THE AGGIE EVO SYSTEM

UC Davis student-athletes will understand how the real world works and possess the skills to navigate it. They will launch into a great job or graduate school opportunity without unwanted delay.

"We are uncommonly committed to preparing student-athletes for successful lives after graduation. Our approach is based on the science of human development. You will not find another school more dedicated to helping you be positioned for a great job or grad school opportunity after sports end, whenever that may be."

- UC Davis Director of Athletics Kevin Blue

It is this uncommon commitment towards student-athletes that led to the creation of the Aggie EVO System, a multi-faceted student-athlete outcomes program focused on preparing young men and women for a successful launch after graduating from the sixth-ranked public school in the nation.

We define launch as moving beyond graduation into a meaningful professional path that builds on the college experience, sets a graduate on a path of financial and social well-being and effectively replaces the sport as the primary piece of their identity.

The Aggie EVO System ("EVO" is shorthand for a student-athlete's "evolution" during college) is an important part of the student-athlete experience at UC Davis – just like weights and conditioning, attending class or getting athletic medicine treatment. This unprecedented program was designed to focus on four key elements to help UC Davis student-athletes prepare for future success by helping them better "know and navigate the World of Work":

• SKILLS that employers want and will make student-athletes even more effective in their sports: self awareness, emotional intelligence, social/cultural competence and leadership.
• KNOWLEDGE of what careers and paths are out there (we call this the "World of Work"), what fits one's interests and abilities, who in our gigantic network can advise and guide them and each individual can navigate a path to get there.
• OPPORTUNITIES to enjoy internships, jobs and other learning opportunities through a powerful network of Aggie alums. Student-athletes hear from and meet alums in a wide variety of fields, attend recruiting events and visit members of the EVO Pro network at companies in San Francisco, Silicon Valley, and Sacramento.
• TOOLS that student-athletes need to secure these opportunities. We require a few more basic tools or updates each year they are on campus. This includes resumes and cover letters, LinkedIn profiles, interviewing skills, business cards, professional headshots, and anything else that helps student-athletes prepare for a more successful launch.

OPENING TIP: Champions of the Big West Conference regular season and tournament, the UC Davis women's basketball team advances to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in the program's Division I history, entering the weekend as a No. 15 seed in the Chicago Regional at Stanford, taking on the host and No. 2-seeded Cardinal on Saturday (March 23) at Maples Pavilion in a rematch of the Aggies' first-ever NCAA appearance in 2011. Tip-off is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

HI, MOM!: Saturday's opening round NCAA Tournament game will be broadcast live on ESPN2. It will be the fifth appearance on the ESPN family of networks this season for the Aggies, who are 4-0 in their four previous contests this year.

IN THE POLLS: Host and second-seeded Stanford is ranked No. 6 in the nation according to the final regular season Associated Press poll... BYU is among those receiving votes (24)... UC Davis and Auburn are unranked... The Cougars are ranked No. 6 according to the March 12 College Insider Mid-Major poll, which also has the Aggies ranked No. 22 in the nation -- standing among the top 25 for the third consecutive week.

AGGIES AT THE NCAA TOURNAMENT: UC Davis will be making its second appearance in the NCAA Tournament as a Division I program (since 2007-08), and its first since the 2011 tournament when the Aggies were a No. 16 seed at No. 1 Stanford, falling to the Cardinal by an 86-59 score. UC Davis -- making its seventh overall postseason appearance as a Division I program after making a run to the "Elite Eight" of the WNIT in 2017-18 -- was a regular in the NCAA's at the Division II level, earning 12 trips to the tournament and posting a 12-12 overall record -- including a run to the "Elite Eight" in 1996-97 in Head Coach Jennifer Gross' senior season.

POSTSEASON PREPARED: The Aggies will have faced six teams selected for postseason play in 2019: Stanford (Pac-12 Champion) and Portland State (Big Sky Champion) in the NCAA Tournament, along with Pacific (WCC T-4th), Loyola Marymount (WCC T-4th), Hawai'i (Big West 2nd), and Saint Mary's (WCC T-3rd), among the WNIT field.

