- Give the Trojans a 2-0 mark in "OVC Newbie" games this season.
- Move Little Rock's record to 2-2 all-time against teams from the Hoosier State.

I GET BY WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM MY FRIENDS

When you need a hand on offense, just look to your defense. On Jan. 7 against SEMO, the Trojans scored 33 points off turnovers marking the most points off turnovers Little Rock has scored in a single game since scoring 35 against Florida Atlantic and ties for the seventh most in a single game in school history. That followed the 22 points off turnovers against Lindenwood on Jan. 4 putting the Trojans at 55 points scored off turnovers for the first full week of January. See Little Rock's top Points Off Turnovers performances on Page 6.

CREATING OFFENSE

They say the best offense is defense and when it comes to Little Rock's Team, that's certainly true. So far this season the Trojans are averaging 16.0 points off turnovers per game. And considering five of Little Rock's seven wins this season have come by 16 or fewer points, that's a game-changing dynamic. The 16.0 points off turnovers per game Little Rock is averaging this season ranks 12th in school history.

WHAT ABOUT FIVE OR MORE?

Little Rock can start league play 5-0 for the first time since the 2017-18 season if the Trojans can put together a win on Saturday. The Maroon and Silver have won four consecutive games for the first time this season and now hit the road as they attempt to make it five in a row. Little Rock opened the 2017-18 season with 12 consecutive league wins.

AND THEN THERE WERE TWO

Thanks to the Trojans dispatching of Southeast Missouri on Jan. 7 and with Eastern Illinois' 79-62 win over Morehead State that same day, Little Rock and EIU remained the only two teams in the Ohio Valley Conference that are undefeated in league play. They appear to be on a collision course for Saturday if both can keep their respective eyes on the task at hand Thursday.

THE SEASON OF GIVING CONTINUES FOR HARRIS-SMITH

Jaiyah Harris-Smith isn't letting the Season of Giving leave so easily. The Trojan sophomore ranks 28th in the nation and first in the OVC with an average of 5.3 assists per game. Her 79 assists so far this year ranks her 33rd nationally and leads the OVC.

ONE OF 19

Jaiyah Harris-Smith is quickly becoming one of the nation's most impactful underclassmen. With 5.3 assists per game entering this contest, she is one of just 19 underclassmen (freshmen and sophomores) in the country averaging over 4.5 apg.

When you factor in her ability to rebound, the list grows considerably shorter. Harris-Smith is one of just three underclassmen in the country with at least 6.0 rebounds per game and 4.5 assists per game and one of eight players overall in all of Division I to reach both of those averages. See the full list on Page 5.

MAKING HER MARK

It's not just on a national single-season perspective that Jaiyah Harris-Smith is making an impact this season, she is quickly making her mark in the annals of Little Rock Basketball. Entering this game, Harris-Smith is ranked among the best to don the Maroon and Silver in multiple season charts including ranking second in assists per game and fourth in minutes per game.

THEY'VE NEVER OVCEEN IT

Since the 2009-10 season, the OVC has never seen a defense so strong that it held opponents to less than 56.5 ppg. Even if you expand the opposing scoring mark to less than 60.0 ppg, this year's Little Rock team is just one of 12 in the OVC since the 2009-10 campaign to achieve that feat. While only 11 other OVC teams have done that, this season marks the 12th time in the past 13 years the Trojans have held opponents to less than 60.0 ppg.

A Look At OVC Scoring Defenses (Since 2009-10 Season)

CHARGE IT

Little Rock's defense is not a cash-operating group. The Trojans have drawn 28 charges through 15 games so far this year, averaging 1.87 charges drawn per game. Little Rock came out of the gate with its stingy defense, drawing five charges in the season-opener against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Nov. 10. That's the most in a single game in recent memory. Last year, the Trojans drew four charges at South Alabama in a 74-52 win in Mobile.

GAME NOTES

DEATH. TAXES. JOE FOLEY'S DEFENSE.

If there's one thing coaches don't want to face, it's Joe Foley's defense. If there's two things they don't want to face, it's Joe Foley's defense twice in the same season. That is because Little Rock and Joe Foley have set the standard when it comes to the Trojans defensive efforts, ranking in the top two of their conference in 11 of the past 12 years in scoring defense while ranking in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense in nine of past 12 years. The 2021-22 season was no different as Little Rock led the Sun Belt and ranked 49th in the nation in scoring defense.

POSITIVE MARGINS

The Trojans have found initial success this season creating a positive turnover margin, entering this game with a +3.00 turnover margin so far this season. That places Little Rock 81st in the nation and second in the OVC.

ALONE IN THE OVC

Harris-Smith does more than just dish it out, she also isn't afraid to go get it for herself. She is the only player in the Ohio Valley Conference ranked in the top 10 in the league in both assists per game and rebounds per game. The sophomore leads the OVC and ranks 28th nationally with 5.3 assists per game this season. She also ranks seventh in the OVC and 348th in the country with an average of 6.20 rebounds per game.

FORCING THE ISSUE

Little Rock enters this game ranked 57th in the nation and fourth in the OVC by forcing an average of 19.33 turnovers per game. If you haven't been paying attention, that's no surprise with the suffocating defense for which Joe Foley-coached teams are usually known and is even more impressive considering the challenging schedule the Trojans play.

STINGY DEFENSE

This game could see one-sided ball movement. So far this season, Little Rock's defense has held opponents to just 8.5 assists per game, ranking the Trojans fourth in the nation and leads the OVC. In fact, no other OVC program is holding their opponents under 12.0 assists per game. Meanwhile, Tennessee Tech's 12.8 assists per game ranks the Screaming Eagles 179th in the country and fourth in the Ohio Valley.

