UALBANY VISITS NEW HAMPSHIRE SEEKING SECOND-STRAIGHT WIN

Fresh of securing their first conference victory of the season and the first win of 2019, the University at Albany men's basketball team will hit the road for one game to visit New Hampshire on Wednesday.

The Great Danes (6-15, 1-5 AE) finally broke through in their last game, dispatching the visiting Hartford Hawks 84-77 to snap a five-game losing streak. Freshman guard Antonio Rizzuto, after scoring a career-high 21 points in the one-point overtime loss to Stony Brook, scored 21 points for the second straight game to help the Danes claim victory. For his efforts, Rizzuto was named America East Rookie of the Week, becoming the second Great Dane this season to earn a weekly award, following Cameron Healy being named Rookie on December 3.

Before the Hartford game, UAlbany had suffered back-to-back one-point overtime losses to UMBC and Stony Brook in which the Danes led in the final seconds. In both games, the opponent hit a three to take a one-point lead in the final moments. UAlbany came out firing against Hartford, starting the game on an 8-1 run. The Danes led by as many as 18 before Hartford mounted a furious comeback, cutting the lead to just three. UAlbany held fast and pulled away late to defeat the Hawks by seven.

New Hampshire last played Hartford as well last Wednesday before sitting idle over the weekend with a bye. On a day where most of the presumed favorites in the America East's matchups struggled, Hartford was the one team to take care of business, rolling over the Wildcats 74-39. It was New Hampshire's fourth-straight loss, and 15th in their last 16 games.

With UAlbany's first conference win, the Great Danes have improved from ninth place to a seventh place in the America East standings. Vermont overtook Stony Brook for the top spot after defeating the Seawolves head-to-head over the weekend, and defending champion UMBC has moved ahead of UMass Lowell by half a game to take sole possession of third. New Hampshire currently holds the eighth place spot.

After shooting 6-6 from the line against Hartford, freshman guard Cameron Healy improved his season average to 91.8%. As of January 28, he ranks sixth in the country from the line. Healy has shot 56-61 from the line this season and has made 14 in a row dating back to the game at UMBC on January 19.

Rookie of the Week II

Freshman guard Antonio Rizzuto was named Week #11 America East Rookie of the Week, becoming the second Great Dane this season to earn the weekly award. Rizzuto averaged 21.0 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 2.5 assists while shooting 50% from the floor in two games last week. Against Stony Brook, Rizzuto went off for a career-high 21 points, hitting his previous high 14 by halftime. He also drained a career-high five three-pointers in UAlbany's overtime loss to the Seawolves. In the next game, against Hartford, Rizzuto once again scored 21 points and hit five three-pointers, helping lead the Great Danes to their first America East victory of the season while snapping a five-game losing streak.

Breaking Through

The Great Danes finally notched their first America East victory of the season, dispatching the visiting Hartford Hawks 84-77. Despite leading by as many as 18, UAlbany saw its lead shrink to just three before pulling away again as time ran down to snap a season-long five-game losing streak and claim the team's first conference win and first win of 2019. Freshman Antonio Rizzuto scored 21 points and drained five three-pointers for the second-straight game, while junior Ahmad Clark quietly scored a game-high 22.

Heartbreakers

UAlbany has had its share of tough losses this season, but none so difficult as their last two. Starting at UMBC, defending America East champions, the Great Danes led for more than 31 minutes before seeing the Retrievers come back to force overtime and then win by one with a corner three with nine seconds remaining in the OT period. And against heated rival Stony Brook, despite breakout performances from freshmen Antonio Rizzuto and Malachi De Sousa, the Seawolves also came back late to force overtime, and then won by one with a late three pointer.

Suits & Sneakers

January 21-28 will feature the 2018-19 season's Coaches vs. Cancer Suits & Sneakers week. The nationwide event sees basketball coaches wear sneakers with their suits on the sidelines during games in a united effort to raise awareness and funds for cancer research, as well as prevention screening, and early detection.

It's Been a While...

UAlbany has started the America East schedule 0-4 for the first time since the 2001-02 season, which was head coach Will Brown's first with the team. He came on as interim coach on December 20 of that season, taking over from Scott Beeten. The team had gone 1-7 in eight games before the switch, and finished 7-13, including 5-11 in the America East. The team ultimately started 0-6 in the America East before notching their first win, January 26 against Northeastern, which kicked off a three-game conference winning streak.

