STORYLINES

- This is the first meeting between Buffalo and Louisiana.
- This will be the first time a UB football team will play a game in the state of Louisiana.
- The Bulls have played a team from the Sun Belt Conference five of the last six years. Last season, UB dropped a regular-season contest at Coastal Carolina before beating Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl.
- Nine of Buffalo's 11 touchdowns on the season have come on scoring drives of at least 65 yards.
- Cole Snyder is the first UB quarterback since Tyree Jackson in 2018 to throw multiple touchdown passes in each of the first three games of the season. Snyder had two TD passes at Wisconsin, three against Fordham and four against Liberty.
- Cole Snyder leads the MAC and is tied for eight in the nation in touchdown passes with nine.
- Ron Cook has surpassed Naaman Roosevelt for fourth in program history in career kick return yardage (1,472). He is 33 yards shy of catching Andre Forde for third place.
- Buffalo is looking to win a non-conference road game for the fourth time in last six years. The Bulls won at UMass in 2022, Old Dominion in 2021 and at Temple in 2018. The Bulls didn't have a non-conference road game in 2020.

41

For the past eight seasons, the number 41 jersey has been worn by a different player each game to honor the legacy of former Bull Solomon Jackson who passed away in 2016.

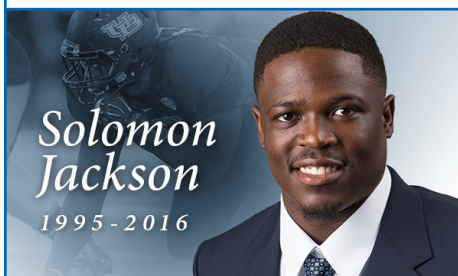

In 2016 and 2017, players were chosen by the coaching staff to wear "41" for the entire year. Cornerback Boise Ross wore it for the 2016 season, while linebacker Jarrett Franklin wore it in 2017.

This is the sixth season the coaching staff will rotate #41 on a weekly basis. It is announced the night before each game.

Solomon Jackson passed away unexpectedly following an offseason workout on February 29, 2016. Jackson, respected and beloved by his teammates, played both linebacker and defensive end over his career. The slogan ALL41 is a prominent fixture throughout the Murchie Family Football Center to honor his legacy.

Players who wore #41

9/3 _ at Wisconsin _ Mike Washington
9/9 _ Fordham _ Marlyn Johnson
9/16 _ Liberty _ Red Murdock

INJURY POLICY

Injury reports/updates come only from the head football coach. The Athletic Communications Office does not provide any injury information, except in situations in which the head coach has already confirmed that a student-athlete will be out of action for an extended period of time.

Bulls Make First Trip to Louisiana on Saturday

The University at Buffalo football team will make their first-ever trip to play at Louisiana on Saturday at Cajun Field.

Buffalo is 0-3 on the season and is coming off a 55-27 loss to Liberty last Saturday. Quarterback Cole Snyder threw for 276 yards and a career-high four touchdowns to lead the Bulls.

Louisiana, is 2-1 on the season and is coming off a 41-21 win at UAB last Saturday. The Ragin' Cajuns are led by quarterback Zeon Chriss who has thrown for 174 yards and a TD and rushed for 116 yards and two scores.

This is the first meeting between Buffalo and Louisiana.

Take the Long Way Home

The Bulls have utilized long scoring drives to get into the endzone this season. Of the Bulls' 11 touchdown drives on the year, nine have been 65 yards or longer. Their average touchdown drive has been 64 yards. Buffalo has scored six touchdowns on drives of 75 yards or longer.

Cole Powered

In his second season as the Bulls' starter, quarterback Cole Snyder is off to a tremendous start. The graduate signal-caller leads the MAC and ranks eighth in the nation in touchdown passes with nine. He also leads the MAC in passing yards per game (245.0) and total offense (250.7).

