UB MEN'S BASKETBALL HISTORY

The State University at Buffalo, until 1962 the private University of Buffalo, has enjoyed success on the basketball court from its first official season, 1915-16, when Coach Art Powell's team posted a 7-4 record, through the era of Coaches Mal Eiken and Len Serfustini in the 1940s, 50s and 60s, to recent years.

In its history on the hardwood, UB has won 1,055 games and lost 1,031 against some of the top Division I, II and III teams in the country.

The program gained national recognition under Coach Powell, who was born in Springfield, MA, seven years before Dr. James Naismith invented the sport. Powell, who played basketball and football at Syracuse, class of '07, had a 198-190 record in 28 seasons, including 28 straight wins and 45-5 for three seasons (1929-32), with triumphs over Pitt, West Virginia, Syracuse and Yale.

Powell's 1930-31 team was 15-0, the best mark in UB history, captained by Bob Harrington, a member of the University's Athletic Hall of Fame, along with 1922-23 captain Dr. James J. Ailinger and 1931-32 captain Ed Malanowicz, both outstanding all-around athletes.

In the early 1930s, UB's nickname was changed from "Bisons" to "Bulls" and in 1938 the program moved from the "old barn" that still stands at Rotary Field to Clark Hall on the South (Main Street) Campus.

UB had no athletic program during the war years of 1943-45, but returned to the court in 1945-46, coached by former captain Harrington. Then Eiken, an All-American at Minnesota class of '36, took command as the first full-time faculty member to coach basketball.

Eiken's 1946-47 squad, captained by football star Lou Corriere had a 12-5 season, capped by a game with Buffalo State before 11,891 fans at Memorial Auditorium. Eiken's 1949-50 club was 15-10, and doubleheaders at "The Aud" attracted 10,000 spectators.

UB Hall of Famer Jack Chalmers concluded his career in 1950-51 as the Bulls' first 1,000-point scorer (1,003), and Hal Kuhn was named the outstanding sophomore to appear at The Aud.

Eiken's 1951-52 Bulls were 18-6 and played in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Tournament, where Hall of Famer Kuhn ended the season with a record 458 points and his career with 1,065. Freshman Jim Horne tallied 374 that winter to set a fast pace for a record career of 1,833 points and eventually a place in the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame.

In 1956, UB President Clifford C. Furnas, an Olympic athlete, initiated a "Five-Year Plan" that would upgrade the total sports program and ignite the Bulls on a trail of banner headlines.

Len Serfustini, a 1950

UB grad, replaced Eiken as coach and in 14 seasons (1956-70) his Bulls would notch a 205-106 record and play in six NCAA Championship Tournaments.

The first team coached by "Serf" went 18-7, captained by Joe Tontillo (801 career points), and was selected to play in the inaugural NCAA Small College Division Tournament. Chuck Daniels (852 career points), an all-around athlete, was named to play with the College All-Stars.

The 1957-58 Bulls were 17-5 and continued a 21-game winning streak at Clark Hall and UB's four straight NCAA tournament appearances (1957-60).

UB returned to NCAA post-season play in 1962-63 behind All-ECAC star Gary Hanley (598 career rebounds), and in 1964-65 went 19-3, the Bulls' best modern record, opening the season with five wins, snapped at Tennessee. followed by 14 straight and a second-place finish in the NCAA Mid-East Regional Tournament. Future head coach Dan Bazzani cocaptained the 1964-65 squad, which also included Harvey Poe (791 career points) and Norb Baschnagel, an NCAA All-Tournament First Team choice.

Ed Muto (Buffalo '50), a Serfustini teammate who had piloted the UB freshman program to a 184-91 record in 14 seasons (1956-70), took the helm in 1970-71 and in three campaigns (1970-73) posted a 37-33 record, 16-8 in his final year.

Individual standouts under Muto included captain Bob Vartanian, who scored 33 points in a win over Brown, and Curtis Blackmore, one of the best big men to ever play for UB. Blackmore, who scored a three-season record 1,287 points, ranks as the No. 2 all-time rebounder (1,175), and still owns six UB records including career (16.8) and season (17.8) rebound average and single-game rebounds (32 vs. UT-Chattanooga).

Leo Richardson (Morris '54), the first black head basketball coach at UB, moved up from his junior varsity post in 1973 and, although his five-season (1973-78) mark was 35-92, he produced several outstanding players while competing against strong Division I foes.

UB MEN'S BASKETBALL HISTOR

Otis Horne hit for 994 career points, grabbed 457 rebounds and set UB's Aud record with 38 points vs. Catholic University. Horace Brawley netted 835 career points including 36 at Gannon, the Bulls' road mark until Mike Martinho hit for 37 during the 1995-96 year.

In 1974, Richardson recruited a 20-year old out of a North Carolina factory who was destined to become one of UB's all-time greats, his departure signaling the end of an era in Bulls basketball. Sam Pellom, a 6-9, 220 center nicknamed "The Franchise," epitomized UB's "Big Time" basketball program.