What a Difference a Year Makes

Junior guard Ahmad Clark, as of January 16, 2019, is leading the country in year-over-year increase in points per game. As a sophomore, Clark averaged 3.7 points per game. This season, after moving into a starting role, Clark is averaging 18.3 points, an increase of 14.6 points. Clark is also one of 12 players in the country to average 17 points and two steals per game. The list includes star Duke freshman Zion Williamson.

Slow Starts

The 2018-19 season marks the third straight year in which the Great Danes have gone 0-2 to start America East play. This year UAlbany dropped the conference opener to preseason league favorite Vermont before falling in an upset at home to Maine, despite mounting a furious comeback in the final three minutes. In each of the previous two seasons, UAlbany rebounded to finish with 10 conference victories.

Stire Joins Basketball Staff

Former UAlbany men's basketball player Greig Stire has rejoined his old team on the sidelines, taking over as Video Coordinator for the remainder of the season.

Stire played four seasons under head coach Will Brown, and holds program records for single-game and single-season rebounding.

UAlbany Basketball Weekly

The start of conference play is accompanied by the start of the UAlbany Basketball Weekly show on My 4 Albany. The show airs Saturdays at 11:30 a.m. for the duration of the conference schedule. Hosts Rodger Wyland, Ashley Miller, and Chris Onorato feature new stories from the team and invite head coach Will Brown and a player into the studio for more in-depth breakdowns of the Great Danes' season to date.

Speaker Series

During the semester break, head coach Will Brown has set up a series of guest speakers to spend an hour of their time each to discuss life after basketball with the players on the team. The individuals, who include UAlbany's own President Dr. Havidán Rodríguez and Director of Athletics Mark Benson, discuss experiences starting and advancing their own careers, as well as field questions from the players about how to approach life after basketball.

Coaches Cure CF

UAlbany's conference opener against Vermont on January 5 will be the team's Coaches Cure CF game for this season. UAlbany is one of six teams this year raising awareness through the initiative for cystic fibrosis, a genetic disorder that affects more than 30,000 people in the United States. The Great Danes, who have gone 5-0 in their Coaches Cure CF games, have raised more than $18,000 for the cause over the last five years. The UAlbany coaching staff will wear sweatsuits on the sideline during the game in solidarity with the initiative.

Non-Conference Wrapup

UAlbany finished the non-conference schedule with a 5-10 record. Four of the Danes wins came against MAAC opponents, finishing with a 4-1 record against teams from that conference. Ahmad Clark led the team during the non-conference slate with 19.1 points per game, followed by Cameron Healy averaging 15.5. With three games to go before conference play, head coach Will Brown made the switch to start four freshmen, going 2-1 with that starting lineup.

Toughness

The Great Danes gutted out a victory at Niagara to wrap the non-conference schedule. Leading by as many as 18 in the first half, Niagara came back to take a five-point lead late in the second, before UAlbany rallied to win by five. Brent Hank finished the game with a career-high 14 rebounds, 11 of which came in the first half. Ahmad Clark recorded a double-double with 17 points and 10 assists. Finally, Cameron Healy hit a career-high six three-pointers, including the go-ahead with just over one minute remaining.

Charity Stripe

Junior guard Ahmad Clark combined to shoot 21-24 from the free throw line against Manhattan and Kent State. Against the latter, Clark hit each of his last seven attempts from the line in the second half, including tying the game late to give UAlbany the chance to steal a game on the road.

2018-19 UALBANY MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Diaper Dandies

Against Manhattan, UAlbany debuted its third different starting lineup of the season. This lineup featured freshmen at four positions - Brent Hank, Cameron Healy, Adam Lulka, and Antonio Rizzuto. The lone upperclassman was junior guard Ahmad Clark. Senior captain Devonte Campbell was moved out of the starting lineup to the first player off the bench in an effort to better take advantage of his versatility. Duke and Mount St. Mary's have also utilized four freshmen in their starting lineups this season.

Locking Down

UAlbany's defense held Providence to just 23 points in the first half of their meeting, the second-lowest first-half total of the season for the Friars. The Great Danes allowed the Friars to shoot just 7-29 in the first 20 minutes, including 3-10 from behind the arc. Providence only managed to make three of its first 15 shots of the game.

Perimeter Defense

In the first meeting against Dartmouth, the Big Green hit 17 threes, including 11 in the first half and their first nine straight. In the second game, UAlbany held Dartmouth to just 7-24 (29.5) from behind the arc, well below their season average of 42.7%, which ranked in the top 10 nationally.

