Men's Basketball Information Guide

This information guide is intended to serve as a primary information source for writers, broadcasters, sports directors, sports editors, sports information directors and fans who follow the UB men's basketball team.

The University at Buffalo Athletic Communications Office is always interested in assisting members of the media in their coverage of UB men's basketball. Publicity and media information for men's basketball is handled by Athletic Communications Director Jon Fuller. Weekly news releases, statistics, photographs and other materials are available to media outlets covering the Bulls' men's basketball team by contacting the UB Athletic Communications Office at (716) 645-6311.

Athletic Communications Office

The Athletic Communications Office is located on the first floor of UB's Alumni Arena (Room 28). The easiest way to get there is to enter Alumni Arena take the elevator to the ground floor and look for Room 28 - near the arena floor.

Interview Policy

All interviews with UB basketball players or coaches must be arranged through the UB Athletic Communications Office. In order to avoid any deadline conflicts, it is best to call two days in advance.

Game Day Services

Prior to each game, game notes and media guides for both teams will be available in the Alumni Arena Media Room. Food and refreshments will be served in the Alumni Arena Media Room one hour before tip-off.

Box scores will be available at halftime and immediately following each game. Updated boxes can be printed during the game upon request. Final game packets, including halftime and final boxes, play-by-play and shot chart will be available at the conclusion of each game.

Media Credentials

Please direct all requests for press row and photo credentials for University at Buffalo home games to Jon Fuller, Athletic Communications Director, by calling (716) 645-6762. Requests can also be e-mailed to jfuller3@buffalo.edu. Please send in your request at least 48 hours in advance to ensure credentials being granted.

Media Parking

Parking for the media is free and available in the Alumni Arena service lot, located behind Alumni Arena. Media parking passes must be requested with credential requests and be made two weeks in advance for passes to be mailed.

Photographers

Photographers are allowed along each baseline. No photographers are allowed to take pictures at or behind the official scorers table or team benches without the prior approval of the UB Athletic Communications Office.

Visiting Radio

All visiting radio stations will receive two seats along press row near the visitor's bench. Phone lines will be available from a central hub location. Please notify the UB Communications Office two weeks prior to game day if you plan to broadcast the game.

Stat Monitors

Remote stat display monitors will be provided along press row during the game. One display will be provided for each radio station broadcasting the game as well as any television broadcast teams. Remaining display terminals will be provided for sports writers on press row.

Telephone/Fax Services

Telephone services are available to the media in the Media Room. The UB Athletic Communications Office fax is (716) 645-6840. The UB Athletics general fax number is (716) 645-3756. Both machines are available upon request.

Postgame Procedures

At the conclusion of the game, head coach Reggie Witherspoon, selected UB players, as well as the visiting head coach and players will be available in the Alumni Arena Media Room after a 10-minute cooling off period as sanctioned by the NCAA.

The UB lockerroom area will be CLOSED to the media after games. Any media requesting interviews with UB players should contact Jon Fuller or a member of the Athletic Communications Office near the end of the game so those players can be made available.

The order of interviews in the media room after games will be:

1. Visiting Coach/Players
2. Coach Witherspoon
3. UB players

Statistics will be available approximately 15 minutes after the game in the Media Room. Stats will also be available at halftime and during timeouts when requested.

Any other special requests should be directed to Jon Fuller at least 24 hours before game day.

Practice

The men's basketball team generally practices between 11:00 am - 2:00 pm on weekdays (TBA on weekends). Practices are closed to the public but open to all media wishing to conduct interviews. Head coach Reggie Witherspoon is generally available to media after the conclusion of practice. Please contact Jon Fuller in advance to arrange an interview.

Alumni Arena

The 6,100-seat Alumni Arena is the home of the UB men's basketball team. The Arena is located on UB's North campus in Amherst, approximately 15 minutes from downtown Buffalo. Members of the media needing to pick up a credential should enter Alumni Arena through the front entrance located one level above the main floor of the gym.

NEW-LOOK BULLS LOOK TO MAKE NOISE IN 2010-11

Over the past two seasons, University at Buffalo men's basketball head coach Reggie Witherspoon used a stable of upperclassmen to lead the Bulls to 21 wins in 2009 and 18 wins in 2010. For the Bulls to be successful in 2010-11, Witherspoon will be leaning on a much younger squad.

The Bulls will need to replace six seniors from a season ago, including three starters and the team's top five scorers.

Led by a pair of seniors, the Bulls do have eight lettermen returning. Witherspoon will look to mesh his eight returners with five freshmen. It is the first time in 12 seasons at the helm of the UB men's basketball team that Witherspoon will have five freshmen on his team.

One of those seniors is forward Jawaan Alston. The Uniontown, PA native has played in 83 games in his career. He is coming off his most successful season where he averaged four points and 3.5 rebounds per game. He is a great finisher around the basket, proven by his team-best 61.5 field goal percentage last season.

Senior point guard Byron Mulkey sat out last season as a redshirt and is anxious to get back in the lineup. The energetic Mulkey has averaged 6.4 points and 2.5 assists per game for his career and is likely to take over the starting point guard role.

The majority of the Bulls experience lies in its frontcourt. Along with Alston, the Bulls also return juniors Titus Robinson and Mitchell Watt who are both third-year starters.

Robinson started 29 games last year and averaged 5.8 points and 3.7 rebounds per game. Robinson scored eight or more points in 11 games last season and will be leaned on to provide more scoring this season.

Watt made 25 starts last season and averaged 5.5 points and 2.5 rebounds per game. He led the Bulls and ranked third in the MAC with 39 blocked shots. With more experienced players ahead of him, Watt's minutes were at times limited last season. However, when given the chance he made the most of his time. In the 10 games he played 17 minutes or more, Watt averaged 9.4 points per game.

Zach Filzen is a junior shooting guard who played his first season for the Bulls last year after transferring from Northern Arizona. Filzen is the Bulls' top three-point threat. Of his 19 field goals last year, 15 came from beyond the arc.

Dave Barnett is a junior guard/forward combo who has come a long way since walking onto the team three years ago. Barnett could be a key component to the Bulls' success this season. After redshirting in 2008 and appearing in only one game in 2009, Barnett lifted his level of play last season. He averaged 2.3 points and 1.6 rebounds per game. He had a stretch of 15 straight games in which he scored at least one point, including a game-high nine points in a win at Wisconsin-Green Bay.

The Bulls return a pair of sophomores whose roles will likely increase this season. Point guard Tony Watson II appeared in 18 games and made one start last season. He averaged 0.8 points and 0.5 assists per game.

Mike Clifford is a sophomore forward who appeared in nine games as a freshman last season. He averaged 1.9 points and one rebound per game. He showed a glimpse of his potential against Buffalo State (12/12) when he had 14 points, six rebounds and a pair of blocks in only 13 minutes.

Derek Wolfley is a 6-7 redshirt-sophomore forward who transferred from Iona. He sat out last season per NCAA transfer rules.

Five freshmen will don the blue and white uniform and will be looked to for contribution this season.

Three of the freshmen are guards. Auraum Nuiriankh, Jarod Oldham and Corey Raley-Ross could all challenge for the starting shooting guard spot.

Nuiriankh is a 6-5 guard who played for Charis Prep last season where he averaged 18 points and eight rebounds per game.

Oldham is an all-state guard from Decatur, IL. He averaged 18 points, seven rebounds and five assists per game his senior season.

Raley-Ross hails from Charlotte, NC where he was a three-time All-State selection. He averaged 25 points, five rebounds, three assists and three steals his senior season at Harding University High School.

The Bulls also welcome a pair of big bodies in their frontcourt in Cameron Downing and Javon McCrea.

Downing is a 6-9, 255-lb center from Tulsa, OK. He was the Oklahoma Player of the Year last season after averaging 19 points and 11 rebounds per game.

McCrea is an athletic forward from Newark, NY. He averaged 22 points, 14.6 rebounds and eight blocked shots per game en route to earning All-Greater Rochester Player of the Year honors his senior season.

The schedule is highlighted with a visit from Brigham Young as well as a renewed rivalry with St. Bonaventure.

The Bulls open the season at home against Navy on Nov. 13. Five of UB's next six games will be on the road, beginning with Youngstown State on Nov. 16. After hosting Towson on Nov. 20, the Bulls will play at Canisius (Nov. 23), at Indiana State (Nov. 27), at Army (Dec. 1) and at St. Bonaventure (Dec. 4). It will be UB's first meeting with the Bonnies since the 1998-99 season. Despite the close proximity, this will only be the sixth meeting between the schools.

Buffalo will host three straight home games, starting with Niagara on Dec. 8. Wisconsin-Green Bay visits Alumni Arena on Dec. 11. The Bulls will close out the calendar year by hosting Brigham Young on Dec. 30. It will be the first meeting between the schools. The Cougars won 30 games last season and advanced to the second round off the NCAA Tournament. The Bulls will close out the non-conference schedule by playing at 2010 Ivy League champion and Sweet 16 participant Cornell on Jan. 3.

The Bulls open Mid-American Conference action at home against Bowling Green on Jan. 8 in the first of five straight games against East Division foes. On January 25, UB will play at Western Michigan to begin a stretch of six games against teams from the West Division.

After hosting Miami (OH) in the regular season home finale on March 2, the Bulls will travel to Bowling Green to close out the regular season on March 5.

REGGIE WITHERSPOON

Head Coach • 12th Year • 185-206 Overall (144-183 at UB)

A native Buffalonian, Witherspoon was officially named head men's basketball coach at the University at Buffalo on March 10, 2000 after guiding the Bulls through the remainder of the 1999-2000 season as the interim head coach. He became the 11th head coach in Bulls' basketball history and the third since Buffalo returned to Division I play in the 1991-92 season.

Witherspoon just completed his 11th season as the head coach at UB and his 144 wins rank third in school history. He has taken a struggling basketball team to new heights since his hire. The Bulls have won at least 17 games in five of the last seven seasons. The Bulls had a 23-win season and NIT berth in 2005 and a 21-win campaign and a spot in the 2009 College Basketball Invitational. The Bulls have posted 120 wins over the last seven seasons - including victories over Rutgers, Fresno State, Miami (FL), South Florida, Tulane, Temple, Penn State and Colorado.

In 2009-10, Witherspoon led the Bulls to 18 wins – the fifth highest win in school history. Of the Bulls 18 wins, a school-record eight were road victories. Under his tutelage, Rodney Pierce became the first two-time All-MAC First Team selection and John Boyer led the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio.

Following the season, Witherspoon was named an assistant coach for the 2010 USA Men's U18 National Team at the FIBA Americas U18 Championship. He helped lead Team USA to the gold medal.

In 2008-09, Witherspoon proved the prognosticators wrong by leading a team that was predicted to finish last in the Mid-American Conference to a share of the MAC regular season title – the first in school history. The Bulls finished the year 21-12 for the second most wins in school history and earned a spot in the MAC Tournament title game. Despite falling to Akron in the championship game, the Bulls earned a spot in the College Basketball Invitational for only their second postseason appearance as a Division I program. In addition, Buffalo won the distinguished Rainbow Classic in Hawaii to join an elite group of winners that includes storied programs such as North Carolina, Duke and Indiana. Witherspoon was named the Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year by MAC Report Online as well as the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 14 Coach of the Year.

He earned his 100th win at UB when the Bulls defeated Evansville, 81-60, on December 1, 2008. Witherspoon has produced an Associated Press All-American, an Academic All-American and eight All-Conference players.

During the 2005-06 season, Witherspoon led the Bulls to a record of 19-13. Buffalo started the season 11-1, including wins over Rutgers and Fresno State and earned its first ever votes in the Associated Press Top 25. Later in 2006, Witherspoon became a member of the NCAA Men's Basketball Rules Committee. He was also named a court coach for the USA Basketball Under-18 National Team Trials.

