MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE 2010 SEASON OUTLOOK

Rice. Totten. Cooley. Knight. Nelson. Moore. Question. What do these names have in common? Answer: Delta Devil greats who are not on the roster this season. Morgan. C. Williams. Malone. Bowie. Stargell. Burrell. A. Williams. McFadden. Question: What do these names have in common? Answer: Names of the 2010 MVSU Delta Devil program that will have to come up big if the team is to be successful this season.

The Mississippi Valley State Delta Devils come into the 2010 season with a new head coach, a new style of play and a list of unanswered questions longer than roll call during the first week of army basic training. However, two things are certain - this is not your average program and this is not going to be a cakewalk. Gone are a core group of seniors who were battle tested and had a chance to taste the best and the worst of MVSU football. From the team's first winning season in a long time to enduring back-to-back eight-loss campaigns, it has been the best and the worst of times for this program. However, with a new, energetic sheriff in town and joined by a cacophony of talented, yet somewhat inexperienced group of student-athletes, expect to see something different from the 2010 MVSU Delta Devil football team.

OFFENSE

When fans look to the field for the 2010 football season, those looking for a unit looking to score quickly through the air will not find it. A new offensive scheme based on ball control, spreading the field and using the athletes on the field will be in place and looks to be effective with the personnel at hand.

Quarterbacks. The Delta Devils return two quarterbacks from last season that saw some action and entered the spring hungry to take the starting reins. With the departure of two-year starter Paul Roberts, Anthony Bowie and Marvin Pittman each had their chance to show why the starting spot should be theirs. During the spring, Bowie and Pittman each got their snaps with the projected first unit and each was able to distinguish. Pittman (6-1, 185 Sr.), a transfer from Coahoma Community College, used his athleticism and quickness to be effective. Bowie (6-0, 180 Soph), a sophomore from Birmingham's Erwin High, showed a strong arm to make the quality throws and began to show the decision making skills needed in the new MVSU style of offense. However, actual game experience on the Division I level is limited. Combined, the two signal callers combined to complete 41-of-105 pass attempts for 642 yards, a touchdown and six interceptions.

Running Backs. One down spot for the program last season was the production from the offensive backfield. Limited production forced the offense into several difficult positions - the likes of which the Delta Devils need to avoid this season to be effective. Returning to the fold is a couple of capable running backs which must produce early and often for MVSU in 2010. The team's leading rusher last season returns in the person of Stephen Robert. In 2009, he had 54 carries for 207 yards and three touchdowns. But he must improve on his 3.8 yards per carry average if he has any chance at leading this offense. Robert (6-1, 215, Sr.) also helped out in the passing game, being the team's third leading receiver with 27 catches for 348 yards - an average of 12.9 yards per reception. Also returning are Milton Gaston and Tristian Hudnall. Gaston is a strong powerful back who possess great speed for a 6-foot, 250-pound rusher. Hudnall (5-11, 205, Sr.) is a speed back mostly used on kick returns last season. He has decent hands and has enough athletic ability to be an elusive runner downfield.

Wide Receivers. The most experienced group on the offensive side of the ball include the members of the wide receiver corps. With the top five receivers returning from last season and a new scheme that should allow them to use their outstanding athletic skills with and without the ball, fans and supporters should expect big things from this group of exciting performers. Chris Williams, Brandon Stargell, Paul Cox and Cameron Russ will be the leaders of the unit as they look to return to their position of offensive dominance. Williams (5-11, 150, Soph), a sophomore from Birmingham, had 32 receptions for 393 yards and three touchdowns. Stargell (6-2, 195, Sr.) led the unit with 31 receptions for 447 yards and four touchdowns - his 14.4 yards per catch average will go along way into pushing the Delta Devil offense down the field. Cox - a big and fast receiver at 6-foot-5, 190-pounds - has shown flashes of greatness with 20 catches for 285 yards and two scores. The lesser known of the group proved to make big catches at needed times last season. Russ's 18 catches for 246 yards and two touchdowns may not have been awe-inspiring, but Russ (6-0, 170, Sr.) has shown the ability to be a possession-style receiver will make him extremely important this season. Combined with the production from the Delta Devil running backs - especially Robert and Hudnall - all the pieces of the puzzle could be in place for a strong offensive showing.

