

HISTORY & HONORS

1979

• During his inaugural address, UCF President Trevor Colbourn announces that the school will “explore the possibility of developing a football program.” Later, Colbourn and director of athletics Jack O’Leary approve a decision to form a football team to begin play in the fall of 1979 as an NCAA Division III program. Former professional football player Don Jonas becomes the school’s first coach on a volunteer basis. On Aug. 28, 148 prospective players participate in the program’s first practice. Less than one month later on Sept. 22, UCF travels to St. Leo for its first game and wins 21-0. Bobby Joe Plain scores the school’s first touchdown on a 13-yard pass reception from Mike Cullison in the first quarter. The following week, UCF plays its first home contest at the Tangerine Bowl and posts a 7-6 victory over Fort Benning in front of 14,188 fans.

1980

• After the UCF Athletic Authority votes in January to make the football head coaching job a full-time position, Don Jonas is selected for the role. The Knights win four games during the campaign and in an 18-14 victory over Emory and Henry, Michael O’Shaughnessy tallies a school-record five sacks. Following the season, cornerback Tim Kiggins earns third-team All-America honors and becomes the first UCF player to sign a professional contract when he joins the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

• Following Don Jonas’ resignation, associate head coach Sam Weir is named the program’s interim head coach. New athletics director Bill Peterson announces that UCF will compete as a Division II program during the year. With the move to D-II, the school begins awarding athletics scholarships. Following the season, four Knights sign professional contracts: tight end Mike Carter with the National Football League’s Denver Broncos and defensive end Ed Gantner, linebacker Bill Giovanetti and offensive lineman Mike Sommerfield with the Tampa Bay Bandits of the United States Football League. Following the season, New York Yankees president and former Buffalo Bills head coach Lou Saban is named UCF’s head coach.

Culpepper breaks Steve Young's 1983 single-season completion percentage record of 71.3 by completing 73.6 percent of his passes. He becomes only the third player in school history to pass for more than 10,000 yards and rush for more than 1,000 yards in a career. Culpepper concludes the year with more than 30 school records to his credit. The signal caller finishes sixth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy and is named national co-player of the year by The Sports Network. Culpepper becomes UCF's first National Football League first-round draft pick as the Minnesota Vikings select him 11th overall. Cornerback Paul Miranda is taken in the fourth round by the Indianapolis Colts.

• UCF's football program moves into its new home as the state-of-the-art Wayne Densch Sports Center opens just 16 months after construction began. The school accepts an invitation into Conference USA for all sports. The Knights will end their brief football affiliation with the Mid-American Conference after 2004. The year serves as the 25th season of UCF football. After a 3-7 start, head coach Mike Kruczek is relieved of his duties and longtime assistant Alan Gooch is promoted to interim head coach for the final two games. Gooch makes his coaching debut when the Knights play Marshall on ESPN2 in Orlando. The contest serves as UCF's first nationally-televvised home game. Following the season, George O'Leary is selected as UCF's new head coach. Tight end Michael Gaines is taken in the seventh round of the National Football League Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

• The Knights win their inaugural Conference USA contest, recording a 23-13 win over visiting Marshall. The victory snaps a 17-game losing streak for the Knights. The team goes on to win eight contests, including seven in league play, during the regular season. UCF hosts the inaugural C-USA Championship Game, which is played in front of a school-record 51,978 fans at the Citrus Bowl. Despite falling to Tulsa in the title game, UCF earns an invitation to the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, marking the first bowl game in program history. The Knights post one of the top turnarounds in college football history, going 8-5 after an 0-11 campaign in 2004. Head coach George O'Leary is named the C-USA Coach of the Year, in addition to garnering national coach of the year honors from CBSsports.com and SportsIllustrated.com. Tailback Kevin Smith garners the C-USA Freshman of the Year award. Wideout Brandon Marshall is selected in the fourth round of the National Football League Draft by the Denver Broncos. During the year, the UCF Board of Trustees approves a financing plan for an on-campus stadium that will open in 2007.

• With a 5-1 record at home, UCF closes out 2011 with a 5-7 overall mark while going 3-5 in Conference USA. Of its seven losses, six come by seven points or less. The Knights have six selections to the C-USA All-Freshman Team, the most by any school since 2008. That is highlighted by kick returner Rannell Hall who is the lone freshman in the entire league to grab a spot on the All-C-USA First Team. After the season, Josh Robinson is taken by Minnesota in the NFL Draft's third round, and the Knights accept an invitation to join the BIG EAST Conference (American Athletic Conference created in 2013) Dec. 7 and conduct an official press conference one day later at Bright House Networks Stadium. UCF is slated to begin play in the league during the 2013-14 academic year.

• UCF introduces itself to the American Athletic Conference by going undefeated (8-0) in league play to claim the conference's inaugural title. Earning a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, the Knights ignore their role as the underdog and topple Baylor to finish 12-1 on the season, one in which included seven victories by seven points or less. The "Year of Firsts" was highlighted by: first wins over Big Ten and Big 12 teams, first top-15 ranking, first top-10 ranking (finished No. 10 in the AP Poll), first BCS bowl berth and victory, first 12-win season, first time going undefeated on the road and first two victories over top-10 teams. Head coach George O'Leary picks up The American's Coach of the Year award and quarterback Blake Bortles receives The American's Offensive Player of the Year honors. In all, six Knights are named to The American's First Team. Bortles and running back Storm Johnson declare for the NFL Draft, with Bortles becoming the highest selection in UCF history when he was picked third overall by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Johnson also heard his name called by the Jaguars as he was taken in the seventh round.

• Hoisting the American Athletic Conference trophy for the second straight year, UCF clinched back-to-back titles with a thrilling Hail Mary touchdown on the game's final play at East Carolina for a 7-1 league mark. The season started with the Knights' first international trip, serving as the host institution for the Croke Park Classic in Dublin, Ireland. A total of five Knights received All-AAC First Team status in 2014, including cornerback Jacoby Glenn who was voted as The American Co-Defensive Player of the Year. He also would grab a spot on the Associated Press All-America Second Team. Breshad Perriman hears his name called in the first round (26th pick) of the NFL Draft by Baltimore, while Clayton Geathers is selected by Indianapolis in the fourth round. It marks the first time UCF has had a first-round pick in consecutive seasons. After the draft, nine more Knights sign free-agent deals with NFL organizations.

