A LITTLE ROCK WIN WOULD...

- Mark Little Rock's first-ever win in OVC play.
- Mark Little Rock's first win over UT Martin since 2003.
- Record the Trojans' first win at Simmons Bank Arena since 2003.
- Mark the fourth home win of the season for the Trojans.
- Register Joe Foley's 837th win as a head coach (but who's counting?).
- Give Joe Foley his 381st win as head coach of the Trojans.
 - Be better than a loss.

OPENING TIP

- Little Rock introduces itself to the OVC as the Trojans play its first-ever conference game in the league.
- UT Martin, the super-secret hush-hush opponent of Little Rock the past seven years, plays the Trojans above board and on the straight and narrow.
- Jaiyah Harris-Smith is averaging 37.03 mpg, ranking her 12th in the country and first in the OVC.
 Little Rock's Nikki Metcalfe is averaging 1.4 blocks per game ranking her 97th in the country and first in the OVC.
 - LR is averaging 2.0 charges drawn per game.
- The Trojans rank in the top 60 in the country in opposing team steals.
- Joe Foley has reached 800+ career wins, ranking him third in the nation among active Division I head coaches.
- Little Rock continutes its mantra of playing the toughest competition available in the non-conference slate. The Trojans will face five Southeastern Conference (SEC) teams along with Missouri State before opening OVC play.

BRAND NEW OPPONENT? OR SUPER SECRET OPPONENT?

According to the record books and on the face of things, Thursday's contest against Little Rock and UT Martin is the first real meeting since the 2003-04 season, when Joe Foley was in his first year guiding the Trojans. But in a super secret hush-hush turn of events, this is approximately the eighth consecutive season the two programs will face each other on the hardwood. The Trojans and the Skyhawks have been each other's super secret scrimmage partners in each of the past seven seasons, but don't tell the NCAA that because the games never existed. Because they didn't. Or did they? We'll never tell.

BANK ON IT

Thursday's game at Simmons Bank Arena marks the first time since 2019 that the Trojans have played at Simmons Bank Arena in North Little Rock and the first time since 2005 that Little Rock will be the host team at the North Little Rock venue. This time, however, it is due to a facility issue at the Jack Stephens Center. The Trojans are 8-19 all-time at Simmons Bank Arena (formery Verizon Wireless Arena and Alltel Arena) while Joe Foley is 0-2 all-time coaching at the facility. See Little Rock's complete history at Simmons Bank Arena on Page 5.

FEELING RIGHT AT HOME

If Angelique Francis enters the game Thursday with a determined look on her face, watch out because history might repeat itself. The last time the Trojan forward played on the court at Simmons Bank Arena, it was her freshman season as Little Rock faced the Razorbacks and the then-freshman was a force to contend with, rattling off what remains a career-high 15 points, a mark she matched last January at South Alabama.

TROJANS IN CONFERENCE OPENERS

Little Rock has won eight straight conference openers but its fortunes in the first league game of the season has been a recent wave of success. Overall, Little Rock is 12-15 all-time in conference openers while compiling a 12-11 record in Sun Belt openers. Joe Foley, currently in his 20th season at the helm of the program, has guided Little Rock to a 12-7 mark in league openers. The last time Little Rock lost its conference opener came on Jan. 2, 2014 in San Marcos when Texas State claimed a 50-39 win.

CAN THE TROJANS GET TO .500?

The last time Little Rock debuted in a new conference, it was Jan. 8, 2000 and most of the players on the court weren't even born yet. In the Trojans' Sun Belt Conference debut, Arkansas State was quite rude with the 82-49 decision over Little Rock in a game played in Jonesboro. The 2022-23 Trojans looked to start OVC competition off in better fashion Thursday night against UT Martin.

JACK SQUAT

That is UT Martin's experience at the Jack Stephens Center. The Skyhawks will have to wait another season to experience the premiere facility in the OVC as this is their first visit to the Capital City since the 2003-04 season, when Little Rock's Team played a majority of their games at Trojan Fieldhouse. Thursday's game marks only the second time that UT Martin has visited Little Rock.

JACK SQUAT - PART II

Little Rock extended a nearly two decades-long streak on Dec. 18 and Arkansas State was reminded why the Jack Stephens Center is nothing more than a House of Horrors. With the Trojans' 60-44 win over the rival Red Wolves, Little Rock won its 18th consecutive home game against A-State and kept them winless all-time at the Jack Stephens Center. ASU had entered the game averaging over 72 ppg but was held to season lows in points scored, field goal percentage and 3-point field goal percentage as Little Rock used a 13-0 run early in the second half to put the game out of reach.

IS METCALFE A FAN OF LEGOS?

We assume so because she likes playing with blocks. Nikki Metcalfe enters this game ranked 97th nationally and leading the OVC with 1.36 blocks per game while her 15 total blocks this season ranks her 113th nationally and also leads the OVC. She has recorded a block in every single game except two this year and registered a season-high five blocks against Arkansas State on Dec. 18, a number that ties for the most blocks in a single game any OVC player has recorded this year and ties for the fifth-most in school history.

TROJAN TANDEM ON THE BOARDS

If the ball doesn't drop through the net (and we've seen that a bit this year), Little Rock has a tandem of players that are relentless on the boards to give the Trojans a second chance, or to take away a second chance from opponents. Entering this game, Jaiyah Harris-Smith ranks sixth in the OVC in rebounds per game (6.36) while Angelique Francis ranks seventh (6.22). That makes Little Rock the only team in the OVC with multiple players ranked so high on the conference leaderboard while Southern Indiana and Tennessee State are the only other schools with multiple players in the top 10.

BUT IT IS FOR HARRIS-SMITH

Jaiyah Harris-Smith is fully in the giving spirit as the Trojan sophomore ranks 45th in the nation and second in the OVC with an average of 4.8 assists per game. Her 53 assists so far this year ranks her 65th nationally and second in the OVC.

