SCOUTING OKLAHOMA (8-1)

The Sooners come into Tuesday's game on a seven-game winning streak and have only one loss to begin the season. Last weekend, Oklahoma won all four games of the 19 Ways Invitational in Norman. They took two wins against Villanova and had one win each against Northern Illinois and Boston College. The lone loss came to No. 17 Long Beach State on opening weekend.

In their first nine games, the Sooners are hitting .331 and already have 102 hits for the year. Brylie Ware leads the team with a .455 batting average in seven games played. In nine starts, Austin O'Brien has hit .433 with 13 hits.

PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR

After a spectacular 2016 season, the Sun Belt Conference named senior Dalton Thomas as the league's Preseason Player of the Year. Thomas is the first Trojan to ever earn Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year honors.

The Meridian Community College transfer also put together a 21-game hitting streak, 28 multiple-hit games and 12 multiple-RBI games for the Trojans.

In addition to being picked as the top player by the Sun Belt, D1 Baseball and Perfect Game also tabbed Thomas as their pick for the conference's Player of the Year.

Chris Curry

Head Coach

Third Season (44-66)

Arkansas Tech '08

Little Rock native Chris Curry was named head baseball coach at Little Rock on July 1, 2014. A veteran of seven years as a catcher in professional baseball with the Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants organizations, Curry completed his first year as a Division I coach with the Trojans in 2015. Under Curry's leadership, the Trojans swept Louisiana for the first time since 2000, pulled off a 4-3 win over No. 14 Missouri in Columbia, and improved the Trojans' conference record from the prior year.

In his second season in 2016, Curry was named the Sun Belt Conference's Coach of the Year after leading the Trojans to a 17-13 Sun Belt record and a third-place finish during the regular season, both program records. The Trojans were able to win six Sun Belt series for the year, tying the program record. Curry took the Trojans back to the Sun Belt Conference Tournament for the first time since 2013. Little Rock had a pair of wins over No. 16 Louisiana, winning the season series for the second straight year. Under his guidance, the Trojans earned three All-Sun Belt selections while Ryan Scott earned Sun Belt Student-Athlete of the Year and Louisville Slugger First Team All-American.

Before coming to Little Rock, Curry was a top assistant and pitching coach at Northwestern State for two years and previously worked on the baseball staffs at Arkansas, Arkansas Tech, Hendrix and Meridian Community College.

In Curry's second year at Northwestern State, the Demons won 33 games and tied a school record with a 17-win improvement from the previous season, including a Southland Conference record 14-win increase in league play. NSU also boasted the Southland Conference Freshman of the Year and a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American in right-handed pitcher Adam Oller. Centerfielder Bret Underwood, who Curry recruited, was taken by the San Francisco Giants in the 20th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Off the field, the Demons posted a team GPA of 3.0 or higher in each of the four semesters under Curry and head coach Lane Burroughs.

Prior to his stint at Northwestern State, Curry served as head coach of Meridian CC from 2011-12. He went 69-44 in two seasons at Meridian CC, capturing a Miss-Lou Conference Championship and earning Coach of the Year honors in 2012. Curry coached two junior college All-Americans and produced the NJCAA national home run leader in both seasons. Two of his players were selected in the 2012 Major League Baseball Player's Draft while the team raised its cumulative GPA from 2.62 to 3.30 with Curry at the helm.

"Little Rock could not have made a better choice in the hiring of Chris Curry as their new head baseball coach," said former Meridian CC teammate and Cy Young Award winner Cliff Lee. "As a former teammate of Chris, I can say that he will bring a fire and passion for the game that will take the program to an elite level. Chris is one of the best baseball minds I've ever been associated with and an even better person. We're excited to have him back home."

Curry worked as an assistant coach under head coach Dave Van Horn at Arkansas from 2009-10. He worked with the catchers and assisted with hitting duties in his time with the Razorbacks, which included a College World Series appearance in 2009 and an NCAA Super Regional in 2010.

"Chris is a tremendous hire," said Van Horn, who previously served as Northwestern State's head coach from 1995-97. "I had the opportunity to coach with Chris for two years and he proved that he was one of the top up-and-coming young coaches in college baseball. Chris is a tireless worker that will make Little Rock proud."

In 2009, Arkansas led the Southeastern Conference in runners caught stealing after placing last in the league in that category the year before Curry's arrival. The Razorbacks led the SEC with just three passed balls in 2010.

"As an alumnus of Little Rock baseball, I couldn't be more excited about the hiring of Chris Curry, as I believe he's the top, up-and-coming baseball coach in the country," said Little Rock Athletics Hall of Fame member and current sports agent Darek Braunecker. "His playing career speaks for itself and his pedigree is virtually unmatched in the college coaching ranks. I believe he is the perfect person to lead Little Rock baseball to unprecedented heights. Most importantly, he's a man of utmost integrity and character who will demand accountability and respect while producing quality baseball players and outstanding young men."

Curry worked as an assistant coach at Arkansas Tech in 2008, helping the Wonder Boys raise their team batting average 26 points (.311) and producing the Gulf South Conference individual batting champion in Jantzen Black (.452). In addition to hitting duties, Curry worked with the Arkansas Tech catchers, coached third base and handled recruiting duties.

"Chris is the perfect guy for the job," said Derin McMains, former Little Rock baseball All-American and current San Francisco Giants Peak Performance Coordinator. "He's an excellent communicator, maintains a high level of integrity and moral authority, and understands how to connect and get the most out of collegiate baseball players. Between his successful collegiate and professional playing experience, it would be difficult to find someone that could match his baseball experience and knowledge. On top of all that, he is a local guy that understands the importance of connecting with a community and can generate excitement for the program."

Curry's seven-year pro playing career included appearances in major league spring training games from 2002-05 and allowed him to catch big leaguers Kerry Wood, Carlos Zambrano, Mark Prior and Tom Gordon. Curry worked his way up to the Chicago Cubs' Triple-A affiliate between 1999-02. He finished his pro career as an All-Star with the independent Northern League's Gary Southshore Railcats in 2006.

Curry played his high school baseball at Conway High School and was an All-State pitcher and catcher for the Wampus Cats. He played two seasons at Meridian CC and was Baseball America's No. 1-rated junior college prospect in the nation in 1998. He was the starting catcher for Team USA's Junior College All-Star Team that same year.

Following two All-Miss-Lou Conference and All-Region 23 seasons at Meridian CC, Curry signed with legendary coach Ron Polk at Mississippi State. He led all SEC catchers in fielding percentage in 1999 before being chosen by the Chicago Cubs in the ninth round of the 1999 MLB Draft.

Curry's selection by Chicago marked his fourth time being drafted. He was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the 26th round as a high school senior in 1996 and twice by the Detroit Tiger, first in the 17th round in 1997 and again in the 52nd round in 1998.

He is married to the former Chassity Cossey of Hamburg, Arkansas. The couple has one son, Caleb Christopher, and one daughter, Lily Marie.