Snyder is the first quarterback in program history to complete 24 or more passes in each of the first three games of the season. In addition, he is the first UB quarterback since Tyree Jackson in 2018 to throw multiple touchdown passes in each of the first three games of the season.

He became the first UB quarterback to throw four TDS in a game since Kyle Vantrease had four against Miami (OH) in 2020.

With 3,765 career passing yards, Snyder is 235 yards shy of becoming just the 10th quarterback in program history to throw for 4,000 yards.

Spreading the Wealth

A number of different receivers have recorder receptions over the first three games of the season - 12 to be exact. An average of nearly 10 different receivers per game have made a catch this year.

A program-record 12 different Bulls caught passes in the opener at Wisconsin. 10 different players registered a catch against Liberty.

10 players have at least four receptions on the season, led by Marlyn Johnson (13), Cole Harrity (13) and Boobie Curry (10).

Bulls vs. the Sun Belt

The Bulls have played teams from the Sun Belt Conference in five of the last six seasons, including a victory over Georgia Southern in the 2022 Camellia Bowl.

The Bulls are 2-3 against Sun Belt programs with wins over Georgia Southern and Old Dominion and losses to Coastal Carolina (2) and Troy.

Buffalo also played new conference members Marshall and James Madison prior to them joining the Sun Belt.

Sterling Marlyn

Marlyn Johnson had the best game of his UB career against Fordham, finishing the game with seven receptions for 105 yards and two touchdowns - all career highs.

Now in his fifth season with the Bulls, Johnson is looking to have a breakout campaign. Heading into the year, Johnson had 23 catches for 234 yards and a score. He has 13 catches for 144 yards and three scores already this year.

Agent Zero

Cole Harrity is becoming a favorite target of quarterback Cole Snyder. Over the first three games, he has 13 catches for 111 yards and two touchdowns. He made the most of his first career start at Wisconsin. The UB grad had five catches for 47 yards and two touchdowns against the Badgers.

In his second year with the program, the New Mexico State transfer appeared in all 13 games last season and finished with 13 catches for 170 yards and a touchdown.

Hinesight

A season ago, Clevester Hines was playing wide receiver. In fact, he remained at that position until a week before the Bulls played George Southern in the Camellia Bowl and Coach Linguist asked him to move to cornerback due to injuries at the position.

Hines started in the Camellia Bowl and, in his first game at the position, totaled seven tackles and three pass breakups. He has remained at cornerback for 2023 and started the first two games of the season, totaling 10 tackles and two tackles for loss.

Silver Season

2023 marks the 25th season of FBS football for the Bulls. UB entered the FBS ranks in 1999 as members of the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were previously an FCS program from 1993-1998.

Doling Out the Hits

Linebacker Shaun Dolac had a record-breaking season for the Bulls last year. A 2022 first-team All-MAC selection, the UB senior ranked second in the nation in tackles with 147 which were the third-most in program history for a single season. Even more impressive was that he led the nation in solo tackles with 97 - 17 more than any UB player in program history.

A local product, Dolac came to UB as a walk-on in 2019. Last season, he was named a semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy, given annually to the best player in the country who started their career as a walk-on.

Perfect 10

Graduate safety Marcus Fuqua tied for the national lead with seven interceptions in 2022. It was the most by a UB player in the program's FBS era (since 1999).

Along with being an All-MAC First Team selection, Fuqua was named a third-team All-American by the Associated Press. He joined Khalil Mack (2013) and Jaret Patterson (2020) as just the third UB player ever named an AP All-American.

Snyder Looks to Build on Solid First Season

Cole Snyder enters his second season under center for the Bulls.

A Western New York native, Snyder transferred from Rutgers prior to the 2022 campaign. Last season, he started all 13 games under center for the Bulls. He threw for 3,030 yards and 18 touchdowns last season to become just the third quarterback in program history to throw for 3,000 yards in a season. He joined Drew Willy who threw for 3,304 yards in 2008 and Tyree Jackson who threw for 3,131 yards in 2018.