Pellom, who went on to play four seasons with the NBA Atlanta Hawks, led the nation (NCAA Division I) in rebounding (16.2 average) as a sophomore, receiving All-American honorable mention, finished his career as the Bulls' all-time rebounder (1,296), No. 2 scorer (1,403), and set eight UB records including blocked shots in a season (155) and career (375).

Because SUNY prohibited athletic grants-in-aid, UB declared for Division III status in 1977-78, after which Richardson resigned and was replaced by Bill Hughes (Greenville '57) in 1978-79, the Bulls' first season in SUNYAC.

Hughes guided the 1979-80 Bulls to a 17-10 mark, their first winning mark in eight years, 10-0 in the SUNYAC Western Division, to second place in the conference tourney, and was named SUNYAC Coach of the Year. Tom Parsons was the West's Player of the Year; Nate Bouie, 500 career rebounds, and Mike Freeman, UB records for field goal and free throw percentages, were also named All-Conference.

Parsons repeated as the West's top player in 1980-81, and the 1981-82 Bulls set a record for games played (30, 13-17), won the SUNYAC championship by defeating defending NCAA Division III titlist Potsdam State, and advanced to the NCAA Division

III East Regional, UB's first postseason appearance since 1965. John Fitzpatrick, the SUNYAC Tournament MVP, and Karon Henderson were All-Conference picks.

Hughes, whose four-season record was 49-70 overall, but 49-26 in Division III, was replaced on an interim basis in 1982-83 by Ken Pope (Buffalo '74), his former top assistant.

The '82-83 campaign was significant in that the Bulls played their final game at Clark Hall, a 93-84 win over Penn State-Behrend 2017-18 Buffalo wins a school record 27 games and claims its first outright MAC Regular season title and won the MAC Tournament for the third time in four years. UB wins its first ever NCAA Tournament game with an 89-68 win over Arizona. Nate Oats became just the second UB head coach to be named the MAC Coach of the Year.

2018-19 UB won a a school and MAC record 32 games en rout to their fourth MAC Title in the last five seasons. Senior CJ Massinburg was named the MAC Player of the Year and Nate Oats earned his second Coach of the Year honor. UB capped off the year with a 91-74 win over Arizona in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Following the season, Jim Whitesell was named the 14th head coach in program history.

Buffalo wins 20 games for the fourth time in the last five seasons as UB goes 20-12 2019-20 in Jim Whitesell's first year. For the fourth straight year, Buffalo takes home the MAC Sixth Man of the Year award as Ronaldo Segu earns the honor, while Dayonta Jordan is named MAC Defensvive Player of the Year.

on Nov. 30, 1982, and their first game in Alumni Arena, the new, $13 million fieldhouse on the North (Amherst) Campus, defeating Stony Brook, 71-64, on Dec. 3, 1982.

Dan Bazzani (Buffalo'65), who had a successful nine-season tenure at Niagara County Community College, returned to his alma mater in 1983-84 and guided the Bulls to their first winning record (14-13) in four years. He was the first rookie UB coach to finish over .500 since 1956-57.

Led by All-SUNYAC picks Vince Brown and Greg Franklin, the Bulls stunned defending conference titlist Potsdam, 60-59, before bowing to arch-rival Buffalo State College in the championship game, UB's fifth straight conference tournament appearance.

The 1984-85 Bulls roared to a 7-1 start, including an 87-78 upset of Division II Gannon at Erie, PA, but UB was forced to forfeit those wins because of an administrative error concerning eligibility, lost its top two scorers and rebounders and finished 5-19.

Bazzani got it rolling again in '85-86, the Bulls notching a 14-11 mark that included two tournament titles and a victory over Final Four team Jersey City State.

UB continued its resurgence in 1986-87, winning 15 of 25 games, 13-7 vs. Division III foes, captured two more tournament titles and defeated arch-rival Buffalo State. All-SUNYAC forwards Anthony Miller (14.6 ppg, 8.1 rpg) and Shannon Greer (13.8 ppg, 6.1 rpg) paced the Bulls. Point guard Michael Washington led in assists (143) and steals (48).

In 1987-88, the Bulls went 14-13 before going 16-14 during the 1988-89 campaign. That season, UB won the Pocono Classic by defeating host East Stroudsburg in the championship game. A threegame, week-long road trip to California highlighted the schedule and confirmed the University's desire to compete again at the NCAA Division I level in 1991.

In the 1988-89 season, Bazzani's club went 16-14 and advanced to the championship game of the Mideast Conference before bowing to host Philadelphia Textile. In 1989-90, the Bulls were 14-13, including the championship of the inaugural Shooter's Roundup Basketball Classic. In 1990-91, UB went 13-14, the first losing season in Bazzani's UB career, but the Bulls posted eight consecutive victories early in the campaign and successfully defended their Shooter's Roundup Classic title.

