THE PETE LEMBO ERA BEGINS AT BUFFALO

A new era of University at Buffalo Football is being ushered in as Pete Lembo enters his first season at the helm of the program. The veteran head coach has built winners at each of his previous stops and looks to do the same at UB.

A coaching veteran of over 30 years, Lembo has had successful stints as head coach of three separate programs. From 2001-15, he served as head coach at Lehigh, Elon and Ball State. He amassed a 112–65 career record, including a 79–36 record in ten seasons at the FCS level, making him one of the winningest coaches in the history of that classification.

Lembo takes over a program that returns five starters on offense and seven starters on defense.

While the Bulls will have new starters at nearly every offensive skill position, UB does have the luxury of returning three of the five starters on the offensive line, including All-MAC guard Tyler Doty.

Defensively, 2022 All-American safety Marcus Fuqua and All-MAC linebacker Shaun Dolac lead a defense that has a number of young standouts ready to step up and make names for themselves.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown as the Bulls enter fall camp.

QUARTERBACKS

While the Bulls have five quarterbacks on the roster returning in 2024, there will be a new starter under center.

CJ Ogbonna is the lone quarterback on the roster that has seen action for the Bulls. Now in his second season at UB, Obgonna appeared in eight games last year but utilized his legs more than his arm. The Atlanta native rushed for 214 yards and three touchdowns on the season. He completed 8-of-21 passes for 87 yards and a score.

Gunnar Gray is a JUCO transfer returning for their second season. Gray put up big numbers at his previous stop and should be in the mix for the starting role in 2024.

Jack Shields joined the team in the offseason after transferring from Old Dominion. The redshirt-junior appeared in six games and made two starts for the Monarchs in 2023. He threw for 353 yards and two touchdowns.

Redshirt-freshmen Mason Cumbie and Anthony Policare add depth to the quarterback unit.

RUNNING BACKS

Like quarterback, the Bulls will have a new face starting at running back this season.

While he saw limited action at running back in 2023, Al-Jay Henderson showed promise as a redshirt-freshman in 2022 and the Bulls hope he can return to form. The New Jersey-native rushed for 301 yards and three touchdowns in 2022 and led the team with a 5.1 yards-per-carry average.

Jacqez Barksdale made an immediate impact midway through the 2023 campaign. In his first season at UB after transferring from Coffeyville Community College, Barksdale rushed for 248 yards and two touchdowns while averaging 4.8 yards per carry.

Lamar Sperling should get an opportunity to play a more prominent role in 2024 after redshirting as a freshman last season. Sperling had a standout career at Archbishop Hoban High School in Ohio where he was Ohio Mr. Football as well the USA Today Offensive Football Player of the Year.

Redshirt-freshman Messiah Burch made the switch from wide receiver to running back in the spring and showed promise at his new position.

Redshirt-sophomore Mark-Anthony Scott as well as newcomers Jordan Owens (transfer from Army), Terrance Shelton, Jr. and Gabe Goins round out the running back corps.

WIDE RECEIVERS

The Bulls have several young players ready to step up at wide receiver in 2024.

Nik McMillan showed a lot of promise last season before missing time with an injury. In seven games, the Buffalo native had 13 catches for 180 yards and a touchdown. His best performance came against Liberty when he had four receptions for 72 yards and a 33-yard touchdown.

At 6-6, Chance Morrow is the tallest receiver on the UB roster. The Louisville transfer appeared in 11 games last season and registered four catches for 70 yards.

Nevada-transfer Victor Snow will likely play a larger role in 2024. One of the fastest players on the team, Snow had five rushes for 30 yards and added a 12-yard reception last season.

Javien Cuff suffered a season-ending injury early in 2023 but is healthy now and should be able to return to the lineup.

Qua Sanders also returns after appearing in three games in 2023.

Two new receivers joined the squad in January via the transfer portal and should make an immediate impact.

JJ Jenkins is a graduate transfer from Columbia where he was an All-Ivy League selection. In his final two seasons with the Lions, he totaled 74 receptions for 975 yards and seven touchdowns.

Taji Johnson is a graduate transfer from Boston College. The younger brother of former All-MAC cornerback Najja Johnson, Taji spent four seasons at Boston College and totaled 11 receptions for 119 yards.

Rounding out the returners are Tadd Barr, Aidan Walline and Jeremy Yancey.

A trio of freshmen looking to make an immediate impact include Patrick Clacks III, Bobby Mays and Jeremiah Watkins.

TIGHT ENDS

Jake Orlando started the first four games of the 2023 campaign at tight end before suffering a season-ending injury. The local product and UMass transfer had four catches for 28 yards before getting hurt.

Andrew Schnackenberg appeared in eight games in his first season with the Bulls in 2023. He had two catches for eight yards and a touchdown in UB's victory at Kent State.

Redshirt-freshman Mitch Viviano and redshirt-sophomore Ryan Daly also return and will add depth to the position.

Mike DePillo is making the move from quarterback to tight end for 2024.

Evan King, a junior transfer from Hampton, and freshman Shamar Riser-Pressley joined the team in the summer.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Led by All-MAC guard Tyler Doty, the Bulls return three starters on the offensive line. Doty will be entering his third season as a starter at guard. Doty was a third-team All-MAC selection a season ago.

Trevor Brock was inserted at guard and started the final seven games of the 2023 season. He will likely challenge for the starting role again in 2024.

Caelan Shepard worked his way into the starting lineup in 2023 and started all 12 games at right tackle.

In his sixth season, Dom Polizzi brings a veteran presence to the offensive line. The grad student started three games at center a season ago and has also played guard over his career.

Other returners looking to play a more prominent role in 2024 include Matt Pajuste, Henry Tabansi and Alex Heininger.

JUCO transfers Chayce Chadwick and Matthew Glen along with freshman Jackson Bellamy enrolled in January and look to make

MCMILLAN

an immediate impact.

Other newcomers to the offensive line include Gabe Arena (transfer from Virginia Tech) as well as freshmen Paul Clark, Tyrone Davis, Val Kondratenko and Ahmann Thomas.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Edge C.J. Bazile is the most experienced member of the defensive line. He started all 12 games last season and has appeared in 41 games over his career. He has 11 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks over his career.

Nick Roy will look to play a more prominent role at edge after redshirting last season as a freshman.

Transfer Kobe Stewart joined the team in January and will look to make an immediate impact after transferring from Samford. He spent three seasons with the Bulldogs.

Freshman Jacari Bennett also joined the squad in January following a standout career at JL Mann in South Carolina. He was the region's Defensive Player of the Year after totaling 18 sacks and 11 tackles for loss his senior season.

Malin White is a grad transfer from Cornell where he played four seasons. Antonio Colclough, a transfer from Monmouth, who also played four seasons at James Madison, also brings experience to the position.

Also new to the team in 2024 are freshmen Demetrius Ballard and Luke Yau Gayle.

The Bulls have more experience returning at defensive tackle.

George Wolo has been a major contributor at defensive tackle since he was a true freshman in 2020. He has appeared in 44 games and made 18 starts over his career. He has totaled 90 tackles, 14 sacks and 11.5 tackles for loss.

Daishon Folsom returns for his third season with the Bulls. Appearing in 33 games, Folsom has been a reliable member of the defensive line, posting 50 tackles, six tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks over his career.

Redshirt-sophomore Cornell Evans cracked the defensive tackle rotation late in the 2023 campaign. He notched a pair of tackles, both against Ohio.

Other returners on the defensive line looking to play a more prominent role in 2024 include Ja'Mori Coard, Devin Morgan and Junior Poyser.

Washington State-transfer Tristan Souza and Jackson State-transfer Charlton Goodell joined the program in January.

Freshman Will Clark also joined the squad over the summer.

LINEBACKERS

Led by All-MAC selection Shaun Dolac, the linebacker position is one of the strengths of this UB squad. After leading the nation in solo tackles in 2022 and earning first-team All-MAC honors, Dolac was limited to only four games a season ago due to an injury. Now healthy, he is back and ready to lead the defense.

The Bulls also have a pair of youngsters at linebackers who look ready to step up in 2024 in Red Murdock and Dion Crawford.

Murdock played in all 12 games and started the final six of the 2023 season. He ranked third on the team in tackles with 60 and added 9.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and four forced fumbles.

Crawford made an immediate impact as a true freshman in 2023. He appeared in 11 games and made two starts. He had 31 tackles, a tackle for loss and a pass breakup on the season.

Gio De Leon appeared in six games in 2023 after transferring from Cerritos College.

Joseph Giggie has made the move from running back to linebacker for 2024.

The Bulls have four returners at the nickel position.

Solomon Brown has seen the most action at nickel for the Bulls, appearing in 17 games over the last two seasons.

Jalen McNair was slated to the be the starter at nickel in 2023. In fact, he started the season opener before suffering a season-ending injury. Now healthy, he is looking to earn back the starting job.

Now is his sixth season, Caleb Tate has been a steady contributor for the Bulls. While he has mostly played on special teams, Tate will likely challenge for a more prominent role in 2024.

Redshirt-freshman Pershaun Fann also looks to add depth at the position.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Bulls return three cornerbacks who have seen time in the starting lineup over their careers.

Jayden Oliver is in his third season with the Bulls. He made five starts in 2023 and had an interception and five pass breakups.

Charles McCartherens was a pleasant surprise as a true freshman in 2023. The Georgia native started the final nine games of the season. Along with ranking second on the team with three interceptions, McCartherens added 34 tackles, a tackle for loss, three pass breakups and a forced fumble.

Clevester Hines III appeared in 10 games and made four starts in 2023, his first full season playing the position. He had 22 tackles and two tackles for loss on the year.

Marquis Cooper and Amir Proctor both transferred into the program prior to the 2023 season and both will add depth to the position.

Newcomers include Oliver Bridges, a sophomore transfer from Cincinnati, and Ramari Taylor a true freshman who enrolled in January.

Also joining the Bulls as cornerbacks are Eddie Pleasant III (transfer from Michigan State) as well as freshmen Kobi Blackwell and Mikey Crawford.

The safety unit will be led by Marcus Fuqua. Returning for his sixth season, the graduate student has 33 starts under his belt. In 2022, he led the nation in interceptions with seven enroute to earning All-America honors.

Junior Jonathan Capo played in all 12 games last season and made two starts. He had eight tackles and a fumble recovery on the season.

Jerrod Gentry, a transfer from Memphis, appeared in two games last year before missing the remainder of the season with an injury. Jamiere Munson redshirted as a freshman last season but did appear in three games.

SaVeon Brown joined the Bulls in January after transferring from Western Michigan. He played in 11 games for the Broncos last season and had 17 tackles, two pass breakups, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

Xavier Leonard is a true freshman who enrolled in January. A two-time All-Region selection, he helped lead the Panthers to a state championship.

John Keough and Ronnell Davis are both true freshmen looking to make an immediate impact.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Bulls will have a new starting kicker following the graduation of Alex McNulty who holds nearly ever kicking record in program history.

Upton Bellenfant is a transfer from Alabama where he spent two seasons. He didn't see any game action. He was standout kicker at Stewarts Creek High School in Tennessee.

In his third year with the program, walk-on Nick Reed will also challenge for the job.

Like kicker, the Bulls will have a new starting punter in 2024.

Ethan Duane is a transfer from Old Dominion where he spent three seasons as the team's starting punter. He averaged 41.2 yards per punt over his three seasons.

The Bulls will also have a new long snapper this season. Byron Floyd, a transfer from Pitt where he was a two-year starter, will likely assume the role.

Carson Selee and Bailey Sanders will also challenge for the job.

FUQUA

HEAD COACH
GEORGETOWN, 1992
FIRST SEASON

Pete Lembo was named the 28th head coach of the University at Buffalo football program on January 21, 2024.

A coaching veteran of over 30 years, Lembo has had successful stints as head coach of three separate programs. From 2001-15, he served as head coach at Lehigh, Elon and Ball State. He amassed a 112–65 career record, including a 79–36 record in ten seasons at the FCS level, making him one of the winningest coaches in the history of that classification.

In five years as head coach at Lehigh, Lembo had a record of 44-14. He is the winningest head coach in the program's history with a .759 winning percentage. His conference record of 26-7 (.788) ranks third among all Patriot League coaches in terms of winning percentage. He led the Mountain Hawks to two Patriot League titles and two appearances in the FCS playoffs. He was named the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year and the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading Lehigh to an 11-1 record and as high as No. 2 in the national polls – the highest ranking the program's history.

