PLAYING EXPERIENCE

UC Davis, 2004-07

Four-year letter winner (2004-07)

Played quarterback, started 2007

Tim Plough returned to his alma mater to become the 18th head coach in UC Davis football history in December of 2023. During 2024, the Aggies set a new bar for excellence and under the first year tutelage of Plough UC Davis won a school record 11 games, going 11-3 to finish No. 5 in the nation, the highest in the program's FCS history. UC Davis would go on to reach the quarterfinals of the NCAA FCS Playoffs, getting a second round home game win over No. 12 Illinois State after earning a first round bye as one of the best programs in the nation. Plough's 11-3 record was the best for a first-year head coach in the nation during the 2024 season and his 11 wins are the most by an Aggie first year head coach, passing legendary Aggie head coach Bob Biggs. Plough was honored for his first year successes by being named the AFCA Region Five Coach of the Year and an Eddie Robinson Award finalist. Individually, under Plough UC Davis produced several All-Americans as Miles Hastings, David Meyer, Lan Larison and Rex Connors all earned All-American honors to give UC Davis the most All-Americans in one season in program history. UC Davis also set 19 individual records and six team records during a record setting year. The former Aggie quarterback brings a wealth of coaching experience and his brilliant offensive mind to UC Davis with 11 campaigns as an offensive coordinator under his belt. Plough came to Davis after his most recent stint as an assistant coach at Cal, where he spent the 2023 season. Prior to his time in the Bay Area, he served as the offensive coordinator and leader of the quarterback room at Boise State. He was a part of the coaching staff that recruited the highest-ranked recruiting class in program history in 2021, a group that ranked second in the Mountain West. His expertise was immediately put on display when he spearheaded the conference's top offense that ranked seventh nationally in red zone offense, scoring on 92.5% of its trips to the red zone. Under Plough's mentorship, Broncos' quarterback Hank Bachmeier reached career-high numbers in completions (252), passing yards (3,079), touchdowns (20), and passing yards-per-game (256.6). Plough oversaw the development of First Team All-MWC receiver Khalil Shakir who notched career highs of 77 catches, 1,117 receiving yards, and seven touchdowns. Plough had two separate stints at UC Davis, the most recent being his 2017-2020 stretch. He began his collegiate coaching career with the Aggies in 2008 as a student assistant and quickly climbed the ranks, becoming the offensive coordinator in 2010. He became the youngest offensive coordinator in the nation (FBS and FCS) when he was elevated into that role at the age of 25. Plough held that position through the 2012 season before moving on to Northern Arizona in 2013. Plough returned to his alma mater to become the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the 2017 and 2018 seasons before he was elevated to Associate Head Coach for the next two seasons while maintaining his oversight of the Aggie offense. The San Diego native orchestrated one of the top passing offenses in all of the FCS, ranking sixth nationally in passing yards-per-game (309.2) in 2019. He led the squad to Division I era records in overall (10) and (7) conference victories and grabbed a share of the Big Sky title and the program's first FCS playoff appearance in 2018. Plough was a four-year letterwinner as a quarterback for UC Davis from 2004-2007. He became the starter in 2007 for his senior season. In that season, he completed better than 64 percent of his passes for 1,355 yards and 11 touchdowns.

GAME CAPTAINS

Aggie game captains for the 2025 season are listed below:

NO. 11 MERCER

SEASON - Samuel Gbatu Jr., Mitchell Dixon, Rex Connors

GAME - TBA

THE SERIES

For the first time in program history, UC Davis and Mercer will face off on the gridiron. It's historic for the Aggies because it also marks the first time they have faced a team from Georgia and the Southern Conference. As for Mercer, the Ags are the second team from California the Bears have seen in program history having faced off with San Diego in 2013.

AN AGGIE WIN WOULD ...

Give UC Davis a win in its season opener for the third time in five years and its first since opening the 2023 season with a 48-10 victory over East Texas A&M. A victory in the Cramton Bowl would also be the first for an Aggie team south of the Mason-Dixon line in only the third game ever played by an Aggie team in the south. It would also be head coach Tim Plough's first win in a season opener at the helm of the Aggies.

WEEK 0 IS A CLASSIC

UC Davis will be taking part in the 2025 FCS Kickoff Classic, a annual game played since 2014 that is hosted during Week 0 giving FCS team's a national showcase. The Aggies are the first team from California to play in the game, and since the game moved permanently to Montgomery in 2017 UC Davis will make the longest trip for the game since Youngstown State played Samford in 2019. The Aggies are also the first Big Sky team to play in the game since 2015 when Montana hosted North Dakota State in Missoula, Montana.

