PLAYING EXEPERINCE

UC Davis, 2004-07
Four-year letter winner (2004-07)
Played quarterback, started 2007

Tim Plough returned to his alma mater to become the 18th head coach in UC Davis football history in December of 2023. During 2024, the Aggies set a new bar for excellence and under the first year tutelage of Plough UC Davis won a school record 11 games, going 11-3 to finish No. 5 in the nation, the highest in the program's FCS history. UC Davis would go on to reach the quarterfinals of the NCAA FCS Playoffs, getting a second round home game win over No. 12 Illinois State after earning a first round bye as one of the best programs in the nation. Plough's 11-3 record was the best for a first-year head coach in the nation during the 2024 season and his 11 wins are the most by an Aggie first year head coach, passing legendary Aggie head coach Bob Biggs. Plough was honored for his first year successes by being named the AFCA Region Five Coach of the Year and an Eddie Robinson Award finalist. Individually, under Plough UC Davis produced several All-Americans as Miles Hastings, David Meyer, Lan Larison and Rex Connors all earned All-American honors to give UC Davis the most All-Americans in one season in program history. UC Davis also set 19 individual records and six team records during a record setting year. The former Aggie quarterback brings a wealth of coaching experience and his brilliant offensive mind to UC Davis with 11 campaigns as an offensive coordinator under his belt. Plough came to Davis after his most recent stint as an assistant coach at Cal, where he spent the 2023 season. Prior to his time in the Bay Area, he served as the offensive coordinator and leader of the quarterback room at Boise State. He was a part of the coaching staff that recruited the highest-ranked recruiting class in program history in 2021, a group that ranked second in the Mountain West. His expertise was immediately put on display when he spearheaded the conference's top offense that ranked seventh nationally in red zone offense, scoring on 92.5% of its trips to the red zone. Under Plough's mentorship, Broncos' quarterback Hank Bachmeier reached career-high numbers in completions (252), passing yards (3,079), touchdowns (20), and passing yards-per-game (256.6). Plough oversaw the development of First Team All-MWC receiver Khalil Shakir who notched career highs of 77 catches, 1,117 receiving yards, and seven touchdowns. Plough had two separate stints at UC Davis, the most recent being his 2017-2020 stretch. He began his collegiate coaching career with the Aggies in 2008 as a student assistant and quickly climbed the ranks, becoming the offensive coordinator in 2010. He became the youngest offensive coordinator in the nation (FBS and FCS) when he was elevated into that role at the age of 25. Plough held that position through the 2012 season before moving on to Northern Arizona in 2013. Plough returned to his alma mater to become the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the 2017 and 2018 seasons before he was elevated to Associate Head Coach for the next two seasons while maintaining his oversight of the Aggie offense. The San Diego native orchestrated one of the top passing offenses in all of the FCS, ranking sixth nationally in passing yards-per-game (309.2) in 2019. He led the squad to Division I era records in overall (10) and (7) conference victories and grabbed a share of the Big Sky title and the program's first FCS playoff appearance in 2018. Plough was a four-year letterwinner as a quarterback for UC Davis from 2004-2007. He became the starter in 2007 for his senior season. In that season, he completed better than 64 percent of his passes for 1,355 yards and 11 touchdowns.

THE SERIES

For the 51st time in program history UC Davis and Cal Poly will battle for the golden horseshoe in one of the oldest rivalries in the Big Sky with the Aggies and Mustangs playing as far back as 1939. UC Davis holds the advantage all-time and have won the past eight meetings between the two old rivals. It has been since 2016 for the last time the Aggies lost at Cal Poly in what has recently been a UC Davis controlled series.

AN AGGIE WIN WOULD ...

Make it nine-straight wins over Cal Poly and three-straight so far this season. It would also give the Aggies a pair of opening Big Sky wins for the second-straight season. The win would also give the Aggies a strong 2-1 record on the road and an over .500 record in San Luis Obispo.

NEW THREADS SAME AGS

Debuting brand new Tahoe-themed jerseys in the Big Sky Conference opener the Aggies took care of business against Weber State, winning 34-12 to go 1-0 early in the conference season. UC Davis used over 300 yards of total offense from Caden Pinnick and the best overall defensive performance up to this point in the season to secure the conference win.

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE UCD TAHOE ENVIRONMENT RESEARCH CENTER

The Aggies and the UC Davis Tahoe Environment Research Center came together during the summer to create a partnership where UC Davis athletics will wear special “Aqua Blue” jerseys to promote the research and work being done daily at Lake Tahoe by UC Davis specialists. Against Weber State the Aggies broke the “Aqua Blues” out for the first time, with the jerseys showcasing a special logo where the “CA” stretches from coast to coast in the middle of Lake Tahoe.