Beginning in 2006, Lembo spent five seasons as the head coach at Elon. He resurrected a program that went 14-42 in the five seasons prior to his arrival. From 2006-10, the Phoenix had a record of 35-22. He was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year in 2007 and in 2009 led Elon to a record of 9-3, including a 7-1 mark in conference play. The Phoenix qualified for the FCS playoffs for the first time in program history that season. Elon enjoyed winning seasons in Southern Conference play all five years he served as head coach, something the program hadn't achieved during an 11-year affiliation with the conference. His Elon teams set over 120 NCAA, Southern Conference and school records.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Lembo served as head coach at Ball State from 2011-15. Like his previous stops, Lembo enjoyed immediate success. He became the first coach in Ball State history to win 30 games over his first four seasons at the helm. The Cardinals went 9-4 (6-2 in the MAC) in 2012 and 10-3 (7-1 in the MAC) in 2013. The combined 19 wins over those two seasons tied the program record for wins over a two-year span. He led Ball State to the 2012 Beef 'O' Brady Bowl and the 2013 GoDaddy Bowl, marking just the second time in 90 years over Ball State football the program played in bowl games in consecutive years.

Under Lembo's watch, the Cardinals set more than 60 school records, including single-season records for points (501), total offense (6,199 yards), passing yards (4,214), touchdown passes (35) and total touchdowns (64) in 2013.

Since leaving Ball State following the 2015 campaign, Lembo enjoyed significant success as a special teams coordinator at the Power Five level. He spent the past three seasons as associate head coach and special teams coordinator at South Carolina. He was named a Broyles Award Assistant Coach of the Year Semifinalist, a FootballScoop Special Teams Coach of the Year Finalist and earned Phil Steele's Special Teams Coach of the Year accolades in 2022 after the Gamecock special teams had arguably their best season on record.

South Carolina earned the No. 1 spot in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking after finishing fourth in the country in punt returns (16.6), fifth in kickoff returns (25.1), seventh in net punting (42.8), 23rd in opponent kickoff returns (17.3) and 27th in opponent punt returns (4.6). During his three-year run in Columbia, South Carolina special teams units blocked 14 kicks after recording eight blocks over the previous five years (2016-20) combined.

Lembo had similar success as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator at Memphis in 2019 and 2020. He helped lead the Tigers to a 12-win season in 2019 and a berth in the Cotton Bowl. His unit finished second in ESPN's Special Teams Efficiency Rankings in 2019 and sixth in the FBS in the overall special teams rankings compiled by the data analysts at Football Outsiders.

Prior to Memphis, Lembo served as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator at Rice (2018) and Maryland (2016-17). Both programs excelled in special teams under Lembo's tutelage. In his two seasons at Maryland, the Terps tied for fifth nationally with nine blocked kicks. While at Rice, the Owls ranked fifth in the FBS with just 16.12 kickoff return yards allowed.

A native of Staten Island, NY, Lembo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Albany in 1992. He went on to coach tight ends at Dartmouth from 1994-96 and serve as offensive coordinator at Hampden-Sydney in 1997.

Lembo, a 1992 graduate of Georgetown University, was a four-year starter on the Hoyas' offensive line and served as team captain in 1991. He is married to the former Jenifer Kochis. The couple has three children – Sophia, A.J. and Victoria.

DAVE PATENAUDE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS
CENTRAL CONNECTICUT STATE '90
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Dave Patenaude begins his first season as Buffalo's offensive coordinator and also coaches the quarterbacks. He brings over 30 years of experience to UB, including a recent three-year stint as the offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech from 2019-21.

At Georgia Tech, Patenaude transformed an offense that ran a triple option before he was hired into spread offense. In 2020, Patenaude started three true freshmen on offense, including at quarterback, and saw an improvement of more than 100 yards per game in total offense from the previous season. Also in 2020, the offense had four-straight 400-yards games of total offense to begin the year for the first time since 2011.

Prior to joining Georgia Tech, Patenaude was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Temple from 2017-18. In his two years at Temple, the Owls had two of its top three single-season passing totals in school history and were the 23rd ranked scoring offense in the country in 2018.

Patenaude spent five seasons at Coastal Carolina as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, helping lead the Chanticleers to four playoff appearances in five years, including a trio of 10-win seasons.

Patenaude began his coaching career in 1991 as running backs coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy and has coached at Springfield (1992-93), Fordham (1994-97), Columbia (1998-2001), New Haven (2002-03), Holy Cross (2004-06), Hofstra (2007-09) and Georgetown (2010-11). Patenaude was the head coach at New Haven for two years before spending three seasons at Holy Cross coaching the running backs, wide receivers and as special teams coordinator.

After a brief stint at Old Dominion in 2022 before having to step away for personal reasons, Patenaude most recently served as an offensive analyst at Virgina in 2023.

Patenaude was a three-year starter at quarterback and free safety at Central Connecticut State. He graduated from CCSU in 1990 and earned a master's from Springfield in 1993.

He and his wife, Christine, have two daughters: Eva and Estelle.

JOE BOWEN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS
MIAMI (OH) '15
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Joe Bowen begins first season as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Bulls. Bowen comes from Miami (OH) where he served as linebackers coach and running game coordinator.

Bowen spent two seasons at Miami and helped build the RedHawks into one of the best defensive units in the Mid-American Conference. In 2022, Miami was the conference's top-ranked scoring defense and run defense. In 2023, the RedHawks ranked in the top three in the MAC in scoring defense, rushing defense and defensive efficiency. Nationally, Miami ranked in the Top 10 in scoring defense, third-down defense and redzone defense.

Miami won the 2023 MAC Championship, led by linebacker Matt Salopek who was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year. In addition, linebacker Ty Wise was one of only two players in the FBS with 120+ tackles and 8+ sacks on the season.

Prior to being hired at Miami, Bowen spent the 2021 season as a defensive graduate assistant at South Carolina on the same staff as Lembo. In Bowen's lone season with the Gamecocks, they led the SEC in turnovers with 24 while having the best total defense and scoring defense the school has had since 2013. The Gamecock defense finished first in the SEC and seventh nationally in pass yards allowed per game.

Prior to that, Bowen was a defensive analyst and defensive graduate assistant at Florida State for three seasons. Bowen coached with inside linebackers in 2018 and 2020 and moved to outside linebackers in 2019.

Bowen spent the 2017 season at Michigan State as a defensive graduate assistant/assistant LB coach. While at Michigan State, Bowen coached in a defense that finished as the nation's second-ranked rushing defense, seventh-ranked total defense and 18th-ranked third-down defense. The 2017 Spartans yielded an average of only 95.31 yards per game on the ground.

Bowen began his career as a defensive graduate assistant at Miami (OH) for the 2015-16 seasons

A native of Grand Rapids, MI, Bowen graduated from Miami University in 2015 with a degree in finance and a minor in coaching. He earned his master's degree in kinesiology and health in 2017 from Miami.

As a student at Miami, he served as an offensive intern from 2013-15 and as a student assistant from 2011-13.

Bowen and his wife, Colette, were married in February of 2021.

TYLER HANCOCK

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT
KENTUCKY WESLEYAN '12
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Tyler Hancock is in his first season as special teams coordinator and defensive assistant. He comes to Buffalo from Baylor where he spent the 2023 campaign working with the Bears' special teams as a quality control coach.

Hancock served as special teams coordinator at Charlotte from 2021-22. In his two seasons with the 49ers, Charlotte ranked among the nation's top-10 in punt-return defense (No. 4 in 2022 and No. 8 in 2021).

In 2022, the 49ers ranked among the nation's leaders in several key special team categories, including fourth in punt return defense average, No. 10 in blocked kicks, No. 31 in blocked punts and No. 32 in net punting average. Bailey Rice averaged 42.72 yards per punt under Hancock's guidance, including 18 downed inside the 20-yard line and 13 going for 50+ yards.

In 2021, Hancock's first year leading the special teams unit, Charlotte ranked eighth in punt-return defense, 21st in the nation in blocked kicks, 32nd in blocked punts, 36th in kickoff returns and 40th in net punting.

Prior to Charlotte, Hancock spent two seasons as the senior analyst for special teams at West Virginia. He oversaw the program's analysts and quality control coaches, while helping lead the special teams unit and its gameplans.

He served as special teams quality control coach at Maryland from 2016-18 where he worked with Lembo who was the Terps special teams coordinator.

Hancock spent four years as a defensive intern and later an offensive assistant at Kentucky. He worked with special teams, outside linebackers and defensive backs. He also worked with as an offensive assistant, with primary responsibilities including the quarterbacks and tight ends. He helped head coach Mark Stoops resurrect the Kentucky program, with the Wildcats advancing to the TaxSlayer Bowl in 2016 – the first of seven consecutive bowl berths for UK.

A 2012 graduate of Kentucky Wesleyan, Hancock began his coaching career at his alma mater, serving as quarterbacks coach and co-passing game coordinator for the Panthers.

RON WHITCOMB

TIGHT ENDS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR
MAINE '06
FOURTH SEASON AT BUFFALO

Ron Whitcomb begins his fourth season on the coaching staff at Buffalo. Whitcomb, who has coached tight ends and quarterbacks over his career at UB, will serve as tight ends coach under coach Lembo beginning in 2024. He also serves as recruiting coordinator.

In 2022, tight ends combined for 32 receptions for 300 yards on the season, led by Robbie Mangas who had 16 catches for 141 yards - the most receptions by a UB tight end since 2019.

Tight ends Trevor Borland and Nicholas Fronczak were both named to the Academic All-MAC team.

He helped lead the Bulls to a victory over Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl for UB's third bowl win in program history.

Under Whitcomb in 2021, there was an increase in productivity from the tight end position over the previous two seasons. Tight ends accounted for 27 receptions for 276 yards and three touchdowns in 2021 - their highest output since the 2018 campaign.

Tight ends Jake Molinich and Trevor Borland were both named to the Academic All-MAC team.

Whitcomb began his career at UB in 2020 as the team's scouting coordinator and offensive analyst. The Rochester native spent the previous 12 seasons as quarterbacks coach at Old Dominion.

Whitcomb guided quarterback Blake LaRussa to a 3,000-yard season that saw the junior signal-caller finish No. 14 in FBS with 274.1 passing yards per game. That number jumps to 300 yards per game when taking out the two games where he played sparingly. In ODU's 49-35 stunner over No. 13 Virginia Tech, LaRussa passed for 495-yards and four touchdowns. The 495-yards was a C-USA high in 2018 and the second most ever allowed by a Tech defense. LaRussa earned multiple National Player of the Week awards and was named C-USA Player of the Week. LaRussa finished second in C-USA with 274.1 yards per game and led league quarterbacks with six, 300-yard passing games.

LaRussa was the second quarterback in ODU history to throw for 3,000 yards in a single-season, throwing for 3,015, and joining current NFL QB Taylor Heinicke in that regard. LaRussa earned C-USA honorable mention honors, becoming the third ODU quarterback in the Monarchs' five years in the league to earn All-C-USA honors, joining Heinicke and David Washington.

A year after graduating senior quarterback David Washington, the ODU offense was taken over by true freshman Steven Williams in 2017. Williams' first career start came at Virginia Tech and the improvement each week from the then 17-year old was noticeable. In the final four games of the year, Williams completed 68 percent of his passes for 664 yards, two touchdowns and no turnovers, while rushing for 101 yards and two more touchdowns. Williams was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team.

Whitcomb groomed quarterback David Washington to the second-best touchdown to interception ratio in the country in 2016 to help ODU to a 10-3 overall record and victory in the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl. Washington passed for 2,836 yards and 31 touchdowns in his first full season as a starter, after playing wide receiver most of the previous two seasons.

Whitcomb guided current Washington Football player Taylor Heinicke to a tremendous four-year career as 2015 was the first time since 2011 that Heinicke was not behind center. Shuler Bentley and David Washington split the QB duties, combining to complete 234-for-432 for 2,2587 yards and 20 touchdowns. Bentley started the year at quarterback and led a come-from-behind win at Eastern Michigan in the opener and a win over Norfolk State before Washington came in vs. Charlotte for the second series, going 25-of-43 for 365 yards and four touchdowns for a dramatic 37-34 win over the 49ers. Washington led ODU to wins over UTSA and UTEP before suffering a season-ending injury at Southern Miss.

Whitcomb guided four-year starting quarterback Taylor Heinicke to one of the best statistical careers of any Division I quarterback ever. Heinicke ranks third all-time among FBS quarterbacks in total yards of offense with 16,279 and sixth in career passing yards with 14,959. Heinicke's 132 career touchdown tosses is fourth most all-time, just two behind Texas Tech's Graham Harrell for third place.

