THE DYNAMIC DUO

Joe Cremo and David Nichols have been a strong scoring pair this season, with each standing in the top-10 in points per game in the America East. Between the two, they have 23 20+ point games and a combined 58 double digit scoring contests (of a possible 64) this season.

SWITCHING LINEUPS

UAlbany played the same starting five in 17 of the first 18 games this season: Joe Cremo, Marquese Grayson, David Nichols, Mike Rowley and Greig Stire. The last 14 games other than Senior Day, Devonte Campbell entered the lineup for Grayson; UAlbany is 11-3 in those contests.

BOX OUT!

UAlbany is 11th in all of Division I in rebounding margin, averaging 7.4 rebounds more than their opponents. It is almost one rebound more per game than New Hampshire, second in the league.

All told, UAlbany has outrebounded its opponents in 25 out of 32 games and has only three times been outrebounded by more than three in a game.

Mike Rowley, Greig Stire and Joe Cremo, who have started every game this year, all average over five rebounds per contest for top-15 in the America East.

NO REST FOR CREMO

Joe Cremo is second in the America East in minutes per game, and top-50 in all of Division I, staying on the floor for 35.5 minutes per contest. He has played at least 31 minutes in all but two games this season, including 25 games with at least 35 minutes of playing time. On the court, the sophomore stands in the top-12 in the America East in points, rebounds, assists and steals per game.

David Nichols also is in the top-10 in the America East in minutes per game, playing 33.5 minutes a contest. No other Great Dane plays over 30 minutes a game.

PLAY IN THE PAINT, NOT THE PERIMETER

UAlbany stands third in three-point field goal defense percentage in the America East, holding teams to 34.4% from behind the arc.

In addition, UAlbany has taken the least amount of shots from three-point range in the America East. After 32 games played, UAlbany has taken 466 shots from three, over 100 less than the next conference team (Vermont, 559). UAlbany averages 14.6 three-point attempts a game, almost three less than any other America East team per contest.

SOPHOMORE SURGE FOR NICHOLS

David Nichols is having a strong sophomore season, averaging 18.0 points per game in his first 32 contests. He has earned 30 double digit scoring games this year after having none last season, averaging 2.7 points per game in 15 contests played in 2015-16.

Nichols Ties Program Single Record with 40 Points as UAlbany MBB Defeats Hartford 100-71

ALBANY, N.Y. – The UAlbany men's basketball team set numerous records on Wednesday night, highlighted by David Nichols tying a program single game record 40 points, as it defeated Hartford 100-71 to advance to the America East Tournament semifinals.

UAlbany (20-12) shot 61.4% from the field, earning its first 100-point game since Feb. 14, 2016. In addition, it is the first time since 2001 that a team has scored 100 points in an America East Tournament game. UAlbany also was 52% from three-point range and outrebounded Hartford (9-23) 37-26.

"I thought it was important that we came out with a lot of energy early," said UAlbany head coach Will Brown. "Our guys have been focused the last few days, and we've been talking about the conference tournament since we had that slow start to the conference season."

Nichols' 40 points ties the UAlbany single game program record with Gary Holway, who had the same total against Utica on Feb. 27, 1957. It surpasses the former UAlbany DI record of Jamar Wilson, who netted 39 points at New Hampshire on Feb. 16, 2003. His eight three-point field goals is second all-time in UAlbany history while 14 field goals made ties for fifth.

"We knew we had to be aggressive given all the different defenses they play," said Nichols. "The game plan was to just attack and not be passive."

"David got us going early, and then the crowd I thought fed off David's scoring," said Brown. "Tonight, our crowd was outstanding, our guys felt a true home court advantage tonight."

Nichols added four assists to his 40 points while Cremo notched a double-double on 14 points, 10 assists and eight rebounds. Greig Stire almost had a double-double with nine points and nine rebounds.

For Hartford, Jalen Ross concluded with 22 points and six rebounds while Jason Dunne got 20 points and four assists.

Nichols got the crowd going with a block underneath the basket on Hartford's first possession, leading to a Stire putback. Nichols followed with three consecutive three-point baskets, then rebounded a missed shot, raced down the floor, missed a shot but Stire came from behind and slammed home the basketball.

Next possession, Nichols added his fourth straight three, followed by Joe Cremo hitting a baseline drive. UAlbany continued to attack, forcing a shot clock violation then Devonte Campbell hitting a layup, then a Hartford traveling leading to a floater by Nichols as UAlbany started up 22-4 in the opening six minutes.

After Hartford hit a jumper and one, UAlbany held off Hartford on the board for another three-and-a-half minutes. Some free throws, a Mike Rowley layup and a Costa Anderson long three made it 33-7. UAlbany later led 35-8 with 8:54 to play in the 1st.