PINNICK SHINES AND THE BIG SKY NOTICES

During the UC Davis win over Weber State, Caden Pinnick had his best game yet as an Aggie collecting over 300 yards of offense while scoring three touchdowns. The excellent performance earned him Big Sky Offensive Player of the Week honors, his second weekly award this season. Pinnick finished with 288 passing yards, going 16-for-27 and he threw a pair of touchdown. The Aggie signal caller also ran for 48 yards on 11 attempts, scoring one more touchdown on the ground, the first of his career.

NOT PSYKED OUT

In the past two games, UC Davis defensive lineman Jacob Psyk has been unstoppable and nearly unblock-able collecting 16 total tackles and 6.5 tackles for loss just int he past two games. The Harvard graduate transfer has also been finding the quarterback, recording 4.5 sacks over the past two games and after the Aggie win against Southern Utah, Psyk was named the Big Sky co-Defensive Player of the Week.

17,217 MAKES IT A HOME OPENING PARTY

The Ags finally opened UC Davis Health Stadium when they welcome not only Southern Utah but also a record number of 17,217 Aggie fans, students and members of the Davis community. The Aggies did not disappoint, putting on a offensive show on the ground that nearly set a record that has stood since 1993 knocking off SUU 50-34 for the home opening win. As a team the Aggies rushed for 357 yards, the most in a game since 2021.

UC DAVIS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

A PAIR OF AGGIES HIT THE GROUND CENTURY MARK

Jordan Fisher and Carter Vargas were explosive on the ground each breaking the century mark against Southern Utah to give UC Davis a pair of 100-yard rushers in a single game for only the eighth time in program history and first time since 2012. In the game Fisher broke out for his second-career 100-yard rushing game finishing with 170 yards and two touchdowns on 12 carries, while Vargas averaged 22.7 yards per carry on his way to 136 yards and two rushing touchdowns on just six touches.

FISHER AVERAGES AMONG THE NATIONS BEST

After four games, Jordan Fisher has been averaging a high yardage per carry and his 7.9 yards per carry is evident of that. Nationally that places Fisher fourth in the country

DUO 100 YARD RUSHERS IN THE NATION

With Fisher and Vargas each running for 100 yards in the Aggie win over Southern Utah, UC Davis became the sixth team to complete that feat:

EASTERN ILLINOIS (vs. Dayton, Aug. 28)
- Cole LaCrue, QB (193 yds)/Charles Kellom, RB (133 yds)

WEST GEORGIA (vs. Nicholls, Sept. 6)
- Latrelle Murrell, RB (170 yds)/Davin Wydner, QB (103 yds)

CHATTANOOGA (vs. Stetson, Sept. 13)
- Camden Orth, QB (118 yds)/Journey Wyche, RB (115 yds)/Justus Durant, RB (105 yds)

LEHIGH (at Bucknell, Sept. 20)
- Luke Yoder, RB (174 yds)/Jaden Green, RB (127 yds)

MOREHEAD STATE (vs. Kentucky Christian, Sept. 20)
- Craig Cunningham, RB (138 yds)/Isaac Stopke, RB (102 yds)

UC DAVIS (vs. Southern Utah, Sept. 20)
- Jordan Fisher, RB (170 yds)/Carter Vargas, RB (136 yds)

N.C. CENTRAL (vs. North Carolina A&T, Sept. 20)
- Chris Mosley, RB (168 yds)/Arthur Rodgers, RB (129 yds)

PSYK TAKES HOME BIG SKY HONORS

An absolute force all night long, Harvard graduate transfer Jacob Psyk set the tone up front for the Aggies in their home opening win over Southern Utah. Psyk set a career-high with seven total tackles, all solo, and he added a pair of sacks and 3.0 tackles for loss. The Crimson big fella also forced two fumbles, and his total numbers earned him Big Sky Co-Defensive Player of the Week honors.

COFIELD IS ONE OF TWO

True freshman cornerback Drew Cofield has started all four games for the Aggies, including the game in Montgomery that didn't finish. That makes him one of two freshman cornerbacks in the nation that can make that claim and one of three defensive freshmen who have started all years.

TRUE FRESHMEN CORNERBACKS WHO HAVE STARTED ALL GAMES
Drew Cofield (CB) - UC Davis (four starts)
Caleb Ricks (CB) - Idaho (five starts)

TOP 10 TACKLER IS A CONNORS

Rex Connors has been all over the field this season, and in two games where the stats have counted the Aggie all-time leader in tackles has averaged 11.3 tackles per game. That places him atop the Big Sky Conference and sixth in the nation.

