MEDIA INFORMATION

UALBANY MEDIA RELATIONS

The University at Albany media relations office is located on the third floor of the Physical Education building, across from SEFCU Arena.

Our mailing address is University at Albany, PE 307, 1400 Washington Avenue, Albany, NY, 12212.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL MEDIA CONTACT

John Reilly
Assistant Director of Media Relations
Email: jpreilly@albany.edu
Phone: (518) 442-5733

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Please request credentials at least 24 hours before the game. Unless other arrangements have been made, credentials can be picked up at the will-call table in the Physical Education building lobby.

Per NCAA policy, only photographers on assignment will be granted credentials and given field access.

For live radio, television and digital broadcasts, please contact media relations for questions regarding ISDN, Ethernet, and phone lines.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Interview requests for student-athletes and coaches must be made through the media relations office. Student-athletes generally are available at the end of practice on preannounced media days. Please send your interview requests to the media-relations office beforehand to check on the student-athletes' availabilities.

After games, the head coach and select student-athletes will be available following a 10-minute "cooling off" period. Postgame media news conferences take place in the SEFCU Arena media room and will be conducted virtually this year.

Media members may not enter the locker rooms or training areas at any time. Requests for visiting teams' student-athletes and coaches should be made through the visiting Sports Information Director.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT DR. HAVIDÁN RODRÍGUEZ

Dr. Rodríguez served as the Founding Provost & Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV). He also served as President, Ad Interim, and Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of Texas - Pan American (UTPA). Dr. Rodríguez played a key leadership role in the creation of UTRGV - which resulted from the consolidation of UTPA and the University of Texas Brownsville - and the creation, from the ground up, of UTRGV's School of Medicine.

Prior to arriving at UTPA, Dr. Rodríguez served as the Deputy Provost, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs and International Programs, and Professor in the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice at the University of Delaware. He was also a core faculty member and director of the Disaster Research Center (DRC), the oldest and one of the leading social science disaster research centers in the world.

Dr. Rodríguez held a faculty position and several administrative positions at the University of Puerto Rico-Mayagüez (UPRM) for over a decade, and served as Director of the Minority Affairs Program for the American Sociological Association (1995-1998). He has also been a visiting professor at the University of Michigan's Population Fellow's Program (Summers, 2001-2003).

Dr. Rodríguez has received numerous recognitions and awards, including the Frey Foundation Distinguished Visiting Professor at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill (2002); the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) National Disaster Medical System (NDMS) Outstanding Achievement Award (2004); was recognized as one of the Hispanics of the Year in the State of Delaware for which he received the Professional Achievement Award (2007); the Alfredo G. de los Santos, Jr. Distinguished Leadership Award from the American Association of Hispanics in Higher Education (2015); was the featured cover story of the national publication, The Hispanic Outlook in Higher Education Magazine (2015); was highlighted in the Bright Spots in Hispanic Education by the White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for Hispanics (September 2015); received the American Association for Access, Equity and Diversity Cesar Estrada Chavez Award (2016); was selected as a 2017 Top Latino Leader by the Council for Latino Workplace Equity; received the 2017 Inspiring Leaders in STEM Award by the INSIGHT Into Diversity Magazine; and was awarded the Presidential Medallion by the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley.

Dr. Rodríguez has served on a number of committees for the National Academy of Sciences and on review panels for the National Science Foundation (NSF) and the Ford Foundation, and was the Chair of the Latina/o Sociology Section of the American Sociological Association.

Dr. Rodríguez has received funding from NSF, the Ford Foundation, the National Institute of Mental Health, FEMA, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and the UPRM Sea Grant Program, among others, for a number of research projects focusing on the social science aspects of disasters and for projects aimed at providing hands-on research training and mentoring to undergraduate and graduate students. He was also the principal investigator for the NSF Research Experience for Undergraduates (REU) Program: Training the Next Generation of Disaster Researchers. Dr. Rodríguez was the principal investigator for an NSF ADVANCE Institutional Transformation grant aimed at increasing the representation, participation, and leadership of women faculty in STEM fields. In addition, he was the Project Leader (with Kristin Croyle) for the AASCU Frontier Set Project, which focuses on student success, funded by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

Dr. Rodríguez has led and participated in a number of field research projects, including trips to Honduras, following Hurricane Mitch; India and Sri Lanka, following the Indian Ocean Tsunami; and the Gulf Coast, following Hurricane Katrina. Dr. Rodríguez has a significant number of publications in the area of disasters, as well as Latinos/as in the United States. He is the co-editor (with Donner and Trainor) of the Handbook of Disaster Research (2018) and co-author (with Mora and Dávila) of Population, Migration, and Socioeconomic Outcomes Among Island and Mainland Puerto Ricans: La Crisis Boricua (2018), among other book publications. He is also a co-author of a book currently under contract focusing on implementing effective warning systems.