VERSUS THE TOP 25: Since 2007-08, UC Davis has played 17 games against teams ranked in one, or both, of the national polls, including the top-ranked team in the nation in three straight seasons: 2012-13 (Stanford), 2013-14 (UConn), and 2014-15 (UConn). The Aggies, however, have yet to post a victory in any of those contests against nationally ranked foes, coming no closer than 12 points vs. No. 22 South Dakota State on Dec. 17, 2008. UC Davis did, however, post a win over Washington State to start the 2017-18 season, which was receiving votes in the preseason Associated Press poll at the time.

SO, WE MEET AGAIN: The Aggies and Cardinal won't be the only two teams to have already met once this season as Saturday's clash is one of only two regular season sequels in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. NC State posted an 84-46 victory over its first-round opponent, Maine, at home back on Dec. 15.

HEAD-TO-HEADS: Aside from their own head-to-head meeting to tip-off the 2018-19 regular season, UC Davis and Stanford have four common opponents this year: San Francisco, Hawai'i, CSUN, and Washington State. The Cardinal finished 5-0 against those four squads, while the Aggies were 6-1.

WINNING "BIG": After earning their 25th victory of the season in the Big West Tournament championship game, it marked only the fourth time in the history of the league that a member school has won at least 25 games in three straight seasons after finishing 25-8 in 2016-17 and 28-7 in 2017-18. UC Davis joins Long Beach State, which did so in five straight seasons from 1985-90, and UC Santa Barbara, which did it twice from 1997-00 and 2001-04.

CHAMPIONS OF THE (BIG) WEST: Since the Aggies' arrival at the Division I level in 2007-08, no Big West school has won more games than UC Davis, which has posted 231 combined victories to date -- which is 41 more than the next highest school (Cal Poly with 190) -- while winning 61 percent of its games (231-147 overall).

PLANTING THE SEED: UC Davis became the first No. 1 seed to win the Big West Tournament since CSUN defeated Cal Poly in the final. When the Aggies won the tournament the first time in 2011, they were a No. 4 seed, defeating UC Irvine, UC Riverside, and the Mustangs en route to the crown.

TWO FOR THE TOURNEY TEAM: Senior biomedical engineering major Morgan Bertsch was named the Tournament MVP while sophomore cell biology major Cierra Hall also earned a spot on the all-tournament squad -- the fifth time in the program's history that UC Davis has had two players on the all-tournament team. For Bertsch, it was her third all-tournament team honor -- and the second tournament MVP award for an Aggie along with Paige Mintun in 2011 -- while Hall earned her first career all-tournament honor.

DON'T CALL IT A COMEBACK: Well, okay, go ahead. When UC Davis trailed by 17 points with 7:18 remaining in the third quarter of the Big West Conference title game, the Aggies put together a rally for the ages, posting its largest comeback to win a game since erasing a 17-point deficit in a 62-57 win at Hawai'i on Dec. 20, 2011. UC Davis closed out the third period on a 14-3 run over the final 7:02, before exploding for a 16-0 fourth-quarter run that gave the Aggies the lead for good. UC Davis held Hawai'i to without a field goal for the final 9:40 of the game, limiting the Rainbow Wahine to just five free throws.

WE'RE GOING STREAKING!: UC Davis enters the NCAA Tournament with a number of active streaks...
- The 16 consecutive victories is the third-longest in the program history and a program Division I record
- The streak is also tied for the 11th longest run in a single season in the history of the Big West
- The 16 consecutive wins rank T-7th in the nation
- The 12 straight home wins are T-12th in the NCAA
- The 14 consecutive Big West wins are T-9th

ALL SHE DOES IS WIN: With her team riding a 16-game winning streak, the winningest player in UC Davis history has now been a part of five of the 10 longest single-season winning streaks in school history. Head Coach Jennifer Gross helped guide her team to the top three winning streaks in school history as the Aggies' point guard -- including a record 23 consecutive wins from Nov. 24, 1995 to Feb. 22, 1996 -- while coaching UC Davis to a 10-game run from Jan. 26-March 4, 2017, in addition to its current streak, which is the longest in the program's Division I history.

