LAST TIME OUT

UAlbany 31, Stony Brook 26
Nov. 16, 2019
Tom & Mary Casey Stadium

Albany, N.Y.— The University at Albany football team is poised for its second FCS playoff appearance after defeating Stony Brook, 31-26, on Saturday in the regular-season finale at Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium.

UAlbany raced to a 24-0 lead and then held off the Seawolves in the annual rivalry game between two of New York's SUNY schools.

The Great Danes got 176 rushing yards and three touchdowns from Karl Mofor to lead the offense, while the defense sacked Stony Brook's quarterback five times, helping fend off a Seawolves' comeback bid.

UAlbany led 14-0 before Stony Brook had managed a first down. Mofor opened the scoring with a 2-yard run just four minutes into the game, and he added a 3-yard score five minutes later.

Then, with 3:25 left in the first, Jeff Undercuffler hit Juwan Green in the end zone for a 6-yard touchdown pass, making it 21-0 at the end of the first.

But Stony Brook rallied in the final seven minutes of the half, closing the gap to 24-14 on a strip sack returned for a touchdown with 6:04 to go.

The Seawolves got within 24-20 in the third quarter, before Mofor's third touchdown, another 3-yard run, pushed the lead to 31-20 with 5:36 to play.

As the clock wound down, UAlbany players doused Head Coach Greg Gattuso with Gatorade, then raced to collect the Golden Apple Trophy, which they will keep for the second straight year.

TEAM NOTES CON'T

previous records (49, 28) were set by Will Fiacchi against Richmond in 2014.

What a rush

UAlbany posted 362 yards rushing in a Week 2 win over Bryant. Alex James ran 12 times for 229 yards and a TD, while Karl Mofor carried 18 times for 123 yards. James ran for an 80-yard TD in the first quarter. In the fourth quarter, he nearly had an 85 yard score, but it was called back when replay showed his foot touched the boundary at the 2-yard line.

Schedule strength

Once again, the Great Danes play a formidable schedule. The nonconference slate included an FBS opponent (Central Michigan) and No. 15 Monmouth, picked to finish second in the Big South Preseason Poll. In the CAA, Towson (No. 20) is currently ranked, while New Hampshire and Maine are receiving votes.

Last meeting with Central Connecticut (New Britain, Conn.)

UAlbany earned its 100th FCS win with a 19-0 victory against Central Connecticut State back in 2014. As a team, the Great Danes totaled 310 yards of offense while holding CCSU to 195, including just 21 rushing yards. Quarterback, Will Fiacchi completed 13-of-28 passes for 163 yards, and two touchdown tosses to senior Cole King. King finished the night with two touchdowns, five receptions, and 96 receiving yards. On the ground, running back Omar Osbourne led the team with 110 rushing yards.

The series with Stony Brook

Former rivals in the Northeast Conference, UAlbany leads the all-time series with CCSU, 13-6, dating back to 1995. UAlbany has a 8-3 record in games played in friendly confines. All six of CCSU's wins over UAlbany have been squeakers, including the last four having a combined margin of nine points. On the contrary, UAlbany's victories over the Blue Devils have been historically convincing, including six that were won by over 20 points.

Scouting Stony Brook

Stony Brook has lost five of its past six games, including a 17-10 decision at Delaware last week. The Seawolves average 210.4 rushing yards per game, the second most in the CAA. Against Delaware, both running backs Isaiah White (188 yards) and Jadon Turner honor all active and retired military members as well as first-responders.

Welcome back Will and Michael

- UAlbany alums Michael Nicastro (defensive assistant) and Will Fiacchi (wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator) both are on the coaching staff.
- Fiacchi, a 2014 graduate, is the Great Danes' all-time leading passer, having thrown for 7,150 yards. He made 35 consecutive starts at quarterback and holds team records in most completions in a game (28), season (207) and career (602). He's in his second year on the coaching staff after serving as the offensive assistant last season.
- Nicastro, a 2016 graduate, finished his career fifth on the Great Danes' all-time tackles list with 310. He was an All-CAA First-Team member in 2016, when he also received the program's Todd J. Clark Memorial Award, given annually to a student-athlete who embodies leadership, courage and selflessness.

Oh, Brother

- The UAlbany roster includes two sets of brothers.
- The Greaneys: Thomas, a redshirt freshman tight end, and Joseph, a true freshman linebacker.
- The Sokach-Minnicks: Tristan, a junior and in his second year as the starting long-snapper, and Stephen, a freshman long-snapper.