His role in community engagement and service to the community, at the local, regional, and national level has been extensive. Dr. Rodríguez has served on numerous community, professional, and university boards, organizations, and committees.

Dr. Rodríguez obtained his PhD in Sociology from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS MARK BENSON

The University at Albany named Mark Benson as director of athletics on August 20, 2014. Benson became the University's second AD since the program entered Division I sports in 1999. As director, Benson provides leadership for UAlbany's NCAA Division I, 18-sport intercollegiate athletics program and its scholar student-athletes.

In his first year, the UAlbany men's and women's athletics teams were recognized in the final Capital One Cup standings, which honors the nation's best Division I athletic programs. The Great Dane women's programs finished 49th, while the men placed 50th out of 106 ranked schools and 347 total NCAA Division I athletic programs.

UAlbany competed in a school-record six NCAA Tournaments in 2014-15, while winning nine conference championships, and was one of three universities in the country to have its men's basketball, women's basketball, men's lacrosse, women's lacrosse, field hockey, and women's golf teams make NCAA Division I Tournament appearances -- the others were Duke and North Carolina. With field hockey's run to the Final Four and men's lacrosse's quarterfinal appearance, the Great Danes boasted two top-10 national finishes under Benson's surveillance.

The success didn't stop in year two as the Great Danes captured the America East Commissioner's Cup for the fourth straight year and fifth time in school history. UAlbany won eighth conference championships in 2015-16 and made five NCAA Tournament appearances.

In his third season, UAlbany earned an America East record nine conference titles for the program's fifth Commissioner's Cup. UAlbany also reached its 100th conference title in Division I on May 14th, 2017. Each men's lacrosse and men's soccer earned home victories in the NCAA Tournament, plus women's basketball earned a conference record sixth consecutive America East Tournament title. Football enjoyed its best season as a CAA member with a 7-4 tally and 4-4 conference record, including a victory over FBS opponent Buffalo.

In addition, in the naming of Tom & Mary Casey Stadium, Benson helped garner a $10 million gift to support the football stadium and other facilities, expand scholarships for student-athletes, and address additional priorities in athletics. The gift was made by The Bernard and Millie Children's Foundation on Oct. 9, 2015.

Prior to UAlbany, Benson was the senior associate athletic director at Old Dominion University. He also served as the assistant vice president for Athletic Development for eight years, and was an adjunct professor in the Sports Management Program. During his time at Old Dominion, Benson was responsible for budget preparation and administration, as well as providing sport supervision for men's and women's sailing. During Benson's tenure at Old Dominion, the Athletic Endowment grew more than $16 million and the Old Dominion Athletic Foundation annual fund grew from $400,000 to $4.1 million. Benson was responsible for soliciting seven $1 million plus gifts to athletics, as well as numerous significant commitments from donors.

Prior to his time at Old Dominion, Benson worked at Coca-Cola Enterprises, Inc. as an Educational Channel manager. In his role with Coca-Cola, he managed the Educational Channel for the Commonwealth Division, which covers sales centers from eastern Delaware to eastern North Carolina. Benson developed financial and marketing proposals as well as negotiated beverage contracts with colleges and universities within his division.

Benson and his wife Hunter are the parents of three daughters, Vandy Grace, Lydon and Hannum, and one son, MJ. He is a graduate of North Carolina State University.

HEAD COACH WILL BROWN

Will Brown begins his 20th season overall as the University at Albany's men's basketball head coach in 2020-21, after spending one season in an interim capacity. Brown, the longest tenured coach in the America East Conference, has led the program to five conference championships, five NCAA Tournament appearances, two CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament appearances, CBI Postseason appearance and an unparalleled success in the classroom.