FOUR MORE YEARS!: This year's senior class has certainly helped lead the UC Davis program to new heights, compiling a record of 97-34 (.740) -- and counting -- during their time in an Aggie uniform. The win total ranks as the fourth highest of any four-year period in the history of the program, trailing only the 1995-99 (102-18), 1994-98 (102-18), and 1993-97 (101-18), squads.

NOT A MATTER OF IF, BUT "WIN": The Aggies' win over Long Beach State on Feb. 28 got the team to 20 wins for the third consecutive season -- the longest such run since the Aggies won 20-or-more games in six straight seasons from 1993-99. UC Davis' 25 victories this year ranks tied for fourth on the school's single-season wins list, four shy of the record of 29 wins set in 1996-97.

PUTTING THE "W" IN BIG WEST: The Aggies' 15 Big West victories this season are a new program record, eclipsing the 14-2 league marks in each of the previous two years. The 15 conference wins are the most overall since the Aggies finished 18-2 during their first season as a member of the Division II California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) in 1998-99.

SCOUTING THE CARDINAL: The Pac-12 Conference tournament champions after finishing second in the regular season, Stanford enters NCAA play with a 28-4 overall record and 15-3 mark in league play, winning its final nine contests -- including wins over California, Washington, and Oregon, in the conference tournament... Senior forward Alanna Smith leads a trio of Cardinal in double figures at 19.6 ppg, shooting 51 percent from the floor and grabbing 8.6 rpg.

SCOUTING THE COUGARS: The West Coast Conference tournament champions after finishing second to Gonzaga in the regular season, BYU enters the tournament 25-6 overall and 15-3 in conference play, winning eight straight... Freshman guard Shaylee Gonzales leads a trio of Cougars in double figures at 16.5 ppg, shooting 45 percent from the floor to go with 130 assists and 59 steals... Sophomore guard Paisley Johnson (14.8 ppg) and junior guard Brenna Chase (12.7 ppg) are also in double figures.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS: An at-large selection out of the SEC, Auburn earned its 21st all-time NCAA Tournament bid after a 22-9 season and a 9-7 mark in conference play... The Tigers have won four of their last six, edging in-state rival Alabama in the opening round of the SEC Tournament before falling to Texas A&M -- a No. 4 seed in this year's bracket -- by two in the second round... Four Auburn players are in double figures, paced by senior guard Janiah McKay (13.8 ppg), who is also averaging 4.13 apg while shooting 40 percent from the floor.

SERIES NOTES: Stanford leads the all-time series with UC Davis, 13-10, winning the last 12 meetings following a 71-43 victory at Maples Pavilion earlier this year... The Aggies and Auburn have met only once, with the Tigers posting a 69-54 win in 2005... UC Davis and BYU have never met on the court.

2K-19: Thanks to a pair of free throws with 4:32 remaining in the Aggies' contest at UC Riverside on Jan. 5, Bertsch became the first student-athlete since the Highlanders' Brittany Crain in 2016 to reach (and surpass) 2,000 points in a career, finishing with a game-high 31 points in front of an ESPN3 audience. Following a 19-point outburst against Cal Poly, and 16 more against UC Santa Barbara, Bertsch now stands fourth on the Big West's all-time scoring list with 2,397 points, standing just 18 points behind Cal State Fullerton's Genia Miller (2,415 from 1987-91) for third.

MORGAN ON A ROLL: Hold the mayo. Bertsch has now scored in double figures in her last 66 consecutive contests dating back to last season -- and 116 of 131 games overall in her career. The high-scoring Santa Rosa, Calif., native has not been held to single digits since March 23, 2017, in a WNIT "Sweet 16" match-up against Washington State (six points), and has been held without a point in a game only once in her career – at Colorado State on March 19, 2017, in the second round of the WNIT.