Senior captain Ricky Coleman closed out his UB career by becoming the team's fifth all-time leading scorer with 1,258 points while junior Rob Middlebrooks became the seventh player in UB history to eclipse the 1,000-point mark.

In 1992-93, the club entered the Division I arena again and, while posting a 2-26 record, had a number of outstanding individual accomplishments, including the play of senior John Blalock. The guard scored 590 points – the most of any player in UB history, while leading the club in scoring in 18 of its 28 games.

In its second season at the Division I level, UB finished with a record of 5-22, dropping its first eight and last six contests of the campaign. UB doubled its 1993-94 win total with 10 and took 10 other teams down to the wire, facing top competition such as "Elite Eight" team Boston College, Pittsburgh, Duquesne and Pennsylvania.

A 9-2 start in 1994-95, including wins at Rutgers and the title at the Iona Classic, propelled the Bulls to the most wins in 30 years at 18-10. The Bulls got outstanding seasons from two-year captain Modie Cox, Kelvin Robinson, Myron Banks and junior Rasaun Young, who was named to the first-team All-Mid-Continent team.

The 1995-96 season saw the Bulls finish 13-14 after losing preseason Mid-Con Player of the Year Rasaun Young before the opening tip-off with an ankle injury. Sophomore guard Mike Martinho picked up the scoring in his place, averaging 17.7 ppg and being named second team All Mid-Continent.

Freshman Bernard Wheeler and Robert Harris each were named to the Mid-Con All-Newcomer team.

In 1996-97, the Bulls finished 17-11 and reached the semifinals of the Mid-Con Tournament before an overtime loss to Western Illinois ended their season. The Bulls won the Big 4 title by defeating Niagara, Canisius and St. Bonaventure all in the same week. Rasaun Young and Mike Martinho both went over the 1,000-point barrier and were first-team Mid-Con selections.

The '97-98 Bulls went 15-13 as Rasaun Young became the school's alltime leading scorer with 1,908 points and Mike Martinho finished third with 1,708 points.

Turner Battle was named the Mid-American Conference Player of the Year as well as being named an All-American and Academic All-American in 2005.

Martinho also smashed the school record for points in a game when he scored 44 against Rochester on Feb. 2, 1998.

The 1998-99 season was yet another step up the ladder for UB athletics climb into national prominence as the Bulls joined the Mid-American Conference. The MAC is one of the oldest conferences in the nation and has always been competitive in the national spotlight.

It was a tough mountain for the Bulls to climb, and with a young team UB suffered some tough losses, finishing the season with a 5-24 record and a 1-17 mark in the MAC. In 1999-2000, the Bulls increased their conference wins to three, finishing the MAC at 3-15 and 5-23 overall. Reggie Witherspoon took over as head coach of the program after serving as the interim coach through most of the season and looks to build on the UB history and climb to a level of respectability in the MAC.

In 2000-01, Buffalo just missed its mark, dropping 12 regular season games by 10 points or less, the second-most in the country. The Bulls, who were also hit with several injuries throughout the season, finished 4-24.

In 2001-02, the program took a major step toward becoming a force to be reckoned with in the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls finished 12-18, their best mark since joining the MAC in 1998. In fact, their eight-game improvement in the win column from the previous season was the sixth highest among Division I teams.

In 2002-03, the Bulls fought through a tough 5-23 season. With freshmen and sophomores playing over 80 percent of the minutes, the Bulls proved to be competitive in nearly every game as they lost 13 games by 10 points or less. Turner Battle was named to the All-MAC Honorable Mention and Academic All-MAC squads.

The 2003-04 season was one to remember for the Buffalo Bulls. UB finished the season 17-12 overall and 11-7 in MAC play. The Bulls won their first-ever MAC playoff game, 90-73, over Northern Illinois in front of 8,971 fans - the largest crowd in Alumni Arena history. The Bulls would fall to Toledo in the quarterfinals of the MAC Tournament in Cleveland.

For an encore act, the Bulls won a school-record 23 games in 2004-05 and advanced to the Mid-American Conference championship game for the first time in school history. Although the Bulls suffered a heart-breaking overtime loss to Ohio in the title game, the 23 wins were good enough for a berth in the National Invitation Tournament - UB's first postseason appearance as a Division I program. The Bulls defeated Drexel in the opening round before falling to eventual runner-up Saint Joseph's. Turner Battle capped off a stellar career by being named MAC Player of the Year and earning Associated Press All-America and Academic All-America honors.

The Bulls started the 2005-06 season 11-1, including a nine-game winning streak - their longest winning streak since the 1964-65 season. UB's hot start included wins over Rutgers and Fresno State. On Dec. 5, 2005, the Bulls received their first ever votes in the Associated Press Top 25. The Bulls finished the year 19-13, tying them for the second mosts wins in school history. Senior guard Calvin Cage, a second-team All-MAC selection, scored a school-record 592 points on the season.