Going to mid-range jumpers, Hartford started to hit baskets. UAlbany kept its lead strong as an 8-2 streak, capped by two more Nichols baskets, pushed UAlbany up 45-17. A couple of later Dallas Ennema baskets helped UAlbany lead 51-25 at the half.

UAlbany continued its hot shooting behind Nichols. Nichols had a pair of threes, as well as Stire hitting a layup and one, as UAlbany began the half with a 9-2 sprint for a 60-29 lead two minutes into the second.

The two sides started to trade as Nichols added his eighth three-point field goal, building UAlbany's advantage to 34 at 70-36 with 13:38 left.

UAlbany continued to find success beyond the perimeter, with Devonte Campbell and Cremo adding more. Nichols tied the UAlbany single game record with 4:23 left with a layup, making it 88-53 UAlbany. UAlbany's reserves helped finish the game as an Ennema three put UAlbany on the century mark. UAlbany would finish with the 100-71 victory.

UAlbany MBB Falls to Stony Brook 72-65 in 2017 Big Purple Growl

ALBANY, N.Y. - Though a sellout crowd of 4,538 was cheering on the UAlbany men's basketball team for the 2017 Big Purple Growl, the Great Danes were not able to come back from a second half deficit and fell to Stony Brook 72-65 on Saturday night.

Up one at the break, UAlbany (14-11, 5-5 AE) was outscored 26-13 by Stony Brook (13-10, 8-2 AE) in the first 12 minutes of the second half. UAlbany got back to within four with a couple of Dallas Ennema threes with under a minute to go, but was not able to bridge the gap.

'Stony Brook's poise and maturity showed,' said UAlbany head coach Will Brown. "I thought Stony Brook did a good job not allowing us to get into any offensive rhythm or flow, and we didn't respond to the pressure."

UAlbany had four players score in double digits in a game that saw 11 lead changes.

Greig Stire led UAlbany in scoring for the first time this season with 15 points, including a perfect 5-for-5 from the free throw line, and six rebounds. Joe Cremo finished with 14 points, four assists and four rebounds while Devonte Campbell notched 12 points, six rebounds and three steals.

For Stony Brook, Lucas Woodhouse had a team-best 23 points and five rebounds. Roland Nyama added 14 points, two blocks and two steals.

After Campbell buried a three to open the game for UAlbany, Stony Brook went on a 9-0 run, capped by steal and fast break scores by Nyama and Kameron Mitchell, to lead 9-3 in the opening 3:35.

Campbell hit a layup to end the Stony Brook run. Stire hit a pair of free throws to follow to get UAlbany back within two. After a couple of exchanges, a layup by David Nichols sparked a 6-0 run, continued by a Stire putback and two Cremo free throws, to push UAlbany ahead 15-14 with 10 minutes left in the 1st.

The two started to exchange with field goals sending the lead back and forth in front of the over forty-five hundred fans in the arena. UAlbany got a bit of breathing room with a turnaround jumper by Travis Charles to make it 23-20 Great Danes with 5:20 left in the 1st.

With a pair of Akwasi Yeboah free throws, Stony Brook tied it back up at 26. Ennema hit a jumper with a hand in his face, then after an SBU free throw, Nichols drew a double team to free up Stire for the thunderous dunk. UAlbany led 30-29 at the break.

Following another exchange, Nyama netted a pair of baskets in a row, followed by three Seawolf free throws, for a 7-0 run to send Stony Brook ahead 38-32 in the first 3:02 of the second half.

The UAlbany defense started to hold on possessions, allowing just one Stony Brook basket in a span of four minutes. UAlbany chipped away at the deficit, with a layup off the glass from Nichols pulling the Great Danes within three at 43-40 with 12:24 remaining.

Stony Brook started to fire away from three-point range, leading to the Seawolves going up by double digits. In a four-minute span, SBU had a 12-3 sprint, capped by threes from UC Iroegbu and Woodhouse, to take a 55-43 advantage with eight minutes to go, later going up 58-45.

UAlbany rallied back, primarily using pressure defense and the free throw line. The Great Danes put together a 7-0 run, capped by a layup and one by Stire, to get within two possessions at 58-52 with five minutes left.

More free throws for Stony Brook rebuilt the advantage to eight. UAlbany attacked with the full court press trying to get steals. Twice UAlbany got to within five, with a couple of Cremo free throws putting the score at 66-61 with one minute left, then Dallas Ennema nailed another three to bring UAlbany within four at 68-64 with 46 seconds left. But UAlbany could not get closer and fell 72-65 to Stony Brook.

LAST TIME VS. SBU IN AE TOUR (3/14/15)...