"SEASON"-ED SENIOR: No UC Davis basketball player (men's or women's) has scored more points in a season that Bertsch, who reset her own school single-season points record with 25 points in the Big West Tournament semifinal win over UC Irvine, giving her 705 on the year. The Santa Rosa, Calif., native enters the NCAA Tournament with 729 points -- the nation's fourth-highest point total and most in the Big West since Idaho's Emily Faurholt finished with 737 points in 2003-04, standing just two points behind Long Beach State's Penny Toler (731) in 1988-89 for 10th on the league's single-season list.

MISS EFFICIENT: With her 25 points in 25 minutes against UC Irvine in the Big West Tournament semifinals, Bertsch has now scored as many (or more) points as minutes played nine times this season.

STAYING ACTIVE: With her 2,397 career points, Bertsch ranks seventh among active players in the NCAA in that category (as of March 17) while also standing fourth in career field goals (955), 10th in career points per game (18.3).

ATOP THE LEADERBOARD: Bertsch could become the first Aggie to lead the Big West Conference in scoring if her season continues the way it has over the past five months, while her 23.5 ppg average entering the NCAA Tournament would be the highest single-season average for a league leader since Idaho's Emily Faurholt averaged 25.4 ppg in 2003-04.

SENIOR MOMENT: Already the highest scoring sophomore (520 points) and junior (702 points) in the history of the program, Bertsch's 25 points at Long Beach State on Feb. 28 officially made her the highest-scoring senior in the history of the school, passing Staci Stevens' 600 points during the 1987-88 campaign. Carol Rische, whom Bertsch passed to become the all-time leading scorer in women's basketball history, is the highest-scoring freshman in the program, scoring 459 points in 1979-80.

MAKING HER POINT: Bertsch will finish the 2018-19 season leading UC Davis in scoring for a fourth time in her career, something only one other player has done in the program's history along with former school scoring champ Carol Rische, who accomplished the feat from 1979-83.

ROOM TO BOARD: Sophomore Cierra Hall has followed up a stellar freshman season on the glass with an even better one this year, grabbing a career-high 198 rebounds entering the NCAA Tournament -- including 64 on the offensive end. The Big West All-Tournament selection stands tied for fourth on the program's Division I single-season list alongside Pele Gianotti (198 in 2017-18), needing just two more to become only the fourth Division I Aggie to reach 200 for a season, joining Celia Marfone (a record 208 in 2014-15 and 202 in 2015-16) and Alyson Doherty (200 in 2015-16).

AS-SISTER ACT: With her five assists in the Big West Tournament championship game, senior psychology major Karley Eaton (101 assists) joined younger sister Kourtney (136) in topping the century mark in assists on the year, becoming the first Aggie duo to surpass the plateau in the category since Kourtney (113) and Dani Nafekh (130) did so in 2015-16.

START ME UP: Of her 131 career appearances as an Aggie, Bertsch has missed only six starts -- all coming during her freshman year -- and enters the week having started the team's last 104 consecutive contests dating back to the "Senior Day" game against CSUN in 2015-16. The Santa Rosa, Calif., native is one of only five players in the program's Division I history to start more than 100 games, joining Kasey Riecks (120), Alyson Doherty (113), Celia Marfone (109), and Hana Asano (102), and has tied Pele Gianotti's school record for both games played and consecutive games played.

GROSS NAMED TOP COACH FOR THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR: In leading the Aggies to their third consecutive Big West Conference regular season title, Head Coach Jennifer Gross became only the second coach in league history to win three-straight coach of the year awards and the first since UC Santa Barbara's Mark French in 1996-98. She is also only the fourth coach in conference history to win at least three coach of the year awards during their careers in the Big West, joining French (seven), Hawai'i's Vince Goo (three), and UNLV's Jim Bolla (three).