Additionally, Trojan opponents have compiled just a 41.5% assisted shot rate, ranking Little Rock sixth in the nation. That mark is the lowest opponent assisted shot rate by an OVC team since at least the 2009-10 season, when that data began to be tracked. USI's 63.0% assisted shot rate mark, which will be put to the test, ranks the Screaming Eagles 33rd nationally and leads the OVC. Little Rock is the only OVC team holding their opponents under the 50% assisted shot rate mark while USI is one of only two OVC programs with an assisted shot rate over 60%. The assisted shot rate is the percentage of field goals made by a team that were assisted.

WE DON'T SHARE WELL WITH OTHERS

One of the best anti-theft devices is ... the Little Rock Trojans. The Trojans enter this game with opposing teams averaging just 6.0 steals per game against Little Rock, a mark that ranks the Maroon and Silver 31st in the nation and leads the OVC. That includes an opposing team steal rate of just 7.7%, ranking Little Rock 57th in the country and leads the Ohio Valley. Little Rock is one of only three OVC program holding teams under 6.7 steals per game and a steal rate of less than 8.3%.

CALL HER A SERVER...

... because she can dish it out. Entering this match-up, Jaiyah Harris-Smith ranks 28th in the country and leads the Ohio Valley Conference in assists per game, averaging 5.3 dishes per contest. In total assists, Harris-Smith ranks 33rd in the nation and leads the OVC with 79 assists so far this year. She is one of only three OVC players with more than 60 assists this season.

FRANCIS IS OFFENSIVE

Trojan forward Angelique Francis enters this game averaging 2.38 offensive rebounds per game, a hefty mark that ranks the senior 232nd in the nation (without minimums) and third in the OVC, making her one of only four OVC players with more than 2.0 reb/g. Francis's 6.46 total rebounds per game ranks the veteran 293rd in the nation and sixth in the Ohio Valley Conference, ahead of Jaiyah Harris-Smith's 6.20 rebounds per game which ranks seventh in the OVC.

THEY SAID IT

"I know what they do [defensively], but it doesn't matter if you know what they do -- they're going to do it."
~ UT Martin Head Coach Kevin McMillan

ANCHORS AWEIGH

Little Rock's temporary floor for the remainder of the 2022-23 season has seen a seafaring way of life before docking in the Capital City. The floor was previously used on the USS Abraham Lincoln docked in San Diego where Michigan State and Gonzaga played in the 2022 Armed Forces Classic on Nov. 11, 2022. No. 2 Gonzaga won the game, 64-63. Little Rock officials are happy the court has experience staying above water.

IS METCALFE A FAN OF LEGOS?

We assume so because she likes playing with blocks. Nikki Metcalfe enters this game ranked 95th nationally and leading the OVC with 1.40 blocks per game while her 21 total blocks this season ranks her 77th nationally and also leads the OVC. She registered a season-high five blocks against Arkansas State on Dec. 18, a number that ties for the most blocks in a single game any OVC player has recorded this year and ties for the fifth-most in school history.

TROJAN TANDEM ON THE BOARDS

If the ball doesn't drop through the net (and we've seen that a bit this year), Little Rock has a tandem of players that are relentless on the boards to give the Trojans a second chance, or to take away a second chance from opponents. Entering this game, Angelique Francis ranks sixth in the OVC in rebounds per game (6.46) while Jaiyah Harris-Smith ranks seventh (6.20). That makes Little Rock one of only two teams in the OVC (along with Southern Indiana) with multiple players ranked in the league's top 10 in rebounding.

REMEMBER THE NAME

You might want to go ahead and memorize the name Jaiyah Harris-Smith if, for no other reason, than she's always on the floor. Harris-Smith leads the OVC and ranks eighth in the nation by averaging 37.32 minutes per game. Considering she's among the conference leaders in rebounds and assists, we have a feeling that name will probably show up a time or two on opposing team scouting reports.

YOU'VE GOTTA HAVE FAITH

George Michael knew what he was talking about in his song lyrics. That's because Little Rock's Faith Lee is having a strong start to her freshman season. She enters this game ranked 26th nationally and third in the OVC among freshmen by averaging 4.1 two-point field goals made per game. Meanwhile her 10.6 ppg ranks her 61st nationally and third in the OVC among all freshmen. She is one of only 61 freshmen in the country to be currently averaging 10.0 points or more per game.

BACK IN THE JACK

After a brief break due to a water coil bursting and flooding the court on Dec. 23, the Trojans returned to the Jack Stephens Center and Joe Foley Court on Wednesday, Jan. 4 when Little Rock hosted Lindenwood. The Trojans celebrated their return home by silencing the Lions, claiming a 62-38 win and holding Lindenwood to just 12 first half points.

RINGING IN THE NEW YEAR THE RIGHT WAY

The Trojans know all about how to celebrate the new year. With its 62-38 victory over Lindenwood on Jan. 4, Little Rock has now claimed a win in its first game of a new calendar year for seven consecutive years.

SHE'S BACK!

Trojan fans were treated to a sight for sore eyes on Dec. 29 when Sali Kourouma entered the game following the first media timeout. That marked Kourouma's first appearance in a game this season after she missed the entirety of the non-conference schedule after being unable to obtain her visa to enter the United States from her native Mali. Kourouma, whose 18.4 ppg last year ranks third in school history in a single season, scored a game-high 14 points and grabbed five rebounds in her season opener.

OVERCOMING ADVERSITY

Little Rock's 45-44 win over UT Martin on Dec. 29 marked the first time this season the Trojans have won a game with their opponent recording a higher field goal percentage. The Skyhawks shot 36.4% (16-for-44) from the field while Little Rock shot 35.4% (17-for-48).