Offensive Line. The Delta Devil offensive line must step up and be a powerful unit for Mississippi Valley State to be a success in 2010. With four starters returning on the unit, the battle in the trenches should be an interesting one. Among those returning are offensive lineman Keynnon Mumphrey (6-0, 300), Ian Luckett (6-2, 300), Cory Wright (6-2, 315) and Bryant Taylor (6-4, 310).

DEFENSE

Last season, an attacking, ball-hawking style of defensive play was on the field and found favor in the eyes of the beholder. This season, while the scheme may look different, the thought behind the process will be the same - get to the ball, cause turnovers and confusion, and make an impact.

Defensive Line. With the graduation of Chris Ivy and Daniel Clay along with the unexpected departure of nose tackle Jared Green, the Delta Devil front line is a unit in need of leadership and some experience. However the group is not totally young as two players return to take charge of the unit. Reginald Foster and David Coleman will be called upon to be a force in the trenches. Foster (6-1, 260, Jr.) finished last season with 59 total tackles (5th most on team) along with five sacks, 9.5 tackles for loss and a pass breakup. Coleman (6-2, 285, Sr.) is a strong defensive lineman who saw limited action last season. However, with a strong spring practice and improved conditioning, he will be needed to be a leader on and off the field.

Linebackers. For a number of years, the linebackers' group was the heart and soul of the Delta Devil defense. While the names have changed, the impact that the group must provide this season remains the same. Rory Malone, Dekoven Burrell, Desmond Spivey are three of the players who will be counted on to make impact plays throughout the season. Malone (5-10, 225 Sr.) was the leader of the defense last season. He led the team with 76 total tackles while garnering two sacks, an interception and 6.5 tackles for loss. Burrell (6-0, 210, Jr.) had 43 tackles and 1 1/2 sacks in 2009 while Spivey (5-11, 198, Jr.) finished with 30 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

Defensive Backs. Last season, the MVSU secondary showed the ability to be impact players. Led by departing free safeties Michael Higgins (third on team in tackles) and Ryan Burciaga, the secondary showed the ability to play fast and hard. This season, with a good number of those young men returning, the MVSU defensive backfield will again need to be a important cog in Coach Morgan's scheme. Leading that charge will be returning starters Markkus Davis, Armon Williams and Michael Boykins. Davis (6-2, 195 Sr.) should resume the starting strong safety role. The team's second-leading tackler last season finished with 72 total tackles, two pass breakups and a sack. Williams and Boykins will be in the running for the starting cornerback positions while Williams may be in line to take over at free safety. Williams (6-2, 200, Jr.) had 34 tackles and a sack last year while Boykins (5-11, 180 Sr.) tallied 25 tackles and an interception.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Carlos Sanchez and Zack Gilarski return to serve as the kicker and punter for the Delta Devils. While both have handled all of the duties, Sanchez will specialize in the field goals and kickoffs while Gilarski - an all-conference punter in 2008 - will handle the punting responsibilities. In the return game, it will be player-by-committee as a number of Devils will see time. Paul Cox, Brandon Stargell, Gerard Hall and Tristian Hudnall seem to be the front runners in this area.

SCHEDULE

The 2010 football schedule is a competitive one that features contests against all the members of the Southwestern Athletic Conference and a non-conference match-up with a tough Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference institution.

"The 2010 Delta Devil football season is going to be an electrifying campaign," said interim director of athletics Donald Sims. "With the caliber of athletes that the SWAC produces and a current infusion of new coaches and new ideas, football fans can expect a season filled with competition and excitement."

The month of September features road contests at Alabama State, South Carolina State of the MEAC and Jackson State which bookend the home opener against Alcorn State on September 18. In October, MVSU will face traditional conference title contenders in Prairie View A&M, Southern, Grambling State and Texas Southern. In the final month of the season, the Delta Devils will face rival institution Arkansas-Pine Bluff and will celebrate Homecoming 2010 against Alabama A&M.

