RESTED GRIZ FACE TOP-10 SHOWDOWN WITH UC DAVIS

Nothing like a little R&R to recharge the batteries.

While the Montana football team got a small amount of R&R, it was all business around Washington-Grizzly Stadium during the bye week, and the Grizzlies' batteries will need to be at full-charge as UM looks to bounce back against the No. 6 UC Davis Aggies.

With an week to prepare and reflect after a pair of tough losses, Montana gets a shot to make an FCS top-ten statement against the Aggies, who come to Missoula led by former Boise State and Colorado head coach Dan Hawkins.

In his second year at UC Davis, Hawkins has the Aggies resembling an FBS powerhouse, too, as the only undefeated team in Big Sky play with the No. 5 scoring offense in the nation.

After falling from the top-25 for the first time this season following a 27-point loss at North Dakota before the bye week, the Grizzlies recognize that they must be at their best if they are to slow down an Aggie outfit that is averaging over 480-yards and 42 points per game.

"It's a big week for us. We've got a top-ten ranked opponent coming in who has played really well in recent weeks," said Montana head coach Bobby Hauck. "They're going up and down the field on people, they're playing well on defense. Certainly, we'll have our hands full."

THE GAME: Montana (4-3, 2-2 BSC) hosts No. 6/13 UC Davis (6-1, 4-0 BSC) on Saturday, Oct. 27, for the penultimate home game on the Grizzlies schedule, looking to build momentum ahead of a two-game road stretch.

And what a momentum shift it could be. The Griz enter the game in need of a confidence booster following a last-second loss to Portland State on a 52-yard field goal and a heavy loss to the Fighting Hawks in Grand Forks.

But Hauck believes the week off has put a little "bounce in our step," and quarterback Dalton Sneed's competitive edge has sharpened over the week off as the Griz face the business end of the season.

"I think the mentality stays the same. We're out here to win football games, and that's how we approach every day. That's how we want to be as a team every day to win every week and every practice. So, no different mentality, we just want to go out and perform our best," said Sneed.

IMPLICATIONS: While anything is possible over the final three weeks of regular season play in FCS football, Montana's playoff hopes rest largely on the outcome of Saturday's game against the highly touted Aggies.

With three losses, the Griz can ill-afford a fourth in the regular season if the playoffs are to remain in view. However, with a host of quality opponents remaining on the schedule, including this week's ranked showdown and two rivalry games against Idaho and Montana State, Montana could control its post-season fate with four-straight wins.

HAPPENINGS

GRIZ FOR KIDS TOY DRIVE: With the holiday season right around the corner, Grizzly Athletics will once again partner with area businesses and local agencies to make the season a little brighter for children in need with the Griz for Kids Toy Drive.

Fans are asked to show their support for local kids and families in need by bringing a new, unwrapped toy or donation to the game. Volunteers will man Griz for Kids collection tables at all entrances to the stadium, as well as the walking bridge and the main entrance to the Adams Center.

Leading the charge in the toy drive for the Griz football team this year are senior tackle Kyle Davis and sophomore O-lineman Esai Longoria.

MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY: Grizzly Athletics will say thank you to the countless men and women who put themselves in harm's way to serve our country against UC Davis, paying homage to Military members and their families with pregame Military Appreciation ceremonies.

WELCOME GRIZ FAMILIES: It's family weekend at UM, with students and their families gathering to celebrate all the tradition that surrounds Griz football and the University of Montana.

RANKINGS: The Grizzlies fell from the national media and coaches top-25 for the first time this season during the bye week, marking the first time Bobby Hauck has been on the outside looking in as a head coach at UM.

Montana has bounced around the top-25 this season since coming in at No. 24 in preseason polls, working its way up to No. 14 in the media poll.

With UC Davis at No. 6 in the media poll and No. 13 in the coaches' poll, a win over the Aggies could mean a return to the poll for the Griz.

SERIES HISTORY: Montana has been dominant over the Aggies in the seven previous meetings between the two school, with UM never losing a game the matchup dating back to 1926, entering the weekend at 7-0 all-time.