• The first year of the Scott Frost era at UCF saw the former Oregon offensive coordinator take the Knights from 0-12 to a bowl game, finishing 6-7 on the year. One of the top turnarounds in the nation, Frost's Knights were the first team to go from winless to a bowl game since UCF did it from 2004 to 2005. Linebacker Shaquem Griffin burst onto the scene in Frost's defensive system, earning First Team All-Conference and American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. Four Knights were honored by The American in all as Shaquill Griffin and Jamiyus Pittman earned Second Team honors and Drico Johnson was named an Honorable Mention. Shaquill went on to be selected in the third round of the NFL Draft, while five members of the UCF defensive back field signed NFL contracts (Johnson, D.J. Killings, T.J. Mutcherson, Jeremy Boykins).

• The Knights went undefeated in 2017, winning the American Athletic Conference East Division, their third American Athletic Conference Championship, the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, and claiming a National Championship. UCF finished the season ranked sixth in the Associated Press Poll and seventh in the Coaches Poll, receiving four first place votes in the AP Poll. The Knights were ranked number one in the nation by the Colley Matrix, an NCAA National Champion Major Selector. McKenzie Milton burst onto the scene, earning American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and Archie Griffin National Player of the Year honors, while finishing eighth in the Heisman voting. A record in The American, 16 players were named all-conference, including nine first teamers. The Knights had four All-Americans in Milton, Shaquem Griffin, Mike Hughes and Tre'Quan Smith. Hughes became the fourth Knight to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, while Smith and Jordan Akins went in the third round and Griffin heard his name called in the fifth.

• The first season under head coach Josh Heupel was another success for the UCF football program. The Knights finished the 2018 regular season undefeated for the second straight year, advancing to the American Athletic Conference Championship and winning their second straight league title. Heupel became one of just three coaches to have gone undefeated in their first season as a head coach, joining Chris Peterson (Boise State, 2003) and Larry Coaker (Miami, 2001). The Knights extended their program-record winning streak to 25 games before falling to LSU in the Fiesta Bowl. It was the longest streak in the nation at the time and the fourth longest win streak in FBS since the year 2000. The rushing attack for UCF was one of the best in the nation in 2018. Led by Greg McCrae, who went for 1,182 yards on the ground, rushing for a school record and second-best in the nation 8.9 yards per carry. The Knights set new program bests of 3,448 rushing yards, 265.2 rushing yards per game, 43 rushing touchdowns and a team average of 5.8 yards per carry. McKenzie Milton led a conference record 17 all-conference honors, earning AAC Offensive Player of the Year honors for the second straight season. He also finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting despite missing the final two games of the season due to injury.

• In Josh Heupel's second season, UCF recorded its third straight 10-win season and earned its fourth consecutive bowl berth, a first in program history. The Knights finished 10-3 with all three losses coming on the road by a total of seven points. UCF was undefeated at home for the third straight year, extending its nation-leading home win streak to 21 games. The Knights' total offense of 540.5 yards per game ranked second in the nation and set a new school record. Finishing 24th in both the AP and Coaches polls, it marked the third straight season and fifth time this decade UCF finished ranked in the top 25. UCF put 12 players on the American Athletic Conference All-Conference Teams, which included Gabriel Davis, Jake Brown and Richie Grant earning first-team honors. Davis also became the Knights' 42nd NFL Draft pick, going to the Buffalo Bills in the fourth round.

RICK HAMILTON*inducted in 2006

As a standout linebacker and a knowledgeable scholar of the game, Rick Hamilton's stellar career did not stop with UCF. A Knight from 1989-92, Hamilton ranks as the school's all-time leader in tackles (443). He also recorded at least 100 tackles in three of his four seasons with UCF, including the second-most single-season total of 149. Following graduation, Hamilton was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins. He went on to play with the Kansas City Chiefs and New York Jets.

GREG JEFFERSON*inducted in 2011

A star defensive end at UCF from 1991-94, Greg Jefferson finished his career second in sacks with 31, and he had 42 tackles for loss, the seventh-most at UCF. Jefferson finished with 181 tackles, and holds school records for PATs blocked in season and career. He also holds the single-season and career field goals blocked records, having registered three in 1993. Jefferson totaled 15 sacks as a junior, good for second at UCF, and garnered Sports Network All-America honorable mention honors as a senior, and was selected in the third round of the 1995 NFL Draft by Philadelphia.

SHAWN JEFFERSON*inducted in 2002

A wide receiver for UCF from 1988-90, Shawn Jefferson was a part of the team that guided the Knights to the FCS semifinals in 1990. He finished his career with three 100-yard receiving games and ranks seventh in the UCF annals for the longest reception (76-yard touchdown). Jefferson was drafted in 1991 by the Houston Oilers and spent 14 seasons in the NFL, playing with Atlanta, New England, San Diego and Detroit.

DON JONAS*inducted in 2013

Don Jonas served as UCF's first head football coach from 1979-81. His position was as a volunteer before he earned full-time status in 1980. Jonas produced a 14-12-1 record with an 11-6-1 mark at home. He resigned after 1981 to become the director of the UCF Gridiron Club. Before joining UCF, Jonas was selected by Philadelphia in the 1961 NFL Draft. While with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, he won the 1971 Schendley Award as the CFL's Most Outstanding Player.

JORGE MAGLUTA
 inducted in 2011

Jorge Magluta spent time as both an offensive and defensive lineman during his UCF career from 1982-85. He earned a spot on the Orlando Sentinel's UCF 25th Anniversary Team at OG. Magluta played on UCF's first team at the Division II level in 1982, and in 1983, helped the Knights post their first win over an FCS opponent as UCF defeated host Austin Peay, 10-7.

BRANDON MARSHALL
 inducted in 2019

Brandon Marshall is still among the best ever at the receiver position for UCF, with his name still listed in the Top 10 in numerous statistical categories. He was a fourth-round NFL Draft pick in 2006. He has played 13 seasons in the NFL for the Broncos, Dolphins, Bears, Jets, Giants, Seahawks and Saints. He is a six-time Pro Bowl selection an All-Pro in 2015. He led the league in receiving touchdowns in 2015 with the Jets. Marshall was so valuable to his team at UCF, he played both offense and defense in 2004.

