BUFFALO, NY – Down by 16 entering the fourth quarter, the University at Buffalo women's basketball team engineered one of their patented second half comebacks as they rallied to an 84-82 overtime win over UMass in the second round of the WNIT in front of a boisterous Alumni Arena crowd on Sunday afternoon. It is the sixth fourth quarter comeback by UB this season, and third by a deficit of 10+ points.

It is the first postseason win for Buffalo since 2019 when the Bulls defeated Rutgers in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

It was a balanced effort as five Bulls scored in double figures, led by Chellia Watson who had a historic day as she scored a game-high 26 points, including the 2,000th point of her storied career. Fifth year guard Noelani Cornfield also had a milestone afternoon as she recorded a double-double with 12 points and a career-high 15 assists, which is one shy of the single-game program record and surpasses the 500 career-assist mark. Senior forwards Jordyn Beaty and Ariana Seawell came up big for the Bulls, scoring 14 and 12 points, respectively, and sophomore Kirsten Lewis-Williams also scored in double figures with 12 points to go with a game-high five steals.

The Bulls scored on their first two possessions of the game to take an early lead, but the visitors then scored on three straight trips down the floor to take a 12-6 lead at the media timeout. Watson got to the rim for a layup before Lewis-Williams added a pair of fastbreak buckets, the latter to beat the buzzer, to pull UB within three at the end of the first.

The Minutewomen hit a three on the first possession of the second quarter, but Lewis-Williams and Cornfield continued to attack to keep UB within five, 25-20, at the media timeout. The visitors drained a triple to go up by three, but Buffalo continued to attack as Cornfield found Seawell on the block for a layup and Lewis-Williams came up with a big-time block at the buzzer to cut the lead to 33-31 at the half.

Cornfield scored on UB's first possession of the third quarter and then Beaty knocked down a pair of free throws, but UMass answered with a 13-4 run to take a 10-point lead at the media timeout and they would lead 61-45 at the end of the third.

The Bulls then locked down defensively and turned defense into offense as they held the Minutewomen without a field goal for five minutes and capitalized, as they rattled off a 12-0 run to cut the lead to four at the 5:11 mark. After the visitors hit a three to end the drought, the Bulls answered with three straight buckets in the paint before converting four straight at the charity stripe to go up by two with just over one minute remaining. After UMass tied the game on a jumpshot with 55 seconds to go, the Bulls had a chance to win it in the final seconds but could not convert as the game headed to overtime.

Watson got the rebound off the opening tip in extra time and got a floater in the lane to drop and later, Beaty and Seawell went to work inside and scored on a pair of big layups to put UB up by two at the 1:50 mark and the Bulls came up with key defensive stops to secure the victory.

"I'm so grateful for everybody that came out and supported us today," said head coach Becky Burke. "Our atmosphere was amazing. I am so proud of our team and the toughness they showed for a full 40 minutes today. Our goal is to keep playing as long as we can, and we took a step toward that today. Excited for the next opportunity.

Up next, Buffalo will travel to Southern Indiana for a Super 16 contest on Thursday, March 27 at 7pm [EST].

Becky BURKE

Head Coach • Third Season Louisville '12

Becky Burke is entering her third season at the helm of the Bulls after being named the 13th head women's basketball coach in school history on April 6, 2022.

In her second season at the helm of the Bulls, Burke led UB to a 19-win season, a trip to the MAC Championship game and an appearance in the postseason WNIT. The Bulls won 10 games in league play, a seven-win improvement from a season ago which is the highest improvement of any MAC school, while also finishing fourth after being picked eighth in the MAC preseason poll. Under her guidance, Chellia Watson earned Honorable Mention All-America and First Team All-MAC honors while ranking fourth in the nation in scoring and Kirsten Lewis-Williams was named MAC Freshman of the Year and earned All-MAC Honorable Mention recognition. Off the court, Buffalo had two Academic All-District honorees.