BERTSCH NAMED PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Senior biomedical engineering major Morgan Bertsch became the first Aggie to be named the Big West Player of the Year according to a vote of the league's coaches, adding All-Big West first team honors and a spot on the inaugural Big West All-Defensive Team to boot. The all-time leading scorer in UC Davis men's and women's basketball history, Bertsch enters the tournament having scored in double figures in each of her last 64 contests and leading the Big West in scoring at 23.4 points per game, aiming to become the first Aggie to lead the league in scoring. At the other end of the court, the senior has helped lead the conference's stingiest defense this season as one of five players named to the inaugural All-Defensive Team, swatting a team-high 43 blocks to rank fourth in the Big West with 1.5 blocks per game, while pacing the squad with 39 steals and standing 10th in the conference in defensive rebounds at 4.1 rpg.

AGGIE TRIO NAMED TO HONOR ROLL: Along with her player of the year award, Bertsch was named to the All-Big West first team along with classmate Kourtney Eaton, while junior Nina Bessolo earned a spot on the honorable mention squad. The awards for Eaton and Bessolo mark the first of their careers.

FIRST!: With both Bertsch and Kourtney Eaton's inclusion, the Aggies have now had 14 All-Big West first team honorees in the history of the program -- and two on the first team for only the second team in program history (Bertsch and Pele Gianotti were so honored in 2016-17). Bertsch's third first-team award puts her among a select group in UC Davis lore, joining Paige Mintun (2009-11) and Sydnee Fipps (2013-15) as the only three-time first-team honorees in school history -- and one of only 21 in league history.

IT'S A GIVEN: Thanks to Bertsch and Kourtney Eaton's All-Big West first team awards, UC Davis has now had at least one first-team honoree in every season since joining the league in 2007-08 -- the only program in the conference to do so in that span.

THE CHAMP IS HERE (AGAIN): The Aggies clinched their third consecutive Big West regular season title -- and the program's fourth overall -- claiming the first back-to-back-to-back titles for UC Davis since it ended a run of five California Collegiate Athletic Association crowns from 1995-99, and the 16th overall regular season conference title dating back to 1978. The Aggies' third title also makes UC Davis the first program to "three-peat" since UC Santa Barbara won 10 consecutive crowns from 1996-2005.

BE QUICK, BUT DON'T HURRY: UC Davis reached 20 wins in 26 games, tied for the second-fastest to 20 victories in school history, matching the 2016-17 squad. Last season, the Aggies did so in only 24 games to set the program's Division I record, while the all-time record was just 22 games set in 1991-92 and matched by the 1995-96, 1996-97, and 1998-99, teams.

SMOTHERED: One of the nation's best defenses showcased its ability to shut down an opponent en route to the Big West Tournament title, limiting UC Irvine to just 25 percent from the floor in the semifinals before holding Hawai'i to 31 percent -- including just one field goal in the decisive third quarter. The Aggies have held opponents to under 30 percent shooting nine times this season -- the most in the program's Division I history -- including a low of .217 (13-for-60) at UC Irvine on March 2.

I'LL TAKE THE UNDER: The UC Davis defense has limited 15 of its last 16 opponents to fewer than 60 points -- including 50 against both UC Irvine and Hawai'i during last week's Big West Tournament -- with the only hiccup coming when the Mustangs eked out 61 points on Feb. 9. Still an impressive feat, the Aggies are allowing just 50.1 ppg during their 16-game winning streak, while averaging 72.8 ppg of their own.

DE-FENSE (CLAP, CLAP): UC Davis enters the week as one of the nation's stingiest defenses, ranking No. 19 in scoring defense (56.3 ppg), No. 4 in field goal percentage defense (.333) and No. 9 in three-point defense (.267), holding opponents to under 30 percent shooting nine times this year. Standing as the Big West's best in all three categories as well, the Aggies could end the year leading the league in scoring defense for the third straight year -- and the fifth time overall -- as the 56.3 ppg would be the lowest by a Big West school since UC Santa Barbara's 52.9 ppg in 2012-13.

NO SUCH THING AS A FREE LUNCH: But there are such things as free points... from the free throw line, if you will. With 175 makes at the line, Bertsch is now the school's all-time single-season leader in the category, breaking Sarah Allen's mark of 172 free throws made in 2002-03. Meanwhile, her 212 attempts are second behind only Allen, who attempted 236 free throws in 2002-03.

