@WEEVILFOOTBALL NOTES

THE MATCHUP

Fresh off a victory last weekend, the University of Arkansas at Monticello football team travels to Alva, Oklahoma, on Saturday to battle Northwestern Oklahoma State University. Kickoff is set for 4 p.m. at Ranger Field as the Weevils look to extend their win streak to three games.

LAST MEETING

The last time these two teams met was on September 28, 2019 at Ranger Field. The Weevils fell to the Rangers by a score of 28-0. The hosts from Alva used a pair of passing touchdowns from Trent Easley, as well as a rushing touchdown from Jacob Peyton to take an 18-0 lead at the break. UAM attempted to cut into the deficit in the second half, but were unsuccessful and fell to Northwestern Oklahoma State, 28-0.

ABOUT LAST WEEK

The Weevils used a big second quarter to defeat Southwestern Oklahoma State University (SWOSU) on Saturday by a score of 18-16. SWOSU had an 8-0 lead after one quarter of action on a safety and a Kenny Graham rushing touchdown. The Weevils, though, answered back with a Devontae Dean 3 yard rushing touchdown and a 41 yard touchdown pass from Demilon Brown to C.J. Parham. UAM would take a 12-8 lead into the half. Midway through the third quarter, Demilon Brown kept it himself on a 2 yard touchdown run, giving the Weevils a double digit lead. A safety by SWOSU would trim UAM's lead to eight entering the fourth quarter. A four yard touchdown run by SWOSU's Nate Davis would cut the UAM lead to just two, but an unsuccessful two point conversion attempt kept UAM up by a score of 18-16. The Weevils iced the game away on the legs of Demilon Brown as he picked up several key first downs down the stretch to give the Weevils an 18-16 victory over SWOSU on Saturday. Demilon Brown finished with 150 yards through the air and 133 yards on the ground. C.J. Parham led the way in the receiving category as he tallied five catches for 99 yards and a score.

WINNERS OF THE ONE POSSESSION GAMES

UAM has been masterful at winning close games this season as all three of the Weevils' victories have been decided by one possession.

DEMILON BROWN LEADS THE CHARGE

Demilon Brown has been the catalyst for the UAM offense as he paces the team with 218 passing yards per game and has used his elusiveness in the pocket to scamper for 76 yards per contest.

RECEIVING CORE

The Weevils are led by a trio of receivers. Senior wide receiver C.J. Parham leads the way for UAM with 451 yards and four touchdowns on the season. Parham ranks fourth in the conference in receiving yards and total receptions (31). Fellow senior tight end DeAndre Washington has 16 receptions for 236 yards and two touchdowns, while sophomore wide receiver LaCedric Smith has posted 184 yards and one score on 14 catches.

DEFENSIVE DEPTH

Defensively, 13 different Weevils have registered double-digit total tackles through the first five contests with five UAM athletes already surpassing 20 tackles. Tahji Gilbert, Kaytron Allen, and Chason Traylor have each tallied 25 tackles, while DeQuan Street leads the secondary with two interceptions on the season.

DEFENDING THE PASS

Six players have collected an interception so far this season for UAM. DeQuan Street leads the secondary with two picks to go along with one pass breakup. Kaytron Allen and Greg Hooks each have one interception and combined for five pass breakups.

SCOUTING THE RANGERS

Northwestern Oklahoma State University is 0-5 on the season. Offensively, the Rangers rank 11th in the GAC in scoring and 9th in total yards averaging 19.2 points and 355.4 yards per game. On defense, NWOSU is surrendering the most points per contest in the conference at 45.4 points per game, while giving up 516.4 yards per contest.

NWOSU PASSING ATTACK

The Rangers will rely heavily on the arm of Tanner Clarkson. Clarkson ranks fourth in the conference in passing yards with 1241 yards. The Rangers are third in the conference in passing attempts at 171 with Clarkson throwing for nine touchdowns on the season. NWOSU will use a trio of running backs as a change of pace, however, the Rangers rely more on the pass.

UP NEXT

UAM hosts Ouachita Baptist University on Oct. 16 for the Hall of Fame Game sponsored by Commercial Bank. The showdown between the Weevils and the Tigers is scheduled during Homecoming for a 2:00 p.m. kickoff.

William "Hud" Jackson enters his tenth year at the helm of the University of Arkansas at Monticello Football Program. Jackson was named the 25th head football coach in UAM's history and has been mentoring Ball Weevils since 2011.

In the last nine years, UAM is 34-65 under Jackson. His 34 wins are now tied for fourth-most all-time in Ball Weevil football history. Jackson has also guided seven All-American honorees, nine All-Region selections and 40 All-Great American Conference athletes. Several of Jackson's former players have also gone on to play at the next level including Erik Croker (NFL), Jalen Tolliver (NFL), D.J. Stephens (AFL), Cole Sears (CFL) and Keith Reynolds (CFL).

Last season in 2019, Jackson led the Weevils to a 5-6 overall record, but it was highlighted by a 4-1 record at Cotton Ball Stadium. UAM was led offensively by GAC Freshman of the Year Demilon Brown. Brown was UAM's first Freshman of the Year honoree since the GAC's inception in 2011. Jackson also had six other GAC honorees and it was the most selections they have had since 2011.