He led UB to its first-ever appearance in the championship game of the Mid-American Conference Tournament in 2005. Although the Bulls didn't win the game, they did earn a spot in the National Invitation Tournament for the school's first postseason berth as a Division I program. UB defeated Drexel in the opening round of the NIT. Witherspoon was named the 2005 NABC District I co-Coach of the Year along with Syracuse's Jim Boeheim. His accomplishments haven't gone unnoticed by the city of Buffalo as he was also named the 2005 Man of the Year by the Buffalo Club of the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Club, Inc.

Witherspoon was named the Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year, collegeinsider.com Mid-Major Coach of the Year and the Division I Co-Coach of the Year by the Basketball Coaches Association of New York following the 2003-04 season. He guided the Bulls to a 17-12 overall record and an 11-7 conference mark, their best effort since joining the MAC in 1998. Buffalo won 12 of its final 15 games of the season, beating their opponents by an average of 14.2 points. The 12-win improvement from the previous season was the second best turnaround in the nation in 2003-04. He led UB to its first ever home playoff game in the opening round of the MAC Tournament and, after defeating Northern Illinois, led the Bulls to Cleveland for the quarterfinal round for the first time in school history.

In 2002-03, Witherspoon guided a very young UB squad to a 5-23 mark. With freshmen and sophomores playing over 80 percent of the minutes, the Bulls proved to be competitive in nearly every game as they lost 13 games by 10 points or less.

In 2001-02, Witherspoon led the Bulls to a 12-18 mark. The Bulls' eight-win improvement from the previous season was the sixth-highest among Division I teams. Witherspoon's biggest win of the season occurred on January 9, 2002 when the Bulls knocked off Kent State, 66-65. It was the Golden Flashes' only loss in the MAC and their last loss for before falling to Indiana in the Regional Finals of the NCAA Tournament.

The 2000-01 season saw Witherspoon guide the Bulls to a 4-24 record and their second MAC Tournament appearance. However, the record was not reflective on the strides the program made as they dropped 12 regular season games by 10 points or less, the second most in the country to American University's 13. Included in that list were seven of Buffalo's first nine games and four overtime games.

During his period as interim coach, which began five games into the 1999-00 season, Witherspoon tripled the team's win output in the highly-competitive Mid-American Conference from the previous season. Buffalo also saw its first three-game home court winning streak since the 1997-98 season.

Witherspoon has over 20 years of collegiate and high school coaching experience in Western New York and has enjoyed considerable success during his coaching career. In his two-plus seasons at Erie Community College, he produced a 44-23 record and, in 1998-99, earned Region III Division I Coach of the Year honors after leading the Kats to a 24-5 record and a Region III title.

In his first season at ECC, Witherspoon led the program to a 19-10 record and was named Western New York Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, an honor he repeated in the 1998-99 season as well. During his tenure at ECC, Witherspoon produced four Division I players, two All-Americans and one Academic All-American.

Prior to his stint at Erie CC, Witherspoon spent 13 years at Sweet Home High School, eight as an assistant and five as head coach. During his five years as head coach, his teams won four straight divisional championships, the first and only time that happened in school history. He was the first African American to be named head coach of a varsity sports program in any Western New York Suburban School District.

Witherspoon earned his associate's degree from Erie Community College and bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from Empire State College. While at Erie Community College, he played for Michigan head coach John Beilien. He played for Indiana Pacers head coach Jim O'Brien at Wheeling Jesuit College.

Witherspoon resides in East Amherst, NY, with his wife, the former Dawn Taggart, and the couple's two daughters, Lydia (18) and Rachel (17).

JIM KWITCHOFF

Assistant Coach

12th Year • Boston College '88

Jim Kwitchoff is in his 12th season at the University at Buffalo and has served as an assistant for Reggie Witherspoon throughout most of his coaching career. His on-court duties focus on developing the post players, while he also handles administrative duties and serves as a recruiter and the summer camp director.

Kwitchoff has had a hand in the success of a number of basketball programs in Western New York. He began as an assistant at Cardinal O'Hara

High School in 1989, where he played a significant role in helping to develop the O'Hara team that won the 1994 New York State championship. After leaving O'Hara, Kwitchoff joined forces with Witherspoon at Sweet Home High School, where the Panthers won four consecutive division titles from 1994 to 1997.

Following his tenure at Sweet Home, Kwitchoff served as assistant coach for Witherspoon at Erie Community College in Buffalo, NY. The Kats finished as the Region III runner up in 1997-98 with a 19-10 record. In 1998-99, ECC was crowned Division I, Region III Champions with a 24-5 record, reaching a national ranking of 17th in the country. That team also finished second nationally in team defense.

Kwitchoff was a co-founder along with Witherspoon of the Buffalo Team ACE All-Star Program. Through their efforts, Team ACE won 17 AAU tournaments and helped in developing more than 20 players who went on to compete at the Division I level.

As a player, Kwitchoff captained Sweet Home High School to the 1984 NY State Class A public school title and a Top 25 national ranking. He was inducted into the Sweet Home Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005, where he was recognized for his accomplishments in basketball, football, and track and field. Kwitchoff was the 1984 New York State discus champion and second-team All-American. He is a 1988 graduate of Boston College where he was a member of the Eagles football teams that won the 1985 Cotton Bowl and 1986 Hall of Fame Bowl. Kwitchoff earned his bachelor's degree in business administration as well as his master's degree in educational administration from Boston College.

In addition to his coaching duties, Kwitchoff worked for 10 years in high school administration prior to joining the Bulls' staff. He most recently served as an assistant principal at Lockport High School.

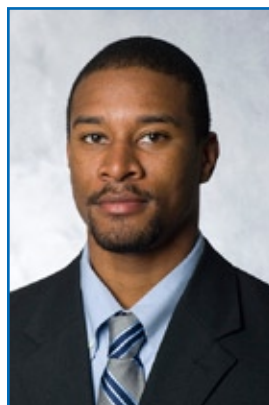

Kwitchoff resides in Wheatfield, NY with his wife Tricia, daughters, Madison (9) and Julia (4) and son, Ty (6).

in 1995 and after winning the Mid-American Conference title in 1996, made it to the NCAA Tournament.

Heck first began coaching at Wayne State University where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coach. The Warriors made it to the NCAA Division II Final Four in 1993 and the Sweet Sixteen in 1994.

A native of Rossford, OH, Heck earned his bachelor's degree from Wayne State University in art in 1992 and received his master's degree in sports administration from WSU in 1994. He was a team captain on the Warriors' basketball team.

Heck resides in Amherst, NY, with his wife, Dawn, and their four sons, Cooper (11), Hogan (8), Andrew (5) and Jameson (3).

TURNER BATTLE

Assistant Coach

4th Year • Buffalo '05

Turner Battle, who led the Bulls to their first modern post-season basketball tournament and was the Mid-American Conference Player of the Year his senior season, enters his fourth season as an assistant coach on Witherspoon's staff.

Battle, who was an Associated Press All-American as well as an ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American his senior season, scored 1,414 points (fifth all-time in UB history) and ranks fourth in Bulls' history in three-point field goals made (126), fourth in free throws made (306), third in assists (458) and fourth in steals (170). He is credited with changing the face of Buffalo basketball with his leadership both on and off the court. He was inducted into the UB Athletics Hall of Fame in 2010.

After his collegiate career ended, Battle spent the 2005-06 season playing professionally both locally (with the Buffalo Rapids) as well as around the world in Estonia, France and Sweden. After breaking his arm last summer, Battle spent the past year in Buffalo close to the Bulls' program, while also getting his coaching career started at Sweet Home High School – coach Witherspoon's alma mater. With Battle on the bench, Sweet Home won the sectional title in a huge upset over perennial power Niagara Falls.

KEVIN HECK

Assistant Coach

6th Year • Wayne State '92

Kevin Heck enters his sixth season as an assistant coach on Reggie Witherspoon's staff.

Heck came to Buffalo from Rutgers University where he spent three seasons as an assistant coach. His primary duties included recruiting, player development, scouting and scheduling. He helped lead the Scarlet Knights to the NIT in 2002 and again in 2004 when they made it to the championship game.

Prior to being hired at Rutgers, Heck spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Kent State. The Golden Flashes made three postseason appearances, including the NCAA Tournament in 1999 and 2001. Kent State won the Mid-American Conference Tournament in 1999 and 2001.

From 1994-1996 Heck was an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan. The Eagles had a 45-16 record over two years. Eastern Michigan earned a berth in the NIT

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team fell in its season opener to Vermont, 58-57, at Alumni Arena on Sunday night. It was a rough shooting night for the Bulls who converted only 31 percent of their shots from the field.

Despite the poor shooting, the Bulls used intense defensive play to stay in the game. Vermont (1-1) held a 50-40 lead, its largest of the game, with 9:19 remaining. A reverse layup by Mitchell Watt capped a 10-2 scoring run to cut the Catamounts' lead to 52-50 with 4:46 left in the game.

Vermont rebuilt a five-point lead with 3:13 left before the Bulls rattled off five unanswered points. John Boyer bounced a backdoor pass to Calvin Betts for the game-tying layup with 41 seconds remaining. However, Marqus Blakely's free throw, with nine seconds left, was the difference in the game as Buffalo committed a turnover on its next possession to end the game.

Buffalo (0-1) was led by sophomores Titus Robinson and Watt. Robinson registered his first career double-double with career highs of 16 points and 11 rebounds. Watt had nine points and added a career-high five blocked shots.

Max Boudreau added seven points in only 10 minutes of action. Boyer tied a career-high with six assists and a pair of steals.

Vermont was led by Blakely. The two-time America East Player of the Year had 17 points, 12 rebounds and seven assists.

"We weren't very good offensively. We took some rushed shots and that got us completely out of sorts," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "We turned the ball over too many times in the first half. They played well enough to win, so credit to them."

ANNAPOLIS, MD - The University at Buffalo utilized a gutty defensive effort to defeat Navy, 63-53, at Alumni Hall on Thursday night. The Bulls held the Midshipmen to 30 percent shooting, forced 18 turnovers and blocked six shots to even their record to 1-1 on the season. The win snapped Navy's nine-game home court winning streak against non-conference opponents.

The Bulls had a balanced scoring effort led by Mitchell Watt who had 13 points and added six rebounds and a pair of blocks. Calvin Betts added 12 points, eight rebounds and a career-best four steals. John Boyer added 10 points and five rebounds.

Jawaan Alston was a spark early for the Bulls and had one of the finest games of his career. The junior forward just missed out on his first career double-double with nine points and a career-best 10 rebounds. With Titus Robinson on the bench in foul trouble, Alston played a career-high 31 minutes.

It was a back-and-forth affair for much of the first half before a Rodney Pierce jumper with 6:05 left in the stanza gave the Bulls the lead for good at 17-16. The Bulls built their lead to seven points before settling for a four-point advantage at the break.

Navy threatened in the second half and cut the lead to 44-43 with 9:32 remaining. However, Watt scored the next five points for the Bulls and UB extended its lead to 51-46 with 6:11 left. Betts hit an off-balanced jumper as the shot clock expired to extend the UB lead to nine with 2:18 remaining.

Max Boudreau had eight points and seven of UB's 46 rebounds.

"We rebounded well and we held them to one shot," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "It was sort of a sloppy game, but I thought defensively and rebounding we did a good job. We managed to get enough second shots to sustain the lead."

TOWSON, MD - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team earned its second straight road win with a 78-69 overtime victory at Towson on Saturday afternoon. The Bulls shot nearly 60 percent from the field in the second half and overtime to pull out the win.

Buffalo (2-1) had four players score in double-figures led by Rodney Pierce who scored 18. Calvin Betts earned his first double-double of the season with 14 points and 10 rebounds. Mitchell Watt added 12 points and Jawaan Alston had his second strong game in a row with 11 points.