MANNY MESSEGUER
 inducted in 2011

Manny Messeguer has missed only a few games in UCF football history, and currently serves as an assistant to head coach

George O'Leary. In 1982, he became a UCF Athletics donor leader and has since served the program in numerous capacities, including as a radio network sideline reporter and a personal pilot for former head coach Gene McDowell. Messeguer spent 18 years as GM/VP of Tropical Ford, and served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam era and remains instrument rated as a private pilot.

ED O'BRIEN
 inducted in 2008

One of UCF's most decorated kickers, Ed O'Brien was named a Kodak and Football News First Team All-America player in 1987, and also earned AP All-America Second Team honors that year. A record-holder for the longest field goal made (55 yards) at UCF, O'Brien was the first to hit four field goals in a game and the first to make nine extra points in a contest. His 50 career field goals are second all-time, while his 77 field goal attempts rank first. In 2004, he earned honorable mention recognition on the Orlando Sentinel's 25th Anniversary UCF Football Team.

GEORGE O'LEARY
 inducted in 2019

O'Leary coached the Knights from 2004-2015, putting the program on the map with important victories and highly-successful seasons. O'Leary guided the Knights to a 12-1 record in 2013, which was then a program-record for victories in a season. That year was capped off with a 52-42 victory over Baylor in the Fiesta Bowl and a No. 10-ranking in the Associated Press poll, which was then the highest ranking the Knights had ever attained. O'Leary was responsible for UCF's first-ever bowl game, first-ever bowl win and its first four conference championships. He also oversaw the modernization of UCF's Football Facilities, including the addition of Nicholson Fieldhouse and (then) Bright House Networks Stadium.

MICHAEL O'SHAUGHNESSY
 inducted in 2010

Michael O'Shaughnessy was an original UCF football team member and racked up 22 career sacks. He established a school record for sacks in a game with five against Emory & Henry during 1979, and was the team's Most Spirited Player in 1980 as voted on by his teammates. He continued serving UCF as an assistant offense line coach in 1981, was the founder and first President of the UCF Letterman's K Club, a member of the Knights Booster Board of Directors and was a radio sideline reporter from 1990-94. He also was a member of the baseball team in 1979. After college, he competed in the Iron Man Triathlon, was a two-time and current Guinness World record holder in the sport of paddle boarding and received the Alumnus of the Decade Award at UCF's 40th anniversary celebration.

DAVID RHODES
 inducted in 2003

One of the best wide receivers to come through UCF, David Rhodes capped off his record-breaking career with back-to-back

All-America honors in 1993 and 1994. Rhodes is the only Knight to record three seasons with at least 1,000-yards receiving and ranks first in career TDs with 29. He finished as the Knights' all-time leader in receptions (213), receiving yardage (3,618) and 100-yard receiving games (16). Following his time with the Knights, he signed with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals and later played in NFL Europe.

DARRELL RUDD

One of the most consistently dominating defensive linemen in Knights history, Darrell Rudd claimed record after record during his time at UCF. He holds six school records, and shares one, all of which have gone unmatched from when they were originally set. The records include most tackles in a season (150), fumbles recovered in a game (3), season (6) and career (11). Rudd recorded a record 19.5 sacks in 1984 and had 31.5 in his career. He earned an honorable mention spot on Orlando Sentinel's 25th Anniversary UCF Football Team.

SCOTT RYERSON
 inducted in 2002

An Orlando product, Scott Ryerson kicked his way into UCF history. At the conclusion of his sophomore season in 1981, he earned All-America honors after leading the team in scoring with 62 points, and connecting on four field goals of 50 yards or longer, a school record. He is tied for the most field goals made in a game (4). Ryerson, who leads all UCF kickers with the seven field goals made of 50 yards or more, later signed a free agent deal with the Atlanta Falcons.

ASANTE SAMUEL
 inducted in 2015

A memorable playmaker from 1999-02, Asante Samuel had 127 tackles, eight interceptions, 38 break-ups, 63 punt returns for 673 yards and 10 kickoff returns for 168 yards. He ranks eighth in career picks, while his 38 break-ups are first at UCF. Samuel also sits among the top punt returners for season return average (12.3 in 2002, #6) and career average (10.7, #6). He was a 2002 All-MAC First-Team selection, and as a junior in 2001 was an All-Independent First-Team selection by Football News. After UCF, Samuel was drafted by the New England Patriots in the fourth round in 2003 and went on to become a three-time Super Bowl champion, and a four-time Pro Bowl selection in 11 NFL seasons. He holds the NFL Postseason record with four interceptions returned for a touchdown and 227 interception return yards.

KEVIN SMITH
 inducted in 2019

Smith was a consensus All-America choice in 2007. He rushed for 2,567 yards and 29 touchdowns during his senior season, when he was the Conference USA Player of the Year and a First Team All-CUSA selection. He also finished eighth in Heisman Trophy voting following his final season as a Knight. His 2,567 yards were second-most ever at the time. Smith was a third-round pick in the NFL Draft and played five seasons with the Lions. After spending three seasons on the UCF Football staff (2015-17), Smith was named running backs coach at Florida Atlantic University.

MARQUETTE SMITH
 inducted in 2005

One of only two rushers at UCF to rush for more than 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons, local product Marquette Smith set a then single-season school-record for rushing yards (1,511) and touchdowns (14) in 1995. Following that year, he earned second-team All-America honors. Despite having played just two seasons with the Knights, Smith is fourth all-time in career rushing yards with 2,569. His career did not come to a halt when he left UCF, as Carolina selected him in the fifth round of the 1996 NFL Draft.

BOB SPITULSKI
 inducted in 2009

Bob Spitulski dominated at outside linebacker during his four-year UCF career and ultimately was drafted in the third round by Seattle. Spitulski still ranks highly on several UCF career defensive record charts and retains the school's benchmark with seven tackles-for-loss in a single game (vs. Savannah State, Nov. 2, 1991). He led the team in sacks in three of his four seasons and went on to earn third-team All-America honors by the AP in 1991 as a senior. He also helped UCF to the 1990 FCS semifinals.

2005 SHERATON HAWAII BOWL

NEVADA	49
UCF	48

December 24, 2005 | Honolulu, Hawaii | Aloha Stadium

HONOLULU - UCF dropped a 49-48 overtime decision to Nevada in the 2005 Sheraton Hawaii Bowl, the first bowl game in school history. The Knights finished the season with an 8-5 record, just one year after going 0-11. The turnaround of seven games from 2004 placed UCF tied with seven other schools for the fourth-best single-season turnaround in Football Bowl Subdivision history.