Rematch

Due to their draw in the Belfast Classic Sampson Bracket, UAlbany ended up with a second game against Dartmouth in the 2018-19 regular season. It is the first time the Great Danes have faced off twice in a season against a non-conference opponent since playing NJIT twice during the 2013-14 season. UAlbany defeated the Highlanders in both meetings that year.

Debuting

Freshman guard Antonio Rizzuto finally made his season debut against Monmouth, scoring 13 points on 3-6 shooting from the floor in 22 minutes off the bench. All three of his baskets were made from behind the arc. Rizzuto, who had been sidelined with injuries through the first eight games of the season, is expected to alleviate some pressure to the Great Dane backcourt and provide an additional scoring threat to complement Ahmad Clark and Cameron Healy.

Starting Fast

Junior guard Ahmad Clark scored UAlbany's first eight points against Monmouth and finished with 20 for the first half, including shooting 10-10 from the free throw line. Clark ended the game with 29, just one point off his career-high.

Sliding

Since defeating Oneonta at home on November 19, the Great Danes have lost their last four in a row, to Holy Cross, UW-Milwaukee, LIU Brooklyn, and Dartmouth. It's the team's longest losing streak since dropping five straight during the 2010-11 season. That year also featured a four-game losing streak earlier in the season.

Rookie of the Week

Redshirt-freshman Cameron Healy was named America East Rookie of the Week for the first time in his career on December 3, following his efforts in the Great Danes' two games in Northern Ireland. Healy averaged 23.0 points over the two games, including a career-high 24 against Dartmouth, while hitting four three-pointers in each.

Making it Rain

Redshirt-freshman Cameron Healy hit four three-pointers against Dartmouth in the Great Danes' final game in the Belfast Classic. It was Healy's fourth-straight game in which he has made four three-pointers. Healy has made 28 threes in eight games this season, at a rate of .431, which ranks third in the America East.

Belfast II

The Great Danes, playing in the Sampson Bracket, fell in both of their games in the Belfast Classic. First, against LIU Brooklyn, the Danes trailed by 12 in the first half before storming back to take a four-point lead at halftime. Ultimately, 26 turnovers did UAlbany in, including on the final possession of the game, costing the Danes an 80-77 defeat. In the consolation game, UAlbany fell behind early to Dartmouth, trailing by as many as 28 in the first half before closing the half on a 16-0 run. Dartmouth lit up the scoreboard from behind the arc, raining down 11 threes in the first half and 17 for the game, taking the victory 91-77. For his efforts, averaging 23.5 points, Ahmad Clark was named to the All-Tournament team.

Belfast

After playing three games in four days, including back-to-back home games, the Great Danes, having gone 2-1 during that stretch, kick off the highlight of the non-conference schedule, the Basketball Hall of Fame Belfast Classic with one game in Milwaukee against UW-Milwaukee before heading overseas to play LIU Brooklyn and either Dartmouth or Marist a week later.

Resiliency

Trailing by 17 in the second half to Holy Cross, the Great Danes' defense locked down, holding the Crusaders scoreless for the final 6:35 of regulation, forcing overtime with a 13-0 run to end the half.

30

Against Canisius, junior guard Ahmad Clark scored a game-high 30 points, recording the 42nd 30-point game in program history. The total is tied for 31st in program history among individual performances with seven other players, and, at this early point in the season, is the highest individual point total for a player in the America East.

Charity Stripe

In the season opener at Iona, the Great Danes shot 15-16 from the line, for a 93.8% conversion rate. Through their one game of the season, UAlbany led the NCAA in the category.

Stepping Up

As the most experienced player on the roster, having been a regular starter for the last two years, winning America East All-Defensive Team honors each of the last two seasons, Devonte Campbell has stepped headfirst into and fully embraced his leadership role on the team for this season.

Preseason

After finishing fourth in the regular season in 2017-18, the Great Danes were picked to finish fourth in the 2018-19 America East Preseason Coaches' Poll. Last year's regular-season champion Vermont was picked first for the second-straight year, while America East Tournament champion UMBC, which became the first 16-seed to defeat a one-seed in the men's NCAA Tournament by knocking off top-overall seed Virginia 74-54, was picked third.