Brown's five NCAA Tournament appearances as a head coach and five America East titles are the most in conference history. As of the end of the 2019-20 season, his program has been invited to seven postseason tournaments in the previous nine seasons. Additionally, under Brown's leadership, the UAlbany men's basketball program's 25 All-Academic selections are the most in league history, and seven of Brown's student-athletes have been named America East Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Off the court, Brown was the recipient of the 2019-20 St. Peter's Hospital Foundation Catherine McAuley Award for outstanding contributions and commitment to the local Albany community. That same year, he was the recipient of the NABC Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award, the highest honor Coaches vs. Cancer bestows. The national award, granted in conjunction by the NABC, Coaches vs. Cancer, and the American Cancer Society, honors individuals who display commitment, support, and achievement in the fight against cancer. Finally, Brown was named 2019-20's Cystic Fibrosis Northeast Chapter Man of the Year.

Returning a young core, the Great Danes improved their non-conference record by three victories in 2019-20, and their overall record by two. The non-conference schedule was highlighted by trips to St. John's and Boston College, as well as the three-day Bobcats Invitational at Quinnipiac. UAlbany won its first three America East games of the season, winning their conference opener for the first time since the 2015-16 season. UAlbany's 2019-20 season came to an end in the quarterfinal round of the America East Tournament at two-seed Stony Brook.

Brown won his 300th game as head coach of UAlbany on December 14, 2019, an 84-80 comeback victory over visiting Niagara. Brown reached the milestone in his 574th game on the UAlbany sidelines.

Senior guard Ahmad Clark led three Great Danes' All-Conference selections. Clark, who became just the 12th player in Division I program history to score 1,000 career points, earned Second Team honors, while freshman Trey Hutcheson was named All-Rookie and sophomore Adam Lulka was named All-Academic.

Sophomore guard Cameron Healy entered the season hitting a three in 32-straight games. His streak ended on February 22, 2020 against New Hampshire at 58, then the third-longest active streak in the country. Healy, who was a Preseason All-Conference selection, also ended the season ranked fifth nationally in FT%.

The Great Danes set a handful of records during the 2019-20 season. Clark set single-game records for free-throws made (18) and attempted (24) on January 11 against Maine, spurring a single-game team record in the same categories. Romani Hansen, on February 12 at Hartford, set a single-game program record with 18 rebounds. Finally, Healy set the single-game scoring record, going off for 41 against UMass Lowell on January 22.

UAlbany's streak of 20-win seasons came to an end in 2018-19, as the Great Danes finished 12-20 overall with a mark of 7-9 in the America East. UAlbany returned just one starter from the 2017-18 squad, two-time America East All-Defense selection Devonte Campbell, and began the season starting freshmen at three positions. Eventually, the Danes would start four, and then five freshmen, as the season continued. Following a 5-10 non-conference slate, UAlbany opened the America East schedule 0-5, before rebounding to win seven of their last 11 to clinch the six-seed in the 2019 America East Tournament. Redshirt-freshman Cameron Healy was named to the America East All-Rookie Team, and the All-Conference Third Team. Junior Ahmad Clark was also named to the All-Conference Third Team, and senior Devonte Campbell earned his third All-Defensive selection. Cameron Healy finished the season holding both the freshman record for total points in a season, 512, and the overall program record for three-pointers made and attempted in a single season, with 104 and 251, respectively. Healy also led the America East in threes per game, 3.3, and free throw percentage, .884, while Clark finished with the conference lead in assists per game, 4.3.

The Great Danes won 20+ games for the fourth straight year in 2017-18, going 22-10 overall thanks in part to a strong non-conference performance that saw the team peak at #4 in the national Mid-Major poll. Two players, Joe Cremo and David Nichols became the 10th and 11th 1,000-point scorers in program history. The Danes won six straight games to open the season, matching the program's second-best start in history from the 1985-86 season. Brown earned his 275th career victory at UAlbany with a 70-62 win against UMass Lowell on January 18, 2018.

UAlbany earned its third straight 20+ win season in 2016-17, making its sixth consecutive postseason with a bid in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. Finishing third in the America East, UAlbany defeated Stony Brook on the road to pick up a berth in the America East title game, eventually finishing the year at 21-14 including the program's first-ever victory over a Big Ten team with an 87-81 win at Penn State. UAlbany led the America East in free throw percentage, rebounding margin and offensive rebounding with a team that saw three new starters in every lineup from the year before. Brown earned his 250th career victory at UAlbany with a 84-65 win vs. Binghamton on Jan. 19, 2017.

David Nichols earned America East All-Conference First Team, setting a program record with 248 field goals made and finishing in the top-5 with 17.9 points per game. Joe Cremo earned a place on the All-Conference Second Team with he, Nichols and Mike Rowley all being honored on the America East All-Academic Team. Rowley also earned the America East Elite 17 Award for having the highest GPA among players of junior standing or higher in the America East title game. Devonte Campbell picked up an America East All-Defensive Team nod.