REMEMBER THE NAME

You might want to go ahead and memorize the name Jaiyah Harris-Smith if, for no other reason, than she's always on the floor. Harris-Smith leads the OVC and ranks 12th in the nation by averaging 37.03 minutes per game. Considering she's among the conference leaders in rebounds and assists, we have a feeling that name will probably show up a time or two on opposing team scouting reports.

ABOUT UT MARTIN

- ★ UT Martin enters Wednesday's game with a 4-7 record and a 2-3 mark in road games.
- ★ This game marks UT Martin's fifth consecutive road game. The Skyhawks have not played at home since Nov. 30.
- ★ Thanks to the winter storm postponing UTM's Dec. 22 game at Evansville, this will be the first time the Skyhawks will step on a court to play since Dec. 17.
- ★ UT Martin opens OVC play looking to continue its tradition of success. Since the 2010- 11 season, the Skyhawks have posted a 161-44 record (78.5 winning percentage) against league foes while claiming six regular season titles and four tournament crowns. This season's conference grind will see a few new stops along the way with the league's 18- game schedule featuring debut seasons for new OVC members Lindenwood, Little Rock and Southern Indiana.
- ★This season's Skyhawk squad has featured contributions from both ends of the roster's spectrum. UT Martin has claimed five OVC Freshman of the Week honors this season from its standout duo of Kenley McCarn (19.8 ppg, 4.3 rpg) and Sharnecce Currie-Jelks (13.8 ppg, 6.5 rpg). Additionally, graduate guard and All-OVC performer Paige Pipkin ranks as the team's third double-digit scorer with 10.9 points per game.
- ★ The coaching matchup features two veterans at the helm with Skyhawk head coach Kevin McMillan boasting a 256-167 record in 14 seasons including a 169-54 mark in league play. On the other bench, the Trojans are under the direction of head coach Joe Foley who entered the season with a 821-294 overall record in 35 collegiate seasons while going 365-149 in 19 years at Little Rock.
- ★ With a career record of 256-167, UT Martin head coach Kevin McMillan currently ranks third in total wins in Ohio Valley Conference history. McMillan also ranks first amongst active coaches.
- ★ Forward Sharnecce Currie-Jelks has picked up three OVC Freshman of the Week honors after stringing together nine consecutive games in double figures. She picked up her first honor in Week 3 (Nov. 21-27) after scoring in double figures in all three games of the Hostilo Hoops Community Classic against foes Marshall, Norfolk State and Purdue Fort Wayne. Currie-Jelks averaged 16.0 points and 4.7 rebounds per game while shooting 51.4 percent from the floor. Then she averaged 14.5 points and 8.0 rebounds per game after a pair of Week 4 matchups against Murray State and Vanderbilt. She picked up another after averaging 17.0 points and 4.7 rebounds per game against South Dakota State, South Dakota and Missouri State.
- ★ Freshman forward Sharnecce Currie-Jelks has been a force through the first 11 games of her Skyhawk career. Currie-Jelks has been named OVC Freshman of the Week three times already while scoring in double figures in nine contests including a pair of 20+ point performances against South Dakota (23) and Purdue Fort Wayne (21). She also notched her first career double-double in her collegiate debut against Troy with 14 points and 15 rebounds.
- ★ Freshman forward Anaya Brown became just the third active member of the Skyhawks joining Ella Thompson and Sharnecce Currie-Jelks to record a double-double with an impressive contest at South Dakota. Brown helped lead the Skyhawks to a victory after tallying 10 points and 11 rebounds both career highs.
- \bigstar UT Martin boasts the highest NET rating in the OVC, ranking at No. 167.
- ★ UT Martin's mascot is Captain Skyhawk, a moniker it received in 1995. We're unsure why he hasn't been promoted to Major in the intervening 27 years.

SERIES HISTORY vs. UT MARTIN

- ★ This will be just the fifth meeting between the Trojans and the Skyhawks in a series that dates back to the 1978-79 season.
- ★ The last time these two teams played, Alicia Cash wore a Trojans uniform. She's now in her 14th season on staff.
- ★ While these two teams have met on four prior occasions, this will be the first meeting between the two in OVC play.
- ★ UT Martin has never played a game at the Jack Stephens Center.

YOU'VE GOTTA HAVE FAITH

George Michael knew what he was talking about in his song lyrics. That's because Little Rock's Faith Lee is having a strong start to her freshman season. She enters this game ranked 20th nationally and third in the OVC among freshmen by averaging 4.1 two-point field goals made per game. Meanwhile her 10.1 ppg ranks her 57th nationally and third in the OVC among all freshmen. She is one of only 61 freshmen in the country to be currently averaging 10.0 points or more per game.

FAITH(FUL)LEE

Faith Lee was recognized by the Ohio Valley Conference on Dec. 27 as the OVC's Freshman of the Week. Lee led the OVC in scoring against Division I opponents in the week before Christmas as she put up a career-high 17 points at Missouri State. The Louisiana native shot 40% from the field and added two rebounds, one assist and one steal in nearly 35 minutes of action as Little Rock forced at least 16 turnovers for the sixth consecutive contest.

That marks her second such honor in three weeks, repeating the announcement on Dec. 13 as she was named the league's Co-Freshman of the Week, splitting the honor with Southeast Missouri's Alecia Doyle. Lee shot nearly 59% from the field last week as Little Rock toppled a Southeastern Conference team for the third straight year by shutting down Texas A&M in a 42-38 win at the Jack Stephens Center. Her 58.8% mark from the field was the fourth-best among all OVC players last week as she averaged 10.0 points per game. Lee averaged 3.0 rebounds and 0.5 assists per game as the Trojans split the week's action, leading Little Rock at Western Kentucky Sunday afternoon with a game-high 12 points.