The 2006-07 season was highlighted by wins over high-profile programs Temple and Miami (FL). The win over the Hurricanes was UB's first ever win over a school from the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Bulls put a huge scare into second-ranked Plttsburgh, falling to the Panthers 70-67 in front of 6,350 fans at Alumni Arena. Yassin Idbihi concluded his tremendous career as the Bulls' fourth all-time leading scorer (1,514) and third all-time leading rebounder (844).

On December 1, 2007 Buffalo defeated Evansville, 81-60, at Alumni Arena for head coach Reggie Witherspoon's 100th win at Buffalo. He became just the fifth men's basketball coach in school history to win 100 games.

The Bulls proved the prognosticators wrong during the 2008-09 season as they finished the year 21-12 and were regular season co-champions of the Mid-American Conference after being picked to finish last in the MAC prior to the season. The Bulls advanced to the MAC championship game where they lost to Akron. Buffalo did advance to postseason play for only the second time as a Division I program. UB lost at Wichita State in the opening round of the College Basketball Invitational. Buffalo defeated Pepperdine, Colorado and Colorado State to win the Rainbow Classic. Rodney Pierce was named All-MAC First Team.

The Bulls finished the 2009-10 season 18-12, marking the fifth time in seven years they won 17 or more games in a season. Senior point guard John Boyer led the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio (3.7). to become the first Buffalo player to lead the nation in a statistical category since 1976. Rodney Pierce became the first UB player to be a two-time All-MAC First Team selection.

The Bulls had their third 20-win season in 2010-11, posting a 20-14 record. The Bulls made their third post-season appearance as a Division I program, advancing to the third round of the CollegeInsider. com Postseason Tournament. It was a record-setting year for a trio of Bulls. Byron Mulkey set the single-season school record for steals with 85. Zach Filzen drained 110 three-pointers, also a school record. Javon McCrea scored 400 points, the most ever by a UB freshman, en route to being named the MAC Freshman of the Year.

For the third time in the past four seasons, the Bulls eclipsed 20 wins, finishing the season with a 20-11 overall record. After being picked to finish fifth in the MAC East Division in the preseason, the Bulls took the conference by storm, finishing with a 12-4 record and the number two overall seed in the MAC Tournament. Senior Mitchell Watt was named the player year and he joined Javon McCrea on the conference's All-MAC First Team. The team earned another bit to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament for its effort. Jarod Oldham set a modern-era record with 183 assists and Javon McCrea hit 190 field goals, the second most ever in a single season in UB history. The graduating class of seniors - Watt, Dave Barnett, Zach Filzen, and Titus Robinson - were also honored as the winningest class in the program's history.

The Bulls finished the 2012-13 season with a 14-20 record, forcing a change in coaching staff at the end of the year. Athletic Director Danny White, tabbed legendary Duke point guard Bobby Hurley as the 12th head coach in school history on March 26, 2013.

the season with a 19-10 record and a 13-5 mark in the Mid-American Conference, UB's most ever wins in conference play.

Senior Javon McCrea became the third player in school history to be named the MAC Player of the Year as he broke the school's career scoring record on Feb. 22, 2014 at Kent State. McCrea finished his career with 2,004 points, breaking the 2,000 point mark in the conference tournament against Eastern Michigan. McCrea was also named to the All-MAC First Team for the third straight season. Senior Joshua Freelove was named All-MAC Honorable Mention and freshman Shannon Evans was named to the league's All-Freshman team.

Hurley led the Bulls to their most successful season in 2014-15 as UB won its first ever Mid-American Conference Tournament and went to the NCAA Tournament for the first time, where the Bulls played West Virginia at Nationwide Arena in Columbus, OH.

The Bulls ended the season with a 23-10 record, tying the school-record for wins in a season, while setting a new school record with 10 true road victories. The Bulls played a pair of teams that made it to the Final Four in top-ranked Kentucky and Wisconsin, holding halftime leads on both teams.

Junior Justin Moss was named the MAC Player of the Year, becoming the second straight UB player named the league's top player. Sophomore Shannon Evans recorded the school's first ever triple double as he finished with 14 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists at Binghamton.

Following the season, Hurley left to take the head coach position at Arizona State, which allowed White to promote assistant coach Nate Oats to the head job. He was officially named the 13th head coach in school history on April 13, 2015.

Oats led the Bulls to their second straighty MAC Title and second straight NCAA Tournament berth in 2015-16 as the Bulls became the first repeat MAC Tournament winner since 2001-02 with Kent State. UB won the title with a 64-61 victory over Akron in the MAC Championship game and they then faced Miami (FL) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Providence, RI. The Bulls lost the game 79-72.