Snyder is on the preseason watch list for the Manning Award as well as the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award.

Max Michel Earns 1-MAC Award

University at Buffalo defensive end Max Michel earned The Mid-American Conference (MAC) 1-MAC Award - given annually to the student-athlete who has a tremendous impact and excellence in inclusion efforts.

A native of New Jersey, Michel quickly embraced the Queen City. Last December, he held his second annual coat drive. Through his efforts, he was able to collect numerous coats, jackets, gloves and hats and donate them to the Buffalo City Mission.

He also donates his time volunteering at the Buffalo City Mission's kitchen, helping prepare and serve food, emptying the garbage and whatever else he can do to help.

In addition, Michel volunteers his time with Harrison's Playmakers, a non-profit organization that promotes social inclusion and kindness with year-round sports programs and activities for kids with developmental differences and special needs.

Among his numerous other volunteer ventures, Michel organized a group of teammates to work with WNY Peacemakers to distribute free groceries in East Buffalo.

In addition, Michel is on the watch list for the Wuerffel Trophy.

Depth at Running Back

Buffalo returns three running backs that made at least one start in 2022 and added some talented newcomers to that should make the running back unit one of the deepest and most talented on the team.

Leading the way is fifth-year back Ron Cook, who made 10 starts last season and rushed for 600 yards and four touchdowns.

Sophomore Mike Washington was the Bulls leading rusher in 2022, finishing with 625 yards and a team-best eight rushing touchdowns.

Fellow sophomore Al-Jay Henderson appeared in 10 games last season and had a team-best 5.1 yards per carry average.

In addition, a trio of impressive newcomers should also see action this season.

JUCO transfer Dylan Kedzior was an All-American at Hutchinson Community College where he rushed for 1,090 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2022.

Jacquez Barksdale averaged over six yards per carry in his two seasons at Coffeyville Community College.

Lamar Sperling was the USA Today Offensive Football Player of the Year after he broke the Ohio state rushing record, totalling 3,984 yards and 59 touchdowns his senior season at Archbishop Hoban High School.

Linebacker U

UB has had a number of standout linebackers in recent years, most notably Khalil Mack who was an All-American and now an NFL All-Pro.

The Bulls have at least one linebacker named All-MAC each of the last 12 seasons. Shaun Dolac was named to the first team in 2022.

McNulty Named Campbell Trophy Nominee

Graduate kicker Alex McNulty is a nominee for the William V. Campbell Trophy. Given annually to college football's top student-athlete, the Campbell Trophy is also known as the Academic Heisman.

McNulty graduated with degrees in biology for pre-veterinary science and physics. He carries a 3.7 grade point average and is a four-time Academic All-MAC selection.

McNulty is a two-time All-MAC selection and was the 2022 MAC Special Teams Player of the Year. He is the program record holder in career field goals (50), extra points (173) and points scored (323).

He has made five 50+ yard field goals over his career and is the first kicker in program history to make 100 consecutive extra points.

HEAD COACH MAURICE LINGUIST

Maurice Linguist is in his third season as head coach of the UB football program. Considered by many as one of the top young minds in all of college football, Linguist was named the University at Buffalo's 26th head coach on May 8, 2021. It was a homecoming of sorts for Linguist who was the Bulls' defensive backs coach in 2012 and 2013.

In 2022, only his second season with the program, Linguist led the Bulls to a 7-6 record, capped by a 23-21 victory over Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl. It was just the third bowl win in program history. He led Buffalo to a 5-3 record in Mid-American Conference play, the seventh time, since the joining the league in 1999, the Bulls had a winning record in MAC play.

A coach with extensive experience on the defensive side of the ball, it was of little surprise several of UB's defensive players had standout seasons. Safety Marcus Fuqua led the nation with seven interceptions and became just the third UB player to be named an Associated Press All-American. Linebacker Shaun Dolac ranked second in the nation with 147 tackles, including a school-record 97 solo stops which were more than any player in the FBS.

