GRAMBLING STATE 2010 SEASON OUTLOOK

A 7-4 season and a second place divisional finish by most accounts would signify a successful season, but not for the Grambling State Tigers football program where Head Coach Rod Broadway has instilled a mentality where only excellence is expected. Now as Broadway looks ahead to the upcoming season he relates that this will be season of change for the G-Men as they look to return to the summit of the Southwestern Athletic Conference.

"I'm changing the way we play defense; we are going to be a lot more aggressive. We are going to challenge people and not lay back and let people dictate to us...We can't survive playing defense the way we played defense last year", Broadway revealed. "We made some changes offensively that we think will help us. One of the things we have to do is learn how to manage the game. We are going to have to be smarter coaches and coach a little better than we did last year and our players will have to play a little better than they did last year."

OFFENSIVE LINE

One of the biggest changes on the Tigers offense will come at the offensive line where the days of the 340-pound bulldozers have transformed to a sleeker more agile athlete honed to "get down field". The Tigers will look to the likes of Julian Wyndon, Charvo Lampton and Victor Phillips to lead the band of lineman as they develop their new style of line play.

"What we are going to do is what I've been wanting to do since I got here and that's get more athletic upfront. With the way we play we have to get guys that can run. We are trying to get the 300-pounds guys, not the 340-pounds ones, that can run that can move their feet and get down field and get after somebody," Broadway said. "People like Julian Wyndon is starting to come around. He is the athletic type guy we need in there. Charvo Lampton is another athletic guy that's making improvements."

RUNNING BACKS

The strength of the Tigers offense will lie in their backfield where GSU returns arguably the best one-two punch in 2009 second team all-swac performers Frank Warren and Cornelius Walker.

Warren led the team and ranked third in the conference in rushing a year ago with 926 yards on 166 carries with seven touchdowns; while Walker was right on his heels with 113 attempts for 645 yards, also with seven scores. Kenneth Batiste and Dawrence Roberts will also be called on to make major contributions as the Tigers began to change up their looks. Batiste had limited touches in the backfield totaling 76 yards on 16 attempts.

"Both of them are good running backs, both of them have really good vision, good feet and good balance (Warren and Walker). Neither one of them are that homerun hitter that you would like to have but they both are 900-yards, thousand-yards guys a year. Both of them are really good players, have good work ethics, good kids that you enjoy working with," Broadway continued. "We moved Batiste back to running back and we have to put him in position to do some things that he can do. Dawrence Roberts is going to be a big time back for us, now he's that homerun hitter. He has to get better as far as blocking and picking up linebackers but once he learns how to play we think he's going to be a good player for us."

RECEIVERS / TIGHT END

The wide receivers will once again be the great mystery of the GSU offense. A focal point of the Tigers spring workouts their ability to make big plays and stretch the field will be closely scrutinized throughout the season.

Kiare Thompson led GSU's receivers last season with 28 receptions for 387 yards and a score. Van Phillips averaged a team high 17.8 yards per catch as he picked up 267 yards and three scores on 15 receptions; while Warren had 23 receptions out of the backfield for 205 yards and three scores. Larry Donnell will also look to have a break out year. The 6-6 tight end recorded 14 receptions for 141 yards and two scores last season.

"Our receivers should be a lot better than what they are right now but we are changing some of the things we do. Kiare Thompson is smooth and he's good. Van Phillips has gotten better; he has a big body and should be able to make some big plays because he runs well. His work ethics have improved but he has to learn how to run better routes and how to use his hands," Broadway said. "Bakari Maxwell and Desmond Spivey have done good jobs for us, so we have the talent and the numbers we just have to get them coached up."

QUARTERBACKS

At quarterback Grambling will rely on fresh faces to lead them into battle. Sophomore frontrunner Danny Reyes played in two games in his first season where he completed 50-percent of his passes including a touchdown. Reyes notched a 121.6 pass efficiency rating in his limited action.