In 2012, the Monarchs led the FCS in scoring offense with 45.15 points per game, passing offense at 393.85 and total offense with 548.23 yards per game. Whitcomb helped lead Taylor Heinicke to the most prolific season by a quarterback in FCS history. Heinicke led the nation in passing yards, passing yards per game, touchdown passes, total TD's, total offense and points responsible for. Heinicke set FCS single-season record for passing yards and completions. Heinicke threw for 5,076 passing yards surpassing Steve McNair's record of 4,863 he set for Alcorn State in 1994. Heinicke's 398 completions broke Brett Gordon's mark of 385 he set in 2002 for Villanova. Heinicke won the Walter Payton Award given to the Best Player in the FCS, becoming just the second sophomore ever to win the award. The 2012 season also saw Heinicke earn CAA Offensive Player of the Year honors and first-team All-CAA honors. He received First-Team All-America honors by seven organizations and won the Dudley Award for the best Division I Player in the state of Virginia.

Under Whitcomb's watch, the Monarchs had a two-time Walter Payton Watch List member in Thomas DeMarco in 2010 and 2011 and the College Football Performance Awards FCS National Performer of the Year, Jerry Rice Award Runner-Up, and the Payton Award Winner in Heinicke.

Before joining the Old Dominion staff, Whitcomb was a four-year starter at the University of Maine from 2003-2006.

Whitcomb, departed as the Black Bears' all-time leader in completions (755), total offense (8,801) and touchdown passes (68). His 8,183 passing yards ranked second, as did his .592 completion percentage. One of three senior captains at Maine in 2006, Whitcomb was named the Atlantic-10 and Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Rookie of the Year as a redshirt freshman after passing for 2,428 yards and 21 touchdowns. The passing yardage was the most by a freshman in Atlantic-10 history and he also established a new school record with touchdown passes in 11 straight games.

A standout off the field as well, Whitcomb was honored as the 2006-07 Atlantic-10 Student-Athlete of the Year. He earned his B.S. in education from Maine in 2006 and a M.S. Ed. in educational leadership at Old Dominion University in 2009.

For the last three seasons, Whitcomb has participated in the annual Lauren's First and Goal Football Camp at Lafayette College. The one-day clinic features nearly 275 college coaches who volunteer their time to teach aspiring football players the in-and-outs of the game and raise money for Lauren's First and Goal, a charitable organization created to support pediatric brain tumor research and support local pediatric cancer services.

ADAM MORRIS

DEFENSIVE LINE/RUN GAME COORDINATOR
BALL STATE '13
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Adam Morris, who was a team captain for Coach Lembo at Ball State, comes to Buffalo from Ball State where he was the Cardinals' defensive line coach in 2023. Morris serves as defensive line coach as well as run game coordinator.

He helped lead a Ball State defense that ranked second in the Mid-American Conference in total defense (315.8) and rushing defense (111.6) in 2023.

Prior to Ball State, Morris spent three seasons as defensive line coach at Eastern Illinois. During the 2021 season, he mentored the Ohio Valley Conference's leader in tackles for loss in all-conference second-team selection Jordan Miles.

Along with his responsibilities as the defensive line coach, Morris was also involved in EIU's game preparation. He helped organize the defensive run scheme, broke down and analyzed opponents' pass protection tendencies, and contributed to weekly third-down blitz packages.

In 2020, Morris served as co-offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at DePauw University. His 2020 recruiting class helped the Tigers win the first two North Coast Athletic Conference championships in program history.

Prior to joining the collegiate ranks, Morris was an accomplished high school head coach. He led Muncie Central High School to consecutive winning seasons in his two years as head coach. The 2016 squad finished the year with a 7-4 mark and won a playoff game for the first time since 2006.

Morris also served as head coach for two seasons at Hamilton Southeastern High School.

Morris is a 2013 graduate of Ball State with a bachelor's degree in education. A four-year letterwinner for the Cardinals, he was a team captain in 2011. He finished his career with 84 tackles, including 12 tackles for loss and four sacks.

A native of Dublin, Ohio, Morris returns to Muncie with his wife, Jessica, and two children, Jayde and Jordan.

MATT STANSFIELD

OFFENSIVE LINE
DUQUESNE '07
FOURTH SEASON AT BUFFALO

Stansfield is in his fourth season as the Bulls' offensive line coach.

In 2023, Buffalo tied for third in the MAC in fewest sacks allowed. For the third straight season, two offensive linemen were named All-MAC as offensive guards Tyler Doty and Gabe Wallace were both named to the third team. Three offensive linemen were named Academic All-MAC.

In 2022, Buffalo's line blocked for an offense that ranked in the top five in the conference in scoring offense (28.5), total offense (377.2) and passing offense (235.3).

Two offensive linemen were named All-MAC as right tackle Desmond Bessent and left guard Gabe Wallace were both named All-MAC Third Team. In addition, Tyler Doty and Dom Polizzi were named Academic All-MAC.

He helped lead the Bulls to a victory over Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl for UB's third bowl win in program history.

Stansfield came to Buffalo in 2021 and, in his first season, the Bulls ranked second in the MAC in fewest sacks allowed with 16. In addition, UB ranked fifth in the MAC in rushing - averaging 195.5 yards per game. The line blocked for running back Dylan McDufie who rushed for 1,049 yards - the 10th best single-sesaon effort in program history.

Two starters on the offensive line were named to the All-MAC team. Left tackle Jake Fuzak was named to the second team and guard Jack Klenk was named to the third team. In addition, five members of the offensive line were named Academic All-MAC.

Stansfield came to UB after spending the previous five seasons as run game coordinator and offensive line/tight ends coach at Duquesne. A former player and coach at Duquesne, he returned to his alma mater after serving as offensive coordinator at Waynesburg for four seasons.

Duquesne, which has ranked among the Top 50 nationally in rushing offense in each of the past five seasons, has seen five backs combine to post 33 100-yard games since Stansfield's return to The Bluff.

Last season, running back A.J. Hines capped his standout career becoming the program's all-time leading rusher with 4,629 career rushing yards. The running back earned his fourth consecutive All-NEC award, sharing the backfield with fellow All-NEC selection Mark Allen. The pair became the first two running backs to garner All-NEC honors in the same season since the Dukes joined the conference in 2008.

A big part of the the Duquesne duo's success running the ball was the Dukes' offensive line, keyed by All-NEC picks Sterling Jenkins and Gabe Spurlock. Stansfield and the Duquesne O-line ranked 26th in the country with the fewest sacks allowed at 1.55 per game.

In 2018, Stansfield and the Dukes' running game enjoyed a standout campaign which saw Duquesne claim its fifth NEC crown, as the Dukes earned their second Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoff berth and won their first FCS Playoff contest in program history.

Running back A.J. Hines garnered NEC Offensive Player of the Year honors and was recognized as a finalist for the STATS FCS Walter Payton Award for the top offensive player at the FCS level. He closed out the season third in the country in rushing yards and sixth in the nation in rushing touchdowns, tallying a program-record six-straight 100-yard rushing performances during a six-game winning streak for Duquesne.

Hines - who has earned three straight First Team All-NEC nods with three 1,000-yard seasons in a row - enters his senior season in 2019 as the FCS active leader in career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns.

Stansfield also coached a pair of All-NEC performers on the offensive line in Alex Conley and Matt Fitzpatrick, who helped pave the way for Hines' 20 100-yard rushing games over the last three seasons.

Additionally under Stansfield's guidance, tight end Stew Allen finished with five touchdown receptions on the season.

Prior to returning to Duquesne, Stansfield guided Waynesburg's offense to new heights, as the team averaged over 400 yards per game in 2014. In 2013, Waynesburg averaged 387.3 yards per game, including a 283.8 ypg. through the air. The 2012 offense featured a physical running attack that averaged a conference-best 201.9 yards per game while allowing just five quarterback sacks all season.

Prior to his appointment at Waynesburg, Stansfield was Duquesne's running backs coach and run game coordinator from 2009-11.

In 2011, Duquesne (9-2) rushed for an average of 212.8 yards per game - a mark that led the NEC and ranked 15th nationally. Then-junior Larry McCoy spearheaded the ground game with 1,381 yards. McCoy's 117.4 yards rushing per game ranked 11th nationally.

Prior to his stint at Duquesne, Stansfield spent one year (2008) at Howard University, where he worked with the school's defensive line.

Stansfield played center for Duquesne from 2003-07, where he was a member of five MAAC championship teams. The Meadville native, who served as a team captain as a senior, earned all-MAAC honors in 2006 & 2007. He was a Don Hansen honorable mention FCS Mid-Major All-American in 2006.

Stansfield graduated from Duquesne in 2007 with a degree in accounting. He added an MBA from his alma mater in 2010 and completed a second master's degree in education at Waynesburg in 2015.

Stansfield and his wife, Jamie, have two sons, Jack and Luke.

MIAMI (OH) '12
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Brian Dougherty enters his first season as safeties and nckels coach after spending the 2023 season as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at the University of Indianapolis.

In his lone season at UIndy, he helped lead the Greyhounds to a 9-2 record and oversaw one of the top defenses in not only the Great Lakes Athletic Conference, but all of Division II.

In 2023, Indianapolis led the GLAC in scoring defense (14.9) which also ranked eighth nationally. The Greyhounds also led the conference in defensive efficiency (12.8) and ranked second in total defense (290.5) and passing defense (176.0).

Prior to being hired a UIndy, Dougherty spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Valparaiso. He helped lead the Beacons to 12 Pioneer Football League victories over his final three seasons, setting a school record over that length of time.

In 2022, Dougherty's defense led the PFL in in both redzone and fourth down defense, ranking eighth and sixth in the nation, respectively. Additionally, Valpo's defense held rival Butler to just three points in a 47-3 victory on Nov. 13, 2021, shattering the program record for margin of victory against a Division I opponent.

Dougherty spent the 2018 season as the defensive backs coach at Tiffin University. He helped lead the Dragons to a 9-2 record and coached three all-conference honorees. He spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons as cornerbacks coach at Dayton. The Flyers held opponents to an average of 19.7 points per game over two seasons while leading the PFL in interceptions in 2016 and finishing second in 2017.

Dougherty spent two seasons as a graduate assistant under Lembo at Ball State, working with the wide receivers in 2015 and defensive backs in 2014.

He began his coaching career as cornerbacks coach at Millikin University in 2013.

Dougherty is a 2012 graduate of Miami (OH) where he was a student assistant and manager for the RedHawks football team. He earned a master's degree in athletic coaching education from Ball State in 2016.

RAY PICKERING

SOUTHERN MISS

Ray Pickering is in his first season as running backs coach.

Pickering came to Buffalo after serving one season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Norfolk State. In his one season with the Spartans, Norfolk State ranked third in the MEAC in scoring offense (24.0) and second in rushing offense (173.8). The Spartans set a program record for rushing yards in a season with 1,912 as well as their best ever single-game rushing total with 350 yards against Towson.

Prior to Norfolk State, Pickering served as an offensive assistant at Texas. He worked with the offensive line which produced freshman All-American, Kelvin Banks. He helped a unit that improved vastly during the second year of head coach Steve Sarkisian that propelled running backs Bijan Robinson and Roschon Johnson to career bests. The Longhorns finished second in the Big 12 Conference and played Washington in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Prior to Texas, Pickering was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Lane College, where he helped produce one of the most explosive teams in the conference as well as school history. Pickering's offense ranked among the top tier, setting several records for Lane College. Behind his leadership, Lane was able to reel off several first time wins in school history. During his tenure, Lane College also set several offensive school records as Pickering orchestrated an offense that produced two All-Americans and four All-Conference players.

Prior to Lane, Pickering was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Moss Point High School, Hattiesburg High School, Daphne High School, Laurel High School, and his alma mater West Jones High School. At Hattiesburg, he coached running back Snoop Conner who is currently playing in the NFL.

He was also head baseball coach at Laurel, and assistant baseball coach at Hattiesburg where the team won the 2018 5A State Championship.

A native of Laurel, MS, Pickering is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi, where he received a bachelor's in coaching education. He earned his master's in secondary education and sports administration from William Carey University. Pickering also spent time at Jones Junior College and Alabama State University where he played collegiate football and baseball.

CORNERBACKS
SECOND SEASON AT BUFFALO

Holman Copeland is in his second season on the coaching staff at Buffalo. After coaching the defensive backs in 2023, he will focus on the cornerbacks beginning in 2024.

Buffalo tied for third in the MAC in interceptions with 11 in 2023. True freshman cornerback Charles McCartherens ranked second on the team with three interceptions on the year.

