GARY STEWART

Head Coach
3rd Year

MAKING HIS MARK

Gary Stewart wasted no time establishing his name on the UC Davis men's basketball program. In 2003-04, his first season with the Aggies, Stewart transformed a team that finished three games under .500 into one that posted an 18-9 record, including a 15-7 mark in the Division II powerhouse California Collegiate Athletic Association.

Then in Stewart's sophomore season, he guided the Aggies through their first predominantly Division I schedule. UC Davis won 11 games, including three victories in overtime. The Aggies also made solid showings against eventual NCAA Tournament participants Stanford and Pacific, despite having to compete on these team's home courts. Additionally, Stewart's program won five games against tough Big West Conference competition.

A WINNING TRADITION

The quick emergence is hardly surprising, however, when one considers Stewart's remarkable penchant for quickly bringing success to basketball programs. In his first head coaching stint, he guided his alma mater La Verne from last place to first in a matter of three years. Less than a decade later, Stewart worked his magic again – this time at Cal State Hayward (now Cal State East Bay), which had gone 22-79 in its previous four seasons. Just two years later, the Pioneers set a school record for wins and captured a share (with UC Davis) of the Northern California Athletic Conference.

In becoming Aggie men's basketball's 22nd head coach, Stewart brings 21 years of experience as a highly respected and decorated player, assistant coach and head coach at all three levels of NCAA basketball. During his coaching career, he has demonstrated the utmost dedication to both the academic and athletic goals of his student-athletes, making him an excellent fit for the Aggie program.

EXPERIENCE AT THE HIGHEST LEVELS

Stewart came to UC Davis from UCLA, where he assisted Steve Lavin as director of basketball services during the 2002-03 season. His duties with the Bruins included recruiting, promotions, compliance and community relations.

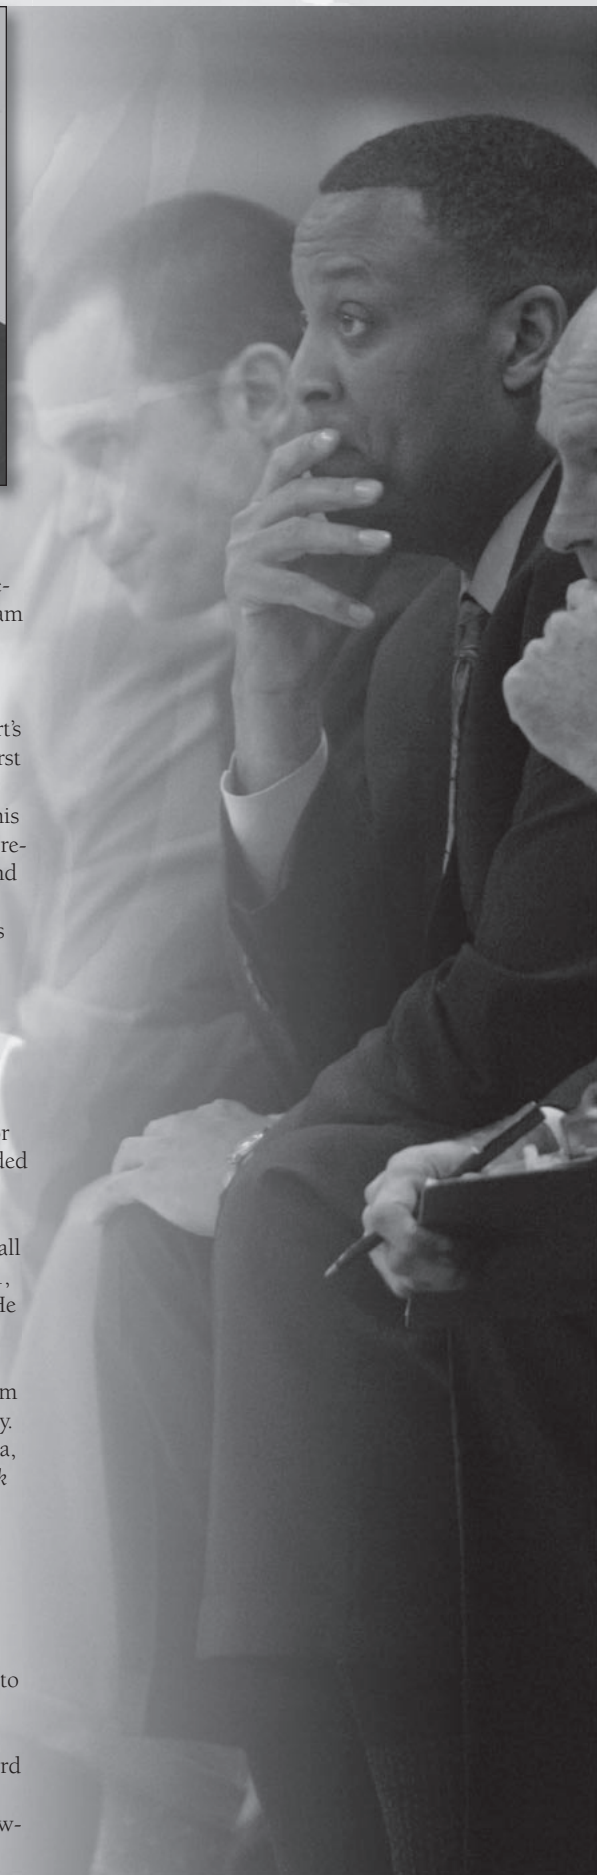

Before his stint at UCLA, Stewart served as an assistant coach at Washington State for three seasons, where he was involved in all aspects of the Cougar basketball program. During his tenure in Pullman, Stewart worked with the staffs of the 2001, 2002 and 2003 NCAA Final Four Youth Education through Sports (YES) clinics. He capped his WSU career by being chosen as an assistant coach to Michigan State's Tom Izzo for the 2002 NABC All-Star Game. Stewart also assisted Maryland head coach Gary Williams on the NABC All-Star staff in 2003, then worked alongside Jim Boeheim (Syracuse) and Jim Calhoun (Connecticut) in 2004 and 2005, respectively.