Empire State

The 2018-19 schedule for the Great Danes features 31 regular-season games. Of those 31, 10 will feature opponents from New York State, with the potential for an 11th, should UAlbany draw Marist in their final game of the Belfast Classic. Last season, UAlbany went 9-2 against teams from New York.

Road Warriors

UAlbany will play just six of its 15 non-conference games at SEFCU Arena this season. The remaining nine will be played away from home. The highlight of the non-conference schedule is a week-long trip to Belfast, Northern Ireland for the final phase of the Belfast Classic. UAlbany's participation in the Classic begins with a visit to UW-Milwaukee on November 23, followed by the flight overseas for a game on November 29 against LIU Brooklyn, and one final game on November 30 against either Dartmouth or Marist.

Searching for Production

With such dramatic personnel changes since last season, the Great Danes will have to find new sources of production to win games this year. Devonte Campbell is one of three players returning who saw the floor last season, and the only returning starter from last year's squad. Collectively, the team returns 14.4% of its scoring production from last season, amounting to 10.7 points per game.

Aussie Pipeline

Continuing the tradition of Australian players in the program, the men's 2018-19 roster features three Australian players in Brent Hank, Cameron Healy, and Adam Lulka. Each is expected to contribute significantly this season, if not win starting roles.

Fresh Faces

Due to heavy losses from graduation and transferring players, the UAlbany men's basketball team will feature nine newcomers on its 15-player roster this season. Further, three of the six returners, Brent Hank, Cameron Healy, and Adam Lulka, redshirted their freshman season last year.

NBLxNBA

One of the preseason team bonding experiences the Great Danes had was a trip to Philadelphia's Wells Fargo Center to attend the Philadelphia 76ers preseason exhibition game against Melbourne United. United's squad featured UAlbany alumnus Peter Hooley, who played for Coach Brown from 2011-16. Further, the Sixers' Markelle Fultz, top overall pick in the 2017 NBA Draft, attended DeMatha Catholic with Ahmad Clark, and the two are close friends.

Homegrown

Most of UAlbany's support staff are graduates of UAlbany. Associate head coach Jon Iati and assistant coach Jerrad Knotts played for Coach Brown, graduating in 2006 and 2007, respectively. Ty Conyers, hired as video coordinator last season before moving to Director of Operations this year, was a team manager for UAlbany before graduating in 2014. Finally, assistant coach Josh Pelletier earned his graduate degree from UAlbany in 2012.

300

Head Coach Will Brown enters his 18th season at UAlbany, and is the longest-tenured head coach in the America East. He ended the 2017-18 campaign with 282 victories, just 18 away from career-number 300. The Great Danes have won 20 or more games each of the last four seasons.

LAST TIME OUT - vs. HARTFORD

Score: UAlbany 84, Hartford 77

Location: SEFCU Arena in Albany, N.Y.

Records: UAlbany (6-15, 1-5 AE); Hartford (10-11, 3-3 AE)

Short Story: UAlbany notches its first America East victory of the season, holding on to knock off visiting Hartford 84-77.

Coach Brown: "First, I'd like to say we had a great day today. We had a young man, Tyhlar Goudreau, through the Make-A-Wish Foundation, spend the day with us, at film, shootaround, team meal, and on the bench. I'd like to thank the people at Make-A-Wish and I'd like to thank our Associate Athletic Director Charlie Voelker, for allowing us to be a part of that experience. With regards to the game, I'm proud of our guys. Hartford is the most experienced team in the league. They have five starters back from last year and they're all seniors. I think I was the only one that wasn't relaxed when we got the big lead. But again, the team is growing up right in front of you. We found a couple ways to lose our last two, and I think this team was just determined and desperate to win today. I think they were thoroughly disappointed in the Stony Brook loss because we had a tremendous crowd. We had a good crowd again today that was behind us. All we talked about down the stretch was finishing the job. We had to play a lot of offense with our defensive lineup on the floor against their zone, but we just found ways to make a few more plays than Hartford did and win the game. Hopefully we can use this as momentum moving forward and get a lot of one-game winning streaks.

Key Stats

- UAlbany opened the game on an 8-1 run
- UAlbany hit 10 of its first 13 shots, including five of eight from three
- UAlbany led wire-to-wire
- Ahmad Clark scored a game-high 22 points
- Antonio Rizzuto scored 21 points for the second-straight game
- Four Great Danes scored in double-figures
- All five Hawks' starters scored in double-figures
- Hartford scored just three points off the bench

Recap

Losers of five straight, the University at Albany men's basketball team snapped their season-high skid, knocking off Hartford 84-77 to secure the first conference victory of the season, and the first victory of 2019.

