2018-19 GAME NOTES

UMASS LOWELL BASKETBALL

UALBANY SERIES HISTORY

All-Time Series: UAlbany leads the all-time series, 11-9
First Meeting: December 9, 1995 (UML, 79-69)
Last Meeting: January 5, 2019 (SBU, 75-63) - Propelled by five double-digit scorers, UMass Lowell came from behind in the second half to defeat America East opponent UAlbany. Obadiah Noel matched a career high with 22 points to lead the offensive effort. Bryce Daley also had a breakout game with a personal-best 16 points. Christian Lutete logged his second consecutive double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds, while Alex Rivera and Darius Henderson rounded out the double-digit scorers with 12 and 10 points, respectively.

NOTEBOOK

LOOKING AT UMASS LOWELL

The River Hawks, who are 13-12 overall and 5-5 in America East play, will travel to UAlbany for a weeknight matchup on Wednesday.

A WIN WOULD

A win would give the River Hawks their first sweep of a season series against the Great Danes. A win would also match the team's total America East wins from a season ago, as well as give UMass Lowell its most road wins since 2015-16 (5).

LAST TIME OUT

Despite 16 lead changes, UMass Lowell faced a 76-65 setback at Stony Brook on Feb. 9. Redshirt-junior Christian Lutete turned in his ninth double-double of the season and second consecutive with 19 points and a season-high tying 14 rebounds. Sophomore Obadiah Noel joined Lutete as the team's only other scorer in double figures with 15 points. Freshman Joey Glynn chipped in with eight points, as well. The River Hawks were up by one with 13 minutes to go in the contest, but the Seawolves used at 17-6 run to take the lead for good.

LEADING THE FLOCK

Through 25 games in 2018-19, Christian Lutete is leading the team with 18.8 points and 8.2 rebounds per game. Sophomore Obadiah Noel, who follows closely with 15.3 points per game, paces the team with a 75.4 clip from the line and 30 steals. Josh Gantz boasts a team-best 23 blocks and has also dished out a team-high 72 assists.

SCOUTING UALBANY

The Great Danes own a 8-16 overall record and a 3-6 mark in conference action. The team dropped a 69-47 decision at Vermont in its only game last week on Feb. 9. Ahmad Clark is currently first on the team with 17.0 points per game, 99 assists and 48 steals. Adam Lulka, who adds 9.0 points per game, leads the squad with 7.0 rebounds and seven blocks. As a team, UAlbany is shooting 40.6 percent from the field, including 34.8 percent on threes, and 73.9 percent from the line.

SETTING A NEW STANDARD

With the decision against New Hampshire on Feb. 6, the River Hawks tallied their 13th win of the season, setting a new Division I program record.

DOUBLING UP

With 17 points and 11 rebounds, Christian Lutete became the first River Hawk to tally a double-double in their debut at the Division I level. He has added eight more since to rank first in the league and 36th in the nation with nine double-doubles in 2018-19.

COMEBACK KIDS

The River Hawks have come from behind to win five times this season after trailing inside of the final eight minutes in the second half. In three games, UMass Lowell has even overcome a double-digit, second-half deficit, most recently erasing a

2018-19 GAME NOTES

UMASS LOWELL BASKETBALL

NOTEBOOK

14-point, second-half difference at Binghamton on Jan. 23.

COLD SNAP

After averaging 81.3 points in the first 21 games this season, the team has averaged just 65.3 points in the last four games.

A THREAT ON THREES

Christian Lutete knocked down 19 threes in three games between Jan. 19-30, becoming the first River Hawk to tally at least six triples in three straight games at the Division I level. His career-best seven three-pointers at Hartford (1.19) ties for second on the school's DI single-game record list, as well.

BENCH PRESS-URE

The River Hawks have boasted 35 points off the bench in their last two consecutive games. In 24 games this year, the River Hawks have averaged 20.9 points off the bench. This is up from last season, when the squad averaged just 15.3 bench points per game.

FREE IS FOR ME

Including back-to-back games with 87.5 percent clips against UMBC (1.12) and UAlbany (1.16), the team is shooting an impressive 78 percent from the foul line during America East play, compared to 73 percent during its non-conference slate. Obadiah Noel, who is pacing the team at the line, logged a season-high 10 free throws at UNH on Jan. 9, marking the second time in his career with double-digits from the line.

EARLY BIRD

The River Hawks are 8-2 in 2018-19 when getting to work early and taking a lead into halftime.