Stewart spent the 1997-98 season at yet another UC program, UC Santa Barbara, as an assistant coach to Jerry Pimm. During that one year, he was honored by Dunk Magazine as one of the top assistant coaches in the country.

A PROGRAM ARCHITECT

In his first 10 years as a collegiate head coach – eight at the University of La Verne, two at Cal State Hayward – Stewart took home four conference championships. He took the helm of the La Verne program in 1987 and guided it from last place to first place in just three years. He remains the only coach in school history to lead his team to a conference title or a berth in the NCAA Div. III Championships. Additionally, he ranks second all-time at La Verne with 116 wins.

Following his tenure with Leopard basketball, Stewart went to Cal State Hayward to take over a program that had gone 22-79 in its previous four years. Again, he guided a team from last to first place – this time in just two years. For his part, Stewart was named NCAC Co-Coach of the Year and was a nominee for NABC District

Coach of the Year honors. Furthermore, the Oakland Tribune selected him as Bay Area Men's College Coach of the Year for all divisions.

THE SEEDS OF SUCCESS

Stewart graduated from La Verne in 1984 with a degree in physical education following a highly distinguished playing career. He earned All-SCIAC distinction all four years and All-District VIII honors in each of his last three seasons. A three-year team captain, Stewart finished his career ranked among the Leopards' top 10 in numerous statistical categories. He captured his team's Ted Ducey Award, bestowed upon the senior who best exemplifies outstanding achievement in academics, athletics, leadership and sportsmanship.

In 2002, his careers as both a player and coach were recognized once again as he was honored as a Distinguished Graduate during the university's 75th Diamond Jubilee festivities.

After his undergraduate career, Stewart began his coaching career as an assistant at Long Beach State from 1984 to 1986, during which time he began work toward his master's degree. Stewart continued his graduate studies during his coaching career at La Verne, completing his master's of arts degree in education in 1995.

Stewart remains involved as an educator: in addition to his coaching duties at UC Davis, he serves as a lecturer in the exercise biology department. Among the courses he teaches is Ethical Issues In College Athletics.

A MODEL CITIZEN

Throughout his career, Stewart has also garnered such awards as The Outstanding Young Men of America Award (1984), Who's Who Among Black Americans (1989), Who's Who Among Rising Young Americans (1990) and a UC Davis Community Service Award (2005).

He also is or has been a member of the NABC Assistant Coaches Board of Directors, the Black Coaches Association (BCA) and Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA). Stewart was recently appointed to the NABC Ethics Committee, joining Roy Williams of North Carolina and Bill Self of Kansas.

Stewart remains active in the community. He serves on the boards of directors for the City of Hope Cancer Center (Duarte, Calif.), the East Oakland Youth Foundation, the United Way and the ALS Foundation. Stewart also developed the Free Throws For Heroes program for 9/11 relief, which was adopted by the NABC. He continues to volunteer with the Special Olympics, bringing along the entire Aggie team to the effort last spring. During the fall of 2005, Stewart and the Aggie men's basketball program spearheaded an effort to raise relief funds for the American Red Cross in the wake of the Hurricane Katrina disaster.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT GARY STEWART

"It is great to see Gary in charge of a program at such a fine university. He is certainly skilled in all areas that contribute to success in today's athletic world and he will represent UC Davis in an excellent manner."

Gregg Popovich, Head Coach
San Antonio Spurs

"I was fortunate to meet Gary Stewart at a coaching clinic a few years back, and I've consistently been impressed with his intelligence, competitiveness and friendly demeanor. UC Davis made a wise choice in selecting him to guide its course to the Division I level."

Mike DeCourcy, Senior Writer
The Sporting News

"Coach Stewart has impressive experience and has proven he will recruit student-athletes with character and commitment who will play hard and graduate."

Mike Montgomery, Head Coach
Golden State Warriors

"This is a tremendous opportunity for both Gary and UC Davis. Gary has always done things the right way. He has paid his dues and touched every base along the way. Davis couldn't have found a better fit. Sometimes you just get a good feeling of success when someone gets a head coaching job; that was the feeling I had when Gary was named head coach at UC Davis."

Kelvin Sampson, Head Coach
Univ. of Oklahoma

"I've known Gary for many years and have the utmost respect for him as do college, high school and junior college coaches all throughout the West. He's a true student of the game and has an unbridled passion for hard work, both on and off the court. There is no question that he will soon have the UC Davis program near the top of the Big West and competing for conference championships and NCAA tournament bids, year in and year out."