STINGY DEFENSE

This game is shaping up to be a battle of wills and whomever wins out will likely not be able to do so easily. So far this season, Little Rock's defense has held opponents to just 9.4 assists per game, ranking the Trojans 19th in the nation and leads the OVC. In fact, no other OVC program is holding their opponents under 12.0 assists per game. On the other hand, UT Martin's 11.5 assists per game ranks the Skyhawks 244th in the country and third in the Ohio Valley.

Additionally, Trojan opponents have just a 42.4% assisted shot rate, ranking Little Rock 13th in the nation. That mark is the lowest opponent assisted shot rate by an OVC team since at least the 2009-10 season, when that data began to be tracked. UT Martin's 51.6% assisted shot rate mark ranks the Skyhawks 232nd nationally. Lindenwood is the only other OVC team holding their opponents under the 50% assisted shot rate mark. The assisted shot rate is the percentage of field goals made by a team that were assisted.

DEATH. TAXES. JOE FOLEY'S DEFENSE.

If there's one thing coaches don't want to face, it's Joe Foley's defense. If there's two things they don't want to face, it's Joe Foley's defense twice in the same season. That is because Little Rock and Joe Foley have set the standard when it comes to the Trojans defensive efforts, ranking in the top two of their conference in 11 of the past 12 years in scoring defense while ranking in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense in nine of past 12 years. The 2021-22 season was no different as Little Rock led the Sun Belt and ranked 49th in the nation in scoring defense.

WE DON'T SHARE WELL WITH OTHERS

One of the best anti-theft devices is ... the Little Rock Trojans. The Trojans enter this game with opposing teams averaging just 6.4 steals per game against Little Rock, a mark that ranks the Maroon and Silver 60th in the nation and leads the OVC. That includes an opposing team steal rate of just 8.1%, ranking Little Rock 83rd in the country and ranks second in the Ohio Valley. Little Rock is one of only two OVC program holding teams under 7.0 steals per game and a steal rate of less than 8.5%.

FORCING THE ISSUE

Little Rock enters this game ranked 97th in the nation and fifth in the OVC by forcing an average of 18.64 turnovers per game. If you haven't been paying attention, that's no surprise with the suffocating defense for which Joe Foley-coached teams are usually known and is even more impressive considering the challenging schedule the Trojans play.

POSITIVE MARGINS

The Trojans have found initial success this season creating a positive turnover margin, entering this game with a +1.27 turnover margin so far this season. That places Little Rock 146th in the nation and sixth in the

CHARGE IT

Little Rock's defense is not a cash-operating group. The Trojans have drawn 22 charges through 11 games so far this year, averaging 2.0 charges drawn per game. Little Rock came out of the gate with its stingy defense, drawing five charges in the season-opener against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Nov. 10. That's the most in a single game in recent memory. Last year, the Trojans drew four charges at South Alabama in a 74-52 win in Mobile.

CALL HER A SERVER...

... because she can dish it out. Entering this match-up, Jaiyah Harris-Smith ranks 44th in the country and leads the Ohio Valley Conference in assists per game, averaging 4.8 dishes per contest. In total assists, Harris-Smith ranks 48th in the nation and leads the OVC with 53 assists so far this year, 10 more than the next-best OVC player.

SERVED ON THE BOARDS

Harris-Smith does more than just dish it out, she also isn't afraid to go get it for herself. The sophomore ranks fourth in the OVC and 310th nationally with an average of 6.4 rebounds per game, having grabbed 70 boards in 11 games so far.

LEADING THE SEXTET

With Little Rock's win over Texas A&M on Dec. 6, the Trojans became the only program in the country to win non-conference games against a Southeastern Conference opponent in each of the past three years. But more than that, Little Rock is just one of six non-Power 5 programs to have won games over a Power 5 Conference school in each of the past three seasons, joining a list that includes South Florida, DePaul, Drake, South Dakota State and Stephen F. Austin.

IT JUST MEANS MORE ... FOR THE THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR

They call him the "SEC Slayer." That is as accurate of a description for Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley as one can get without calling them the GOAT. As he guided the Trojans to a 42-38 win over Texas A&M on Dec. 6, 2022, it put Little Rock's Team in lonely company as the Trojans are the only program to beat SEC teams in non-conference play over the past three consecutive seasons.

YOU'VE GOT TO OVC IT

Little Rock isn't the only Ohio Valley Conference program toppling SEC teams this season. Just two days before the Trojans upended Texas A&M at home, UT Martin traveled to Nashville and came away with a 66-54 win over Vanderbilt. Little Rock knows all about calling out "ANCHOR UP!" after beating the Commodores in each of the past two seasons.

FRANCIS IS OFFENSIVE

Trojan forward Angelique Francis enters this game averaging 2.2 offensive rebounds per game, a hefty mark that ranks the senior 297th in the nation (without minimums) and third in the OVC, making her one of only five OVC players with more than 2.0 oreb/g. Francis's 6.2 total rebounds per game ranks the veteran 338th in the nation and sixth in the Ohio Valley Conference, right behind Jaiyah Harris-Smith's 6.4 rebounds per

YOU DON'T WANT TO FACE HER

That's what UCA's Kierra Prim found out. Prim entered the game against the Trojans averaging 14.0 points, 10.6 rebounds and 5.0 offensive rebounds per game. Enter the Francis Effect. With Francis guarding her, Primm finished the game with four points, four rebounds and one offensive rebound in over 40 minutes of action in the overtime game.

SETTING THE STANDARD

We may be the new kids on the block, but we're not afraid to set the standard as Little Rock embarks on its first season in the Ohio Valley Conference. The Trojans will be the only OVC team to host a Power 5 school in basketball - in either men's or women's. Joe Foley's Trojans will host three Southeastern Conference schools - Ole Miss, Arkansas and Texas A&M - as part of a five-SEC game non-conference schedule (at Auburn, at Alabama).