Great Danesty! Peter Hooley's Last-Second Trey Sends UAlbany to NCAA's for Third-Straight Year

ALBANY, N.Y. – Fate stepped in on Saturday afternoon for Peter Hooley, as the junior sank a three with 1.6 seconds left to seal University at Albany men's basketball's (24-8) third-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. The Danes defeated Stony Brook (23-11) 51-50 at a sold out SEFCU Arena.

"Ray [Sanders] drove and put up a shot. Then Sam Rowley got a hand on it and tipped it back. I saw it rolling towards me, and Sam pointed to the rim," said Hooley I guess he wanted me to throw it up to him, but I decided to shoot it anyway. When you've got angels watching you, you can do anything."

Both teams struggled from the field early on, with just six points between them in the first 10 minutes. UAlbany went 1-for-10 from the field in the first seven minutes with no turnovers.

Hooley came off the bench to make the score 4-2, and Greig Stire made it 6-2 shortly thereafter at the 11-minute mark. Richard Peters got in on the scoring to give UAlbany what was its largest lead of the game, 10-4 with 8:30 on the clock.

The Seawolves went on a 4-0 run to come within two, but another basket off the hands of Peters maintained a two-possession lead.

But Stony Brook would not let up to end the half. UAlbany went 0-for-7 from the field to close the period, victims of a 10-4 Seawolves run. Stony Brook took a 20-16 lead into the locker room. The Purple & Gold's 16 points in the opening stanza stands as the lowest total for a team at half of the league title game all-time.

Jameel Warney had 12 of Stony Brook's 20 first-half points. The America East Player of the Year also had nine boards at the break. The Danes shot just 6-for-29 from the field in the first half. Hooley led the way with six points.

In the second half, UAlbany skirted with closing the game to one possession, but Stony Brook went up seven with 13 minutes to play, 33-28. After going 0-for-7 from the field with just two points in the first half, Sam Rowley heated up for six of the Purple & Gold's first nine points of the second.

The Seawolves answered the call, continuing to pound the glass to keep its distance. A Carson Puriefoy three gave Steve Pikiell's squad its largest lead of the game, 41-33 with just over six minutes to play.

Ray Sanders, Evan Singletary and Hooley combined for a 5-0 Dane run to cut the Stony Brook lead to three, 41-38, but Puriefoy came back with two more treys. The junior guard finished with 18 points in the second half.

Down seven with less than three minutes to play, UAlbany's zone saw Stony Brook's lead cut to four shortly after. A Rowley lay-in put the score at 49-46 with one minute to go.

Mike Rowley stepped in to make two crucial free throws to make it a one-point game, 49-48 with 23 seconds to go. The sophomore grabbed an offensive board, one of 15 on the day for the Danes to draw the foul. Rowley had all seven of his rebounds in the second half.

Hooley fouled one of Stony Brook's best free throw shooters in Puriefoy on the inbounds. The junior missed the second of a two-shot opportunity to give the Danes a shot at a tie for two or the win for three.

Sanders grabbed the rebound off the Puriefoy miss and drove left. The junior's shot was strong off the glass, but a tip back to the top of the key fell directly into the hands of Hooley. The junior stepped in to sink the game-winner with 1.6 seconds on the clock for the 51-50 victory.

UAlbany will make its third consecutive and fifth overall appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Danes are the first team to win the America East Title in three consecutive seasons since Vermont in 2003-05. The Purple & Gold's five conference titles is third-most all-time among America East programs, and ties Will Brown for the most titles for any coach with Jim Calhoun at Northeastern.

UAlbany MBB Grinds Out 60-58 Victory Against UNH to Advance to Third Straight AE Final

ALBANY, N.Y. - University at Albany men's basketball (23-8) held New Hampshire (19-12) to 29% from the field in the second half to earn a 60-58 win at SEFCU Arena in the America East Semifinals on Sunday afternoon. The Danes advance to face Stony Brook (23-10) for a chance to dance on Saturday, March 14 at 11:00 a.m., from SE-FCU Arena. The game will be broadcast on ESPN2.

"There are a lot of good teams out there right now getting beat by teams they beat in the regular season," said head coach Will Brown. "I thought New Hampshire played great. They were well prepared, and it's a shame they had to lose this game. This wasn't a masterpiece, but we did what we needed to do: survive and advance."

Both teams started off with a hot hand from the field. New Hampshire got out to an 8-3 lead early on a 5-0 run, kicking off the game 4-for-5. UAlbany chipped away at the lead thanks to baskets from Sam Rowley and Evan Singletary.

Rowley gave the Danes the lead, 13-12 with 12:30 to go in the first half. Peter Hooley sank one of his three treys of the half moments later to keep the game with the Purple & Gold.