Of those seven games, four have been played in Missoula, and, thanks to an unbalanced Big Sky schedule, only once (2014) have the two teams met at UM as conference foes, a 42-28 win for the Griz.

LAST MEETING: Montana last faced UC Davis in 2015 down in California, coming away with a 27-13 win that moved them to 3-2 overall on the season.

Montana's defense forced four turnovers, and quarterback Chad Chalich threw three touchdown passes in the win while running back Jeremy Calhoun scored his first career touchdown as a true freshman.

GRIZ TRACKS

YOUTH MOVEMENT: While Montana's two-game losing streak leaves a bad taste in everyone's mouth, what is sometimes lost is that the Grizzlies remain a very young team.

Of the 44 players listed on this week's offensive and defensive two-deep, more than half (27) are suiting up as either a freshman or sophomore, compared to just seven seniors.

DANTE'S INFERNO / BUCHANAN AWARD WATCH LIST: In the least surprising news to anyone who has followed the Griz this season, junior linebacker Dante Olson was added to the STATS FCS Buck Buchanan Award Watch List over the bye week.

As the national leader in tackles, Olson has racked up 106 takedowns so far, an average of 15.1 per game, more than any player in Division-I football (FBS or FCS).

He needs just 25 more tackles over the next four games to break the school record for single-season stops. He's also led the Griz in tackling in every game of the season, and amassed a whopping 24 tackles against Cal Poly, the second-most in UM history.

ROBBY FOR THE RICE: Tim Hauck remains UM's second all-time leading tackler (tied with Colt Anderson) with 129 takedowns in a season and 305 on his career.

Freshman safety Robby Hauck (Tim's nephew and coach Hauck's son) is quickly catching up to his uncle, however.

As one of the top tacklers in the Big Sky and one of only three freshmen to rank among the top tacklers in the nation, Hauck was named to the STATS FCS Jerry Rice Award Watch List on Oct. 11 - the award presented to the nation's top freshman performer.

Hauck is the third Grizzly in as many years to become a candidate for the award. After breaking a school record for catches in a game, Jerry Louie-McGee was named to the Rice Award watch list and finished seventh in the final vote. Former quarterback Gresch Jensen finished third in the 2017 voting.

Hauck is now the second-leading tackler on the team behind Dante Olson - who just happens to be the No. 1 tackler in the entire nation, at any level.

Following his career-high game at Cal Poly where he became the only freshman in FCS football to get in on 17 or more tackles this season, Hauck was given an honorable mention for the STATS FCS Freshman Player of the Week. Now he's in the mix for Freshman of the Year honors.

this week is another notch in the W column, he remains on the cusp of making UM history, needing just one more victory to tie the great Don Read as UM's all-time win record at 85.

A win this week would also put him at 100 on his career, and would be his 50th all-time win in Big Sky play.

Some milestones have not been as savory, however, but are nice round numbers. The loss at UND was just the 20th Big Sky loss of Hauck's career and the 70th on his head coaching record.

RECORD WATCH: With three catches at North Dakota to put him at 165, Jerry Louie-McGee passed the legendary Mac Mariani in career receptions, placing him at No. 8 on the all-time list.

Senior linebacker and Buchanan Award candidate Josh Buss also moved up the all-time tackler list at UM, now with 250 to his name. That total put him passed national champion linebacker Mike Bouchee, Dan Downs, and Kurt Schilling and tied him with fellow Buchanan Award candidate Trey Young at No. 23 on the school record list.

With just eight more tackles Buss could pass current UM coach Shann Shillinger's record of 257 tackles.

TRENDING UP: Despite the loss at UND, Montana produced two 100-yard receivers for the first time since 2016 when James Hohman and Justin Calhoun each caught passes for 133 yards at Northern Arizona, also a loss for UM.

Samori Toure was seven yards shy of setting a new career high with 105 receiving yards against the Hawks, while Samuel Akem set a new personal best with 124 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Akem, a sophomore, has emerged as one of the premier pass catchers in the conference with six receiving touchdowns this season, ranking him No. 2 in the Big Sky and No. 17 in the nation in that category. The native of Broken Arrow, Okla., now has a pair of two-touchdown games this season.