Little Rock's five Power 5 opponents accounts for 31% of the OVC's Power 5 games this year and is the most of any OVC team, followed by SIUE (four - Purdue, Iowa State, Louisville, Washington), Southeast Missouri (three - Ole Miss, Missouri, Kansas), UT Martin (two - Missouri, Vanderbilt), Eastern Illinois (one - Minnesota) and Morehead State (one - Kentucky).

POWERFUL DUBS

Little Rock's 42-38 win over Texas A&M on Dec. 6, 2022 was nothing new for the Trojans. That is because it is the 14th time that Little Rock's Team has claimed a win over a Power 5 program. On that day, Little Rock made Texas A&M the first Power 5 program to lose to the Trojans on three separate occasions while three others have lost to the Trojans on multiple occasions, including Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Vanderbilt.

WELCOME BACK - PART I

If you thought the Trojans looked a little different in their win over Texas A&M on Dec. 6, look no further than No. 3. Jayla Brooks returned to the court for the first time since suffering a head injury against Arkansas on Nov. 20 and her return was quite effective. Brooks scored a career-high nine points, grabbed a career-best six rebounds and drew seven fouls off the Aggies, including a charge (one of three charges drawn in the game by Little Rock).

WELCOME BACK - PART II

Part of the reason Angelique Francis is so highly ranked in rebounds is due to the fact that the senior recorded a career-high 15 rebounds in the Nov. 23 game against Oral Roberts. Not only did she record 15 rebounds - the most of any Trojan this season to that point - but she also scored 11 points to register the first double-double by any Little Rock player so far this year.

ALREADY EARNING AWARDS

Jaiyah Harris-Smith wasted no time making an impression on the Trojans and raising eyebrows across the Ohio Valley Conference. After leading the Ohio Valley Conference during the opening week in assists and ranking second in rebounding, Harris-Smith was been named the OVC's Newcomer of the Week.

Harris-Smith's 13 total assists currently led the OVC while her 6.5 assists per game ranked second in the league. Her 19 total rebounds and 9.5 rebounds per game both ranked second in the conference that week. Of her 19 total rebounds, 15 came on the defensive end of the floor, a mark that led the OVC. Those numbers, combined with an average of 9.0 points, nearly gave the transfer guard a double-double in her first week in a Little Rock uniform.

QUITE THE INTRODUCTION

Jaiyah Harris-Smith made quite the introduction to Trojan fans in the season opener on Nov. 10 against Arkansas-Pine Bluff as the guard erupted for 11 rebounds, six assists and seven points in Little Rock's 60-56 win over the Golden Lions. Her 11 rebounds ranks 40th in the nation early on this year while her six assists ranks 45th nationally.

IN RARE COMPANY

Little Rock was one of only two non-P5 teams last season to record multiple wins over Southeastern Conference opponents. While some other teams managed to claim wins against the competitive league, Little Rock and Middle Tennessee were the only teams to have found repeated success against the SEC. Two wins just means more ... than one. Coincidentally, the two wins came over Vanderbilt and Auburn and marks more wins over SEC foes than those two teams had combined the previous season. The other non-P5 team to achieve that feat was Middle Tennessee, who beat Vanderbilt twice (once in the regular season, once in the WNIT).

MAYBE TRY AMEX NEXT TIME

The Trojans will likely be opting for American Express or Mastercard next time as Sali Kourouma did not join the team or even arrive in the United States until Dec. 19 due to visa issues. Kourouma, who averaged 18.4 ppg last year, was required to return to her native Mali over the summer to renew her student visa.

BEWARE THE SCORING TROJANS

Because if Little Rock's shots start falling, things don't go well for others. The Trojans were 5-0 last season when scoring 70 or more points.

BECAUSE THE DEFENSE IS SECOND-TO-NONE

Joe Foley's defense is legendary. So much so it is the most cited reason for nightmares among Sun Belt head coaches. That is because when Little Rock holds teams below 60 points, the Trojans were 14-0 last season. Following the 60-56 win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Nov. 10, that streak continued into this season. The streak came to an end on Nov. 13 when Ole Miss topped the Trojans, 58-40. So far this year, Little Rock is 3-3 when holding teams under 60 points.

HOME, SWEET, HOME

Little Rock is fond of the Jack Stephens Center and it isn't a place at which teams prefer to play. That's because the Trojans finished the 2021-22 season with an 8-4 home record. That's a remarkable stretch considering talented teams like Auburn, Coastal Carolina and Memphis have all left The Jack disappointed.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Standing at 5-foot-11, Little Rock forward Angelique Francis may not be the tallest player on the floor but she casts an imposing figure. With her muscles bulging out of her sleeveless jersey, there is little doubt who is the most physical player on the court. But look closely at those sleeveless arms and you will see the fading scars of a past that gives a glimpse at the adversity she is still overcoming to this day.

Those scars tell the story of a past that has been focused on survival between abusive relationships and multiple suicide attempts. It is a story she is just now coming to terms with in order to tell others, refocusing her life from merely trying to survive to wanting to help others mired in the darkness from which she has broken free. Read more about Angelique's story here or at LRTrojans.com/francis.

THINK ANYONE WILL MISS US?

As we look back on Little Rock's tenure in the Sun Belt Conference, here's a list of the Trojans' accomplishments. We're guessing there's 11 coaches that weren't sad to see us go.

Since Little Rock reinstated its women's basketball program in 1999-2000:

- 6 Sun Belt Conference Regular Season Championships
- 5 Sun Belt Tournament Championships
- 6 NCAA Tournament Appearances
- Two NCAA Tournament First Round Wins
- 5 WNIT Appearances
- From 2008 2019, a span of 12 years, Little Rock was in the postseason 11 times
- Joe Foley named Sun Belt Coach of the Year 5 times
- 37 All-Conference honors
- 3 Sun Belt Players of the Year
- 2 Sun Belt Defensive Players of the Year
- · 4 Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year
- 4 Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player honors
- 23 Sun Belt All-Tournament selections
- 2019 Sun Belt Female Student-Athlete of the Year
- 0 wins in the Jack Stephens Center for Arkansas State

FOLEY CLAIMS WIN NO. 800

Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley is just the fourth active Division I head coach - and 16th coach overall - to surpass the 800 career wins mark. Already a Hall of Fame coach, he is continuing to cement his name as one of the best coaches in the game.

