LAST TIME OUT

Richmond 23, UAlbany 20
Oct. 5, 2019
Robins Stadium

RICHMOND, Va. — Jerah Reeves, Juwan Green and Murad Hussain all caught touchdown passes from Jeff Undercuffler, but the University at Albany football team fell at Richmond, 23-20, on Saturday in a CAA game.

Undercuffler hit Reeves on a 20-yard touchdown pass with 2:47 to play that brought the Great Danes within three points. But Richmond was able to hold the ball the rest of the way.

UAlbany's redshirt freshman quarterback completed 15-of-31 passes for 288 yards with three touchdowns, but UAlbany played from behind throughout the entire second half.

Hussain's TD was a spectacular one-handed grab in the first quarter that put UAlbany up, 7-3, and Green caught a 27-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

But UAlbany was bogged down by 16 penalties for 118 yards and an untimely turnover.

Leading 16-13, the Spiders intercepted a pass in Great Danes' territory with less than two minutes before halftime and returned it to the 6-yard line, setting up a touchdown run that made the score 23-13 at the intermission.

The teams remained scoreless in the second half until Reeves' touchdown catch.

Defensively, UAlbany was led by Levi Metheny's nine tackles. Mazon Walker had 3.5 tackles for loss, and Eli Mencer posted 3.0. Nick Dillon added a sack.

TEAM NOTES CON'T

return for touchdown, and against Bryant, Jarren Williams hauled in a deflected pass and ran 63 yards for a Pick 6. UAlbany already has forced 13 fumbles.

When it counts

UAlbany has been at its best late in games this season, outscoring opponents 62-24 in the fourth quarter.

Home cookin'

UAlbany has won four straight at Casey Stadium, dating back to last season's 25-23 win over No. 10 Stony Brook in the season finale and followed by this year's wins over Bryant, Lafayette and William & Mary. The win over Bryant marked UAlbany's sixth straight win in a home opener.

Broken records

Senior wide receiver Juwan Green and redshirt freshman QB Jeff Undercuffler earned several mentions in the record book with their performances in Week 3's 38-35 loss to Monmouth in overtime.

- Green's 15 catches established a new program record. The previous record was 13, set by Andy Shein against Brockport in 1994.
- Green's 245 yards are the second most in a single game behind Chris Phillis' 251 against Robert Morris in 2000.
- Green is one of five Great Danes to have three TD catches in a game.
- Undercuffler's 398 yards passing ties Joe Savino for the program record. Savino had set the mark in 1997 against Southern Connecticut State.
- Undercuffler set the record for both attempts (53) and completions (31). The previous records (49, 28) were set by Will Fiacchi against Richmond in 2014.

What a rush

UAlbany posted 362 yards rushing in a Week 2 win over Bryant. Alex James ran 12 times for 229 yards and a TD, while Karl Mofor carried 18 times for 123 yards. James ran for an 80-yard TD in the first quarter. In the fourth quarter, he nearly had an 85 yard score, but it was called back when replay showed his foot touched the boundary at the 2-yard line. Through four games, UAlbany backs are averaging 5.8 yards per carry.

Schedule strength

Once again, the Great Danes play a formidable schedule. The nonconference slate included an FBS opponent (Central Michigan) and Monmouth, picked to finish second in the Big South Preseason Poll. CAA opponents Towson (No. 9), Delaware (15), Maine (18), and Stony Brook (22) are ranked in the STATS Top 25 poll. New Hampshire is receiving votes.

Scouting Towson

Towson (3-2, 1-1 CAA) is coming off a bye week. The Tigers last played Sept. 28 at Florida, of the SEC, and lost 38-0. In its two CAA contests, Towson has beaten Maine (45-23) and lost to Villanova (52-45, OT). The Tigers are led by CAA Preseason Offensive Player of the Year Tom Flacco, who averages 249.8 yards per game through the air. His favorite target is receiver Shane Leatherbury, who's averaging 72.8 receiving yards and has three touchdown catches. Towson was picked to finish second in the league in the preseason poll.

DID YOU KNOW? CON'T

- This year, UAlbany is holding a "Hometown Heroes" game on Sept. 21 to honor all active and retired military members as well as first-responders.

Welcome back Will and Michael

- UAlbany alums Michael Nicastro (defensive assistant) and Will Fiacchi (wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator) both are on the coaching staff.
- Fiacchi, a 2014 graduate, is the Great Danes' all-time leading passer, having thrown for 7,150 yards. He made 35 consecutive starts at quarterback and holds team records in most completions in a game (28), season (207) and career (602). He's in his second year on the coaching staff after serving as the offensive assistant last season.
- Nicastro, a 2016 graduate, finished his career fifth on the Great Danes' all-time tackles list with 310. He was an All-CAA First-Team member in 2016, when he also received the program's Todd J. Clark Memorial Award, given annually to a student-athlete who embodies leadership, courage and selflessness.

Oh, Brother

- The UAlbany roster includes two sets of brothers.
- The Greaneys: Thomas, a redshirt freshman tight end, and Joseph, a true freshman linebacker.
- The Sokach-Minnicks: Tristan, a junior and in his second year as the starting long-snapper, and Stephen, a freshman long-snapper.