It's a homecoming of sorts for Copeland who was a graduate assistant on the UB staff in 2012 and 2013. He spent the last four seasons at as cornerbacks coach at Delaware. He was promoted to recruiting coordinator prior to the 2022 campaign.

In 2022, the Blue Hens went 8-5 and advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs. Delaware led the CAA in total defense, passing defense and scoring defense. They totaled eight interceptions and 33 pass breakups on the season. Cornerback Justin Henley was named was All-CAA Second Team selection.

In 2021, the Delaware defense ranked fifth in the CAA in passing defense, allowing just 204.9 yards per game through the air. UD's cornerbacks had a stellar season as they combined for five interceptions and 16 pass breakups. Nijuel Hill was an All-CAA Second Team selection and eventual signed with the Washington Commanders as an UDFA.

During the Blue & Gold's run to the FCS Semifinals in the 2020-21 spring season, the defense was absolutely dominant leading the CAA in both scoring defense (14.4 ppg) and passing defense (118.4 ypg). Hill earned his first All-CAA nod as he was named to the second team while also earning Second Team All-American (Stats Perform) honors.

Prior Delaware, Copeland spent two seasons (2017-18) at William & Mary where he was the secondary coach and an assistant special teams coordinator. During his first season in Williamsburg, Copeland was instrumental in developing W&M's secondary. He helped mentor two of the league's top players in Aaron Swinton and Raeshawn Smith and safety Corey Parker was an All-CAA Third Team selection.

The Tribe had two members of its secondary earn All-CAA honors in 2018, led by safety Isaiah Laster earning a second team nod. Parker earned his second-straight postseason honor as he was named to the All-CAA Second Team. In addition, Copeland helped push the secondary at William & Mary to a top-25 national ranking in passing yards allowed (190.0 ypg) in 2018.

Copeland joined the Tribe's staff after a three-year stint (2014-16) as an assistant at Central Connecticut State where he served as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator. During his successful stint at CCSU, Copland produced four all-conference selections.

Copeland worked as a graduate assistant at UB for two seasons (2012-13). In addition to mentoring and helping develop NFL first-round selection Khalil Mack as a linebackers assistant in 2012, he coached the secondary the following season and helped the Bulls rank second in the Mid-American Conference in both total defense and scoring defense. Buffalo also earned a bid to the Idaho Potato Bowl in 2013.

Copeland's resume also includes a pair of one-year stints as the secondary coach at East Stroudsburg University (2011) and the University of New Haven (2010). He produced a pair of all-conference cornerbacks during both seasons, while his unit helped ESU lead the league in interceptions during the 2011 campaign. Additionally, New Haven won the NE-10 Championship in 2010.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at East Stroudsburg and then spent a season as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Harry S. Truman (Levittown, PA) in 2009.

Copeland was a two-year letterwinner at Clarion University of Pennsylvania where he played safety. He graduated from Clarion in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in communications and a minor in sport management. He earned his Master of Science degree in sport management from East Stroudsburg.

CALEB HAYNES

WIDE RECEIVERS
CENTRAL METHODIST '12
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Caleb Haynes is in his first season as wide receivers coach. Haynes comes to Buffalo from Stony Brook where he spent five seasons coaching multiple units, including most recently the wide receivers.

Haynes spent three seasons as wide receivers coach at Stony Brook. He also coached safeties and quarterbacks for the Seawolves.

In 2023, Seawolves receiver Anthony Johnson recorded 59 catches, the sixth most in program history for a single season, en route to earning All-CAA honors. In his first season with Stony Brook, he helped receiver Nick Anderson put together one of the best seasons in school history when the senior totaled 870 receiving yards, fifth most in program history.

Prior to Stony Brook, Haynes spent three seasons as an offensive graduate assistant at Rice. It was there that he worked with Lembo. He coached the Owls' receiving corps and assisted with the special teams.

Haynes began his coaching career as an assistant at Central Methodist, his alma mater. During his four seasons with the Eagles, he served as co-offensive coordinator, special teams coordinator, running backs coach, director of football operations and junior varsity head coach.

Haynes graduated with a bachelor's and master's degree from Central Methodist as well as master's degree from Rice.

#19 WISCONSIN 38, BUFFALO 17

SEPT. 2, 2023 • CAMP RANDALL STADIUM • MADISON, WI

MADISON, WI – The University at Buffalo football team battled valiantly against Wisconsin, but ultimately lost to the 19th-ranked Badgers, 38-17, at Camp Randall Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The Bulls only trailed 14-10 at the half, but Wisconsin was able to pull away in the second half for the victory.

For the first half, the Bulls gave the Badgers all they could handle. Wisconsin scored first to take a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter. However, the Bulls answered right back, driving 65 yards on only five plays and tied the game on a 7-yard pass from Cole Snyder to Cole Harrity. A key play on the drive was a 51-yard completion from Snyder to Darrell Harding, Jr.

The game remained tied, 7-7, for much of the first half until the Badgers scored on a 29-yard TD pass with just one minute left in the in the second quarter to regain a 14-7 advantage. However, the Bulls were able to drive down the field and, with just seven seconds left, Alex McNulty drilled a 53-yard field goal to cut the Wisconsin lead to 14-10 at the break.

Wisconsin used big plays to pull away in the second half. The Badgers scored two third-quarter touchdowns, including an 89-yard TD run, and led, 28-10, heading to the fourth.

Trailing 31-10 in the fourth quarter, the Bulls got the ball back on a Shaun Dolac interception that the senior linebacker returned 32 yards to the Wisconsin 11-yard line. Three plays later, Snyder connected with Harrity again, this time from 3-yards out, to cut the Badger lead to 31-17.

Snyder had good command of the offense and finished 26-of-41 for 194 yards and two touchdowns. He completed passes to 12 different receivers, with his favorite target being Harrity who had five grabs for 47 yards and two scores. Marlyn Johnson and Ron Cook, Jr. each had four receptions.

The Bulls offensive line held up against a massive Badger defensive front. The Bulls didn't allow a sack in the game. UB also didn't commit a turnover, while forcing two Badger miscues. Along with Dolac's pick, Devin Grant had his first career interception in the second quarter.

Mike Washington, Jr and Cook led the Bulls rushing attack. Both backs carried the ball 12 times with Washington finishing with 52 yards and Cook tallying 51.

Marcus Fuqua led the defense with 11 tackles followed by Dolac with eight stops, including a tackle for loss. Max Michel had the game's only sack in the first quarter.

FORDHAM 40, BUFFALO 37

SEPT. 9, 2023 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team dropped their home opener to Fordham, 40-37, at UB Stadium on Saturday night.

The Bulls jumped out to a 21-3 lead, scoring on their first three drives of the game. Mike Washington, Jr. opened the scoring with a 1-yard touchdown plunge on UB's opening possession. It was the first of two touchdowns for Washington who added a 5-yard score in the third quarter.

Jyaire Stevens blocked Fordham's punt on the Rams' opening possession and, one play later, Cole Snyder connected with Marlyn Johnson for a 22-yard touchdown to give the Bulls a quick 14-0 lead.

After the Rams kicked a field goal, the Bulls increased their lead to 21-3 when Snyder threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Darrell Harding, Jr. – his first touchdown as a Bull.

However, Fordham's high-powered offense battled back and was able to cut the halftime deficit to 21-20. From there, the lead would see-saw, changing hands five times in the second half.

Johnson caught his second touchdown of the game, a 36-yard, one-handed grab from Snyder to give the Bulls a 37-33 lead with 8:03 left in the fourth quarter. But the Rams struck last, scoring with 2:32 left to win the game.

Snyder finished the game 24-for-30 for 265 yards and three touchdowns. It tied his career high for touchdown passes in a game. Johnson had the best game of his career with seven receptions for 105 yards and two touchdowns – all career highs. Fellow wide receiver Cole Harrity also had career highs of six catches for 57 yards.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Devin Grant who had a career-best eight tackles and two pass breakups. Shaun Dolac had eight tackles and George Wolo added six tackles and a sack.

LIBERTY 55, BUFFALO 27

SEPT. 16, 2023 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team lost to Liberty, 55-27, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Liberty's high-powered offense jumped out to a 24-0 lead, before the Bulls began to claw back. Late in the second quarter, Buffalo scored on consecutive drives to cut the halftime lead to 24-14.

Darrell Harding, Jr. scored the Bulls' first touchdown on a beautiful one-handed seven-yard catch from Cole Snyder. Then on UB's next drive, Snyder connected with Nik McMillan on a 33-yard touchdown. It was McMillan's first touchdown as a Bull.

Snyder threw a career-best four touchdown passes in the game, later connecting on scoring strikes to Ron Cook, Jr. and Marlyn Johnson. Snyder tied his career high with 29 completions in the game. He completed passes to 10 different receivers, marking the second time in the first three games 10+ different receivers caught passes for the Bulls.

McMillan, Harding, Cook and Mike Washington all had four receptions for the Bulls.

The defense was led by freshman cornerback Charles McCartherens who made his first career start and finished with nine tackles and a pass breakup. Linebacker Joe Andreesen finished with seven tackles, the most he's had since joining the Bulls.

LOUISIANA 45, BUFFALO 38

SEPT. 23, 2023 • CAJUN FIELD • LAFAYETTE, LA

LAFAYETTE, LA – Trailing 31-7 in the third quarter, the University at Buffalo football team nearly pulled off a miraculous comeback at Louisiana on Saturday night, but ultimately lost to the host Ragin' Cajuns, 45-38, at Cajun Field.

The Bulls capitalized on Louisiana miscues to climb back into the contest. Jonathan Capo recovered a Louisiana muffed punt at its 18-yard line and five plays later, Ron Cook, Jr. scored the first of his two rushing touchdowns in the game, to cut the lead to, 31-13.

On the ensuing possession, freshman cornerback Charles McCartherens intercepted his second pass of the game to set up the Bulls in the red zone. Once again, Cook ran it in for the touchdown and suddenly the score was 31-21.

The Ragin' Cajuns seemed to retake control of the game, regaining a 21-point advantage midway through the fourth quarter. But the Bulls didn't flinch. Cole Snyder connected with Marlyn Johnson on an 11-yard touchdown pass with 4:32 left and then, after recovering an onside kick, Jacqez Barksdale punched it in to make the score 45-38 with 2:00 on the clock.

The defense came up with a timely three-and-out to force a punt and give the ball back to the Bulls with 1:24 on the clock. However, Louisiana was able to come up with a turnover in the final seconds to secure the victory.

Snyder threw for 197 yards and a touchdown for the Bulls. CJ Ogbonna saw the first significant action of his UB career at quarterback and did damage with his legs. The SEMO transfer rushed for 38 yards and scored his first touchdown as a Bull.

Buffalo rushed for a season-high 178 yards in the game, led by Mike Washington, Jr. who finished with 88 yards on 13 carries.

Cole Harrity led the receivers with six catches in the game.

The defense was led by Shaun Dolac who had a season-high 11 tackles and a tackle for loss. Fellow linebacker Joe Andreessen finished with nine tackles and a TFL of his own. Defensive end Max Michel made plays all over the field, totaling seven tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss, a sack and two pass breakups.

BUFFALO 13, AKRON 10 OT

SEPT. 30, 2023 • INFOCISION STADIUM • AKRON, OH

AKRON, OH – Devin Grant blocked a potential game-tying field goal in overtime to help the University at Buffalo football team defeat Akron, 13-10, in the Mid-American Conference opener for both schools at InfoCision Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

UB's defense had their best game of the season, holding the Zips to 253 yards of total offense. The Bulls had a season-best four sacks in the game and forced a key turnover late in regulation.
The game was tied, 10-10, at the end of the fourth quarter. Buffalo got the ball first and took a 13-10 lead following a 42-yard field goal by Alex McNulty. On the Zips' opening possession of OT, a third-down sack by Red Murdock forced Akron to attempt a 47-yard field goal to tie the game. Grant burst up the middle and was able to block the attempt to secure the win for the Bulls.

Akron scored first in the game, taking a 7-0 after the first quarter. The Bulls responded with a 16-play, 79-yard drive that took 9:09 off the clock and resulted in a 7-yard touchdown pass from Cole Snyder to Boobie Curry.

Trailing, 10-7, in the third quarter, another long drive (16 plays), ended with a 43-yard field goal by McNulty to tie the game late in the third quarter.

A key play in the game, came midway through the fourth quarter, when with the Zips driving, Max Michel forced and recovered a fumble at the UB 38-yard line.