AND RANKS AMONG THE BEST

Joe Foley is currently third on the active coaches list in terms of all-time wins as the GOAT consistently builds a winning program year-in and year-out at Little Rock. That puts the Trojans leader among the top names the sport has to offer.

GREAT RECOGNIZES GREAT

Arkansas head coach Mike Neighbors had some kind comments about Little Rock's win over Vanderbilt in 2020:

"I didn't consider it an upset, to be honest. Vanderbilt hadn't played a game and the way Joe Foley has his teams ready, it's not a surprise. And that's not a knock on Vandy, that's a compliment to Joe Foley and Little Rock."

"It feels like an honor to play inside the Jack Stephens Center." - Mike Neighbors

JOE FOLEY COURT

In a pregame ceremony on Sunday, Nov. 13, the court at the Jack Stephens Center was officially named for Little Rock Head Women's Basketball Coach Joe Foley. Foley is just the sixth women's basketball coach to have a court named in their honor, joining Tennessee's Pat Summitt, Texas A&M's Gary Blair, NC State's Kay Yow, DePaul's Doug Bruno and Rutgers' C. Vivian Stringer. Foley was going to be the fourth, but DePaul and Rutgers placed names on their respective courts over the summer, after the Foley Court announcement was made

SUNDAY WAS HIS DAY

Not only honored by the University and Athletic Department, Joe Foley will be honored by the City of Little Rock on Sunday. The Mayor, Frank Scott, has declared Sunday, Nov. 13 to be "Coach Joe Foley Day" in the Capital City.

JOE FOLE

HEAD COACH • 20[™] SEASON • CENTRAL ARKANSAS (1979)

Joe Foley, the 2010, 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and 2010 Russell Athletic/WBCA Regional Coach of the Year, has led the Little Rock Women's Basketball program to 20win seasons 11 of the last 14 years, outright Sun Belt Conference West Division titles in the final six years the Sun Belt had divisions, three Sun Belt regular-season championships, post-season appearances in 10 of the last 13 years - including five NCAA berths - and Sun Belt Conference Tournament titles in 2011, 2012, 2015 and 2018. The third-winningest active coach in Division I, Foley has recorded an 833-29 (.738) career record and a 377-214 (.638) record at Little Rock as he begins his 20th season in 2022-23. He has led the Trojans to the semifinals of the Sun

The Hall of Fame coach reached a remarkable milestone during the 2019-20 season when he recorded his 800th career victory - one of only five active head coaches to reach that plateau. In that season, Kyra Collier claimed first team All-Sun Belt honors marking the seventh consecutive year a Trojan has been represented on the first team. Little Rock has placed a Trojan on the league's all-conference teams list every single season Foley has guided Little Rock's Team.

Belt Tournament in 14 of the past 15 years.

Foley earned his 700th career victory in the NCAA Tournament's first round in 2015, and he signed a contract extension in April 2015 that will keep him as the Trojans' head coach through the 2023-24 sea-

In his tenure at Little Rock, Foley has compiled the most overall wins (29) and conference victories (18) in a season while producing the school's first All-Sun Belt Conference selection in Alicia Cash in 2004. He also recruited back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year winners in Renee Renz (2006) and Kim Sitzmann (2007). No other Sun Belt Conference school has achieved this feat. Foley also coached the school's first-ever Honorable Mention All-America honoree in Chastity Reed in 2010. His Trojan student-athletes have earned 23 All-Conference selections.

Foley began his coaching career at the high school level as both the boys and girls basketball coach at Oxford (Ark.) High School from 1979-81, and then at Morrilton High School as an assistant for the boys team until 1984.

Foley has earned many personal accolades during his career. He has been named national coach of the year twice, region or district coach of the year seven times, chosen to be on the 1994 United States Olympic Festival coaching staff and was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame as a member of the class of 2002.

Foley earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Central Arkansas in 1979. He is married to the former Chris Fields of Alpena, Ark. The couple has two children, C.J. and Miranda.

LITTLE ROCK 60, UAPB 56 Nov. 10, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 2,522

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - It was Homecoming at the Jack Stephens Center on several levels Thursday evening. For a pair of Trojan newcomers, their first appearance in one of the toughest venues to play in resulted in yet another win for Little Rock's Team, this time a 60-56 win over UA Pine Bluff.

Nikki Metcalfe (16 points) and Faith Lee (14 points) led all players in scoring as Little Rock (1-0) celebrated its Homecoming game with a

For UA Pine Bluff's Raziya Potter and Azaria Robinson - former Trojans that transferred down to $\mathsf{UAPB}-\mathsf{the}$ Homecoming wasn't quite as sweet. Potter was limited to nine points and whistled for four fouls while Robinson was held to three points and only four rebounds in the loss for the Golden Lions (0-2).

Although the Trojans rarely trailed, leading for over 30 minutes, the game was also never out of reach. Neither team built a double-digit lead and both teams struggled from the free throw line, shooting well under 60 percent. But the defensive resiliency that is Little Rock's Team prevailed yet again by forcing 21 Pine Bluff turnovers, six of which came off steals. That defensive pressure, which Little Rock is known for, managed to withstand a 44-38 deficit in rebounds.

The new-look Trojans have seemingly picked up key aspects of Foley's man defense early on. Of the eight players in maroon that saw the court Thursday, seven were making their first appearance in a Little Rock jersey. That includes Ole Miss transfer Jaiyah Harris-Smith, who scored seven points and grabbed 11 rebounds in her final preparation before she faces her old team on Sunday. Little Rock's scoring mostly came from new players, but it was from a mixture of young and old. Metcalfe, a graduate transfer from Arkansas Tech, led all players with 16 points while Faith Lee, a true freshman from Louisiana, scored 14 in her collegiate debut.