Frank Burlison, Columnist
Long Beach Press Telegram

"Gary Stewart is a tireless worker and he's driven to make UC Davis a player in Division I."

Andy Katz,
ESPN College Basketball Analyst

GREG CLINK

*Assistant Coach
7th Year*

Greg Clink begins his seventh season on the UC Davis bench, assisting in all facets of the men's program. His intimate knowledge of the university, campus, and city of Davis make him an invaluable asset to the coaching staff.

In addition to his coaching duties, Clink also serves as a instructor in the exercise biology department at UC Davis.

"The level of trust I have in Coach Clink's judgement, loyalty and knowledge creates an optimal relationship between us on and off the court," says Aggie junior Thomas Juillerat. "Relationships like this make up the foundation for the environment necessary for success."

This marks the second Aggie stint and third head coach for Clink, who first joined the UC Davis coaching staff in 1996-97 as an assistant to Bob Williams. The Aggies finished 20-9 that year, winning the Northern California Athletic Conference championship and advancing to the NCAA Division II West Regional.

After serving the 1997-98 season as head coach at Gavilan College in Gilroy, Calif., Clink rejoined Williams' staff when the former Aggie coach was named head coach at UC Santa Barbara in 1998. UCSB finished 15-13 in 1998-99, winning the Big West Conference's West Division championship, and went 14-14 in 1999-2000, finishing second in the division.

Clink was reunited with the UC Davis program for the 2000-01 season, serving as Brian Fogel's top assistant.

Clink graduated from Chico State in 1994. He played for the Wildcats for two years following a two-year stint at Gavilan College. Clink earned Chico State Basketball's Most Inspirational award in 1994. Clink experienced a great deal of success at Chico, winning two NCAC Championships, while advancing to the NCAA Western Regional Championships in 1992-1993. Immediately following his playing career at Chico, Clink served as an assistant to head coach Puck Smith for two seasons. During this time, he completed his master's degree in physical education.

He and his wife, Courtney, were married in the summer of 2002 and reside in Dixon. The couple has a set of twin sons, Justin and Tyler and is expecting their third child in January 2006.

BOBBY STEINBURG

*Assistant Coach
3rd Year*

Bobby Steinburg enters his third season with the Aggie staff and will again assume the role of recruiting coordinator. He assists in all facets of the program, with an emphasis on recruiting, skill development, and public relations. Additionally, he serves the exercise biology department as an instructor.

"Steinburg is quickly making a name for himself among assistant basketball coaches on the west coast as a tireless recruiter with a keen eye for talent," says west-coast recruiting guru Gerry Freitas.

"One of the primary reasons I felt a high level of comfort with UC Davis was due to the trust and loyalty Coach Steinburg showed me throughout the recruiting process," said Aggie freshman guard, Vince Oliver. "Coach Steinburg is one of the hardest working coaches I have ever met. Not only is he a great teacher of fundamentals, but he is a man of great integrity."

Prior to arriving at UC Davis, Steinburg spent two seasons as top assistant coach at Bellarmine University in Louisville, Ky. Steinburg assisted in all areas of the Knights' program, including recruiting, on-court instruction, student-athlete academic development and public relations. As Aggie fans may remember, Bellarmine served as host to the 1998 NCAA Division II championship when UC Davis defeated Kentucky Wesleyan, 83-77.

Steinburg, no stranger to the Big West Conference, spent the 2000-2001 season coaching at the University of Idaho under one of the game's great teachers, C. David Farrar. His appointment distinguished him among the youngest Division I full-time assistant coaches in the country at the age of 25. It was there that Steinburg forged his relationship with then Washington State assistant coach, Gary Stewart, as the two campuses lay only 7 miles apart.

Prior to his stint at Idaho, Steinburg served two years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator to Lonnie Thompson at Motlow State Community College in Lynchburg, Tenn. His back-to-back recruiting classes helped put Motlow in the national top-25 in the National Junior College Athletic Association for two straight years. He began his coaching career as a both a student and graduate assistant coach under Farrar and former North Carolina Tar Heel Randy Wiel at Middle Tennessee State in Murfreesboro, Tenn..

Steinburg received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Middle Tennessee State. Originally from Oswego, N.Y., Steinburg grew up in Richmond, Va. He and his wife, Sandy, were married in the summer of 2004 after a dramatic engagement in which Bobby proposed on the half-hour reality-based television show, "Perfect Proposal", on TLC. The couple currently resides in Sacramento.

1st Year*

Gus Argenal returns to the UC Davis basketball program in a new position of leadership. After leading the Aggies on the floor at the point guard position for four years, Argenal now finds himself on the bench as an assistant coach. Argenal, who is among the youngest assistant coaches in Division I, holds the distinction of being the first UC Davis graduate under coach Gary Stewart. He will assist in various facets of the program including, skill development, scouting, film exchange and editing, and recruiting.

"I am honored to have had Coach Argenal as a teammate and now a coach," says junior guard Rommel Marentez. He is the greatest leader I have ever played with and I am truly excited to continue to learn from him. You cannot say enough about his heart and passion for the game."

Following his graduation from UC Davis in 2004, Argenal was hired as a graduate assistant coach at Arizona State in the Pac-10 Conference. At ASU, Argenal assisted in various components of the Sun Devil program including, film exchange and editing, scouting, and compliance.