Happy anniversary

The University at Albany football program will be honoring its 50th anniversary in 2019, celebrating a tradition of excellence that dates back to its founding in 1970. The Great Danes' milestone season coincides with the 150th anniversary of College Football. UAlbany will be celebrating both anniversaries during the Nov. 5 game against CAA-rival and 2018 national semifinalist Maine. UAlbany's football history includes six Division I conference championships and an FCS playoff appearance in 2011. The program has won 300 games and seen 15 student-athletes sign NFL contracts. It all began in 1970, when former coach Bob Ford, with a roster of about 50 players and four graduate assistant coaches, restarted a club team that had been inactive since 1924. Just three seasons later, UAlbany moved up to Division III and went 16-2 over its first two campaigns. The program later transitioned to Division II in 1995 and then Division I in 1999.

HEAD COACH GREG GATTUSO

Greg Gattuso enters his sixth season at the helm of the UAlbany football program in 2019.

A former standout defensive lineman at Penn State who's worked at Duquesne, Pittsburgh and Maryland, Gattuso has led the Great Danes through five seasons in the Colonial Athletic Association, one of the top Football Championship Subdivision conferences in the nation.

The 2018 season included a win over No. 10 Stony Brook in the season finale. The Great Danes played one of the most difficult schedules in the nation, with four games against ranked teams and a season-opening game against Pitt, of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

In 2017, he led the Great Danes to their first win over a Top 10 program -- a 19-10 overtime victory over No. 7 Villanova at Tom & Mary Casey Stadium. UAlbany also shut out New Hampshire, an FCS playoff qualifier, 15-0 in the season finale. It was one of several superlative efforts from a defense that finished the season ranked No. 9 nationally. The Great Danes were 4-7 overall and 2-6 in the CAA against a rigorous schedule that featured games against an FBS opponent (Old Dominion) and five matchups with Top 25 teams.

Under Gattuso's leadership, UAlbany had its best season as a CAA member in 2016, finishing 7-4 overall and 4-4 in the league. The Great Danes were ranked for five weeks, including as high as No. 16. UAlbany also earned its first victory over an FBS opponent with a 22-16 road win over Buffalo.

Hallmarks of Gattuso's teams have included discipline and taking care of the football. In 2016, the Great Danes were second in the CAA with a plus-16 turnover margin.

In his first season, in 2014, Gattuso led the Great Danes to a six-win turnaround from the previous year. The Great Danes picked up votes in the national polls for 10 straight weeks and appeared in The Sports Network Top 25 four times on their way to a 7-5 overall record and 3-5 CAA mark.

A year later, the Danes earned CAA victories over Rhode Island and perennial power Delaware.

Gattuso was a defensive lineman at Penn State, where he helped lead the Nittany Lions to a national title in 1982. In his first collegiate head-coaching role, Gattuso piloted Duquesne to a 97-32 record during his 12-season tenure, and while making three bowl appearances at Pittsburgh, he turned the defensive line into one of the best in the nation as an assistant head coach.

Gattuso came to UAlbany after spending three seasons as a member Randy Edsall's staff at Maryland. There, he led the defensive line that ranked among the top in the ACC and was promoted to the position of assistant head coach in February 2012.

From 1989-1991, he served as head coach at his high school alma mater, Seton-LaSalle. Taking over a team that went 6-34 during the four seasons prior to his arrival, Gattuso led the Rebels to a 28-10-1 mark (.731), including three WPIAL playoff berths, a WPIAL championship and Parkway Conference title.

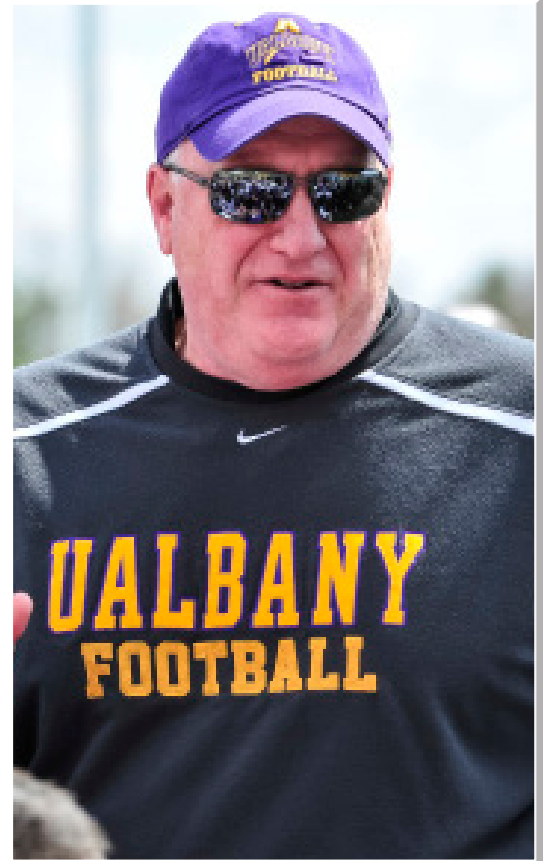

During his playing career, Gattuso was named the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Class AA Player of the Year his senior season at Seton-LaSalle.