TROJANS IN CONFERENCE OPENERS

Little Rock has now won nine straight conference openers after the Trojans' thrilling 45-44 win over UT Martin on Dec. 29, but its fortunes in the first league game of the season has been a recent wave of success. Overall, Little Rock is 13-15 all-time in conference openers while compiling a 1-0 mark in OVC openers and a 12-11 record in Sun Belt openers. Joe Foley, currently in his 20th season at the helm of the program, has guided Little Rock to a 13-7 mark in league openers. The last time Little Rock lost its conference opener came on Jan. 2, 2014 in San Marcos when Texas State claimed a 50-39 win.

THE TROJANS GET TO .500

Little Rock evened its program record in conference debuts to .500 (1-1 all-time) on Dec. 29 when a 45-44 win over UT Martin thanks to a thrilling buzzer beater by Tia Harvey broke the hearts of Skyhawks everywhere. The last time Little Rock debuted in a new conference, it was Jan. 8, 2000 and most of the players on the the current Trojan roster weren't even born yet. In the Little Rock's Sun Belt Conference debut, Arkansas State was quite rude with the 82-49 decision over Little Rock in a game played in Jonesboro. The 2022-23 Trojans looked to start OVC competition off in better fashion Thursday night against UT Martin.

YOU DON'T WANT TO FACE HER

That's what UCA's Kierra Prim found out. Prim entered the game against the Trojans averaging 14.0 points, 10.6 rebounds and 5.0 offensive rebounds per game. Enter the Francis Effect. With Francis guarding her, Primm finished the game with four points, four rebounds and one offensive rebound in over 40 minutes of action in the overtime game.

JACK SQUAT

Little Rock extended a nearly two decades-long streak on Dec. 18 and Arkansas State was reminded why the Jack Stephens Center is nothing more than a House of Horrors. With the Trojans' 60-44 win over the rival Red Wolves, Little Rock won its 18th consecutive home game against A-State and kept them winless all-time at the Jack Stephens Center. ASU had entered the game averaging over 72 ppg but was held to season lows in points scored, field goal percentage and 3-point field goal percentage as Little Rock used a 13-0 run early in the second half to put the game out of reach.

IT JUST MEANS MORE ... FOR THE THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR

They call him the "SEC Slayer." That is as accurate of a description for Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley as one can get without calling them the GOAT. As he guided the Trojans to a 42-38 win over Texas A&M on Dec. 6, 2022, it put Little Rock's Team in lonely company as the Trojans are the only program to beat SEC teams in non-conference play over the past three consecutive seasons.

BEWARE THE SCORING TROJANS

Because if Little Rock's shots start falling, things don't go well for others. This year, Little Rock is 5-1 this season when scoring 60 or more points. The Trojans were 11-3 last year when scoring 60 or more points and 5-0 last season when scoring 70 or more points.

BECAUSE THE DEFENSE IS SECOND-TO-NONE

Joe Foley's defense is legendary. So much so it is the most cited reason for nightmares among Sun Belt head coaches. That is because when Little Rock holds teams below 60 points, the Trojans were 14-0 last season. Following the 60-56 win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Nov. 10, that streak continued into this season. The streak came to an end on Nov. 13 when Ole Miss topped the Trojans, 58-40. So far this year, Little Rock is 7-4 when holding teams under 60 points.

LEADING THE SEXTET

With Little Rock's win over Texas A&M on Dec. 6, the Trojans became the only program in the country to win non-conference games against a Southeastern Conference opponent in each of the past three years. But more than that, Little Rock is just one of six non-Power 5 programs to have won games over a Power 5 Conference school in each of the past three seasons, joining a list that includes South Florida, DePaul, Drake, South Dakota State and Stephen F. Austin.

YOU'VE GOT TO OVC IT

Little Rock isn't the only Ohio Valley Conference program toppling SEC teams this season. Just two days before the Trojans upended Texas A&M at home, UT Martin traveled to Nashville and came away with a 66-54 win over Vanderbilt. Little Rock knows all about calling out "ANCHOR UP!" after beating the Commodores in each of the past two seasons.

SETTING THE STANDARD

We may be the new kids on the block, but we're not afraid to set the standard as Little Rock embarks on its first season in the Ohio Valley Conference. The Trojans will be the only OVC team to host a Power 5 school in basketball - in either men's or women's. Joe Foley's Trojans will host three Southeastern Conference schools - Ole Miss, Arkansas and Texas A&M - as part of a five-SEC game non-conference schedule (at Auburn, at Alabama).

Little Rock's five Power 5 opponents accounts for 31% of the OVC's Power 5 games this year and is the most of any OVC team, followed by SIUE (four - Purdue, Iowa State, Louisville, Washington), Southeast Missouri (three - Ole Miss, Missouri, Kansas), UT Martin (two - Missouri, Vanderbilt), Eastern Illinois (one - Minnesota) and Morehead State (one - Kentucky).

FAITH(FUL)LEE

Faith Lee was recognized by the Ohio Valley Conference on Dec. 27 as the OVC's Freshman of the Week. Lee led the OVC in scoring against Division I opponents in the week before Christmas as she put up a career-high 17 points at Missouri State. The Louisiana native shot 40% from the field and added two rebounds, one assist and one steal in nearly 35 minutes of action as Little Rock forced at least 16 turnovers for the sixth consecutive contest.

That marks her second such honor in three weeks, repeating the announcement on Dec. 13. Lee shot nearly 59% from the field as Little Rock toppled an SEC team for the third straight year by shutting down Texas A&M in a 42-38 win. Her 58.8% mark from the field was the fourth-best among all OVC players last week as she averaged 10.0 points per game. Lee averaged 3.0 rebounds and 0.5 assists per game as the Trojans split the week's action, leading Little Rock at Western Kentucky Sunday afternoon with a game-high 12 points.