John Boyer had one of the finest all-around games of his career with five points, eight rebounds and a career-best 12 assists. His 12 assists tied for the 10th for a single game in school history.

Coming off an 11-point win against Miami (OH), Towson (1-1) looked good early and jumped out to an 11-point lead late in the first half and seemed comfortably ahead at the half.

The Bulls looked like a different team in the second half. Buffalo opened the stanza on an 11-0 scoring run to turn a six-point halftime deficit into a 38-35 lead with 16:45 remaining. A jumper by Alston built the UB lead to 56-47 with 9:23 left. However, the Tigers hit three straight three-pointers to knot the game at 56 with 6:46 remaining.

The Bulls responded with a 7-0 run of their own to regain a 63-56 advantage. Towson rallied and outscored the Bulls, 7-0, over the final two minutes and a three-pointer by Tony Franklin tied the game at 65 with 21 seconds remaining. Pierce had a chance to win it for the Bulls in regulation, but his driving layup was blocked and the game went to overtime.

Buffalo remained poised in the extra session and after missing its first shot, did not miss again. A jumper in the lane by Boyer put the Bulls ahead to stay, 69-68, with 3:25 left in overtime. It ignited an 11-1 scoring run to end the game. The Bulls dominated the play inside, outscoring the Tigers 38-8 in the paint. Buffalo also outrebounded Towson, 46-42.

"The second half we started finding our rhythm," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "By the end of the game we really ran our offense pretty well. We got a little jittery and a little submissive when we had the lead. But for the most part, we ran our offense well through the end of the game."

BUFFALO, NY - Canisius' Frank Turner hit a jumper in the lane with 1.5 seconds remaining to lift Canisius to a 73-71 victory over Buffalo at Alumni Arena on Tuesday night. It was the second straight heartbreaking home loss for the Bulls.

Buffalo (2-2) led, 71-66, with 1:51 remaining. A pair of free throws by Turner cut the UB advantage to three. The turning point of the game occurred on the ensuing possession when a rarely seen double foul was called on Buffalo's John Boyer and Canisius' Robert Goldsberry. Canisius was awarded the ball and tied the game on a Greg Logans' three-pointer with 1:12 left.

After each team traded possessions, Calvin Betts had a chance to give the Bulls the lead, but his layup with seven seconds remaining danced off the rim. Turner grabbed the rebound and raced down the floor for the game-winner.

Canisius (2-1) erased UB's 10-point halftime advantage and took a 54-45 lead with 12:33 left. The Bulls responded with 12-0 scoring run, capped by a Zach Filzen jumper in the lane, to regain a 57-54 lead with 7:10 remaining. Filzen scored all of his season-high nine points in the second half.

The sophomore guard was part of a balanced scoring attack that featured seven players scoring seven points or more. Max Boudreau led the Bulls with 15 points. Rodney Pierce added 11 points and five assists. Titus Robinson recorded 10 points and eight rebounds.

Canisius was led by Julius Coles who scored 26 points and Turner who added 17 points and 10 rebounds.

"We didn't play well enough to win," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "We didn't play with any consistency. We didn't deserve to win and we lost."

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team beat Army, 74-67, at Alumni Arena on Thursday night for the 1,000th win in program history. The Bulls hit a season-best 10 three-pointers to foil an Army zone defense and snap the Black Knights' five-game winning streak.

The Bulls' long-range barrage was led by Sean Smiley who nailed four three-pointers en route to scoring a season-high 14 points. Zach Filzen had three three-pointers and John Boyer added a pair.

Buffalo (3-2) made eight of its three-pointers in the first half to help build its lead to as many as 15 points before settling for a 40-30 advantage at the break.

Army (5-2) battled back to cut the lead to 49-47 with 13:14 left. But the Bulls would never relinquish the lead. The Bulls held a slim, 58-57, lead with 4:28 left. However, Smiley scored five straight points, capped by his fourth trey of the game to extend the UB advantage to six with 3:36 remaining. Buffalo would seal the win at the free throw making 11-of-12 free throws down the stretch.

Boyer scored the Bulls' final seven points at the charity stripe and finished the game with a career-high 13 points. As a team, the Bulls shot 28-of-35 from the free throw line.

Rodney Pierce tied for team-high scoring honors with 14. Max Boudreau registered his first career double-double with 12 points and a career-best 10 rebounds.

"We were moving and moving without the ball and we were trusting that movement," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "When we are doing that, we are pretty good offensively. They were playing zone for much of the game and we still moved pretty well. We've got to find a way to be consistent with it."

WEST LAFAYETTE, IN - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team fell to fourth-ranked Purdue, 101-65, in front of 14,123 fans at Mackey Arena on Saturday night. The Boilermakers shot 52 percent from the field and hit 11 of their 12 three-pointers in the second half to pull away for the victory.

Buffalo (3-3) was led by Rodney Pierce who led all scorers with a season-high 20 points. The senior guard shot 4-for-6 from beyond the arc. The Bulls also got a spirited effort from Calvin Betts who also scored a season high with 17 points. Betts shot 8-for-11 from the free throw line. He added six rebounds and three steals.

Purdue jumped out to a 14-6 lead before the Bulls rattled off nine unanswered points. Pierce and Max Boudreau alternated scores to spark the run. However, it would be the only lead the Bulls would hold as Purdue answered with a 9-0 scoring run of its own. The Boilermakers held a 45-26 advantage at the half.

The Bulls had only five turnovers in the second half, but couldn't overcome the hot shooting of the Boilermakers. After nailing just one three-pointer in the first half, Purdue made 11 of its 16 three-point field goal attempts in the second half to pull away for the win.

Jawaan Alston had eight points and Boudreau and Mitchell Watt added seven points apiece. John Boyer failed to score, but did add six rebounds and six assists.

Four of Purdue's five starters scored in double-figures, led by Chris Kramer and E'Twaun Moore who each scored 14.

NIAGARA UNIVERSITY, NY - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team played arguably its best all-around game of the young season to defeat Niagara, 86-80, at the Gallagher Center on Wednesday night. The Bulls shot a season-best 54 percent to hand the Purple Eagles their first home loss of the season.

Rodney Pierce scored a season-high 25 points to lead four UB players in double figures. The senior guard added a career-high nine rebounds and three assists.

John Boyer added 12 points to go along with five rebounds and six assists.

Calvin Betts scored 12 points on 5-of-7 shooting and added nine rebounds and four steals. Titus Robinson also dominated the glass with a career-high 13 rebounds to go along with eight points. As a team, Buffalo outrebounded Niagara, 48-34.

Sean Smiley was a spark off the bench with 10 points, including a pair of three-pointers. All 10 players that saw action for the Bulls scored in the game. Dave Barnett scored a career-best six points and Mike Clifford even got in on the action with the first three points of his career.

The first half was a game of runs as each team went on lengthy scoring runs to take leads. The Bulls held a 40-38 advantage at the break.

Buffalo (4-3) would never trail in the second half, but did have to hold off a pesky Niagara squad. A layup by Jawaan Alston gave the Bulls a 16-point advantage, their largest of the night, with 6:27 remaining.

Niagara (6-4) clawed back and a three-pointer by Tyrone Lewis cut the UB advantage to 71-66 with 3:39 left. However, Boyer found Betts for a backdoor layup and Pierce followed with a three-pointer from the corner to extend the Buffalo lead to 10.

Consecutive three-pointers by Niagara cut the lead to four with 1:03 left. However, the Bulls were able to hold off the Purple Eagles by sinking their free throws down the stretch. UB made 10-of-12 free throws in crunch time to ice the win.

Max Boudreau made his first start since the 2007-08 season in place of Mitchell Watt and had five points in 15 minutes.

"We were able to score in both halves," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "We had some halves where we scored 40 or more maybe, but we have to sustain. I think that's the big thing."

It was the Bulls' third road win in four tries this season.

BUFFALO, NY - Sean Smiley was a late addition to the starting lineup after an injury sidelined Rodney Pierce. The senior guard made the most of his first start of the season by scoring 23 points in a 93-65 win over Buffalo State at Alumni Arena on Saturday afternoon. Smiley was one of four UB players to score in double-figures.

Buffalo jumped out to a 10-3 lead and never looked back. The Bulls led by as many of 32 points on the afternoon.

The blowout win allowed head coach Reggie Witherspoon to give every player on the team significant playing time. The Bulls had 12 players play double-digit minutes.

Calvin Betts had a solid all-around performance for UB. In only 21 minutes, Betts had 14 points, 12 rebounds, four assists, two blocked shots and three steals. It was his 11th career double-double.

Zach Filzen added a career-high 13 points, including three three-pointers. He and Smiley combined to make seven of the Bulls' 10 three-pointers on the afternoon.

Freshmen Mike Clifford and Tony Watson II saw the most extensive action of their young careers. Clifford had 14 points on six-of-eight shooting, six rebounds and two blocked shots in 13 minutes. Watson had three points, three rebounds and four assists in 16 minutes.

Dave Barnett played a career-high 19 minutes and had six points, four rebounds and three assists.

But it was Smiley's day. His 23 points were just three shy of his career high and he played only 21 minutes. Smiley has now scored in double-figures in three of the last four games.

Defensively, the Bulls held the Bengals to 31 percent shooting from the field and forced 23 turnovers. Mitchell Watt had three of the Bulls' seven blocked shots and two of the team's 12 steals.

"None of these games do anyone any good if we aren't learning from them," Witherspoon said. "Our hope is that we have enough right now where we have learned and there is enough that we can learn when get back to practice on Monday."

The Bulls have now won two straight games and three of their last four.

GREEN BAY, WI - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team earned their third straight win by defeating the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, 71-65 at the Resch Center on Tuesday evening. Senior Rodney Pierce scored a career-high 29 points in 37 minutes of action to lead the Bulls to victory in the first ever meeting between the teams.

The Bulls (6-3, 0-0 MAC) opened the contest at the line, which would be a key factor in their victory. Buffalo shot an impressive 11-for-12 from the line with Pierce going 6-for-6.

Trailing by two at 16:35, senior John Boyer caused a Green Bay turnover, leading to a Pierce layup off a pass by Calvin Betts to tie the contest at 8-8.

In the remaining minutes, the Phoenix managed to hold the lead for the entire half. At one point, the Phoenix pushed their lead to a nine-point advantage with 4:58 remaining on the clock.

Chiseling away at Green Bay's lead, Boyer hit a three-pointer at 2:51 to pull the Bulls within two, 32-30. In the final 2:51 of the half, Pierce scored the Bulls' final seven points. With no time remaining, Pierce stroked a three-pointer from two feet behind the top of the arc to give UB a 37-35 lead heading into the break.

Through the first 11 minutes of the second half, the Bulls held the lead until the Phoenix tied the contest at 50-50 off a jumper by leading scorer Rahmon Fletcher. Green Bay would take the lead for the first time and the only time in the half with 8:20 remaining. Boyer would erase Green Bay's one-point lead with his second three-pointer off an assist by Betts.

In the final eight minutes of the half, the Bulls would continue to extend their lead. In a span of two minutes, sophomore Dave Barnett scored seven of his career-high nine points to give the Bulls a nine-point lead with 5:31 remaining.

In the final five minutes, the Phoenix pulled within two points of the Bulls' lead three times but were unable to tie the contest. The final five points of the second half would come at the free throw line, where the Bulls began the game. Perfect free throw shooting of 2-for-2 from Betts and Pierce in the final 18 seconds would seal the win for the Bulls.

"I thought we persevered through some difficulty with turnovers in the first and second half but we were strong with the basketball. We shot the ball well from the free throw line, making 11 of our 12 shots," said head coach Reggie Witherspoon. "We are learning to play together."

Three Green Bay players reached double digits as Fletcher led the Phoenix with 19 points and Bryquis Perine added 14 points. Troy Cotton ended the game with 12 points off four first-half three-pointers.