UCF kicker Matt Prater, who had three field goals during the game, missed the game-tying extra point wide right, giving the Wolf Pack the win.

B.J. Mitchell ran for 178 yards and two touchdowns, and Robert Hubbard had 126 yards rushing and three touchdowns for the Wolf Pack (9-3), who finished with their best season since 1996 and spoiled UCF's bowl debut.

UCF's Brandon Marshall caught a 16-yard pass for a touchdown that tied the game at 42 with 55 seconds left. The score capped a four-play, 48-yard drive that took just 37 seconds.

Prater booted a 46-yard field goal with 1:32 left to draw UCF to 42-35, and the Knights recovered the onside kick with no time-outs left, setting up Marshall's dramatic catch that sent the game into overtime.

Trailing 32-28, the Wolf Pack took the lead on Hubbard's 5-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. Nevada scored again on Rowe's 7-yard scoring pass to Travis Branzell for a 42-32 lead with 3:18 remaining.

Kevin Smith, Conference USA's Freshman of the Year, scored on a 78-yard run, the second longest run from scrimmage in UCF history, to give the Knights a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. The run was the longest in school history by a freshman and in UCF's 10-year Football Bowl Subdivision history. The longest run from scrimmage in UCF history was Elgin Davis' 79-yard scoring run vs. Samford (Nov. 15, 1986).

The 78-yard touchdown run by Smith was the second-longest run by a true freshman in the NCAA during the year. It also marked the longest run in Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl history.

2007 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

UCF	3
MISSISSIPPI STATE	10

December 29, 2007 | Memphis, Tenn. | Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - UCF's memorable season came to a close in a 10-3 loss to Mississippi State in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Playing at the site of Paul "Bear" Bryant's final game, the Bulldogs used power running and a dominant defense to top the Knights.

Anthony Dixon powered in from the one for the winning touchdown with 1:54 to go and most valuable player Derek Pegues picked off two passes in a game featuring anemic offenses and 17 punts.

The Bulldogs (8-5) kept the Knights (10-4) out of the end zone and Kevin Smith from breaking the single-season rushing record. The junior finished with 119 yards, leaving him 61 shy of Barry Sanders' mark of 2,628 yards set for Oklahoma State in 1988.

"I was trying to find the holes, but they were playing faster than us," said Smith.

Dixon finished with 86 yards and became the seventh Bulldogs runner to go over 1,000 yards (1,066). But like the rest of the Bulldogs, he was ineffective much of the game.

The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, mostly due to conservative play-calling.

Neither team converted a third down in the first half (0 for 16) as Mississippi State was held to 84 total yards and UCF to 79.

Kyle Israel had 12 yards passing and two interceptions by halftime and Mississippi State's Wes Carroll had 15 yards and an interception. UCF also didn't get much help from kicker Michael Torres, who gave the Knights a 3-0 lead in the second quarter with a 45-yard field goal, but missed from 32 and 37 in the second half.

"I think those missed field goals were big momentum breakers," UCF coach George O'Leary said. "Give Mississippi State credit. They fought hard and didn't turn the ball over. That usually means you're going to come up with a close win like that."

Mississippi State finished with 199 total yards and Blake McAdams tied the Liberty Bowl record with 11 punts. But the Bulldogs came up with just enough big plays after Keith Fitzhugh picked off Israel's pass at the Mississippi State 41 with 5:47 left.

Carroll, pulled the series before, returned and responded with two rushes for 17 yards and two completions for 15 yards. All went for first downs and spurred a 10-play, 59-yard drive that consumed 3:53 and finally led to a touchdown.

Derek Pegues, fittingly, made the final key defensive play, knocking down a fourth-down pass on UCF's final drive. The Bulldogs held the Knights to 219 yards and forced four turnovers.

2009 ST. PETERSBURG BOWL

UCF	24
RUTGERS	45

December 19, 2009 | St. Petersburg, Fla. | Tropicana Field

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The St. Petersburg Bowl presented what seemed to be a perfect storm for UCF on Saturday night with 20,000 of its fans packed inside Tropicana Field and a hot football team positioned for the first bowl victory in school history.

But an avalanche of errors combined with speedy, physical opponent in Rutgers ruined what could have been a dreamy, feel-good night for UCF's program and its hopeful fanbase.

Down four points late in the second quarter, UCF allowed an interception return to sap its momentum and the Knights could never mount much of a comeback in a disappointing 45-24 loss to Rutgers in the second St. Petersburg Bowl presented by Beef 'O' Brady's.

"As I told the players, I'm embarrassed for the football team that we didn't go out and do a better job for the fanbase and for the football program," UCF coach George O'Leary said.

"I thought we beat ourselves a lot in a lot of situations out there," a frustrated O'Leary continued. "Right now, Rutgers defense was just a lot better than our offense and that was the difference in the game."

UCF (8-5) had hoped that the momentum of a strong finish to the regular season, one in which it won the final six conference games and knocked off Marshall, Houston and UAB down the stretch, would carry over to the bowl game. But problems on both sides of the ball sabotaged the Knights' chances of pulling off the upset in this game.

Playing before roughly 29,000 Knights fans among the Tropicana Field crowd of 29,763, UCF netted just 35 yards on the ground, 33 of them coming in the fourth quarter when the outcome of the game was already decided. And in the passing game, two Brett Hodges' interceptions led to 14 points for Rutgers, bowl winners for a fourth consecutive season. And UCF's defense yielded 380 yards and eight third-down conversions.

"The offense put up 14 points and a field goal early and defensively we played our butts off. We didn't want to go out like this, and this is so disappointing," senior defensive tackle Travis Timmons said. "It's just such a big letdown. We're 0-14 now against Big East teams and 0-3 in bowl games. Torrell (Troup), Bruce (Miller) and myself along the defensive line wanted to change all of that, but unfortunately things didn't go the way we wanted them to."

Rutgers (9-4) played like an experienced team in its fifth consecutive bowl, using big plays on offense and an attacking defense to frustrate the Knights. Rutgers got six sacks and two interceptions defensively and freshman quarterback Tom Savage threw for 294 yards and two TDs.