As an Aggie student-athlete, Argenal started 51 games at point guard position during his playing career. He ranks fifth all-time in Aggie history with 274 assists, including the single game record of 13. During his final two seasons with the Aggies, Argenal was among the league leaders in assist-to-turnover ratio with close to a 2.5-to-1.

Argenal managed to complete his graduate degree at Arizona State in less than one year and received his masters in education in August of 2005. Argenal is engaged to former Aggie women's basketball player Hannah Turner. The couple will be married in May of 2006.

DUANE KOUBA

*Administrative Assistant
11th Year*

Kouba enters his 11th season with the UC Davis men's basketball program. His primary responsibilities include practice and game statistics, student-athlete academic progress, and public relations.

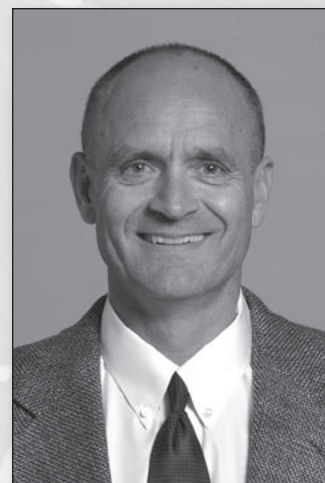

"You can't help but smile whenever Duane Kouba enters the locker room," says senior forward Phil Rasmussen. "His value to the team as a mentor is paramount to our student-athletes."

A 1974 graduate of Northern Iowa, Kouba received his Ph.D in mathematics from Colorado State in 1982. He is currently a lecturer in the Department of Mathematics, where in 1992 and 1998 he was named Lecturer of the Year. For the past 15 years Kouba has served as Director for his department's successful Emerging Scholars Program (ESP), an honors, cooperative-learning calculus laboratory. In May 2004 Kouba was one of three professors in the College of Letters and Science selected as a Distinguished University of California, Davis Educator, an ASUCD Excellence in Education Award.

Kouba has the distinction of being the only Aggie basketball staff member with an NCAA Championship ring. He served as a volunteer assistant coach for the 1997-1998 UC Davis team which won the NCAA Div. II national championship.

Kouba remains active in California Masters and World Masters basketball competitions.

His son, Robert, is currently a freshman at UC Santa Cruz.

CAL AGGIE ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

The UC Davis Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1980 to provide special recognition for outstanding accomplishment in intercollegiate athletics.

To be considered for the Hall of Fame, a participant must have competed with unusual distinction in an intercollegiate sport for at least two seasons, achieved recognition at the conference, regional or preferably national levels, and achieved this accomplishment in a manner that exemplifies the UC Davis concept of a student-athlete.

Furthermore, a five-year period must elapse from the most recent participation in athletics before an athlete becomes eligible for induction.

Through 2003-04 there are 32 men's and women's basketball players and coaches enshrined in the UC Davis Athletic Hall of Fame.

THE PAVILION - HOME OF THE AGGIES

Formerly known as Recreation Hall, the Pavilion ranks as one of the largest on-campus basketball facilities in Northern California. The arena opened to the sport in the 1977-78 season and has been home to all the excitement of Aggie basketball since that time.

On Dec. 9, 1995, the basketball floor inside the Pavilion was renamed Hamilton Court, in honor of former men's basketball coach Bob Hamilton, who passed away just days prior to the ceremonies.

The Pavilion was built with funds allocated by the students themselves. It still provides the student body, staff, faculty and the community with a superb and diverse recreational facility.

The arena has undergone recent renovations as part of the Facilities And Campus Enhancement (F.A.C.E.) Initiative. Recent improvements to the facility include full-color Daktronics ProStar and ProAd displays, an enhanced scoreboard, three-directional shot clocks and renovated team rooms.

The Pavilion foyer houses the Colby E. "Babe" Slater Hall of Fame & Trophy Room, where the campus exhibits three NCAA Woman of the Year trophies, six NACDA Directors' Cups and a special display in honor of Slater, a two-time Olympic medalist and UC Davis' first standout student-athlete.

The first official basketball game ever played in the Pavilion was on Nov. 26, 1977, when 2,600 watched the University of the Pacific beat the Aggies, 78-69.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE: Aggie basketball enjoyed its first capacity crowd on January 31, 1998, when 7,860 witnessed UC Davis' victory over Chico State (shown above). A year later, an overflowing crowd of 7,926 packed the arena for the Aggie-Wildcat matchup.

Intercollegiate teams which also use the Pavilion include the Aggie women's volleyball and women's gymnastics teams. The UC Davis wrestling team uses the arena for tournaments and key dual matches, including January's showdown with the University of Iowa.

The Pavilion has served as the site for a number of postseason championships, including the USA Gymnastics Collegiate National Championships, the Pacific-10 Conference Wrestling Championships and numerous NCAA West Region tournaments for men's and women's basketball and volleyball. Additionally, the Aggie gymnasts hosted the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation Championships in March 2005.

In addition to collegiate athletics events, the California Interscholastic Federation and the Volleyball Festival have held their respective championship events on Hamilton Court. The Pavilion has also hosted numerous concerts and entertainment events. More recent acts include rock legends Bob Dylan, Phish and Steve Miller Band; comedian Bill Maher, TeenMania ministries and World Wrestling Entertainment. Both the Sacramento Kings and the Golden State Warriors have held preseason games on Hamilton Court.