In a career-high 22 minutes, Barnett scored nine points. Betts finished with eight points, seven rebounds, four assists and three steals in 35 minutes. Also playing 35 minutes, Boyer recorded nine points, six assists and five rebounds.

In just their second all-time trip to the state of Wisconsin, the Bulls remain undefeated at 2-0. The Bulls' first victory came on January 5, 1978 as they defeated the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, 78-75.

ORLANDO, FL - The University at Buffalo men's basketball ran into a hot-shooting Jacksonville team in the first round of the UCF Holiday Classic, dropping an 83-73 decision.

Calvin Betts scored a career-high 23 points and added 11 rebounds for the Bulls, who fell to 6-4 on the season.

Rodney Pierce had a game-high 26 points for the Bulls, who were outrebounded by the Dolphins, 38-35, and trailed for most of the contest.

Betts scored the game's first bucket on a three-pointer just 22 seconds into the game, but led just two other times in the game, including 10-8 on a layup by Titus Robinson, who had eight points in the game, with 15:44 remaining. The Bulls trailed 16-14 after a bucket by Dave Barnett with 12:45 remaining, but UB would go ice cold after that, failing to score a bucket for five minutes.

Jacksonville would use UB's cold spell to open up a 21-14 lead with 8:04 remaining on a pair of free throws by Aaron Hardy (16 points, eight rebounds and six assists). Buffalo finally broke through on a long three-pointer by Pierce and UB would pull to within 24-22 on a trifecta by John Boyer with 5:35 left in the half. However, Buffalo would score just one more field goal the rest of the half and went to intermission down 39-31.

The Bulls came out strong to start the second half, opening the stanza on a 9-2 run, as Betts and Pierce combined for seven of those points, to cut the lead to 41-40 with 15:48 left. UB trailed, 49-47 with 10:16 left before Jacksonville would go on a 9-0 run, capped by a trifecta by Travis Cohn, who finished with 15 points, to put the Dolphins on top 58-47 - the biggest lead of the game - with 7:46 left.

Buffalo would get as close as 67-60 but a big blocked shot in the lane by JU's Glenn Powell and a long three-pointer by Ben Smith - who finished with 23 points - with 2:45 left kept the Dolphins comfortably ahead. The Dolphins would hit 10-of-12 free throws in the final 2:30 to hold on for the 83-73 win.

Another key area in the game was the Dolphins' 17-4 advantage off the bench.

"Typically we get pretty good bench play but our energy coming off the bench tonight was not what we needed," said UB coach Reggie Witherspoon. Regarding the rebounding disparity he noted, "its very disappointing when you come into a situation like this and you get outrebounded, something we work really hard at. We finished the game with 16 offensive rebounds, but we had 10 in the first half. I just felt like we didn't compete hard enough to get them off of their game and they took advantage of us."

BuffaloLiberty

ORLANDO, FL - All-Tournament selection Rodney Pierce scored a career-high 31 points to lead Buffalo to an 81-64 win over Liberty in the consolation game of the UCF Holiday Classic.

Pierce led a trio of double figure scorers by hitting 11-of-22 shots and matched his career-high with five three-point field goals. He became the first Bull since Andy Robinson, who had 35 points against Northern Illinois in 2007, to score 30 or more points in a game. For his 57 points in the tournament, Pierce was named to the All-Tournament team.

Pierce has now scored 86 points (28.6 ppg) in his last three outings and has gone over 20 points in five straight games, the first Bull since Calvin Cage pulled off the feat in 2005-06. The Buffalo native had plenty of help, as fellow seniors Calvin Betts and John Boyer each had 15 points. Betts added eight rebounds, while Boyer had nine assists, including eight in the first half alone.

"I thought our movement against their matchup zone was very good and we shot the ball extremely well at certain times in the game," said Buffalo head coach Reggie Witherspoon. "Defensively we got after them in our man-to-man and got them out of their offensive rhythm from about the midway point of the first half. It was a good response from the guys after a tough loss yesterday."

The Bulls trailed 10-6 in the early going, but six straight points, the last four by Pierce gave Buffalo its first lead at 12-10 with 15:26 remaining.

A three-point field goal by Betts at the 11:11 mark set off a barrage of trifectas for the Bulls. Buffalo would score seven of their last 10 field goals from beyond the arc in the half to open up a 43-30 halftime lead.

Buffalo led 25-22 with 8:01 left in the half before a 10-0 run opened the game up for the Bulls. Pierce had five points, while Boyer had a trey and Dave Barnett a layup off of a steal. The Bulls would continue to lead by double digits the rest of the half, opening up a 16-point lead (43-27) on Pierce's second three of the half.

The Bulls (7-4) never let the Flames gain any momentum in the second half, keeping a double-digit lead throughout. Leading 48-36 with 16:50 remaining, Buffalo went on a 12-4 run to open up their biggest lead of the game at 60-40 with 13:20 remaining on a three-pointer by Boyer.

The Bulls held tight to the lead by converting on 19-of-22 free throws in the game and connected on a season-high 12 three-point field goals in the contest.

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team defeated Miami (OH), 73-55, in the Mid-American Conference opener for both teams at Alumni Arena on Saturday afternoon. The Bulls jumped out to an 18-3 lead and never looked back en route to their largest margin of victory over the RedHawks since joining the conference in 1998.

Rodney Pierce scored 21 points to lead UB scorers. It marked the sixth straight game that the senior guard surpassed the 20-point plateau.

Calvin Betts notched his fourth double-double of the season with 11 points and 11 rebounds.

Buffalo (8-4, 1-0 MAC) led by as many as 17 in the first half before the RedHawks cut the lead to eight by halftime. Miami whittled the lead to three with 15:52 left in the game. A jumper by Pierce and a three-pointer by Betts quickly extended the UB lead to eight.

Leading 49-41 with 10:10 remaining, the Bulls mounted a 20-4 scoring run to take a 24-point lead, their largest of the game. Reserves Sean Smiley and Max Boudreau played a large role in the Bulls' second-half surge as they scored seven and nine second-half points, respectively. Smiley finished with nine points and Boudreau tallied 11.

The Bulls shot 50 percent from the field for the game, including a sizzling 64 percent in the second half. Defensively, UB held the RedHawks to 35 percent shooting, including 2-of-14 from beyond the arc. The Bulls also outrebounded Miami, 38-30.

Miami was led by Adam Fletcher who scored a career-high 21 points.

Following the game, the team presented the game ball to Carol Greiner whose husband, former UB president William Greiner, recently passed away.

BOWLING GREEN, OH - Senior Sean Smiley drained his fourth three-pointer of the game with 4.7 seconds left to break a 65-65 tie and lead the Bulls to a win at Bowling Green, 68-65. The win for the Bulls was just their second all-time at Anderson Arena and improves their record to 9-4 on the season and 2-0 in the MAC.

The Falcons were able to erase a nine-point halftime deficit as they got within two early in the half and finally tied it on two Dee Brown free throws with 39 seconds left. From there, the Bulls found a wide-open Smiley who drained a three from long range to put the Bulls up three with 4.7 seconds left. The Falcons threw up one last desperation three-point attempt, but it came up short as the Bulls were able to hold on for the win.

The first half saw both teams get off to a hot start as both teams were firing from long range. Senior John Boyer found his shooting touch early as he recorded nine of UB's first 12 points on three treys. The Falcons matched the Bulls shot for shot and took their largest lead of the game at five with 10:47 left in the opening half. A 13-4 UB run put the Bulls back up in the half, but again the Falcons cut it to within one. That is when senior Rodney Pierce took over as he had a hand in UB's last 12 points of the half, including eight points.

Pierce led the way for the Bulls as his 21 points gave him his seventh straight 20-point game. He becomes the first UB player to score 20 points in seven straight games since Rasaun Young did it in 1997. Pierce also tied his career high with six assists on the night. Smiley finished with 14 points, tying a season-high with his four three-pointers. Boyer had a solid all-around game with nine points, seven rebounds, six assists and a steal. Sophomore Mitchell Watt finished with six points and six rebounds.

"On that final shot Rodney kept saying to Sean and John Boyer to be ready to shoot," said head coach Reggie Witherspoon. "We had Rodney play the point on that play and he drew two defenders, which freed Sean up. Rodney made the pass and Sean hit a big shot for us."

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team defeated Akron, 78-65, in a rematch of the 2009 Mid-American Conference championship game. With the win, the Bulls improved to 3-0 in MAC play for the first time since joining the conference in 1998.

Rodney Pierce tied a career-high with 31 points to become the first player in the Bulls' Division I history to score 20 or more points in eight straight games. Pierce shot 4-of-5 from the three-point line and 7-for-7 from the free throw line. He also added four of the Bulls' season-high 13 steals.

Sean Smiley, who was the hero in Thursday night's win at Bowling Green, added 21 points on 8-of-9 shooting. He was a perfect 4-of-4 from beyond the arc. The senior guard had a career-best five steals.

The game was knotted at 27 late in the first half before the Bulls closed the half on a 13-0 scoring run to take a 40-27 lead into the locker room.

The Bulls built on their momentum to start the second half and a basket and free throw by Pierce put UB ahead, 49-32, with 14:42 remaining. The 17-point advantage was Buffalo's largest of the game.

However, the Zips responded with a 9-0 scoring run to quickly cut the deficit to eight with 12:16 left. But Smiley quieted Akron by scoring six straight points, capped by a steal and breakaway layup to put the Bulls ahead, 55-41.

Akron (12-5, 2-1 MAC) whittled the lead to six with 6:02 left, before Smiley struck again. John Boyer found a streaking Smiley on a backdoor cut for a reverse layup to give the Bulls an eight-point lead. From there, it was Pierce's turn to take over. The senior guard hit a three and a driving layup to help the Bulls regain a 13-point advantage and put the game on ice.

Max Boudreau scored 10 points, including a perfect 8-for-8 from the free throw line.

"It was hard-fought game. Akron is a very physical team," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "I thought once we got through the initial onslaught of their defense, we were able to get some movement and get them spread out a little bit. We didn't slow down. We kept moving the ball and kept moving bodies and I think the big thing was that today we had a better defensive effort."

The Bulls improved to 10-4 overall and 3-0 in the conference to sit alone atop the MAC East Division.

KENT, OH - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team ran into a bad combination on Wednesday night as the Bulls not only struggled from the field, but faced a Kent State squad who could not miss in the second half as the Golden Flashes won the contest, 89-54. The loss drops UB's record to 10-5 and 3-1 in the MAC.

Both teams struggled to find their shooting touch in the first half as the two teams combined for just 17 points over the first seven minutes of action. The Golden Flashes would lead by nine in the opening half, but the Bulls cut it to two on back-to-back fast break buckets from Calvin Betts. Kent State would respond by ending the half on an 8-0 run to go into the break up 10.

The second half belonged all to Kent State as the Golden Flashes hit 10 of their first 11 shots as they ended up shooting 74.1 percent from the floor during the final 20 minutes, including 10-of-14 from three-point range. The Golden Flashes began the half on a 22-10 run and led by as many as 39 points. One of the few bright spots for the Bulls in the second half was a thunderous dunk from Jawaan Alston, who was playing for the first time in six games.

The Bulls were led by 15 points from Max Boudreau and 14 points and five rebounds from Betts, who also had three assists and two steals on the night. John Boyer finished with a game-high five assists, while senior Rodney Pierce finished with just four points, snapping a streak of eight straight 20-point games.

Kent State had balanced scoring as six players finished in double figures led by 18 points from Chris Singletary. Rodriguez Sherman finished with 13 points, while Anthony Simpson had 11 points and a team-high seven rebounds.

ATHENS, OH - For the second straight Mid-American Conference road game, the University at Buffalo men's basketball team ran into a red-hot shooting team, this time dropping a 99-77 decision to Ohio University in the Convocation Center before 10,689 fans.