THE RIGHT COMBINATION: The starting lineup of seniors Kourtney and Karley Eaton, junior Sophia Song, sophomore Cierra Hall, and senior Morgan Bertsch, has proved to be the right combination for Head Coach Jennifer Gross, as that quintet has been the most successful of seven different starting lineups for the Aggies this season, posting a perfect 12-0 record.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A POINT MAKES: UC Davis is 24-2 this season when it scores 60-or-more points, but is 1-4 when scoring 59 points or fewer, earning its first victory in the latter with its 58-50 win over Hawai'i in the Big West Tournament championship game.

#DBGHCS

If you've ever wondered how the Aggies are so good at beating the buzzer, the answer is very simple. Practice. In what has become a day before the game tradition, the Aggies -- both players and coaches -- launch half-court heaves at the end of their final practice prior to gameday... celebrating often (43 times, in fact) in what has been dubbed "Day Before Game Half Court Shots" -- or as our fans on Twitter have come to know them, #DBGHCS. The number of makes from players (and coaches) are below...

Cierra Hall	5	Makaila Sanders	2	Nina Bessolo	2
Brittany Nguyen	4	Mackenzie Trpcic	2	Matt Klemin	2
Karley Eaton	3	Jennifer Gross	2	Kaitlyn Hsu	1
Cierra McKeown	3	Kayla Konrad	2	Emma Gibb	1
Kourtney Eaton	2	Joe Teramoto	2	Morgan Bertsch	1

IN THE MARGINS: Twenty-one of the team's 25 wins this season have come via double-digit margins (including 13 of those by 20 points or more and six more of 30 points or more), while four of the team's six defeats have come by seven points or fewer this season.

WORKING BEYOND THE ARC: UC Davis has made a three-pointer in 495 consecutive games dating back to Feb. 15, 2003, at Cal State San Bernardino. Since then, UC Davis has hit .349 from beyond the arc (3,386-for-9,693).

NO, THANKS, I'LL PASS: With her five assists against UC Santa Barbara, senior psychology major Kourtney Eaton moved past CSUN's Ashlee Guay for seventh on the Big West Conference's career list with 545 and setting her sights on Long Beach State's Dana Wilkerson in sixth place, who put up 551 career assists from 1988-91, while UNLV's Gwynn Hobbs stands fifth with 592 from 1991-95.

WON'T YOU PLEASE, PLEASE HELP ME?: Kourtney Eaton's 136 assists this season have catapulted the senior past three former Aggie greats and into fifth place on the school's single-season list, one the Longview, Wash., native is already very familiar with. Kourtney already ranks second on that same list with 154 assists in 2017-18, and third with 142 in 2016-17, while Sara Lillevand holds the all-time season record with 159 assists in 1990-91.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S ALRIGHT FOR WINNING: The Aggies have played more games on Saturday than any other day this season and that has proved to be a good thing, improving to 12-1 on that day of the week following its tournament championship win over Hawai'i last week. Should UC Davis pull off the upset on Saturday, the Aggies will face either Auburn or BYU on Monday -- a day that they have played on only once this year, stunning Saint Mary's at the buzzer in a 76-74 victory.

BLOCK YOU VERY MUCH: With eight blocks during the final week of the regular season, this year's Aggies became only the fifth team in the program's Division I history to reach the century mark in that category and ranks fourth overall with 110. It marks the fourth consecutive season that a UC Davis squad has blocked 100-or-more shots following on the heels of the 2015-16 (3rd on the school Division I single-season list with 125), 2016-17 (2nd with 129), and 2017-18 (1st with 145) teams.

WONDER TWIN POWERS, ACTIVATE!: They wear numbers "two" and "three" on their jerseys, but the duo of Kourtney and Karley Eaton will enter the NCAA Tournament ranked "one" and "two" in the league in three-point percentage, shooting .463 and .440 on the year, respectively. They are two of a group of four Aggies who rank among the top 10 in three-point percentage, joined by teammates Sophia Song, who is sixth at .374, and Nina Bessolo, who is eighth at .348 on the season.