The Great Danes made their first program appearance in the CBI in 2015-16, marking the fifth consecutive year with national postseason attention for Brown's squad. UAlbany won an all-time best 24 regular season games, going 24-7 prior to the postseason. Brown & co., reached 20 wins at the fastest pace in program history en route to a 13-3 clip in America East Conference play. The 2015-16 Danes won 19 straight games in the confines of SEFCU Arena, including ending Stony Brook's nation-best 18-game winning streak on Feb. 17. The Purple & Gold was also a national leader in free throws made, free throws attempted, free throw percentage and three-point field goal percentage defense.

Individually, Joe Cremo was named the America East Rookie and Sixth Man of the Year to highlight conference regular season awards. The freshman was the first to take Rookie of the Year honors since Jon Iati in 2003-04, and the third Great Dane to do so overall with the inclusion of program standout Jamar Wilson. Evan Singletary was the first UAlbany player to garner back-to-back All-Conference First Team accolades since Jamar Wilson in 2005-06 & 2006-07. Ray Sanders claimed his spot on the All-Conference First Team and All-Defensive squad, marking the first time a Great Dane has received both honors in a single season since Brian Lillis in 2007-08. Senior guard Peter Hooley also picked up his fourth career All-Conference honor on the Third Team.

2014-15 was an unprecedented season for the Great Danes, earning their best Division I winning percentage (24-9, .727) and tying their highest win total. UAlbany went 15-1 in America East Conference play and 8-0 on the road to earn its second regular season title and No. 1 seed in the league tournament. Playing all three conference postseason games in the confines of SEFCU Arena, Brown earned his third consecutive and fifth overall America East Tournament title, 51-50 over Stony Brook. Peter Hooley hit a last-second three from the top of the key for the victory. The Danes continued on to Columbus, Ohio in the East Regional to face No. 3 seed Oklahoma as the 14-seed in the NCAA Second Round. UAlbany fell 69-60 in its fifth Division I NCAA Tournament appearance.

In the midst of its 15-1 America East record, the Purple & Gold went on a Division I record 13-game winning streak from Jan. 3-Feb. 13. Brown also took his 200th career victory on Jan. 14 against Binghamton, 73-58.

Under Brown's guidance, a program record four players were named to the America East All-Conference teams, including Sam Rowley, Peter Hooley, Evan Singletary and Ray Sanders. Hooley earned Capital One CoSIDA Academic All-District First Team honors for the second-straight year, and was honored as a SUNY Chancellor's Award for Academic Excellence Recipient. Rowley and Hooley were also named to the America East All-Academic Team for the second-straight year, en route to tying the program record for All-Academic picks with three.

Brown earned the program's first NCAA Division I Tournament win in 2013-14 when the Purple & Gold took down Mount St. Mary's in the First Four 71-64 in Dayton, Ohio. He led UAlbany to its second-straight America East title in 2013-14, as the No. 4 seed. The Great Danes repeated their feat as the lowest seed to ever win the tournament, once again knocking off the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds and taking the title on the road.

He was also named the top value coach among Division I head coaches in 2013-14 by HoopDirt.com. The Great Danes also earned the NABC Academic Excellence Award for earning a GPA of 3.0 or above in 2013-14. In addition, the Purple & Gold earned a program-record five spots on the NABC Honors Court, recognizing student-athletes with a GPA of 3.2 or above.

The 2012-13 Great Danes arguably ended their season as their most successful in league history with a 24-11 record, a NCAA Tournament Second Round appearance and won the America East Conference Tournament Championship. Following his third conference tournament championship, he became the fourth America East Conference head coach with at least three conference tournament titles. The 24 wins is a program-best for most wins in a season at UAlbany in Division I. The Great Danes set a record for most non-conference wins in school history with 12.

UAlbany finished the 2011-12 season at 19-15 and a 9-7 conference record. For the third time under Brown's tutelage, the Great Danes earned a postseason berth. UAlbany faced off against Manhattan in the 2012 CollegeInsider.com Tournament. The Great Danes defeated New Hampshire in the first round of the America East Conference Tournament only to fall short to No.1 seed Stony Brook, on a last-second tip-in, in the Semifinals 57-55.

The Great Danes, with a 9-7 conference record in the 2010-11 season, vaulted near the top of the conference standings with a third place finish. UAlbany's nine-win improvement from the previous season was the second-best turnaround in the program's 97 seasons.