Ohio (10-9) shot 52 percent for the game from the field and 50 percent (11-of-22) from beyond the arc. The Bulls lost despite hitting 13 three-point field goals, including a career-high six by senior point guard John Boyer, who led the Bulls with a career-best 20 points.

The Bobcats, who led by 16 at halftime, took full control of the game early in the second half by connecting on seven of their first eight shots to open up the biggest lead of the game at 66-41 at the 16:17 mark.

Ohio continued to lead comfortably for most of the second half, but after pulling ahead 80-60 with 9:47 remaining, Buffalo went on an 8-0 run, behind treys by Boyer and senior Sean Smiley (18 points) to cut the deficit to 80-68 with 9:08 left. However, a trifecta by Ohio's Tommy Freeman, who had a game-high 27 points, broke the run and Ohio never let the Bulls any closer the rest of the game.

Both teams struggled to find any offensive rhythm early in the game as the Bulls led 6-4 at the first media timeout on three points apiece by Rodney Pierce and Calvin Betts.

Freshman point guard D.J. Cooper (nine points, 11 assists) spurred an 8-0 Bobcat run, coming off the bench to score seven points as Ohio took a 16-8 lead with 12:25 to go in the first. UB's Smiley ended that run with his first trifecta of the game. Ohio used an 11-2 run to open up the half's biggest lead at 33-22 with 4:56 left in the half, forcing Buffalo to use its first timeout.

After the Bulls had trimmed the lead to 38-31 on a Smiley trey and a Pierce bucket, Freeman hit back-to-back long three-point shots to give OU a 44-31 lead with 1:15 left in the half. Ohio went to halftime with a 47-31 lead – its biggest of the half – after a free throw and an Ivo Baltic lay-in with a second left on the clock.

Buffalo

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team dropped its third straight game with a 75-69 loss to Ball State at Alumni Arena on Thursday night. Buffalo ran into a red-hot shooting Cardinal team that shot 55 percent from the field, including 9-for-11 from beyond the arc.

It was a game that left UB fans scratching their heads. The Bulls forced a season-high 25 turnovers and committed only six - their lowest total in six seasons. In addition, Buffalo took 79 shots, the most by a UB team since the 2002-03 season and 39 more than the Cardinals. But it was Ball State who took advantage of their chances, converting 22 of their 40 field goal attempts.

Buffalo (10-7, 3-3 MAC) took control of the game early and held a 25-18 advantage with 6:44 left in the first half. But Ball State closed the half on a 20-6 scoring run, capped by a Randy Davis desperation three at the buzzer to take a 38-31 lead at halftime.

Ball State (10-9, 4-3 MAC) seemed in control and built its lead to 66-55 with 4:48 left. However, the Bulls rallied and scored ten unanswered points, including eight straight by Sean Smiley. Smiley's second straight three cut the Cardinal lead to 66-65 with 1:46 left. However, Davis struck again as he drained a three-pointer from the top of the key as the shot clock expired to give Ball State a 69-65 lead with just over a minute remaining. The Bulls were unable to get any closer.

Max Boudreau was one of four UB players in double-figures with a team-high 15 points to go along with eight rebounds. Smiley added 13 points and Calvin Betts and Rodney Pierce each added 10.

Ball State dominated the glass, outrebounding Buffalo, 44-30. Jawaan Scaife led the Cardinals with 16 points.

"I don't know that I've ever seen a stat sheet that looked like this after a game," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "We get 79 field goal attempts and our opponent gets 40. We have six turnovers the whole game. They turn it over 25 times. And the game ends the way it did."

Buffalo

Northern Illinois

DeKALB, IL - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team snapped its three-game losing skid in a big way, by scoring a season-high 95 points in a 95-83 win over Northern Illinois at the Convocation Center on Saturday afternoon. Five Bulls scored in double-figures, led by Rodney Pierce who had 17 points, including the 1,000th of his UB career.

Buffalo (11-7, 4-3 MAC) shot a season-best 56 percent from the field, including 61 percent in the second half to pull away for the victory.

It was a tight contest for much of the first half with neither team leading by more than seven points. Dave Barnett was an early spark for the Bulls as he scored all of his eight points in the first stanza. The Bulls held a 47-42 lead at the break.

The Bulls never relinquished the lead in the second half thanks to a bevy of backdoor plays that resulted in easy layups. John Boyer found Calvin Betts for a layup to put the Bulls up 61-50 with 15:37 left.

Jawaan Alston hit a baby hook in the lane to put the Bulls up by 15 and Sean Smiley soon followed with a jumper to extend the UB lead to 17 with 9:53 left.

Northern Illinois (8-11, 4-3 MAC) cut the Buffalo lead to 89-79 with 4:31 left. But Boyer silenced the Huskie threat by draining a three-pointer from the top of the key with the shot clock expiring to put the Bulls ahead, 92-79, with 2:18 remaining.

Boyer finished with 12 points, five rebounds and eight assists. Smiley scored 13 points and Mitchell Watt added 12 points – his best scoring output in 15 games. Betts also reached double-figures with 11 points and added six rebounds.

It was a balanced attack as nine UB players scored at least six points.

Heading into the game, Northern Illinois led the MAC in rebounding. The Bulls outrebounded the Huskies, 38-34. Buffalo committed only eight turnovers for its second straight game with single-digit turnovers.

Pierce became the 16th player in school history to score 1,000 career points and just the 10th player to do so in three seasons.

BUFFALO, NY - The defensive struggles continued for the University at Buffalo men's basketball team as the Bulls fell to another hot-shooting opponent at Alumni Arena on Monday night. Western Michigan shot 58.5 percent from the field to defeat the Bulls, 85-70.

Western Michigan (12-9, 4-4 MAC) made five of its first six shots and led the game from wire to wire. Trailing 23-14, John Boyer connected on a three-pointer and Max Boudreau followed with a conventional three-point play to cut the lead to three. However, Western Michigan closed the half on a 14-5 scoring run to take a 47-33 lead at the break.

The Broncos built their lead to 17 points before UB made a run. Rodney Pierce scored 12 of the Bulls' next 14 points, including three three-pointers. His layup cut the lead to 57-47 with 13:26 left. However, the Broncos responded with a 14-2 scoring run to take a 73-51 advantage, their largest of the game.

Pierce led all scorers with 29 points. He surpassed Andy Robinson (2005-09) for 14th on UB's all-time scoring list with 1,035 points.

Calvin Betts had 10 points and added a game-high 10 rebounds for his 14th career double-double. Boudreau chipped in with nine points and five rebounds for the Bulls.

Martelle McLemore and David Kool scored 24 and 23 points, respectively, for Western Michigan. The pair combined for eight of the Broncos' 11 three-pointers. Western Michigan shot 11-for-22 from beyond the arc.

"Western came in here and gave us a good old-fashioned whoopin'," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "We can say that they were hot - and that's certainly not a lie - but when they mix in shooting really well from three and getting to the basket when they want, then we have some issues."

MOUNT PLEASANT, MI - In a cross divisional matchup riddled by 50 combined personal fouls, the University at Buffalo men's basketball team fell to Central Michigan at the Rose Center on Thursday evening, 88-82.

The Bulls (11-9, 4-5 MAC) came out in the first half, playing an aggressive man-to-man defense, which kept the Chippewas (11-9, 6-2 MAC) in check to start the contest. In the first 12 minutes, the Bulls built a seven-point lead off a combination of costly turnovers and fouls by Central Michigan despite only shooting 35.7 percent from the floor.

The tide quickly changed in favor of the Chippewas following the game's third media timeout at 7:51. Facing a seven-point deficit with just under eight minutes remaining, the Chippewas' Robbie Harman assisted on an Antonio Weary dunk to start Central Michigan's comeback. Harman followed up with a three-point bucket to pull the Chippewas within two, which brought the home crowd to its feet.

The Chippewas managed to score their next 11 points from the free throw line. Off a trio of successful free throws, Central Michigan captured a one-point lead, 27-26. Senior Rodney Pierce managed to restore the Bulls' lead with 5:11 remaining from the free throw line with a pair of successful shots. The Chippewas would return to the free throw line to connect on eight free throws to remain in the lead for the time remaining in the first half. Heading into the break, Central Michigan led 41-37.

The Chippewas took the momentum of their first-half lead right throw the second half, not allowing the Bulls to recapture the lead. Early in the second half, Buffalo pulled within one off a layup by sophomore Titus Robinson but Harman hit a three to give the Chippewas extra cushion.

Despite the Bulls' effort to chisel away at Central Michigan's lead throughout the second half, the Chippewas countered Buffalo's offensive attack with one of their own.

Scoring 22 points, Pierce led the Bulls' scoring attack for the 13th time this season. Pierce also added a career-high seven assists to record his 205th career assist. Senior Calvin Betts added 15 points to the Bulls' total, including a team-high eight rebounds. Robinson and Pierce went a perfect 4-for-4 from the free throw line. In the closing minute of the contest, Betts and Pierce would each foul out.

Jordan Bitzer led the Chippewas with 22 points and eight rebounds for the Chippewas. Bitzer managed to go 6-for-6 from the free throw line. Harman scored 19 points, including four treys.

Combining for 50 personal fouls, each team ran into foul troubles in the contest. Buffalo recorded a season-high 27 personal fouls. Central Michigan committed 23 personal fouls.

TOLEDO, OH - The University at Buffalo men's basketball team captured its first ever victory at Toledo, 65-59, on Saturday evening at Savage Arena in front of a crowd of 4,565.

Following a jumper by sophomore Mitchell Watt to start the contest, Toledo (3-21, 0-10 MAC) held the lead for the entire first half. The Rockets managed to score 24 of their 38 first-half points in the paint.

Trailing by nine at 6:38 remaining in the first half, the Bulls (12-9, 5-5 MAC) managed to trim back the Rockets' lead to just one point. Starting at 4:18, the ball would exchange hands six times until senior Rodney Pierce stroked a three off an in-bounds pass by fellow senior John Boyer to cut the Rockets' lead to 34-31 at 1:54.

In a span of 20 seconds, Watt scored four points to chisel away at the Rockets' lead, 36-35. With 17 seconds remaining, the Rockets would storm down the court to recapture their three-point lead before Watt tipped in a rebound at the buzzer to pull the Bulls within one at the break, 38-37.

In what started as a second half plagued by turnovers, Buffalo managed to take control of the lead for the second time in the contest off a pair of free throws by senior Calvin Betts, 49-48, at the 12:43-mark. Less than a minute later, the Rockets tied the contest at 51-51 off a three by Jake Barnett.

Off a layup by Max Boudreau, the Bulls captured the lead once again, 53-51. Buffalo held the lead for the next seven minutes until the contest became tied up at 59-59 off a layup by Barnett at 4:46.

In the next minute, the Bulls and Rockets turned the ball over a combined five times with neither team finding the basket. Following a Bulls' timeout, Pierce worked his way towards the basket, firing a shot just outside the box to take a 61-59 lead. Pierce's shot sealed the victory for the Bulls as Boudreau and senior Sean Smiley each added a pair of free throws for the Bulls' victory, 65-59.

Pierce led the Bulls with 16 points and four assists. Betts and Boudreau added 11 points each while Watt scored 10 points. Pushing through injury, Boyer showcased a strong effort under the basket with five rebounds, all defensive.

Toledo's Jordan Dressler scored a game-high 19 points, combined with five rebounds. Barnett finished the night with 14 points and a game-high six rebounds. In the first half, Toledo came out shooting 61.5 percent compared to the Bulls' 48.5 percent to take the lead at the break, 38-37. The second half was a different story as the Rockets shot a mere 40 percent, quite a drop from their first-half shooting ability. Buffalo improved in the second half to shoot 52.9 percent, shooting a consistent 50 percent for the game.