Cole Snyder led the offense with 142 yards passing and a touchdown. Ron Cook had a career-high five catches in the game. Cook added 62 yards on the ground.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Grant who had a career-best 11 tackles. Joe Andreessen had nine tackles in the game. Michel had four tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss along with his forced and recovered fumble.

One of the unsung heroes of the game was punter Anthony Venneri who averaged 49.8 yards per punt and flipped the field on multiple occasions.

BUFFALO 37, CENTRAL MICHIGAN 13

OCT. 7, 2023 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Devin Grant had an historic day to lead a ferocious defensive effort in a 37-13 win over Central Michigan at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The sophomore safety had three interceptions, including two pick sixes to help the Bulls improve to 2-0 in Mid-American Conference play.

Buffalo forced four turnovers in the game and was able to convert them into 31 points. The defensive line was stout, allowing only 80 yards in the game, the lowest rushing total allowed by a UB opponent on the season.

Grant set the tone early, tipping a pass attempt to himself and returning it 29 yards for a touchdown on Central Michigan's third offensive play from scrimmage.

Midway through the first quarter, Red Murdock knocked the ball from the Central Michigan's receiver's hands and Jaylon Bass recovered it for the defense's second forced turnover of the game. It led to an Alex McNulty field goal to give the Bulls a 10-0 lead. McNulty finished with three field goals in the game.

With the Bulls leading 13-7 in the second quarter, Grant grabbed his second interception of the game near midfield. The Bulls capitalized with a Ron Cook, Jr. three-yard touchdown run to extend their lead to 20-7.

Grant's second pick six came on the Chippewas' opening drive of the second half. He stepped in front of the pass and raced 58 yards down the sideline for the score.

Grant is the first player in Buffalo's FBS era (since 1999) to have two pick sixes in a game and the first Bulls since Marcus Fuqua (last season against Toledo) to have three interceptions in a game.

Cook scored his second touchdown of the game on a one-yard run to put the Bulls up 37-7.

Cole Snyder was efficient for the Bulls under center. The graduate quarterback completed 20-of-32 passes for 232 yards. Bobbie Curry, Cole Harrity and Marlyn Johnson each had four catches in the game. Curry tallied a career-high 74 receiving yards.

Linebackers Joe Andreessen and Dion Crawford led the defense with six tackles apiece. Andreessen added a tackle for loss and two quarterback hurries. Red Murdock and C.J. Bazile added tackles for loss for the Bulls.

BOWLING GREEN 24, BUFFALO 14

OCT. 14, 2023 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team fell to Bowling Green, 24-14, on a rainy afternoon at UB Stadium on Saturday, spoiling UB's homecoming game and handing the Bulls their first loss in Mid-American Conference play.

Despite allowing 24 points, Buffalo's defense played well for the third straight game. Unfortunately, two game-changing plays went in favor of the Falcons in the first half, including a fumble returned to the UB 9-yard line that would later turn into a touchdown and a blocked punt that resulted in a score.

After the Bulls scored first to take a 7-0 lead on a 10-yard run by Cole Snyder, midway through the first quarter, the Falcons were able to score 24 straight points and led 24-7 at the half.

The UB defense clamped down and only allowed 59 yards of total offense and shutting out Bowling Green in the second half.

C.J. Ogbonna threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to Darrell Harding, Jr. with 3:02 left in the third quarter. Unfortunately, those were the only points the Bulls were able to score in the second half.

Buffalo was able to force three BG turnovers in the game. Marcus Fuqua pounced on a fumble in the first quarter that led to the Bulls' first touchdown. Charles McCartherens had an interception in the second quarter and Jayden Oliver had a pick in third quarter.

Devin Grant had a career-high 11 tackles, including a tackle for loss. Joe Andreessen tied his career high with nine tackles and added a tackle for loss and a forced fumble.

BUFFALO 24, KENT STATE 6

OCT. 23, 2023 • DIX STADIUM • KENT, OH

The University at Buffalo football team improved to 3-1 in Mid-American Conference play with a 24-6 win at Kent State on Saturday afternoon.

It was another standout performance by the UB defense who held the Golden Flashes to only 164 yards of total offense and only allowed two first-quarter field goals.

The defense was led by tackle Jaylon Bass who finished with four tackles, 1.5 sacks and his first career interception. He spearheaded a defense that only allowed 86 rushing yards and 78 yards through the air.

On offense, the Bulls established the run game early. Getting big runs from Jacqez Barksdale (39 yards) and Ron Cook, Jr. (32 yards), on back-to-back carries, to set up Buffalo's first touchdown.

Barskdale turned in his best rushing performance of the season. The junior running back ran for 84 yards on only 10 carries. He led a running back group that combined for 144 yards on the ground.

Trailing 6-0, the Bulls took the lead when Cole Snyder found a wide-open Andrew Schnackenberg for a two-yard touchdown. It was Schnackenberg's first career touchdown reception.

The Bulls extended their lead to 14-6 on their next possession when they drove 68 yards on 11 plays and Cook leapt over the pile for a one-yard score.

On their first possession of the second half, the Bulls were able to extend their lead courtesy of a 53-yard field goal by Alex McNulty. It was the graduate kicker's sixth career field goal of at least 50 yards.

Buffalo iced the game with a two-yard touchdown run by Al-Jay Henderson, midway through the fourth quarter. It was Henderson's first touchdown of the season.

Snyder threw for 195 yards and a touchdown in the game. His favorite target was Marlyn Johnson who had five receptions for 64 yards. Cole Harrity had three grabs for 57 yards and Darrell Harding, Jr. had three catches for 27 yards.

But this win was about the defense. Safety Devin Grant was flying all over the field, finishing with nine tackles and a tackle for loss. Linebacker Joe Andreessen added nine tackles and a sack.

TOLEDO 31, BUFFALO 13

OCT. 31, 2023 • GLASS BOWL • TOLEDO, OH

TOLEDO, OH – The University at Buffalo football lost at Toledo, 31-13, at the Glass Bowl on Tuesday night. The loss snapped the Bulls' two-game road winning streak.

Toledo, entering the game riding a seven-game winning streak, wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as the Rockets returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. Then, on their next, possession the Rockets scored on a long touchdown run to quickly take a 14-0 lead.

Devin Grant captured his fifth interception of the season and, with the aid of a penalty, was able to return it all the way down to the Toledo 12-yard line. Three plays later, Cole Snyder found Cole Harrity in the corner of the endzone for a four-yard touchdown.

Despite the final score, it was a strong showing by the Bulls defense. Buffalo forced four Toledo turnovers in the game. Max Michel forced two fumbles and Red Murdock forced one as well. Grant recovered two of the fumbles and added a blocked punt to go along with his interception.

The Bulls linebacker trio of Murdock, Joe Andreesen and Dion Crawford combined for 22 tackles and two tackles for loss.

After allowing a 72-yard touchdown run early in the game, the UB defense limited the Rockets, who rank third in the nation in rushing, to just 107 yards the rest of the game.

Jacqez Barksdale scored the Bulls second touchdown of the game on a one-yard run late in the third quarter.

Ron Cook, Jr. paced the offense with a season-high 97 yards rushing, while averaging 5.7 yards per carry.

OHIO 20, BUFFALO 10

NOV. 7, 2023 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Despite holding a high-powered Ohio squad to a season-low in total offense, the University at Buffalo football team fell to the Bobcats, 20-10, at UB Stadium on Tuesday night.

It was another strong performance by the Buffalo defense as they held Ohio to a season-low 236 yards of total offense in the game. The Bulls were especially stout in the first half, allowing Ohio to only run 14 plays for 41 yards and keeping the Bobcats off the scoreboard. UB took a 3-0 lead to the break thanks to a 41-yard field goal by Alex McNulty.

Ohio scored 10 unanswered points in the third quarter to take a 10-3 lead. C.J. Ogbonna, who split time at quarterback with Cole Snyder, tied the game early in the fourth quarter on a two-yard touchdown run. It was his second rushing touchdown of the season.

However, the Bobcats managed a field goal on their next possession to take a three-point advantage and, following a UB fumble, tacked on a touchdown to take a 20-10 lead in the closing minutes.

UB's defense was led by Joe Andreessen who had nine tackles in the game. Red Murdock added eight stops. Max Michel and George Wolo each recorded sacks for the Bulls.

Snyder threw for 171 yards to lead the offense. Boobie Curry had four receptions for 66 yards, including a career-long 48-yard grab. Ron Cook, Jr. also had four receptions for 25 yards and added 48 yards rushing.

Ogbonna, who was primarily a running quarterback in the game, finished with 47 yards rushing and a touchdown and completed both of his pass attempts.

MIAMI (OH) 23, BUFFALO 10

NOV. 15, 2023 • YAGER STADIUM • OXFORD, OH

OXFORD, OH – The University at Buffalo football team dropped their final road game of the season, 23-10, at Miami (OH) on Wednesday night.

It was a defensive battle early as neither team scored in the first quarter. The RedHawks struck first in the second quarter and were able to build a 10-0 lead late in the half. In the closing seconds of the half, Alex McNulty drilled a 47-yard field goal to cut the Miami advantage to 10-3 at the break.

After the RedHawks kicked a field goal early in the third quarter to take a 13-3 lead, the Bulls scored their first touchdown of the night on a three-yard run by CJ Ogbonna to cut the Miami lead to 13-10 with 2:14 left in the third quarter.

However, the RedHawks scored 10 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to put the game away.

It was a tough task for the Bulls as they faced the Mid-American Conference's top-ranked defense. Similar to recent games, Buffalo utilized a two-quarterback system. Cole Snyder threw for 120 yards, while Ogbonna rushed for a team-best 50 yards and a score.

Red Murdock led the Bulls with eight tackles, including two tackles for loss in the game. Fellow linebacker Joe Andreessen had seven tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss of his own. Max Michel also had 1.5 tackles for loss. In total, UB had eight tackles for loss in the game, twice that of the RedHawks.

EASTERN MICHIGAN 24, BUFFALO 11

NOV. 21, 2023 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Turnovers cost the University at Buffalo football team in a 24-11 loss to Eastern Michigan on a rainy Tuesday night at UB Stadium. Eastern Michigan was able to capitalize on three UB fumbles to spoil Buffalo's Senior Night.

All three of Buffalo's fumbles came in the first half, helping the Eagles jump out to 24-0 lead at the half. The Bulls defense shut down the Eagles in the second half, keeping EMU off the scoreboard.

Ron Cook, Jr. got the Bulls on the board with a six-yard touchdown run with 4:45 left in the third quarter. Cole Snyder connected with Cameron Ball for the two-point conversion to cut the Eastern Michigan lead to 24-8.

Alex McNulty's 40-yard field goal, midway through the fourth quarter, made the score 24-11. It was the final game of McNulty's career. He finished as the programs all-time leader in field goals (60), extra points (189) and scoring (369).

Snyder threw for 135 yards in the game to lead the offense. Marlyn Johnson had four catches for 80 yards, including a 39-yard catch. Darrell Harding, Jr. had two catches for 62 yards, including a 37-yard grab.

Cook finished with 43 yards on the ground. CJ Ogbonna also rushed for 43 yards on only six carries for a 7.2-yard average.

On defense, Devin Grant tied a career high with 11 tackles, including a career-best 10 solo stops. Joe Andreessen, playing in his final game as a Bull, had a career-high 11 tackles and added a tackle for loss and a pass breakup. Red Murdock also had a career-high with 10 tackles and added a tackle for loss and a forced fumble.

HISTORY OF UB FOOTBALL

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "...did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winningseason over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestical motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was hand-picked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of theYear honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

in 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transfered from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career takles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

The Bulls went 5-7 under first-year head coach Lance Leipold. Quarterback Joe Licata capped off his stellar career by setting nine different school passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and career touchdown passes (76).

In 2016, Jordan Johnson rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season, including a then school-record 282 yards in a game vs. Akron. Linebacker Khalil Hodge finished the season with 123 tackles , just two shy of the FBS-era record for a single season.

The Bulls won the final three games of the 2017 season to finish 6-6 and earn bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. In his first season at UB, junior wide receiver Anthony Johnson burst onto the scene with 76 catches for 1,356 yards and a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge set an FBS-era record with 154 tackles on the year.

2018 was arguably the best season in the FBS era. The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, including a 7-1 mark in conference play - their best since joining the MAC in 1999. Buffalo played in the MAC Championship game for the second time in school history, dropping a 30-29

heartbreaker to Northern Illinois. UB played in its third bowl game in program history, falling to Troy, 42-32, in the Dollar General Bowl. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first time a UB player won the award.

