to close the gap.

"This was an extremely physical game, my concerns coming into the game were defense and rebounding," said UAlbany head coach Will Brown. "I thought our guys did a solid job defensively and on the glass, but we struggled to put the ball in the basket."

UAlbany outrebounded Vermont 43-37 and had eight steals in the game, but was held to 29.7% shooting in the contest.

Joe Cremo earned his second double-double of the season with a career-high 11 rebounds, adding 13 points and four steals, all team-highs. David Nichols finished with 12 points and three assists.

For Vermont, Trae Bell-Haynes got 18 points, four assists and five rebounds. Kurt Steidl concluded with 10 points, five boards and three assists.

To begin, UAlbany looked to attack the basket while Vermont primarily fired away from behind the arc. Scoring was slow to begin, with Vermont connecting on its first three-pointer from Bell-Haynes 4:16 in to lead 8-4. Later, a Darren Payen dunk and a Dre Wills layup while fouled to push the Vermont advantage to 14-8 just over six minutes in.

UAlbany switched its defense up from man-to-man to zone, leading to the Great Danes to hold Vermont off the scoreboard for a couple of minutes. UAlbany's assault in the paint continued, with a Travis Charles jumper and a baseline drive and layup by Nichols pulling UAlbany within one possession at 14-12.

After a three-pointer by Steidl, UAlbany held Vermont without points for over four minutes. Cremo hit two quick baskets, then after a two-minute stretch of no scoring, Mike Rowley hit a one-handed layup and one to give UAlbany the lead at 19-17 at under eight in the first.

The two sides exchanged the lead, with Vermont going up with a layup and one, then UAlbany countering with four free throws in as many attempts. Vermont pushed back with the free throw line and went back up, then Costa Anderson hit a layup driving down the lane to tie it up at 25.

Vermont went on a 6-0 run in the final three minutes of the first half to lead 31-25 at the break.

UAlbany's drought continued into the start of the second half, with Vermont adding two more layups in the half's opening three minutes for a 10-point lead at 35-25.

Defense continued to rule as Vermont built its lead to 12. Greig Stire countered Vermont baskets with a couple of layups under pressure, making it 43-33 with 11:25 left in the 2nd.

The sides continued to battle, with neither able to get a consistent run together. Stire and Nichols had baskets, with Rowley adding a free throw to pull UAlbany within single digits at 47-38 with six minutes to play.

UAlbany could not get closer quickly as a couple of three-point plays by Bell-Haynes and Ernie Duncan pushed the Catamounts up 15. Some late free throws and a deep three by Cremo got UAlbany back to within eight with 47 seconds remaining, but that is as close as the Great Dames came. UAlbany fell to the Catamounts 60-49.

Coach Will Brown

16th Year at UAlbany

2014-15 America East Coach of the Year

Will Brown is in his 16th season overall as the University at Albany's men's basketball head coach, after spending one season in an interim capacity. Brown, the longest tenured coach in the America East Conference, has led the program to five conference championships, five NCAA Tournament appearances, a CollegiateInsider.com CIT Postseason Tournament appearance, CBI Postseason appearance and an unparalleled success in the classroom.

The Great Danes made their first program appearance in the CBI in 2015-16, marking the fifth consecutive year with national postseason attention for Brown's squad. UAlbany won an all-time best 24 regular season games, going 24-7 prior to the postseason. Brown & co., reached 20 wins at the fastest pace in program history en route to a 13-3 clip in America East Conference play. The 2015-16 Danes won 19 straight games in the confines of SEFCU Arena, including ending Stony Brook's nation-best 18-game winning streak on Feb. 17. The Purple & Gold was also a national leader in free throws made, free throws attempted, free throw percentage and three-point field goal percentage defense.

2014-15 was an unprecedented season for the Great Danes, earning their best Division I winning percentage (24-9, .727) and tying their highest win total. UAlbany went 15-1 in America East Conference play and 8-0 on the road to earn its second regular season title and No. 1 seed in the league tournament. Playing all three conference postseason games in the confines of SEFCU Arena, Brown earned his third consecutive and fifth overall America East Tournament title, 51-50 over Stony Brook. Peter Hooley hit a last-second three from the top of the key for the victory. The Danes continued on to Columbus, Ohio in the East Regional to face No. 3 seed Oklahoma as the 14-seed in the NCAA Second Round. UAlbany fell 69-60 in its fifth Division I NCAA Tournament appearance. In the midst of its 15-1 America East record, the Purple & Gold went on a Division I record 13-game winning streak from Jan. 3-Feb. 13. Brown also took his 200th career victory on Jan. 14 against Binghamton, 73-58.

Brown earned the program's first NCAA Division I Tournament win in 2013-14 when the Purple & Gold took down Mount St. Mary's in the First Four 71-64 in Dayton, Ohio. He led UAlbany to its second-straight America East title in 2013-14, as the No. 4 seed. The Great Danes repeated their feat as the lowest seed to ever win the tournament, once again knocking off the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds and taking the title on the road.

He was also named the top value coach among Division I head coaches in 2013-14 by HoopDirt.com.

Brown was appointed as UAlbany's head coach on March 13, 2002, and has worked on the collegiate level since 1995. He became the 15th head coach in the history of the program.
