41

For the past nine seasons, the number 41 jersey has been worn by a different player each game to honor the legacy of former Bull Solomon Jackson who passed away in 2016.

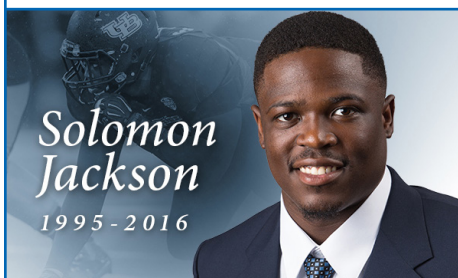

In 2016 and 2017, players were chosen by the coaching staff to wear "41" for the entire year. Cornerback Boise Ross wore it for the 2016 season, while linebacker Jarrett Franklin wore it in 2017.

This is the seventh season the coaching staff will rotate #41 on a weekly basis. It is announced the night before each game.

Solomon Jackson passed away unexpectedly following an offseason workout on February 29, 2016. Jackson, respected and beloved by his teammates, played both linebacker and defensive end over his career. The slogan ALL41 is a prominent fixture throughout the Murchie Family Football Center to honor his legacy.

INJURY POLICY

Injury reports/updates come only from the head football coach. The Athletic Communications Office does not provide any injury information, except in situations in which the head coach has already confirmed that a student-athlete will be out of action for an extended period of time.

Bulls Host Lafayette in Season Opener on Thursday Night

The University at Buffalo football team will open the 2024 campaign on Thursday Night when they host Lafayette at UB Stadium.

Buffalo enters the season under the leadership of new head coach Pete Lembo. The Bulls return seven starters on defense and three starters on offense from a season ago.

Lafayette is the preseason pick to win the Patriot League and is ranked 19th in the FCS preseason poll. The Leopards are led by running back Jamar Curtis who is the Patriot League Preseason Offensive Player of the Year after rushing for 1,400 yards and 15 touchdowns last season.

Lafayette leads the all-time series, 6-1. The Bulls won the last meeting, 16-14, at Lafayette in 1998.

The Lembo Era Begins

A 30-year coaching veteran, Pete Lembo begins his first season as Buffalo's head coach.

Lembo has had successful stints as head coach of three separate programs. From 2001-15, he served as head coach at Lehigh (2001-05), Elon (2006-10) and Ball State (2011-15). He amassed a 112–65 career record, including a 79–36 record in 10 seasons at the FCS level, making him one of the winningest coaches in the history of that classification.

When Lembo was head coach at Lehigh, he led the Mountain Hawks to a 37-26 victory over UB in 2002.

Coaching Debut

Pete Lembo will be the 28th head coach to make his Buffalo debut when the Bulls take the field against Lafayette. All-time, UB head coaches are 13-13-1 in head coaching debuts.

Since joining the FBS ranks in 1999, UB head coaches are 4-1 in debuts, including four straight wins.

Ogbonna Wins QB Job

C.J. Ogbonna has been tabbed the Bulls' starting quarterback and will make his first career start for the Bulls against Lafayette in the opener.

Now in his second year with the program, the senior signal-caller appeared in eight games in 2023, but was used primarily in running situations. He rushed for 214 yards and three touchdowns on the season. He passed for 87 yards and a touchdown.

Ogbonna began his career at Hutchinson Community College where he helped lead the Blue Dragons to a national title in 2020. From there, he transferred to Southeast Missouri State where he was a two-year starter for the Redhawks. His best season came in 2021 when he threw for 1,521 yards and 21 touchdowns and rushed for 357 yards and another three scores en route to being named to the Ohio Valley Conference All-Newcomer Team.

New Faces

Looking to bolster the roster, the Bulls welcomed 18 transfers this offseason. In addition, 35 freshman joined the team.

Of the 18 transfers, 16 are on the Bulls' depth chart for week one, including projected starters WR Taji Johnson, (Boston College), Edge Kobe Stewart (Samford), DT Tristan Souza (Washington State), K Upton Bellenfant (Alabama), P Ethan Duane (Old Dominion) and long snapper Byron Floyd (Pitt).

In addition, three true freshmen are on the week-one depth chart - Patrick Clacks III (WR), Kobi Blackwell (CB) and Dylan Drennan (P).

Nine Bulls Named to Athlon Preseason All-MAC Team

Athlon Sports released its preseason All-Mid-American Conference football team and nine University at Buffalo players were named to the squad. The list was headlined by two first-team selections, linebackers Shaun Dolac and Red Murdock.

The second team included offensive lineman Tyler Doty, defensive tackle George Wolo, cornerback Charles Mc-

The third team included running back Jacquez Barksdale, while offensive lineman Caelan Shepard and edge C.J. Bazile were on the fourth team.