POWERFUL DUBS

Little Rock's 42-38 win over Texas A&M on Dec. 6, 2022 was nothing new for the Trojans. That is because it is the 14th time that Little Rock's Team has claimed a win over a Power 5 program. On that day, Little Rock made Texas A&M the first Power 5 program to lose to the Trojans on three separate occasions while three others have lost to the Trojans on multiple occasions, including Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Vanderbilt.

WELCOME BACK - PART I

If you thought the Trojans looked a little different in their win over Texas A&M on Dec. 6, look no further than No. 3. Jayla Brooks returned to the court for the first time since suffering a head injury against Arkansas on Nov. 20 and her return was quite effective. Brooks scored a career-high nine points, grabbed a career-best six rebounds and drew seven fouls off the Aggies, including a charge (one of three charges drawn in the game by Little Rock).

WELCOME BACK - PART II

Part of the reason Angelique Francis is so highly ranked in rebounds is due to the fact that the senior recorded a career-high 15 rebounds in the Nov. 23 game against Oral Roberts. Not only did she record 15 rebounds - the most of any Trojan this season to that point - but she also scored 11 points to register the first double-double by any Little Rock player so far this year.

ALREADY EARNING AWARDS

Jaiyah Harris-Smith wasted no time making an impression on the Trojans and raising eyebrows across the Ohio Valley Conference. After leading the Ohio Valley Conference during the opening week in assists and ranking second in rebounding, Harris-Smith was named the OVC's Newcomer of the Week.

Harris-Smith's 13 total assists currently led the OVC while her 6.5 assists per game ranked second in the league. Her 19 total rebounds and 9.5 rebounds per game both ranked second in the conference that week. Of her 19 total rebounds, 15 came on the defensive end of the floor, a mark that led the OVC. Those numbers, combined with an average of 9.0 points, nearly gave the transfer guard a double-double in her first week in a Little Rock uniform.

QUITE THE INTRODUCTION

Jaiyah Harris-Smith made quite the introduction to Trojan fans in the season opener on Nov. 10 against Arkansas-Pine Bluff as the guard erupted for 11 rebounds, six assists and seven points in Little Rock's 60-56 win over the Golden Lions. Her 11 rebounds ranks 40th in the nation early on this year while her six assists ranks 45th nationally.

IN RARE COMPANY

Little Rock was one of only two non-P5 teams last season to record multiple wins over Southeastern Conference opponents. While some other teams managed to claim wins against the competitive league, Little Rock and Middle Tennessee were the only teams to have found repeated success against the SEC. Two wins just means more ... than one. Coincidentally, the two wins came over Vanderbilt and Auburn and marks more wins over SEC foes than those two teams had combined the previous season. The other non-P5 team to achieve that feat was Middle Tennessee, who beat Vanderbilt twice (once in the regular season, once in the WNIT).

MAYBE TRY AMEX NEXT TIME

The Trojans will likely be opting for American Express or Mastercard next time as Sali Kourouma did not join the team or even arrive in the United States until Dec. 19 due to visa issues. Kourouma, who averaged 18.4 ppg last year, was required to return to her native Mali over the summer to renew her student visa.

HOME, SWEET, HOME

Little Rock is fond of the Jack Stephens Center and it isn't a place at which teams prefer to play. That's because the Trojans are currently 6-3 in home games this season, 3-0 in OVC play. Little Rock finished the 2021-22 season with an 8-4 home record. That's a remarkable stretch considering talented teams like Auburn, Texas A&M, Coastal Carolina and Memphis have all left The Jack disappointed.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Standing at 5-foot-11, Little Rock forward Angelique Francis may not be the tallest player on the floor but she casts an imposing figure. With her muscles bulging out of her sleeveless jersey, there is little doubt who is the most physical player on the court. But look closely at those sleeveless arms and you will see the fading scars of a past that gives a glimpse at the adversity she is still overcoming to this day.

Those scars tell the story of a past that has been focused on survival between abusive relationships and multiple suicide attempts. It is a story she is just now coming to terms with in order to tell others, refocusing her life from merely trying to survive to wanting to help others mired in the darkness from which she has broken free. Read more about Angelique's story here or at LRTrojans.com/francis.

THINK ANYONE WILL MISS US?

As we look back on Little Rock's tenure in the Sun Belt Conference, here's a list of the Trojans' accomplishments. We're guessing there's 11 coaches that weren't sad to see us go.

Since Little Rock reinstated its women's basketball program in 1999-2000:

- 6 Sun Belt Conference Regular Season Championships
- 5 Sun Belt Tournament Championships
- 6 NCAA Tournament Appearances
- Two NCAA Tournament First Round Wins
- 5 WNIT Appearances
- From 2008 - 2019, a span of 12 years, Little Rock was in the postseason 11 times
- Joe Foley named Sun Belt Coach of the Year 5 times

- 3 Sun Belt Players of the Year
- 2 Sun Belt Defensive Players of the Year
- 4 Sun Belt Freshmen of the Year

FOLEY CLAIMS WIN NO. 800

Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley is just the fourth active Division I head coach - and 16th coach overall - to surpass the 800 career wins mark. Already a Hall of Fame coach, he is continuing to cement his name as one of the best coaches in the game.

AND RANKS AMONG THE BEST

Joe Foley is currently third on the active coaches list in terms of all-time wins as the GOAT consistently builds a winning program year-in and year-out at Little Rock. That puts the Trojans leader among the top names the sport has to offer.