In 2008-09, the UAlbany program won 15 or more games for the fourth consecutive season for the first time in 14 years. The Great Danes, who advanced to the America East semifinals for the third time in a four-year period, became the first seventh seed to defeat a second seed in America East Conference Tournament history.

The Great Danes finished in the upper echelon of the America East Conference by tying for second place in the standings in the 2007-08 campaign. UAlbany won 10 or more conference games for the third consecutive year. Brown guided the Great Danes to their second straight America East Conference championship after defeating top-seed Vermont in the 2007 tournament final. The Great Danes, who earned an automatic NCAA berth, were seeded No. 13 against Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season winner Virginia. Brown's team totaled 20 victories during the regular season for the first time at the Division I level. UAlbany tied the second-highest single-season win total (23) in school history and posted consecutive 20-win campaigns for the first time in 17 years. Jamar Wilson made his second appearance on the Associated Press All-America squad.

Brown led the Great Danes to their first-ever NCAA Division I Tournament berth in 2005-06 after winning both the America East Conference tournament and regular-season titles. UAlbany set the program's Division I record for single-season victories with a 21-11 record and produced its highest win total since 1993-94. His squad posted UAlbany's first postseason triumph in 11 years with three wins in America East tournament play. The Great Danes, who also established their top conference mark with 13 victories in the regular season, went on to put up a monumental fight against second-ranked Connecticut in a memorable NCAA first-round battle. Brown was named the New York State Coach of the Year.

In 2004-05, Coach Brown led UAlbany to an eight-win improvement from the previous season. The Great Danes registered their best-ever league record at the time with a 9-9 mark and a fourth-place finish. UAlbany also tied the fourth-best improvement among Division I teams which recorded single-digit victories in 2003-04, as only Texas A&M, San Diego and Houston were better.

Brown was appointed as UAlbany's head coach on March 13, 2002, and has worked on the collegiate level since 1995. He became the 15th head coach in the history of the program. At age 40, Brown is still one of the youngest Division I head coaches in the nation.

Coach Brown and his wife, Jamie, work closely with many charitable organizations in the Capital District and surrounding areas. Jamie currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Big Brothers, Big Sisters Organization of the Capital Region. She also serves as the Associate Board of Directors for St. Peter's Hospital and co-chairs Coaches vs. Cancer to benefit the American Cancer Society. The Browns are also involved with the upstate Northeastern New York chapter of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America.

Brown, who joined the UAlbany staff as an assistant in Sept. 2001, was promoted to interim head coach on Dec. 20 of that year, and guided the Great Danes to a 7-13 record over the last 20 games. UAlbany was among the conference leaders in scoring defense. He coached the team to several impressive victories, including a win over Vermont, the America East Conference's regular-season champion.

Brown previously served as the head coach at Sullivan County Community College in Loch Sheldrake, N.Y., from 1998-2001. He led the Generals to a 90-10 record over a three-year period with two regional and two district titles. Sullivan County C.C. posted a 30-2 record and reached the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) championship game in 2000-01. Brown's first SCCC squad appeared in the NJCAA "Final Four" and finished 32-3 overall. The Generals were ranked second nationally in scoring at 92.9 points per game, and ninth in team defense with a 67.1 average.

Brown was chosen the New York State Coaches Association junior college coach of the year in 1999. He also earned Mid-Hudson Conference coach of the year honors three times, and was District V's Coach of the Year twice. In addition, he worked at Sullivan County C.C. as an associate athletic director and as an adjunct professor of sports management.

Previous to his appointment at Sullivan County C.C., Brown spent three years at The College of Saint Rose as an assistant coach on Brian Beaur's staff. The Golden Knights made two NCAA Division II "Elite Eight" appearances in that span, and captured three New York Collegiate Athletic Conference (NYCAC) championships and two Northeast Regional crowns. Saint Rose compiled an 88-13 record from 1995-98.

As a collegiate player, Brown was a two-time NYCAC all-star and three-year starter at Dowling College, an NCAA Division II program on Long Island. He is the only player in school history to combine for more than 1,000 points and 500 assists. Brown completed his career as Dowling's all-time leader in assists (591), three-point field goals (181) and free throw percentage (.859). He also played second singles on the school's tennis team.

A native of Miller Place, N.Y., Brown earned first-team Class B all-state recognition as a high school senior, when he averaged more than 35 points per game. He was chosen All-Long Island and was a three-time All-Suffolk County selection. In May 2010, Brown was inducted into the Suffolk Sports Hall of Fame.

