NICK BOCHETTE TAKES OVER AS UALBANY HEAD COACH

Former associate head coach Nick Bochette has been promoted to serve as head coach of the UAlbany women's soccer team.

Bochette has been with the program the last four years, including the last two as the associate head coach and the previous two as the first assistant coach under Caitlin Cucchiella. Together, they led UAlbany women's soccer to its first two America East Tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances.

THREE GREAT DANES NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Caroline Kopp, Savanah Courtney and Vivian Vega will serve as team captains for UAlbany women's soccer for the 2017 season.

All three will be serving as captains for the first time this season under new head coach Nick Bochette. Vega, a senior, has started all three years while Kopp and Courtney, each juniors, have started each of the past two years on the back line.

VEGA - SECOND ALL-TIME IN GOALS AT UALBANY

Vivian Vega, who scored the game-winning goal against Hartford for the 2016 America East title, stands with 20 goals in their career, second all-time at UAlbany. She is three goals away from tying for first in goals with Shayla Bergeron, who had 23 goals from 2010-12.

FRESHMAN UP!

UAlbany will be relying on two freshmen to split the time in goal this season. It will be the second year in a row that UAlbany will have its primary goalkeeper being a freshman. Through the first eight games, Andrea Leitner has started the last five with a 60.7% save rate and 2.20 goals allowed average. Sophia Chen has started three times at a 52.9% save rate and 2.67 goals allowed average.
