JENNIFER GROSS

Head Coach
8th Year
15th Year Overall at UC Davis
UC Davis '97

As a player, she set school records and became one of the greatest point guards to ever don an Aggie uniform. As an assistant and associate head coach, she turned UC Davis into an immediate force in the Big West Conference by implementing one of the most difficult offensive schemes in the game. In her seven seasons as head coach, Jennifer Gross has continued the tradition of excellence instilled in her throughout her entire Aggie career.

The two-time Big West Coach of the Year (2016-17 and 2017-18), and a finalist for the WBCA National Coach of the Year in 2018, Gross enters her eighth season at the helm of her alma mater in 2018-19, guiding the Aggies to 25 wins, a conference regular season crown, and a trip to the "Sweet 16" of the Women's National Invitation Tournament in 2017.

A year later, she followed up that performance with one of the finest seasons in school history, claiming a second straight Big West regular season title, amassing 28 victories — the second-most in the history of the program — and an appearance in the "Elite Eight" of the WNIT during a record-setting season that saw the Aggies set or tie 10 different school single-season team records, earn the program's first-ever vote in the Associated Press Top 25 on Feb. 26, and rank among the top 50 in the NCAA in 12 different categories.

For her efforts, Gross was awarded a six-year contract extension that will keep her on the sidelines of The Pavilion through 2023-24.

Since taking over as head coach full-time in October of 2011, Gross has guided UC Davis to immediate success. Under her tutelage, UC

Davis has been a perennial contender in the Big West, advancing to the conference tournament in seven straight seasons, working up from first-round berths in her first two years to an appearance in the tournament championship game in 2016 -- the program's first showing in the league's title game since the Aggies won the tournament and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2011 -- and 2018, as well as two berths in the WNIT.

UC Davis became the first Big West school since UC Santa Barbara in 2007-09 to win outright back-to-back regular season titles, while Gross became the first head coach to repeat as the league's coach of the year since the Gauchos' Mark French in 1999-01 and became only the fifth head coach in the history of the conference to win consecutive coach of the year awards.

As the program's offensive coordinator, she implemented a Princeton-style offense, building it from the ground up. Using the fundamentals of sharp cuts, smart passes, and an unprecedented level of teamwork, the Aggies have been able to give opponents fits with their precision and execution. That has paid off as UC Davis has led the league in field goal percentage in four of the last five seasons (finishing second in 2016) and paced the Aggies to the top of the three-point shooting charts three times in the last four seasons in 2015, 2017, and 2018.

During her tenure as head coach, Gross has coached 12 players to a total of 23 All-Big West honors -- including three-time first-team all-conference performer Sydnee Fipps, who became only the second Aggie student-athlete to accomplish the feat (Paige Mintun, 2009-11) and only one of 21 players in the history of the Big West Conference to earn first-team honors at least three times in a career. Fipps eventually ended her career as the program's all-time scoring leader at the Division I level and second on the school's all-time list with 1,636 career points.

In 2018, three of her charges reached the 1,000 career point milestone in biomedical engineering major Morgan Bertsch (only the fourth junior in the history of the program to accomplish the feat), political science major Pele Gianotti, and psychology major Rachel Nagel. Gianotti finished 11th on the all-time scoring list with 1,222 at the time of her graduation, while Nagel was 18th with 1,077. Bertsch enters the 2018-19 campaign with 1,668 points -- good for second on the all-time scoring list and just 43 points behind Carol Rische's school record.

All told, since returning to her alma mater in 2004-05, Gross has helped establish the foundation of UC Davis' successful transition to the

'18-19 UC DAVIS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL RECORD BOOK

Division I level, helping lead the Aggies to 244 victories, the program's first-ever berth in the NCAA Tournament (2011), five berths in the WNIT (2008, 2010, 2012, 2017, and 2018), and a .566 (244-187) winning percentage, in 14 seasons.

In total, 20 student-athletes have gone on to earn a combined 36 all-conference honors -- including 12 first-team awards -- 16 players have been named the league's player of the week, eight have been honored on the conference's all-freshman team -- including 2009 Freshman of the Year Lauren Juric -- and nine student-athletes have led the league in various statistical categories at the end of the year.

Coaching at one of the nation's top public academic institutions, Gross has been the recruiting coordinator for the Aggies since her arrival in 2004 and, as a former three-year CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII honoree, Gross knows what it takes both athletically and academically to succeed at UC Davis.