Saturday's matchup featured the America East's first and third ranked three-point shooting teams in Hartford and UAlbany, respectively, as well as the top two individual three-point shooters in UAlbany's Cameron Healy and Hartford's J.R. Lynch.

The Great Danes came out firing, opening the game on an 8-1 run. UAlbany quickly opened up a 10-point advantage before three minutes had elapsed with Ahmad Clark's transition layup to put the Danes up 13-3.

UAlbany hit nine of its first 12 shots, including five of its first eight from three, to build a 22-7 lead with 14:11 left in the first. Antonio Rizzuto, who scored a career-high 21 points against Stony Brook, had accounted for 11 points already, shooting 3-4 from three early in the game. Defensively, UAlbany had forced six turnovers in the first seven and a half minutes.

After trailing by as many as 17, Hartford hit a three with 5:45 left in the first to cut the lead to 10. Hartford cut the lead to seven with a three-pointer with 2:50 remaining before UAlbany pulled away again to take a 14-point lead into halftime.

The Great Danes led by double-digits despite not hitting a field goal for the final 2:46 of the half. Clark led all scorers with 13 points, followed by Rizzuto with 12. Healy and Adam Lukka each added nine. For the half, UAlbany shot 53.3% from the floor, and scored 15 points off of 10 Hartford turnovers.

Early in the second, UAlbany extended its lead to 18 after a three-pointer from Healy. Soon after, the Danes suffered a scoring drought that lasted nearly four minutes, but Hartford was unable to fully capitalize, cutting the lead to 12 but shooting 1-7 from the floor.

Rizzuto broke the scoring drought with a three with 13:04 remaining to put UAlbany up 62-47.

Hartford cut the lead to nine with 7:00 left in the second with a three-pointer, bringing the score to 70-61. The Hawks had hit six of their last eight field goals, and had held UAlbany scoreless for the previous 2:03.

Hartford hit another three with 6:23 to go to cut the lead to 72-64. On the other end, Rizzuto drew a foul shooting a three and made all three free throws to put UAlbany back up 11.

With five minutes to go, Hartford had closed back within eight. After the Hawks scored a layup on a broken play to close within six with 4:20 to go, UAlbany called a timeout. A Hartford layup-and-one cut the lead to three with 3:50 remaining.

Clark drew a foul on a layup on the other end, putting UAlbany back up six after the free throw. Hartford missed two free throws after drawing a foul on their next possession, leaving UAlbany with a six-point lead with 3:12 left.

Healy hit a three to put UAlbany up nine with 2:29 to go, and the Great Dane defense forced a turnover on Hartford's ensuing possession. Devonte Campbell put UAlbany up double-digits after hitting one of two free throws.

UAlbany went on to win 84-77. The team had broken through after suffering consecutive one-point overtime losses in their previous two games. Clark led all scorers with 22 points, followed by Rizzuto, who matched his career-high 21. Healy added 19 and Lukka added 13. All five starters for Hartford scored in double-figures, but the Hawks only scored three points of the bench.

Next: UAlbany hits the road for one game at New Hampshire on Wednesday, January 30 before returning to SEFCU Arena to host Binghamton on Saturday, February 2 for this year's Big Purple Growl.

WILL BROWN - 18TH SEASON AT UALBANY

Will Brown begins his 18th season overall as the University at Albany's men's basketball head coach, after spending one season in an interim capacity. Brown, the longest tenured coach in the America East Conference, has led the program to five conference championships, five NCAA Tournament appearances, two CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament appearances, one CBI Postseason appearance and an unparalleled success in the classroom.

The Great Danes won 20+ games for the fourth straight year in 2017-18, going 22-10 overall thanks in part to a strong non-conference performance that saw the team peak at #4 in the national Mid-Major poll. Two players, Joe Cremona and David Nichols became the 10th and 11th 1,000-point scorers in program history. The Danes won six straight games to open the season, matching the program's second-best start in history from the 1985-86 season. Brown earned his 275th career victory at UAlbany with a 70-62 win against UMass Lowell on January 18, 2018.