Dolac is Back

After suffering an injury in the fourth game of the 2023 season, forcing him to miss the rest of the year, All-MAC line-backer Shaun Dolac is back healthy and ready to go for 2024.

Dolac had a record-breaking season for the Bulls in 2022. A first-team All-MAC selection, he ranked second in the nation in tackles with 147 which were the third-most in program history for a single season.

A local product, Dolac came to UB as a walk-on in 2019. He was a 2022 semi-finalist for the Burlsworth Trophy, given annually to the best player in the country who started their career as a walk-on.

Taji Johnson Nominated for Allstate AFCA Good Works Team

Wide receiver Taji Johnson is among 178 nominees for the 2024 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. Awarded to community champions, it recognizes student-athletes who display exemplary community service, academic dedication and impact on and off the field.

with the Wuerffel Foundation to bring together two of the most meaningful awards in college football.

Since joining the UB football program in January, Johnson wasted little time impacting the Western New York community. Through Engaged Athlete Fellowship, Johnson has aimed to impact the lives of local students hoping to inspire them to attend college.

This is the third straight year Johnson has earned the nomination. He was nominated each of the last two seasons while at Boston College.

Experience on the Offensive Line

While the Bulls will have many new faces in the lineup entering this season, one area they do return experience is the offensive line. UB returns four offensive linemen who have seen time in the starting lineup.

Guard Tyler Doty started 22 games over the last two seasons and was an All-MAC Third Team selection in 2023.

Trevor Brock will start at the other guard spot after starting the final seven games of last season.

Caelan Shepard started all 12 games at right tackle last season.

Dom Polizzi has made four starts at center for the Bulls.

Orlando on Preseason Watch List for Comeback Player of the Year

Graduate tight end Jake Orlando is on the preseason watch list for the Comeback Player of the Year Award.

Orlando suffered an injury last season and was limited to just four games. He had four receptions for 28 yards before getting hurt.

A local product, Orlando is in his second season as a graduate transfer from UMass.

Seeing Red

Linebacker Red Murdock continues to develop into a top-tier linebacker in the Mid-American Conference. The redshirt-sophomore is coming off his best season in 2023. He appeared in 12 games and started the final six a season ago. He ranked third on the team in tackles with 60 and added 9.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and four forced fumbles. His four forced fumbles were two shy of the single-season school record.

He is equally impressive in the classroom as he was named Academic All-MAC and Academic All-District last season.

International Flavor

The Bulls have five international players on this year’s roster.

Buffalo has three players who hail from Canada, including offensive lineman Jackson Bellamy (Ontario), defensive tackle Jordan Poyser (Ontario) and edge Nick Roy (Quebec). In addition, punter Ethan Duane is from Australia and edge Luke Yau Gayle hails from England.

Bulls Picked 10th in Preseason Poll

Buffalo was picked to finish tenth in the Mid-American Conference preseason poll according to the MAC head coaches.

Miami (OH) was picked first with 119 points, followed by Toledo (109), Bowling Green (92), Northern Illinois (92), Ohio (81), Eastern Michigan (64), Western Michigan (60), Central Michigan (59), Ball State (42), Buffalo (37), Akron (24) and Kent State (13).

Miami (OH) was selected as the pre-season favorite to win the MAC Championship.

New Look MAC

2024 will mark the first time the Mid-American Conference will not be divided into divisions for football. In years past, the 12 teams were divided into two six-team divisions, with the Bulls playing in the East Division. Moving forward, the top two overall teams in the standings will play for the MAC title as opposed to division winners.

On The Airwaves

Again this season, University at Buffalo football can be heard locally on ESPN 1520, a 50,000-watt station with one of the strongest signals in the nation. The Bulls can also be heard on 1280 AM in Rochester.

Calling all the play-by-play action of Bulls football for his 25th year, and 17th consecutive, will be Paul Peck. Scott Wilson is back for his eighth season as analyst. Brad Riter also returns as game host.

The UB Football postgame show will once again take place at The Anchor Bar on Maple Road with host Bob Gaughan.

HEAD COACH PETE LEMBO

Pete Lembo was named the 28th head coach of the University at Buffalo football program on January 21, 2024.

A coaching veteran of over 30 years, Lembo has had successful stints as head coach of three separate programs. From 2001-15, he served as head coach at Lehigh, Elon and Ball State. He amassed a 112–65 career record, including a 79–36 record in ten seasons at the FCS level, making him one of the winningest coaches in the history of that classification.

coaches in the history of that classification.