After a 17-15 campain in 2016-17, the Bulls came back in 2017-18 and put forth the best season in school history as Oats led the Bulls to a 27-9 record, setting the school record for wins in a season at the time. The Bulls clinched their first ever Mid-American Conference outright regular season title, finishing with a 15-3 record, setting a program mark for MAC wins in a season.

Buffalo advanced to Cleveland as the #1 seed for the first time, and won all three MAC Tournament games by double figures, including a 76-66 win over #2 Toledo in the MAC Championship game. Following the tournament, senior Wes Clark was named the MAC Tournament MVP after he scored 26 points in the Championship.

Oats became the second Buffalo head coach to be named MAC Coach of the year, while also earning All-District honors from the National Basketball Coaches Association. In all, five UB players earned postseason All-MAC honors as CJ Massinburg and Nick Perkins were named to the All-MAC First Team, while Jeremy Harris was named to the All-MAC Second Team. Clark was named to the All-MAC Third Team and Davonta Jordan was named to the League's All-Defensive squad.

The Bulls moved along to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years and was awarded a #13 seed in the South Region. The Bulls were matched up against #4 Arizona, who won the PAC-12 in Boise, ID. Buffalo responded by picking up their first ever NCAA Tournament win as the Bulls defeated Arizona, 89-68, on March 15 at the Taco Bell Arena in Boise. Clark led the Bulls with 25 points, while Harris had 23 in the win.

The Bulls recorded their first ever NCAA Tournament win with an 89-68 win over Arizona on March, 15, 2018 in Boise, ID.

Buffalo advanced o the Round of 32 where they matched up with #5 and SEC Champion Kentucky on March 17. The Bulls hung tight with the Wildcats, pulling within five with just over eight minutes left in the second half. Kentucky ended up pulling away late, winning the game 95-75.

The 2018-19 season will go down as the best in school history as the Bulls finished with a 32-4 record, setting both the school and Mid-American Conference record for wins in a season. Oats was named MAC Coach of the Year for a second straight season, while senior CJ Massinburg became the fifth different Buffalo player named MAC Player of the year. UB also claimed Sixth Man and Defensive player of the year honors.

The Bulls began the season winning their first 11 games, including victories at then 13th ranked West Virginia and UB's first ever win at the Senior Wes Clark scored 26 points to lead the Bulls to a 76-66 win over Toledo in the MAC Championship. Clark celebrates with head coach Nate Oats, who was also his head coach in high school.

Carrier Dome against Syracuse. The Bulls were ranked for a MAC record 19 weeks, peaking as high as 14th on the season.

Buffalo also set a school record for most MAC victories with a 16-2 conference record, winning its second straight outright MAC regular season title. The Bulls went into Cleveland as the #1 seed and defeated Bowling Green 87-73 for the MAC Tournament title. Senior Jeremy Harris had 31 points in the game as he was named the MAC Tournament MVP.

The Bulls concluded the MAC Tournament with 31 wins, earning a six seed in the NCAA Tournament, the highest by a MAC team since the field expanded in 1985. UB traveled to Tulsa, OK where the Bulls met a familiar face in the first round in former head coach Bobby Hurley and his Arizona State Sun Devils. For the second straight season, Buffalo won its opening round game, defeating ASU, 91-74.

Following the season, Oats left for the University of Alabama and athletic director Mark Alnutt announced fomer associate head coach Jim Whitesell as the 14th head coach in program history on April 5, 2019.

In his first season as UB head coach, Whitesell became just the second head coach to lead his team to 20 wins in his first seasons at the helm.

The 2018-19 squad set a new school and Mid-American Conference record with 32 wins. UB was nationally ranked for 19 weeks during the year.

Bulls Fall Just Short In First NCAA Tournament Appearance

COLUMBUS, OH – The University at Buffalo, The State University of New York, men's basketball team overcame a 10-point halftime deficit, but a late 6-0 run put #5 West Virginia past the 12th seeded Bulls, 68-62 in NCAA Second Round action at Nationwide Arena in Columbus, OH. The loss ends UB's season with a 23-10 record, tied for the most victories in a single year.

Playing in their first tournament in school history, the Mountaineers scored the first seven points of the game before free throws from Lamonte Bearden put the Bulls on the board. West Virginia led by as many as 13 points in the opening half with 9:49 left and led 27-15 when the Bulls went on an 11-2 run, capped off with two Justin Moss free throws to pull within 29-26 with 4:25 left. However, a 7-0 run to end the half gave West Virginia the 36-26 halftime lead.

Following a passionate speech from head coach Bobby Hurley during the intermission, UB opened the second half, scoring seven straight points, ignited by a three pointer from sophomore Shannon Evans to get the run going.

West Virginia had an answer for every UB run though as it scored seven straight to regain the 10-point advantage. The Mountaineers continued to lead 59-50 with 6:21 left when four straight points, including a three from Xavier Ford, pulled UB within 59-54. Layups by Bearden and a three-point play from Ford got the Bulls within one. WVU regained a three-point lead, but Ford drained a three-point with 2:41 left to tie up the game at 62-62. Unfortunately, it would be UB's last points of the game.