Coriah Beck led the Lions with 12 points. Little Rock held Maori Davenport to just five points and eight rebounds just days after she had a double-double (15 points, 14 rebounds) against Arkansas.

OLE MISS 58, LITTLE ROCK 40 Nov. 13, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 3,255

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Joe Foley's teams over his 20 years at Little Rock have been known for their defensive pressure causing frustration that leads to turnovers and low scoring. On the day the court at the Jack Stephens Center was named for Foley, Ole Miss employed a similar tactic to claim the 58-40 win over the host Trojans.

Little Rock (1-1) may have forced 18 turnovers but Ole Miss (3-0) forced 20 turnovers out of Little Rock and used a 42.9 percent shooting mark and 38-25 rebounding advantage to claim the win Sunday.

Foley, now in his 20th season guiding the Trojans, was accepting of the outcome and not disappointed in the effort his team gave, knowing this was just another step in the meticulous process he cultivates to build a championship team. His record, with 834 wins, proves he right in that line of thought a lot more than not.

For Sunday's effort, it involved Tia Harvey's 13 points and six rebounds while Jaiyah Harris-Smith, guard that was on the Ole Miss roster a year ago, scored 11 bounds with eight rebounds and seven assists.

While Little Rock shot 37.8 percent from the field, it was the cold outings in the second and fourth quarters that became too much to overcome. The Trojans scored just 10 of their 40 points in those two quarters combined.

Marquesha Davis led Ole Miss with 13 points while Madison Scott was prevented from reaching a double-double, scoring just eight points and grabbing 10 rebounds. Davis was the only Rebel in double figures just days after Ole Miss had three reach double figures and scored 83 points in a win over Southeast Missouri, a new conference mate of Little Rock.

Angel Baker, last year's SEC Sixth Woman of the Year, was limited to just nine points over nearly 33 minutes.

ARKANSAS 93, LITTLE ROCK 49 Nov. 20, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 2,879

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Little Rock struggled to slow a hot-shooting Razorback squad Sunday, falling to Arkansas in a 93-49 decision in front of 2,879 fans at the Jack Stephens Center.

The visiting Razorbacks (5-0) shot 62.5% from the floor and drained 10 of 19 shots from long range (52.6%) in the game while Little Rock struggled to get into a flow, shooting just 30.2% from the field.

Little Rock could not overcome a size difference either, finishing the game at a 45-23 disadvantage in rebounds.

"Missing shots," Foley said when asked about what most disappointed him. "We got some good open looks and I thought if we hit them early that we could kind of get a little momentum and have a little confi-

"When we didn't hit them, I knew we were in trouble."

Tia Harvey and Nikki Metcalfe, who anchored UALR (1-2) with a combined 26 points, shot a combined 12 of 33. Ten of Harvey's 14 points came in the fourth quarter.

As cold as the Trojans were, the Razorbacks stayed hot into the third quarter. Arkansas turned on the afterburners with a 15-2 burst in fewer than three minutes.

The Razorbacks were led by Chrissy Carr's 22 points in under 24 minutes while Erynn Barnum added 15 points.

Carr hit 3 three-pointers in as many possessions and Makayla Daniels, who finished 12 points and four assists, punctuated the spurt with a three of her own.

2022-23 RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

ORAL ROBERTS 74, LITTLE ROCK 62Nov. 23, 2022 · Little Rock, Ark. · 1,531

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Little Rock shot less than 32% from the field — a number skewed by a strong fourth quarter mark - and was just 1 of 13 from 3-point range as the Trojans fell to Oral Roberts, 74-62, Wednesday afternoon at the Jack Stephens Center.

Despite the fact that four Trojans (1-3) reached double figures, Little Rock was just 22 of 69 (31.9%) from the field Wednesday. Faith Lee and Toyosi Abiola led the Maroon and Silver with 16 points each, a high mark for both players in a Little Rock uniform.

Hannah Cooper led Oral Roberts (1-5) with 22 points and 10 rebounds while dishing out eight assists. Ariel Walker added 20 points and nine rebounds.

Cooper's output impressed at least three other participants in the game played before a crowd of 1,531, including Little Rock Head Coach Joe Folev.

"That point guard, she's a good point guard," he said. "She hurt us last year."

Cooper scored 11 points in Oral Roberts' 74-56 victory over the Trojans last season.

Angelique Francis recorded the first double-double of the year for the Trojans, grabbing a career-high 15 rebounds to go with her 11 points. Tia Harvey, who was 5 of 17 from the field, scored 10 points.

Little Rock never led in the game but was always within striking distance. The tide appeared to be turning late in the third quarter when the Trojans cut ORU's lead to just two late in the third quarter before the Golden Eagles ended the quarter on a 10-2 run and would pull away in the fourth quarter, leading by as much as 18.

One marked improvement for the Trojans was free throw shooting, hitting 73.9% of their chances at the charity stripe. Little Rock had been averaging just a 53.6% mark entering the game.

AUBURN 70, LITTLE ROCK 48Nov. 30, 2022 • Auburn, Ala. • 1,855

AUBURN, Ala. - Little Rock shot a season-low 29.5% from the field and committed 17 turnovers Wednesday, dropping a 70-48 decision at Auburn.

Faith Lee, who led the Trojans (1-4) with 10 points and was the only player in Maroon and Silver to reach double figures, played just under 26 minutes before fouling out early in the fourth quarter.

Little Rock's shooting mark was under 25% for most of the game as Auburn (5-2) used their size and eight blocks to limit the Trojans' ability to get to the net, as well as a 48-41 rebounding advantage.

In addition to cold shooting, the Trojans committed 17 turnovers in the loss with only eight assists credited on 18 made baskets.