Off the court, and in the classroom, the Aggies have shined. Senior managerial economics major Dani Nafekh was honored as the winner of the university's W.P. Lindley Award as the outstanding scholar-athlete of the year, as well as being named the school's Big West Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year, in 2017, and a CoSIDA Academic All-District second team honoree in 2018. In her six seasons, Gross has had a total of 16 players collect 33 combined Big West All-Academic Team citations.

In addition, a number of Gross' former student-athletes have gone on to professional playing careers in Europe, including Gianotti, who will be playing in Germany this coming year, and Fipps, who is currently in her second season with the Lakeside Lightning in Australia following a stint in Portugal.

Other Aggies who have gone on to professional playing careers in Europe include Celia Marfone, Alyson Doherty, and Kelsey Harris, who all went on to play for clubs in Germany, as well as Brianna Salvatore, who signed with a club in Switzerland following her collegiate career.

Graduates of the UC Davis women's basketball program have achieved success off the court, as well, in a variety of fields. Among the many post-graduate triumphs: Haylee Donaghe, is finishing up her residency at the Spaulding Rehab Hospital at Harvard Medical School, Idit Oryon is heading up the business development team at San Francisco start-up RapidAPI, Salvatore is currently pursuing her masters degree at Sciences Po School of International Affairs in Paris, and Molly Greubel recently secured a position as a research associate at Indaba Capital Management, L.P., in San Francisco.

Recent graduate Lauren Beyer went on to earn her master's degree in accounting from the UC Davis Graduate School of Management and secured a position at Deloitte & Touche LLP in downtown Sacramento. After walking across the stage at UC Davis in the coming weeks, Nafekh will be attending law school at Pepperdine, while Nagel will serve as the head varsity girls basketball coach at her high school alma mater, Whitney High School, before going on to pursue a graduate degree.

As a student-athlete from 1993-97 at UC Davis, Gross set school records for career assists (448), steals (300) and three-pointers (163), the first of which still stands. Additionally, she ranks 10th all-time at UC Davis in career scoring, compiling 1,243 points. As a senior, Gross led the Aggies to a school-record 29-3 mark and the school's first appearance at the Division II Elite Eight tournament. UC Davis finished third at the national tourney, beating Bentley in the consolation final. For her part, she won Kodak All-America honorable mention honors and was selected to the Northern California Athletic Conference first team for the second time. However, perhaps her finest achievement was her participation in 101 victories during her four-year career, the winningest span in program history.

Gross graduated from UC Davis in 1997, earning her bachelor's degree in organizational studies. She earned her master's degree in Sports Coaching from the United States Sports Academy in 2008. After her collegiate career, Gross went on to play professionally in Denmark (July 1997-Apr. 98) and Israel (July-Dec. 1998). She was inducted into the Cal Aggie Athletics Hall of Fame in 2003.

Gross married UC Davis associate head coach Joe Teramoto in 2010 when they were both assistants on former coach Sandy Simpson's staff. The couple has a son, Joshua, and a daughter, Amelia.

JOE TERAMOTO

Associate Head Coach
13th Year
Cal Poly '02

With more than a decade's worth of experience on the sidelines with the UC Davis women's basketball program, Associate Head Coach Joe Teramoto enters his 13th season with the Aggies in 2018-19, serving as the team's "defensive coordinator" and focusing on post player development, while working with all facets of the program.

Teramoto joined the UC Davis staff in June of 2006, helping the Aggies to six postseason appearances -- including a Big West Conference tournament title, a 24-win season, and the team's first trip to the NCAA Tournament at the Division I level in 2011. Most recently, he helped guide the Aggies to a Big West regular season crown, 25 victories overall, and a trip to the "Sweet 16" of the Women's National Invitation Tournament in 2017, following that up with a 28-win season in 2018 that included the program's second straight league regular season crown and a trip to the WNIT "Elite Eight" — the furthest any Big West school has advanced in that postseason event.

Berths in the WNIT preceded that following the 2007-08, 2009-10, and 2011-12, campaigns.

Working on UC Davis' inside presence, Teramoto has helped developed some of the top post players in school history. Forward Paige Mintun was a three-time first-team All-Big West Conference selection, including leading the team in both scoring (13.0 ppg) and rebounding (4.5 rpg) as the Aggies posted 21 wins and claimed the Big West regular season crown.