2010 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

UCF	10

December 31, 2010 | Memphis, Tenn. | Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - A UCF football program clearly on the rise as a powerhouse to be reckoned with nationally registered a landmark victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, beating Southeastern Conference power Georgia while registering the school's first-ever bowl victory.

When UCF sophomore safety Kemal Ishmael batted down a Hail Mary pass that seemed to hang in the air forever, it preserved No. 24 UCF's 10-6 defeat of Georgia and set off a wild celebration among the 8,000 Knights' fans who roared with noise inside the Liberty Bowl.

Doing something for a first time is never easy, and this first-ever bowl victory for UCF went down to the final seconds. Georgia quarterback Aaron Murray heaved a pass into the end zone for 6-foot-4 superstar wide out A.J. Green, but Ishmael was there to make the game-saving play that is sure to live in the history of the program for years to come.

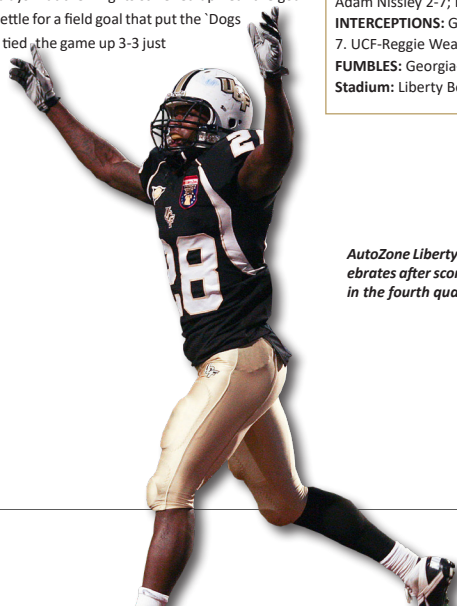

Sophomore tailback Latavius Murray, the game's Outstanding Offensive Player and the MVP, scored on a 10-yard run with 9:01 to play to put the Knights ahead 10-6. And a defense that was dominant a couple of weeks ago in the Conference USA title game made it stand up. They held a Georgia offense that came in averaging 34.3 points a game to just two field goals and no touchdowns.

Freshman quarterback Jeff Godfrey capped a stellar first season on campus, helping the program win a C-USA title and the school's first bowl game. Let the comparisons to UCF legend Daunte Culpepper begin after he joined the school's lore. He completed 16 of 29 passes for 117 yards.

Georgia drove 61 yards on the first drive of the second half, but again had to settle for a Blair Walsh 42-yard field goal when the Knights got crucial pass break-ups from Ishmael and senior cornerback Justin Boddie. That 6-3 Georgia lead would be its final advantage of the game because they couldn't score against UCF's gritty defense.

UCF appeared to have scored first for the 13th time in 14 games when Quincy McDuffie took the opening kickoff back 98 yards. McDuffie, one of only nine players in the nation to return two kicks for touchdowns, hit a seam and sprinted for an apparent touchdown. However, the return was negated by a holding penalty on UCF special teams ace Ronnie Weaver.

Georgia's first drive started at the 2-yard line following a 56-yard boot by UCF senior punter Blake Clingan, but the Bulldogs proceeded to march 95 yards in the next 15 plays. But the Knights stiffened up near the goal line, forcing Georgia to settle for a field goal that put the 'Dogs up 3-0, and the Knights tied the game up 3-3 just before the half.

2012 BEEF O'BRADY'S BOWL

BALL STATE	17
UCF	38

December 21, 2012 | St. Petersburg, Fla. | Tropicana Field

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The slogan of UCF for 2012 was "Finish." And the Knights did just that with an exclamation point in the 2012 Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl. UCF earned its second bowl victory in program history with a 38-17 win over Ball State.

Led by the all-time winningest senior class in school history, UCF clinched its 10th victory of the season behind an impressive effort by the duo of senior running back Latavius Murray and sophomore signal-caller Blake Bortles. Bortles capped his first full season in style, earning MVP honors while finishing 22-of-33 for 271 yards and three passing touchdowns. He also led the team with a career-high 80 yards on the ground and another score.

Murray was just as impressive, cashing in for three touchdowns (all in the first half) and 104 total yards, with 71 on the ground and 33 through the air on a team-high six catches.

The defense also did its part in the drubbing of the Cardinals. Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year Kemal Ishmael finished his career with 367 tackles after recording seven in the contest. He also forced his sixth career fumble and two pass break-ups. Fellow senior defensive end Troy Davis also went out in style with 1.5 sacks to crack the UCF top 10 with 18-career QB take downs.

After winning the toss and receiving the ball to start the game, UCF matriculated down the field, mixing the run and pass well on a 13-play, 78-yard drive that was capped off by a Bortles-to-Murray touchdown connection. The drive ate 7:33 off the clock and was aided by the sophomore QB's ability to evade the pass rush, while also connecting with rookie Breshad Perriman three times for 21 yards and a pair of first downs.

With the defense forcing a quick three-and-out, UCF's offense continued its impressive start with a seven-play 58-yard drive that saw Murray reach pay-dirt on a short 2-yard burst. The Knights closed out the first quarter outgaining the Cardinals, 160-15.

Ball State would settle in, however, with an 82-yard drive for seven points that saw Keith Wenning hit Willie Snead from seven-yards out to make it a 13-7 contest in the second quarter.

UCF responded with Bortles completely taking over on the ensuing drive. The Oviedo native became a dual threat on the drive, rushing three times for 32 yards, including a 6-yard scramble up the middle that saw him bulldoze a pair of Cardinal defenders on his way to the end zone. He capped the scoring drive with UCF's first two-point conversion since Sept. 5, 2009, hitting senior H-back Dontravius Floyd in the back of the end zone.

Ball State drove right back into UCF territory, reaching the Knights' 10-yard line prior to freshman DL Thomas Niles sacking Wenning for an 11-yard loss. The third-down tackle for loss resulted in a much longer field-goal attempt, which sailed well left of the uprights.

Starting on its own 32-yard line with just 55 seconds left in the half, Bortles hit junior Jeff Godfrey and Murray for 12 and 10 yards before launching a 45-yard beauty to a streaking Perriman, who finished with a career-best 90 yards on five catches, on the far side line. The career-long reception led to Bortles hitting Murray for the second time in the half, this time from five yards out with just five ticks left on the first-half clock.