"At quarterback we have Danny Reyes that hopefully can develop and we have a couple guys coming in here that I'm excited about. We have to play with what we have and make some changes. As coaches we have to identify what guys can do and put them in position to do what they do well," said Broadway.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The heart and soul of the Tigers defense will lie up front with the defensive line. Led by All-American and two-time SWAC defensive player of the year Christian Anthony the Tigers return the depth and experience to form one of the top front four in the conference. With Anthony on one side Mr. Dependable Kendale Robinson book ends the other as Jomarcus Savage and Antoine Rogers solidify the middle.

Anthony, named to this seasons ESPN NFL watch list, led the team and conference in solo tackles with 55 and forced fumbles (5); while recording team highs of eight sacks and five interceptions. His 76 total tackles were first among SWAC defensive lineman. Robinson turned in a solid season recording 37 tackles (seven for loss, 3.5 sacks), two pass breakups and a recovered fumble.

"Christian is a good player but we just have to make him better, he can't be happy with where he is, he has to continue to make progress and continue to get better on a daily basis. Kendall Robinson is the other end that's played a lot of ball for us. He's dependable, not very flashy, is going to be where he is suppose to be and is a great team guy, the kind you enjoy having on your football team. He is just a dependable guy that doesn't get a lot of press but just plays his butt off," Broadway added. "Inside Jomarcus Savage is having an outstanding spring and Rogers is doing a real good job after moving to nose guard."

LINEBACKERS

The Tigers Linebacking corp will once again be a bright point for the defense. Cliff Exama (2009 1st team All-SWAC) the G-Men top returning tackler returns to solidify the unit, together with Derrick Johnson and Mycheal Sampson Grambling should once again possess a formidable defense.

Exama, who joins Anthony on the ESPN NFL watch list led the Tigers and ranked second in the conference in tackles with 94 (12 for loss). Johnson recorded 37 tackles (4.5 for loss) and a recovered fumble while Mycheal Sampson added 17 tackles.

"Derrick Johnson is what I like to call a self-made guy. By all means he's undersize but he just works and works and works, has a great attitude and has worked himself into being a good football player. If everybody had Derrick's want to and work ethics we would be an outstanding football team because by all rights this guy shouldn't be playing but now he's starting for us...Cliff Exama did a good job for us," said Broadway. "Mycheal Sampson, JaCarde Carter, Toby Mott have shown flashes but they have to get consistent."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Experience and depth will be the key to a Tigers defensive backfield that looks to improve from a subpar campaign. Led by Desmond Leonard, Bruna Foster and Derrick Wilhite the GSU defensive backfield will play with a chip on their shoulders as they look to return to the stature of two seasons ago when the led the nation in interceptions.

Leonard was sixth on the team in tackles with 40. He also had one interception, forced fumble and recovered fumble. Foster the third highest returning tackler from last season had 48 tackles (3.5 for loss), while Wilhite garnered 35 tackles a sack and interception and two blocked kicks.

"This group has got to play better than last year. We gave up way too many plays secondary wise...Desmond Leonard can flat out run but needs to get a little bit tougher especially against the running game; Dominic Bell is probably one of the best athletes out there but has to continue to get tougher and better," Broadway continued. "Bruna Foster could be one of the better players in the conference if he can get more physical. If we can get him to bring the heat he can really be an impact player."

SPECIAL TEAMS

It was the best of times; it was the worst of times for the Tigers special team unit. The Tigers boasted the top place kicking unit led by All-American kicker Ari Johnson and one of the SWAC's top return units led by Kiare Thompson (2009 1st team All-SWAC Return Specialist), however, despite the success in these areas the G-Men will have to strengthen a kick-off coverage and punt coverage group that often left opponents in prime field position.

"One of our worse teams last year was our kick-off coverage team due impart to us having a freshman kicker that couldn't put the ball in the part of the field that we wanted to cover; but the other part is when we had good kicks we didn't cover," said Broadway. "Our punter has a chance of being a good punter. We probably tried too much with him as a freshman last year, our kick off guy did a decent job he did a good job on PAT's and field goal we just have to get him a little more consistent in kicking the ball off deeper."