Ellen Porshneva (2004-07), who became the 12th Aggie to score 1,000 points for her career and ranks seventh on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,251 points, along with Big West Conference Freshman of the Year Lauren Juric (2009-12), were two other posts that flourished under Teramoto's tutelage in the program's Division I infancy.

The 2012-13 season saw the arrival of highly touted post players Alyson Doherty and Celia Marfone, the former claiming Big West All-Freshman Team honors and was a three-time All-Big West honoree -- including first team honors as a senior — with the latter ranking among the top 10 in the Big West in rebounding each of her last three seasons. In addition, Doherty also led the conference in field goal percentage (.557) as a sophomore in 2013-14.

In 2015-16, newcomer Morgan Bertsch burst onto the scene, earning all-freshman, All-Big West second-team, and All-Big West Tournament team honors after leading the Aggies in scoring (13.9 ppg) and ranking No. 7 in the nation in field goal percentage (.582). In 2017, The Santa Rosa, Calif., native picked up All-Big West first team honors, averaging nearly 16 points per game en route to becoming the highest-scoring sophomore in school history and setting the school single-season record with 57 blocks. After averaging better than 20 points per game as a junior, Bertsch is on the verge of breaking one of the school's most hallowed records, standing just 43 points behind Carol Rische's mark that has stood since 1983.

At the defensive end, Teramoto led the Aggies to a Big West best 62.5 points allowed per game in 2018 — the second straight year that UC Davis has led the league in scoring defense and the fourth time overall in the program's Division I history — and limited opponents to just 37 percent from the field last year to pace the conference for the second year in a row. His defenses have allowed fewer than 63 points per game eight times in his 12 years, including a low of 59.3 ppg in 2008-09.

Prior to his arrival at UC Davis, Teramoto served as an assistant coach at Saint Mary's from 2003-06. During his three years with the Gaels, he was involved in all aspects of the program and primarily worked with post players.

Teramoto graduated from Cal Poly in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in biological sciences and a minor in biotechnology. He earned his master's in educational leadership, also from Cal Poly, in 2007. While still in high school and college, Teramoto spent three seasons coaching junior high basketball before moving up for three seasons at San Luis Obispo HS. As the varsity coach in 2002-03, the Tigers finished 22-3 overall and 12-0 in the Pac-5 League.

A native of Concord, Calif., Teramoto prepped at Ygnacio Valley HS where he competed in basketball, water polo, tennis, and swimming, earning 10 varsity letters and graduating as the only student in Warrior history to be named Athlete of the Year and valedictorian in the same year.

Teramoto married UC Davis head coach Jennifer Gross in 2010 when they were both assistants on former coach Sandy Simpson's staff. The couple has a son, Joshua, and a daughter, Amelia.

DES ABEYTA

Associate Head Coach
11th Year
UC Davis '00

A dominating presence inside during one of the most successful runs in UC Davis women's basketball history as a player, former Aggie All-American Des Abeyta returned to her alma mater to help usher in a new era for the program at the Division I level.

Recognized as one of the best centers to ever play at UC Davis, Abeyta enters her 12th season on the sidelines in 2018-19, working closely with the Aggies' post players while multi-tasking with her hands in all aspects of the program, including on-court instruction of both offense and defense, scouting, recruiting, and camps. After spending her first 11 years as an assistant, Abeyta was promoted to the position of associate head coach in the summer of 2018.

"Des is one of the most talented, loyal, passionate people that I know," Head Coach Jennifer Gross said. "She has been instrumental in helping our program reach a high level of success, investing so much into our student-athletes and serving as an incredible role model for them. Her work ethic is outstanding and her recruiting efforts have helped us bring in top-notch players and students. Des is a true friend and someone that makes coaching a lot of fun."

Applying the lessons she learned from her days as a UC Davis student-athlete, Abeyta has helped lead the Aggies to six postseason appearances in the program's 11-year Division I history and back-to-back Big West Conference regular season titles in 2017 and 2018. Qualifying for the Big West Tournament every year since her return to campus, Abeyta has helped lead UC Davis to a Women's National Invitation Tournament "Sweet 16" berth in 2017 and, a year later, an "Elite Eight" berth in 2018 — the furthest any team in conference history has ever advanced in that tournament.