After a 45-yard field goal by Schott to make it 28-10 with 7:54 left in the third quarter, the Cardinals attempted an onside kick that redshirt sophomore running back Cedric Thompson grabbed out of the air safely to set up the Knights at the BSU 49-yard line.

Bortles continued to shred the Ball State defense with the prime field position. He racked up 41 of the next 49 yards through the air, tying his career record and a Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl mark with touchdown pass No. 3 from seven yards out to fellow sophomore J.J. Worton.

Sophomore Shawn Moffitt would cap the Knights' scoring on the year with a 25-yard field goal to make it 38-10. The Cardinals tacked on a late touchdown to account for the final tally of 38-17. On the season, UCF finished with 496 total points, second all-time in program history.

2014 TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL

UCF.....	52
BAYLOR.....	42

January 1, 2014 | Glendale, Ariz. | University of Phoenix Stadium

GLENDALE, Ariz. - The most memorable season in UCF football history ended with the most memorable win in program history. In thrilling fashion, the Knights took a 52-42 triumph over No. 6 Baylor in the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The No. 15 Knights (12-1) won their third-consecutive bowl game and set a school record with their 12th victory of the season. UCF came into the season with just one victory over a ranked opponent and ended the historic effort with their second over a ranked squad in 2013 alone. To make the accomplishment even more impressive, both wins over ranked teams came against Top 10 opponents.

Junior quarterback Blake Bortles was named the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Offensive Player of the Game after racking up 301 passing yards and three touchdowns to go along with a career-high 93 yards rushing and a touchdown.

UCF's offense matched Baylor's high-powered attack every step of the way. The Bears came into the contest leading the NCAA in scoring offense and total offense, but it was the Knights who racked up 52 points and 558 total yards for the victory. The points and yardage were the largest totals ever by UCF in a bowl game and against a ranked opponent.

Much was said before the game about how the Knights' defense would stack up against Baylor's up-tempo offense. UCF, however, came into the game with the 13th-ranked scoring defense in the nation. The Knights forced seven Baylor punts and two turnovers, while holding the Bears 11 points and 75 yards beneath their season averages.

The Knights began to put the wild back-and-forth affair on ice when Storm Johnson ripped off a 40-yard touchdown run to give UCF a 49-35 advantage with 10:26 remaining. Johnson set a new career high with 124 rushing yards and matched his season-high mark with three rushing touchdowns. The Knights accounted for the winning total with a 36-yard field goal from Shawn Moffitt with less than five minutes remaining.

UCF got off to a roaring start. After receiving the opening kickoff, the Knights churned out 76 yards in six rush attempts, capped off by an 11-yard touchdown burst by Johnson. This marked the first touchdown drive of the season for the Knights that came without a single pass attempt.

After forcing a three-and-out, the Black and Gold again marched down the field, primarily on the strength of its rushing attack. After Bortles found Breshad Perriman streaking down the left sideline for a 34-yard gain, UCF returned to its ground control attack with four consecutive running plays. Johnson's 2-yard touchdown plunge gave the Knights a 14-0 advantage just eight minutes into the contest.

Junior Rannell Hall proved once again that his nickname, "Speedy" is appropriate as he took two short, second-quarter passes to the house. Both catches were made near the line of scrimmage and featured Hall out-running the Baylor secondary, with help from some terrific blocking from fellow wideouts Josh Reese, J.J. Worton and Taylor Oldham.

While Bortles brought home Offensive Player of the Game honors, Terrance Plummer was named Defensive Player of the Game. The junior linebacker racked up a game-high 14 tackles, including half a sack. Sean Maag (12 tackles) and Clayton Geathers (10 tackles) both recorded double-digit stops as well.

2014 BITCOIN ST. PETERSBURG BOWL

NC STATE	34
UCF	27

December 26, 2014 | St. Petersburg, Fla. | Tropicana Field

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The UCF Knights fell just short of another stirring comeback at Tropicana Field in the Bitcoin St. Petersburg Bowl. UCF trailed North Carolina State 34-13 in the fourth quarter, and mounted a rally before falling, 34-27.

A Niklas Sade field goal put the Wolfpack on top by 21 points with 12:37 remaining in the contest. But senior captain Josh Reese, who scored all three of the UCF (9-4) touchdowns, hauled in a 14-yard strike from quarterback Justin Holman less than three minutes later, bringing a huge, partisan UCF crowd back into the game.

When the UCF defense got a three-and-out, the Knights' faithful really began believing. However, a Holman interception slowed the Knights' momentum mid-way through the fourth quarter.

NC State (8-5) had two empty possessions, punting and missing a field goal, but a great deal of time ran off the clock.

The Knights started moving the ball again when they took over with 2:56 remaining. Just 1:12 later, Reese found the end zone a third time on a 2-yard pass from Holman. That score pulled UCF within seven points, 34-27.

With 1:44 remaining and no timeouts, the Knights needed to recover an onside kick to have a chance. NC State secured the kick and was able to run out the clock.

Meanwhile, thousands of Knight fans chanted "UCF! UCF! UCF!" and saluted their team as they left the field. An estimated 20,000-plus UCF fans made the short trip and were a part of a near-sellout of 26,675.

The Knights opened the scoring on the first possession of the game. A 40-yard Shawn Moffitt field goal put the Knights on top 3-0. But NC State answered on its first possession with an 18-yard halfback pass to Jaylen Samuels to go on top 7-3. The Knights regained the lead 10-7 early in the second quarter. Holman rifled a pass to Reese at the goal line from six yards out.

But it was all Wolfpack for the next two-plus quarters, as NC State out-scored the Knights 27-3 to go on top by 21 points. Wolfpack quarterback Jacoby Brissett found a wide open Johnathan Alston for a 37-yard score to make it 14-10. An NC State field goal with 3:16 remaining in the first half pushed the score to 17-10 at halftime. Matt Dayes ran up the middle for a 19-yard score on the opening drive of the second half, putting the Wolfpack on top 24-10. The Knights got three points back after Wolfpack turnover, with Moffitt hitting from 36 yards out to make it 24-13. NC State answered with another Dayes score, as he went untouched up the middle late in the third, making it 31-13.

For the game, the Wolfpack out-gained the Knights 487-373. Brissett was named the game's MVP after passing for 262 yards and rushing for 31 more. Holman threw for 291 yards on 23-of-53 with three scores to pace the UCF offense. Breshad Perriman had nine receptions for 138 yards. Defensively, UCF was led by senior captain Clayton Geathers, who racked up 14 tackles.