Auburn was led by Honesty Scott-Grayson's 20 points while Romi Levy contributed a double-double with 18 points and 13 rebounds.

Kaitlyn Duhon populated the box score in multiple categories, scoring eight points on 3-of-4 shooting while contributing three rebounds, three steals and three blocked shots.

Auburn exacted a measure of revenge after losing at Little Rock 57-49 last season.

The visitors outscored Auburn 16-15 in the second quarter despite shooting 17.6 percent from the field (3-17), capitalizing on 10 Auburn fouls to score 10 points from the free-throw line on 17 attempts.

Jaiyah Harris-Smith scored nine points for Little Rock on 4 of 10 shooting while Sha'nequa Henry scored a career-high eight points. Tia Harvey and Angelique Francis also added eight points each. Mesi Triplett grabbed a career-high nine rebounds to lead the Trojans on the boards while Harris-Smith added seven.

UCA 53, LITTLE ROCK 49 (OT) Dec. 3, 2022 • Conway, Ark. • 712

CONWAY, Ark. - Little Rock rallied back from a 10-point second half deficit to force overtime but a season-high 21 turnovers — including three in the extra period — prevented the Trojans from claiming a Governor's I-40 Showdown win Saturday afternoon at the Farris Center.

Nikki Metcalfe scored a career-high 18 points and grabbed a game-high eight rebounds to lead all players in the 53-49 overtime loss, scoring 10 of those points in the second half as Little Rock (1-5) clawed back from a double-digit deficit to add five extra minutes of playing time to the game.

Little Rock's 21 turnovers — five of which came in the final 7:05 — prevented the Trojans from recording a fourth consecutive win over the Sugar Bears (4-2).

Central Arkansas (4-2) gave the Trojans a chance to win the game outright in regulation as Kierra Prim turned the ball over with 33 seconds remaining in a tie game but a pair of missed shots by the Maroon and Silver added five minutes to the clock.

While the Trojans would not miss a free throw in overtime, Little Rock committed three turnovers in the extra period and was just 1 of 3 from the floor while UCA was 5 of 7 (71.4%) to push ahead for the win.

Prim, who entered the game leading the nation by averaging 5.0 offensive rebounds per game, was severely limited due to the effort of Little Rock's Angelique Francis, whose defense held Prim to just four points, four rebounds (one offensive) and forced a pair of turnovers. In addition to that defensive effort, Francis scored six points and grabbed five reboubnds.

UCA was led by Randrea Wright's 16 points on 7 of 10 shooting while Parris Atkins scored 14 points and Kayla Mitchell added 10.

Tia Harvey scored 10 points for Little Rock while Jaiyah Harris-Smith dished out a game-high seven assists, five of which came before half-time. But she was also responsible for seven turnovers and was held to just three rebounds.

LITTLE ROCK 42, TEXAS A&M 38 Dec. 6, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 1,631

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - On his own court with time evaporating off the clock, Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley sat in a chair on the sideline and cracked a smile. You can't blame him, the feat his team accomplished Tuesday night is starting to become habit.

For the third consecutive year, Little Rock upended a Southeastern Conference program. This time it was a 42-38 win over Texas A&M on the court that was dedicated to Foley a little over three weeks ago.

Texas A&M, which hadn't been held under 40 points in a game since 2003 until Tuesday night, committed 24 turnovers and shot just 28.3% from the field. Foley's Trojans, with the man defense his program is known for, held the Aggies in single digits in each of the first three quarters and withstood a fourth quarter comeback.

"That was a great defensive effort on our part. Defense set the tone and I thought our kids played extremely hard on that end of the floor. Of-fensively, we had our moments. We made some cuts at good times and got some easy baskets, but I think we also missed some easy baskets. For our kids to keep the defensive effort even if they missed the shot, that tells you we're growing up a little bit."

Little Rock (2-5) used a balanced, if not sporadic, offensive attack in the low-scoring win. Only Nikki Metcalfe reached double figures, scoring a game-high 10 points, but seven different players scored in the game. It marked the first time Little Rock has won a game while scoring 42 or fewer points since a 39-35 win over Louisiana on Feb. 28, 2009.

Texas A&M (4-4) was led by Sahara Jones' 10 points, but they were not easy to come by. Jones was 4 of 12 from the field before fouling out late. Sydney Bowles, who entered the game ranking third in the SEC with a 40.5% mark this season from 3-point range, couldn't shake the Foley-organized defense as she finished the game 1-for-11 from the field including an 0-for-9 mark from 3-point range.

Metcalfe recorded two blocks and Jaiyah Harris-Smith matched a career-high with 11 rebounds while dishing out four assists. Jayla Brooks, who returned to the court after taking an inadvertent elbow to the face on Nov. 20 against Arkansas, scored nine points, drew seven fouls and had six rebounds.

The win over Texas A&M follows wins over Auburn and Vanderbilt last season as well as another win over Vanderbilt the year before.

WESTERN KY 48, LITTLE ROCK 25 Dec. 11, 2022 • Bowling Green, Ky. • 738

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. - Faith Lee scored a game-high 12 points, but Little Rock committed 20 turnovers for the third straight game in a 48-25 loss at Western Kentucky Sunday afternoon at E.A. Diddle Arena in Bowling Green.

The Trojans (2-6) shot just 25% from the field (11-for-44) and 25% from the free throw line (3-for-12) in the loss while getting out-rebounded 44-30.

Lee's 12 points mostly came across the second and third quarters, when she was a combined 5-for-7 over that span. She finished the game 6 of 10 from the field with four rebounds.

Jaiyah Harris-Smith recorded a career-high four steals in the game, accounting for a fifth of Western Kentucky's 20 turnovers.

Little Rock came as close as cutting the deficit to seven in the third quarter before the Hilltoppers would end the quarter on a 10-0 run.