Joining the staff prior to UC Davis' Division I debut in 2007-08, Abeyta is a well-respected recruiter who has been integral in evaluating and helping secure commitments from some of the top student-athletes on the West Coast. Her recruiting efforts have helped the Aggies consistently bring in people of high character who put the team first and embody the concept of "Aggie Pride." In addition to her recruiting talents, Abeyta has worked hard to develop the program's post players who have consistently performed at a very high level.

Her proteges include three-time All-Big West Conference selections Paige Mintun and Alyson Doherty, Celia Marfone, and record-setting senior-to-be Morgan Bertsch, who ranks second on the all-time scoring list and set four school single-season records during her junior year. Mintun led the Aggies in scoring in each of her final two seasons, Doherty was named to the Big West All-Freshman Team in her debut and followed that up with three all-conference honors, while Marfone finished among the top 10 in the Big West in rebounding in her final three collegiate seasons.

Prior to her return to Northern California, Abeyta spent two seasons as the varsity head coach at Forest Ridge HS in Bellevue, Wash. Abeyta also served as an assistant coach at North Seattle Community College from 2001-02.

As an Aggie standout from 1996-99, Abeyta helped UC Davis to a 94-22 overall record during her four seasons. She earned all-West Region honors from both Kodak/WBCA and Daktronics in each of her junior and senior seasons, leading the team in scoring and rebounding both years. Abeyta's first team Kodak all-West Region selection earned her All-America honorable mention as well.

Additionally, she was named first team all-California Collegiate Athletic Association during the 1998-99 and 1999-2000 seasons. Abeyta also was a member of the Aggie team that finished third at the Div. II NCAA Tournament, playing alongside current head coach Jennifer Gross. She continues to rank among the school's career leaders in points, rebounds, and blocked shots, while holding a pair of top-10 single-season performances in field goal percentage.

After graduating from UC Davis in 2000 with a degree in organizational studies, Abeyta played two years of professional basketball in Greece and Portugal before entering the coaching ranks in the state of Washington.

MATT KLEMIN

Assistant Coach
8th Year
Cal Poly '05

A sideline veteran with coaching experience at nearly every level, Assistant Coach Matt Klemen enters his eighth season as a member of the UC Davis women's basketball coaching staff in 2018-19, focusing his efforts on skill development, working with the Aggies' guards, opponent scouts, and helping coordinate the program's recruiting efforts.

Klemen joined the UC Davis sidelines prior to the 2011-12 season, just in time to help the Aggies to a 17-13 record and a berth in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT). The last two seasons, he has had a hand in helping UC Davis to back-to-back Big West Conference regular season titles and a pair of deep runs in the Women's National Invitation Tournament, reaching the "Sweet 16" in 2017 and the "Elite Eight" in 2018 — the latter the furthest any Big West school has advanced in the tournament.

With his assistance, guards Samantha Meggison (2011-12) and Cortney French (2012-13) earned All-Big West Conference honors in his first two seasons, while later helping Kelsey Harris rank among the nation's top three-point shooters during her two seasons as an Aggie, eventually finishing No. 3 in the nation while setting school and conference records in numerous three-point categories in 2014-15.

Sydnee Fipps, a three-time All-Big West Conference first team selection who led the team in scoring for three consecutive seasons, finished her career as the No. 2 scorer in the program's history with 1,636 points, and stands among the top 10 in seven other categories entering the 2018-19 season. She has played professionally overseas in Portugal and Australia, earning WSBL All-Star honors with the Lakeside Lightning in the latter.

Recent graduates Pele Gianotti, a three-time All-Big West selection, and Rachel Nagel, who earned second team honors as a senior, reaching the 1,000-point milestone in 2017-18 and both finishing among the top 20 in the history of the program in scoring as well as numerous other categories.

Gianotti embarked on a professional career after graduation, signing with a club in Germany, who Nagel returned to her hometown to coach her high school's varsity team before undertaking graduate school.

Prior to the Aggies, Klemen spent five seasons as an assistant coach in Southern California, spending two years at Vanguard University in Costa Mesa, California, one season at Azusa Pacific, and two more campaigns at Cal Baptist University in Riverside, California.

A 2004 graduate of Cal Poly, Klemen also spent two seasons as an assistant coach and director of basketball operations for the Mustangs' women's team from 2004-06, helping them to the second round of the conference tournament in his second year.