Even with the departure of key personnel, the 2019 season proved to be a special one for the Bulls. UB finished with a record of 8-5 and finished the campaign by winning six if its last seven games, including a 31-9 victory over Charlotte in the Bahamas Bowl for the school's first bowl game victory. Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson set single-season school records with 1,799 yards rushing and 19 rushing touchdowns and paced a rushing attack that set a school record with 3,256 yards. A program-record 12 players were named to the All-MAC team.

The 2020 campaign was shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, once the season started in early November, the Bulls quickly established themselves as one of the best teams in the MAC. UB blazed through the regular season a perfect 5-0 and even made an appearance in the Top 25 for the first time in program history. The Bulls lost to Ball State in the MAC Championship game, but rebounded to win their second bowl game in as many years, defeating Marshall, 17-10, in the Camellia Bowl. Jaret Patterson was the story of the 2020 season. The junior running back rushed for 1,072 yards and 19 touchdowns in only six games. He led the nation in rushing average (178.7 ypg) and eclipsed 1,000 yards in his fifth game, tying the FBS record for earliest game to reach 1,000 yards. He was the MVP of the MAC and earned All-America honors.

Maurice Linguist was named the 26th head coach in program history on May 8, 2021. He led the Bulls to a 4-8 record in his first season. Running back Dylan McDuffie rushed for 1,049 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year.

The Bulls went 7-6 in 2022 and won their third bowl game in program history, a 23-21 victory over Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl. Safety Marcus Fuqua led the nation in interceptions with seven en route to becoming just the third player in program history to be named an AP All-American. Kicker Alex McNulty made a school record 24 field goals and was named MAC Special Teams Player of the Year.

Despite a 3-9 record in 2023, the Bulls did have some standout performances. Safety Devin Grant had three interceptions, including two pick-sixes against Central Michigan and was named the Bronko Nagurski Defensive Player of the Week.

UB FOOTBALL HISTORY

EARLY YEARS

1846 - UB founded as a medical school.

1894 - Athletic Association founded, football play begins. UB falls to Hobart, 12-6, in first-ever game. UB finishes season 0-1-1.

1897 - UB finishes with a 7-0 record, its only undefeated season to date.

1903 - Program canceled due to lack of personnel, money and leadership.

1915 - Program is reinstated. Frank M. Pleasant becomes UB's first professional full-time coach.

1930s

1930 - Rotary Field dedicated by The Rotary Club of Buffalo.

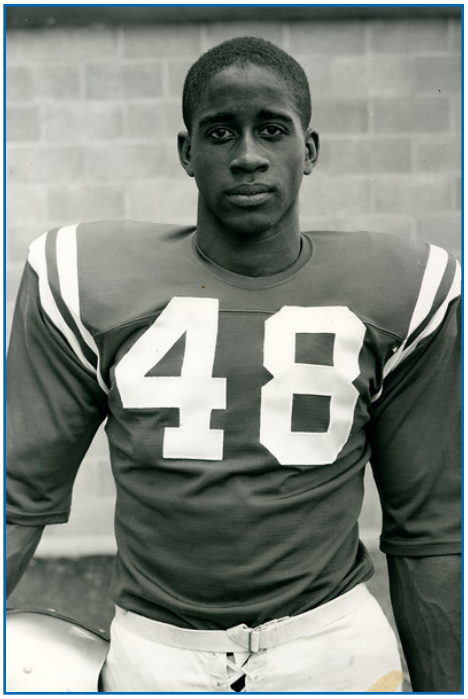

1931 - Local pro teams adopt "Bisons" nickname. UB takes the "Bulls" moniker.

1935 - Jim Peelle, former All-Big Ten quarterback, named head coach after the season.

1936 - In his first season at the helm, Peelle goes 6-3.

1940s

1943 - University's Policy and Coordination Committee votes to suspend all intercollegiate athletics for the duration of World War II.

One of the best running backs in school history, Willie Evans rushed for 1,150 yards and averaged 7.1 yards per carry over his final two seasons.

UB's first football team in 1894

1946 - Football returns. Team goes 7-2, playing all home games at Civic Stadium.

1947 - Football earns regional respect, posting an 8-1 record and outscoring opponents 258-87.

1948 - Peelle retires from football to concentrate on duties as Athletic Director; new coach Frank Clair leads Bulls to a 6-1-1 record.

1949 - Squad goes 6-3, post-war record is 27-8-1.

1950s

1951 - UB goes 4-4, drawing a record crowd of 26,126 in a 47-13 loss to Colgate at Civic Stadium.

1955 - Dick Offenhamer named head coach. New UB Chancellor Dr. Clifford Furnas institutes five-year plan to upgrade athletics. Bulls return to Rotary Field for home games.

1958 - Team goes 8-1, wins Lambert Cup for small eastern college supremacy, beating Harvard and Columbia. Bulls receive Tangerine Bowl bid, but Peelle declines because black players were not welcome. Offenhamer named National Coach of the Week after win over Columbia.

1959 - Another standout 8-1 season; Bulls are second to Delaware in Lambert Cup voting.

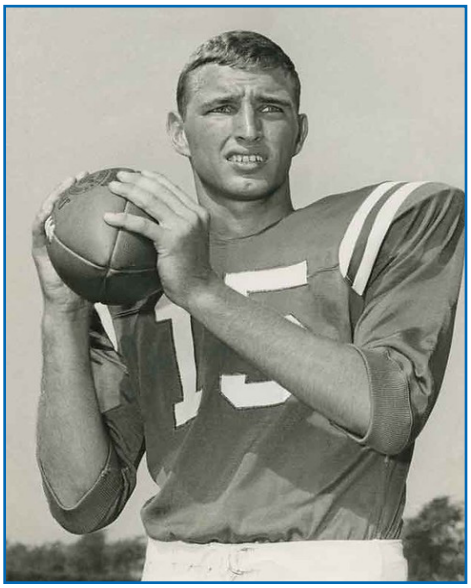

1960s

1960 - UB moves up to University Division status. Team goes 4-6.

1961 - First annual East-West All-America football game played at War Memorial Stadium. Quarterback John Stofa, who would later play for the Miami Dolphins and Cincinnati Bengals, was the game's Most Valuable Player.

1962 - UB recognized as "Major" by the NCAA. Team goes 6-3.

1963 - UB becomes part of the SUNY system; squad finishes 5-3-1. Defensive tackle Gerry Philbin became first modern Bull to be named All-East and played in the North-South and Coaches All-America post-season games before being drafted by the New York Jets where he was an All-AFL selection and played on the 1969 World Champion team.

Following a standout career at UB, quarterback John Stofa went on to play for the Miami Dolphins and Cincinnati Bengals.

1964 - Team goes 4-4-1; game at Boston University is televised nationally.

1966 - Offenhamer resigns; former Notre Dame assistant to legendary Ara Parseghian, Richard W. (Doc) Urich is named head coach.

1968 - Team goes 7-3, ranked 9th in Lambert Cup voting.

1969 - Bob Deming, a 10-year assistant under Offenhamer, becomes head coach. Squad goes 6-3.

1970s

1970 - Buffalo's last season in "Big Time" football for over 20 years. ABC refuses to show UB Marching Band's halftime protest of the Vietnam War on its coverage of the UB-Holy Cross game.

1971 - Financial problems forced the school to drop the program in January.

1977 - The program is reinstated at the Division III level with student, alumni and faculty support; squad goes 0-3-1 under new coach Bill Dando.

1980s

1983 - UB earns an 8-2 record, its best since 1959. Quarterback Marty Barrett is named Upstate NY Player of the Year.

1986 - In one of the most successful campaigns in the program's history, the Bulls post a 9-2 record. Bulls ranked as high as No. 15 in national polls.

1990s

1990 - Sam Sanders replaces Dando who leaves as UB's all-time winningest coach. Team goes 2-8.

1992 - Sanders forced to retire due to medical reasons. Offensive coordinator Jim Ward named head coach. Schedule upgrade continues, featuring a number of Division I-AA opponents. Team posts a 4-6 record, and set seven offensive records, including most points in a season (319).

1993 - Bulls return to Division I for the first time in over 20 years. 14,179 fans witness season opener in New UB Stadium.

1995 - In January, the University names UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80) as their 21st head coach. Later that summer, Director of Athletics Nelson Townsend announces that UB will be moving to Division I-A football in the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

1996 - The Bulls finish the regular season 8-3, the most wins against a Division I schedule since 1959. The Bulls are ranked in the Top 25 as a Division I program for the first time in school history on Nov. 18. Head coach Craig Cirbus is named the Division I-AA Independent Coach of the Year. Ed Ellis (fourth round to New England Patriots) becomes the first Bull in modern Division I era to be drafted.

The Bulls played at Rotary Field on what is now UB's South Campus until 1984.

1998 - UB surpasses NCAA mandated attendance count by averaging nearly 20,000 fans per game to gain admission to Division I-A football and the Mid-American Conference.

1999 - The Bulls join the MAC and begin play in the newly-expanded 31,000-seat UB Stadium, bringing I-A football to WNY. All-time leading receiver Drew Haddad selected in seventh round by Buffalo Bills.

2000s

2000 - Buffalo posts its first victory over a Division I-A opponent since 1970 when the Bulls score a dramatic 20-17 come-from-behind win over MAC rival Bowling Green on Sept. 23, 2000. After the season, Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane appoints Jim Hofher (Cornell, '79) as the 22nd head coach in UB football history.

2001 - The Bulls score one of the historic wins in school history with a 26-19 win at Army one week after posting their first Mid-American Conference shutout with a 44-0 win over Ohio.

2002 - Buffalo earns its first-ever victory over a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) team when it posts a shocking 34-11 win at Rutgers of the Big East.

2005 - The Bulls win at Kent State, 10-6, for their first Mid-American Conference road victory. Following the season, Athletic Director Warde Manuel appoints Turner Gill as the 23rd head coach in UB football history.

2006 - New head coach Turner Gill led the Bulls to a 2-10 record with wins over Temple and division-leading Kent State. The Bulls scored the most points in a season (220) since moving to

Ed Ellis was the first UB player in the modern Division I era to be drafted, picked by the New England Patriots in 1997.

Division I-A. Buffalo also scored the most points (201) of any team in the MAC East Division.

2007 - UB had is best season since returning to Division I-A by finishing the season 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the MAC for a share of the MAC East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year. A UB record eight players were named All-MAC, including James Starks who became the Bulls first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

2008 - Bulls have most successful season in Division I history. Finish the year 8-6, win the MAC Championship and play Connecticut in the International Bowl for first bowl appearence in school history. Quarterback Drew Willy finishes career by breaking nearly every school passing record. Only a junior, James Starks breaks the school record for career rushing with 3,142 yards. Naaman Roosevelt records 104 catches on the season - one shy of the Mid-American Conference record.

2009 - The Bulls finished 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for career receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551). Davonte Shannon became the first UB player to be a three-time All-MAC First Team selection. Following the season, Athletic Director Warde Manuel appoints Jeff Quinn as the 24th head coach in UB football history.

2010s

2010 - New head coach Jeff Quinn leads the Bulls to a 2-10 record. Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 en route to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. Josh Thomas selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

2011 - Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards on the season. Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5. Both players earned first-team All-MAC honors.

2012 - The Bulls finished the season strong by winning three of the final four games and went 4-8 overall. Steven Means was selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

2013 - UB went 8-5 and played San Diego State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl game. Running back Branden Oliver broke both the single season (1,535) and career (4,049) rushing records. Record seven Bulls were named All-MAC, including five to the First Team. Linebacker Khalil Mack earned All-American honors and was selected fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the NFL, becoming UB's highest ever NFL draft pick.

2014 - In a season in which the Bulls went 5-6, Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards - the second best single-season effort in school history. Joe Licata broke the single season (29) and career (60) passing touchdown school record. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the 5th round of the NFL Draft by the Seahawks. Following the season, Athletic Director Danny White named Lance Leipold the 25th head coach in program history.

In 2018, Tyree Jackson became the first UB player to be named MAC Offensive Player of the Year.

The signature play of the 2008 MAC Championship Game was a fumble returned 93 yards for a touchdown by game MVP Mike Newton to help lead the Bulls to an upset win over #14 Ball State.

2015 - Under first year head coach Lance Leipold, the Bulls finished 5-7. It was the most wins by a first-year head coach since Bob Deming won six games in 1969. Joe Licata finished his career holding numerous passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and passing touchdowns (76). Matt Weiser was named an Academic All-American after shattering the single-season school record for receptions (63) and receiving yards (625) by a tight end.