SECOND HALF IS WHERE IT'S AT

The River Hawks have found strength in the second, as evidenced by Christian Lutete's DI program-best, 25-point second half on Dec. 1. So far, the team is outscoring their opponents, 1031-966, in the second. Additionally, the River Hawks are shooting 48 percent in the second, compared to their opponents, who are shooting just 44 percent.

SEEING 20/20

Christian Lutete has logged 20-point performances in three straight outings twice this year, most recently from from Jan. 19-30. He joins Jahad Thomas as the only other player during the school's Division I era to do so. Lutete totals 10, 20-point games this year, good for second on the school's DI single-season record list.

ON THE GLASS

Christian Lutete and Bryce Daley each pulled down 10 rebounds against UNH (2.6), marking the first time since November of 2017 (vs. UMass Boston) that two River Hawks have boasted double-digit boards. The team is currently second in the league for rebounding offense (35.5), while Christian Lutete is first in the league with 8.0 rebounds per game, as well.

2018-19 GAME NOTES

UMASS LOWELL BASKETBALL

NOTEBOOK

NO SOPHOMORE SLUMP HERE

After an impressive 2017-18 season that landed Obadiah Noel on the America East All-Rookie Team, he has improved from 6.5 points per game last season to 15.3 points per game in 2018-19. That +8.8 improvement ranks among the most improved players in the nation.

HELPING HANDS

The River Hawks set a new Division I program record with 29 assists against Maine Fort Kent on Dec. 7. The squad is currently 28th in the nation with 395 total assists and is first in the America East with 15.8 assists per game. Ryan Jones became just the second player in the program's Division I history to register 10 assists in a game in the NJIT contest on Dec. 1.

SPREADING THE LOVE

Despite heading into 2018-19 having lost 60.6% of their scoring from a season ago, at least four different River Hawks have reached double figures in 17 of their 25 games this season, including a season-high five, 10+ point scorers in five of those games.

HIGH SCORING AFFAIRS

Including the Loyola and Sacred Heart decisions (Dec. 21-29), the River Hawks have now logged five, 90+ point performances so far in 2018-19, marking the most since 2015-16 (6).

SHARP SHOOTERS

In the win against Army on Nov. 17, the River Hawks shot over 60 percent (61.2%) from the floor for the first time since Jan. 5, 2017. As a team, UMass Lowell has shot better than 50 percent on field goals eight times this season and is first in the league with a 47.2 overall field goal percentage. The squad is led by Christian Lutete, who is ranked first in the America East with a 54.2 percent clip so far this year.

ROAD WARRIORS

The River Hawks play 18 games away from friendly confines in 2018-19, which matches a Division I high for the program. UMass Lowell, who did not get a road win last season until Jan. 21, picked up its first win on an opponent's home court this year at Sacred Heart on Dec. 29. The program has accumulated a 98-139 road record since 2003-04.

GOING STREAKING

The victory at Binghamton (1.23) gave the River Hawks their fourth straight league win for the first time ever, in addition to marking their best start in league action since joining the conference (4-2).

PERFECT UNDER PRESSURE

With the win at Sacred Heart, the River Hawks are now 2-0 this season in overtime games. The River Hawks are 7-3 in overtime at the DI level.

ROOKIES RULE

Three River Hawk newcomers scored in double figures in the win against UAlbany for the first time since 2015-16. Bryce Daley led the way with a career-high 16 points, while Alex Rivera added 12 and Darius Henderson totaled a personal-best 10.

2018-19 GAME NOTES

UMASS LOWELL BASKETBALL

NOTEBOOK

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE BOYS

The Wagner win marked UMass Lowell's first Saturday victory in over a year, since February 4, 2017, snapping an eight-game skid. With five wins since, most recently at Hartford on Jan. 19, the team is now 6-3 on Saturdays this season.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

With a 5-0 start at home this year, the River Hawks extended their unbeaten streak in friendly territory to eight games dating back to Feb. 15, 2018. At 8-3 so far, the River Hawks have accumulated their most home wins since 2011-12, in addition to a 130-74 mark in front of River Hawk Nation since 2003-04.

PLAYING AT TSONGAS

With the victory against UMBC on Jan. 12, the team has set a new record for the program's most wins in a single season at the Tsongas Center (4). Earlier this season, the UMFK decision on Dec. 7 marked the River Hawks' largest margin of victory in the arena. The team is now 8-18 all time at the Tsongas Center.

PUT IT IN THE BOOKS

With a DI record eight non-conference wins in the books, the River Hawks entered America East Conference play above .500 for the first time (8-7).