WKU (2-6) shot 33% from the field and were led by 11 points from Teresa Faustino, six of which came in the fourth quarter. The Hilltoppers finished the game with a 23-4 advantage from points off the bench with 10 different WKU players scoring in the game.

The Trojans were whistled 19 times in the game compared to WKU's

ALABAMA 69, LITTLE ROCK 44 Dec. 15, 2022 • Tuscaloosa, Ala. • 1,807

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Little Rock found improvement in its offense Thursday night with Faith Lee leading the way matching a career-high 16 points, but Alabama withstood the Trojans' tough defense in a 69-44 decision at Coleman Coliseum in front of 1,807 fans.

The Crimson Tide (8-2) entered the game averaging less than 14 turnovers per game struggled to hold on to the ball with 21 turnovers but shot 47.1% from the field and hit 9 of 21 shots (42.1%) from beyond the arc to keep the game out of reach. That marked the fourth consecutive game the Trojans have forced 20 or more turnovers out of its

Little Rock (2-7), facing its fifth Southeastern Conference opponent of the season, was led by Lee's output as well as Nikki Metcalfe's 13 points, which included the first made 3-point shot for the Trojans since Nov. 23.

The Trojans shot 35.4% from the field — the team's highest mark in four games – with a 42.3% mark in the second half. Lee scored 12 of her 16 points after the intermission while Angelique Francis scored all nine of her points and grabbed four of her five rebound after halftime.

Of the 21 Alabama turnovers, the second-most the Crimson Tide have committed this season, 10 came from Little Rock steals with four different Trojans recording multiple steals. Jayla Brooks recorded a game-

In its sixth consecutive win, Alabama was led by Karly Weather's 17 points, 12 of which came from 3-point range. Brittany Davis scored 16 points but her three rebounds was half of her 6.1 per game average entering the contest.

The biggest difference in the game came in the paint where the tall Tide posted a 41-22 rebounding advantage and had a 28-18 lead in points in the paint.

LITTLE ROCK 60, ARKANSAS ST 44 Dec. 18, 2022 · Little Rock, Ark. · 1,831

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Tia Harvey and Nikki Metcalfe each scored 17 points and Little Rock's defense suffocated Arkansas State in a 60-44 rout of the Red Wolves in front of 1,831 fans Sunday afternoon at the Jack Stephens Center.

The Red Wolves (5-6) had entered the game averaging nearly 73 points per game, shooting over 41% from the field and 03.4% from 3-point range. They left the Jack Stephens Center with season lows in scoring and shooting while still seeking their first-ever win in the building.

Little Rock claimed its 18th consecutive home win over Arkansas State after limiting ASU to 15-for-60 (25%) shooting and just 1 of 11 (9%) from 3-point range. At the same time, Little Rock's offensive struggles this season were seemingly forgotten as the Trojans (3-7) shot 46.2% from the field and scored a season-high 60 points.

Harvey (career) and Metcalfe (season) both set scoring high marks while Jaiyah Harris-Smith dished out a career-best eight assists to go along with her eight points and nine rebounds.

Faith Lee, the reigning Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Week, grabbed a career-high eight rebounds and a career-best four steals in the game while scoring eight points and Nikki Metcalfe registered a season-best five blocks, matching the most recorded by an OVC player in a single game this season.

The Trojans came out of halftime with a slim 24-20 lead and immediately caught fire, exploding with an 8-0 run before Arkansas State could manage to call a timeout. But that only led to a Nikki Metcalfe AND-1 opportunity that she followed up with another made jump shot less than 30 seconds later to extend the run to 13 straight points.

Arkansas State would not be able to recover from that stretch, getting out-scored 22-10 in a quarter where Little Rock was 8-for-12 (67%) from the field while holding ASU to just 3 of 12 shooting in the period.

For every run the Red Wolves attempted to put together in the fourth quarter, the Trojans had an answer with Little Rock leading by as much as 20 before bleeding the clock to secure the 60-44 win.

Five of Little Rock's eight players that saw action shot 40% or better with Metcalfe going 8-for-14 to lead all players. She also grabbed eight rebounds, matching the most she's claimed in a Little Rock uniform.

Little Rock has now won five straight in the series over A-State overall with 18 consecutive wins in the Capital City.

MISSOURI STATE 55, LITTLE ROCK 48 Dec. 21, 2022 • Springfield, Mo. • 1,039

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - Little Rock went on a nine-point run over the final two minutes and forced 10 turnovers in the first quarter, but Missouri State controlled the pace of play in the intervening 28 minutes in a 55-48 loss to the Lady Bears Wednesday afternoon.

The Trojans could not overcome a 41-25 deficit in rebounds, particularly on the offensive side where Missouri State (5-4) turned 19 offensive boards into 10 second chance points. Little Rock (3-8) was out-scored 21-13 thanks mostly to Aniya Thomas scoring 15 of her game-high 19 points in the final period.

Faith Lee led the Trojans with a career-high 17 points, marking the third time in four games the freshman has reached double figures. Tia Harvey added 14 with three rebounds.

The Trojan defense forced 16 turnovers out of the Lady Bears but 10 of those came in the first quarter. After that, Missouri State was able to limit its mistakes despite the strenuous pressure of the Little Rock defenders. Five of LR's seven steals came in the first period.

Little Rock's 13 turnovers were the second-lowest mark of the season, but the team's 22 fouls marked the second-highest and several players spent most of the second half in foul trouble. Lee, Angelique Francis and Nikki Metcalfe all finished the game with four fouls while Harvey and Jayla Brooks ended with three. The 22-15 difference in fouls led to Missouri State getting seven extra free throw attempts.

Missouri State was aided by double figures out of Kennedy Taylor (13 points) and Sydney Wilson (12 points), both of whom recorded the majority of their scoring in the first half.

The Trojans and Lady Bears entered the game as two of the only six non-P5 teams in the country to have won games over P5 opponents in each of the past three seasons.