GREAT RECOGNIZES GREAT

Arkansas head coach Mike Neighbors had some kind comments about Little Rock's win over Vanderbilt in 2020:

"I didn't consider it an upset, to be honest. Vanderbilt hadn't played a game and the way Joe Foley has his teams ready, it's not a surprise. And that's not a knock on Vandy, that's a compliment to Joe Foley and Little Rock."

"It feels like an honor to play inside the Jack Stephens Center." - Mike Neighbors

JOE FOLEY COURT

In a pregame ceremony on Sunday, Nov. 13, the court at the Jack Stephens Center was officially named for Little Rock Head Women's Basketball Coach Joe Foley. Foley is just the sixth women's basketball coach to have a court named in their honor, joining Tennessee's Pat Summitt, Texas A&M's Gary Blair, NC State's Kay Yow, DePaul's Doug Bruno and Rutgers' C. Vivian Stringer. Foley was going to be the fourth, but DePaul and Rutgers placed names on their respective courts over the summer, after the Foley Court announcement was made.

SUNDAY WAS HIS DAY

Not only honored by the University and Athletic Department, Joe Foley was honored by the City of Little Rock on Sunday, Nov. 13. The Mayor, Frank Scott, declared Sunday, Nov. 13 to be "Coach Joe Foley Day" in the Capital City.

JOE FOLEY

HEAD COACH • 20TH SEASON • CENTRAL ARKANSAS (1979)

Joe Foley, the 2010, 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and 2010 Russell Athletic/WBCA Regional Coach of the Year, has led the Little Rock Women's Basketball program to 20-win seasons 11 of the last 14 years, outright Sun Belt Conference West Division titles in the final six years the Sun Belt had divisions, three Sun Belt regular-season championships, post-season appearances in 10 of the last 13 years – including five NCAA berths – and Sun Belt Conference Tournament titles in 2011, 2012, 2015 and 2018. The third-winningest active coach in Division I, Foley has recorded an 833-29 (.738) career record and a 377-214 (.638) record at Little Rock as he begins his 20th season in 2022-23. He has led the Trojans to the semifinals of the Sun Belt Tournament in 14 of the past 15 years.

The Hall of Fame coach reached a remarkable milestone during the 2019-20 season when he recorded his 800th career victory – one of only five active head coaches to reach that plateau. In that season, Kyra Collier claimed first team All-Sun Belt honors marking the seventh consecutive year a Trojan has been represented on the first team. Little Rock has placed a Trojan on the league's all-conference teams list every single season Foley has guided Little Rock's Team.

Foley earned his 700th career victory in the NCAA Tournament's first round in 2015, and he signed a contract extension in April 2015 that will keep him as the Trojans' head coach through the 2023-24 season.

In his tenure at Little Rock, Foley has compiled the most overall wins (29) and conference victories (18) in a season while producing the school's first All-Sun Belt Conference selection in Alicia Cash in 2004. He also recruited back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year winners in Renee Renz (2006) and Kim Sitzmann (2007). No other Sun Belt Conference school has achieved this feat. Foley also coached the school's first-ever Honorable Mention All-America honoree in Chastity Reed in 2010. His Trojan student-athletes have earned 23 All-Conference selections.

Foley began his coaching career at the high school level as both the boys and girls basketball coach at Oxford (Ark.) High School from 1979-81, and then at Morrilton High School as an assistant for the boys team until 1984.

Foley has earned many personal accolades during his career. He has been named national coach of the year twice, region or district coach of the year seven times, chosen to be on the 1994 United States Olympic Festival coaching staff and was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame as a member of the class of 2002.

Foley earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Central Arkansas in 1979. He is married to the former Chris Fields of Alpena, Ark. The couple has two children, C.J. and Miranda.

LITTLE ROCK 60, UAPB 56

Nov. 10, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 2,522

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - It was Homecoming at the Jack Stephens Center on several levels Thursday evening. For a pair of Trojan newcomers, their first appearance in one of the toughest venues to play in resulted in yet another win for Little Rock's Team, this time a 60-56 win over UA Pine Bluff.

Nikki Metcalfe (16 points) and Faith Lee (14 points) led all players in scoring as Little Rock (1-0) celebrated its Homecoming game with a win.

For UA Pine Bluff's Raziya Potter and Azaria Robinson - former Trojans that transferred down to UAPB - the Homecoming wasn't quite as sweet. Potter was limited to nine points and whistled for four fouls while Robinson was held to three points and only four rebounds in the loss for the Golden Lions (0-2).

Although the Trojans rarely trailed, leading for over 30 minutes, the game was also never out of reach. Neither team built a double-digit lead and both teams struggled from the free throw line, shooting well under 60 percent. But the defensive resiliency that is Little Rock's Team prevailed yet again by forcing 21 Pine Bluff turnovers, six of which came off steals. That defensive pressure, which Little Rock is known for, managed to withstand a 44-38 deficit in rebounds.

The new-look Trojans have seemingly picked up key aspects of Foley's man defense early on. Of the eight players in maroon that saw the court Thursday, seven were making their first appearance in a Little Rock jersey. That includes Ole Miss transfer Jaiyah Harris-Smith, who scored seven points and grabbed 11 rebounds in her final preparation before she faces her old team on Sunday. Little Rock's scoring mostly came from new players, but it was from a mixture of young and old. Metcalfe, a graduate transfer from Arkansas Tech, led all players with 16 points while Faith Lee, a true freshman from Louisiana, scored 14 in her collegiate debut.

Coriah Beck led the Lions with 12 points. Little Rock held Maori Davenport to just five points and eight rebounds just days after she had a double-double (15 points, 14 rebounds) against Arkansas.