Happy anniversary

The University at Albany football program will be honoring its 50th anniversary in 2019, celebrating a tradition of excellence that dates back to its founding in 1970. The Great Danes' milestone season coincides with the 150th anniversary of College Football. UAlbany will be celebrating both anniversaries during the Nov. 5 game against CAA-rival and 2018 national semifinalist Maine. UAlbany's football history includes six Division I conference championships and an FCS playoff appearance in 2011. The program has won 300 games and seen 15 student-athletes sign NFL contracts. It all began in 1970, when former coach Bob Ford, with a roster of about 50 players and four graduate assistant coaches, restarted a club team that had been inactive since 1924. Just three seasons later, UAlbany moved up to Division III and went 16-2 over its first two campaigns. The program later transitioned to Division II in 1995 and then Division I in 1999.

Greg Gattuso enters his sixth season at the helm of the UAlbany football program in 2019.

A former standout defensive lineman at Penn State who's worked at Duquesne, Pittsburgh and Maryland, Gattuso has led the Great Danes through five seasons in the Colonial Athletic Association, one of the top Football Championship Subdivision conferences in the nation.

The 2018 season included a win over No. 10 Stony Brook in the season finale. The Great Danes played one of the most difficult schedules in the nation, with four games against ranked teams and a season-opening game against Pitt, of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

In 2017, he led the Great Danes to their first win over a Top 10 program -- a 19-10 overtime victory over No. 7 Villanova at Tom & Mary Casey Stadium. UAlbany also shut out New Hampshire, an FCS playoff qualifier, 15-0 in the season finale. It was one of several superlative efforts from a defense that finished the season ranked No. 9 nationally. The Great Danes were 4-7 overall and 2-6 in the CAA against a rigorous schedule that featured games against an FBS opponent (Old Dominion) and five matchups with Top 25 teams.

Under Gattuso's leadership, UAlbany had its best season as a CAA member in 2016, finishing 7-4 overall and 4-4 in the league. The Great Danes were ranked for five weeks, including as high as No. 16. UAlbany also earned its first victory over an FBS opponent with a 22-16 road win over Buffalo.

Hallmarks of Gattuso's teams have included discipline and taking care of the football. In 2016, the Great Danes were second in the CAA with a plus-16 turnover margin.

In his first season, in 2014, Gattuso led the Great Danes to a six-win turnaround from the previous year. The Great Danes picked up votes in the national polls for 10 straight weeks and appeared in The Sports Network Top 25 four times on their way to a 7-5 overall record and 3-5 CAA mark.

A year later, the Danes earned CAA victories over Rhode Island and perennial power Delaware.

Gattuso was a defensive lineman at Penn State, where he helped lead the Nittany Lions to a national title in 1982. In his first collegiate head-coaching role, Gattuso piloted Duquesne to a 97-32 record during his 12-season tenure, and while making three bowl appearances at Pittsburgh, he turned the defensive line into one of the best in the nation as an assistant head coach.

Gattuso came to UAlbany after spending three seasons as a member Randy Edsall's staff at Maryland. There, he led the defensive line that ranked among the top in the ACC and was promoted to the position of assistant head coach in February 2012.

From 1989-1991, he served as head coach at his high school alma mater, Seton-La-Salle. Taking over a team that went 6-34 during the four seasons prior to his arrival, Gattuso led the Rebels to a 28-10-1 mark (.731), including three WPIAL playoff berths, a WPIAL championship and Parkway Conference title.

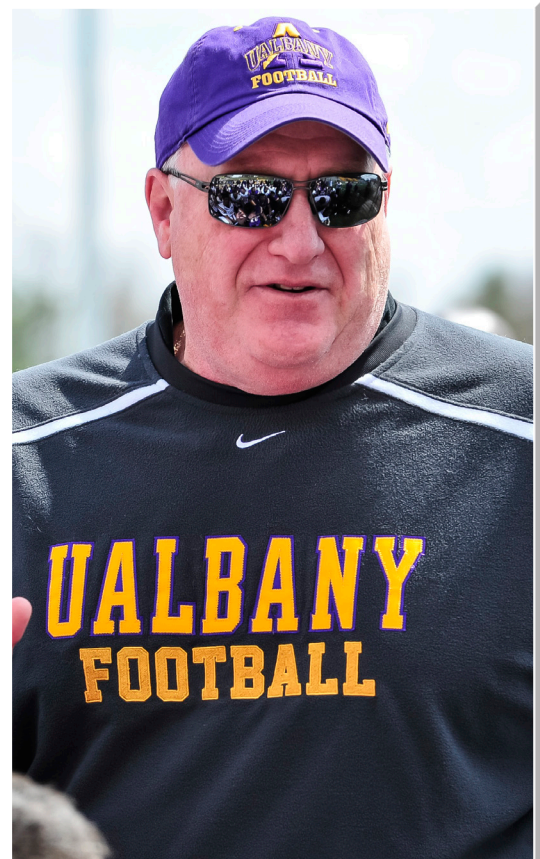

During his playing career, Gattuso was named the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Class AA Player of the Year his senior season at Seton-LaSalle.