CONNORS PASSES A CAL AGGIE HALL OF FAMER

Rex Connors set the program record for total tackles in the Aggie game at Washington, finishing with eight total tackles in the game to hit the 291 mark for his carrer. Connors passed Cal Aggie Hall of Famer Kris Spraker who sits at 290 career tackles during his career from 1997-2000. Connors moved into second-place at Utah Tech, passing Jason Hairston who sits at 271 total tackles from 1992-94 and he entered the game at Washington with 279 total tackles.

HAS IT REALLY BEEN 20 YEARS SINCE THAT DAY ON THAT FARM?

20 years ago, on Sept. 17, 2005, the 0-2 Aggies travelled a down the road to Stanford for its first matchup against the Cardinal in program history. The Aggies had only recently made the transition from Division II to Division I and entered the game 0-2 after close losses to open the season. It meant no difference, despite early turnovers that led directly to Stanford scores, the Aggies held their own up front and on both sides of the ball to keep things close. In the final two minutes Jon Grant took his Aggie offense down the field to set up a game winning score. The pass, caught by Blaise Smith in the corner of the end zone, capped off a great play called by head coach Bob Biggs to give the Aggies a win.

24 UNANSWERED IN THE HIGH DESERT

UC Davis traveled to St. George, Utah on Aug. 30 and late in the third quarter they were trailing by 17 points. It was there they got rolling, scoring back-to-back touchdowns to get within three points late in the third quarter. A Ridley field goal near the end of the quarter tied things up and set UC Davis up to finish off its biggest comeback since 2018. Pinnick then hit Gbatu Jr., for a 60-yard touchdown that put the Aggies ahead for good Rutchena then sealed the game with an interception to lock up the win.

PINNICK EARNS NATIONAL FRESHMAN HONORS

Pinnick was named the Stats Perform FCS National Freshman Player of the Week after the Aggie game at Utah Tech. Pinnick went 21-for-31, finishing with 253 total passing yards, three passing touchdowns and 14 yards rushing yards. He became the first Aggie to earn national freshman honors since Nick Eaton earned the nod during the 2019 season.

BIG SKY GIVES REX WEEKLY FLOWERS

With 15 tackles at Utah Tech, Rex Connors was named the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Week. Connors finished with eight solo tackles and seven assisted tackles to lead the defense in St. George.

HOME AND HOME WITH NORTH DAKOTA STATE

UC Davis and North Dakota State announced on Sept. 1, 2025 a home and home series starting in 2028. The Aggies will head to N.D. to face the Bison in 2028 before the series moves to Davis., in 2029. It is a rematch of former Great West Conference foes and when they meet in 2028 it will be the 12th time in history and the first since 2019.

UC DAVIS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

MOTHER NATURE WINS THE DAY

UC Davis and No. 11 Mercer met for the first time in program history at the historic Cramton Bowl, taking part in the 2025 FCS Kickoff Classic. With 7:46 to go in the game a storm rolled through Montgomery, Alabama sending the game into a weather delay that would eventually end in the game being considered a "No Contest". With time rolling on, both sides agreed that finishing the game was not possible due to the weather. All the stats for that game will not count for either team, it will be as if the game never happened.

ADDING TO THE HISTORY AT THE CRAMTON BOWL

UC Davis headed to Montgomery to play in the historic Cramton Bowl, first opening in 1922 and the bowl has played host to many football and baseball games in its decorated history. For this game, the Aggies entered as the highest ranked FCS team to ever play on the historic patch of grass, sitting behind Alabama who lost a 1953 game to Southern Miss., when ranked No. 5 in the nation. It is also the first time a pair of top-20 teams met in the Cramton Bowl.

AGS ON ESPN

For the first time in program history UC Davis finds itself on the linear flagship network ESPN, thanks to the Kickoff Classic being broadcast on the network. The game between the Aggies and Bears was unique since it was played on Week 0. Among FCS games the Kickoff Classic was one of five games being played across the nation. On the FBS side, only five games were going with three happening during the Kickoff Classic. Meaning that across the nation UC Davis were one of only five games playing at the same time.

RANKED AMONG THE BEST

UC Davis enters the season ranked inside the top 10 in both the Stats Perform and AFCA Preseason polls. The Aggies come in at No. 8 in the Stats Perform poll and No. 7 in the AFCA poll. Its the highest preseason ranking the Aggies have earned since the 2019 preseason.