FLOWERS POWER: Despite North Dakota not kicking a single ball toward return specialist Malik Flowers, the freshman is still ranked as the No. 1 kick returner in the Big Sky, and is now ranked No. 5 in the nation with 485 return yards this season.

QUICK HITS: Once a prolific receiver for the Griz, Justin Calhoun nabbed his first career interception since moving over to the defense at North Dakota.

Freshman Marcus Welnel got in on a special teams highlight against the Hawks, blocking a UND punt. The last Grizzly to block a punt? The ever-present Dante Olson against Northern Colorado in 2017.

Cornerback Dareon Nash posted a career-high six tackles against UND.

SCOUTING THE AGGIES

After three-straight games against a run-first offense, the UC Davis Aggies bring their pass-happy approach to Missoula this week and won't be shy about airing the ball out.

All-everything quarterback Jake Maier (a two-time candidate for the Walter Payton Award) leads an Aggie offense that has thrown 10 touchdown passes and scored 96 points in the last two games.

In fact, the only game the Aggies haven't scored more than 40 points? Their 30-10 loss at the hands of the Pac-12's Stanford Cardinal. That stretch of offensive explosions also includes a 44-38 opening-weekend win over the Mountain West's San Jose State Spartans.

Senior receiver Keelan Doss, a 2017 Payton Award finalist, and multiple-time All-American will also be an important mark for Montana's defense, as the nation's No. 4 leader in receptions, averaging 8.7 per game.

"He (Maier) has started a whole bunch of games, and they're skilled at wide receiver. They've got good running backs, and they play well up front, they go fast, so, there are certain things they do that will be hard to get a handle on. Hopefully, we'll get matched up and slow them down a little bit," said Hauck.

Defensively the Aggies are led by Moe Mason, who is tied with Dante Olson for the second-most sacks in the Big Sky at five and has posted the league's second-most TFLs at 10.

Naturally, a good passing team has a defense that is used to defending the deep ball, and the Aggies' Vincent White is no exception. White, a senior DB, is the Big Sky leader in passes defended by a large margin this season with 13 breakups, while the Aggies have hauled in the third-most interceptions in the Big Sky with 10.

UP NEXT: The Griz hit the road for two-straight games starting with a trip to Cedar City, Utah to take on the defending Big Sky Champion Southern Utah Thunderbirds on Nov. 3, followed by a renewed rivalry at Idaho on Nov. 10 in Moscow.

2018 GRIZ SEASON NOTES

OH CAPTAINS MY CAPTAINS: At the end of fall camp, the Grizzlies elected team captains for the season, voting two offensive and two defensive players into leadership positions on the team.

Seniors Keenan Curran and Reggie Tilleman were voted captains, and also represented the team at the Big Sky's annual media days in Spokane over the summer. The league's preseason Defensive Player of the Year Josh Buss was also named captain, along with junior quarterback Dalton Sneed.

PACKED HOUSE: Montana once again led the FCS in attendance in 2017, averaging 23,535 fans over the course of six home games. It's the fourth-straight season the Grizzlies have had the most fans per-game in the FCS, and the seventh time in the last 11 years.

ON SCHOLARSHIP: Coach Hauck made the dream of being a scholarship student-athlete come true for two Grizzlies during fall camp. Junior center Cody Meyer and senior D-tackle Kyle Davis were rewarded for their years of hard work with a pair of scholarships, much to the adoration of their fellow teammates.

LIGHT UP THE NIGHT: Montana improved to 7-2 all-time under the lights at Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

HAWKEYE HEAVEN: Montana is now 7-2 in program history against teams from the state of Iowa. The Griz moved to 6-0 all-time against UNI, and have two losses to the Iowa Hawkeyes. After beating Drake (Des Moines, Iowa), the Griz moved to 7-2.

CURRAN AT QB: Senior receiver Keenan Curran dusted off his high school quarterbacking abilities against UNI, completing the first pass of his collegiate career, a 25-yard dart to tight end Colin Bingham on a double-pass play from Dalton Sneed. In case you're wondering... One pass for one 25-yard touchdown gives Curran a QB efficiency rating of 640.00.