ADDING TO THE HISTORY AT THE CRAMTON BOWL

UC Davis heads to Montgomery to play in the historic Cramton Bowl, first opened in 1922 and has played host to many football and baseball games in its decorated history. For this game, the Aggies enter as the highest ranked FCS team to ever play on the historic patch of grass, sitting behind Alabama who lost a 1953 game to Southern Miss., when ranked No. 5 in the nation. It is also the first time a pair of top-20 teams will meet in the Cramton Bowl.

AGS ON ESPN

For the first time in program history UC Davis finds itself on the linear flagship network ESPN, thanks to the Kickoff Classic being broadcast on the network.

TAKING THE WEEK 0 STAGE

The game between the Aggies and Bears will be unique since it is being played on Week 0. Among FCS games the Kickoff Classic is one of five games being played across the nation, with only one (North Carolina Central vs. Southern) being played during the same time. On the FBS side, only five games will be going with three happening during the Kickoff Classic. Meaning that across the nation UC Davis will be one of only five games playing at the same time.

RANKED AMONG THE BEST

UC Davis enters the season ranked inside the top 10 in both the Stats Perform and AFCA Preseason polls. The Aggies come in at No. 8 in the Stats Perform poll and No. 7 in the AFCA poll. Its the highest preseason ranking the Aggies have earned since the 2019 preseason.

UC DAVIS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

After the Aggies visit Montgomery, they will travel to St. George, Utah to face Utah Tech before heading to Seattle, Washington to face the Washington Huskies. REX IS BACK ... THE NATION HAS TAKEN NOTICE

Returning for 2025 is talented safety Rex Connors, and he brings with him a collection of 2024 honors that have evolved into 2025 preseason accolades. Connors ended 2024 as a four-time All-American, first team All-Big Sky Conference honors and his 74 solo tackles set a program record. This season he comes in ranked as the No. 1 returning safety by HERO Sports and he has already earned multiple preseason All-American honors. Connors also became the first Aggie to be named the Big Sky Preseason Defensive Player of the Year to go along with Preseason All-Conference honors.

WATCHING REX

Entering the season, Rex Connors has found himself on a pair of prestigious watch lists. He was named to the Buck Buchanan Award Preseason Watchlist, a place he has found himself on for two-straight seasons. Connors was also named to the East-West Shrine Bowl 1000 Watchlist, placing him among some of the best NFL prospects in the nation.

ALL-AMERICAN AGGIES

Entering 2025 the Aggies have been finding themselves individually on several All-American lists, with five Aggies earning honors. Rex Connors (first team), Winston Williams (second team), Hunter Ridley (second team) and Porter Connors (third team) earned the honor from Stats Perform. While FCS Football Central added Jacob Psyk (second team) to a collection that saw Connors and Ridley earn first team honors, Williams earn second team honors and Porter bring home third team honors. It's the most preseason All-Americans in program history.

RUNNING THE CONFERENCE

During the preseason awards given out by the Big Sky Conference, the Aggies brought home the most awards in the league. Earning seven All-Conference honors while boasting the Preseason Defensive MVP in Rex Connors. Rex was joined by Porter, Samuel Gbatu Jr., Winston Williams, Ernesto Nava, Eli Simonson and Hunter Ridley on the list of honorees.

STRONG UP FRONT

UC Davis returns all its starting offensive linemen from the 2024 team, making them one of three teams in the nation that can make that claim. The Ags return tackles Eli Simonson and Ernesto Nava to go along with interior starters Zaire Collier (center), Jace Rodriguez and David Porotesano. David Main, once back from injury, will make the Ags six deep on the offensive line. The collection of talent meant that HERO Sports named the Aggie offensive line as the fourth best returning line in the nation.

WILLIAMS NAMED AMONG THE BEST

HERO Sports named Aggie tight end Winston Williams as the second-best returning tight end in the nation. The preseason All-American finished 2024 with 265 receiving yards, six receiving touchdowns on 34 receptions and he enters the season with a career total of 326 receiving yards.

IVY AGS

The Aggies brought in a pair of All-Ivy graduate transfers to increase the physicality of the defensive front. Jacob Psyk (Harvard) and Derrell Porter (Dartmouth) each come with accolades. Porter racked up 52 tackles in 26 games and Psyk finishing 29th in the nation in sacks (6.5).

IMMEDIATE IMPACT

The Aggies brought in a large collection of freshman and transfers, with several of those incomers already finding themselves either on the field or near the top of the depth chart. On the offensive side of the ball, freshman wide receiver Tyler Hennessy impressed during camp. Defensively transfers Jacob Psyk (DL), Derrell Porter (DL), Cole Batson (DB), Nate Rutचना (LB), Trey Carr (DB) and Ty Richardson (DB) all find themselves near the top of the depth chart entering the season opener.