In 2011, Coach Brown received the National Sportsmanship Award, organized by the St. Louis Sports Commission and the Citizenship Through Sports Alliance. He was honored for allowing an Xavier University player to travel on the team bus to Cincinnati, Ohio following a December snow blizzard. Additionally, UAlbany's basketball program was recognized with the America East Conference Sportsmanship Award.

Brown resides in Latham with his wife, Jamie, and their two sons, Jackson and Landon. Brown has a master's degree in management and a B.A. in marketing from Dowling College. His father, William, Jr., has served as director of athletics at Miller Place High School, where he previously was head basketball coach for 17 years. His teams won three Suffolk County League VII scholastic titles.

JON IATI

Associate Head Coach • UAlbany '07 • 9th season

Jon Iati, with the team since 2012, was promoted to associate head coach for the 2017-18 season. He has since helped UAlbany to six consecutive national postseason appearances, including three consecutive America East Championships from 2013-15.

Prior to his appointment at UAlbany, Iati spent four years on staff with the Quinnipiac Bobcats out of the MAAC.

In the 2016-17, two UAlbany guards earned America East All-Conference honors, with David Nichols on the First Team and Joe Cremo on the Second Team, and a third, Devonte Campbell, on the league's all-defensive team. Nichols and Cremo each finished top-10 in the America East in scoring.

Iati recruited freshmen Joe Cremo to America East Rookie of the Year and Sixth Man of the Year honors in 2015-16. He also coached and recruited arguably one of the most successful backcourts for the Great Danes, as Ray Sanders and Evan Singletary both earned nods on the America East All-Conference First Team.

In 2015, Iati was responsible for the recruitment of three starters on the America East Tournament and America East Regular Season Championship squad. Included in those three student-athletes were America East All-Conference First Team selection Evan Singletary as well as All-Defensive & Third Team pick Ray Sanders.

Combined with his time at Quinnipiac, Iati has made seven consecutive appearances in national postseason tournaments, including three straight NCAA Tournaments with the Great Danes in his first three years. He helped guide UAlbany to 67 victories over that three-season span.

A five-time America East Champion as coach and player with the Great Danes, Iati serves as recruiting coordinator for the Northeast and Canada, junior college transfers, Florida, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Utah and Wyoming.

Iati scored 1,142 points in his career at UAlbany, leading the Great Danes to two America East Conference Championships and two NCAA Tournament appearances. He was named the 2004 America East Rookie of the Year, and led the nation in minutes played in 2003-04. He graduated as UAlbany's career leader in games played, while also ranking second and sixth, respectively, in three-pointers made and points scored all-time for the Great Danes in Division I play.

A standout in high school, Iati was the York Catholic (Pa.) all-time leading scorer with 2,216 points, before being surpassed by his brother, Jacob (2,388 points) in 2008. He also holds the single-game scoring record with 56 points against York Suburban at the 2001 Special Olympics Holiday Classic. Iati was the 2002-03 York Area Interscholastic Athletic Association League Player of the Year while also earning Associated Press All-State First Team recognition. He was inducted into the York Catholic Athletic Hall of Fame on Feb. 1, 2014.

A native of York, Pa., whose family resides on Long Island, Iati received his degree from UAlbany in sociology with a minor in education in 2007 and a graduate degree in liberal studies in 2009.

JOSH PELLETIER

Assistant Coach • Saint Rose '09, UAlbany '12 • 10th season

Pelletier begins his 10th season with the Great Danes in the 2018-19 season, entering his fifth year as an assistant coach. He recruits throughout the Northeast and nationally, specifically prep schools in New England. Pelletier has placed a heavy emphasis on recruiting in Australia and other international regions as well as portions of the Midwest, Texas and junior colleges.

He recruited David Nichols, the only sophomore in UAlbany history to be selected as America East All-Conference First Team in the 2016-17 season. Nichols finished with 625 points, the second-highest single scoring season in UAlbany history, and was the America East Scholar-Athlete of the Year for men's basketball.

In his first three years as an assistant coach, he helped UAlbany tie a Division I record 24 wins in the first two seasons and combined for 69 victories in the three years, the highest in any three-year period in the program's history.

Working with both guards and forwards, Pelletier has coached four America East All-Conference First Team players in Nichols, Sam Rowley, Ray Sanders and Evan Singletary, plus Joe Cremo, the America East Rookie of the Year and Sixth Man of the Year in the 2015-16 season.