SEC! SEC!: Senior safety Reid Miller, a transfer from the SEC's Arkansas Razorbacks, was Montana's second-leading tackler against UNI, totaling nine takedowns and adding a pass breakup. His nine tackles against the Panthers equaled the amount of tackles he had during the entire 2017 season with the Razorbacks.

FRESH STARTS: A total of 13 Grizzlies picked up their first start in maroon and silver against Northern Iowa on Sept. 1, breaking in a youthful team that, for (likely) the first time in program history, had more freshman (5) than seniors (4) starting.

Getting their first starts on offense were: quarterback Dalton Sneed, receiver Samori Toure, tight end Colin Bingham, tailback Adam Eastwood, tackle Conlan Beaver, center Cody Meyer, guard Dylan Eickmeyer, and tackle Colton Keintz. Dante Olson, RJ Nelson, Reggie Tilleman, Robby Hauck and Gavin Robertson ran out for the first time as starters on the defense.

RARE RETURNS Freshman returner Malik Flowers sparked a Montana rally at Western Illinois with a 95-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. The last time a Grizzly returned a kickoff? 2013, when Ellis Henderson ran one back 98 yards against South Dakota

Western Illinois' Steve McShane returned a punt 58 yards for a score against UM. The last player to return a punt for a touchdown was Washington's Dante Pettis, who brought back a kick 67-yards for a score, and went on to be selected in the 2nd round of the NFL Draft.

MISSISSIPPI MUD: Since the turn of the century, the Montana Grizzlies have only ventured across the Mississippi River seven times, holding a 3-4 record against teams from that side of "Old Man River." Two of those games (at Maine in 2003, and at James Madison in 2008) were played during Hauck's first tenure at UM and were both Grizzly wins. The Griz also defeated Hofstra in New York in 2002, but lost at Tennessee in 2011, at Appalachian State in 2012, and at Liberty in 2015. Montana lost at Western Illinois - just 50 miles east of the Mississippi - for the second time in program history on Sept. 15 to move to 3-4.

N*A*S*H: Sophomore cornerback Dareon Nash had the best game of his career to-date against Drake with three tackles, a pass breakup, a fumble recovery, and a pair of interceptions - one of which he returned 40 yards for the first pick-six of his career.

The last Grizzly to pick-off two or more passes in a game was Justin Strong, who had three INTs and a touchdown against Portland State in 2017.

DANTE'S INFERNO: On Week 1, Dante Olson hit a peak as the ROOT Sports Big Sky Defensive Player of the Week. After a huge game against Drake on Week 2 where the junior logged 16 tackles, two sacks, 3.5 TFLs a forced fumble and a pass breakup, Olson caught fire. Not only was he named Big Sky Player of the Week for a second-straight week, he was also named the STATS FCS national Defensive Player of the Week as well. It's worth noting: Olson won two-straight Player of the Week honors after making his first two starts as a Grizzly.

JERRY'S WORLD: In 2016, Jerry Louie-McGee shattered the school record for receptions in a game with 21 at Cal Poly. Against Drake, Louie-McGee was two catches away from breaking Josh Paffhausen's 1997 record of 15 catches for the second time in his career with 14 receptions on the day for 133 yards.

The only other two receivers to catch 14 passes in a game were Joe Douglass against EWU and MSU in 1996, and Mike Trevathan in 1990 against Idaho.

HOME SWEET HOME: Montana celebrated its 200th win inside the friendly confines of Washington-Grizzly Stadium against Sac. State. With the win, UM's record improved to 200-30 record at home since the facility was built in 1986, an 86.9 win percentage.

2018 GRIZ SEASON NOTES

LEGEND OF THE FALL: The University of Montana and The National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame honored 2018 Hall of Fame electee Dave Dickenson with an On-Campus Salute, presented by Fidelity Investments at the home game against Sac State on Sept. 22.

The Grizzlies honored Dave by wearing their throw-back copper and gold uniforms, and limited-edition copper and gold apparel with his retired number 15 on it were made available to mark the occasion. Dickenson will donate a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the gear that bears his name to a Grizzly football scholarship.