The game continued to go back-and-forth mid-way through the half, as Joe Bramanti and Matt Miller hit from beyond the three-point line for UNH. Hooley responded with two threes for a four-point lead, 24-20 with seven minutes left in the first half.

Will Brown's squad went 3-for-5 from the field and 4-for-4 from the free throw line over a four-minute span; but with just one made field goal in four minutes leading into the half, UAlbany was down three, 35-32 at the break. After the first 20 minutes of play, there were eight lead changes.

With 15 first-half points, Hooley started the second stanza. The Danes came out of the locker room to find themselves in a quick six-point hole on a Matt Miller three. Singletary came down to the other end for a traditional three-point play to maintain a one-possession deficit. The junior helped fuel a 5-0 run for UAlbany.

The Wildcats built their lead back to four on a Jaleen Smith trey. Through the first 23 minutes of the game, UNH was 7-for-10 from three-point range.

Just when New Hampshire was looking to cash in on its momentum, Sanders and Singletary went for back-to-back baskets before Hooley managed a tough lay-in for UAlbany's first lead of the half, 43-42.

The Danes built their lead to five points, 47-42 on two made free throws by Sanders, but Smith came back with a three for UNH. Through the first 35 minutes of the game, UAlbany was 11-for-11 from the charity stripe.

The Purple & Gold saw its five-point run disappear, as the Wildcats knotted the game at 47 with 8:45 to play.

Hooley briefly put the Danes back on top, but a crucial and-one lay-in from Mike Rowley swung the momentum back on UAlbany's side with 5:13 remaining. The sophomore missed the free throw, but assisted on his brother Sam Rowley's free throw jumper shortly after.

With less than four minutes to play, Miller made the front end of a one-and-one, keeping the lead at two possessions for Brown's & co. The Wildcats made two threes down the stretch to keep the game close, but Sanders went 3-for-4 from the line to hold on to the win.

Peter Hooley scored a season-high 21 points on 8-for-11 from the field and 3-for-5 from three. Evan Singletary added 18 points and eight rebounds. UAlbany went 14-for-16 (.875) from the free throw line, and shot 50% (21-42) from the field."

Coach Will Brown
16th Year at UAlbany
2014-15 America East Coach of the Year

Will Brown is in his 16th season overall as the University at Albany's men's basketball head coach, after spending one season in an interim capacity. Brown, the longest tenured coach in the America East Conference, has led the program to five conference championships, five NCAA Tournament appearances, a CollegeInsider.com CIT Postseason Tournament appearance, CBI Postseason appearance and an unparalleled success in the classroom.

The Great Danes made their first program appearance in the CBI in 2015-16, marking the fifth consecutive year with national postseason attention for Brown's squad. UAlbany won an all-time best 24 regular season games, going 24-7 prior to the postseason. Brown & co., reached 20 wins at the fastest pace in program history en route to a 13-3 clip in America East Conference play. The 2015-16 Danes won 19 straight games in the confines of SEFCU Arena, including ending Stony Brook's nation-best 18-game winning streak on Feb. 17. The Purple & Gold was also a national leader in free throws made, free throws attempted, free throw percentage and three-point field goal percentage defense.

2014-15 was an unprecedented season for the Great Danes, earning their best Division I winning percentage (24-9, .727) and tying their highest win total. UAlbany went 15-1 in America East Conference play and 8-0 on the road to earn its second regular season title and No. 1 seed in the league tournament. Playing all three conference postseason games in the confines of SEFCU Arena, Brown earned his third consecutive and fifth overall America East Tournament title, 51-50 over Stony Brook. Peter Hooley hit a last-second three from the top of the key for the victory. The Danes continued on to Columbus, Ohio in the East Regional to face No. 3 seed Oklahoma as the 14-seed in the NCAA Second Round. UAlbany fell 69-60 in its fifth Division I NCAA Tournament appearance. In the midst of its 15-1 America East record, the Purple & Gold went on a Division I record 13-game winning streak from Jan. 3-Feb. 13. Brown also took his 200th career victory on Jan. 14 against Binghamton, 73-58.

Brown earned the program's first NCAA Division I Tournament win in 2013-14 when the Purple & Gold took down Mount St. Mary's in the First Four 71-64 in Dayton, Ohio. He led UAlbany to its second-straight America East title in 2013-14, as the No. 4 seed. The Great Danes repeated their feat as the lowest seed to ever win the tournament, once again knocking off the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds and taking the title on the road.

He was also named the top value coach among Division I head coaches in 2013-14 by HoopDirt.com.

Brown was appointed as UAlbany's head coach on March 13, 2002, and has worked on the collegiate level since 1995. He became the 15th head coach in the history of the program.