The Mountaineers hit a pair of free throw to retake the lead and the dagger came with 28 seconds left as Tarik Phillip hit a three pointer to give West Virginia a five-point lead. A late free throw made the game its final six-point difference.

"Obviously this a tough pill to swallow as we came into today with every intention of winning a basketball game and tying to advance," said Hurley. "I am proud of my team and the fight and resiliency that they showed all afternoon and it came down to a couple of plays that didn't go our way."

In his final game in a UB uniform, Ford led the Bulls with 16 points. Evans added 15 points, while Moss finished his MAC Player of the Year season with 13 points and seven rebounds. Bearden finished with eight points, a team-high six assists and four rebounds.

Rodell Wigginton and Raheem Johnson each added four points off the bench as Johnson's came on a pair of thunderous dunks. He added five rebounds.

Also playing in his final game for the Bulls was senior Will Regan, who threw down a one-handed dunk for his only points of the game before fouling out.

Bulls Fall to Miami in First Round of NCAA Tournament

PROVIDENCE, RI – The University at Buffalo men's basketball team gave third-seeded Miami all it could handle, but ultimate lost, 79-72, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at the Dunkin' Donuts Center in Providence, RI on Thursday night. The back-to-back Mid-American Conference champions finished the season 20-15.

"I couldn't be more proud of the kids I coached this year," head coach Nate Oats said. "It's pretty well-documented what we've been through as a program with everything, and they just played their tails off for us all year."

The Bulls had four players score in double-figures, paced by Nick Perkins who scored a career-high 20 points. The freshman forward was 4-of-6 from beyond the arc and added six rebounds. Lamonte Bearden also had a strong game with 19 points and three assists.

Miami's size and athleticism befuddled the Bulls for most of the game. The Hurricanes' allowed only six UB points in the paint in the first half. However, Buffalo was hot early from deep and with the help of five three-pointers, built a nine-point lead with 12:47 left in the first half. Miami stormed back to take a 12-point lead with 6:11 left in the half, before a resilient Bulls squad clawed back to cut the Miami lead to 35-33 at the break.

Miami opened the second half on a 14-5 scoring run to extend its lead 49-38 with 13:34 left. The Hurricanes built their lead to 68-56 with 5:25, before the Bulls made their run. Willie Conner, who was the Most Valuable Player of the MAC Tournament, drained his only three of the game to spark the run. A three-pointer by Blake Hamilton made it a two-possession game, 70-64, with 4:04 left.

The Bulls inched even closer on a jumper in the lane by Bearden that cut the lead to 72-68 with 1:56 on the clock. The sophomore guard had a chance to pull the Bulls to within one on their next possession, but his three-point attempt was just off the mark. Miami sealed the win at the free throw line.

Like Perkins, fellow freshman CJ Massinburg had a strong game, finishing with 11 points. Hamilton scored 11 of his 12 points in the second half to round out Bulls in double-figures. Hamilton added a team-high nine rebounds.

Miami dominated the glass, outrebounding the Bulls 44-31. The Hurricanes scored 12 second-chance points. Defensively, the Bulls forced 14 Miami turnovers.

"We missed two open threes that would have cut that thing to one possession there late in the game," Oats said. "We were just a couple stops or shots away from -- we had a lead for a lot of the first half, too. So I think a lot of our kids proved they belong on a big stage like this. I'm so happy for them because they gave everything they had to the program through the whole year."

NCAA 2017-18: BULLS EARN FIRST NCAA TOURNAMENT WIN

Brock Bertram and Domonic Johnson celebrate in the final moments of UB's 89-68 win over PAC-12 Champion Arizona, marking the first Tournament win in school history.

Bulls Manhandle Arizona for First-Ever NCAA Tournament Win

BOISE, ID – The University at Buffalo men's basketball team earned its first-ever NCAA Tournament win in emphatic fashion by beating fourth-seeded Arizona, 89-68, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Taco Bell Arena on Thursday night. The Bulls outscored the Wildcats, 40-20, over the final 16 minutes of the game to earn the victory.

The Bulls were in control the entire game and led for most of it. Going up against a bigger Arizona squad featuring two starting seven footers, including All-American candidate Deandre Ayton, the Bulls countered with their quickness and guard play.

Wes Clark and Jeremy Harris played fearlessly taking it right at the Arizona big men. Clark finished with 25 points and seven assists. Harris had 23 points and seven rebounds. C.J. Massinburg scored 19 points, including 5-of-8 from beyond the arc. Massinburg led the Bulls' three-point barrage. Buffalo shot 15-of-30 from deep compared to just 2-of-18 for the Wildcats.

Entering the game, Arizona was the top rebounding team in the PAC 12. But it was the Bulls' relentlessness on the glass that was a major factor in the win. Buffalo outrebounded the Wildcats, 32-31, marking the first time in 13 straight games Arizona was outrebounded.