In five years as head coach at Lehigh, Lembo had a record of 44-14. He is the winningest head coach in the program’s history with a .759 winning percentage. His conference record of 26-7 (.788) ranks third among all Patriot League coaches in terms of winning percentage. He led the Mountain Hawks to two Patriot League titles and two appearances in the FCS playoffs. He was named the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year and the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading Lehigh to an 11-1 record and as high as No. 2 in the national polls – the highest ranking the program’s history.

Beginning in 2006, Lembo spent five seasons as the head coach at Elon. He resurrected a program that went 14-42 in the five seasons prior to his arrival. From 2006-10, the Phoenix had a record of 35-22. He was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year in 2007 and in 2009 led Elon to a record of 9-3, including a 7-1 mark in conference play. The Phoenix qualified for the FCS playoffs for the first time in program history that season. Elon enjoyed winning seasons in Southern Conference play all five years he served as head coach, something the program hadn’t achieved during an 11-year affiliation with the conference. His Elon teams set over 120 NCAA, Southern Conference and school records.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Lembo served as head coach at Ball State from 2011-15. Like his previous stops, Lembo enjoyed immediate success. He became the first coach in Ball State history to win 30 games over his first four seasons at the helm. The Cardinals went 9-4 (6-2 in the MAC) in 2012 and 10-3 (7-1 in the MAC) in 2013. The combined 19 wins over those two seasons tied the program record for wins over a two-year span. He led Ball State to the 2012 Beef ‘O’ Brady Bowl and the 2013 GoDaddy Bowl, marking just the second time in 90 years over Ball State football the program played in bowl games in consecutive years.

Under Lembo’s watch, the Cardinals set more than 60 school records, including single-season records for points (501), total offense (6,199 yards), passing yards (4,214), touchdown passes (35) and total touchdowns (64) in 2013.

Since leaving Ball State following the 2015 campaign, Lembo enjoyed significant success as a special teams coordinator at the Power Five level. He spent the past three seasons as associate head coach and special teams coordinator at South Carolina. He was named a Broyles Award Assistant Coach of the Year Semifinalist, a FootballScoop Special Teams Coach of the Year Finalist and earned Phil Steele’s Special Teams Coach of the Year accolades in 2022 after the Gamecock special teams had arguably their best season on record.

South Carolina earned the No. 1 spot in ESPN’s special teams efficiency ranking after finishing fourth in the country in punt returns (16.6), fifth in kickoff returns (25.1), seventh in net punting (42.8), 23rd in opponent kickoff returns (17.3) and 27th in opponent punt returns (4.6). During his three-year run in Columbia, South Carolina special teams units blocked 14 kicks after recording eight blocks over the previous five years (2016-20) combined.

Lembo had similar success as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator at Memphis in 2019 and 2020. He helped lead the Tigers to a 12-win season in 2019 and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. His unit finished second in ESPN’s Special Teams Efficiency Rankings in 2019 and sixth in the FBS in the overall special teams rankings compiled by the data analysts at Football Outsiders.

Prior to Memphis, Lembo served as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator at Rice (2018) and Maryland (2016-17). Both programs excelled in special teams under Lembo’s tutelage. In his two seasons at Maryland, the Terps tied for fifth nationally with nine blocked kicks. While at Rice, the Owls ranked fifth in the FBS with just 16.12 kick-off return yards allowed.

A native of Staten Island, NY, Lembo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Albany in 1992. He went on to coach tight ends at Dartmouth from 1994-96 and serve as offensive coordinator at Hampden-Sydney in 1997.

Lembo, a 1992 graduate of Georgetown University, was a four-year starter on the Hoyas’ offensive line and served as team captain in 1991. He is married to the former Jenifer Kochis. The couple has three children – Sophia, A.J. and Victoria.

Bulls to Wear Stronger Together Patch Again this Season

The UB Stronger Together Task Force (STTF), comprised of staff, coaches, and student-athletes, was created in September 2020 to reaffirm our commitment to sustaining a culture of diversity and inclusion across all dimensions and embrace and promote equality for all. The groups' charge is to identify areas of priority and help perpetuate positive change for the athletics department, UB campus and the Western New York Community.

Our work in these areas is wide ranging and addresses many facets of equity, diversity, inclusion, and social justice. New initiatives and a deeper investment in our ongoing efforts focus on the six pillars of:

- LGBTQIA+
- Culture, Race, Ethnicity
- Masculinity
- Mental and Physical Differences
- Women Empowerment
- First Generation/International Students

“The Stronger Together patch was created in unity with our student-athletes, coaches and staff as a symbol of our commitment to model and lead a diverse and inclusive culture throughout our campus, community and country. The patch will be proudly displayed on the uniforms of each of our teams during competition as a reminder of what can happen when we are united behind a common goal.”