"I was upset with the first 25 to 28 minutes. To start, we were in a hurry offensively and scored some points but then we opened the second half in a worried state of mind. In the final 12 to 15 minutes, we were back to a determined style of defense, which we are accustomed to," said head coach Reggie Witherspoon.

The Bulls controlled the boards, outrebounding Toledo, 31-23. Buffalo especially controlled the Rockets in terms of offensive rebounds with only six. When outrebounding their opponent this season, the Bulls are now 11-1.

BUFFALO, NY – The Bulls hit their first six shots against Eastern Michigan on Wednesday night and it was a sign of things to come as Buffalo went on to shoot 66.7 percent from the field en route to an 84-67 win over Eastern Michigan at Alumni Arena. The Bulls' shooting percentage was the second best single-game performance in school history.

Buffalo (13-9, 6-5 MAC) never trailed in the game to earn its second straight win. Both teams came out of the gates blazing, shooting over 60 percent from the field in the first half. The Bulls shot 60 percent and the Eagles shot 64 percent in the first stanza. UB held a 42-39 lead at the break.

Rodney Pierce scored the Bulls' first 11 points of the second half to help UB outscore Eastern Michigan, 15-2, to start the half. A layup by Calvin Betts, with 10:35 left, extended the Bulls' lead to 18 points. The Eagles cut the lead to 14 points with 5:00 remaining, but would get no closer as the Bulls played inspired defense in the second half to pull away for the victory. UB shot a sizzling 74 percent from the field in the second half.

Pierce led all scorers with 27 points on 11-of-14 shooting. Mitchell Watt added a career-high 14 points, including a pair of thunderous dunks, in one of the best games of his young career.

Betts, Jawaan Alston and Titus Robinson each added eight points. Betts also grabbed a game-high nine rebounds.

With John Boyer plagued with foul trouble, Tony Watson saw the most extensive action of his career. The freshman point guard had four points, an assist and a steal in 13 minutes.

Eastern Michigan (12-12, 4-7 MAC) was led by Brandon Bowdry who finished with 26 points and eight rebounds.

"Offensively, we needed to be more determined to get the shots that we were comfortable with. The shots that we wanted to take. As we did that, we made more," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said.

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo men's basketball team took down conference-leading Kent State, 70-55, in front of a national television audience on Saturday afternoon at Alumni Arena. The Bulls held the Golden Flashes to 34 percent shooting from the field and forced 19 turnovers to snap their eight-game winning streak.

Buffalo (14-9, 7-5 MAC) jumped out to a 14-3 lead and held Kent State to only three field goals over the first nine minutes of the game. Calvin Betts paced the Bulls early as he scored 13 of his team-high 17 points in the first half. His third three-pointer of the half gave the Bulls a 22-11 lead with 8:21 left. The Bulls would keep their lead in double digits for the remainder of the half and hold a 33-19 advantage at the break.

With the Bulls leading 37-23, John Boyer scored 10 of UB's next 12 points and his jumper with 12:52 remaining gave the Bulls their biggest lead of the game at 49-29.

Kent State (18-8, 9-3 MAC) managed to cut the lead to 12 with 3:35 left, but the Bulls were able to put the win away at the free throw line as they hit 11-of-12 free throws down the stretch. For the game, Buffalo made 18 of its 20 free throw attempts.

Boyer finished with 16 points, eight rebounds and six assists. Betts also grabbed eight rebounds to go along with 17 points. Rodney Pierce had 14 points, eight rebounds and three assists. Max Boudreau added eight points for the Bulls.

Mitchell Watt had four of the Bulls' six blocked shots and two of their nine steals.

Kent State was led by Chris Singletary who had 18 points and eight rebounds.

"I thought it was an opportunity for us to come in and play against a team that's been running through the conference pretty good," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "There have been a number of things we've been trying to work on and get better at and this was an opportunity for us to test some of those things and I think we responded well."

The win was the 140th of Witherspoon's UB career and moved him into a tie for third place in school history with Malcolm S. Eiken.

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo men's basketball team won its fourth straight game, 64-51, over Bowling Green at Alumni Arena on Wednesday night. The Bulls drained 10 three-pointers to help break the Falcons' aggressive zone defense.

Rodney Pierce and Sean Smiley each hit four three-pointers for the Bulls. Pierce finished with 18 points and added six assists. Smiley added 14 points in 27 minutes off the bench.

Bowling Green (13-12, 6-7 MAC) took a 13-12 lead midway through the first half before the Bulls made a run. Buffalo outscored the Falcons, 19-3 over the next seven minutes and a Smiley three gave the Bulls a 31-16 lead with 3:58 left in the half. The Bulls extended their lead to 17 on a three-pointer by Pierce before settling for a 35-20 lead at the break.

Bowling Green opened the second half on a 14-2 scoring run to quickly slash the UB lead to three points. However, UB hit three-pointers on each of its next four possessions to extend its lead to 49-38 with 10:29 remaining.

The Bulls (15-9, 8-5 MAC) held a 56-46 lead with 3:49 left when Max Boudreau scored on a conventional three-point play to push the lead to 13. The senior forward scored the Bulls' final nine points of the game and finished the night with 12 points.

John Boyer finished with six points, four rebounds, four assists and a pair of steals. Buffalo's bench outscored the BG reserves, 30-4, as all nine UB players scored in the game. Scott Thomas led Bowling Green with 21 points.

"We moved the ball well enough that our offense came to us," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "We started the second half in a funk. But I thought we responded well to them making a run at us. We got away from what we were previously doing defensively, so we have to get back to doing a better job."

JERSEY CITY, NJ – Sean Smiley drained a baseline jumper as time expired to lift the University at Buffalo men's basketball team to a 77-75 overtime win over Saint Peter's at the Yanitelli Center in an ESPN Bracket Buster matchup on Saturday afternoon. It was the Bulls' fifth straight win.

It was a wild back-and-forth affair. The Bulls trailed by as many as 11 points in the first half before cutting the Saint Peter's lead to five at halftime. After falling behind 35-28 to open the second half, the Bulls mounted a 10-0 scoring run, capped by a Titus Robinson jumper to take a 38-35 lead.

John Boyer hit a driving layup to give the Bulls a 43-37 lead with 12:58 left. Saint Peter's responded with a 7-0 run to take a 47-46 lead. It was then UB's turn to make a run as the Bulls rattled off seven unanswered points to regain a 53-47 lead with seven minutes remaining.

The Bulls would continue to hold the lead and when Smiley broke free from the Peacocks' press to hit an off-balanced layup, the Bulls took a 63-58 lead with 20 seconds remaining. However, Saint Peter's hit a layup with 7.9 seconds left and then stole UB's inbounds pass. Nick Leon drained a three-pointer with less than a second remaining to send the game into overtime.

The game remained tight for the entire overtime session with each team taking brief leads. A free throw by Smiley gave the Bulls a 75-73 lead with 1:03 left. A Ryan Bacon layup with 44 seconds remaining knotted the contest at 75. The Bulls gained possession with the shot clock turned off and played for the final shot. Boyer fed Robinson underneath the basket, but his layup attempt was blocked out of bounds. The Bulls had the ball with 2.4 seconds remaining. Boyer triggered the inbounds pass to Smiley in the corner who pump-faked, took two dribbles past the defender, and knocked down the baseline jumper as time expired. The senior guard was immediately mobbed and hoisted onto the shoulders of his teammates.

"It felt good right away," Smiley said of his game-winning shot. "My eyes were on the basket and it took forever to get there, but it felt good coming off."

Smiley finished with 14 points and was one of four Bulls to score in double-figures. Rodney Pierce led the way with 22 points and had three steals. Calvin Betts notched his sixth double-double of the season with 14 points and 11 rebounds. Robinson was very active around the glass and finished with 13 points and five rebounds. The sophomore forward provided one of the Bulls' highlights of the day when he skyed over everyone on the floor to slam home a missed jumped shot.

Buffalo (16-9) had a season-high 13 steals and forced 23 turnovers. Boyer had a pair of steals to go along with a game-high eight assists.

Saint Peter's (15-12) was led Nick Leon and Wesley Jenkins who scored 25 and 21 points, respectively.

It was the Bulls' eighth road win of the season – setting a school record.

AKRON, OH – The University at Buffalo men's basketball team couldn't overcome a fast start by Akron and fell to the division-leading Zips, 77-67, at Rhodes Arena on Wednesday night. Akron jumped out to a 24-4 lead and never looked back, snapping the Bulls' five-game winning streak.

Buffalo (16-10, 8-6 MAC) stumbled out of the gate hitting only two of its first 17 shots. The Bulls shot 9-of-32 for the half. Conversely, Akron (21-8, 11-3 MAC) shot 50 percent for the half and led 39-23 at the break.

The Bulls managed to cut the Akron lead to 12 points on a couple occasions in the second half, but failed to get the lead to single digits.

Calvin Betts notched his seventh double-double of the season with 15 points and a season-high 14 rebounds and added three steals. Rodney Pierce shook off a poor first half, to score all of his game-high 19 points in the second half. Sean Smiley and Max Boudreau also scored in double-figures with 12 and 10 points, respectively.

Akron had five players score in double-figures, led by Steve McNees' 15.

"Akron deserved to win," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "They outworked us in almost every category."

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo men's basketball team erased a 10-point deficit in the game's final seven minutes to defeat Ohio, 72-69, at Alumni Arena on Saturday night. It was fitting that Saturday was senior night as the six Bulls' seniors, who were honored prior to the game, played huge roles in the victory.

Ohio (16-13, 6-9 MAC) led by six at the half and built its lead to 63-53 with 7:48 remaining. Following a missed shot by Buffalo (17-10, 9-6 MAC), Ohio looked to build its lead to a dozen. However, Kenneth Van Kempen's layup attempt was blocked from behind by Rodney Pierce and Max Boudreau drained a jumper at the other end to cut the lead to eight. The play seemed to spark the Bulls' rally. Calvin Betts came up with a steal on Ohio's next possession and Pierce capitalized with a layup to cut the lead to 63-57 with 6:35 left.

Following another Ohio turnover, John Boyer found a cutting Jawaan Alston for a layup to cut the lead to four. Another Ohio miss gave the ball back to the Bulls and Pierce found Boudreau on a beautiful give-and-go for a layup to pull the Bulls to within two with 4:19 left.

A layup by Ohio's D.J. Cooper extended the Bobcats' lead to four with 4:40 remaining. Boyer answered with his fourth three-pointer of the game to cut the lead to one with 2:59 left. A tip-in by Van Kempen put Ohio ahead, 67-64, with 2:37 left.

A three-pointer by Pierce knotted the game at 67 with 2:23 remaining. Neither team would score until Ohio's Armon Bassett hit a jumper with 40 seconds left to put Ohio ahead, 69-67. But Pierce struck again as the senior MAC Player of the Year candidate drained a three-pointer with 28 seconds left to give the Bulls their first lead since early in the contest. Pierce wasn't done as he came up with a game-clinching steal on Ohio's next possession. Boyer drained a pair of free throws to seal the win for the Bulls.

John Boyer Pierce finished with 26 points, four assists and a career-high five steals. Boyer added 16 points, seven assists and a career-best four steals. Betts also had four of the Bulls' season-high 15 steals. Mitchell Watt had three of the Bulls' six blocked shots. Defense was the key for the Bulls in the second half as they held the Bobcats to 25 points after scoring 44 in the first half.

Ohio had five players score in double-figures, led by Van Kempen who had 16 points and 10 rebounds. Cooper finished with 12 points, eight rebounds and 11 assists for the Bobcats.

"I think our guys did a great job at halftime of taking on the challenge," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "Holding them to 25 points in the second half was huge. We were a little jumpy offensively, but we stayed in there defensively, long enough to give ourselves a chance to be there in the end."

