2002-03 Year-in-Review

Milestones & Achievements

- On March 11, Chancellor Larry Vanderhoef announced that UC Davis will join the Big West Conference, thus moving the institution from Division II to Division I of the NCAA. The press conference came just four months after the passing of the Campus Expansion Initiative which includes an increase in student fees that will help fund athletics grants-in-aid, among other enhancements to student services. Shortly after the vote, the university officially declared 2002-03 an exploratory year in its consideration of a move to Division I.

- UC Davis won its sixth NACDA Directors' Cup, scoring an all-time best 857.0 points. The Aggies scored in 13 of a possible 14 sports, beating Grand Valley State's total of 797.5. The award represents the fourth straight for UC Davis, which has never finished lower than second place. The Lakers' total is the second-highest score in Directors' Cup history.

- All-American sprinter Tanisha Silas captured NCAA Woman of the Year honors for the 2001-02 athletic year. She joins Jamila Demby (2000) as the second Aggie to capture what is arguably the NCAA's most prestigious individual honor. Furthermore, Silas is the third UC Davis student-athlete to finish among the top 10 for the honor. All three women – Silas, Demby and 2001 finalist Kameelah Elarms – were members of the Aggies' 4x400 relay squad at the 1999 NCAA meet. In all, four UC Davis student-athletes have been California state-level honorees. Women's soccer standout Kim Haskell became the first Aggie to earn that distinction in 1997.

- Women's track & field coach Deanne Vochatzer was inducted into the U.S. Track Coaches Association Hall of Fame during ceremonies in St. Louis during December.

- Longtime assistant football coach Fred Arp was named a winner of an AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year

Award. A member of the Aggie coaching staff since 1966, he is one of 524 assistant coaches at the high school and collegiate level nationwide – representing a variety of team sports – chosen for the award among thousands of nominations.

- UC Davis football posted its 33rd consecutive winning season, extending its Division II record. The Aggies also advanced to NCAA postseason play for the seventh straight year and made their 18th overall playoff appearance to edge North Dakota State for that D-II standard.
- Shortstop Ryan Coultas was selected by the Chicago Cubs in the 13th round of the Amateur Baseball Draft. He is the first Aggie position player to be drafted since the 1994 season when shortstop Greg Morris, catcher Rich Watts and outfielder Hayward Cook were selected.
- Jeremiah Jarvis became the first UC Davis wrestler to win a Pac-10 Conference wrestling title, winning by injury default in the first period against Cal St. Bakersfield's Brian Cobb. Coincidentally, two of Cobb's brothers – Jared and David – are former teammates of Jarvis.

- Concluding what is possibly the best-ever freshman year by any Aggie in any sport, Yuka Kobayashi captured both the 100 butterfly and 200 backstroke national titles at the NCAA Swimming & Diving Championships in March. In doing so, she became only the second Aggie in program history to capture multiple championships in one year, joining Hall of Famer Kristi Wheeler, who performed the feat in 1987. Kobayashi set a total of 11 school records – seven individual and four in relays – and established a D-II mark in the 200 fly (2:00.78).

- After a nationwide search, UC Davis hired Gary Stewart as its 22nd head men's basketball coach, replacing Brian Fogel. Stewart served on UCLA's basketball staff in 2002-03 after spending the three previous years as an assistant coach at Washington State. Fogel posted an 89-49 mark in his five years at the helm of the Aggie men's hoop program.

- The Aggie women's cross country team advanced to the NCAA Championships for the 22nd straight year, extending its record. UC Davis has placed among the top 10 in 21 of those seasons, another D-II best.
- Former UC Davis standouts William C. Adams (coach), John "Skip" Edgemond (swimming), Jenn Thatcher O'Reilly (track, cross country), Heather Hunter (softball) and Jennifer Gross (basketball) were inducted into the Cal Aggie Athletic Hall of Fame during ceremonies in June. Additionally, longtime booster Janet Henderson captured Special Recognition honors for her contributions as a volunteer.

- UC Davis women's swimming captured its first-ever Pacific Collegiate Swimming Conference title, amassing a total of 1,293 points to edge UC San Diego. The program's previous best finish was fourth, which it had done in 1994 and in each of the last two seasons.
- A total of five student-athletes – Susan Churchwell (softball), Sopagna Eap (track, cross country), Greg Lee (tennis), Matt Davie (swimming) and Cynthia Rail (soccer) – captured NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship Awards. The total of five eclipses the previous UC Davis best of four set in 2001. Each winner is awarded $6,900 toward graduate school. In all, UC Davis has boasted a total of 38 winners, the highest total among Division II and higher than that of such top academic institutions as Florida, Northwestern, West Point and UC Berkeley.
- Righthander Dave McKae hurled the first nine-inning no hitter in school history, blanking Fort Hays State's top-ranked offense en route to capturing the NCAA West Regional. Under first-year head coach Rex Peters, the Aggie baseball advanced to the national tournament for the first time since 1995. McKae's no-no is only the fifth in NCAA tournament history.
- Aggie women's lacrosse climbed atop the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association D-II poll for the first time since reaching varsity status in 1997. UC Davis held the No. 1 position for two weeks, helped by victories over eventual NCAA champion Stonehill (Mass.) and runner-up Longwood (Va.).
- The UC Davis Dance Team placed second in the open dance finals at the College Cheerleading and Dance Team National Championships in Orlando. The event was later televised on ESPN.

• The Aggie wrestling team participated in a dual meet at Iowa in January, pitting coaching brothers Lennie Zalesky (UC Davis) and Jim Zalesky (Iowa). The meet highlighted a season that also included a visit by Dan Gable, the legendary coach and wrestler, who mentored both Zalesky brothers.

• During a basketball game in late January, UC Davis unveiled Gunrock, its first costumed mascot since the 1970s. Named for the original thoroughbred donated to the campus during its early years, Gunrock is a blue and gold mustang that matches many of the marks and logos depicted on licensed apparel.

• Intramural & Sports Clubs director Gary Colberg earned USA Volleyball's Harold T. Frier-mood Award, given to an individual who has made significant contributions to volleyball.