Head coach Will Brown announced the appointment of former graduate assistant Pelletier to the position of assistant coach on July 23, 2014. Pelletier spent two years as a graduate assistant and one as a volunteer video coordinator with the Great Danes from 2009-2012.

The Troy, N.Y., native spent one season with Duquesne of the Atlantic-10 in 2013-14. As the Director of Basketball Administration, Pelletier oversaw the team's summer camp operations as well as its community outreach initiatives. He served as the team's primary contact for donor and alumni relations in addition to coordinating the team's travel and daily itinerary. Pelletier also developed scouting and recruiting strategies in conjunction with the Duquesne coaching staff.

Pelletier served as the Director of Basketball Operations for the Blackbirds in 2012. He spent one season at LIU Brooklyn, assisting the coaching staff with scouting, player development, recruiting and film exchange. Pelletier served as the program's community outreach liaison as well as an academic advisor during the 2012-13 season. The Blackbirds made their third consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2012-13 after earning the NEC's automatic qualifier for the third straight year.

In two seasons as Will Brown's graduate assistant, Pelletier coordinated recruiting visits, travel itineraries and was responsible for game film exchange. He also served as co-director of the Will Brown Basketball Camp.

A 2009 graduate of the College of Saint Rose, Pelletier was a four-year letter-winner for Brian Beaurry and guided the Golden Knights to three NCAA Division II Tournament appearances. He was also named a team captain in his senior season. Pelletier graduated from St. Rose with a degree in social studies and a secondary education before pursuing a master's degree in liberal studies at UAlbany.

In the high school ranks, Pelletier played locally for La Salle Institute in Troy, N.Y., in addition to his AAU time with the Albany City Rocks. He was named to the All-Area Times Union First Team as a junior and senior for the Cadets, as well as becoming the all-time leading scorer.

JERRAD KNOTTS

Assistant Coach • UAlbany '06 • 10th season

Knotts enters his sixth season as an assistant coach in 2018-19 after serving four years as the director of operations under Will Brown.

A four-year member of the Purple & Gold from 2003-06, Knotts assists Brown in all facets of the program, including recruiting, player development, scouting opponents and academic advising for men's basketball student-athletes.

In his four years as director of operations with the program, Knotts served as an academic advisor for select players. He also coordinated the Will Brown Basketball Camp and annual men's basketball golf outing. The point person for travel logistics and administrative duties, Knotts has helped the Danes to three consecutive America East titles. A native of San Bernardino, California, Knotts rounds out the coaching staff that already includes fellow men's basketball alum Jon Iati and Josh Pelletier.

He has previously worked as a microcomputer technician at Hudson Valley Community College and an IT specialist for the New York State Department of Health.

Knotts earned four varsity letters and appeared in 73 career games as a member of the UAlbany basketball program from 2003-06. As a senior, the 6-foot-6 forward helped the Great Danes capture their first America East Conference championship and NCAA Tournament berth in 2005-06.

A three-sport scholastic athlete in football, basketball and lacrosse, Knotts attended St. James School in Hagerstown, Md. He was chosen the 2002 Tri-State Small School Player of the Year and was selected to the All-Washington County and All-Mid Atlantic Conference teams.

A native of San Bernardino, Calif., Knotts received a B.A. in information science and policy with a minor in education from UAlbany in 2006. Knotts and his wife, the former Allison Brown and son Jalen reside in Clifton Park.

GREIG STIRE

Director of Operations • UAlbany '18 • 3rd season

After using his final semester of eligibility playing for the UAlbany football team following the conclusion of his basketball career, Stire returned to UAlbany men's basketball on the sidelines to take over as video coordinator mid-way through the 2018-19 season. Stire played four years for UAlbany, averaging 6.2 points and 5.6 rebounds per game in 132 appearances for the Great Danes. At the time of his graduation, Stire holds the program record for single season total rebounds with 266 and rebounding average with 8.3, and a share of the single-game program record for rebounds with 15. Stire's 132 games played rank second in program history, one game behind Blake Metcalf, and his 99 career starts rank in a tie for third.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

Located in New York's capital city, the University at Albany is the premier public research University in the Capital Region and offers more than 17,000 students the expansive opportunities of a large university in an environment designed to foster individual success.

The excellence of a UAlbany education is recognized by many independent sources. UAlbany is ranked among the top universities in Forbes' "America's Best Public Colleges," and U.S. News & World Report consistently ranks many of our graduate programs among the top 50 in the United States, including clinical psychology, criminal justice, library and information studies, public affairs, public health, sociology, and social work.