IT'S STILL A BIG DEAL: Just how significant is Dickenson's induction into the Hall of Fame? Consider: Only 997 players and 217 coaches have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame (Including the 2018 class) from the nearly 5.33 million people who have played or coached the game over the past 149 years.

In other words, less than two one-hundredths of a percent (.02%) of those who have set foot on the gridiron have earned the distinction.

Dickenson is only the second player from Montana to enter the Hall of Fame behind Bill Kelly in the early part of the century and is the only FCS/D1-AA player to be inducted in the class of 2018.

BEST START POSSIBLE?: True freshman Gabe Sulser from Billings took an jet sweep 53 yards to the house against Sac State to score on his FIRST-EVER TOUCH OF THE BALL IN A COLLEGE FOOTBALL GAME.

NEW QB RECORD: Sneed set a new record for the most rushing yards by a QB in program history against Sac State and moved into a tie for 11th for the longest TD run in UM history with a 75-yard score. The longest TD run in UM history? Jon Nguyen's 81 yards, which he set against the same Sac State Hornets in 2016.

SWATTING THE HORNETS: Montana extended its unbeaten streak at home against Sac State to 12-straight games. UM has never lost to the Hornets in Missoula, and is now 20-1 all-time against them.

HOMECOMING HUSTLE: Montana hosted it's 99th homecoming football game against Portland State, falling to 65-33-1 all time and 29-4 inside Washington-Grizzly Stadium after the loss.

MILESTONES: Other than Sneed's 206-yard day against Sac State, Adam Eastwood became the first Griz to rush for over 100 yards since Makena Simis did it against NAU in 2017 when he galloped for a career-high 135 against the Cal Poly Mustangs.

Josh Buss scored the first touchdown of his career with an 80-yard fumble recovery – ruled as such because it bounced into his hands off a backward pass – at Cal Poly. The last Grizzly to score on a fumble recovery? Donald Bedell jumped on a loose ball in the end zone for a 0-yard return for a score against Mississippi Valley State in 2016.

TRENDING UP: Ten different Grizzlies set or tied a career high at Cal Poly, and as one would imagine against a triple-option offense, most of them were new career high tackle totals.

In addition to Olson's 24, Robby Hauck (17), Josh Sandry (10), Gavin Robertson (10), Jace Lewis (9) and Justin Calhoun (9 – 8 solo) set a new personal best tackle totals against the Mustangs.

Eastwood's career day at Cal Poly was highlighted by an untouched 68-yard TD burst up the middle, etching his name in the UM record books with one of the longest scoring runs in program history. That TD run is tied at No. 18 for the longest in UM history with Rock Svenningsen, who had a 68-yarder against South Dakota in 1973.

Dalton Sneed set a new career high with his feet against Sac State, then set a new personal best with his arm against Cal Poly with 285 yards in the air and three passing touchdowns.

On the other side of those passes was sophomore receiver Sammy Akem, who had a personal best 93 yards, setting a new personal long TD reception with a 54-yard score.

HAUCK A RICE AWARD CANDIDATE: Tim Hauck remains UM's second all-time leading tackler (tied with Colt Anderson) with 129 takedowns in a season and 305 on his career.

Freshman safety Robby Hauck (Tim's nephew and coach Hauck's son) is quickly catching up to his uncle, however.

As one of the top tacklers in the Big Sky and one of only three freshman to rank among the top tacklers in the nation, Hauck was named to the STATS FCS Jerry Rice Award Watch List on Oct. 11 - the award presented to the nation's top freshman performer.

Hauck is the third Grizzly in as many years to become a candidate for the award. After breaking a school record for catches in a game, Jerry Louie-McGee was named to the Rice Award watch list and finished seventh in the final vote. Former quarterback Gresch Jensen finished third in the 2017 voting.

Hauck is now the second-leading tackler on the team behind Dante Olson - who just happens to be the No. 1 tackler in the entire nation, at any level.

Following his career-high game at Cal Poly where he became the only freshman in FCS football to get in on 17 or more tackles this season, Hauck was given an honorable mention for the STATS FCS Freshman Player of the Week. Now he's in the mix for Freshman of the Year honors.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

DICKENSON TO BE INDUCTED INTO COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

National Champion All-American. Walter Payton Award Winner. Grizzly Sports Hall of Famer.