OXFORD, OH – The University at Buffalo men's basketball team dropped its regular season finale to Miami (OH), 73-62, on Thursday evening at Millet Hall. Sophomore Mitchell Watt scored a career-high 17 points in the Bulls' fall.

For most of the first half, the Bulls (17-11, 9-7 MAC) held the advantage. Leading the Bulls' first half offensive attack were Watt and senior Max Boudreau. Watt went on a first half tear, scoring nine straight with Boudreau adding eight in the first half.

With less than three minutes remaining, the RedHawks (13-17, 9-7 MAC) managed to capture a 27-25 lead only to see senior Rodney Pierce tie the contest just five seconds later off a pair of free throws. At the end of the half, Miami's Julian Mavunga converted on a pair of free throws to give the RedHawks a 33-29 lead at the break.

To begin the second half, the Bulls managed to trim back Miami's lead to two, 35-33. However, the RedHawks managed to extend their lead to 16 off an 11-0 run over 3:58 to take a 56-40 lead at the 8:48 mark.

In the time remaining, the Bulls tried to cut into the RedHawks' lead with Miami sustaining its edge for a 73-62 victory.

Watt led the Bulls with a career-high 17 points and tying a career-high six rebounds. Senior Calvin Betts pulled in 12 boards. Pierce converted seven straight free throws in the second half, scoring 16 points while tying Watt with six rebounds.

The RedHawks were led by Mavunga and Kenny Hayes each finishing with 17 points.

For the contest, the RedHawks shot 50 percent from the field as the Bulls shot 36 percent.

"We didn't just struggle shooting, we didn't defend on the perimeter either. We were completely listless and the energy was not there," said head coach Reggie Witherspoon. "What they did in limiting from the perimeter, opened opportunities inside but if we don't have the energy to defend, it doesn't help our efforts."

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo men's basketball team cruised past Toledo, 72-54, in the opening round of the FirstEnergy Mid-American Conference Tournament at Alumni Arena on Sunday afternoon. The Bulls advance to Cleveland and will play Miami (OH) on Thursday night at 9:00 pm at Quicken Loans Arena.

The fifth-seeded Bulls (18-11) jumped out to a 7-0 lead and never looked back. A young Toledo squad, the 12th seed, hung tough early and a three-pointer by Jake Barnett cut the UB lead to 14-11 with 10:11 left in the first half. Mitchell Watt slammed home a missed jump shot and Rodney Pierce came up with a steal and a layup in the closing seconds of the first half to extend the Buffalo lead to 35-22 at the break.

The UB lead remained in double-digits for the majority of the second half. Max Boudreau scored a 14 of his season-high 18 in the second half by knocking down a bevy of mid-range jump shots. The senior forward shot 8-of-10 from the field. His jumper with 5:53 remaining put the Bulls ahead 62-39. The 23-point advantage was the Bulls' largest of the afternoon.

Jawaan Alston earned his first start of the season after Titus Robinson was held out of the starting lineup with a minor injury. The junior forward responded with a career-high 12 rebounds to go along with four points and three assists. He helped the Bulls command the rebounding edge, 39-26. The Bulls had 15 offensive rebounds and scored 16 second chance points.

The Bulls also capitalized defensively as they scored 25 points off 12 Toledo turnovers. Calvin Betts had three steals to go along with his 13 points and five rebounds.

Sean Smiley also scored 13 points, including three three-pointers.

John Boyer, the nation's leader in assist-to-turnover ratio, cushioned his lead on Sunday afternoon with eight assists to zero turnovers.

The Bulls' 18-point victory was their largest ever in a MAC Tournament game.

"I think our focus defensively, positioning wise, was pretty good," head coach Reggie Witherspoon said. "I think our determination was pretty good and it led to us rebounding the ball pretty well. Our team effort and focus was better today and I'm hoping we can improve on it."

OXFORD, OH – The University at Buffalo men's basketball team was unable to overcome an early 18-point deficit as a furious second half rally came up short as the Bulls fell to Miami 73-59 in their Mid-American Conference quarterfinal game at the Quicken Loans Arena.

The Bulls scored the first bucket of the game, but the RedHawks responded with a 17-0 run, taking an early 14-point lead. UB continued to struggle from the floor in the opening half as the Bulls hit just four of their first 14 shots.

The Bulls trailed by as many as 18 in the first half with 7:05 left, but UB finished the half on a 10-3 run, cutting the Miami lead to 11 at the half. Redshirt sophomore Zach Filzen gave the Bulls a needed boost of the bench, hitting two of the three three-pointers that he attempted in the opening half.

The RedHawks didn't make it easy as they hit 56.3 percent of their shots from the floor, including 5-of-7 from behind the arc.

The Bulls began to heat up in the second half as they began to cut into the Miami lead. A three from senior Sean Smiley pulled the Bulls within five, which was the closest they had been since early in the first half. Smiley would get the Bulls even closer as another triple with 5:43 left pulled the Bulls within two at 56-54. However, a 5-0 Miami run put the RedHawks back up by seven points with just three minutes left to play. A three-point play from Calvin Betts put the Bulls within four, but that is the closest they would get. The RedHawks went on to hit 10-of-12 from the free throw line over the final 2:12 for the final margin.

Smiley led the way for the Bulls with 14 points as he closed out his career with a 4-for-5 performance from behind the arc. Pierce also finished in double figures with 12 points. John Boyer capped off an outstanding senior season with a game-high seven assists. Betts finished with a game-high 11 rebounds and seven points.

The RedHawks, who advance to take on No. 9 Ohio in tomorrow's semifinal, had four players in double figures led by 27 points from Kenny Hayes and 16 points from Julian Mavunga. As a team the RedHawks shot 57.9 percent from the floor and went to line 30 times, converting on 22 of them.

"Miami's two big guys were really big for them tonight and not only did we struggle to stop them, we also struggled making shots," said head coach Reggie Witherspoon. "We dug ourselves into too much of a hole and we had our chances to dig ourselves out, but Miami's big guys really stepped up."

The Bulls finish the season at 18-12, the fifth time in the last seven years the Bulls have had at least 17 wins.

The State University at Buffalo, until 1962 the private University of Buffalo, has enjoyed success on the basketball court from its first official season, 1915-16, when Coach Art Powell's team posted a 7-4 record, through the era of Coaches Mal Eiken and Len Serfustini in the 1940s, 50s and 60s, to recent years.

In its history on the hardwood, UB has won 971 games and lost 960 against some of the top Division I, II and III teams in the country.

The program gained national recognition under Coach Powell, who was born in Springfield, MA, seven years before Dr. James Naismith invented the sport. Powell, who played basketball and football at Syracuse, class of '07, had a 198-190 record in 28 seasons, including 28 straight wins and 45-5 for three seasons (1929-32), with triumphs over Pitt, West Virginia, Syracuse and Yale.

Powell's 1930-31 team was 15-0, the best mark in UB history, captained by Bob Harrington, a member of the University's Athletic Hall of Fame, along with 1922-23 captain Dr. James J. Ailinger and 1931-32 captain Ed Malanowicz, both outstanding all-around athletes.

In the early 1930s, UB's nickname was changed from "Bisons" to "Bulls" and in 1938 the program moved from the "old barn" that still stands at Rotary Field to Clark Hall on the South (Main Street) Campus.

UB had no athletic program during the war years of 1943-45, but returned to the court in 1945-46, coached by former captain Harrington. Then Eiken, an All-American at Minnesota class of '36, took command as the first full-time faculty member to coach basketball.

Eiken's 1946-47 squad, captained by football star Lou Corriere had a 12-5 season, capped by a game with Buffalo State before 11,891 fans at Memorial Auditorium. Eiken's 1949-50 club was 15-10, and doubleheaders at "The Aud" attracted 10,000 spectators.

UB Hall of Famer Jack Chalmers concluded his career in 1950-51 as the Bulls' first 1,000-point scorer (1,003), and Hal Kuhn was named the outstanding sophomore to appear at The Aud.

Eiken's 1951-52 Bulls were 18-6 and played in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Tournament, where Hall of Famer Kuhn ended the season with a record 458 points and his career with 1,065. Freshman Jim Horne tallied 374 that winter to set a fast pace for a record career of 1,833 points and eventually a place in the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame.

In 1956, UB President Clifford C. Furnas, an Olympic athlete, initiated a "Five-Year Plan" that would upgrade the total sports program and ignite the Bulls on a trail of banner headlines.

Len Serfustini, a 1950 UB grad, replaced Eiken as coach and in 14 seasons (1956-70) his Bulls would notch a 205-106 record and play in six NCAA Championship Tournaments.

The first team coached by "Serf" went 18-7, captained by Joe Tontillo (801 career points), and was selected to play in the inaugural NCAA Small College Division Tournament. Chuck Daniels (852 career points), an all-around athlete, was named to play with the College All-Stars.

The 1957-58 Bulls were 17-5 and continued a 21-game winning streak at Clark Hall and UB's four straight NCAA tournament appearances (1957-60).

UB returned to NCAA post-season play in 1962-63 behind All-ECAC star Gary Hanley (598 career rebounds), and in 1964-65 went 19-3, the Bulls' best modern record, opening the season with five wins, snapped at Tennessee, followed by 14 straight and a second-place finish in the NCAA Mid-East Regional Tournament. Future head coach Dan Bazzani co-captained the 1964-65 squad, which also included Harvey Poe (791 career points) and Norb Baschnagel, an NCAA All-Tournament First Team choice.

Ed Muto (Buffalo '50), a Serfustini teammate who had piloted the UB freshman program to a 184-91 record in 14 seasons (1956-70), took the helm in 1970-71 and in three campaigns (1970-73) posted a 37-33 record, 16-8 in his final year.

Individual standouts under Muto included captain Bob Vartanian, who scored 33 points in a win over Brown, and Curtis Blackmore, one of the best big men to ever play for UB. Blackmore, who scored a three-season record 1,287 points, ranks as the No. 2 all-time rebounder (1,175), and still owns six UB records including career (16.8) and season (17.8) rebound average and single-game rebounds (32 vs. UT-Chattanooga).

Leo Richardson (Morris '54), the first black head basketball coach at UB, moved up from his junior varsity post in 1973 and, although his five-season (1973-78) mark was 35-92, he produced several outstanding players while competing against strong Division I foes.

Otis Horne hit for 994 career points, grabbed 457 rebounds and set UB's Aud record with 38 points vs. Catholic University. Horace Brawley netted 835 career points including 36 at Gannon, the Bulls' road mark until Mike Martinho hit for 37 during the 1995-96 year.

In 1974, Richardson recruited a 20-year old out of a North Carolina factory who was destined to become one of UB's all-time greats, his departure signaling the end of an era in Bulls basketball. Sam Pellom, a 6-9, 220 center nicknamed "The Franchise," epitomized UB's "Big Time" basketball program.

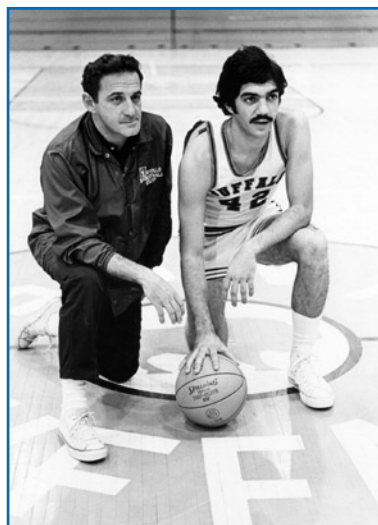

Pellom, who went on to play four seasons with the NBA Atlanta Hawks, led the nation (NCAA Division I) in rebounding (16.2 average) as a sophomore, receiving All-American honorable mention, finished his career as the Bulls' all-time rebounder (1,296), No. 2 scorer (1,403), and set eight UB records including blocked shots in a season (155) and career (375).