UAlbany's student body and faculty represent more than 100 nations.

Since its founding in 1844, UAlbany has graduated generations of leaders in all fields. Our alumni include Monte and Avery Lipman, founders and chief officers of one of the world's premier recording labels (Jesse J, Florida Georgia Line, Drake), Republic Records; former Secretary of the Army John McHugh; and trailblazing neuroscientist Sheila Nirenberg, winner of a MacArthur Foundation "Genius Grant."

Today, UAlbany has a global network of more than 174,000 alumni making a difference around the world.

118 CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS
SINCE GOING DIVISION I

56 NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES
SINCE GOING DIVISION I

The University at Albany is a member of the America East Conference in 16 of 18 varsity sports, while women's golf is an associate member of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), and football, a Division I Football Championship Subdivision program, is an associate member of the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA). UAlbany has earned the Stuart P. Haskell Jr. Commissioner's Cup, which honors the America East's top-performing athletics department, seven times overall, including six-straight years from 2013-2018.

UAlbany has won 118 conference championships and has made 56 NCAA Tournament appearances since moving to Division I in 1999. Proving to be a perennial power, the Great Danes have won seven or more conference titles in each of the past eight years. UAlbany claimed its 100th conference title on May 14, 2017, when softball won the America East Tournament. Entering the 2020-21 school year, UAlbany has 109 America East Tournament titles, six Northeast Conference (NEC) season titles in football, and three MAAC titles in women's golf.

In 2019-20, UAlbany added three conference championships to its total. Volleyball, and men's and women's indoor track & field won titles in the latest academic year. Volleyball won its first title since 2011, while track & field continued its America East dominance seeing the women win their eighth-straight title, and 10th in the last 11 years, and the men won their 14th indoor title in the last 15 years. Additionally, senior Hannah Reinhardt successfully defended her individual America East cross country title, becoming just the fourth woman to win the championship race on her home course, and later became UAlbany's first-ever NCAA Regional champion, winning the Northeast championship in her hometown Buffalo to secure a qualifying berth to NCAA XC Championships. In the fall, football won its first-ever FCS Playoff game, defeating Central Connecticut State at home 42-14 to advance to the FCS Second Round.

On March 12, 2020 the 2019-20 athletics year was cut short due to the outbreak of COVID-19 and the subsequent decisions made by the NCAA and its member conferences and institutions to cancel remaining winter and spring season events. All of UAlbany's winter sports had completed their seasons, but baseball, softball, and men's and women's lacrosse saw their seasons prematurely ended, and track & field and golf, defending America East and MAAC champions, respectively, had not yet had their spring seasons begin.

In 2018-19, UAlbany added eight conference championships to its total. Field hockey, women's soccer, women's cross country, men's and women's indoor track, men's & women's outdoor track as well as women's golf all won titles. Notably, women's cross country and track & field won the "Triple Crown," sweeping the cross country, indoor and outdoor championships.

UAlbany notched seven conference titles in the 2017-2018 season, earning berths into four NCAA Tournaments, including men's lacrosse becoming the first SUNY men's program to reach a Division I Final Four. In addition, men's soccer got past Maryland for a place in the NCAA round of 32. Another pair of teams, women's basketball and volleyball, each earned postseason berths into the WNIT and the NIVC, respectively.

In 2016-2017, UAlbany earned nine America East titles and earned berths into six NCAA Tournaments, with men's soccer and men's lacrosse each hosting NCAA Tournament games as seeded teams and earning victories over Boston College and North Carolina, respectively. The women's basketball team earned its sixth-consecutive America East Tournament title while the men's and women's track teams earned four conference titles combined. The football team earned its best record as a CAA member at 7-4, including victories over FBS opponent Buffalo and NCAA Tournament participants New Hampshire and Saint Francis.

The Great Danes won eight conference championships in 2015-16 and made five NCAA Tournament appearances in field hockey, women's soccer, women's basketball, women's tennis, and men's lacrosse.

Throughout its Division I history, UAlbany has had 20 players selected in the Major League Lacrosse Draft, nine players drafted by Major League Baseball, and 18 sign NFL contracts. The Division I era has also produced UAlbany's first female Olympian, Grace Claxton, a semifinalist in the 400m-hurdles at the Rio 2016 Games competing for Puerto Rico.

UAlbany's more than 400 student-athletes strive every day to be Great Leaders, Great Champions, and Great Danes.