2016 AUTONATION CURE BOWL

ARKANSAS STATE	31
UCF	13

December 17, 2016 | Orlando, Fla. | Camping World Stadium

ORLANDO – The UCF football team couldn’t overcome a number of miscues in Saturday night’s Cure Bowl, falling to Arkansas State 31-13.

Despite the outcome, UCF head coach Scott Frost expressed the amount of pride he has in what the Knights accomplished this season. He had a message of gratitude for the seniors, who played their final game in the Black & Gold.

“What this team has accomplished, I’m proud of them, happy for them. I’m hungry to accomplish more,” Frost said. “I had a simple message for our team. I thanked the seniors. Everything we say about our seniors we mean from the bottom of our heart. These guys could have gone a lot of different directions. They didn’t have to sacrifice and put in the effort and be leaders for our team and totally take a new direction in a new way of doing things that our coaching staff was asking them to do. They all did; they all led us. I’m proud to be their coach.”

The Red Wolves scored 14 points off turnovers and added a touchdown on a blocked punt, which opened the scoring. Those 17 points were a huge difference in a contest where the two defenses were dominant. Arkansas State rushed for just 29 yards, while the Knights only managed 12. UCF passed for 211 yards, while the Red Wolves threw it for 205. Neither squad managed more than 234 yards. Combined, the two teams were 6-for-35 on third down.

“I think when either team’s defense is on the field it was the superior unit on the field and we kind of knew that going in,” Frost said.

A nightmare first quarter for UCF left Arkansas State with a 17-0 lead after 15 minutes of play. A blocked punt was recovered in the end zone for the Red Wolves. A long Arkansas State pass play led to a field goal to make it 10-0. On the ensuing kickoff, a fumble set the Red Wolves up with a short field that was converted into a touchdown to account for the 17 points.

The Knights found some offense in the second quarter. Tre’Quan Smith made another of his patented circus catches. The 34-yard completion set up an 11-yard scoring strike from McKenzie Milton to a wide-open Taylor Oldham. Following an Arkansas State fumble, Matthew Wright converted a 45-yard field goal to pull the Knights within seven, 17-10 at the intermission.

But a 75-yard touchdown pass less than a minute into the third quarter swung the momentum back to Arkansas State. Wright’s second field goal of the game late in the third quarter got the Knights back within 11, 24-13. The Red Wolves took over deep in UCF territory late in the third quarter on a fumbled UCF punt and turned it into a touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter, accounting for the final tally.

2018 CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL

UCF	34
AUBURN	27

January 1, 2018 | Atlanta, Ga. | Mercedes-Benz Stadium

ATLANTA, Ga. (UCFknights.com) – Behind 21 unanswered points in the second half, the UCF football team capped a perfect 13-0 season with a 34-27 win over No. 7 Auburn in the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on New Year’s Day.

Down seven late in the third quarter, the No. 12 Knights stormed back into the game. Quarterback McKenzie Milton hit Otis Anderson on a screen pass that the freshman took to the end zone to tie the game with 1:30 to play in the third. Following a Tigers punt, the Knights offense drove back into Auburn territory. Milton danced around a few would-be tacklers, stepped up in the pocket and found a cutting Dredrick Snelson from eight yards out to give the Knights a 27-20 lead.

Auburn took over at their own 20-yard line with 6:58 left to play and a chance to even the score. Tigers quarterback Jarrett Stidham threw a pass that was intended for a cutting receiver for a short gain, but senior Chequan Burkett stepped in front to intercept the pass. The native of Montgomery, Ala., had no one in front of him and sprinted 45 yards to the end zone for the game-winning score.

Burkett, along with Shaquem Griffin and the UCF defense, gave the Tigers all they could handle. UCF racked up a season-high six sacks and 11 tackles for loss. UCF recorded a pair of takeaways. In addition to Burkett’s pick-six, A.J. Wooten set up the Knights’ first touchdown in the second quarter. The redshirt junior jarred the ball loose from Stidham, and it bounced into the hands of Tre Neal, which later led to an 18-yard scoring run for Milton.

MCKENZIE FRENZY

- Milton was 16-of-35 for 242 and a pair of passing touchdowns and added a score on the ground, earning Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl Offensive MVP honors.
- After slow start in the first half, Milton was nearly unstoppable in the second half. He completed 13 of 18 passes for 212 yards.
- The sophomore led the team in rushing with a career-high 116 yards for 8.9 yards per carry.

Milton now holds the UCF record for single-season rushing yards by a quarterback. The previous record was 566, set by Jeff Godfrey in 2010. Milton finished the season with 613.

2019 PLAYSTATION FIESTA BOWL

LSU	40
UCF	32

January 1, 2019 | Glendale, Ariz. | State Farm Stadium

GLENDALE, Ariz. (UCFKnights.com) – Senior defensive lineman Titus Davis took a knee on the 35-yard-line, his silence only interrupted by teammates who approached to extend their hand or a hug.

Senior linebacker Pat Jasinski hugged quarterback McKenzie Milton and told him he loved him like a brother.

Senior punter Mac Loudermilk thanked a slew of teammates one by one before taking a moment for himself to stand near the end zone and soak up the scene before him as memories of the past five years brought tears to his eyes.

The No. 7 UCF football team didn't get the ride-off-into-the-sunset ending it was hoping for in its 40-32 loss to No. 11 LSU at Tuesday's PlayStation Fiesta Bowl.

But this journey was something they'll never forget.

"I wouldn't trade this for anything in the world. Do I wish this game would have come out a little bit differently? Yeah. It's bittersweet," Loudermilk said. "What I want is for people to know this team pushes through any adversity there is, no matter what it is. I hope we stir the pot for expansion. I hope we've opened some people's eyes that we play real ball, and we can play with anybody. There is no limit to this team. Orlando has a hometown team and I think the school is only going to skyrocket from here."

The Streak that Knight Nation will Always Remember

The Knights' spectacular win streak came to an end after 25 games and a span of 745 days, dating to Aug. 31, 2017. The accomplishment will be listed in the NCAA record book among the longest win streaks ever recorded and marks the fourth-longest win streak this millennium (Miami, 34 – 2000-03; Florida State, 29 – 2012-14; Alabama, 26 – 2015-16).