In 2018, Jackson coached the Ball Weevils to a 6-6 record and coached All-American DeAndre Washington to a stellar sophomore season. The Weevils also earned an invitation to play in the Corsicana Bowl in Corsicana, Texas, after knocking-off rival, Southern Arkansas in the Battle of the Timberlands on Senior Day.

Jackson was named UAM's 25th head football coach on his 43rd birthday, December 14, 2010. He led the Ball Weevils to a 5-6 record during his first year in the green and white, including a stunning 23-9 victory over then ranked No. 4 Valdosta State in the fifth week of the season. He guided the Ball Weevils to a fourth place finish in the first year of the Great American Conference after the league's head coaches picked UAM to finish last.

Along the way, UAM ranked in the top half of 20 different GAC statistical categories, including the league's best numbers in total interceptions (17) and first downs (21.8 per game). His offense ranked third with an average of just under 400 yards per game, and his defense also ranked third with just 362.5 yards per game allowed.

Jackson and his staff produced nine all-conference selections during the 2011 campaign, including a trio of first team honorees in receiver D.J. Stephens, returning offensive lineman Seth Oxner and punter Derek Jambon.

In addition to his attention to on-field production, Jackson's staff has also revamped the UAM football roster, striving to secure as much local talent as possible. In his first recruiting class prior to the 2011 season, Jackson unveiled a list of 34 high school seniors, 22 of which coming from within a 90-mile radius of the UAM campus. More of the same this past February with another dozen locked up from within that area.

Prior to taking the UAM job, Jackson had served the previous six seasons as associate head coach at University of Central Arkansas, a member of the NCAA Division I-Football Championship Subdivision.

As associate head coach at UCA, Jackson aided Clint Conque's Bears in the school's transition from the Gulf South Conference to becoming one of the nation's top Division I-FCS programs. He was the director of football operations at UCA, which included the organization of the team's travel, the bidding and ordering of all football equipment and supervision of student managers.

In addition to his duties as UCA's director of football operations, Jackson coached the running backs and return specialists.

At UCA, Jackson coached Brent Grimes, a two-time All-Southland Conference running back (2008-09) and an All-America honoree in 2009. Jackson also coached Kentrel Rogers, who earned All-America honors in 2005, and most recently was named to the Gulf South Conference All-Decade team.

Two of Jackson's return specialists were the best in the SLC. Tristan Jackson earned All-America and All-SLC honors after leading all NCAA divisions in 2007 with an average of 23.6 yards per punt return and 25.8 yards per kickoff return. A year later, T.J. Adams led the SLC with an average of 26.6 yards per kickoff return.

The Bears were 7-4 in 2010 with a 4-3 mark in the SLC, and were ranked in the FCS Top 25 poll for the fourth straight season. In 2008, Jackson helped UCA to its most successful season since moving to Division I-FCS, posting a 10-2 overall record while winning the SLC title with a 6-1 league record. The Bears finished ranked No. 12 in the final polls and had 15 All-SLC honorees.

Prior to joining the staff at UCA, Jackson served a variety of roles at Central Catholic High School in Morgan City, La. from 1997-2005. In addition to being the athletics director, head football coach and head baseball coach, he also served as the school's disciplinarian, textbook coordinator and mission development coordinator, as well as assisting the school's fundraising initiatives.

At CCHS, Jackson led his football teams to an overall record of 65-32, including a state runner-up finish in 1997 and three district championships (1997, 2000, 2004). After each of those titles, he was named district coach of the year. He coached Curtis Randall at CCHS, who played for the NFL's Seattle Seahawks in 2004.

As head baseball coach, Jackson led CCHS to an overall record of 84-36, including three state championships (2002, 2004-05). He earned district coach of the year honors four times in baseball (2000, 2002-04).

Jackson entered the coaching ranks as an assistant football and baseball coach at Rayne (La.) High School in 1992, and remained on staff until 1993. At Rayne, Jackson assisted the school's baseball team in its 1992 state championship campaign.

In 1993, Jackson moved to Assumption High School in Napoleonville, La., where he served for three seasons as the football team's offensive coordinator and assistant baseball coach.

The next stop for Jackson was Oberlin (La.) High School from 1995-97. During that tenure, he served as the school's athletics director, head football coach and head baseball coach.

Jackson graduated from E.D. White High School in Thibodaux, La. in 1987, where he was an all-state baseball player. He continued his education at McNeese State University in Lake Charles, La., where he earned a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1992.

Jackson was a three-year starter at quarterback for the Cowboys. He also lettered in baseball, earning the team's most valuable player and outstanding pitcher awards in 1991.

Jackson's father, Sonny, was the head football coach at Nicholls State University in Thibodaux from 1981-1986, and is still the program's most successful coach. During his tenure, Sonny Jackson led the Colonels to a 39-28-1 record, winning the Gulf Star Conference in 1984 and taking NSU to its first ever NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearance in 1986. He was also the head coach at McNeese State for three seasons from 1987-89.

Hud Jackson and his wife, Patricia, were married in 1989. They have one son, William, Jr. (27), and two daughters, Alexis (31) and her husband, William, and Baleigh (22).