MAKING A NAME FOR HIMSELF

Alex Rivera is just the second newcomer in the program's DI era to have reached 100 points in just seven games and has logged double-digit points in all but eight games so far.

FULL THROTTLE

The River Hawks went full force on offense against Maine Fort Kent, setting multiple new program scoring records. The squad's 110-point offensive outburst marked the most points in a single game since 2009 (110, vs. Mercy, 11/15/09), while the team's 42 made field goals becomes a new Division I best, improving on a 2015 performance against Wheelock (41, 11/24/15).

ACHIEVEMENT UNLOCKED

Ryan Jones hit a three just over 13 minutes into the contest against Sacred Heart to join the school's prestigious 1,000 Point Club on Nov. 18. Finishing that contest with a season-high 23 points points, he became the 42nd member of the club all-time and just the third at the Division I level.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

The River Hawks garnered national attention for a highlight from the win against Wagner on Nov. 10. An impressive, reverse dunk by Obadiah Noel off of an alley-oop from Ryan Jones with less than a minute to go in regulation checked in at No. 7 on ESPN's SportsCenter that evening. It marked the team's first time making the SportCenter Top 10 during the Division I era. The play was also featured on ESPN's Sunday NFL Countdown as part of Randy Moss' 'You Got Mossed' segment.

TOO CLOSE FOR COMFORT

battling back to earn the victories.

A DEBUT YOU DREAM ABOUT

Joey Glynn's 18-point performance at Massachusetts on Nov. 6 tied a UMass Lowell Division I record for points in a collegiate debut. It also sets a new record for a true freshman during the school's DI era, as the only other person to tally 18 points in his first game was Jahad Thomas as a redshirt in 2014-15.

GROWTH SPURT

The River Hawks may be young in 2018-19, but the team as a whole is significantly taller. With an average height this season of 77.1 inches, this year's squad is almost a full inch taller than last year's.

THE TRUTH OF OUR YOUTH

The story of UMass Lowell's preseason has been blending seven new faces into the lineup. This marks the largest incoming class of the River Hawks' Division I era.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

For the first time in Coach Duquette's tenure the River Hawks have named captains. Josh Gantz and Ryan Jones have earned the title for this season. According to Coach, "Ryan and Josh really understand us as a coaching staff, philosophically what we're about, what we're trying to accomplish."

A SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION

Now in their second year of full DI eligibility, the River Hawks look back on a successful four-year transition period. Of the most recent 15 men's basketball programs to make the move to Division I, the squad finished second in APR (967). Additionally, UMass Lowell ranked fifth out of the most recent 25 transitioning schools in wins (40) during its four-year reclassification.

CLASS OF 2023

Coach Duquette has added his first member of this year's recruiting class, as Jordyn Owens from Montclair, N.J. has signed his NLI to join the River Hawks next season.

2018-19 GAME NOTES

UMASS LOWELL BASKETBALL

PAT DUQUETTE

Head Coach • Sixth Season
Career Record: 69-103

Pat Duquette enters his sixth year as the UMass Lowell men's basketball head coach in 2018-19 after becoming the eighth coach in the history of the River Hawk program on May 16, 2013. During his tenure, he guided the squad through its four years of the NCAA Division I transition, compiling a 56-91 overall record and a 32-48 mark in league play as the newest member of the America East Conference.

The River Hawks finished 2017-18 with a 12-18 overall record, matching the program's Division I single-season record for wins and marking the fifth consecutive year with double-digit wins. In America East Conference action, the team posted a 6-10 record to finish the regular season tied for sixth, qualifying for its first America East Championship in its very first year of Division I post-season eligibility. UMass Lowell tied a DI program record with six non-conference wins and put together a five-game win streak from November 12-26, its longest since 2014-15. Duquette led his squad to a league-leading 76.2 points per game, and coached his fourth River Hawk 1,000 career point club membership in Matt Harris (Erie, Pa.). Two River Hawks were honored with postseason awards in 2017-18, as Jahad Thomas (Williamsport, Pa.) was named to the America East All-Conference First Team and freshman Obadiah Noel (Frederick, Md.) garnered All-Rookie Team accolades. Thomas also became the program's first ever NABC Division I All-District selection and was selected to represent the America East at the inaugural 3x3 National Championship.