2016 - Jordan Johnson rushed for a school-record 282 yards in a win over Akron. Mason Schreck had 651 receiving yards - the most ever by a tight end in school history. Schreck was selected in the 7th round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

2017 - UB went 6-6 and earned bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. Anthony Johnson ranked second in the nation in receiving, averaging 113 yards per game and scored a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge ranked second in the nation in tackles with 154 - a school record in the Bulls' FBS era.

2018 - The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, finishing with a 10-4 record. They won the MAC East Division and earned a spot in the MAC title game for the second time in school history - losing to Northern Illinois, 30-29. UB played Troy in the Dollar General Bowl, the team's third bowl appearance in program history. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year and running back Jaret Patterson was named MAC Freshman of the Year.

2019 - The Bulls made history by winning their first ever bowl game, defeating Charlotte, 31-9, in the Bahamas Bowl. Jaret Patterson set a school-record by rushing for 1,799 yards on the season. UB ranked second in the nation in sacks allowed (8) and fourth in the country in rushing defense (94.2). A school-record 12 Bulls were named to the All-MAC team.

2020 - In a COVID-19-shortened season, the Bulls went 5-0 to win the MAC East Division and earn a spot in the MAC Championship Game. Despite losing to Ball State in the title game, UB rebounded to defeat Marshall in the Camellia Bowl for their second straight bowl win. The Bulls were ranked nationally for the first time in program history, reaching as high as 23rd in the AP poll. Jaret Patterson rushed for 409 yards (second in NCAA history) and eight touchdowns (tied NCAA record) against Kent State. Defensive end Malcolm Koonce was drafted in the third round (79th) by the Las Vegas Raiders.

2021 - On May 8, 2021 Athletic Director Mark Alnutt introduced Maurice "Mo" Linguist as the 26th head coach in program history. The Bulls went 4-8 in his first season.

2022 - In only his second season at Buffalo, Lingusit led the Bulls to a 7-6 record and a victory over Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl for the third bowl win in program history. Safety Marcus Fuqua led the nation in interceptions with seven en route to being named a Associated Press All-American. Linebacker Shaun Dolac set a school record with 90 solo tackles that were also tops in the country. Alex McNulty made a school-record 24 field goals and was named the MAC Special Teams Player of the Year.

Jaret Patterson rushed for a school and MAC-record 409 yards and tied an NCAA record with eight touchdowns against Kent State on Nov. 28, 2020.

TORONTO, ONTARIO - The University at Buffalo's magical 2008 season was derailed by a powerful Connecticut team that was able to dominate both lines of scrimmage en route to a 38-20 win over the Bulls at the third annual International Bowl at Rogers Centre. The game was played in front of an International Bowl record 40,184 fans, of which roughly 30,000 were wearing the Royal Blue and White of the Bulls.

The Bulls late-season magic seemed to be ready to carry into 2009 when Buffalo used five UConn turnovers to race to a 20-10 first-half lead. However, the Huskies (8-5) scored the last 28 points of the game behind 261 yards by the nation's leading rusher, Donald Brown, to subdue the Bulls.

Buffalo (8-6) still had an opportunity to win in the game's final minutes, but a pass by senior quarterback Drew Willy was broken up in the end zone and returned 100 yards for a score by Dahan Deleston with 2:15 remaining. The loss did not dampen head coach Turner Gill's feelings about his team.

After falling behind to the Huskies, 10-3, early in the second quarter, the Bulls' late-season propensity for forcing turnovers showed itself again in a huge way, leading to Buffalo scoring on three straight possessions.

The Bulls first big break came when freshman punter Peter Fardon boomed a 54-yard punt that was mishandled by Jasper Howard into his own end zone where Buffalo freshman Ray Anthony Long fell on it for his first career touchdown. That tied the score 10-10 with 11:36 left in the half.

The very next possession, UConn quarterback Tyler Lorenzen was sacked by UB's Anel Montanez and Andrae Smith, with the ball coming loss and being recovered by defensive end Jerry Housey at the UConn 18-yard line.

The Bulls, however, had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by sophomore A.J. Principe that gave Buffalo its second lead at 13-10 with 8:22 left before half.

The magic continued on the ensuing kickoff, when UConn's Robbie Frey fumbled the kickoff into his endzone, was crunched by linebacker Justin Winters at the six-yard line and coughed up the ball, recovered by UB's John Syty at the Huskies four-yard line.

One play later, junior tailback James Starks ran over a Huskie defender at the one-yard line to put Buffalo up 20-10 – after the PAT – with 7:55 left in the second quarter.

In that incredible sequence, UB scored 17 points in 3:41 of game time while running four offensive plays.

The game's momentum, however, began to swing back to the Connecticut side late in the first half. That's when Brown, on a first-and-10 from the UConn 12-yard line, busted a 75-yard run to the UB 13-yard line. Lorenzen scored on the game's next play and cut the Buffalo lead to 20-17 at intermission.

For the remainder of the game, UConn's stout defense and outstanding offensive line would dominate, allowing the Huskies to rush for 358 yards in the game. The Bulls, meanwhile, would suffer through their worst offensive performance of the year. UConn held Starks to just 46 yards on 24 touches (13 carries, 11 receptions), while Willy finished 29-of-43 for 213 yards, but was held without a touchdown pass for just the second game this season.

Flanker Naaman Roosevelt capped an incredible campaign with eight receptions for 90 yards, becoming the first UB receiver to ever record 100 catches in a season – finishing just one away from the all-time MAC record with 104 catches for 1,402 yards – both easily UB school records.

The Bulls defense, which played valiantly by forcing four fumbles – was paced by sophomore Davonte Shannon who had 15 tackles – one for loss – including 10 solo stops and added his first career blocked kick. Winters added eight tackles and a forced fumble, while Montanez had three tackles, a half-sack, a two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

BOISE, ID – Playing in just its second bowl game in school history, the University at Buffalo football team lost to San Diego State, 49-24, in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl at Bronco Stadium on Saturday night. The Bulls end their season with an 8-5 record.

Buffalo, a team which prided itself on taking care of the football all season, turned the ball over three times in the game. The Aztecs capitalized by scoring 21 points off those turnovers.

San Diego State jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter before the UB offense awoke. The Bulls drove 75 yards and cut the lead in half when Joe Licata connected with Branden Oliver on a 10-yard screen pass to make the score 14-7 with 7:51 left in the half. For a player who has had 33 rushing touchdowns over his career, it was surprisingly his first career receiving touchdown.

After the Bulls defense forced a San Diego State three-and-out on its ensuing possession, they were back in business. UB drove to the Aztec 27-yard line and a Patrick Clarke 38-yard field goal cut the lead to 14-10 with 4:01 left in the half.

However, the Aztecs scored on their next possession and then with just over a minute to play in the half came up with an interception off a tipped pass. Just one play later, they punched it into the endzone to take a 28-10 lead with 38 seconds left in the half. The way the end of the half transpired seemed to take the wind out of UB's sails.

Things didn't get better for the Bulls as they fumbled the opening kickoff of the second half and San Diego State quickly struck for another touchdown to take a 35-10 lead. The Aztecs extended their lead to 42-10 before the UB offense got on the board again. Licata connected with Alex Neutz on a 23-yard touchdown strike to cut the lead to 42-17 with 14:53 left in the game. Neutz finished his career with a school-record 31 touchdown receptions.

San Diego State running back Adam Muema was dominant in the game and his third touchdown of the day put San Diego State ahead, 49-17. Muema was the MVP of the game after rushing for 229 yards and three scores.

The Bulls scored their final touchdown of the game when Licata found Fred Lee from 10 yards out with just 36 seconds left to make the final score, 49-24.

After a slow start, Licata finished the game by throwing for 196 yards and three touchdowns. He finished the season with 23 touchdown passes, one shy of the school record of 24 set by Drew Willy in 2008.

Oliver was named the Player of the Game for Buffalo after rushing for 114 yards. It was his 20th career 100-yard game – seven more than any other player in school history. He finished his outstanding career rushing for a school-record 4,049 yards. He is just the 13th player in Mid-American Conference history to rush for over 4,000 yards.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Adam Redden who had nine tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

San Diego State ran most its plays away from All-American linebacker Khalil Mack as he was limited to six tackles. He did add a pass breakup and a fumble recovery. The loss brings an end to the storied career of Mack, arguably the greatest linebacker, if not player, in school history. He holds the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA record for career tackles for loss with 75.

MOBILE, AL – The University at Buffalo football team uncharacteristically turned the ball over four times and it proved to be the difference in a 42-32 loss to Troy in the Dollar General Bowl held at Ladd-Peebles Stadium on Saturday night. The Trojans were able to score 14 points off turnovers and had possession of the ball for much of the second half.

It started out well for the Bulls as, like they had done many times this season, went right down and scored on their first possession of the game. After Antonio Nunn hauled in a deflected pass for a 51-yard gain, Jaret Patterson scored on an 11-yard touchdown run to give Buffalo a quick 7-0 lead.

Troy needed just three plays to tie the game, as Trojan quarterback Sawyer Smith hit a streaking Tray Eafford in stride for a 60-yard touchdown.

The Bulls mounted a 14-play, 96-yard drive, early in the second quarter, and Kevin Marks capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown dive to give the Bulls a 14-7 lead with 11:06 left in the half.

After the Trojans tied the game at 14-14 with 6:15 left in the second quarter, the Bulls mounted a 10-play, 41-yard drive and Adam Mitcheson drilled a 41-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give UB a 17-14 lead at the half.

The Trojans took the opening kick of the second half and kept their offense on the field for the entire third quarter. After mounting a 75-yard scoring touchdown drive on their first possession to take a 21-17 lead, Troy surprised the Bulls with an onside kick and got the ball right back. However, with the ball inside the UB 5-yard line and it looking like Troy was going to score again, James Patterson came up with a big hit to jar the ball loose from the Trojans quarterback. Safety Tyrone Hill scooped it up and dashed 93-yards for a touchdown to put the Bulls back up, 24-21.

However, a gassed UB defense remained on the field and Troy capitalized. The Trojans needed 12 plays to drive 69 yards and scored on a 2-yard touchdown pass to regain a 28-24 lead early in the fourth quarter. Following a 3-and-out by the Bulls, Troy struck again, connected on a 45-yard touchdown pass to build its lead to 35-24 with 11:25 left in the game.

The Bulls didn't give up. K.J. Osborn made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab to cut the deficit to 35-30. On the ensuing 2-point conversion try, Tyree Jackson scrambled, eluded rushers and found Nunn in the endzone for the conversion. The Bulls trailed 35-32 with 7:24 left in the game.

Following a Wesley Scott third-down sack, the Bulls got the ball back on their own 21-yard line with 3:28 left and trailing by three. However, on the first play of the drive, Jackson was sacked and fumbled the ball. It was recovered by Troy. On the very next play, the Trojans ran it in for a touchdown to extend their lead to 42-32.

Despite the loss, a number of Bulls finished the season by hitting significant milestones. Patterson rushed for 67 yards in the game to put him over 1,000 for the season. With 1,013 yards on the year, he became the first freshman running back in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Anthony Johnson had 67 yards on five catches to go over 1,000 yards on the year. He became just the third player in school history to have two 1,000-yard seasons in a career.

Jackson threw for 274 yards in the game to put him over 3,000 for the season. He joined Drew Willy (2008) as just the second quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 yards in a single season with 3,131.

NASSAU, BAHAMAS – History was made on Saturday afternoon as the University at Buffalo football team won the first bowl game in school history by defeating Charlotte, 31-9, in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl played at Thomas Robinson Stadium in Nassau, Bahamas

Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson was named the Offensive Most Valuable player after rushing for 173 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

While Patterson paced the offensive attack, it was the defense that shined in the Bahamas sun. Charlotte, one of top rushing teams in Conference USA, and 25th nationally, was limited to just 80 yards on the ground. Junior defensive end Malcolm Koonce was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player after tallying five tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble. He had two of UB's five sacks in the game.

The Bulls wasted little time getting on the board as they scored on their first possession. Kyle Vantrease connected with Antonio Nunn on a 12-yard fade pattern to give UB a 7-0 lead with 9:12 left in the first quarter.

Vantrease called his own number with a quarterback sneak, with three minutes left in the half, to give the Bulls a 14-0 lead.

Linebacker James Patterson made one of the biggest defensive plays of the game when he came up with an interception on Charlotte's first play of its ensuing possession. The Bulls were able to convert that into a 31-yard Alex McNulty field goal to take a 17-0 lead at the half.