OLE MISS 58, LITTLE ROCK 40

Nov. 13, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 3,255

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Joe Foley's teams over his 20 years at Little Rock have been known for their defensive pressure causing frustration that leads to turnovers and low scoring. On the day the court at the Jack Stephens Center was named for Foley, Ole Miss employed a similar tactic to claim the 58-40 win over the host Trojans.

Little Rock (1-1) may have forced 18 turnovers but Ole Miss (3-0) forced 20 turnovers out of Little Rock and used a 42.9 percent shooting mark and 38-25 rebounding advantage to claim the win Sunday.

Foley, now in his 20th season guiding the Trojans, was accepting of the outcome and not disappointed in the effort his team gave, knowing this was just another step in the meticulous process he cultivates to build a championship team. His record, with 834 wins, proves he right in that line of thought a lot more than not.

For Sunday's effort, it involved Tia Harvey's 13 points and six rebounds while Jaiyah Harris-Smith, guard that was on the Ole Miss roster a year ago, scored 11 bounds with eight rebounds and seven assists.

While Little Rock shot 37.8 percent from the field, it was the cold outings in the second and fourth quarters that became too much to overcome. The Trojans scored just 10 of their 40 points in those two quarters combined.

Marquesha Davis led Ole Miss with 13 points while Madison Scott was prevented from reaching a double-double, scoring just eight points and grabbing 10 rebounds. Davis was the only Rebel in double figures just days after Ole Miss had three reach double figures and scored 83 points in a win over Southeast Missouri, a new conference mate of Little Rock.

Angel Baker, last year's SEC Sixth Woman of the Year, was limited to just nine points over nearly 33 minutes.

ORAL ROBERTS 74, LITTLE ROCK 62

Nov. 23, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 1,531

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Little Rock shot less than 32% from the field - a number skewed by a strong fourth quarter mark - and was just 1 of 13 from 3-point range as the Trojans fell to Oral Roberts, 74-62, Wednesday afternoon at the Jack Stephens Center.

Despite the fact that four Trojans (1-3) reached double figures, Little Rock was just 22 of 69 (31.9%) from the field Wednesday. Faith Lee and Toyosi Abiola led the Maroon and Silver with 16 points each, a high mark for both players in a Little Rock uniform.

Hannah Cooper led Oral Roberts (1-5) with 22 points and 10 rebounds while dishing out eight assists. Ariel Walker added 20 points and nine rebounds.

Cooper's output impressed at least three other participants in the game played before a crowd of 1,531, including Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley.

"That point guard, she's a good point guard," he said. "She hurt us last year."

Cooper scored 11 points in Oral Roberts' 74-56 victory over the Trojans last season.

Angelique Francis recorded the first double-double of the year for the Trojans, grabbing a career-high 15 rebounds to go with her 11 points. Tia Harvey, who was 5 of 17 from the field, scored 10 points.

Little Rock never led in the game but was always within striking distance. The tide appeared to be turning late in the third quarter when the Trojans cut ORU's lead to just two late in the third quarter before the Golden Eagles ended the quarter on a 10-2 run and would pull away in the fourth quarter, leading by as much as 18.

One marked improvement for the Trojans was free throw shooting, hitting 73.9% of their chances at the charity stripe. Little Rock had been averaging just a 53.6% mark entering the game.

AUBURN 70, LITTLE ROCK 48

Nov. 30, 2022 • Auburn, Ala. • 1,855

AUBURN, Ala. - Little Rock shot a season-low 29.5% from the field and committed 17 turnovers Wednesday, dropping a 70-48 decision at Auburn.

Faith Lee, who led the Trojans (1-4) with 10 points and was the only player in Maroon and Silver to reach double figures, played just under 26 minutes before fouling out early in the fourth quarter.

Little Rock's shooting mark was under 25% for most of the game as Auburn (5-2) used their size and eight blocks to limit the Trojans' ability to get to the net, as well as a 48-41 rebounding advantage.

In addition to cold shooting, the Trojans committed 17 turnovers in the loss with only eight assists credited on 18 made baskets.

Auburn was led by Honesty Scott-Grayson's 20 points while Romi Levy contributed a double-double with 18 points and 13 rebounds.

Kaitlyn Duhon populated the box score in multiple categories, scoring eight points on 3-of-4 shooting while contributing three rebounds, three steals and three blocked shots.

Auburn exacted a measure of revenge after losing at Little Rock 57-49 last season.

The visitors outscored Auburn 16-15 in the second quarter despite shooting 17.6 percent from the field (3-17), capitalizing on 10 Auburn fouls to score 10 points from the free-throw line on 17 attempts.

Jaiyah Harris-Smith scored nine points for Little Rock on 4 of 10 shooting while Sha'nequa Henry scored a career-high eight points. Tia Harvey and Angelique Francis also added eight points each. Mesi Triplet grabbed a career-high nine rebounds to lead the Trojans on the boards while Harris-Smith added seven.

UCA 53, LITTLE ROCK 49 (OT)

Dec. 3, 2022 • Conway, Ark. • 712

CONWAY, Ark. - Little Rock rallied back from a 10-point second half deficit to force overtime but a season-high 21 turnovers - including three in the extra period - prevented the Trojans from claiming a Governor's I-40 Showdown win Saturday afternoon at the Farris Center.

Nikki Metcalfe scored a career-high 18 points and grabbed a game-high eight rebounds to lead all players in the 53-49 overtime loss, scoring 10 of those points in the second half as Little Rock (1-5) clawed back from a double-digit deficit to add five extra minutes of playing time to the game.

Little Rock's 21 turnovers - five of which came in the final 7:05 - prevented the Trojans from recording a fourth consecutive win over the Sugar Bears (4-2).