In 2016-17, the River Hawks posted an 11-20 overall record, marking the team's fourth consecutive year with double-digit wins. In America East Conference action, the squad finished 5-11 to take sixth place in the final regular-season standings. Duquette's powerful offense averaged 78.4 points per game, the program's highest average since 1994-95 and a mark that put them second in the league rankings. The squad also paced the league with 16.0 assists per game and finished second in several categories, including field goal percentage (48.1), and three-point field goal percentage (39.0). The team's impressive percentage from three-point territory goes down as a new Division I program best and UMass Lowell's highest three-point shooting percentage since 1993-94, as well. Two members of the UMass Lowell basketball team earned America East All-Conference honors following the regular season, as well, as Jahad Thomas became the program's first America East All-Conference First Team selection and Rinardo Perry (Washington, D.C.) was named to the All-Rookie Team.

Duquette coached his squad to an 11-18 finish in 2015-16, including the program's first win against an Ivy League opponent (Cornell, 80-77) and against an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent (Boston College, 68-66). The River Hawks stood out in America East play, tying program bests by taking fifth in the regular-season standings with a 7-9 record and putting together a three-game conference win streak from February 8-14. The River Hawks also turned in their first ever back-to-back 100-point performances, marking yet another historic moment for the institution. Duquette's team-oriented tutelage inspired 16 games with at least four double digit scorers, and despite having one of the four youngest teams in the nation, UMass Lowell sat atop the conference rankings for 2015-16 scoring offense (76.6 ppg). Jahad Thomas became UMass Lowell's first ever AE All-Conference Second Team selection, while Isaac White was named to the All-Rookie Team and Mark Cornelius earned an All-Academic Team nod.

In 2014-15, Duquette led the River Hawks to their best Division I finish with a 12-17 overall record. The season was highlighted by a six-game win streak from November 20-December 3, which included a road victory at Atlantic 10 Conference member Fordham. The streak goes down as the program's longest since 2011-12 (7 games), and marks the most consecutive Division I wins. UMass Lowell finished its America East slate in sixth place with a 6-10 record. Duquette made the most of his young roster, becoming one of just four teams in the nation to have two freshmen as their top two scorers. He coached Jahad Thomas to America East All-Conference Third Team honors, as well as an All-Rookie Team selection. DJ Mlachnik also became UMass Lowell's first America East Men's Basketball All-Academic Team honoree.

Opening its inaugural DI season in 2013-14 at just 1-11, Duquette's squad hit its stride during the latter part of the year en route to accumulating a 10-18 overall mark with an impressive 8-8 America East record. The River Hawks put together a three-game conference win streak from January 5-15 sparking the turnaround that led to a 9-7 season-ending run. In his first year at the helm, Duquette coached a pair of America East All-Conference selections, as Akeem Williams received Second Team honors and Antonio Bivins was named the league's Sixth Man of the Year and Third-Team All-Conference. In recognition of his first-year successes at UMass Lowell, Duquette was named America East Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com and one of 10 finalists for the 2014 Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year Award.

Duquette came to UMass Lowell following three years as the associate head coach to Bill Coen at Northeastern, which followed 13 years as an assistant/associate head coach to Al Skinner at Boston College. He helped lead Northeastern to the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) regular season championship and an appearance in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) First Round in 2012-13. The Huskies put together a 20-13 overall record that season with a 14-4 clip in the CAA.

At Boston College, Duquette joined Al Skinner's staff as an administrative assistant in 1997 before being named an assistant in 2001. In 2009, he was promoted to associate head coach and helped guide the Eagles to postseason bids in eight of his last 10 seasons, including Big East regular season championships in 2000-01, 2002-03 and 2004-05. Additionally, the Eagles captured the Big East Tournament Championship in 2001.

Duquette played a large role in developing three All-Americans (Troy Bell, Craig Smith and Jared Dudley), two Big East Players of the Year (Bell twice and Dudley) and one conference Rookie of the Year (Bell) during his BC tenure. In addition, he helped tutor five First-Team All-Conference standouts (Bell, Smith, Dudley, Tyrese Rice and Reggie Jackson), including Reggie Jackson, who was a first round draft pick by the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder in 2011.

He worked as an intern with the NBA's New Jersey Nets following graduation and started his collegiate coaching career at Centenary at the same time. He spent the 1994-95 season at St. Lawrence and moved on to Saint Michael's for two years, where he earned his master's degree while helping the Purple Knights to the 1997 NCAA Tournament.

A former standout at Williams College, Duquette served as team captain in his senior season and led the Ephs to a top-10 national ranking. He earned his bachelor's degree from Williams in 1993.