Brown earned the program's first NCAA Division I Tournament win in 2013-14 when the Purple & Gold took down Mount St. Mary's in the First Four 71-64 in Dayton, Ohio. He led UAlbany to its second-straight America East title in 2013-14, as the

No. 4 seed. The Great Danes repeated their feat as the lowest seed to ever win the tournament, once again knocking off the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds and taking the title on the road.

The 2012-13 Great Danes arguably ended their season as their most successful in league history with a 24-11 record, a NCAA Tournament Second Round appearance and won the America East Conference Tournament Championship. Following his third conference tournament championship, he became the fourth America East Conference head coach with at least three conference tournament titles. The 24 wins is a program-best for most wins in a season at UAlbany in Division I. The Great Danes set a record for most non-conference wins in school history with 12.

Brown guided the Great Danes to their second straight America East Conference championship after defeating top-seed Vermont in the 2007 tournament final. The Great Danes, who earned an automatic NCAA berth, were seeded No. 13 against Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season winner Virginia. Brown's team totaled 20 victories during the regular season for the first time at the Division I level. UAlbany tied the second-highest single-season win total (23) in school history and posted consecutive 20-win campaigns for the first time in 17 years. Jamar Wilson made his second appearance on the Associated Press All-America squad.

Brown led the Great Danes to their first-ever NCAA Division I Tournament berth in 2005-06 after winning both the America East Conference tournament and regular-season titles. UAlbany set the program's Division I record for single-season victories with a 21-11 record and produced its highest win total since 1993-94. His squad posted UAlbany's first postseason triumph in 11 years with three wins in America East tournament play. The Great Danes, who also established their top conference mark with 13 victories in the regular season, went on to put up a monumental fight against second-ranked Connecticut in a memorable NCAA first-round battle. Brown was named the New York State Coach of the Year.

Brown was appointed as UAlbany's head coach on March 13, 2002, and has worked on the collegiate level since 1995. He became the 15th head coach in the history of the program. At age 40, Brown is still one of the youngest Division I head coaches in the nation.

Coach Brown and his wife, Jamie, work closely with many charitable organizations in the Capital District and surrounding areas. Jamie currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Big Brothers, Big Sisters Organization of the Capital Region. She also serves as the Associate Board of Directors for St. Peter's Hospital and co-chairs Coaches vs. Cancer to benefit the American Cancer Society. The Browns are also involved with the upstate Northeastern New York chapter of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America.

Brown, who joined the UAlbany staff as an assistant in Sept. 2001, was promoted to interim head coach on Dec. 20 of that year, and guided the Great Danes to a 7-13 record over the last 20 games. UAlbany was among the conference leaders in scoring defense. He coached the team to several impressive victories, including a win over Vermont, the America East Conference's regular-season champion.

Brown previously served as the head coach at Sullivan County Community College in Loch Sheldrake, N.Y., from 1998-2001. He led the Generals to a 90-10 record over a three-year period with two regional and two district titles. Sullivan County C.C. posted a 30-2 record and reached the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) championship game in 2000-01. Brown's first SCCC squad appeared in the NJCAA "Final Four" and finished 32-3 overall. The Generals were ranked second nationally in scoring at 92.9 points per game, and ninth in team defense with a 67.1 average.

Previous to his appointment at Sullivan County C.C., Brown spent three years at The College of Saint Rose as an assistant coach on Brian Beaury's staff. The Golden Knights made two NCAA Division II "Elite Eight" appearances in that span, and captured three New York Collegiate Athletic Conference (NYCAC) championships and two Northeast Regional crowns. Saint Rose compiled an 88-13 record from 1995-98.

As a collegiate player, Brown was a two-time NYCAC all-star and three-year starter at Dowling College, an NCAA Division II program on Long Island. He is the only player in school history to combine for more than 1,000 points and 500 assists. Brown completed his career as Dowling's all-time leader in assists (591), three-point field goals (181) and free throw percentage (.859). He also played second singles on the school's tennis team.

A native of Miller Place, N.Y., Brown earned first-team Class B all-state recognition as a high school senior, when he averaged more than 35 points per game. He was chosen All-Long Island and was a three-time All-Suffolk County selection. In May 2010, Brown was inducted into the Suffolk Sports Hall of Fame.

Brown resides in Latham with his wife, Jamie, and their two sons, Jackson and Landon. Brown has a master's degree in management and a B.A. in marketing from Dowling College. His father, William, Jr., has served as director of athletics at Miller Place High School, where he previously was head basketball coach for 17 years. His teams won three Suffolk County League VII scholastic titles.