Grey Cup Champion. CFL MVP. CFL Hall of Famer. CFL Coach of the Year.

Montana football great Dave Dickenson has earned many accolades in his illustrious collegiate and professional career, but perhaps none as prestigious as this.

In January, the National Football Foundation (NFF) announced that Dickenson will be immortalized as one of the greatest college football players - at any level - of all time as a member of the College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2018.

On Sept. 22, Dickenson and his family return to Missoula to celebrate this incredible honor alongside NFF Chief Operating Officer Matthew Sign, NFF Board Member Jon Taylor and CJ Olsen of NFF partner Fidelity Investments. "Super Dave" was honored with an on-field salute between the first and second quarter.

Dickenson will be inducted into the Hall of Fame alongside nine other legendary players and three coaches at the NFF Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 4 in New York City. Their accomplishments will also be enshrined at the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta.

"I am very honored and excited to be included in the Hall of Fame," said Dickenson.

"We did some special things at Montana. To be able to represent our program, Don Read and the coaches, our school, and our city, means a lot to me. More than anything though, it means a lot to be able to represent the state of Montana."

Coaches joining the Hall of Fame include Frank Beamer - 280-144-4 (65.9%); Murray State (1981-86), Virginia Tech (1987-2015), Mack Brown - 244-122-1 (66.6%); Appalachian State (1983), Tulane (1985-87), North Carolina (1988-97), Texas (1998-2013), Mel Tjeerdsma - 242-82-4 (74.4%); Austin College [Texas] (1984-93), Northwest Missouri State (1994-2010).

The inductees were selected from a national ballot of 75 All-America players and six elite coaches from the Football Bowl Subdivision and 98 players and 31 coaches from the divisional ranks.

Dickenson is only the second player ever from the state of Montana to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The other: Grizzly great William "Wild Bill" Kelly who was inducted in 1969. He is also the only player from the FCS to be inducted in 2018.

Including the 2018 Hall of Fame class, only 997 players and 217 coaches have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame from the nearly 5.26 million who have played or coached the game during the past 149 years. Meaning fewer than two one-hundredths of a percent (.02%) of the individuals who have played the game have been deemed worthy of this distinction.

"Being inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame is such an amazing and well-deserved achievement for Dave," said Montana Director of Athletics Kent Haslam.

"He is a great representative of the University of Montana and the Grizzly football program. He was the definition of a student-athlete during his years here at UM, and we could not be more proud of him and his accomplishments."

The announcement of the 2018 Class was made in January live on ESPN's SportsCenter in Atlanta, the site of the College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championship.

"We are extremely proud to announce the 2018 College Football Hall of Fame Class," said Archie Manning, NFF Chairman and a 1989 College Football Hall of Famer in an NFF statement.

"Each of these men has established himself among the absolute best to have ever played or coached the game, and we look forward to immortalizing their incredible accomplishments."

The 2018 College Football Hall of Fame Class will be officially inducted at the 61st NFF Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 4, 2018, at the New York Hilton Midtown. The inductees will also be recognized at their respective collegiate institutions with NFF Hall of Fame On-Campus Salutes, presented by Fidelity Investments, during the fall.

A Montana football legend and two-time First Team All-American, Dave Dickenson remains the Grizzlies' all-time leading passer and still holds 28 other school records.

The recipient of the 1995 Walter Payton Award as the top player in the FCS, Dickenson led Montana to the FCS national title that year. In the championship game, he orchestrated a 12-play, 72-yard scoring drive that culminated with the game-winning field goal as part of a come-from-behind win over Marshall.

In four playoff games in 1995, Dickenson threw for 1,500 yards and 13 touchdowns, bringing his totals at the end of the season to 5,676 and 51, respectively.

Although the NCAA did not recognize playoff statistics at the time, he completed the regular season with a school- and then-Big Sky Conference single-season record 4,176 passing yards. Dickenson's 379.6 yards per game in 1995 rank fifth all-time in FCS history and still stand as a school and conference record.

His record-setting senior season also extended off the field where he was named an NFF National Scholar-Athlete and earned his third consecutive Academic All-America honors.