A LOT FOR US, LITTLE FOR YOU: Senior psychology major Karley Eaton has been stingy with the ball... when it comes to the opposition. Karley has dished out a career-high 101 assists against only 25 turnovers, leading the Big West and ranking No. 2 in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio at 4.04 entering the week. Overall, UC Davis leads the Big West -- and ranks No. 26 in the nation -- in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.20 as a squad.

THE 600 CLUB: Bertsch is just the fifth player in the program's Division I history to reach the 600-rebound plateau, joining Alyson Doherty (708), Celia Marfone (682), Pele Gianotti (616), and Paige Mintun (606), and became only the fifth player in that same span to score 1,000 points and grab 500 rebounds in a career along with Doherty, Gianotti, Mintun, and Sydnee Fipps. All told, Bertsch stands eighth on the all-time list with 678, standing two back of Kendall Greene (1992-96) for seventh, four back of Marfone for sixth, and 20 behind Lisa Jo Kellogg (1988-91) for fifth.

SHOTS, SHOTS, SHOTS, SHOTS, SHOTS: Limited to just under 39 percent shooting from the floor in its Big West championship victory, UC Davis was held to under 40 percent shooting in a game for the first time in its last 13 games since shooting just .373 in a win at CSUN back on Jan. 24, but have hit the 40 percent plateau 25 times in its 31 contests this year. During its recent 16-game winning streak, the Aggies are shooting just over 46 percent (407-for-878) overall, including 41 percent (141-for-343) from three.

SHE CAN SHOOT FROM THERE TOO: As if the Aggies needed another sharpshooter, Bertsch can hit from beyond the arc as well, making 22-of-44 (.500) from distance and 13-of-24 (.542) in Big West play. Lofty numbers when you take into account the Santa Rosa, Calif., native was just 4-for-11 in her previous three seasons COMBINED from three-point range.

WHAT'S A FEW MORE FEET?: UC Davis enters the week pacing the Big West in three-point percentage (.368), three pointers made (256), and three-pointers per game (8.3), while standing among the top 50 teams in the nation in percentage (21st), three's made (39th), and three-pointers per game (33rd).

POURING IT ON: The Aggies have hit double figures from beyond the arc 13 times this season, including a season high of 15 in wins over Dominican (Dec. 29) and Cal Poly (Feb. 9). The 256 three-pointers made this season rank second in a single season in the program's Division I history, just off the pace of last year's Division I school record of 289.

RECYCLED NOTES...

WHEN YOU'RE HERE, YOU'RE FAMILY: Head Coach Jennifer Gross has steadily built a winner at UC Davis during her time at the helm, thanks, in part, to a supporting cast of assistants that make up one of the longest-tenured coaching staffs in the country. Entering its eighth season together, Gross, associate head coaches Joe Teramoto and Des Abeyta, and assistant coach Matt Klemin, are tied with Oklahoma for the longest-tenured coaching staff in the country and one of only six (along with Notre Dame, Texas A&M, Tulane, and Iowa State) that have been together for at least seven seasons.

SO... HOW 'BOUT THOSE AGGIES?: UC Davis returns two starters and eight letter winners overall off of last season's squad that finished 28-7 overall (the second-most wins in a single season in the program's history), 14-2 in Big West play (for the second straight season), and advanced to the "Elite Eight" of the Women's National Invitation Tournament with wins over Idaho, Wyoming, and Kansas State, before falling to eventual tournament champion Indiana in the quarterfinals... Three-time All-Big West selection – Morgan Bertsch leads the way offensively after setting six single-season school record, averaging 20.1 points per game, and shooting 56 percent from the floor last season. Meanwhile, senior psychology major Kourtney Eaton returns to run the offense in the backcourt, coming off a season that saw her set a program Division I single season record for assists with 154 (which also ranks second on the all-time single-season list), and ranked among the top 100 players in the nation in assists per game (No. 83), assist-to-turnover ratio (No. 40), and overall assists (No. 62).