NATIONAL DAVIS

UC Davis finds itself on a program record three nationally broadcast games. Starting with the season opener on ESPN, the Aggies will be on the Big 10 Network at Washington and on ESPN2 when they head to No. 2 Montana State in November.

EARLY START

The Aug. 23 kickoff date marks the earliest kickoff in program history. Besting four games played on August 30. It also marks the ninth time in history and third straight season the Aggies will have at least one game in August.

ROAD WARRIORS

UC Davis, for the first time since 2006, opens its first three games away from Davis, California. After the Aggies visit Montgomery, they will travel to St. George, Utah to face Utah Tech before heading to Seattle, Washington to face the Washington Huskies. This year marks the third time in program history the Aggies have begun their season away from home for so long, spending the opening three weekends away in 2006 and 1978.

REX IS BACK ... THE NATION HAS TAKEN NOTICE

Returning for 2025 is talented safety Rex Connors, and he brings with him a collection of 2024 honors that have evolved into 2025 preseason accolades. Connors ended 2024 as a four-time All-American, first team All-Big Sky Conference honors and his 74 solo tackles set a program record. This season he comes in ranked as the No. 1 returning safety by HERO Sports and he has already earned multiple preseason All-American honors. Connors also became the first Aggie to be named the Big Sky Preseason Defensive Player of the Year to go along with Preseason All-Conference honors.

WATCHING REX

Entering the season, Rex Connors has found himself on a pair of prestigious watch lists. He was named to the Buck Buchanan Award Preseason Watchlist, a place he has found himself on for two-straight seasons. Connors was also named to the East-West Shrine Bowl 1000 Watchlist, placing him among some of the best NFL prospects in the nation.

ALL-AMERICAN AGGIES

the Aggies have been finding themselves individually on several All-American lists, with five Aggies earning honors. Rex Connors (first team), Winston Williams (second team), Hunter Ridley (second team) and Porter Connors (third team) earned the honor from Stats Perform. While FCS Football Central added Jacob Psyk (second team) to a collection that saw Connors and Ridley earn first team honors, Williams earn second team honors and Porter bring home third team honors. It's the most preseason All-Americans in program history.

RUNNING THE CONFERENCE

During the preseason awards given out by the Big Sky Conference, the Aggies brought home the most awards in the league. Earning seven All-Conference honors while boasting the Preseason Defensive MVP in Rex Connors. Rex was joined by Porter, Samuel Gbatu Jr., Winston Williams, Ernesto Nava, Eli Simonson and Hunter Ridley on the list of honorees.

STRONG UP FRONT

UC Davis returns all its starting offensive linemen from the 2024 team, making them one of three teams in the nation that can make that claim. The collection of talent meant that HERO Sports named the Aggie offensive line as the fourth best returning line in the nation.

WILLIAMS NAMED AMONG THE BEST

HERO Sports named Aggie tight end Winston Williams as the second-best returning tight end in the nation. The preseason All-American finished 2024 with 265 receiving yards, six receiving touchdowns on 34 receptions and he enters the season with a career total of 326 receiving yards.

UC DAVIS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

IMMEDIATE IMPACT

The Aggies brought in a large collection of freshman and transfers, with several of those incomers already finding themselves either on the field or near the top of the depth chart.

GOOD WORKS RIDLEY

Hunter Ridley earned the honor of being among 197 nominees named to the 2025 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, recognizing his commitment to community service and leadership beyond the gridiron.

DRAFTED TEDDYE

Former Aggie linebacker Teddye Buchanan heard his name called during the 2025 NFL Draft, becoming the first Aggie drafted since J.T. O'Sullivan (2002) when he went to the Baltimore Ravens in the fourth round with the 129th overall pick.

CLUB FRED IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS

During the offseason, UC Davis athletics proudly announced that thanks to the contributions from The Arp Family Foundation that the UC Davis football defensive line coaching position was renamed the Jane and Fred Arp Defensive Line Coach. Fred was a former Aggie and is a member of the Cal Aggie Athletics Hall of Fame. He spent 41 seasons on the coaching staff at Davis.

NAMESAKES

Two landmarks stand near the main entrance of UC Davis Health Stadium, both named after key university figures. The victory bell is named for Thomas Tavernetti, a university faculty member from 1913 to 1930... The bell is mentioned in the school fight song, "Aggie Fight," and rung after each home win... Across the plaza is a statue of Jim Sochor, who served as UC Davis head football coach from 1970-88... Sochor won 156 games and 17 conference titles in his career, and instilled a belief system later known as "Aggie Pride" (see below).