GRAMBLING STATE 2010 COACHING STAFF

The ninth head coach in Grambling State history, recently completed his third year at the helm of the storied football program.

Faced with high expectations entering the 2008 campaign following a second place finish in the Southwestern Athletic Conference standings during the 2007 season, Broadway successfully guided Grambling back to the top of the SWAC as he led the Tigers to their 14th National Black College Championship and 22nd SWAC Championship in school history with a 11-2 overall record and an undefeated SWAC record. Last year's 11-2 record marked only the fifth time in school history that a team has achieved an 11-win season at Grambling. In addition, Broadway became only the third coach in school history to surpass the 50-win Milestone at Grambling in addition to earning SWAC Coach of the Year Honors and The Pigskin Club of Washington D.C., Inc. honors on more than one occasion. Under the guidance of Broadway the Tigers were among the nation's elite as they finished ranked No. 1 in the Sheridan Poll and No. 24 in the Sports Network Division I Championship Subdivision Poll.

On the field, the Tiger defensive unit completed another stellar year under Broadway's watch as they concluded the season ranked first nationally in turnover margin, first in pass efficiency defense, seventh in total defense and seventh in rush defense. Individually, a total of three players from the team earned All-American honors highlighted by defensive lineman Melvin Matthews' selection to two All-American teams and quarterback Greg Dillon's Newcomer of the Year honors. In addition, nine players were honored with a spot on the 2008 All-SWAC Team while five players received Louisiana Sports Writers Association honors.

During his first season as head coach of the Tigers in 2007, Broadway immediately made an impact as he guided the Tigers to a five-win turnaround (8-4) from the previous season in addition to capturing the SWAC Western Division Championship and a berth in the SWAC Championship Game. A total of five players received either All-American or All-SWAC honors under his watch and he was also a finalist for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

Grambling's defense was one of the nation's best as the Tigers finished the year ranked 12th nationally in total defense, eighth in rushing defense and 11th in scoring defense. The Tigers held three teams to 30 or less yards on the ground last season and forced 10 teams into committing three or more turnovers per game. As a result of the unit's success, defensive tackle Jason Banks (Arizona Cardinals) and safety DeMichael Dizer (Seattle Seahawks), earned free agent invites to National Football League training camps.

On the offensive side of the ball, the Tigers featured one of the top offensive units in the SWAC as several players set career highs at their respective positions under the watchful eye of Broadway. On an individual note, wideout Clyde Edwards finished as Grambling's all-time leading receiver and earned spots on the FCS Fabulous 50 All-American team and Jacksonville Jaguars training camp roster. Freshman running back Frank Warren was the SWAC's Freshman of the Year in 2007 while tight end Tim Abney, specialist Tim Manuel and the offensive line duo of Randell Bennett and Tavarus Cockrell were selected to participate in the inaugural Fight on Foundation Heritage Bowl All-Star Game in Fullerton, Calif.

As a team, the Tigers returned to the national scene after a year's hiatus and finished the 2007 season ranked 25th nationally in the Sports Network Division I Championship Subdivision Poll and seventh overall in the Sheridan Poll.

A native of Oakboro, N.C., the 29-year veteran of the coaching ranks came to Grambling after enjoying a successful stint at North Carolina Central where he wasted no time in putting his stamp on the NCCU program by posting three consecutive winning seasons of eight or more games after a 4-6 record in his inaugural campaign. During the 2006 season, Broadway made history as he led the Eagles to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Division II's Southeast Region, a No. 1 ranking in the SBN Poll and back-to-back CIAA titles for the first time since the 1953-54 seasons. In addition, the Eagles also fielded the CIAA's top-ranked offense (345.1 ypg) along with the 15th ranked defense in NCAA Division II (250.7 ypg). Broadway's 2006 team also featured four players who earned SBN All-American honors including the SBN's Offensive Player of the Year in freshman quarterback Stadford Brown, 12 All-CIAA selections, 10 Daktronics All-Southeast Region honorees and two Associated Press Little All-