AGGIES EARN SPLIT IN PRESEASON POLLS: UC Davis was picked to claim its third consecutive league crown in a media vote, and finish a close second by the conference's head coaches, according to preseason polls released by the Big West on Oct. 24. The Aggies received 12 of a possible 20 first-place votes in the media poll and 171 points to shade second-place CSUN for the top spot, as the Matadors picked up eight first-place nods and 166 points. In the coaches poll, CSUN received six of nine first-place votes and 77 points — just two ahead of UC Davis, which picked up the remaining three first-place votes and 75 points.

PRESEASON LOVE FOR BERTSCH: Senior Morgan Bertsch was one of six players unanimously selected to both the media and coaches' preseason All-Big West squad – picking up the honor for the third consecutive season. A three-time All-Big West selection – including first-team honors in each of the last two years – Bertsch joins CSUN's Channon Fluker and Serafina Maulupe, Cal State Fullerton's Daeja Smith, UC Irvine's Jordan Sanders, and Long Beach State's Shanajiah Davison.

TRANSFER ORDERS: Although she has to sit out this season due to NCAA transfer rules, junior biochemistry and molecular biology major Mackenzie Trpcic becomes the seventh player to transfer into the program from another Division I school in UC Davis' Division I history, following in the footsteps of junior nutrition science major Katie Toole, who sat out after joining the Aggies from Utah State. In addition, junior human development major Cierra McKeown is officially the first junior college transfer in the program's Division I history and the first since Tatiana Armstrong joined UC Davis from the College of San Mateo in 2006-07.

OH, CANADA!: Now officially in the mix after taking a redshirt year, freshman Sage Stobbart (North Vancouver, B.C.) joins Canadian country mate Mackenzie Trpcic (Hamilton, Ontario) on the Aggies' roster – only the third and fourth international players to suit up for UC Davis in the program's Division I history. The duo joins graduated Dani Nafekh (Oakville, Ontario), who is currently attending law school at Pepperdine, and Idit Oryon, a native of Israel and letter winner from 2011-14, as international Aggies.

OUT OF STATE SUCCESS: Not counting international players, UC Davis features five players from outside of California – tied for the most in the program's Division I history with the 2016-17 and 2017-18 squads. In addition to Washington natives Karley and Kourtney Eaton (Longview) and Cierra McKeown (Touchet), Oregonian Emma Gibb (McMinnville) is joined by the Aggies' first-ever Utah native in Katie Toole (Farmington).

WINNING IN THE WEST: One of the most successful programs on the West Coast over the last three seasons, UC Davis has posted a 72-28 (.720) record over the last three seasons, tying them with Gonzaga for the fifth-most in that span behind only Oregon State (86), Stanford (84), Colorado State (77), and UCLA (75), while the team's 53 victories in the last two years are tied with the Bulldogs and trail only the Beavers (57) in that time frame. Among their Big West sistren, the Aggies' 72 wins are 17 better than second-place Long Beach State (55) in the last three seasons, while the 53 wins in the last two years are 16 better than CSUN (37).

BY THE NUMBERS: After losing four key contributors off last season's squad means there is plenty of room for new faces to step up and power the Aggies' attack. UC Davis, statistically, returns just over half of its offense from the 2017-18 campaign: 54 percent of its points (1,354), 57 percent of its rebounds (691), 53 percent of its assists (321), 55 percent of its field goals made (521), 37 percent of its three-pointers (106), and 60 percent of its makes from the line (206). What does it all mean? We don't know, but numbers are fun.

PUTTING THE "W" IN WNIT: Last year's run into the "Elite Eight" of the WNIT was the furthest that the program has advanced in the postseason in its Division I history and the furthest any Big West school has advanced under the tournament's current format. Prior to last season, only the 2016-17 UC Davis squad, Long Beach State in 2000, and former league member Pacific in 2013, had reached the "Sweet 16." In addition, the Aggies' five WNIT wins are the most of any Big West school.