Furthermore, The Pavilion serves as annual venue for the university's commencement ceremonies and the Aggie Auction, the athletics department's gala fundraiser.

For basketball, the Pavilion can seat more than 7,600. Both the men's and women's basketball teams have set program attendance records during recent seasons as part of the athletics department's annual "Break The Record Night" promotion. In an effort to surpass the all-time attendance record of 7,926, set during the 1999 season, the marketing and promotions office distributes complimentary tickets throughout the campus and local community.

For more on UC Davis' athletics facilities, see the campus section on pages v-vi.

THIS IS UC DAVIS

ACADEMICS

UC Davis comprises three colleges (Agricultural & Environmental Sciences, Engineering, Letters & Science), five professional schools (Education, Law, Management, Medicine, Veterinary Medicine) plus the Division of Biological Sciences.

With 103 undergraduate majors and 80 graduate programs, the university offers the most expansive and diverse range of academics among any of the University of California campuses. Additionally, students also have the opportunity to combine majors or customize their field of study by creating an individual major.

For those interested in graduate degrees – whether it be a master's degree or a doctorate – UC Davis offers advising services to help students craft their education toward those goals. An estimated 86 percent of UC Davis students applying to graduate schools earn acceptance to either their first or second choices.

RANKINGS

UC Davis ranks 11th among public universities, according to U.S. News & World Report, and 16th by the National Research Council. Furthermore, the National Science Foundation places the university 15th in the nation in research funding, and Money magazine considered UC Davis as one of the West's top "best buys".

Additionally, the Gourman Report rated the genetics department at No. 1, while U.S. News & World Report ranked the College of Engineering as No. 13 among its peers.

COMMUNITY

With a population of approximately 60 thousand, Davis is widely known for being a safe, active and socially innovative community.

The downtown area boasts a multitude of specialty shops, restaurants, theaters and art galleries; while the city's numerous parks offer recreational opportunities for active students.

ACTIVITIES

On campus, UC Davis students can rally around the highly successful athletics department by joining the Aggie Pack spirit organization, or enjoy a first-class performance at the Robert & Magrit Mondavi Center for the Performing Arts.

The university also offers hundreds of student clubs and organizations, including cultural clubs, fraternities and sororities, faith-based organizations and the Associated Students of UC Davis student government.

For the active Aggie, students may participate in the diverse intramural sports program or join one of the 30-plus sports clubs. In 2004, the Activities & Recreation Center (ARC) opened its doors, providing the campus with its own state-of-the-art fitness venue.

In April, UC Davis hosts Picnic Day, an annual student-run open house. The popular event showcases all that the campus has to offer, attracting students, staff, faculty, parents, alumni and members of the surrounding communities.

GETTING AROUND

Nestled just southwest of Sacramento, the city of Davis rests just 15 minutes from an international airport, and contains a downtown station serviced by Greyhound and Amtrak. Centrally located in the Sacramento Valley, the town sits equally close to both the finest ski resorts and the Pacific Ocean's top beaches.

Within Davis and its neighboring towns, both Yolo-bus and the student-operated Unitrans bus systems offer free transportation to registered undergraduates.

The town boasts more bicycles per capita than any other city in the nation. More than 50 miles of bike paths make the entire town conducive to both riders and pedestrians.

CAMPUS LEADERSHIP

LARRY VANDERHOEF

Larry N. Vanderhoef was appointed chancellor of the University of California, Davis, in April 1994. He joined the campus in 1984 as executive vice chancellor and provost.

During his 10-plus years as chancellor, the campus was invited to membership in the AAU; increased its extramural awards from $169.1 million to $420.7 million annually, earning a National Science Foundation (NSF) research funding ranking of 14th in the U.S.; expanded classroom, lab, clinical and office space by 2 million square feet, with 1 million more to be built over the next five years; completed the transformation of an ailing county hospital to an academically distinguished and financially sound regional medical center; and made distinctive strides in recruiting a diverse and accomplished faculty and student body.

Chancellor Vanderhoef was recently honored by the Sacramento Business Journal as one of the 20 people who have contributed most substantially to California's capital region over the past 20 years and by the Sacramento Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce as Sacramentoan of the Year.

In 2004 he led a UC Davis delegation to Iran in an effort to promote dialogue and scholar exchange, and to promote generally the notion of crossing boundaries to build greater understanding and good will - a continuing personal and professional effort.

His research interests lie in the general area of plant growth and development, and in the evolution of the land-grant universities. He has taught classes from freshman level to advanced graduate study.

Chancellor Vanderhoef has served on various national commissions addressing graduate and international education, the role of a modern land-grant university and accrediting issues.

He holds B.S. and M.S. degrees in biology from the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, and a Ph.D. in plant biochemistry from Purdue University. Previously, he held faculty positions at the University of Illinois, where he also served as a department head, and at the University of Maryland, College Park, where he was appointed provost. He was awarded honorary doctoral degrees by Purdue University and by Inje University in Korea.