The Bulls had seven players named All-MAC, including kicker Alex McNulty who became the first player in program history to be named MAC Special Teams Player of the Year.

In his first season as the helm, Linguist led the Bulls to a 4-8 record with an injury-riddled squad.

Seven Bulls were named to the All-MAC team, including James Patterson who was a first-team selection at middle linebacker. A program-best 19 Bulls were named to the Academic All-MAC team, including offensive lineman Jack Klenk who was also an CoSIDA Academic All-District selection.

Linguist is regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters and has excelled in coaching at both the Power Five level and the NFL. He came to UB from Michigan where he served a brief stint as defensive backs coach/co-defensive coordinator since January. He joined the U-M coaching staff after spending the 2020 season as cornerbacks coach with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys.

In Dallas, Linguist directed a secondary that forced 10 interceptions while allowing the fifth-fewest passing first downs in the league (180). The Cowboys were also ranked in the top half of the league in pass yards allowed (11th), completion percentage against (10th), and takeaways (ninth). Linguist coached rookie cornerback Trevon Diggs (three interceptions) to a strong first season in the league. Three of Dallas' four leading tacklers in 2020 were starters in the secondary, including former Wolverine Jourdan Lewis who set a career-high with 59 stops.

Linguist has worked with college secondaries at nine programs. Prior to heading to the NFL, he coached cornerbacks at Texas A&M (2018-19), defensive backs at Minnesota (2017), safeties at Mississippi State (2016) and defensive backs at Iowa State (2014-15).

At A&M, Linguist's secondaries limited opportunities for opponents and played tight coverage in key situations. Teams converted just 31.2 percent of third down tries (102-of-326) over his two seasons and A&M ranked ninth nationally in that category in 2018. The Aggies intercepted their opponents 19 times in his two seasons and made a habit of getting off the field. During the 2018 season, the defense was top-15 nationally in first downs allowed (221) and faced the fewest snaps against among all SEC teams.

Linguist helped the Aggies produce back-to-back top-six recruiting classes nationally in 2019 and 2020. He was the lead recruiter for five-star safety Jaylon Jones, the first five-star defensive back to sign with Texas A&M.

In his season at Minnesota, Linguist's secondary helped anchor a defense that finished No. 11 nationally with 174.5 yards allowed per game after listing 73rd in the NCAA a year earlier. The unit surrendered 16 touchdowns, a top-25 figure nationally and also ranked among the nation's best in first downs allowed (11th) and total defense (30th). Linguist was the lead recruiter for Rashod Bateman, the Big Ten's Wide Receiver of the Year. Linguist was promoted to assistant head coach following the 2017 season before accepting a position at Texas A&M.

At Mississippi State, Linguist led the safeties group which was responsible for seven of the team's 14 interceptions. Three safeties eclipsed the 50-tackle mark for the Bulldogs: Brandon Bryant (62, three PBUs), Kivon Coman (58, four PBUs), and Mark McLaurin (51, seven PBUs) were among the team's leading tacklers. The defense scored four touchdowns (No. 8, NCAA) and totaled 14 interceptions (No. 35, NCAA) during the 2016 season.

Prior to his time in Starkville, Linguist coached defensive backs at Iowa State (2014-15). He coached players to three All-Big 12 honors in his two seasons at Iowa State, including safety Kamari Cotton-Moya, a first-team All-American freshman team selection by the Football Writers' Association of America (FWAA). Cotton-Moya led the team in tackles and was named the conference's Freshman of the Year on defense. Linguist would help direct cornerback Brian Peavy to be a finalist for the award the following year.