Because SUNY prohibited athletic grants-in-aid, UB declared for Division III status in 1977-78, after which Richardson resigned and was replaced by Bill Hughes (Greenville '57) in 1978-79, the Bulls' first season in SUNYAC.

Hughes guided the 1979-80 Bulls to a 17-10 mark, their first winning mark in eight years, 10-0 in the SUNYAC Western Division, to second place in the conference tourney, and was named SUNYAC Coach of the Year. Tom Parsons was the West's Player of the Year; Nate Bouie, 500 career rebounds, and Mike Freeman, UB records for field goal and free throw percentages, were also named All-Conference.

Parsons repeated as the West's top player in 1980-81, and the 1981-82 Bulls set a record for games played (30, 13-17), won the SUNYAC championship by defeating defending NCAA Division III titlist Potsdam State, and advanced to the NCAA Division III East Regional, UB's first postseason appearance since 1965. John Fitzpatrick, the SUNYAC Tournament MVP, and Karon Henderson were All-Conference picks.

Hughes, whose four-season record was 49-70 overall, but 49-26 in Division III, was replaced on an interim basis in 1982-83 by Ken Pope (Buffalo '74), his former top assistant.

The '82-83 campaign was significant in that the Bulls played their final game at Clark Hall, a 93-84 win over Penn State-Behrend on Nov. 30, 1982, and their first game in Alumni Arena, the new, $13 million fieldhouse on the North (Amherst) Campus, defeating Stony Brook, 71-64, on Dec. 3, 1982.

Dan Bazzani (Buffalo '65), who had a successful nine-season tenure at Niagara County Community College, returned to his alma mater in 1983-84 and guided the Bulls to their first winning record (14-13) in four years. He was the first rookie UB coach to finish over .500 since 1956-57.

Led by All-SUNYAC picks Vince Brown and Greg Franklin, the Bulls stunned defending conference titlist Potsdam, 60-59, before bowing to arch-rival Buffalo State College in the championship game, UB's fifth straight conference tournament appearance.

After a stellar career at UB, Sam Pellom went on to play in the NBA for the Atlanta Hawks.

The 1984-85 Bulls roared to a 7-1 start, including an 87-78 upset of Division II Gannon at Erie, PA, but UB was forced to forfeit those wins because of an administrative error concerning eligibility, lost its top two scorers and rebounders and finished 5-19.

Bazzani got it rolling again in '85-86, the Bulls notching a 14-11 mark that included two tournament titles and a victory over Final Four team Jersey City State.

UB continued its resurgence in 1986-87, winning 15 of 25 games, 13-7 vs. Division III foes, captured two more tournament titles and defeated arch-rival Buffalo State. All-SUNYAC forwards Anthony Miller (14.6 ppg, 8.1 rpg) and Shannon Greer (13.8 ppg, 6.1 rpg) paced the Bulls. Point guard Michael Washington led in assists (143) and steals (48).

In 1987-88, the Bulls went 14-13 before going 16-14 during the 1988-89 campaign. That season, UB won the Pocono Classic by defeating host East Stroudsburg in the championship game. A three-game, week-long road trip to California highlighted the schedule and confirmed the University's desire to compete again at the NCAA Division I level in 1991.

In the 1988-89 season, Bazzani's club went 16-14 and advanced to the championship game of the Mideast Conference before bowing to host Philadelphia Textile. In 1989-90, the Bulls were 14-13, including the championship of the inaugural Shooter's Roundup Basketball Classic. In 1990-91, UB went 13-14, the first losing season in Bazzani's UB career, but the Bulls posted eight consecutive victories early in the campaign and successfully defended their Shooter's Roundup Classic title.

Senior captain Ricky Coleman closed out his UB career by becoming the team's fifth all-time leading scorer with 1,258 points while junior Rob Middlebrooks became the seventh player in UB history to eclipse the 1,000-point mark.

In 1992-93, the club entered the Division I arena again and, while posting a 2-26 record, had a number of outstanding individual accomplishments, including the play of senior John Blalock. The guard scored 590 points – the most of any player in UB history, while leading the club in scoring in 18 of its 28 games.

In its second season at the Division I level, UB finished with a record of 5-22, dropping its first eight and last six contests of the campaign. UB doubled its 1993-94 win total with 10 and took 10 other teams down to the wire, facing top competition such as "Elite Eight" team Boston College, Pittsburgh, Duquesne and Pennsylvania.

Mike Martinho (left) and Rasaun Young (right) were the best duo to ever play for the Bulls, combining to score 3,616 points during their career.

A 9-2 start in 1994-95, including wins at Rutgers and the title at the Iona Classic, propelled the Bulls to the most wins in 30 years at 18-10. The Bulls got outstanding seasons from two-year captain Modie Cox, Kelvin Robinson, Myron Banks and junior Rasaun Young, who was named to the first-team All-Mid-Continent team.

The 1995-96 season saw the Bulls finish 13-14 after losing preseason Mid-Con Player of the Year Rasaun Young before the opening tip-off with an ankle injury. Sophomore guard Mike Martinho picked up the scoring in his place, averaging 17.7 ppg and being named second team All Mid-Continent. Freshman Bernard Wheeler and Robert Harris each were named to the Mid-Con All-Newcomer team.

In 1996-97, the Bulls finished 17-11 and reached the semifinals of the Mid-Con Tournament before an overtime loss to Western Illinois ended their season. The Bulls won the Big 4 title by defeating Niagara, Canisius and St. Bonaventure all in the same week. Rasaun Young and Mike Martinho both went over the 1,000-point barrier and were first-team Mid-Con selections.

The '97-98 Bulls went 15-13 as Rasaun Young became the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,908 points and Mike Martinho finished third with 1,708 points. Martinho also smashed the school record for points in a game when he scored 44 against Rochester on Feb. 2, 1998.

The 1998-99 season was yet another step up the ladder for UB athletics climb into national prominence as the Bulls joined the Mid-American Conference. The MAC is one of the oldest conferences in the nation and has always been competitive in the national spotlight.

It was a tough mountain for the Bulls to climb, and with a young team UB suffered some tough losses, finishing the season with a 5-24 record and a 1-17 mark in the MAC. In 1999-2000, the Bulls increased their conference wins to three, finishing the MAC at 3-15 and 5-23 overall. Reggie Witherspoon took over as head coach of the program after serving as the interim coach through most of the season and looks to build on the UB history and climb to a level of respectability in the MAC.

In 2000-01, Buffalo just missed its mark, dropping 12 regular season games by 10 points or less, the second-most in the country. The Bulls, who were also hit with several injuries throughout the season, finished 4-24.

In 2001-02, the program took a major step toward becoming a force to be reckoned with in the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls finished 12-18, their best mark since joining the MAC in 1998. In fact, their eight-game improvement in the win column from the previous season was the sixth highest among Division I teams.

In 2002-03, the Bulls fought through a tough 5-23 season. With freshmen and sophomores playing over 80 percent of the minutes, the Bulls proved to be competitive in nearly every game as they lost 13 games by 10 points or less. Turner Battle was named to the All-MAC Honorable Mention and Academic All-MAC squads.

The 2003-04 season was one to remember for the Buffalo Bulls. UB finished the season 17-12 overall and 11-7 in MAC play. The Bulls won their first-ever MAC playoff game, 90-73, over Northern Illinois in front of 8,971 fans - the largest crowd in Alumni Arena history. The Bulls would fall to Toledo in the quarterfinals of the MAC Tournament in Cleveland.

For an encore act, the Bulls won a school-record 23 games in 2004-05 and advanced to the Mid-American Conference championship game for the first time in school history. Although the Bulls suffered a heart-breaking overtime loss to Ohio in the title game, the 23 wins were good enough for a berth in the National Invitation Tournament - UB's first postseason appearance as a Division I program. The Bulls defeated Drexel in the opening round before falling to eventual runner-up Saint Joseph's. Turner Battle capped off a stellar career by being named MAC Player of the Year and earning Associated Press All-America and Academic All-America honors.

The Bulls started the 2005-06 season 11-1, including a nine-game winning streak - their longest winning streak since the 1964-65 season. UB's hot start included wins over Rutgers and Fresno State. On Dec. 5, 2005, the Bulls received their first ever votes in the Associated Press Top 25. The Bulls finished the year 19-13, tying them for the second most wins in school history. Senior guard Calvin Cage, a second-team All-MAC selection, scored a school-record 592 points on the season.

The 2006-07 season was highlighted by wins over high-profile programs Temple and Miami (FL). The win over the Hurricanes was UB's first ever win over a school from the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Bulls put a huge scare into second-ranked Pittsburg, falling to the Panthers 70-67 in front of 6,350 fans at Alumni Arena. Yassin Idbihi concluded his tremendous career as the Bulls' fourth all-time leading scorer (1,514) and third all-time leading rebounder (844).

On December 1, 2007 Buffalo defeated Evansville, 81-60, at Alumni Arena for head coach Reggie Witherspoon's 100th win at Buffalo. He became just the fifth men's basketball coach in school history to win 100 games.

The Bulls proved the prognosticators wrong during the 2008-09 season as they finished the year 21-12 and were regular season co-champions of the Mid-American Conference after being picked to finish last in the MAC prior to the season. The Bulls advanced to the MAC championship game where they lost to Akron. Buffalo did advance to postseason play for only the second time as a Division I program. UB lost at Wichita State in the opening round of the College Basketball Invitational. Buffalo defeated Pepperdine, Colorado and Colorado State to win the Rainbow Classic. Rodney Pierce was named All-MAC First Team.

The Bulls finished the 2009-10 season 18-12, marking the fifth time in seven years they won 17 or more games in a season. Senior point guard John Boyer led the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio (3.7) to become the first Buffalo player to lead the nation in a statistical category since 1976. Rodney Pierce became the first UB player to be a two-time All-MAC First Team selection.

Turner Battle was named the Mid-American Conference Player of the Year as well as being named an All-American and Academic All-American in 2005.

UB Retired Jerseys

Curtis Blackmore

1970-73

In three seasons at the University at Buffalo, Curtis Blackmore became one of the most prolific rebounders and scorers in school history. Blackmore's presence is still noticable in the UB record books, especially for rebounding.

Blackmore holds the school record with an incredible 32 rebounds in one game. He is second in career rebounds with 1,175 and holds the single season record with 427. Blackmore has two of the school's three 400-rebound seasons as he also recorded 403 in 1971-72. His 17.8 rebounds per game his senior year still ranks as the best average in UB history.

Blackmore was named team Most Valuable Player in both the 1970-71 season and the 1972-73 season. He had a tryout with the Buffalo Braves team of the NBA following his career at UB. Blackmore was inducted into the UB Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

Jim Horne

When Jim Horne finished his career playing for the University at Buffalo in 1955, he was the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,833 points. That record would stand for over 40 years, and he still ranks second in the school's all-time career scoring list.

Horne has three of the top four scoring averages for a single season for UB. He averaged 24.9 points per game his senior year and also averaged 22.9 points his sophomore year and 20.7 points per game his junior season, all before the inception of the three-point line.

A three-year captain for the Bulls, Horne was also a tenacious rebounder and ranks fifth in the UB records for career rebounds. He also ranks second in career free throws made with 497. Horne was inducted into the UB Athletic Hall of Fame in 1966.

Harold Kuhn

19

Harold Kuhn was a two-year captain for the Bulls, and helped lead the Bulls to a 46-24 record during his career. In 1952, he was named the Dom Grossi Award recipient as the University at Buffalo's most outstanding athlete for his senior season.

Kuhn was the second player in UB history to total over 1,000 career points, finishing with 1,065. His 485 points scored his senior season still ranks as the seventh best all-time in school history for a single season. That same season, he averaged 20.2 points per game, the fifth best average in UB history. As a senior, he was also named to the Western New York All-Star Team. Kuhn was inducted into the University at Buffalo Athletic Hall of Fame in 1968, the fourth year of inductions into the Hall of Fame.