VIRGINIA HINSHAW

Virginia S. Hinshaw, Ph.D. serves as the Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor of UC Davis. In that capacity, she is the campus's chief academic and financial officer and acts for the Chancellor in his absence. Hinshaw's responsibilities include oversight of the campus's $2.2 billion budget and overall responsibility for the UC Davis Health System; campus operations, including resource management, planning and policy development; and strategic leadership in planning, coordinating and implementing academic direction and programs. Prior to joining UC Davis in 2001, she served as the Dean of the Graduate School and Vice Chancellor for Research at the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

In addition to her administrative duties, Hinshaw maintains a joint appointment in two academic departments as a Professor of Virology in the Department of Internal Medicine, School of Medicine, and in the Department of Pathology, Microbiology and Immunology, School of Veterinary Medicine at UC Davis. For over 25 years she has conducted research on viruses, primarily influenza, at different hospitals and universities, including Medical College of Virginia, University of California Berkeley, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Harvard Medical School, and the University of Wisconsin Madison. Hinshaw's research has increased our understanding of various aspects of influenza viruses, such as important hosts in nature, transmission among humans, lower mammals and birds, genetic changes related to disease severity, the molecular basis of cell killing, and new approaches to vaccines. Her innovative and energetic teaching style, combined with her continual advocacy for research and education, has earned her national recognition and acclaim.

UC Davis Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor

JUDY SAKAKI

Judy Sakaki assumed her position as Vice Chancellor of the Division of Student Affairs in July 2002. Dr. Sakaki oversees programs and services that enhance the academic and personal development of students, including intercollegiate athletics.

Sakaki received her bachelor's and master's degrees from California State University, Hayward, in 1975 and 1977, respectively, and a Ph.D. from UC Berkeley in 1991. In 1994-95 she was an Executive Fellow in the Executive Leadership Development Program and the California State University. She also served as an American Council on Education Fellow during that period.

In 1995 she joined California State University, Fresno, as dean of Student Affairs, and in 1997 was appointed vice president for Student Affairs and dean of students.

Sakaki brought substantial experience with diverse student populations to the campus as well as an impressive ability to forge links between student services and academic programs. UC Davis students, and the campus community, benefit significantly from her expertise, insights, and passion for providing an optimal learning environment.

UC DAVIS ATHLETICS

Director of Athletics

On August 1, 1995, Greg Warzecka became the 11th director of athletics at UC Davis. In the decade-plus since, the Aggie athletics program has enjoyed unprecedented success under his guidance.

Warzecka's penchant for progress began from his first year as director when he was charged with the task of fully engaging the campus in discussions regarding whether or not UC Davis would offer athletics-related financial aid. One year later, the campus announced the launch of its first-ever grant-in-aid program.

Warzecka has also overseen UC Davis' transition into two conferences in his short tenure. In 1998, the Aggies moved from the now-defunct Northern California Athletic Conference to the powerful California Collegiate Athletic Association. Then in 2003, the UC Davis program announced that it would join the Big West Conference and thus reclassify from NCAA Division II to Division I status.

During Warzecka tenure, UC Davis captured six

NACDA Division II Directors' Cups as the most outstanding overall program in the country. For his part, NACDA selected Warzecka as its A.D. of the year for the D-II West Region in 2001-02.

Furthermore, the editors of Sports Illustrated magazine lauded the Aggie program on three different occasions. In 1999 and 2000, Sports Illustrated For Women named UC Davis as the top Division II school for women athletics. One year later, SI selected UC Davis as its top D-II school for the 2001-02 year.

Before turning to administration, Warzecka had been a successful baseball coach, first as an assistant at his alma mater, UC Berkeley. He then served as head coach at San Francisco State, then at the University of Chicago, where he also served his first post as men's athletics director. Warzecka returned to California in 1989 to become the A.D. at the University of Redlands, where he remained until he joined the Aggie athletics staff.

SERVING THE UC DAVIS STUDENT-ATHLETE

STUDENT-ATHLETE GUIDANCE SERVICES

204/208 Hickey Gym • (530) 752-3259

UC Davis ranks among the leaders in NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship Awards and Academic All-District/America honorees, and has claimed a record three winners of the NCAA Woman of the Year Award. Student-Athlete Guidance Services deserves much of the credit for these accomplishments.

The SAGS office started in 1988 with a single staff member serving as a centralized resource for academic advising, eligibility information and campus referrals. The office has since expanded to include additional academic advisors, an athletic aid coordinator, an assistant eligibility coordinator and an administrative assistant. It is headed by Pam Gill-Fisher, senior associate director of athletics.

The SAGS office provides a range of services to student-athletes on all 26 intercollegiate athletics teams, including assistance with course and major selection as well as interpretation and clarification of eligibility rules and issues.

UC Davis student-athletes typically have a minimum of three academic advisors: an athletic academic advisor assigned by sport, a college advisor, and a major advisor (if the student has a declared major). Although appointments with the athletic academic advisors are not mandatory at UC Davis, student-athletes might choose to see their athletic academic advisor for issues including:

- Balancing academic and athletic expectations
- General education (GE) requirements
- Dropping/adding courses
- Time management/study skills
- Assistance completing the mandatory Academic Plan Form
- Study hall for student-athletes
- Personal issues that affect academic performance
- Choosing a major/career
- Declaring or changing a major
- Campus resources
- Exploration of opportunities beyond athletics
- Preparation for graduate programs
- Preparation and application for NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and other national awards

ATHLETIC TRAINING / SPORTS MEDICINE

Dick Lewis Training Room (115 Hickey Gym) • (530) 752-0647

The Pavilion Training Room • (530) 752-7515

Known collectively as “The Healer of Champions”, the UC Davis athletic training staff comprises five full-time certified athletic trainers, a full-time physical therapist/certified athletic trainer and approximately 24 student athletic trainers. Together, they are responsible for providing medical care to the 800-plus student-athletes that compose UC Davis’ 26 varsity teams.