In year one, Burke led the Bulls to a 12-16 overall record. Picked 10th in the Mid-American Conference preseason coaches poll, the Bulls closed the season strong and finished eighth, earning a spot in the MAC Tournament quarter-finals. Under her guidance, Re'Shawna Stone earned Second Team All-MAC honors and she fostered the growth of Zakiyah Winfield who was the top rebounding guard in the nation and finished in the top 20 in the nation in rebounding and double-doubles. The Bulls ranked in the top half of the league in field goal percentage (.438), three-point field goal percentage (.343), scoring defense (65.1), three-point field goal defense (.315), assists per game (13.8) and assist-to-turnover ratio (+1.0).

Burke spent two successful seasons as the head coach of USC Upstate. She took over the program in 2020 and immediately led the Spartans to five Big South Conference victories, their most in four seasons. In just her second year, Burke engineered one of the best turnarounds in the country, leading an Upstate team picked 10th in the preseason to the No. 3 overall seed and a first-round bye in the 2022 Big South Championship. Her club tied the program's Division I era record for overall wins (22) and conference victories (14) while holding the D1 era's longest winning streak (seven games) as the team made a 14-win improvement from the previous season. Under her guidance, freshman Rachael Rose earned Big South Freshman of the Year honors and Chellia Watson joined Rose as an All-Conference honoree, earning first-team All-Big South accolades. The Spartans finished the season ranked sixth in the nation in field goal percentage.

Prior to taking the reins at Upstate, Burke had an impressive two-year stint at the NCAA DII level as the head coach at the University of Charleston in West Virginia. She brought the Golden Eagles back to national prominence in just her first season at the helm of the program in 2018-19, leading the team to a 25-7 record which was a 12-win improvement from the previous year. The Golden Eagles cracked the national top-25 that season and made their first NCAA Tournament since 2014 while leading the country in field goal percentage and the Mountain East Conference in defensive scoring. Burke coached a pair of first-team all-conference picks which included a DII All-American.

In her second year, the Golden Eagles entered the 2019-20 season as the conference's preseason No. 2 team and went on to a 23-7 record while once again leading the conference in defensive scoring behind another pair of all-conference picks and the MEC Freshman of the Year.

Prior to her time at Charleston, Burke started the women's basketball program at Embry Riddle Aeronautical University in Prescott, AZ. in 2015 and went on to be the head coach of the Eagles for two seasons. She led the team to a winning record in its inaugural campaign in 2016-17. In her second season at ERAU, the Eagles ranked nationally in the NAIA top-25 and compiled a 21-6 record, including 11-3 in the California Pacific Conference. Burke recruited and coached three all-conference performers in two seasons at ERAU.

Burke earned a spot on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association 30-Under-30 list in 2019. She was the only head coach to appear on the exclusive list.

Before her head coaching career, Burke served as an assistant coach at Saint Joseph's College for the 2014-15 season where she was the recruiting coordinator and strength and conditioning coach while also being responsible for player development, scouting, and scheduling. Prior to that, she was the director of basketball operations at California State Fullerton in 2013-14.

Burke had a standout playing career at the University of Louisville where she graduated with a degree in sports management in 2012. In four years as a Cardinal, she helped lead her team to three NCAA Tournament appearances including the championship game in 2009 and the Sweet Sixteen in 2011. She led the Cards in scoring her sophomore year and in 3-point field goal percentage her junior year. She tied a then school record for 3-pointers in a game (8) her senior year and ranks fifth all-time in 3-pointers made (249). Burke is a member of the 1,000-point club and was just the second Cardinal to participate in the State Farm College 3-Point Shoot-Out in 2012, finishing as the runner-up.

A native of Clarks Summit, PA, Burke starred at her hometown high school, Abington Heights. She was named the Pennsylvania Class 4A Player of the Year her senior year by the Associated Press and scored over 2,100 points in her four-year high school career.