As an undergraduate, Klemen began his coaching career as an assistant varsity coach and junior varsity head coach at San Luis Obispo HS, while also holding positions at the AAU and middle school levels, as well as an instructor at a number of summer camps.

Klemen earned his bachelor's degree in graphic communications and added a master's degree in education administration from Cal Poly a year later. He and his wife, Lindsay, were married in 2014, and the couple resides in Sacramento with their son, Wyatt.

CAL AGGIE ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The UC Davis Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1980 to provide special recognition for outstanding accomplishment in intercollegiate athletics.

To be considered for the Hall of Fame, a participant must have competed with unusual distinction in an intercollegiate sport for at least two seasons, achieved recognition at the conference, regional or preferably national levels, and achieved this accomplishment in a manner the exemplifies the UC Davis concept of a student-athlete.

Furthermore, a five-year period must elapse from the most recent participation in athletics before a student-athlete becomes eligible for induction.

Through 2017-18 there are 40 men's and women's basketball players and coaches enshrined in the UC Davis Athletic Hall of Fame. Paige Mintun is the most recent inductee from women's basketball, earning induction in 2017.

THE PAVILION

Formerly known as Recreation Hall, the Pavilion ranks as one of the largest on-campus basketball facilities in Northern California. The arena opened to the sport in the 1977-78 season and has been home to all the excitement of Aggie basketball since that time.

On Dec. 9, 1995, the basketball floor inside the Pavilion was renamed Hamilton Court, in honor of former men's basketball coach Bob Hamilton, who passed away just days prior to the ceremonies.

The Pavilion was built with funds allocated by the students themselves. It still provides the student body, staff, faculty and the community with a superb and diverse recreational facility. In the spring of 2004, the neighboring Activities & Recreation Center (ARC) opened its doors, offering an even wider variety of opportunities.

The arena has undergone recent renovations as part of the Facilities And Campus Enhancement (F.A.C.E.) Initiative. Recent improvements to the facility include full-color Daktronics ProStar and ProAd displays, an enhanced scoreboard, three-directional shot clocks and renovated team rooms.

The Pavilion underwent another major overhaul in the fall of 2009. A new seating system with wider aisles was installed. Portions of the formerly continuous concrete wall were removed to allow access from the arena-level seating to the concourse. Other improvements include a new speaker system and – more noticeable – a portable maple playing surface atop a multipurpose floor.

The Pavilion foyer houses the Colby E. "Babe" Slater Hall of Fame & Trophy Room, where the campus exhibits three NCAA Woman of the Year trophies, six NACDA Directors' Cups and a special display in honor of Slater, a two-time Olympic medalist and UC Davis' first standout student-athlete.

The first official basketball game ever played in the Pavilion was on Nov. 26, 1977, when 2,600 watched the University of the Pacific beat the Aggies, 78-69.

Intercollegiate teams which also use the Pavilion include the Aggie women's volleyball and women's gymnastics teams. Additionally, the UC Davis wrestling team recently converted the South Concourse into its practice facility. The wrestlers also use the arena for tournaments and key dual matches, including a January 2005 showdown with the University of Iowa.

The Pavilion has served as the site for a number of postseason championships, including the USA Gymnastics Collegiate National Championships, the Pacific-10 Conference Wrestling Championships, numerous NCAA West Region tournaments for men's and women's basketball and volleyball.

In addition to collegiate athletics events, the California Inter-scholastic Federation and the Volleyball Festival have held their respective championship events on Hamilton Court. The Pavilion has also hosted numerous concerts and entertainment events. More recent acts include Bob Dylan, Steve Miller Band, Ke$ha and Drake; comedian Bill Maher, TeenMania ministries and World Wrestling Entertainment. Both the Sacramento Kings and the Golden State Warriors have held preseason games on Hamilton Court.

Furthermore, The Pavilion serves as annual venue for the university's commencement ceremonies and the Aggie Auction, the athletics department's gala fundraiser.

For basketball, the Pavilion can seat nearly 6,000. Both the men's and women's basketball teams have set program attendance records during recent seasons as part of the athletics department's annual "Break The Record Night" promotion, although the all-time attendance record of 7,926 is no longer attainable in the current configuration.

On Nov. 14, 2014, a record 4,712 fans filed into the Pavilion to watch the UC Davis women's basketball take on No. 1-ranked UConn for a televised season opener.