Davonta Jordan and Dontay Curuthers were two of UB's unsung heroes at the defensive end. While the two players combined to only score two points, their lockdown defense helped force eight second-half Arizona turnovers.

Nick Perkins came alive in the second half to score all of his 13 points. He and fellow big man Ikenna Smart, who finished with four points and four rebounds, held their own against the Arizona big men. The duo helped hold Ayton to 14 points on only 6-of-13 shooting from the field.

"I can't say enough about our guys, just fought and battled," head coach Nate Oats said. "I felt like we had a shot; I didn't think we were going to win it like that. I really felt like we were going to win this game. I like our guard play, I said it from day one."

Bulls Fall to Kentucky in Second Round of NCAA Tournament

BOISE, ID – The magical season of the University at Buffalo men's basketball team came to an end on Saturday as the Bulls lost to 5th-seeded Kentucky, 95-75, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Two days after rolling up 89 points in an upset of 4th-seed Arizona, the Bulls struggled at the offensive end against the length and athleticism of Kentucky.

Kentucky led for nearly the entire game thanks to shooting 56 percent from the field. The Wildcats, who were 0-for-6 from beyond the three-point line in their opening win against Davidson, shot 7-of-15 from three against the Bulls. Conversely, Buffalo knocked down only 7-of-31 three-point attempts.

In his final game in a Buffalo uniform, Wes Clark single-handedly tried to keep the Bulls in the game. The senior guard scored 26 points, including four three-pointers, to lead the Bulls. C.J. Massinburg added 18 points and Jeremy Harris chipped in with

The Wildcats built their nine-point halftime lead into a 56-43 advantage. However a 9-0 Buffalo run, capped by two Clark free throws, cut the Kentucky lead to 56-52 with 15:32 left. The Kentucky lead would remain in single digits for the next seven-plus minutes.

A steal by Dontay Caruthers led to a fastbreak and-one for the junior guard. His free throw cut the Kentucky lead to 72-67 with 8:10 left. On the Bulls' ensuing possession, Harris' pull-up three-pointer, to cut the lead to two, came up short and the Wildcats scored and and-one at the other end to extend their lead to eight. The play ignited a 12-2 scoring run, enabling Kentucky to pull away.

Caruthers finished with seven points and three stelas. Nick Perkins added eight points for the Bulls.

Buffalo finished its season with a school-record 27 wins and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. The Bulls will return 11 players next season looking to win their fourth MAC Championship in five years.

NCAA 2018-19: BUFFALO DOWNS PAC-12 FOR SECOND STRAIGHT YEAR

For the second straight season, Buffalo took down a PAC-12 opponent in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament with a 91-74 win over Arizona State and former UB head coach Bobby Hurley.

Bulls Cruise to First-Round Win over Arizona State, 91-74

TULSA, OK - For the second straight season, the University at Buffalo men's basketball team rather easily defeated an opponent from the Pac-12 Conference in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The sixth-seeded Bulls defeated 11th-seeded Arizona State, 91-74, at the BOK Center in Tulsa, OK on Friday afternoon to advance to the Round of 32.

Trailing 14-10, the Bulls used their patented defense to mount a 21-5 scoring run, thanks to a number of buckets in transition, and took a 31-19 lead, setting the tone for the rest of the game. UB's lead stayed in double-figures for the remainder of the game and it took a 44-31 into the locker room at the break.

Nick Perkins was an early spark for Bulls. The senior forward led all scorers with 12 first-half points on 5-of-9 shooting. Jeremy Harris and CJ Massinburg each added nine first-half points to pace UB.

Arizona State cut the Buffalo lead to 46-37 early in the second half, but the Bulls responded with an 11-2 scoring run, capped by a Harris layup to take their largest lead of the game, 57-39, with 14:47 left. The Bulls were able to build their lead to as many as 25 points midway through the second half and the Sun Devils never threatened again.

Perkins finished with 21 points and added 10 rebounds for his fifth double-double of the season. Harris tallied identical numbers with 21 points and 10 rebounds as well. Massinburg had 18 points and Jayvon Graves added 13 points to round out the Bulls in double-figures.

Though not nearly as big as Arizona State, the Bulls commanded the glass, outrebounding the Sun Devils, 42-26. Buffalo had 13 offensive rebounds and scored 16 second chance points. Defensively, UB held Arizona State without a three-pointer in the first half and just 3-of-22 from beyond the arc in the game.

The win improved the Bulls to 32-3 on the year and extended their win streak to 13 games.

NCAA 2018-19: BULLS MEET TEXAS TECH IN SECOND ROUND

Senior Nick Perkins had 17 points and 10 rebounds against Texas Tech, one of just three players to record double-doubles in both games during the opening weekend of the NCAA Tournament.