"We are excited about the challenge that the upcoming schedule presents," said new MVSU head coach Karl Morgan. "Starting the season with Alabama State, followed by the MEAC champion and FCS playoff participant South Carolina State and closing the month of September with our in-state rivals Alcorn State and Jackson State - we are going to see just where we are in the opening four weeks

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE 2010 COACHING STAFF

Veteran collegiate coach and former UCLA standout Karl Morgan was introduced as the 15th head coach at Mississippi Valley State University on January 11, 2010. He comes to MVSU after serving five seasons as the defensive coordinator at the University of North Alabama. Over the last five seasons Morgan has helped lead UNA to a combined 55-10 record that includes a Gulf South Conference Championship and four NCAA playoff berths. With Morgan as defensive coordinator, the Lions have a plus 82 turnover margin in the 65 games he has coached at North Alabama.

Last season, in 2009, the Lions finished with an 11-2 record and participated in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division II playoffs. The University of North Alabama placed four players on the 2009 Daktronics, Inc. All-American first team and the 2009 Associated Press Little All-America Team, led by first-team selections Michael Johnson and Montrell Craft. Johnson, a senior linebacker from Panama City, Fla., and Craft, a senior defensive lineman, were both four-year lettermen for the Lions, made the UNA Team of the Decade for 1999-2008 and had tremendous senior seasons. Johnson was also named the Ron Lenz National Defensive Player of the Year. UNA was sixth in the nation in pass efficiency defense, 11th in scoring defense and turnover margin 26th in pass defense.

In 2008, the Lions went 12-2 and reached the semifinals of the Division II playoffs. The UNA defense forced the most turnovers in the nation with 44 and picked off the most passes (32). UNA ranked fourth in the nation in turnover margin, seventh in pass efficiency defense and 14th in scoring defense (17.36). A total of seven UNA defenders earned All-GSC honors, including linemen Montrell Craft and Derrick Chatman. In 2007 the Lions went 10-2 and reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division II playoffs behind a defense that ranked seventh nationally in turnovers gained and 25th in scoring defense. In 2006 UNA was 11-1, won the GSC title and reached the quarterfinals of the Division II playoffs. The Lion defense ranked ninth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 13.8 points per game. Five Lion defenders earned All-GSC honors.

In 2005 Morgan's defense at UNA ranked among the NCAA Division II national leaders in every category and helped the Lions post an 11-3 record and reach the semifinals of the Division II playoffs. The UNA defense recovered 20 fumbles and intercepted 21 passes as the Lions had a +19 turnover margin. Four UNA defenders received All-Gulf South Conference honors following the season, with defensive back Blake Farris named to four All-America teams. Farris and defensive lineman Lee Vickers both signed with National Football League teams following the season. Prior to coming to North Alabama, Morgan coached at Hampton (Va.) University and Alcorn State (Miss.) University. Morgan also spent four seasons as the defensive line coach at Arkansas State University. Prior to his appointment with the Indians, he was the defensive line coach at Purdue University.

Morgan got his start in coaching as the head football coach at Central Catholic High School in Morgan City, Louisiana from 1989 to 1992. He then entered the college ranks and served as the defensive line coach at Nicholls State University from 1993 to 1994. During the 1995 season, Morgan was the defensive line coach at Southern University. His defensive line was part of a unit that helped to lead the Jaguars to a 11-1 record en route to the Black College National Championship.

During his playing days, the Houma, Louisiana native was a nose guard at UCLA and was a four-year letterwinner with the Bruins. He was the defensive captain of the 1983 Rose Bowl championship team. During his career with the Bruins, Morgan recorded 35 tackles for loss and 17 quarterback sacks. He was a two-time recipient of the Henry R. "Red" Sanders Trophy for Most Valuable Defensive Player at UCLA. Morgan earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from UCLA in 1984.

Morgan played professional football with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League in 1983. He was also drafted by the Arizona Wranglers of the United States Football League. He then played with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League from 1984 to 1986 and also played with the Houston Oilers in 1986. In 1992 he played Arena football with