The student athletic trainers serve two to three years with the program, logging in more than 1,500 hours and gaining valuable clinical education in a hands-on environment. The internship is ideal for any student interested in a graduate program in athletic training, as well as any medical or allied medical profession.

The ARC Pavilion training room contains extensive resources and equipment for the rehabilitation of injured athletes. The staff physical therapist is headquartered there as well.

HOME OF THE AGGIES

The palatial Activities & Recreation Center (ARC) opened its doors during the spring of 2004, offering a wide array of fitness areas, including full-size basketball courts, a multi-use activity center for indoor soccer or hockey, a running/jogging track, weight rooms, aerobics facilities, squash and racquetball courts and a rock-climbing wall.

Additional amenities include a wellness center, student lounges and opportunities for conferences and special events.

ACTIVITIES & RECREATION CENTER

The ARC adjoins the Pavilion (left), formerly known as Recreation Hall, the home venue for UC Davis basketball, volleyball, wrestling and gymnastics, as well as concerts and special events. With a seating capacity of nearly 8,000, the Pavilion ranks as one of the largest on-campus arenas in Northern California.

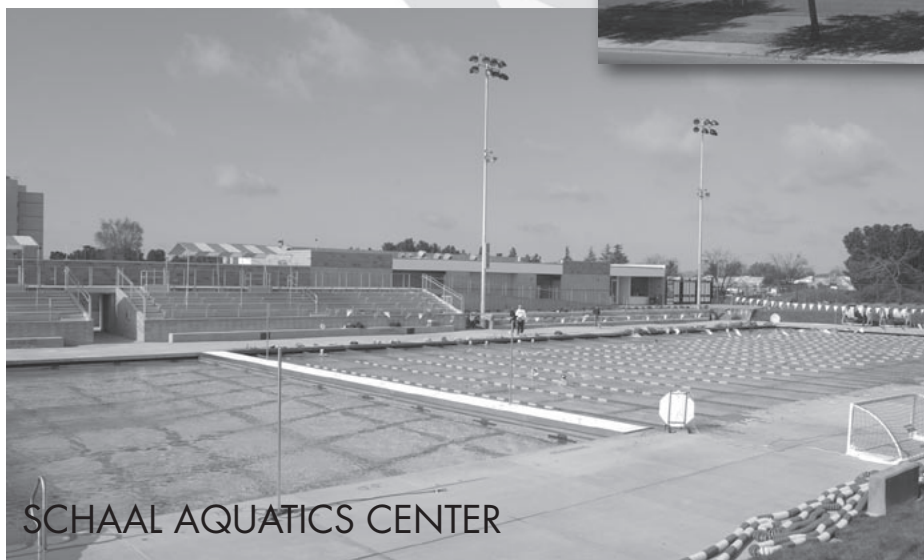

THE PAVILION

Recognized in 1999 as "Softball Field of the Year" by the Sports Turf Managers Association, La Rue Field hosted five NCAA West Region Softball Championships in the past decade. Recent additions include batting cages, covered dugouts and improved press areas.

LA RUE FIELD

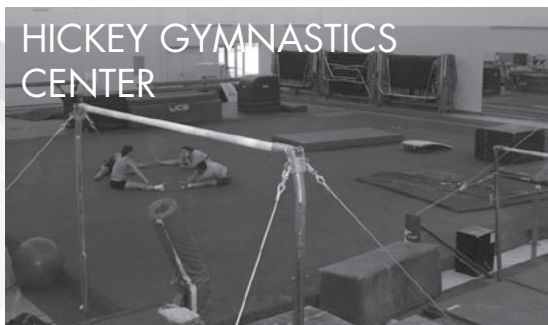

In January of 2004, the Ted & Rand Schaal Aquatics Center hosted its first event. The complex features an Olympic-sized pool, locker rooms, team rooms, office space and permanent seating for approximately 500 spectators. The aquatics center will allow UC Davis to host championship events, such as this year's Western Water Polo Association championships.

SCHAAL AQUATICS CENTER

HICKEY GYMNASTICS CENTER

The former Lower Hickey Gym, the first home of women's athletics in the post-Title IX era, was converted to a first-class practice for the Aggie gymnastics team in 2005.

AGGIE FIELD

Both Aggie Field (left), the home of soccer and lacrosse, and the James & Ann Dobbins Baseball Complex (below) were the result of volunteer efforts dating back to the mid-1980s.

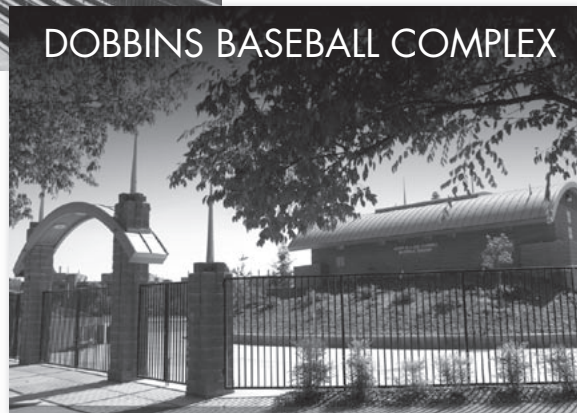

TOOMEY WEIGHT ROOM

UC Davis student-athletes welcomed the expanded weight room, located inside Toomey Field. In addition to nearly tripling in size the previous facility, the upgrade also included all new equipment, restrooms and office space. In June 2005, former Olympian Andy Bloom was named as the program's first full-time strength and conditioning coach.

