RETURNING AGS

Niko Rocak enters his third season with UC Davis after anchoring the Aggie frontcourt with 6.8 rebounds per game and setting the program's single-season (58) and single-game (6) blocks records. His defensive presence and leadership will again serve as a stabilizing force in the paint.

Connor Sevilla, now in his third year, started 24 games last season and averaged 8.9 points per game. He led UC Davis with 63 made threes and ranked among Big West leaders at the free-throw line, converting 91 percent of his attempts. His poise and perimeter shooting remain key offensive pieces.

Carl Daughtery Jr. returns for his second season after playing all 32 games last year. The guard averaged 5.0 points and 1.8 rebounds while knocking down 26 threes. His scoring and defensive versatility give the Aggies additional lineup flexibility.

Nils Cooper, son of Famer Michael Cooper, played 30 games last season and averaged 3.9 points and 3.5 rebounds. He posted a career-high 13 rebounds against Big West champion UC San Diego and should continue to be an active wing defender and rebounder while stepping into a larger role offensively this year.

Isaiah Chappell, son of NCAA champion Mike Chappell, appeared in 21 games and connected on nine threes before an injury shortened his season. A New Zealand U18 national team member, he provides depth, shooting and athleticism to the Aggie frontcourt.

NEW FACES

Brayden Fagbemi joins UC Davis after averaging 11.4 points, 4.7 assists, 4.1 rebounds, and 1.5 steals as a sophomore at Central Arkansas, where he started 27 games and led the team in steals. The Illinois native began his career at Johns Hopkins, earning D3hoops.com Region V and Centennial Conference Rookie of the Year honors after posting 13.4 points, 5.7 rebounds, and 3.6 assists per game.

Marcus Wilson, a three-star guard from Washington State, brings size and athleticism to the Aggie backcourt. He appeared in four games last season before injury and was previously ranked as the No. 1 recruit in New Mexico's 2024 class by PrepHoops.

Cyril "CJ" Franklin Jr. transfers from the College of Southern Nevada, where he averaged 14.0 points, 5.4 rebounds, and 3.9 assists while earning ACCAC Freshman of the Year and all-conference honors. His all-around game provides scoring and playmaking versatility.

Ylan Esso-Essis from France, comes from Modesto JC after averaging 15.5 points and 8.2 rebounds while earning Big 8 Player of the Year and NABC All-America honors.

Jonathan Noudjihidi joins from Coahoma CC after averaging 10.9 points, 7.2 rebounds, and 2.0 blocks per game. He posted six double-doubles and ranked among conference leaders in shooting percentage at 57.8.

Jalen Stokes, from Dougherty Valley High School, was a four-year starter and scored 1,607 career points. The Bay Area standout averaged 24 points and nine rebounds as a senior, earning NCS Player of the Year and All-State honors.

Chase Rawlins, from local Folsom High School, was a three-time academic all-conference honoree who averaged 17 points, six rebounds, and six assists. He earned league co-MVP and section MVP honors while leading his team to a championship.

Abdullah Amzil, from Finland's Drive Academy, was named the 2023–24 Finnish U19 Player of the Year after averaging 14.4 points and six rebounds. He boosted his scoring to 21 points per game in the playoffs and represents Finland internationally.

Omer Suljanovic, from Austria's national team and UCC Assigeco Piacenza, led Italy's U19 league in scoring at 24.2 points per game. He made his senior national team debut for Austria at age 17 and brings a combination of size and perimeter skill to the Aggie frontcourt.

COACHING STAFF CONTINUITY AND ADDITIONS

UC Davis maintains one of the most stable staffs in Division I, with head coach Jim Les, associate head coach Kevin Nosek, and assistants Kyle Vogt and Jonathan Metzger-Jones working together since 2016–17. This group together represents the longest tenured group of coaches in NCAA Division I Men's Basketball.

The staff expands this year with three additions: Fortune Solomon, Mike Kosich, and Reece Lakritz.

Solomon joins as an assistant coach after serving with the Brooklyn Nets' G League affiliate, the Long Island Nets, and brings more than a decade of experience across the NBA, G League, and international basketball. He also serves as an assistant with the South Sudan National Team, helping guide the program to its first Olympic berth.

Kosich arrives as assistant coach and chief of staff following roles at San Diego State and South Alabama. His experience in roster construction, scouting, and day-to-day operations will play a major role as UC Davis transitions to the Mountain West.

Lakritz, a UC Davis student and former team manager, becomes the program's video coordinator and assistant director of basketball operations. He has been part of the Aggie program since 2023.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE, AND FAMILY CONNECTIONS

UC Davis features one of the most globally connected and family-rooted rosters in Division I. Several Aggies bring international playing experience or heritage, while others continue family legacies that have shaped the program's identity both on and off the court.

Graduate forward Niko Rocak represents Switzerland after competing for the nation's U20 team and earning his first senior national team cap earlier this summer. Rocak, fluent in multiple languages, is also one of the program's top academic performers, pursuing an MBA after earning his degree in chemistry.