In his time at UB, Linguist helped the Bulls finish second in the MAC East and reach the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in 2013, at the time, the program's second bowl appearance. The unit ranked second in the league in interceptions (15), points per game allowed (24.4), and yards per game allowed (382.2). Linguist coached Najja Johnson to first-team all-conference honors and a career total of 38 pass breakups, second in program history. Johnson led the MAC in interceptions the year earlier as part of a Bulls unit that was tops in the conference in pass completion percentage allowed while ranking second in pass defense.

Linguist spent three years at James Madison, helping the program pull in the top FCS recruiting class during the 2012 cycle while the team reached the second round of the NCAA Football Championship Series Playoffs. Linguist's first full-time position was at Valdosta State, working with defensive backs and special teams. The Blazers went 9-3 and earned a No. 12 national ranking in Division II.

Linguist began as a graduate assistant at Baylor, his alma mater, working as a graduate assistant with the strong safeties and rover backs. During his career at Baylor, he was a defensive MVP and honorable mention All-Big 12 selection. He made 24 starts in 42 appearances as a strong safety from 2003-06. A native of Dallas, Texas, Linguist graduated from Baylor with degrees in communications (2006) and a master's in health, human performance and recreation (2007). He was an Academic All-Big 12 honoree.

Linguist and his wife, Stacie, have one daughter, Maura, and two sons, Lance and Leon.

#19 WISCONSIN 38, BUFFALO 17

SEPT. 2, 2023 • CAMP RANDALL STADIUM • MADISON, WI

MADISON, WI – The University at Buffalo football team battled valiantly against Wisconsin, but ultimately lost to the 19th-ranked Badgers, 38-17, at Camp Randall Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The Bulls only trailed 14-10 at the half, but Wisconsin was able to pull away in the second half for the victory.

For the first half, the Bulls gave the Badgers all they could handle. Wisconsin scored first to take a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter. However, the Bulls answered right back, driving 65 yards on only five plays and tied the game on a 7-yard pass from Cole Snyder to Cole Harrity. A key play on the drive was a 51-yard completion from Snyder to Darrell Harding, Jr.

The game remained tied, 7-7, for much of the first half until the Badgers scored on a 29-yard TD pass with just one minute left in the in the second quarter to regain a 14-7 advantage. However, the Bulls were able to drive down the field and, with just seven seconds left, Alex McNulty drilled a 53-yard field goal to cut the Wisconsin lead to 14-10 at the break.

Wisconsin used big plays to pull away in the second half. The Badgers scored two third-quarter touchdowns, including an 89-yard TD run, and led, 28-10, heading to the fourth.

Trailing 31-10 in the fourth quarter, the Bulls got the ball back on a Shaun Dolac interception that the senior linebacker returned 32 yards to the Wisconsin 11-yard line. Three plays later, Snyder connected with Harrity again, this time from 3-yards out, to cut the Badger lead to 31-17.

Snyder had good command of the offense and finished 26-of-41 for 194 yards and two touchdowns. He completed passes to 12 different receivers, with his favorite target being Harrity who had five grabs for 47 yards and two scores. Marlyn Johnson and Ron Cook, Jr. each had four receptions.

The Bulls offensive line held up against a massive Badger defensive front. The Bulls didn't allow a sack in the game. UB also didn't commit a turnover, while forcing two Badger miscues. Along with Dolac's pick, Devin Grant had his first career interception in the second quarter.

Mike Washington, Jr and Cook led the Bulls rushing attack. Both backs carried the ball 12 times with Washington finishing with 52 yards and Cook tallying 51.

Marcus Fuqua led the defense with 11 tackles followed by Dolac with eight stops, including a tackle for loss. Max Michel had the game's only sack in the first quarter.

FORDHAM 40, BUFFALO 37

SEPT. 9, 2023 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team dropped their home opener to Fordham, 40-37, at UB Stadium on Saturday night.

The Bulls jumped out to a 21-3 lead, scoring on their first three drives of the game. Mike Washington, Jr. opened the scoring with a 1-yard touchdown plunge on UB's opening possession. It was the first of two touchdowns for Washington who added a 5-yard score in the third quarter.