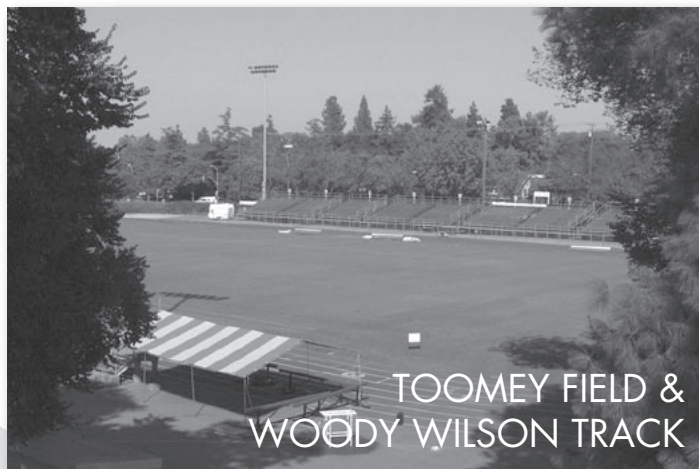

Built in the 1950s, Toomey Field has hosted numerous championship events for football, track & field and lacrosse. During the 2000 Olympic Trials, standouts Marion Jones and Michael Johnson used the Woody Wilson Track as a practice facility.

DOBBINS BASEBALL COMPLEX

Dobbins boasts one of the finest playing services in Northern California. In 2002, the stadium was enhanced to include a press box, a renovated entrance and permanent concession/restroom facilities.

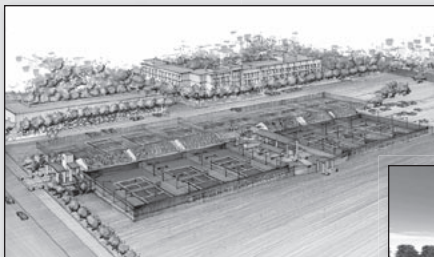

TOOMEY FIELD & WOODY WILSON TRACK

FUTURE GAMES

In the upcoming years, UC Davis Athletics will see the opening of two first-class athletics facilities. The Marya Welch Tennis Center (left), an upgrade of the existing Hickey Tennis Courts, began construction in 2004. Long-term plans for the tennis venue include grandstand seating with restroom/concessions. Its first phase was dedicated in April 2005.

Aggie football and women's lacrosse will move to a multi-purpose stadium, located adjacent to the Schaal Aquatics Center, as early as the 2006-07 academic year. Initial concept designs call for seating of 10,000 to 15,000 spectators, with an eventual build-out to as many as 30,000.

Note: each drawing represents a concept for full build-out. Designs are subject to change.

TRANSITION TO DIVISION I

On March 11, 2003, UC Davis made a landmark move in its storied intercollegiate athletics history when Chancellor Larry Vanderhoef announced that the university would reclassify from NCAA Division II to NCAA Division I status and join the Big West Conference. The announcement came after much discussion by campus administrators, faculty, staff, students, alumni and local community.

Additionally, UC Davis undergraduate students passed the Campus Expansion Initiative, which will help fund the Aggies' growing athletics grant-in-aid program.

UC Davis, which began its four-year transition to Division I last fall, will start some competition in the Big West in 2004-05 and is scheduled for full Division I membership in 2007-08.

UC Davis will compete in the Big West Conference in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's track & field and women's volleyball.

Football is a charter member of the Great West Football Conference, women's rowing is a member of the Western Independent Rowing Association, men's and women's water polo will remain in the Western Water Polo Association and women's lacrosse will continue play in the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation.

Women's gymnastics and men's wrestling – already classified as Division I programs – will continue their participation in the MPSF and Pacific-10 Conference, respectively.

DIVISION I TIMELINE

2003-04

Provisional First Year

- Compliance with all minimum contests and participation requirements for sports sponsorship set forth in Bylaw 20.9.3.3 (contests and number of participants).
- Submit a formal application and fee.
- Submit a revised strategic plan based on the previously submitted plan.
- Apply Division I legislation to the greatest extent possible.
- Attendance at the NCAA Convention.
- Attendance at an orientation session.
- Submit an annual report and updated strategic plan.
- Considered Division II in scheduling against Division I opponents, Division I against Division II opponents.
- The Campus Expansion Initiative takes effect, contributing an estimated total of $999,000 – toward athletics grants-in-aid.

- Teams become eligible to win Big West automatic berths to NCAA championships.

Good News

The light at the end of the tunnel brightened when the NCAA Division I Board of Directors approved legislation which will make Aggies eligible to win automatic berths to NCAA Championships beginning their first active year of Division I membership in 2007-08. The Big West Conference-sponsored NCAA 2003-13 passed in August of 2004.

Under previous legislation, the Aggies would have been ineligible to win any automatic berth awarded to the Big West Conference until 2009-10. For men's basketball, the wait was eight years, meaning the Aggies would not be able to win an automatic berth until 2015-16.