Central Arkansas (4-2) gave the Trojans a chance to win the game outright in regulation as Kierra Prim turned the ball over with 33 seconds remaining in a tie game but a pair of missed shots by the Maroon and Silver added five minutes to the clock.

While the Trojans would not miss a free throw in overtime, Little Rock committed three turnovers in the extra period and was just 1 of 3 from the floor while UCA was 5 of 7 (71.4%) to push ahead for the win.

Prim, who entered the game leading the nation by averaging 5.0 offensive rebounds per game, was severely limited due to the effort of Little Rock's Angelique Francis, whose defense held Prim to just four points, four rebounds (one offensive) and forced a pair of turnovers. In addition to that defensive effort, Francis scored six points and grabbed five rebounds.

UCA was led by Randrea Wright's 16 points on 7 of 10 shooting while Parris Atkins scored 14 points and Kayla Mitchell added 10.

Tia Harvey scored 10 points for Little Rock while Jaiyah Harris-Smith dished out a game-high seven assists, five of which came before half-time. But she was also responsible for seven turnovers and was held to just three rebounds.

LITTLE ROCK 42, TEXAS A&M 38

Dec. 6, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 1,631

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - On his own court with time evaporating off the clock, Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley sat in a chair on the sideline and cracked a smile. You can't blame him, the feat his team accomplished Tuesday night is starting to become habit.

For the third consecutive year, Little Rock upended a Southeastern Conference program. This time it was a 42-38 win over Texas A&M on the court that was dedicated to Foley a little over three weeks ago.

Texas A&M, which hadn't been held under 40 points in a game since 2003 until Tuesday night, committed 24 turnovers and shot just 28.3% from the field. Foley's Trojans, with the man defense his program is known for, held the Aggies in single digits in each of the first three quarters and withstood a fourth quarter comeback.

"That was a great defensive effort on our part. Defense set the tone and I thought our kids played extremely hard on that end of the floor. Offensively, we had our moments. We made some cuts at good times and got some easy baskets, but I think we also missed some easy baskets. For our kids to keep the defensive effort even if they missed the shot, that tells you we're growing up a little bit."

Little Rock (2-5) used a balanced, if not sporadic, offensive attack in the low-scoring win. Only Nikki Metcalfe reached double figures, scoring a game-high 10 points, but seven different players scored in the game. It marked the first time Little Rock has won a game while scoring 42 or fewer points since a 39-35 win over Louisiana on Feb. 28, 2009.

Texas A&M (4-4) was led by Sahara Jones' 10 points, but they were not easy to come by. Jones was 4 of 12 from the field before fouling out late. Sydney Bowles, who entered the game ranking third in the SEC with a 40.5% mark this season from 3-point range, couldn't shake the Foley-organized defense as she finished the game 1-for-11 from the field including an 0-for-9 mark from 3-point range.

Metcalfe recorded two blocks and Jaiyah Harris-Smith matched a career-high with 11 rebounds while dishing out four assists. Jayla Brooks, who returned to the court after taking an inadvertent elbow to the face on Nov. 20 against Arkansas, scored nine points, drew seven fouls and had six rebounds.

The win over Texas A&M follows wins over Auburn and Vanderbilt last season as well as another win over Vanderbilt the year before.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Tia Harvey and Nikki Metcalfe each scored 17 points and Little Rock's defense suffocated Arkansas State in a 60-44 rout of the Red Wolves in front of 1,831 fans Sunday afternoon at the Jack Stephens Center.

The Red Wolves (5-6) had entered the game averaging nearly 73 points per game, shooting over 41% from the field and 03.4% from 3-point range. They left the Jack Stephens Center with season lows in scoring and shooting while still seeking their first-ever win in the building.

Little Rock claimed its 18th consecutive home win over Arkansas State after limiting ASU to 15-for-60 (25%) shooting and just 1 of 11 (9%) from 3-point range. At the same time, Little Rock's offensive struggles this season were seemingly forgotten as the Trojans (3-7) shot 46.2% from the field and scored a season-high 60 points.

Harvey (career) and Metcalfe (season) both set scoring high marks while Jaiyah Harris-Smith dished out a career-best eight assists to go along with her eight points and nine rebounds.

Faith Lee, the reigning Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Week, grabbed a career-high eight rebounds and a career-best four steals in the game while scoring eight points and Nikki Metcalfe registered a season-best five blocks, matching the most recorded by an OVC player in a single game this season.

The Trojans came out of halftime with a slim 24-20 lead and immediately caught fire, exploding with an 8-0 run before Arkansas State could manage to call a timeout. But that only led to a Nikki Metcalfe AND-1 opportunity that she followed up with another made jump shot less than 30 seconds later to extend the run to 13 straight points.

Arkansas State would not be able to recover from that stretch, getting out-scored 22-10 in a quarter where Little Rock was 8-for-12 (67%) from the field while holding ASU to just 3 of 12 shooting in the period.

For every run the Red Wolves attempted to put together in the fourth quarter, the Trojans had an answer with Little Rock leading by as much as 20 before bleeding the clock to secure the 60-44 win.

Five of Little Rock's eight players that saw action shot 40% or better with Metcalfe going 8-for-14 to lead all players. She also grabbed eight rebounds, matching the most she's claimed in a Little Rock uniform.

Little Rock has now won five straight in the series over A-State overall with 18 consecutive wins in the Capital City.

MISSOURI STATE 55, LITTLE ROCK 48

Dec. 21, 2022 • Springfield, Mo. • 1,039

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - Little Rock went on a nine-point run over the final two minutes and forced 10 turnovers in the first quarter, but Missouri State controlled the pace of play in the intervening 28 minutes in a 55-48 loss to the Lady Bears Wednesday afternoon.