Buffalo extended its lead to 24-0 on a 6-yard Patterson touchdown run, his first of the game, with 5:22 left in the third quarter.

Charlotte finally got on the board late in the third quarter on a 51-yard touchdown pass. Linebacker Matt Otwinowski sniffed out the 49ers' two-point conversion try to keep it a three-score game, 24-6.

After Charlotte kicked a field goal to make the score 24-9 with 10 minutes left in the game, the offense put together its most impressive drive of the game. The Bulls mounted a 16-play, 75-yard drive that took over nine minutes off the clock. Patterson put the game on ice with a 10-yard touchdown run with 1:43 left.

With a couple injuries on defense, reserve players had to step up. Junior cornerback Ali Abbas was one of those players as had a career-high nine tackles and a big pass breakup.

Seniors Joey Banks and Devon Russell finished their career on a high note with nine and seven tackles, respectively. Fellow senior Ledarius Mack's sack was the final play of the game.

MONTGOMERY, AL – Kevin Marks, Jr. scored on a 2-yard touchdown run with just over one minute to play and the defense withstood a late rally to lift the University at Buffalo football team to a 17-10 win over Marshall in the 2020 Camellia Bowl on Friday afternoon in Montgomery, AL. It was the second straight year the Bulls were victorious in a bowl game.

While the offense got the headlines all season, it was the UB defense that had its finest performance of the year to hold off the Thundering Herd. The Bulls held Marshall to 248 yards of total offense.

Marks was named the game's MVP after rushing for 138 yards and a touchdown in the game. The junior running back was effective early rushing for 117 yards in the first half. This against a Marshall squad that was ranked second in the nation in rushing defense.

The Bulls opened the scoring on a 1-yard touchdown run by Vantrease early in the second quarter. Alex McNulty added a 25-yard field goal with 5:33 left in the half to extend the UB lead to 10-0.

Marshall got a spark late in second quarter by scoring a touchdown with just 42 seconds on the clock to cut the UB lead to 10-7 at the half. The Thundering Herd came out and kicked a short field goal on their first possession of the second half and suddenly the game was tied, 10-10.

The score would remain tied until late in the contest. After Eric Black came up with a sack on third down, the Thundering Herd punted the ball back to the Bulls. UB started its game-winning drive at its own 12-yard line with 7:27 left on the clock.

The Bulls methodically marched down the field behind the arm of quarterback Kyle Vantrease. The junior signal-caller first connected with Jovany Ruiz to pick up a 3rd-and-7 at the UB 44. The key play on the drive was a 26-yard completion to Antonio Nunn, setting up the Bulls at the Marshall 18. After two short runs, the Bulls were faced with another third down. Vantrease threaded the needle to Nunn for a 12-yard completion and UB had the ball at the Marshall 1-yard line. Two plays later, Marks waltzed into the endzone for the game winning score.

On Marshall's ensuing possession, it drove all the way down to the UB 20. However, Kadofi Wright broke through the line for a sack. Two plays later, on fourth down, Black thwarted the comeback attempt with his second sack of the game.

James Patterson had a team-high nine tackles in the game and Cory Gross, Jr. finished with eight. Max Michel had the best game of his career, finishing with six tackles, a sack, 1.5 tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Vantrease finished 16-of-27 for 140 yards. Ruiz, who was just awarded a scholarship the night before, was his favorite target. The Fredonia native finished with seven catches for 61 yards, both career highs. Nunn had four catches for 49 yards.

The Bulls finished the season 6-1 and bowl champions for the second straight season. It was the second bowl win in program history.

MONTGOMERY, AL – For the second time in three years, the University at Buffalo football team hoisted the Camellia Bowl trophy over its heads as bowl champions, defeating Georgia Southern, 23-21, at the Cramton Bowl on Tuesday afternoon. An undermanned Bulls squad had reserve players step up all day to help UB win its third bowl in program history.

Players like Clevester Hines, who before this week was a wide receiver, was forced to start at cornerback and finished with seven tackles and three pass breakups. He helped the Bulls slow down a pass-happy, high-powered Georgia Southern offense. On the offensive side of the ball, running back Tajay Ahmed was pressed into action due to injuries and responded by rushing for a career-high 98 yards and a touchdown.

While several new faces stepped up, the usual old reiables paced the Bulls, especially early. Wide receiver Justin Marshall had 11 catches for 127 yards, both career highs, and scored UB's first touchdown of the game enroute to being named the bowl's Most Valuable Player.

Marshall was the favorite target of quarterback Cole Snyder who threw for 265 yards and a score. He became just the third quarterback in program history to throw for 3,000 yards in a season. Snyder also connected with Quian Williams five times for 100 yards.

Buffalo took a 14-6 lead late in the first half on a short touchdown run by Ahmed.

Georgia Southern responded early in the second half by quickly tying the game on a long touchdown pass. However, the Bulls answered with consecutive Alex McNulty field goals to take a 20-14 lead into the fourth quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter, Dylan Powell came up with his first career interception to set up UB at the Georgia Southern 40-yard line. The Bulls were able to drive down the field and McNulty hit a chip shot to extend the UB lead to nine. It was McNulty's third field goal of the game and 49th of his career, breaking the program's all-time record.

The Eagles scored a touchdown, with 3:38 left, to cut the UB advantage to two points. However, the Bulls were able to get two key first downs and Georgia Southern never got the ball back.

Linebacker Shaun Dolac led the UB defense with 13 tackles and added a forced fumble that was recovered by Jalen McNair to set up a UB field goal. Fellow linebacker James Patterson, making his 56th and final career start for the Bulls, had eight tackles, including a tackle for loss.

It was the third straight bowl win for the Bulls after winning the 2019 Bahamas Bowl and 2020 Camellia Bowl.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today…and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories – the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania… we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said. "[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start – it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

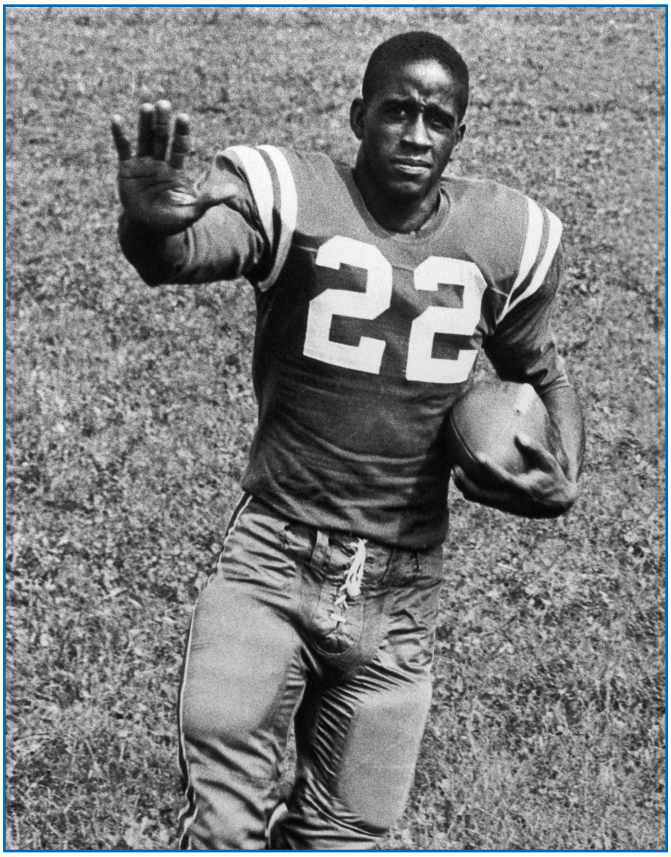

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark…we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has changed so dramatically…we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Willie Evans averaged 7.6 yards per carry for 530 yards in 1958

Colleges."

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there…' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

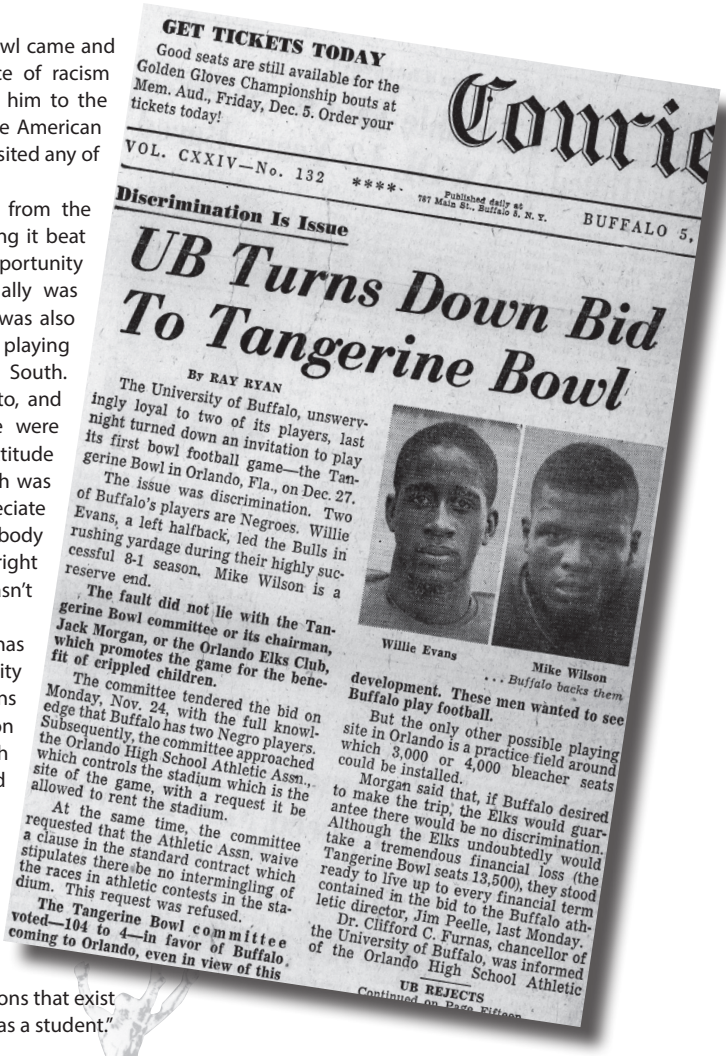

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual… his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration… there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

Discrimination Is Issue

UB Turns Down Bid To Tangerine Bowl

By RAY RYAN

The University of Buffalo, unswervingly loyal to two of its players, last night turned down an invitation to play its first bowl football game—the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 27.

The issue was discrimination. Two of Buffalo's players are Negroes. Willie Evans, a left halfback, led the Bulls in rushing yardage during their highly successful 8-1 season. Mike Wilson is a reserve end.

The fault did not lie with the Tangerine Bowl committee or its chairman, Jack Morgan, or the Orlando Elks Club, which promotes the game for the benefit of crippled children.

The committee tendered the bid on Monday, Nov. 24, with the full knowledge that Buffalo has two Negro players. Subsequently, the committee approached the Orlando High School Athletic Assn., which controls the stadium which is the site of the game, with a request it be allowed to rent the stadium.

At the same time, the committee requested that the Athletic Assn. waive a clause in the standard contract which stipulates there be no intermingling of the races in athletic contests in the stadium. This request was refused.

The Tangerine Bowl committee voted—10-4 to 4—in favor of Buffalo coming to Orlando, even in view of this development. These men wanted to see Buffalo play football.

But the only other possible playing site in Orlando is a practice field around which 3,000 or 4,000 bleacher seats could be installed.

Morgan said that, if Buffalo desired to make the trip, the Elks would guarantee there would be no discrimination. Although the Elks undoubtedly would take a tremendous financial loss (the Tangerine Bowl seats 13,500), they stood ready to live up to every financial term contained in the bid to the Buffalo athletic director, Jim Peelle, last Monday.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, chancellor of the University of Buffalo, was informed of the Orlando High School Athletic Solomon Jackson, who played for the Bulls in 2014 and 2015, passed away unexpectedly following an offseason workout on February 29, 2016. Respected and beloved by his teammates, Jackson played both linebacker and defensive end over his career.

In addition to the slogan ALL41 prominently displayed throughout the Murchie Family Football Center to honor his legacy, Jackson's #41 has been worn by a different player each game to honor the his legacy.

In 2016 and 2017, players were chosen by the coaching staff to wear "41" for the entire year. Cornerback Boise Ross wore it for the 2016 season, while linebacker Jarrett Franklin wore it in 2017.

Since 2018, the coaching staff has rotated #41 on a weekly basis honoring players who have embodied Jackson's work ethic and character.

Here is a list of every player who has worn #41.