During the last two years, the Knights won two War On I-4 rivalry matchups against USF. They bested four different nationally ranked opponents. They set an American Athletic Conference record for all-conference honorees in a single season. They welcomed ESPN's iconic show College GameDay to campus for the first time. They won two conference championships. They won the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and celebrated a national championship season.

And despite all that, those accomplishments will always fall second to the brotherhood and family they gained.

"I told the team in the locker room, 'You wipe y'all tears,'" linebacker Nate Evans said. "I know it's hard for some of these seniors, it's their last game. But football doesn't last forever. It's just a game. It's going to end. The memories that we have together as this UCF football team (are) going to last forever."

2019 BAD BOY MOWERS GASPARILLA BOWL

MARSHALL 25

December 23, 2019 | Tampa, Fla. | Raymond James Stadium

TAMPA - After nearly a month off from playing, the UCF football team got things started quickly on Monday afternoon, scoring 21 points in the first eight minutes on the way to 48-25 victory over Marshall at the 2019 Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

Two of the Knights' (10-3) first three scores came from the defense, as Richie Grant snagged his first pick of the season and returned it 39 yards for a touchdown on the third play from scrimmage.

After punts from both teams, freshman Dillon Gabriel led a 6-play, 65-yard drive that culminated with a 26-yard Greg McCrae touchdown to put the Knights up 14-0 less than six minutes into the game.

Marshall (8-5) then began a drive at its own 21-yard line and advanced it to UCF's 40-yard line, before the Knights defense struck again. Tre'Mon Morris-Brash knocked down a backwards pass and picked it up to record the first forced fumble and the first fumble recovery of his career. Better than that, he then ran 55 yards to the end zone to give his team a 21-0 advantage it never looked back from.

A penalty-riddled, defensive-minded second quarter came and went with the Knights going into the locker room with a 24-7 lead.

The offense took its turn after the break, as the two teams totaled 39 combined points in the third quarter. Following the hour-long period, UCF found itself leading 45-25.

Gabriel, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player after the win, hit Otis Anderson on a 4th-and-7 screen pass that went 35 yards to paydirt to get things started in the quarter. Gabriel also rushed for a score and connected with Marlon Williams on a 75-yard score down the sideline to give the Knights a 45-25 lead heading into the final frame.

The Knights' offense controlled the clock and the defense kept the Herd at bay in the fourth quarter. Dylan Barnas's second field goal of the game, at the 9:01 mark, was the lone score of the period, and UCF left Tampa with the 48-25 victory over its former rival.

The Knights' 586 yards of total offense and 310 yards rushing both marked program records in a bowl game, while the 48 points were just four points shy of the 52 scored against Baylor in the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The defense totaled five turnovers on the day, another UCF bowl-game record.

The game's MVP, Gabriel finished the day 14-of-24 for 260 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions. The true freshman also added a score on the ground.

UCF finished the 2019 season at 10-3, the program's third straight 10-win season, a first for UCF.

On Sept. 29, 1979, Camping World Stadium, known back then to the Orlando community as the Tangerine Bowl, opened its doors for a hometown, start-up football program guided by Don Jonas. The Florida Citrus Bowl for much of the Knights' run, the crown jewel of the Orlando Centroplex was home for UCF until the 2007 season when Spectrum Stadium - then Bright House Networks Stadium - was erected on the UCF campus.

Jonas was the first of seven men that led the Knights onto the field at the Citrus Bowl with George O'Leary being the last. The relationship witnessed more than 100 Knight victories and came to an end when the Black and Gold ran through the Citrus Bowl tunnel one last time on Nov. 25, 2006, against UAB.

The Citrus Bowl saw the Knights' football program rise through the division ranks of the NCAA, starting as a Division III member in 1979, to making the move to Division II in time for the 1982 season, then on to Football Championship Division status in 1990 before finally emerging at the top level as a Football Bowl Subdivision member in 1997.

The Knights were victorious in their inaugural game at the stadium, defeating Fort Benning 7-6 in front of 14,138 fans. Quarterback Mike Cullison's touchdown pass to Bobby Joe Plain on a fourth-and-goal was the first Knight score in the venue and proved to be the difference in the game. UCF fans would go on to set a Division III record as an average of 11,420 fans attended the Knights' four home games that season.

During UCF's 28-year stretch when it called the Citrus Bowl home, the stadium was the platform for some great UCF moments. The final home game vs. UAB in 2006 served as the final opportunity to add to that long, memorable list, and the Knights did not disappoint. Quarterback Kyle Israel found Mike Sims-Walker twice in the first quarter for a pair of touchdowns and the Black and Gold did not look back, defeating the Blazers 31-22. The crowd of 23,755 broke the 200,000 mark for the first time in school history, as the Knights saw a then-school record 220,980 fans flock through the gates in 2006.

UCF completed its tenure at the Florida Citrus Bowl with a 112-59-1 record. The Knights outscored their opponents 5,136-3,496 in 172 games with the 5,000th point coming on a Michael Torres extra point against Villanova Sept. 2, 2006.

BY THE NUMBERS

7

Record number of touchdown passes by a Knight. Darin Slack achieved the feat during a 52-14 trouncing of West Georgia in 1987.

8

Number of 300-yard passing games Daunte Culpepper had during his illustrious career with UCF. Also the jersey number worn by the first-round NFL draft pick, who had a total of 15 300-yard passing games during his career as a Knight.

11

Most consecutive home wins by UCF in the Citrus Bowl. The streak started on Nov. 2, 1996, with a 42-15 victory over Illinois State on Homecoming.

21

Largest margin overcome by the Knights in a victory. UCF fell behind 21-0 in the first quarter, but rallied for a 28-24 win over Illinois State on Oct. 20, 1984.

23

Tackles recorded by Bill Giovanetti in the 1979 season-finale against Morehouse. The total still stands as the all-time record for single-game tackles by a Knight.

50

Highest number of points scored in a half by the Knights. UCF went on to defeat Akron, 57-17, on Nov. 3, 2001.

55

Longest field goal by a Knight. Ed O'Brien drilled the booming kick to help UCF pull out a 39-37 victory over Bethune-Cookman on Sept. 7, 1985.

64

The greatest margin of victory for the Knights. UCF thumped Grand Valley State 67-3 on Halloween in 1987.

100

The Knights' 100th victory on their home field was a 28-17 win over Akron on Homecoming, Oct. 26, 2002.