THE TOOM

Before moving to Aggie Stadium (UC Davis Health Stadium) in 2007, UC Davis football played almost six decades worth of its home games at the corner of Russell Boulevard and A Street in a venue opened in 1949 and named for athletics director Crip Toomey in 1962... Toomey Field, or "The Toom" as it is known to many an alum, hosted a total of 286 Aggie home football contests, including nationally televised NCAA semifinal games in 1977 (Lehigh), 1982 (North Dakota State) and 1983 (NDSU)

AGGIE PRIDE

The term has since been appropriated by various entities on the Davis campus, but Aggie Pride belief system has its roots with the football program. After taking the helm in 1970, head coach Jim Sochor instilled a new culture: "We knew that everybody we played would be bigger, stronger and faster than we were. We had to find a way. And that way was that no one would be closer as a football team than we would be. Our central values became trust, unity and togetherness." Bob Foster, the long-time Sochor assistant and is credited for giving Aggie Pride its name.

UC DAVIS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES - LAST GAME RECAP

NO. 9 UC DAVIS 34, WEBER STATE 12

Sept. 27, 2025 | Davis, Calif. | UC Davis Health Stadium | 12,238

No. 9 UC Davis football played out to be the more physical team using its best defensive game of the season to dampen the Weber State attack to come away with a convincing 34-12 win in its Big Sky Conference opener. Neither team was able to get going offensively to start the opening period, with both sides trading possessions throughout, and when the first quarter ended things were scoreless between the two Big Sky foes. Weber State opened the second quarter by capping off a 13 play scoring drive with a 33-yard field goal to make it 3-0, it would be the only lead Weber State had the entire game. UC Davis was ready to answer the call with its next drive, running the most plays they have run since last season at Montana on the way to a capping things off when Pinnick ran one in from two yards out to make it 7-3 for his first career rushing touchdown. The Aggie defense forced a fourth down on the next drive that Weber State attempted to convert but failed to do so, giving UC Davis the ball back when Jayden Stanley broke up a pass attempt. On the next drive, the Aggies struck quickly, with Pinnick hitting Carter Vargas down the right side for a 57-yard touchdown reception to make it 14-3. But the Aggies were not done scoring before the half, holding Weber State to a field goal attempt from 27 yards out on the next drive. A field goal attempt that Weber State would push wide left, giving UC Davis the ball back with 1:13 to go in the half. Nine plays and 53 yards later Ridley lined up from 45 yards out with seconds left in the half. And after an attempt by Weber State to ice the All-American kicker by calling a timeout, Ridley calmly split the uprights to end the half with UC Davis up 17-3 after the Aggies scored 10 points in the final five minutes of the half. Ridley added the Aggie lead with a 25-yard field goal early in the third quarter to make it 20-3 Aggies. Weber State answered that Aggie field goal with a 29-yard attempt of their own that split the uprights to get Weber State to six points and the score at 20-6. A rushing touchdown from two yards out capped off an eight play 75-yard UC Davis drive to extend the Aggie lead to 27-6. After the Aggies again forced a turnover on downs, this time after an eight-play attempt at getting on the board, UC Davis used just one play to deliver the finishing blow to Weber State. After running a rushing play for two yards, Pinnick and the Aggie offense looked down the field for an explosive play. That play came from one of the most explosive players in the nation when Gbatu Jr., took an 85-yard pass from Pinnick in stride for a touchdown that brought the 12,238 UC Davis Health Stadium fans to their feet and gave the Aggies a commanding 34-6 lead. Weber State's next possession ended in a touchdown but it was to little, to late for the Wildcats as the Aggies settled things with their final drive to wrap up the 34-12 conference opening victory.

WHAT IS SHREDVILLE

SHRED: To perform your craft in a highly skilled, aggressive, and spectacular manner

-VILLE: a suffix added to a special quality to describe a particular place where people embody that quality

SHREDVILLE

A particular, unique place where people perform their craft in a highly skilled, aggressive, and spectacular manner

JUST CALL US UC DAVIS

Despite being a nationally ranked institution of higher learning – including No. 5 on the Wall Street Journal's list of public universities – UC Davis' exact name is often cited incorrectly... The full name is the University of California, Davis... The correct athletics appellation is UC Davis: no hyphens, periods or any other forms of punctuation... Common incorrect references have included "Cal Davis," "U.C. Davis," "UC-Davis" and even "University of Davis."... "UCD" is acceptable for agate but should not be used in a story, even in second reference...Please note also that the Aggies' home field is now UC Davis Health Stadium in all references.