The Trojans could not overcome a 41-25 deficit in rebounds, particularly on the offensive side where Missouri State (5-4) turned 19 offensive boards into 10 second chance points. Little Rock (3-8) was out-scored 21-13 thanks mostly to Aniya Thomas scoring 15 of her game-high 19 points in the final period.

Faith Lee led the Trojans with a career-high 17 points, marking the third time in four games the freshman has reached double figures. Tia Harvey added 14 with three rebounds.

The Trojan defense forced 16 turnovers over the Lady Bears but 10 of those came in the first quarter. After that, Missouri State was able to limit its mistakes despite the strenuous pressure of the Little Rock defenders. Five of LR's seven steals came in the first period.

Little Rock's 13 turnovers were the second-lowest mark of the season, but the team's 22 fouls marked the second-highest and several players spent most of the second half in foul trouble. Lee, Angelique Francis and Nikki Metcalfe all finished the game with four fouls while Harvey and Jayla Brooks ended with three. The 22-15 difference in fouls led to Missouri State getting seven extra free throw attempts.

Missouri State was aided by double figures out of Kennedy Taylor (13 points) and Sydney Wilson (12 points), both of whom recorded the majority of their scoring in the first half.

The Trojans and Lady Bears entered the game as two of the only six non-P5 teams in the country to have won games over P5 opponents in each of the past three seasons.

LITTLE ROCK 45, UT MARTIN 44

Dec. 29, 2022 • Little Rock, Ark. • 2,709

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - With Little Rock down two and only 3.3 seconds on the clock, Tia Harvey knew the ball was coming her way and she would have the chance to play the heroine. She played her part perfectly.

Just a few steps past the midcourt line and with a UT Martin defender in her face, Harvey launched a 3-point shot well before the buzzer and was immediately mobbed by her team as it connected for a 45-44 win and a storybook ending to a dramatic week for Little Rock that featured a flooded court, change of venue and the program's first-ever league game in Ohio Valley Conference play.

Little Rock (4-8, 1-0 Ohio Valley) won its conference opener for the ninth consecutive season as the Trojans relied early on the return of Sali Kourouma, who finally reentered the United States on Dec. 18 after being stuck in her home country of Mali for over six months due to visa issues.

Unable to train back home, Kourouma still put together over 26 minutes where she led all players with 14 points while also grabbing five rebounds. Harvey, whose game-winning shot pushed her into double figures for the third straight game, scored 11 points on 2 of 3 shooting from 3-point range.

UT Martin (4-8, 0-1 OVC) had three players reach double figures with Anaya Brown's 12 points leading the way while Shae Littleford and Paige Pipkin both scored 11. Shamece Currie-Jelks, a three-time OVC Freshman of the Week honoree this season that leads UTM with 13.8 points per game was limited to just six points in the contest.

The Skyhawks committed 15 turnovers in the game, half of which were courtesy of eight Little Rock steals. Jayla Brooks led the way with a career-high four steals and Little Rock had an impressive ball control ratio with 12 assists (six by Jaiyah Harris-Smith) and only nine turnovers.

Angelique Francis led all players with eight rebounds and scored six points. Faith Lee, the reigning OVC Freshman of the Week, scored nine points and grabbed three rebounds.

Little Rock had led by as much as 13 in the first half after a 24-point outburst in the second quarter - the team's highest scoring output in any single period this year. But the Skyhawks responded with a 14-5 advantage in the third and chipped away at the Trojan lead until Pipkin's 3-pointer with 1:23 left gave UT Martin the one-point lead.

A single free throw by Lee tied the game at 42-42 before Seygan Robins hit both of her free throws on a controversial foul with 3.3 seconds left, giving UTM the 44-42 lead and setting up Harvey's heroics.

15 LITTLE ROCK 65, SOUTHEAST MO. 45

Jan. 7, 2023 • Little Rock, Ark. • 2,135

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Sali Kourouma erupted for a season-high 30 points and Little Rock's suffocating defense turned 28 Southeast Missouri turnovers in to 33 points as the Trojans easily dispatched of the Redhawks, 65-45, Saturday afternoon at the Jack Stephens Center.

The win, Little Rock's fourth in a row, kept the Trojans (7-8, 4-0) unscathed in Ohio Valley Conference play. The Trojans scored 33 points off turnovers thanks to forcing 28 SEMO miscues, both of which marked season highs.

Kourouma cruised to 16 points at halftime and continued the scoring after intermission, becoming just the fifth OVC player to reach the 30-point plateau this season. Angelique Francis added 13 points for the Trojans.

Southeast Missouri (5-10, 0-4) became the sixth Little Rock opponent to be limited to under 50 points this season as the Redhawks were held to less than 31% (16-for-52) shooting from the field. Jaiyah Green led SEMO with 13 points, but she also was one of three players with a team-high five turnovers. The Trojans are now holding opponents to just 56.1 points per game this season, a mark that would set an Ohio Valley Conference record if the season ended today.

Little Rock jumped on the Redhawks from the start with Kourouma responsible for the 5-0 start. SEMO would tie it at 7-7 but Kourouma's fast-break layup would break the tie and give the Trojans a lead they would not relinquish. Shooting nearly 62% (8-for-13) in the first quarter, Little Rock had a 17-8 lead at the first break thanks to a defensive effort that held SEMO to just one point over the final five minutes of the period.

Little Rock expanded its 11-point halftime lead in the third quarter, going on an 11-0 run at one point and out-scoring the visiting Redhawks 20-9 in the quarter.

The Maroon and Silver tallied a season-high 12 steals in the contest with seven different players recording a swipe. Jaiyah Harris-Smith, who recorded a game-high three steals, also dished out a game-high seven assists. Nikki Metcalfe tallied three of Little Rock's five blocks.