GOOD WORKS RIDLEY

UC DAVIS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

NAMESAKES

Two landmarks stand near the main entrance of UC Davis Health Stadium, both named after key university figures... The victory bell is named for Thomas Tavernetti, a university faculty member from 1913 to 1930... The bell is mentioned in the school fight song, "Aggie Fight," and rung after each home win... Across the plaza is a statue of Jim Sochor, who served as UC Davis head football coach from 1970-88... Sochor won 156 games and 17 conference titles in his career, and instilled a belief system later known as "Aggie Pride" (see below).

THE TOOM

Before moving to Aggie Stadium (now known as UC Davis Health Stadium) in 2007, UC Davis football played almost six decades worth of its home games at the corner of Russell Boulevard and A Street in a venue opened in 1949 and named for athletics director Crip Toomey in 1962... Toomey Field, or "The Toom" as it is known to many an alum, hosted a total of 286 Aggie home football contests, including nationally televised NCAA semifinal games in 1977 (Lehigh), 1982 (North Dakota State) and 1983 (North Dakota State).

AGGIE PRIDE

The term has since been appropriated by various entities on the Davis campus, but Aggie Pride belief system has its roots with the football program. After taking the helm in 1970, head coach Jim Sochor instilled a new culture: "We knew that everybody we played would be bigger, stronger and faster than we were. We had to find a way. And that way was that no one would be closer as a football team than we would be. Our central values became trust, unity and togetherness." Bob Foster, the long-time Sochor assistant and is credited for giving Aggie Pride its name.

UC DAVIS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

AGGIE FOOTBALL BY THE NUMBERS

3 individuals associated with UC Davis football are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. Ken O'Brien entered in 1997 for his outstanding playing career. Two years later, Jim Sochor earned induction for his coaching career. Most recently, Mike Bellotti entered the CFB Hall in 2014 in honor of his coaching accomplishments at Oregon.

5 The number of conference affiliations UC Davis football has held, namely the Far Western Conference (1925-81), the Northern California Athletic Conference (1982-92), the American West Conference (1993), the Great West Conference (2004-11) and the Big Sky Conference (2012-present).

12 UC Davis players have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship Award winners, an honor roll that includes Arena Football Hall of Famer Mark Grieb and San Diego Chargers Hall of Famer Rolf Benirschke.

14 Aggies have won CoSIDA Academic All-America honors (now sponsored by Google Cloud), with Ryan Parenteau and Tiger Garcia being the most recent recipients.

21 The Aggies made their first-ever appearance in the FCS playoffs in 2018, and returned in 2021, making it the 21st overall NCAA postseason berth through all divisions – not counting a pair of College Division bowl games in the 1940s.

22 program alumni have appeared in at least one regular-season NFL game, with four players – Ken O'Brien (1983), Tom Williams (1970), Bo Eason (1984) and Mike Wise (1986) – drafted in one of the top two rounds.

24 Aggie quarterback Ken O'Brien was chosen as the 24th overall pick of the 1983 NFL Draft (a.k.a. the Year of the Quarterback), making him the highest UC Davis selection in history. O'Brien passed for 25,094 yards and 128 touchdowns in the NFL, mostly with the New York Jets.

25 The only retired number in program history belonged to Sam Paneno, who suffered a severe knee injury during overtime of a September 11, 1999 game at Western Oregon. Due to complications with circulation, Paneno had the lower portion of his right leg amputated nine days later. His positive attitude throughout the ordeal earned national attention. Paneno was bestowed with the NCAA's inaugural Inspiration Award in 2001. Paneno graduated from UC Davis' King Hall School of Law in 2005, later established a nonprofit to protect abused and impoverished children and ran a law practice specializing in special education.

31 The 2018 Big Sky Conference title marked the 31st league championship in history, a list that included 20 straight crowns from 1971-90.

37 The number of consecutive winning seasons UC Davis enjoyed (1972-2008) under the guidance of head coaches Jim Sochor (1970-88), Bob Foster (1989-92) and Bob Biggs (1993-2012).

JUST CALL US UC DAVIS

Despite being a nationally ranked institution of higher learning – including No. 5 on the Wall Street Journal’s list of public universities – UC Davis’ exact name is often cited incorrectly... The full name is the University of California, Davis... The correct athletics appellation is UC Davis: no hyphens, periods or any other forms of punctuation... Common incorrect references have included “Cal Davis,” “U.C. Davis,” “UC-Davis” and even “University of Davis.”... “UCD” is acceptable for agate but should not be used in a story, even in second reference... Please note also that the Aggies’ home field is now UC Davis Health Stadium in all references.