Jyaire Stevens blocked Fordham's punt on the Rams' opening possession and, one play later, Cole Snyder connected with Marlyn Johnson for a 22-yard touchdown to give the Bulls a quick 14-0 lead.

After the Rams kicked a field goal, the Bulls increased their lead to 21-3 when Snyder threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Darrell Harding, Jr. – his first touchdown as a Bull.

However, Fordham's high-powered offense battled back and was able to cut the halftime deficit to 21-20. From there, the lead would see-saw, changing hands five times in the second half.

Johnson caught his second touchdown of the game, a 36-yard, one-handed grab from Snyder to give the Bulls a 37-33 lead with 8:03 left in the fourth quarter. But the Rams struck last, scoring with 2:32 left to win the game.

Snyder finished the game 24-for-30 for 265 yards and three touchdowns. It tied his career high for touchdown passes in a game. Johnson had the best game of his career with seven receptions for 105 yards and two touchdowns – all career highs. Fellow wide receiver Cole Harrity also had career highs of six catches for 57 yards.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Devin Grant who had a career-best eight tackles and two pass break-ups. Shaun Dolac had eight tackles and George Wolo added six tackles and a sack.

LIBERTY 55, BUFFALO 27

SEPT. 16, 2023 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team lost to Liberty, 55-27, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Liberty's high-powered offense jumped out to a 24-0 lead, before the Bulls began to claw back. Late in the second quarter, Buffalo scored on consecutive drives to cut the halftime lead to 24-14.

Darrell Harding, Jr. scored the Bulls' first touchdown on a beautiful one-handed seven-yard catch from Cole Snyder. Then on UB's next drive, Snyder connected with Nik McMillan on a 33-yard touchdown. It was McMillan's first touchdown as a Bull.

Snyder threw a career-best four touchdown passes in the game, later connecting on scoring strikes to Ron Cook, Jr. and Marlyn Johnson. Snyder tied his career high with 29 completions in the game. He completed passes to 10 different receivers, marking the second time in the first three games 10+ different receivers caught passes for the Bulls.

McMillan, Harding, Cook and Mike Washington all had four receptions for the Bulls.

The defense was led by freshman cornerback Charles McCartherens who made his first career start and finished with nine tackles and a pass breakup. Linebacker Joe Andreessen finished with seven tackles, the most he's had since joining the Bulls.

Bulls to Honor Shooting Victims by Wearing Stronger Together Patches

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo will honor the victims of the tragic racially motivated mass shooting that occurred at a Tops market in Buffalo on May 14, 2022 by wearing "Stronger Together" patches on select uniforms and helmet stickers again this season, UB Vice President and Director of Athletics Mark Alnutt announced. The patch was originally created by UB's Stronger Together Task Force, in September 2020, as part of its mission to combat racism and shed light on the social injustices across the nation.

"I am honored to work with this group and want to thank them for their commitment to bettering our department, University and community," said Alnutt. "As one of our core values in our Athletic Department, we are committed to sustaining a culture of diversity and inclusion across all dimensions, and we proudly embrace and promote equality for all. Through sports, we have an amazing platform and will work together to discuss, educate, plan and implement action items while creating a more inclusive and tolerant community."

This group is representative of UB coaches, staff and student-athletes across all sports and departmental units. Its charge is to identify key areas of priority and help to perpetuate positive change for the UB athletics department, University campus and the Western New York community. The task force aligns its actions and programming to progress forward and implement changes that foster an environment of cultural awareness, social justice, and a sense of belonging.

We will always remember the names and salute the lives of: Ruth Whitfield, Roberta Drury, Aaron Salter, Heyward Patterson, Geraldine Talley, Celestine Chaney, Katherine Massey, Margus Morrison, Andre Mackneil and Pearl Young, who was an alumna of UB.