Freshman forward Omer Suljanovic, from Vienna, Austria, made his senior national team debut at just 17 years old, becoming one of the youngest players in the world to appear in a FIBA qualifying window. He is the son of longtime professional player and coach Ramiz Suljanovic, who spent more than a decade in European basketball. His brother, Imran, is also a freshman on the men's basketball team at St. John's.

Freshman Abdullah Amzil, from Kotka, Finland, earned Finnish U19 Player of the Year honors and has represented Finland at multiple youth levels. Basketball runs in his family as well. His brother Mustapha starred at Dayton and New Mexico before signing professionally in Europe, and his sister Latifa played collegiately at Detroit Mercy.

Sophomore Isaiah Chappell competed for New Zealand's U18 National Team and follows the example of his father, Mike Chappell, who won an NCAA championship at Michigan State and played professionally in the Australian NBL.

Junior Nils Cooper, a California native, represented the Swedish U18 National Team and is the son of Hall of Famer Michael Cooper, a five-time NBA champion and WNBA championship coach who most recently led the BIG3's Miami 305 to a league title.

Sophomore Ylan Ezzo-Essis, from Angers, France, developed within the Metropolitans 92 program, one of Europe's premier basketball clubs. Jonathan Noudjihidi, born in N'Djamena, Chad, adds further international perspective to the Aggies' lineup and is one of several players who bring a truly global background to Davis.

The 2025-26 Aggies reflect the growing international reach of college basketball, representing Switzerland, Austria, Finland, New Zealand, Sweden, France, and Chad.

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM - THE UC DAVIS STANDARD

UC Davis men's basketball continues to set the academic standard within the Big West, maintaining a 98 percent graduation rate and a team GPA above 3.0. The Aggies also led all UC Davis men's programs in winter quarter GPA. Niko Rocak, Connor Sevilla, and Nils Cooper earned College Sports Communicators Academic All-District honors last season, recognizing student-athletes who maintain a minimum 3.50 GPA and play in at least 90 percent of games.

The 2025-26 roster features 14 student-athletes representing seven different majors. Among the highlights include Niko Rocak who is apart of the Master's of Management Program and Brayden Fagbemi who is a Human Development major on a pre-med track.

The blend of majors reflects UC Davis' academic diversity and its commitment to preparing student-athletes for long-term success beyond basketball.

The 2025-26 season is the 19th for UC Davis as a member of the Big West Conference. UC Davis will join the Mountain West for the 2026-27 season.

PROGRAM LEGACY AND SUCCESS

UC Davis men’s basketball has built a lasting tradition of success across eras. The Aggies captured the 1998 NCAA Division II National Championship, made 12 NCAA regional appearances, and have since risen to become a consistent Division I contender. UC Davis has won two Big West regular-season titles (2015, 2018), a Big West Tournament championship (2017), and earned NCAA Tournament (2017) and NIT appearances (2015, 2018).

Over the past decade, the Aggies have posted winning records in seven of ten seasons, highlighted by multiple 20-win campaigns. The 2014–15 squad set the Division I program record with 25 victories, while the 2017 team delivered UC Davis’ first Division I NCAA Tournament win by defeating NC Central in the First Four.

Signature Wins: UC Davis has secured marquee victories over Utah State, California, Oregon State, and Washington State. Most recently, the Aggies stunned Grand Canyon 75–68 inside Global Credit Union Arena, snapping the Lopes’ 18-game home winning streak – one of the nation’s longest at the time.

Head Coach

24th Season
15th Season at UC Davis
Bradley '86
Career Record: 366-356
Davis Record: 212-216

Since becoming the program's 23rd head coach in 2011, Jim Les has led UC Davis through its most successful stretch in the Division I era. Under his direction, the Aggies captured their first Big West regular season and tournament championships, earned the school's first NCAA Tournament berth in 2017, and twice went undefeated on Hamilton Court within a three-year span.

Entering his 15th season in 2025–26, Les has established one of the most stable and respected coaching staffs in the Big West. Associate Head Coach Kevin Nosek and Assistants Jonathan Metzger-Jones and Kyle Vogt enter their 10th season together. Les began the year with 364 career wins, including 210 at UC Davis. He earned his 300th career victory on Nov. 12, 2021, against Eastern Washington and collected his 200th UC Davis win on Dec. 7, 2024, over UC Santa Barbara.

The 2024–25 campaign continued the Aggies' steady rise. TY Johnson earned a First Team All-Big West selection—the fourth consecutive season UC Davis has had a player on the First Team—and later signed a summer league contract with the Los Angeles Lakers. Four Aggies were named CSC Academic All-District, while the team also received the NABC Team Academic Excellence Award, marking another season of success both on the court and in the classroom.

Les' program has become known for its defensive discipline and efficiency. The Aggies have consistently ranked among national leaders in free-throw percentage and turnovers forced, while also maintaining one of the best home-court advantages on the West Coast. Between 2015 and 2019, no mainland Division I team collected more home wins than UC Davis.

A proven winner and teacher, Les owns over three decades of coaching and playing experience. Before arriving in Davis, he guided Bradley University to the 2006 NCAA Sweet Sixteen and multiple postseason appearances. As a player, he spent seven seasons in the NBA and led the league in three-point shooting percentage (.461) during the 1990–91 season.