Bulls Historic Season Ends with Second-Round Loss to Texas Tech

TULSA, OK - The historic season for the University at Buffalo men's basketball team came to end on Sunday with a 78-58 loss to third-seeded Texas Tech in the second round of the NCAA Tournament at Tulsa's BOK Center. The Bulls ended the 2018-19 campaign with a 32-4 record, the best in school history.

Ranked third in nation in scoring defense, Texas Tech proved it is one of the best defensive teams in the nation as it held the Bulls to a season-low 58 points on just 36 percent shooting from the field. The size and athleticism of the Red Raiders proved too much, especially inside as they outrebounded UB, 45-35, and scored 30 points in paint.

The Red Raiders jumped out to a 19-6 lead, much to the delight of the large Texas Tech contingent on hand. The Bulls settled down, starting forcing turnovers, and battled back. Davonta Jordan rattled home a three-pointer from the corner to give the Bulls their first lead of the game, 25-24, with 3:24 left in the half. However, the lead would be short-lived as the Red Raiders closed the half on a 9-0 scoring run to take a 33-25 lead at the break.

The Bulls struggled to get anything going offensively in the second half. Texas Tech opened the second stanza on an 18-3 scoring to build their lead to 28 points and never looked back.

Nick Perkins led the Bulls with a team-high 17 points and 10 rebounds for his second straight double-double in the tournament. Jordan added 13 points, including three three-pointers.

CJ Massinburg, playing in the final game of his career, finished with 14 points. Massinburg finished his career with 1,990 points – second most in school history.

Buffalo's 32 wins were not only the most in school history, but the most ever by a Mid-American Conference program.

Curtis Blackmore 1970-73

52

In three seasons at the University at Buffalo, Curtis Blackmore became one of the most prolific rebounders and scorers in school history. Blackmore's presence is still noticable in the UB record books, especially for rebounding.

Blackmore holds the school record with an incredible 32 rebounds in one game. He is second in career rebounds with 1,175 and holds the single season record with 427. Blackmore has two of the school's three 400-rebound seasons as he also recorded 403 in 1971-72. His 17.8 rebounds per game his senior year still ranks as the best average in UB history.

Blackmore was named team Most Valuable Player in both the 1970-71 season and the 1972-73 season. He had a tryout with the Buffalo Braves team of the NBA following his career at UB. Blackmore was inducted into the UB Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

Jim Horne 1951-55

When Jim Horne finished his career playing for the University at Buffalo in 1955, he was the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,833 points. That record would stand for over 40 years, and he still ranks second in the school's all-time career scoring list.

Horne has three of the top four scoring averages for a single season for UB. He averaged 24.9 points per game his season year and also averaged 22.9 points his sophomore year and 20.7 points per game his junior season, all before the inception of the three-point line.

A three-year captain for the Bulls, Horne was also a tenacious rebounder and ranks fifth in the UB records for career rebounds. He also ranks second in career free throws made with 497. Horne was inducted into the UB Athletic Hall of Fame in 1966.

Harold Kuhn 1949-52

Harold Kuhn was a two-year captain for the Bulls, and helped lead the Bulls to a 46-24 record during his career. In 1952, he was named the Dom Grossi Award recipient as the University at Buffalo's most outstanding athlete for his senior season.

Kuhn was the second player in UB history to total over 1,000 career points, finishing with 1,065. His 485 points scored his senior season still ranks as the seventh best all-time in school history for a single season. That same season, he averaged 20.2 points per game, the fifth best average in UB history. As a senior, he was also named to the Western New York All-Star Team. Kuhn was inducted into the University at Buffalo Athletic Hall of Fame in 1968, the fourth year of inductions into the Hall of Fame.

Sam Pellom 1974-78

Sam Pellom played at UB from 1974-78 and is the only Buffalo player to play in the NBA, appearing in almost 200 games with the Atlanta Hawks and Milwaukee Bucks.

In his time at UB, Pellom became Buffalo's career leader in rebounding with 1,297, highlighted by a 1976 season in which he led the nation with 16.2 rebounds per game and was named an honorable mention All-American. He was also a fearless defender, blocking a program-record 375 shots. The franchise, as he was fondly referred to, also ranks sixth in school history in scoring with 1,403 points. Pellom was inducted into the UB Athletic Hall of Fame in 1983.

Rasaun Young

Rasaun Young played for the Bulls from 1993-98 when the team was a member of the Mid-Continent Conference. He was a three-time first-team all-conference selection and led the league in scoring his senior season, averaging 19.3 points per game. He was also an academic all-conference selection.

A native of New Rochelle, NY, Young finished his career with a school-record 1,908 points and was Buffalo's all-time leading scorer for 16 years before Javon McCrea passed him in 2014. Young was inducted into the Dr. and Mrs. Edmond

J. Gicewicz Family UB Athletics Hall of Fame in 2004 and, at the time of his induction, was the UB leader in 11 statistical categories – including career field goals (648) and free throws made (568).
